¹⁸Let their lying lips be silenced,
for with pride and contempt
they speak arrogantly against the righteous.
¹⁹How great is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you,
which you bestow in the sight of all
on those who take refuge in you.
²⁰In the shelter of your presence you hide them
from human intrigues;

^c7 Or hill country ^d9 Or there if I am silenced ^a10 Or guilt ^b17 Hebrew Sheol

in your dwelling you keep them safe from accusing tongues.

- ²¹ Praise be to the LORD,
for he showed his wonderful love to
me
when I was in a besieged city.
²² In my alarm I said,
"I am cut off from your sight!"
Yet you heard my cry for mercy
when I called to you for help.
²³ Love the LORD, all his saints!
The LORD preserves the faithful,
but the proud he pays back in full.
²⁴ Be strong and take heart,
all you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

Of David. A maskil.^a

- ¹ Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven,
whose sins are covered.
² Blessed are those whose sin the LORD does not count
against them
and in whose spirit is no deceit.
³ When I kept silent,
my bones wasted away
through my groaning all day long.
⁴ For day and night
your hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was sapped
as in the heat of summer. Selah
⁵ Then I acknowledged my sin to
you
and did not cover up my iniquity.
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD"— and you forgave
the guilt of my sin. Selah
⁶ Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to you
while you may be found;
surely the rising of the mighty waters
will not reach them.
⁷ You are my hiding-place;

you will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah

- ⁸ I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you and watch over
you.
⁹ Do not be like the horse or the mule,
which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle
or they will not come to you.
¹⁰ Many are the woes of the wicked,
but the LORD's unfailing love surrounds those who trust in him.
¹¹ Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you
righteous;
sing, all you who are upright in heart!

Psalm 33

- ¹ Sing joyfully to the LORD, you
righteous;
it is fitting for the upright to praise
him.
² Praise the LORD with the harp;
make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre.
³ Sing to him a new song;
play skilfully, and shout for joy.
⁴ For the word of the LORD is right and
true;
he is faithful in all he does.
⁵ The LORD loves righteousness and
justice;
the earth is full of his unfailing love.
⁶ By the word of the LORD were the heavens made.
their starry host by the breath of his
mouth.
⁷ He gathers the waters of the sea into jars;^a
he puts the deep into storehouses.
⁸ Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the people of the world revere
him.

^{a7} Or sea as into a heap

- ⁹For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded, and it stood firm.
- ¹⁰The LORD foils the plans of the
nations;
he thwarts the purposes of the peoples.
- ¹¹But the plans of the LORD stand firm
for ever,
the purposes of his heart through all
generations.
- ¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people he chose for his
inheritance.
- ¹³From heaven the LORD looks down
and sees all humanity;
- ¹⁴from his dwelling-place he watches
all who live on earth—
- ¹⁵he who forms the hearts of all,
who considers everything they do.
- ¹⁶No king is saved by the size of his army;
no warrior escapes by his great
strength.
- ¹⁷A horse is a vain hope for deliverance;
despite all its great strength it cannot save.
- ¹⁸But the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear him,
on those whose hope is in his unfailing love,
- ¹⁹to deliver them from death
and keep them alive in famine.
- ²⁰We wait in hope for the LORD;
he is our help and our shield.
- ²¹In him our hearts rejoice,
for we trust in his holy name.
- ²²May your unfailing love rest upon us,
O LORD,
even as we put our hope in you.
- ³Glorify the LORD with me:
let us exalt his name together.
- ⁴I sought the LORD, and he answered me;
he delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵Those who look to him are radiant;
their faces are never covered with
shame.
- ⁶This poor man called, and the LORD
heard him;
he saved him out of all his troubles.
- ⁷The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him,
and he delivers them.
- ⁸Taste and see that the LORD is good;
blessed are those who take refuge in him.
- ⁹Fear the LORD, you his saints,
for those who fear him lack nothing.
- ¹⁰The lions may grow weak and hungry,
but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
- ¹¹Come, my children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- ¹²Whoever among you loves life
and desires to see many good days,
- ¹³keep your tongue from evil
and your lips from speaking lies.
- ¹⁴Turn from evil and do good;
seek peace and pursue it.
- ¹⁵The eyes of the LORD are on the
righteous
and his ears are attentive to their cry;
- ¹⁶the face of the LORD is against those who do evil,
to cut off the memory of them from
the earth.
- ¹⁷The righteous cry out, and the LORD
hears them;
he delivers them from all their
troubles.
- ¹⁸The LORD is close to the broken-hearted
and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Psalm 34^a

*Of David. When he pretended to be insane before

- ¹I will extol the LORD at all times;
his praise will always be on my lips.
- ²My soul will boast in the LORD;
let the afflicted hear and rejoice.

^aThis psalm is an acrostic poem, the verses of which begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

- ¹⁹The righteous may have many troubles,
but the LORD delivers them from them all;
²⁰he protects all their bones,
not one of them will be broken.
- ²¹Evil will slay the wicked;
the foes of the righteous will be condemned.
- ²²The LORD redeems his servants;
no-one will be condemned who takes refuge in him.

Psalm 35

Of David.

- ¹Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me;
fight against those who fight against me.
- ²Take up shield and buckler;
arise and come to my aid.
- ³Brandish spear and javelin^a
against those who pursue me.
Say to my soul,
"I am your salvation."
- ⁴May those who seek my life be disgraced and put to shame;
may those who plot my ruin be turned back in dismay.
- ⁵May they be like chaff before the wind,
with the angel of the LORD driving them away;
- ⁶may their path be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
- ⁷Since they hid their net for me without cause
and without cause dug a pit for me,
- ⁸may ruin overtake them by surprise—
may the net they hid entangle them,
may they fall into the pit, to their ruin.
- ⁹Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and delight in his salvation.
- ¹⁰My whole being will exclaim,
"Who is like you, O LORD?
You rescue the poor from those too strong for them,
the poor and needy from those who rob them."
- ¹¹Ruthless witnesses come forward;
they question me on things I know nothing about.
- ¹²They repay me evil for good and leave my soul forlorn.
- ¹³Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth
and humbled myself with fasting.
When my prayers returned to me unanswered,
- ¹⁴I went about mourning
as though for my friend or brother.
I bowed my head in grief
as though weeping for my mother.
- ¹⁵But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee;
attackers gathered against me when I was unaware.
They slandered me without ceasing.
- ¹⁶Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked;^b
they gnashed their teeth at me.
- ¹⁷O Lord, how long will you look on?
Rescue my life from their ravages,
my precious life from these lions.
- ¹⁸I will give you thanks in the great assembly;
among throngs of people I will praise you.
- ¹⁹Let not those gloat over me
who are my enemies without cause;
let not those who hate me without reason maliciously wink the eye.
- ²⁰They do not speak peaceably,
but devise false accusations
against those who live quietly in the land.
- ²¹They gape at me and say, "Aha! Aha!
With our own eyes we have seen it."
- ²²O LORD, you have seen this; be not silent.
Do not be far from me, O Lord.
- ²³Awake, and rise to my defence!
Contend for me, my God and Lord.

^a Or and block the way^b Septuagint; Hebrew may mean ungodly circle of mockers.

- ²⁴ Vindicate me in your righteousness,
O LORD my God;
do not let them gloat over me.
- ²⁵ Do not let them think, "Aha, just what we wanted!"
or say, "We have swallowed him
up."
- ²⁶ May all who gloat over my distress
be put to shame and confusion;
may all who exalt themselves over me
be clothed with shame and disgrace.
- ²⁷ May those who delight in my vindication
shout for joy and gladness;
may they always say, "The LORD be exalted,
who delights in the well-being of his servant."
- ²⁸ My tongue will speak of your
righteousness
and of your praises all day long.

Psalm 36

For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD.

- ¹ An oracle is within my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked:^a
There is no fear of God
before their eyes.
- ² For in their own eyes they flatter themselves
too much to detect or hate their sin.
- ³ The words of their mouths are wicked
and deceitful;
they have ceased to be wise and to do good.
- ⁴ Even on their beds they plot evil;
they commit themselves to a sinful course
and do not reject what is wrong.
- ⁵ Your love, O LORD, reaches to the
heavens,
your faithfulness to the skies.
- ⁶ Your righteousness is like the mighty
mountains,
your justice like the great deep.

^{a1} Or heart: / Sin proceeds from the wicked.

^{b7} Or love, O God! / Human beings find; or love! / Both heavenly and earthly beings / find

^c This psalm is an acrostic poem, the stanzas of which begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

- O LORD, you preserve both people and animals.
- ⁷ How priceless is your unfailing
love!
Both highborn and low find^b refuge in the shadow of your wings.
- ⁸ They feast in the abundance of your
house;
you give them drink from your river
of delights.
- ⁹ For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we see light.
- ¹⁰ Continue your love to those who know you,
your righteousness to the upright in
heart.
- ¹¹ May the foot of the proud not come
against me,
nor the hand of the wicked drive me
away.
- ¹² See how the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, not able to rise!

Psalm 37^a

Of David.

- ¹ Do not fret because of those who are evil
or be envious of those who do wrong;
² for like the grass they will soon wither,
like green plants they will soon die
away.
- ³ Trust in the LORD and do good;
dwell in the land and enjoy safe
pasture.
- ⁴ Delight yourself in the LORD and he will give you the desires of your heart.
- ⁵ Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in him and he will do this:
- ⁶ He will make your righteousness shine
like the dawn,
the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.
- ⁷ Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him;

- do not fret when people succeed in their ways,
when they carry out their wicked schemes.
- ⁸ Refrain from anger and turn from wrath;
do not fret—it leads only to evil.
- ⁹ For those who are evil will be cut off,
but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.
- ¹⁰ A little while, and the wicked will be no more;
though you look for them, they will not be found.
- ¹¹ But the meek will inherit the land and enjoy great peace.
- ¹² The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them;
¹³ but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he knows their day is coming.
- ¹⁴ The wicked draw the sword and bend the bow to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.
- ¹⁵ But their swords will pierce their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.
- ¹⁶ Better the little that the righteous have
than the wealth of many wicked;
- ¹⁷ for the power of the wicked will be broken,
but the LORD upholds the righteous.
- ¹⁸ The days of the blameless are known to the LORD,
and their inheritance will endure for ever.
- ¹⁹ In times of disaster they will not wither;
in days of famine they will enjoy plenty.
- ²⁰ But the wicked will perish:
The LORD's enemies will be like the beauty of the fields,
they will vanish—vanish like smoke.
- ²¹ The wicked borrow and do not repay,
but the righteous give generously;
- ²² those the LORD blesses will inherit the land,
but those he curses will be cut off.
- ²³ The LORD makes firm the steps of those who delight in him;
- ²⁴ though they stumble, they will not fall,
for the LORD upholds them with his hand.
- ²⁵ I was young and now I am old,
yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken or their children begging bread.
- ²⁶ They are always generous and lend freely;
their children will be blessed.
- ²⁷ Turn from evil and do good;
then you will dwell in the land for ever.
- ²⁸ For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones.
- They will be protected for ever,
but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off;
- ²⁹ the righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it for ever.
- ³⁰ The mouths of the righteous utter wisdom,
and their tongues speak what is just.
- ³¹ The law of their God is in their hearts;
their feet do not slip.
- ³² The wicked lie in wait for the righteous,
seeking their very lives;
- ³³ but the LORD will not leave them in their power
or let them be condemned when brought to trial.
- ³⁴ Wait for the LORD and keep his way.
He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

- ³⁵ I have seen the wicked and ruthless flourishing like a green tree in its native soil, ³⁶ but they soon passed away and were no more;
though I looked for them, they could not be found.
- ³⁷ Consider the blameless, observe the upright;
there is a future^b for those who seek
peace.
- ³⁸ But all sinners will be destroyed;
the future^c of the wicked will be cut off.
- ³⁹ The salvation of the righteous comes from the LORD;
he is their stronghold in time of
trouble.
- ⁴⁰ The LORD helps them and delivers
them;
he delivers them from the wicked
and saves them,
because they take refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A psalm of David. A petition.

- ¹ O LORD, do not rebuke me in your
anger
or discipline me in your wrath.
- ² For your arrows have pierced me,
and your hand has come down upon
me.
- ³ Because of your wrath there is no
health in my body;
my bones have no soundness
because of my sin.
- ⁴ My guilt has overwhelmed me
like a burden too heavy to bear.
- ⁵ My wounds fester and are loathsome
because of my sinful folly.
- ⁶ I am bowed down and brought very low;
all day long I go about mourning.
- ⁷ My back is filled with searing pain;
there is no health in my body.
- ⁸ I am feeble and utterly crushed;
I groan in anguish of heart.

- ⁹ All my longings lie open before you,
O Lord:
my sighing is not hidden from you.
- ¹⁰ My heart pounds, my strength fails
me;
even the light has gone from my
eyes.
- ¹¹ My friends and companions avoid me
because of my wounds;
my neighbours stay far away.
- ¹² Those who seek my life set their traps,
those who would harm me talk of my ruin;
all day long they plot deception.
- ¹³ I am like the deaf, who cannot hear,
like the mute, who cannot speak;
- ¹⁴ I have become like one who does not
hear,
whose mouth can offer no reply.
- ¹⁵ I wait for you, O LORD;
you will answer, O Lord my God.
- ¹⁶ For I said, "Do not let them gloat or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."

- ¹⁷ For I am about to fall,
and my pain is ever with me.
- ¹⁸ I confess my iniquity;
I am troubled by my sin.
- ¹⁹ Many are those who are my vigorous
enemies;
those who hate me without reason
are numerous.
- ²⁰ Those who repay my good with evil
slander me when I pursue what is good.
- ²¹ O LORD, do not forsake me;
be not far from me, O my God.
- ²² Come quickly to help me,
O Lord my Saviour.

Psalm 39

*For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm
of David.*

- ¹ I said, "I will watch my ways
and keep my tongue from sin;
I will put a muzzle on my mouth

as long as the wicked are in my presence.”

²But when I was silent and still,
not even saying anything good,
my anguish increased.

³My heart grew hot within me,
and as I meditated, the fire burned;
then I spoke with my tongue:

⁴“Show me, O LORD, my life’s end
and the number of my days;
let me know how fleeting is my life.

⁵You have made my days a mere handbreadth;
the span of my years is as nothing
before you.

Everyone’s life is but a breath. Selah

⁶Human beings are mere phantoms
as they go to and fro:

They bustle about, but only in vain;
they heap up wealth, not knowing
who will get it.

⁷“But now, Lord, what do I look for?
My hope is in you.

⁸Save me from all my transgressions;
do not make me the scorn of fools.

⁹I was silent; I would not open my
mouth,
for you are the one who has done
this.

¹⁰Remove your scourge from me;
I am overcome by the blow of your hand.

¹¹You rebuke and discipline people for
their sins;
you consume their wealth like a moth—
every mortal is but a breath. Selah

¹²“Hear my prayer, O LORD, listen to my cry for help;
be not deaf to my weeping.
For I dwell with you as an alien,
a stranger, as all my ancestors were.

¹³Look away from me, that I may rejoice again
before I depart and am no more.”

Psalm 40

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.

¹I waited patiently for the LORD;
he turned to me and heard my cry.

²He lifted me out of the slimy pit,
out of the mud and mire;
he set my feet on a rock
and gave me a firm place to stand.

³He put a new song in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear
and put their trust in the LORD.

⁴Blessed are those who make the LORD their trust,
who do not look to the proud,
to those who turn aside to false gods.^a

⁵Many, O LORD my God,
are the wonders you have done.
The things you planned for us
no-one can recount to you;
were I to speak and tell of them,
they would be too many to declare.

⁶Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,
but my ears you have pierced;^{b, c} burnt offerings and sin offerings
you did not require.

⁷Then I said, “Here I am, I have come—
it is written about me in the scroll.”^d

⁸I desire to do your will, O my God;
your law is within my heart.”

⁹I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly;
I do not seal my lips,
as you know, O LORD.

¹⁰I do not hide your righteousness in my
heart;
I speak of your faithfulness and
salvation.

I do not conceal your love and your truth
from the great assembly.

¹¹Do not withhold your mercy from me,
O LORD;

^{a4} Or to falsehood

^{b6} Hebrew: Septuagint but a body you have prepared for me (see also Symmachus and Theodotion) ^{c6} Or opened

^{d7} Or come / with the scroll written for me

may your love and your truth always protect me.

- ¹²For troubles without number surround me;
my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see.

They are more than the hairs of my head,
and my heart fails within me.

- ¹³Be pleased, O LORD, to save me;
O LORD, come quickly to help me.

- ¹⁴May all who seek to take my life
be put to shame and confusion;
may all who desire my ruin
be turned back in disgrace.

- ¹⁵May those who say to me, "Aha!
Aha!"
be appalled at their own shame.

- ¹⁶But may all who seek you
rejoice and be glad in you;
may those who love your salvation
always say,
"The LORD be exalted!"

- ¹⁷Yet I am poor and needy;
may the Lord think of me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
O my God, do not delay.

Psalm 41

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹Blessed are those who have regard for the weak;
the LORD delivers them in times of
trouble.

- ²The LORD will protect them and preserve their lives;
he will bless them in the land
and not surrender them to the desire of their foes.

- ³The LORD will sustain them on their sick-bed
and restore them from their bed of illness.

- ⁴I said, "O LORD, have mercy on me;
heal me, for I have sinned against
you."

- ⁵My enemies say of me in malice,

"When will he die and his name perish?"

- ⁶Whenever they come to see me,
they speak falsely, while their hearts gather slander;
then they go out and spread it
abroad.

- ⁷All my enemies whisper together
against me;
they imagine the worst for me,
saying,

- ⁸"A vile disease has beset him;
he will never get up from the place where he lies."

- ⁹Even my close friend, whom I trusted,
he who shared my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.

- ¹⁰But you, O LORD, have mercy on me;
raise me up, that I may repay them.

- ¹¹I know that you are pleased with me,
for my enemy does not triumph
over me.

- ¹²In my integrity you uphold me
and set me in your presence for
ever.

- ¹³Praise be to the LORD, the God of
Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

Psalms 42-72

Psalm 42^a

For the director of music. A maskil^b of the Sons of Korah.

- ¹As the deer pants for streams of
water,
so my soul pants for you, O God.

- ²My soul thirsts for God, for the living
God.

When can I go and meet with God?

- ³My tears have been my food
day and night,

^aIn many Hebrew manuscripts Psalms 42 and 43 constitute one psalm.

^bTitle: Probably a literary or musical term

while people say to me all day long,

"Where is your God?"

- ⁴These things I remember
as I pour out my soul:
how I used to go with the multitude,
leading the procession to the house
of God,
with shouts of joy and thanksgiving
among the festive throng.

- ⁵Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Saviour and ⁶my God.

My^c soul is downcast within me;
therefore I will remember you
from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon—from Mount Mizar.

- ⁷Deep calls to deep
in the roar of your waterfalls;
all your waves and breakers
have swept over me.

- ⁸By day the LORD directs his love,
at night his song is with me—
a prayer to the God of my life.

- ⁹I say to God my Rock,
"Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?"
¹⁰My bones suffer mortal agony
as my foes taunt me, saying to me all day long,
"Where is your God?"

- ¹¹Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Saviour and my God.

Psalm 43^a

- ¹Vindicate me, O God,
and plead my cause against an ungodly nation;

rescue me from those who are deceitful and wicked.

- ²You are God my stronghold.
Why have you rejected me?
Why must I go about mourning,
oppressed by the enemy?
³Send forth your light and your truth,
let them guide me;
let them bring me to your holy
mountain,
to the place where you dwell.
⁴Then will I go to the altar of God,
to God, my joy and my delight.
I will praise you with the harp,
O God, my God.

- ⁵Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Saviour and my God.

Psalm 44

*For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah.
A maskil.^a*

- ¹We have heard with our ears, O God;
our ancestors have told us
what you did in their days,
in days long ago.
²With your hand you drove out the
nations
and planted our ancestors;
you crushed the peoples
and made our ancestors flourish.
³It was not by their sword that they won
the land,
nor did their arm bring them
victory;
it was your right hand, your arm,
and the light of your face, for you loved them.
⁴You are my King and my God,
who decrees^b victories for Jacob.
⁵Through you we push back our
enemies;
through your name we trample our
foes.

^c5.6 A few Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts praise him for his saving help. i

- ⁶I do not trust in my bow,
my sword does not bring me
victory;
⁷but you give us victory over our

you put our adversaries to shame.
⁸In God we make our boast all day long,
and we will praise your name for ever. Selah
- ⁹But now you have rejected and humbled us;
you no longer go out with our armies.
¹⁰You made us retreat before the enemy, and our adversaries have plundered us.
¹¹You gave us up to be devoured like sheep
and have scattered us among the
nations.
¹²You sold your people for a pittance,
gaining nothing from their sale.
- ¹³You have made us a reproach to our neighbours,
the scorn and derision of those around us.
¹⁴You have made us a byword among
the nations;
the peoples shake their heads at us.
¹⁵My disgrace is before me all day long,
and my face is covered with shame ¹⁶at the taunts of those who reproach and revile me,
because of the enemy, who is bent on revenge.
- ¹⁷All this happened to us,
though we had not forgotten you or been false to your covenant.
¹⁸Our hearts had not turned back;
our feet had not strayed from your path.
¹⁹But you crushed us and made us a haunt for jackals
and covered us over with deep darkness.
²⁰If we had forgotten the name of our
God
or spread out our hands to a foreign
god,

- ²¹would not God have discovered it, since he knows the secrets of the
heart?
²²Yet for your sake we face death all day
long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.
- ²³Awake, O Lord! Why do you sleep?
Rouse yourself! Do not reject us
for ever.
²⁴Why do you hide your face and forget our misery and oppression?
- ²⁵We are brought down to the dust;
our bodies cling to the ground.
²⁶Rise up and help us;
redeem us because of your unfailing
love.

Psalm 45

*For the director of music. To the tune of, "Lilies".
Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil.^a A wedding song.*

- ¹My heart is stirred by a noble theme
as I recite my verses for the king;
my tongue is the pen of a skilful writer.
- ²You are the most excellent of men
and your lips have been anointed
with grace,

¹²and that you, O Lord, are loving.
Surely you will reward everyone
according to what they have done.

Psalm 63

*A psalm of David. When he was in the Desert
of Judah.*

¹O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you,
my body longs for you,
in a dry and weary land
where there is no water.

²I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld your power and your glory.

³Because your love is better than life,
my lips will glorify you.

⁴I will praise you as long as I live, and in your name I will lift up my hands.

⁵My soul will be satisfied as with the richest of foods;
with singing lips my mouth will praise you.

⁶On my bed I remember you;
I think of you through the watches of the night.

⁷Because you are my help,
I sing in the shadow of your wings.

⁸My soul clings to you;
your right hand upholds me.

- ⁹They who seek my life will be
destroyed;
they will go down to the depths of
the earth.
¹⁰They will be given over to the sword
and become food for jackals.
¹¹But the king will rejoice in God;
all who swear by God's name will praise him,
while the mouths of liars will be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

- ¹Hear me, O God, as I voice my complaint;
protect my life from the threat of the enemy.
²Hide me from the conspiracy of the
wicked,
from that noisy crowd of evildoers.
³They sharpen their tongues like swords
and aim their words like deadly arrows.
⁴They shoot from ambush at the innocent;
they shoot suddenly, without fear.
⁵They encourage each other in evil
plans,
they talk about hiding their snares;
they say, "Who will see them?"^a ⁶They plot injustice and say,
"We have devised a perfect plan!"
Surely the human mind and heart are cunning.
⁷But God will shoot them with
arrows;
suddenly they will be struck down.
⁸He will turn their own tongues against
them
and bring them to ruin;
all who see them will shake their heads in scorn.

- ⁹All people will fear;
they will proclaim the works of
God
and ponder what he has done.
¹⁰Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD
and take refuge in him;
let all the upright in heart praise
him!

Psalm 65

For the director of music. A psalm of David. A song.

- ¹Praise awaits^a you, O God, in Zion;
to you our vows will be fulfilled.
²O you who hear prayer,
to you all people will come.
³When we were overwhelmed by sins,
you forgave^b our transgressions.
⁴Blessed are those you choose and bring near to live in your courts!
We are filled with the good things of your house,
of your holy temple.
⁵You answer us with awesome deeds of
righteousness,
O God our Saviour,
the hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the farthest seas, ⁶who formed the mountains by your
power,
having armed yourself with
strength,
⁷who stilled the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the turmoil of the nations.
⁸Those living far away fear your wonders;
where morning dawns and evening fades
you call forth songs of joy.
⁹You care for the land and water it;
you enrich it abundantly.
The streams of God are filled with
water
to provide the people with corn,
for so you have ordained it.^c

^{a5} Or us ^{a1} Or befits; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

^{b3} Or made atonement for

^{c9} Or for that is how you prepare the land

- ¹⁰ You drench its furrows
and level its ridges;
you soften it with showers
and bless its crops.
- ¹¹ You crown the year with your bounty,
and your carts overflow with abundance.
- ¹² The grasslands of the desert overflow;
the hills are clothed with gladness.
- ¹³ The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with corn;
they shout for joy and sing.

Psalm 66

For the director of music. A song. A psalm.

- ¹ Shout with joy to God, all the earth!
² Sing the glory of his name;
make his praise glorious!
- ³ Say to God, "How awesome are your
deeds!
So great is your power
that your enemies cringe before you.
- ⁴ All the earth bows down to you;
they sing praise to you,
they sing praise to your name."

Selah

- ⁵ Come and see what God has done, how awesome his works for human beings!
- ⁶ He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the waters on foot—
come, let us rejoice in him.
- ⁷ He rules for ever by his power,
his eyes watch the nations—let not the rebellious rise up against
him.
- Selah*
- ⁸ Praise our God, O peoples,
let the sound of his praise be heard;
- ⁹ he has preserved our lives
and kept our feet from slipping.
- ¹⁰ For you, O God, tested us;
you refined us like silver.
- ¹¹ You brought us into prison
and laid burdens on our backs.
- ¹² You let people ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but you brought us to a place of
abundance.

- ¹³ I will come to your temple with burnt offerings
and fulfil my vows to you—
- ¹⁴ vows my lips promised and my mouth spoke
when I was in trouble.
- ¹⁵ I will sacrifice fat animals to you
and an offering of rams;
I will offer bulls and goats.
- Selah*
- ¹⁶ Come and listen, all you who fear
God;
let me tell you what he has done for
me.
- ¹⁷ I cried out to him with my mouth;
his praise was on my tongue.
- ¹⁸ If I had cherished sin in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened;
- ¹⁹ but God has surely listened
and heard my voice in prayer.
- ²⁰ Praise be to God,
who has not rejected my prayer
or withheld his love from me!

Psalm 67

*For the director of music. With stringed instruments.
A psalm. A song.*

- ¹ May God be gracious to us and bless
us
and make his face shine upon us,
- Selah*
- ² that your ways may be known on
earth,
your salvation among all nations.
- ³ May the peoples praise you,
O God;
may all the peoples praise you.
- ⁴ May the nations be glad and sing for
joy,
for you rule the peoples justly
and guide the nations of the earth.
- Selah*
- ⁵ May the peoples praise you, O God;
may all the peoples praise you.
- ⁶ Then the land will yield its harvest,
and God, our God, will bless us.
- ⁷ God will bless us,
and all the ends of the earth will fear
him.

Psalm 68

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm. A song.

- 1 May God arise, may his enemies be scattered;
may his foes flee before him.
- 2 As smoke is blown away by the wind,
may you blow them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
may the wicked perish before God.
- 3 But may the righteous be glad
and rejoice before God;
may they be happy and joyful.
- 4 Sing to God, sing praise to his name,
extol him who rides on the clouds^a—
his name is the LORD—
and rejoice before him.
- 5 A father to the fatherless, a defender
of widows,
is God in his holy dwelling.
- 6 God sets the lonely in families,^b
he leads forth the prisoners with singing;
but the rebellious live in a
sun-scorched land.
- 7 When you went out before your people, O God,
when you marched through the wasteland, Selah
- 8 the earth shook,
the heavens poured down rain,
before God, the One of Sinai,
before God, the God of Israel.
- 9 You gave abundant showers, O God;
you refreshed your weary
inheritance.
- 10 Your people settled in it,
and from your bounty, O God, you provided for the poor.
- 11 The Lord announced the word,
and great was the company of those who proclaimed it:
- 12 "Kings and armies flee in haste;
in the camps men divide the plunder.
- 13 Even while you sleep among the campfires,^c

- the wings of [my] dove are sheathed
with silver,
its feathers with shining gold."
- 14 When the Almighty^d scattered the kings in the land,
it was like snow fallen on Zalmon.
 - 15 The mountains of Bashan are majestic
mountains;
rugged are the mountains of Bashan.
 - 16 Why gaze in envy, O rugged
mountains,
at the mountain where God chooses
to reign,
where the LORD himself will dwell
for ever?
 - 17 The chariots of God are tens of thousands
and thousands of thousands;
the LORD [has come] from Sinai into his sanctuary.
 - 18 When you ascended on high,
you led captives in your train;
you received gifts from people,
even from^e the rebellious—
that you,^f O LORD God, might dwell there.
 - 19 Praise be to the Lord, to God our Saviour,
who daily bears our burdens. Selah
 - 20 Our God is a God who saves;
from the Sovereign LORD comes escape from death.
 - 21 Surely God will crush the heads of his
enemies,
the hairy crowns of those who go on
in their sins.
 - 22 The Lord says, "I will bring them from Bashan;
I will bring them from the depths of the sea,
23 that you may plunge your feet in the blood of your foes,
while the tongues of your dogs have their share."
 - 24 Your procession has come into view,
O God,

into the sanctuary.
- ²⁵ In front are the singers, after them the musicians;
with them are the young women
playing tambourines.
- ²⁶ Praise God in the great congregation;
praise the LORD in the assembly of Israel.
- ²⁷ There is the little tribe of Benjamin,
leading them,
there the great throng of Judah's
princes,
and there the princes of Zebulun
and of Naphtali.
- ²⁸ Summon your power, O God;^g show us your strength, O God, as you have done before.
- ²⁹ Because of your temple at Jerusalem
kings will bring you gifts.
- ³⁰ Rebuke the beast among the reeds,
the herd of bulls among the calves
of the nations.
Humbled, may it bring bars of silver.
Scatter the nations who delight in war.
- ³¹ Envoys will come from Egypt;
Cush^h will submit herself to God.
- ³² Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth,
sing praise to the Lord, Selah
- ³³ to him who rides the ancient skies
above,
who thunders with mighty voice.
- ³⁴ Proclaim the power of God,
whose majesty is over Israel,
whose power is in the skies.
- ³⁵ You are awesome, O God, in your sanctuary;
the God of Israel gives power and strength to his people.
- Praise be to God!
- Psalm 69
- For the director of music. To the tune of, "Lilies".
Of David.*
- ¹ Save me, O God,
for the waters have come up to my neck.
- ² I sink in the miry depths,
where there is no foothold.
I have come into the deep waters;
the floods engulf me.
- ³ I am worn out calling for help;
my throat is parched.
My eyes fail,
looking for my God.
- ⁴ Those who hate me without reason outnumber the hairs of my head;
many are my enemies without cause,
those who seek to destroy me.
I am forced to restore
what I did not steal.
- ⁵ You know my folly, O God;
my guilt is not hidden from you.
- ⁶ May those who hope in you
not be disgraced because of me, O Lord, the LORD Almighty;
may those who seek you
not be put to shame because of me,
O God of Israel.
- ⁷ For I endure scorn for your sake,
and shame covers my face.
- ⁸ I am a stranger to my own family,
an alien to my mother's children;
- ⁹ for zeal for your house consumes me,
and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.
- ¹⁰ When I weep and fast,
I must endure scorn;
- ¹¹ when I put on sackcloth,
people make sport of me.
- ¹² Those who sit at the gate mock me,
and I am the song of the drunkards.
- ¹³ But I pray to you, O LORD,
in the time of your favour;
in your great love, O God,
answer me with your sure salvation.
- ¹⁴ Rescue me from the mire,
do not let me sink;
deliver me from those who hate me,
from the deep waters.
- ¹⁵ Do not let the floodwaters engulf me
or the depths swallow me up or the pit close its mouth over me.

goodness of your love;
in your great mercy turn to me.
 17 Do not hide your face from your
servant;
answer me quickly, for I am in
trouble.
 18 Come near and rescue me;
redeem me because of my foes.
 19 You know how I am scorned,
disgraced and shamed;
all my enemies are before you.
 20 Scorn has broken my heart
and has left me helpless;
I looked for sympathy, but there was none,
for comforters, but I found none.
 21 They put gall in my food
and gave me vinegar for my thirst.
 22 May the table set before them become a snare;
may it become retribution and^a a trap.
 23 May their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see,
and their backs be bent for ever.
 24 Pour out your wrath on them;
let your fierce anger overtake them.
 25 May their place be deserted;
let there be no-one to dwell in their tents.
 26 For they persecute those you wound and talk about the pain of those you hurt.
 27 Charge them with crime upon crime;
do not let them share in your
salvation.
 28 May they be blotted out of the book
of life
and not be listed with the righteous.
 29 I am in pain and distress;
may your salvation, O God, protect
me.
 30 I will praise God's name in song
and glorify him with thanksgiving.
 31 This will please the LORD more than an ox,

^a22 Or snare / and their fellowship become

- more than a bull with its horns and hoofs.
 32 The poor will see and be glad—you who seek God, may your hearts live!
 33 The LORD hears the needy and does not despise his captive
people.
 34 Let heaven and earth praise him,
the seas and all that move in them,
 35 for God will save Zion
and rebuild the cities of Judah.
Then people will settle there and
possess it;
 36 the children of his servants will inherit it,
and those who love his name will dwell there.

Psalms 70

For the director of music. Of David. A petition.

- 1 Hasten, O God, to save me;
O LORD, come quickly to help me.
 2 May those who seek my life
be put to shame and confusion;
may all who desire my ruin
be turned back in disgrace.
 3 May those who say to me, "Aha!
Aha!"
turn back because of their shame.
 4 But may all who seek you
rejoice and be glad in you;
may those who love your salvation
always say,
"Let God be exalted!"
 5 Yet I am poor and needy;
come quickly to me, O God.
You are my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, do not delay.

Psalms 71

- 1 In you, O LORD, I have taken refuge;
let me never be put to shame.
 2 Rescue me and deliver me in your
righteousness;
turn your ear to me and save me.
 3 Be my rock of refuge,
to which I can always go;

- give the command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.
- ⁴ Deliver me, O my God, from the hand
of the wicked,
from the grasp of those who are evil
and cruel.
- ⁵ For you have been my hope,
O Sovereign LORD,
my confidence since my youth.
- ⁶ From my birth I have relied on you;
you brought me forth from my mother's womb.
I will ever praise you.
- ⁷ I have become like a portent to many,
but you are my strong refuge.
- ⁸ My mouth is filled with your praise, declaring your splendour all day
long.
- ⁹ Do not cast me away when I am old;
do not forsake me when my strength is gone.
- ¹⁰ For my enemies speak against me;
those who wait to kill me conspire
together.
- ¹¹ They say, "God has forsaken him;
pursue him and seize him,
for no-one will rescue him."
- ¹² Be not far from me, O God;
come quickly, O my God, to help
me.
- ¹³ May my accusers perish in shame;
may those who want to harm me
be covered with scorn and disgrace.
- ¹⁴ But as for me, I shall always have hope;
I will praise you more and more.
- ¹⁵ My mouth will tell of your
righteousness,
of your salvation all day long,
though I know not its measure.
- ¹⁶ I will come and proclaim your mighty
acts, O Sovereign LORD;
I will proclaim your righteousness,
yours alone.
- ¹⁷ Since my youth, O God, you have taught me,
and to this day I declare your marvellous deeds.
- ¹⁸ Even when I am old and grey,
do not forsake me, O God,
till I declare your power to the next generation,
your might to all who are to come.
- ¹⁹ Your righteousness reaches to the skies, O God,
you who have done great things.
Who, O God, is like you?
- ²⁰ Though you have made me see troubles, many and bitter,
you will restore my life again;
from the depths of the earth
you will again bring me up.
- ²¹ You will increase my honour
and comfort me once again.
- ²² I will praise you with the harp
for your faithfulness, O my God;
I will sing praise to you with the lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.
- ²³ My lips will shout for joy
when I sing praise to you—
I, whom you have redeemed.
- ²⁴ My tongue will tell of your righteous acts
all day long,
for those who wanted to harm me
have been put to shame and confusion.

Psalm 72

Of Solomon.

- ¹ Endow the king with your justice,
O God,
the royal son with your
righteousness.
- ² He will^a judge your people in
righteousness,
your afflicted ones with justice.
- ³ The mountains will bring prosperity to
the people,
the hills the fruit of righteousness.
- ⁴ He will defend the afflicted among the
people
and save the children of the needy;
he will crush the oppressor.
- ⁵ He will endure^b as long as the sun,
as long as the moon, through all
generations.

^{a2} Or May he; similarly in verses 3–11 and 17

^{b5} Septuagint; Hebrew You will be feared

⁶He will be like rain falling on a mown field, like showers watering the earth.
⁷In his days the righteous will flourish;
prosperity will abound till the moon is no more.

⁸He will rule from sea to sea
and from the River^c to the ends of
the earth.^d

⁹The desert tribes will bow before him and his enemies will lick the dust.

¹⁰The kings of Tarshish and of distant shores
will bring tribute to him;
the kings of Sheba and Seba
will present him gifts.

¹¹All kings will bow down to him
and all nations will serve him.

¹²For he will deliver the needy who cry
out,
the afflicted who have no-one to help.

¹³He will take pity on the weak and the needy
and save the needy from death.

¹⁴He will rescue them from oppression and violence,
for precious is their blood in his sight.

¹⁵Long may he live!
May gold from Sheba be given to him.
May people ever pray for him
and bless him all day long.

¹⁶Let corn abound throughout the land;
on the tops of the hills may it sway.
Let its fruit flourish like Lebanon;
let it thrive like the grass of the field.

¹⁷May his name endure for ever;
may it continue as long as the sun.

All nations will be blessed through him,
and they will call him blessed.

¹⁸Praise be to the LORD God, the God
of Israel,
who alone does marvellous deeds.

¹⁹Praise be to his glorious name for ever;
may the whole earth be filled with his glory.

Amen and Amen.

²⁰This concludes the prayers of David son of Jesse.

BOOK III

Psalms 73–89

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

¹Surely God is good to Israel,
to those who are pure in heart.

²But as for me, my feet had almost slipped;
I had nearly lost my foothold.

³For I envied the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

⁴They have no struggles;
their bodies are healthy and strong.^a

⁵They are free from common human burdens;
they are not plagued by human ills.
⁶Therefore pride is their necklace;
they clothe themselves with violence.

⁷From their callous hearts comes iniquity;^b
the evil conceits of their minds know no limits.

⁸They scoff, and speak with malice;
in their arrogance they threaten
oppression.

⁹Their mouths lay claim to heaven,
and their tongues take possession of
the earth.

¹⁰Therefore their people turn to them and drink up waters in abundance.^c

¹¹They say, "How can God know?
Does the Most High have
knowledge?"

¹²This is what the wicked are like—always carefree, they increase in wealth.

^a That is, the Euphrates ^d Or the end of the land

^b Syriac (see also Septuagint); Hebrew Their eyes bulge with fat

^c The meaning of the Hebrew for this verse is uncertain.

¹³ Surely in vain have I kept my heart
pure;
in vain have I washed my hands in innocence.

¹⁴ All day long I have been plagued;
I have been punished every morning.

¹⁵ If I had said, "I will speak thus,"
I would have betrayed your children.

¹⁶ When I tried to understand all this,
it was oppressive to me

¹⁷ till I entered the sanctuary of God;
then I understood their final destiny.

¹⁸ Surely you place them on slippery
ground;
you cast them down to ruin.

¹⁹ How suddenly are they destroyed, completely swept away by terrors!

²⁰ As a dream when one awakes,
so when you arise, O Lord,
you will despise them as fantasies.

²¹ When my heart was grieved
and my spirit embittered,

²² I was senseless and ignorant;
I was a brute beast before you.

²³ Yet I am always with you;
you hold me by my right hand.

²⁴ You guide me with your counsel, and afterwards you will take me into glory.

²⁵ Whom have I in heaven but you?
And earth has nothing I desire besides you.

²⁶ My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.

²⁷ Those who are far from you will perish;
you destroy all who are unfaithful
to you.

²⁸ But as for me, it is good to be near God.
I have made the Sovereign LORD my
refuge;
I will tell of all your deeds.

Psalms 74

A maskil of Asaph.*

¹ Why have you rejected us for ever,
O God?

Why does your anger smoulder
against the sheep of your pasture?

² Remember the people you purchased
of old,
the tribe of your inheritance, whom you redeemed—
Mount Zion, where you dwelt.

³ Turn your steps towards these everlasting ruins,
all this destruction the enemy has brought on the sanctuary.

⁴ Your foes roared in the place where you met with us;
they set up their standards as signs.

⁵ They behaved like people wielding axes
to cut through a thicket of trees.

⁶ They smashed all the carved panelling with their axes and hatchets.

⁷ They burned your sanctuary to the
ground;
they defiled the dwelling-place of
your Name.

⁸ They said in their hearts, "We will crush them completely!"
They burned every place where God was worshipped in the land.

⁹ We are given no miraculous signs;
no prophets are left,
and none of us knows how long this will be.

¹⁰ How long will the enemy mock you,
O God?
Will the foe revile your name for
ever?

¹¹ Why do you hold back your hand,
your right hand?
Take it from the folds of your garment and destroy them!

¹² But you, O God, are my king from of
old;
you bring salvation upon the earth.

¹³ It was you who split open the sea by your power;
you broke the heads of the monster
in the waters.

¹⁴ It was you who crushed the heads of Leviathan
and gave it as food to the creatures
of the desert.

*Title: Probably a literary or musical term

- ¹⁵It was you who opened up springs and streams;
you dried up the ever-flowing rivers.
¹⁶The day is yours, and yours also the night;
you established the sun and moon.
¹⁷It was you who set all the boundaries of the earth;
you made both summer and winter.
- ¹⁸Remember how the enemy has mocked you, O LORD,
how foolish people have reviled your name.
¹⁹Do not hand over the life of your dove to wild beasts;
do not forget the lives of your afflicted people for ever.
²⁰Have regard for your covenant,
because haunts of violence fill the dark places of the land.
²¹Do not let the oppressed retreat in disgrace;
may the poor and needy praise your name.

- ²²Rise up, O God, and defend your cause;
remember how fools mock you all day long.
²³Do not ignore the clamour of your adversaries,
the uproar of your enemies, which rises continually.

Psalm 75

For the director of music. To the tune of, "Do Not Destroy". A psalm of Asaph. A song.

- ¹We give thanks to you, O God,
we give thanks, for your Name is near;
people tell of your wonderful deeds.
- ²You say, "I choose the appointed time;
it is I who judge uprightly.
³When the earth and all its people quake,
it is I who hold its pillars firm. Selah ⁴To the arrogant I say, 'Boast no more,'

- and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horns.
⁵Do not lift your horns against heaven;
do not speak with outstretched neck.'"
- ⁶No-one from the east or the west
or from the desert can exalt a human being.
⁷But it is God who judges:
He brings one down, he exalts another.
⁸In the hand of the LORD is a cup
full of foaming wine mixed with spices;
he pours it out, and all the wicked of the earth
drink it down to its very dregs.
- ⁹As for me, I will declare this for ever;
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
¹⁰I will cut off the horns of all the wicked,
but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalm 76

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph. A song.

- ¹In Judah God is known;
his name is great in Israel.
²His tent is in Salem,
his dwelling-place in Zion.
³There he broke the flashing arrows,
the shields and the swords, the weapons of war. Selah
- ⁴You are resplendent with light,
more majestic than mountains rich with game.
⁵The valiant lie plundered,
they sleep their last sleep;
not one of the warriors
can lift his hands.
⁶At your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
both horse and chariot lie still.
⁷You alone are to be feared.
Who can stand before you when you are angry?
⁸From heaven you pronounced judgment,
and the land feared and was quiet—

- ⁹when you, O God, rose up to judge,
to save all the afflicted of the land.
Selah
- ¹⁰Surely your wrath against human beings brings you praise,
and the survivors of your wrath are restrained.^a
- ¹¹Make vows to the LORD your God and fulfil them;
let all the neighbouring lands
bring gifts to the One to be feared.
- ¹²He breaks the spirit of rulers;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

*For the director of music. For Jeduthun. Of Asaph.
A psalm.*

- ¹I cried out to God for help;
I cried out to God to hear me.
- ²When I was in distress, I sought the Lord;
at night I stretched out untiring hands and my soul refused to be comforted.
- ³I remembered you, O God, and I
groaned;
I mused, and my spirit grew faint.
Selah
- ⁴You kept my eyes from closing;
I was too troubled to speak.
- ⁵I thought about the former days,
the years of long ago;
- ⁶I remembered my songs in the night.
My heart mused and my spirit
enquired:
- ⁷“Will the Lord reject for ever?
Will he never show his favour again?”
- ⁸Has his unfailing love vanished for
ever?
Has his promise failed for all time?
- ⁹Has God forgotten to be merciful?
Has he in anger withheld his compassion?”
Selah
- ¹⁰Then I thought, “To this I will appeal:
the years of the right hand of the Most High.”

- ¹¹I will remember the deeds of the
LORD;
yes, I will remember your miracles
of long ago.
- ¹²I will meditate on all your works
and consider all your mighty deeds.
- ¹³Your ways, O God, are holy.
What god is so great as our God?
- ¹⁴You are the God who performs
miracles;
you display your power among the
peoples.
- ¹⁵With your mighty arm you redeemed
your people,
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.
Selah
- ¹⁶The waters saw you, O God,
the waters saw you and writhed;
the very depths were convulsed.
- ¹⁷The clouds poured down water,
the skies resounded with thunder;
your arrows flashed back and forth.
- ¹⁸Your thunder was heard in the whirlwind,
your lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and quaked.
- ¹⁹Your path led through the sea,
your way through the mighty waters,
though your footprints were not seen.
- ²⁰You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A maskil^a of Asaph.

- ¹O my people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth.
- ²I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter hidden things, things from of old—
- ³what we have heard and known,
what our ancestors have told us.
- ⁴We will not hide them from their
children;
we will tell the next generation
the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, his power, and the wonders he has
done.

^a10 Or Surely human wrath brings you praise, I and with the remainder of wrath you arm yourself

^aTitle: Probably a literary or musical term

- 5 He decreed statutes for Jacob and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors
to teach their children, 6 so that the next generation would know them,
even the children yet to be born,
and they in turn would tell their
children.
7 Then they would put their trust in God and would not forget his deeds
but would keep his commands.
8 They would not be like their ancestors—
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
whose hearts were not loyal to God,
whose spirits were not faithful to him.
9 The men of Ephraim, though armed with bows,
turned back on the day of battle;
10 they did not keep God's covenant
and refused to live by his law.
11 They forgot what he had done,
the wonders he had shown them.
12 He did miracles in the sight of their ancestors
in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.
13 He divided the sea and led them
through;
he made the water stand firm like a
wall.
14 He guided them with the cloud by day
and with light from the fire all night.
15 He split the rocks in the desert and gave them water as abundant
as the seas;
16 he brought streams out of a rocky crag
and made water flow down like rivers.
17 But they continued to sin against him, rebellious in the desert against the Most High.
18 They wilfully put God to the test
by demanding the food they craved.
19 They spoke against God, saying,
"Can God spread a table in the desert?
20 When he struck the rock, water
gushed out,
and streams flowed abundantly.
But can he also give us food?
Can he supply meat for his people?"
- 21 When the LORD heard them, he was very angry;
his fire broke out against Jacob,
and his wrath rose against Israel, 22 for they did not believe in God
or trust in his deliverance.
23 Yet he gave a command to the skies
above
and opened the doors of the
heavens;
24 he rained down manna for the people
to eat,
he gave them the grain of heaven.
25 Human beings ate the bread of angels;
he sent them all the food they could eat.
26 He let loose the east wind from the heavens
and led forth the south wind by his
power.
27 He rained meat down on them like
dust,
flying birds like sand on the seashore.
28 He made them come down inside their camp,
all around their tents.
29 They ate till they had more than enough,
for he had given them what they craved.
30 But before they turned from the food
they craved,
even while it was still in their mouths,
31 God's anger rose against them;
he put to death the sturdiest among
them,
cutting down the young men of Israel.
32 In spite of all this, they kept on sinning;
in spite of his wonders, they did not believe.
33 So he ended their days in futility
and their years in terror.
34 Whenever God slew them, they would seek him;
they eagerly turned to him again.
35 They remembered that God was their Rock,
that God Most High was their Redeemer.
36 But then they would flatter him with their mouths,
lying to him with their tongues;

- 37 their hearts were not loyal to him,
 they were not faithful to his covenant.
 38 Yet he was merciful;
 he forgave their iniquities
 and did not destroy them.
 Time after time he restrained his anger
 and did not stir up his full wrath.
 39 He remembered that they were but flesh,
 a passing breeze that does not return.
 40 How often they rebelled against him in the desert
 and grieved him in the wasteland!
 41 Again and again they put God to the test;
 they vexed the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They did not remember his power—
 the day he redeemed them from the oppressor,
 43 the day he displayed his miraculous signs in Egypt,
 his wonders in the region of Zoan.
 44 He turned their rivers to blood;
 they could not drink from their streams.
 45 He sent swarms of flies that devoured
 them,
 and frogs that devastated them.
 46 He gave their crops to the grasshopper,
 their produce to the locust.
 47 He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore-figs with sleet.
 48 He gave over their cattle to the hail,
 their livestock to bolts of lightning.
 49 He unleashed against them his hot
 anger,
 his wrath, indignation and hostility—
 a band of destroying angels.
 50 He prepared a path for his anger;
 he did not spare them from death
 but gave them over to the plague.
 51 He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt,
 the firstfruits of manhood in the tents of Ham.
 52 But he brought his people out like a
 flock;
 he led them like sheep through the
 desert.
 53 He guided them safely, so they were unafraid;
 but the sea engulfed their enemies.
 54 Thus he brought them to the border of his holy land,
 to the hill country his right hand had taken.
 55 He drove out nations before them and allotted their lands to them as an inheritance;
 he settled the tribes of Israel in their homes.
 56 But they put God to the test and rebelled against the Most High;
 they did not keep his statutes.
 57 Like their ancestors they were disloyal and faithless,
 as unreliable as a faulty bow.
 58 They angered him with their high places;
 they aroused his jealousy with their idols.
 59 When God heard them, he was very angry;
 he rejected Israel completely.
 60 He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh,
 the tent he had set up among people.
 61 He sent the ark of his might into captivity,
 his splendour into the hands of the enemy.
 62 He gave his people over to the sword;
 he was very angry with his
 inheritance.
 63 Fire consumed their young men,
 and their young women had no wedding songs;
 64 their priests were put to the sword,
 and their widows could not weep.
 65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
 as someone wakes from the stupor
 of wine.
 66 He beat back his enemies;
 he put them to everlasting shame.
 67 Then he rejected the tents of Joseph,
 he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;
 68 but he chose the tribe of Judah,
 Mount Zion, which he loved.
 69 He built his sanctuary like the heights,

- like the earth that he established for ever.
⁷⁰He chose David his servant
 and took him from the sheep pens; ⁷¹from tending the sheep he brought
 him
 to be the shepherd of his people
 Jacob,
 of Israel his inheritance.
⁷²And David shepherded them with integrity of heart;
 with skilful hands he led them.

Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph.

- ¹O God, the nations have invaded your
 inheritance;
 they have defiled your holy temple,
 they have reduced Jerusalem to rubble.
²They have given the dead bodies of your servants
 as food to the birds of the air,
 the flesh of your saints to the beasts
 of the earth.
³They have poured out blood like
 water
 all around Jerusalem,
 and there is no-one to bury the dead.
⁴We are objects of reproach to our
 neighbours,
 of scorn and derision to those
 around us.
⁵How long, O LORD? Will you be angry
 for ever?
 How long will your jealousy burn
 like fire?
⁶Pour out your wrath on the nations
 that do not acknowledge you,
 on the kingdoms
 that do not call on your name; ⁷for they have devoured Jacob
 and destroyed his homeland.
⁸Do not hold against us the sins of past
 generations;
 may your mercy come quickly to meet us,
 for we are in desperate need.
⁹Help us, O God our Saviour,
 for the glory of your name;

- deliver us and forgive our sins
 for your name's sake.
¹⁰Why should the nations say,
 "Where is their God?"
 Before our eyes, make known among
 the nations
 that you avenge the outpoured
 blood of your servants.
¹¹May the groans of the prisoners come
 before you;
 by the strength of your arm
 preserve those condemned to die.
¹²Pay back into the laps of our neighbours seven times
 the reproach they have hurled at
 you, O Lord.
¹³Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture,
 will praise you for ever;
 from generation to generation
 we will recount your praise.

Psalm 80

For the director of music. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant". Of Asaph. A psalm.

- ¹Hear us, O Shepherd of Israel,
 you who lead Joseph like a
 flock;
 you who sit enthroned between the cherubim, shine forth ²before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh.
 Awaken your might;
 come and save us.
³Restore us, O God;
 make your face shine upon us,
 that we may be saved.
⁴O LORD God Almighty, how long will your anger
 smoulder
 against the prayers of your
 people?
⁵You have fed them with the bread of tears;
 you have made them drink tears by the bowlful.
⁶You have made us a source of contention to our neighbours,
 and our enemies mock us.

- ⁷ Restore us, O God Almighty;
make your face shine upon us,
that we may be saved.
- ⁸ You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out the nations and planted it.
- ⁹ You cleared the ground for it,
and it took root and filled the land.
- ¹⁰ The mountains were covered with its shade,
the mighty cedars with its branches.
- ¹¹ It sent out its boughs to the Sea,^a its shoots as far as the River.^b
- ¹² Why have you broken down its walls
so that all who pass by pick its grapes?
- ¹³ Boars from the forest ravage it and the creatures of the field feed
on it.
- ¹⁴ Return to us, O God Almighty!
Look down from heaven and see!
Watch over this vine,
¹⁵ the root your right hand has planted,
the son^c you have raised up for yourself.
- ¹⁶ Your vine is cut down, it is burned
with fire;
at your rebuke your people perish.
- ¹⁷ Let your hand rest on the man at your right hand,
the son of man you have raised up
for yourself.
- ¹⁸ Then we will not turn away from you;
revive us, and we will call on your
name.
- ¹⁹ Restore us, O LORD God Almighty;
make your face shine upon us,
that we may be saved.
- ² Begin the music, strike the tambourine,
play the melodious harp and lyre.
- ³ Sound the ram's horn at the New Moon,
and when the moon is full, on the day of our Feast;
- ⁴ this is a decree for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
- ⁵ He established it as a statute for Joseph
when he went out against Egypt,
where we heard a language we did not understand.^b
- ⁶ He says, "I removed the burden from their shoulders;
their hands were set free from the basket.
- ⁷ In your distress you called and I rescued you,
I answered you out of a thundercloud;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.
Selah
- ⁸ "Hear, O my people, and I will warn
you—
if you would but listen to me,
O Israel!
- ⁹ You shall have no foreign god among
you;
you shall not bow down to an alien
god.
- ¹⁰ I am the LORD your God,
who brought you up out of Egypt.
Open wide your mouth and I will fill it.
- ¹¹ "But my people would not listen to
me;
Israel would not submit to me.
- ¹² So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts
to follow their own devices.
- ¹³ "If my people would but listen to me,
if Israel would follow my ways, ¹⁴ how quickly would I subdue their
enemies

² May my prayer come before you;
turn your ear to my cry.
³ For my soul is full of trouble and my life draws near the grave.^c ⁴ I am counted among those who go with your servant

and have defiled his crown in the dust.
- 40 You have broken through all his walls
and reduced his strongholds to ruins.
- 41 All who pass by have plundered him;
he has become the scorn of his neighbours.
- 42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes;
you have made all his enemies rejoice

- ⁴³ You have turned back the edge of his sword
and have not supported him in battle.
⁴⁴ You have put an end to his splendour
and cast his throne to the ground.
⁴⁵ You have cut short the days of his youth;
you have covered him with a mantle of shame. Selah
- ⁴⁶ How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself for ever?
How long will your wrath burn like
fire?
⁴⁷ Remember how fleeting is my life.
For what futility you have created
all humanity!
⁴⁸ Who can live and not see death,
or who can escape from the power of the grave?^e Selah
- ⁴⁹ O Lord, where is your former great
love,
which in your faithfulness you swore to David?
⁵⁰ Remember, Lord, how your servant
has been mocked,
how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the nations,
⁵¹ the taunts with which your enemies
have mocked, O LORD, with which they have mocked every step of your anointed one.
- ⁵² Praise be to the LORD for ever!
Amen and Amen.

BOOK IV

Psalms 90–106

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

- ¹ Lord, you have been our dwelling-place
throughout all generations.
² Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the earth and the world,

from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

- ³ You turn people back to dust, saying, "Return to dust, you mortals."
⁴ For a thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by,
or like a watch in the night.
⁵ You sweep people away in the sleep
of death;
they are like the new grass of the morning—
⁶ though in the morning it springs up new,
by evening it is dry and withered.
- ⁷ We are consumed by your anger
and terrified by your indignation.
⁸ You have set our iniquities before
you,
our secret sins in the light of your presence.
⁹ All our days pass away under your
wrath;
we finish our years with a moan.
¹⁰ The length of our days is seventy years—
or eighty, if we have the strength;
yet their span^a is but trouble and
sorrow,
for they quickly pass, and we fly
away.
- ¹¹ Who knows the power of your anger?
For your wrath is as great as the fear that is due to you.
¹² Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
- ¹³ Relent, O LORD! How long will it be?
Have compassion on your servants.
¹⁴ Satisfy us in the morning with your
unfailing love,
that we may sing for joy and be glad
all our days.
¹⁵ Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us,
for as many years as we have seen
trouble.
¹⁶ May your deeds be shown to your servants,

^a48 Hebrew Sheol ^f50 Or your servants have ^a10 Or yet the best of them

your splendour to their children.

- ¹⁷ May the favour^b of the Lord our God
rest upon us;
establish the work of our hands for
us—
yes, establish the work of our hands.

- ¹ Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High
will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.^a ² I will say^b of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."

- ³ Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare
and from the deadly pestilence.
⁴ He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find
refuge;
his faithfulness will be your shield
and rampart.
⁵ You will not fear the terror of night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,
⁶ nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
nor the plague that destroys at midday.
⁷ A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.
⁸ You will only observe with your eyes
and see the punishment of the
wicked.

- ⁹ If you make the Most High your dwelling—
even the LORD, who is my refuge—¹⁰ then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.
¹¹ For he will command his angels concerning you
to guard you in all your ways;
¹² they will lift you up in their hands,

so that you will not strike your foot
against a stone.

- ¹³ You will tread upon the lion and the cobra;
you will trample the great lion and the serpent.
¹⁴ "Because you love me," says the LORD, "I will rescue you;
I will protect you, for you acknowledge my name."
¹⁵ You will call upon me, and I will answer you;
I will be with you in trouble,
I will deliver you and honour you.
¹⁶ With long life will I satisfy you and show you my salvation."

Psalm 92

A psalm. A song. For the Sabbath day.

- ¹ It is good to praise the LORD
and make music to your name,
O Most High,
² to proclaim your love in the morning
and your faithfulness at night, ³ to the music of the ten-stringed lyre
and the melody of the harp.
⁴ For you make me glad by your deeds,
O LORD;
I sing for joy at the work of your
hands.
⁵ How great are your works, O LORD,
how profound your thoughts!
⁶ Senseless people do not know,
fools do not understand,
⁷ that though the wicked spring up like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they will be for ever destroyed.

- ⁸ But you, O LORD, are exalted for
ever.
⁹ For surely your enemies, O LORD,
surely your enemies will perish;
all evildoers will be scattered.
¹⁰ You have exalted my horn^a like that of a wild ox;
fine oils have been poured upon
me.

^{b17} Or beauty ^{a1} Hebrew Shaddai ^{b2} Or That one says

^{a10} Horn here symbolises strength.

¹¹ My eyes have seen the defeat of my adversaries;
my ears have heard the rout of my wicked foes.

¹² The righteous will flourish like a palm tree,
they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon;

¹³ planted in the house of the LORD,
they will flourish in the courts of our God.

¹⁴ They will still bear fruit in old age,
they will stay fresh and green,

¹⁵ proclaiming, "The LORD is upright;
he is my Rock, and there is no wickedness in him."

Psalm 93

¹ The LORD reigns, he is robed in majesty;
the LORD is robed in majesty
and is armed with strength.
The world is firmly established;
it cannot be moved.

² Your throne was established long ago;
you are from all eternity.

³ The seas have lifted up, O LORD,
the seas have lifted up their voice;
the seas have lifted up their pounding waves.

⁴ Mightier than the thunder of the great waters, mightier than the breakers of the sea—
the LORD on high is mighty.

⁵ Your statutes stand firm;
holiness adorns your house
for endless days, O LORD.

Psalm 94

¹ O LORD, the God who avenges,
O God who avenges, shine forth.

² Rise up, O Judge of the earth;
pay back to the proud what they deserve.

³ How long will the wicked, O LORD, how long will the wicked be jubilant?

⁴ They pour out arrogant words;
all the evildoers are full of boasting.

⁵ They crush your people, O LORD;
they oppress your inheritance.

⁶ They slay the widow and the alien;
they murder the fatherless.

⁷ They say, "The LORD does not see;
the God of Jacob pays no heed."

⁸ Take heed, you senseless ones among the people;
you fools, when will you become wise?

⁹ Does he who implanted the ear not hear?

Does he who formed the eye not see?

¹⁰ Does he who disciplines nations not punish?

Does he who teaches human beings lack knowledge?

¹¹ The LORD knows all human thoughts;
he knows that they are futile.

¹² Blessed are those you discipline,
O LORD,
those you teach from your law;

¹³ you grant them relief from days of trouble,
till a pit is dug for the wicked.

¹⁴ For the LORD will not reject his people;
he will never forsake his inheritance.

¹⁵ Judgment will again be founded on righteousness, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

¹⁶ Who will rise up for me against the wicked?

Who will take a stand for me against evildoers?

¹⁷ Unless the LORD had given me help,
I would soon have dwelt in the silence of death.

¹⁸ When I said, "My foot is slipping,"
your love, O LORD, supported me.

¹⁹ When anxiety was great within me,
your consolation brought joy to my soul.

²⁰ Can a corrupt throne be allied with you—one that brings on misery by its decrees?

- ²¹ They band together against the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.
²² But the LORD has become my fortress,
and my God the rock in whom I take refuge.
²³ He will repay them for their sins
and destroy them for their wickedness;
the LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalm 95

- ¹ Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD;
let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.
² Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.
³ For the LORD is the great God,
the great King above all gods.
⁴ In his hand are the depths of the earth,
and the mountain peaks belong to him.
⁵ The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.
⁶ Come, let us bow down in worship,
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker;
⁷ for he is our God
and we are the people of his pasture,
the flock under his care.

Today, if you hear his voice,

- ⁸ do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah,^a
as you did that day at Massah^b in the desert, ⁹ where your ancestors tested and tried me,
though they had seen what I did.
¹⁰ For forty years I was angry with that generation;
I said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray,
and they have not known my ways."
¹¹ So I declared on oath in my anger,
"They shall never enter my rest."

^a8 Meribah means quarrelling. ^b8 Massah means testing.

Psalm 96

- ¹ Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth.
² Sing to the LORD, praise his name;
proclaim his salvation day after day.
³ Declare his glory among the nations,
his marvellous deeds among all peoples.
⁴ For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;
he is to be feared above all gods.
⁵ For all the gods of the nations are idols,
but the LORD made the heavens.
⁶ Splendour and majesty are before him;
strength and glory are in his sanctuary.
⁷ Ascribe to the LORD, O families of nations,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
⁸ Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name;
bring an offering and come into his courts.
⁹ Worship the LORD in the splendour of his^a holiness;
tremble before him, all the earth.
¹⁰ Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."
The world is firmly established, it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity.
¹¹ Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad;
let the sea resound, and all that is in it;
¹² let the fields be jubilant, and everything in them.
Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy;
¹³ they will sing before the LORD, for he comes,
he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world in righteousness
and the peoples in his truth.

^a9 Or LORD with the splendour of

Psalms 97

- ¹ The LORD reigns, let the earth be glad;
let the distant shores rejoice.
- ² Clouds and thick darkness surround
him;
righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
- ³ Fire goes before him
and consumes his foes on every side.
- ⁴ His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- ⁵ The mountains melt like wax before
the LORD,
before the Lord of all the earth.
- ⁶ The heavens proclaim his
righteousness,
and all the peoples see his glory.
- ⁷ All who worship images are put to
shame,
those who boast in idols—
worship him, all you gods!
- ⁸ Zion hears and rejoices and the villages of Judah are glad because of your judgments,
O LORD.
- ⁹ For you, O LORD, are the Most High
over all the earth;
you are exalted far above all gods.
- ¹⁰ Let those who love the LORD hate
evil,
for he guards the lives of his faithful
ones
and delivers them from the hand of
the wicked.
- ¹¹ Light is shed upon the righteous and joy on the upright in heart.
- ¹² Rejoice in the LORD, you who are
righteous,
and praise his holy name.

Psalms 98*A psalm.*

- ¹ Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done marvellous things;
his right hand and his holy arm
have worked salvation for him.

- ² The LORD has made his salvation known and revealed his righteousness to
the nations.
- ³ He has remembered his love
and his faithfulness to the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation of our God.
- ⁴ Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth,
burst into jubilant song with music;
- ⁵ make music to the LORD with the harp,
with the harp and the sound of
singing,
- ⁶ with trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn—
shout for joy before the LORD, the King.
- ⁷ Let the sea resound, and everything
in it,
the world, and all who live in it.
- ⁸ Let the rivers clap their hands,
let the mountains sing together for
joy;
- ⁹ let them sing before the LORD,
for he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world in
righteousness
and the peoples with equity.

- ¹ The LORD reigns,
let the nations tremble;
he sits enthroned between the cherubim,
let the earth shake.
- ² Great is the LORD in Zion;
he is exalted over all the nations.
- ³ Let them praise your great and awesome name—
he is holy.
- ⁴ The King is mighty, he loves justice—
you have established equity;
in Jacob you have done
what is just and right.
- ⁵ Exalt the LORD our God
and worship at his footstool;
he is holy.
- ⁶ Moses and Aaron were among his priests,

Samuel was among those who called on his name;
they called on the LORD
and he answered them.

⁷He spoke to them from the pillar of
cloud;
they kept his statutes and the decrees he gave them.

⁸O LORD our God,
you answered them;
you were to Israel^a a forgiving God,
though you punished their misdeeds.^b

⁹Exalt the LORD our God
and worship at his holy mountain, for the LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A psalm. For giving thanks.

¹Shout for joy to the LORD, all the
earth.

²Worship the LORD with gladness;
come before him with joyful
songs.

³Know that the LORD is God.
It is he who made us, and we are his;^a
we are his people, the sheep of his
pasture.

⁴Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and praise his
name.

⁵For the LORD is good and his love
endures for ever;
his faithfulness continues through all generations.

Psalm 101

Of David. A psalm.

¹I will sing of your love and justice;
to you, O LORD, I will sing praise.

²I will be careful to lead a blameless
life—
when will you come to me?

I will walk in my house
with blameless heart.

³I will set before my eyes
no vile thing.

The deeds of the faithless I hate;
they shall not cling to me.

⁴The perverse of heart shall be far from
me;
I will have nothing to do with evil.

⁵Whoever slanders a neighbour in secret
I will put to silence;
whoever has haughty eyes and a proud
heart
I will not endure.

⁶My eyes will be on the faithful in the
land,
that they may dwell with me;
those whose walk is blameless
will minister to me.

⁷No-one who practises deceit
will dwell in my house;
no-one who speaks falsely will stand in my presence.

⁸Every morning I will put to silence
all the wicked in the land;
I will cut off every evildoer
from the city of the LORD.

Psalm 102

A prayer of an afflicted person who is faint and pours out a lament before the LORD.

¹Hear my prayer, O LORD;
let my cry for help come to you.

²Do not hide your face from me when I am in distress.
Turn your ear to me;
when I call, answer me quickly.

³For my days vanish like smoke;
my bones burn like glowing embers.

⁴My heart is blighted and withered like
grass;
I forget to eat my food.

⁵Because of my loud groaning
I am reduced to skin and bones.

^a8 Hebrew them

^b8 Or an avenger of the wrongs done to them

^a3 Or and not we ourselves

- 6 I am like a desert owl,
 like an owl among the ruins.
 7 I lie awake; I have become like a bird alone on a roof.
 8 All day long my enemies taunt me;
 those who rail against me use my name as a curse.
 9 For I eat ashes as my food and mingle my drink with tears, 10 because of your great wrath,
 for you have taken me up and thrown me aside.
 11 My days are like the evening shadow;
 I wither away like grass.
 12 But you, O LORD, sit enthroned for
 ever;
 your renown endures through all
 generations.
 13 You will arise and have compassion
 on Zion,
 for it is time to show favour to her;
 the appointed time has come.
 14 For her stones are dear to your
 servants;
 her very dust moves them to pity.
 15 The nations will fear the name of the
 LORD,
 all the kings of the earth will revere
 your glory.
 16 For the LORD will rebuild Zion
 and appear in his glory.
 17 He will respond to the prayer of the destitute;
 he will not despise their plea.
 18 Let this be written for a future
 generation,
 that a people not yet created may
 praise the LORD:
 19 "The LORD looked down from his sanctuary on high,
 from heaven he viewed the earth, 20 to hear the groans of the prisoners and release those condemned to death."
 21 So the name of the LORD will be declared in Zion
 and his praise in Jerusalem 22 when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship the LORD.

- 23 In the course of my life^a he broke my
 strength;
 he cut short my days.
 24 So I said:
 "Do not take me away, O my God,
 in the midst of my days;
 your years go on through all
 generations.
 25 In the beginning you laid the foundations of the earth,
 and the heavens are the work of
 your hands.
 26 They will perish, but you remain;
 they will all wear out like a garment.
 Like clothing you will change them
 and they will be discarded.
 27 But you remain the same,
 and your years will never end.
 28 The children of your servants will live
 in your presence;
 their descendants will be established before you."

Psalm 103

Of David.

- 1 Praise the LORD, O my soul;
 all my inmost being, praise his holy
 name.
 2 Praise the LORD, O my soul,
 and forget not all his benefits—
 3 who forgives all your sins
 and heals all your diseases, 4 who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and
 compassion,
 5 who satisfies your desires with good
 things
 so that your youth is renewed like
 the eagle's.
 6 The LORD works righteousness
 and justice for all the oppressed.
 7 He made known his ways to Moses,
 his deeds to the people of Israel:
 8 The LORD is compassionate and gracious,
 slow to anger, abounding in love.

^a23 Or By his power

- ⁹He will not always accuse,
nor will he harbour his anger for ever;
¹⁰he does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.
¹¹For as high as the heavens are above
the earth,
so great is his love for those who
fear him;
¹²as far as the east is from the west,
so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
¹³As a father has compassion on his
children,
so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him;
¹⁴for he knows how we are formed,
he remembers that we are dust.
¹⁵As for mortals, their days are like
grass,
they flourish like a flower of the field;
¹⁶the wind blows over it and it is gone,
and its place remembers it no more.
¹⁷But from everlasting to everlasting the LORD's love is with those who
fear him,
and his righteousness with their children's children—
¹⁸with those who keep his covenant
and remember to obey his precepts.
¹⁹The LORD has established his throne
in heaven,
and his kingdom rules over all.
²⁰Praise the LORD, you his angels,
you mighty ones who do his bidding,
who obey his word.
²¹Praise the LORD, all his heavenly hosts,
you his servants who do his will.
²²Praise the LORD, all his works everywhere in his dominion.
Praise the LORD, O my soul.

Psalm 104

- ¹Praise the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, you are very great;
you are clothed with splendour and majesty.

- ²He wraps himself in light as with a
garment;
he stretches out the heavens like a
tent ³and lays the beams of his upper chambers on their waters.
He makes the clouds his chariot
and rides on the wings of the wind.
⁴He makes winds his messengers,^a flames of fire his servants.
⁵He set the earth on its foundations;
it can never be moved.
⁶You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
the waters stood above the
mountains.
⁷But at your rebuke the waters fled,
at the sound of your thunder they took to flight;
⁸they flowed over the mountains,
they went down into the valleys,
to the place you assigned for them.
⁹You set a boundary they cannot cross;
never again will they cover the earth.
¹⁰He makes springs pour water into the ravines;
it flows between the mountains.
¹¹They give water to all the beasts of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
¹²The birds of the air nest by the waters;
they sing among the branches.
¹³He waters the mountains from his upper chambers;
the earth is satisfied by the fruit of his work.
¹⁴He makes grass grow for the cattle, and plants for people to cultivate—bringing forth food from the earth:
¹⁵wine that gladdens human hearts,
oil to make their faces shine,
and bread that sustains their hearts.
¹⁶The trees of the LORD are well watered,
the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.
¹⁷There the birds make their nests;
the stork has its home in the pine trees.

^a4 Or angels

¹⁸The high mountains belong to the wild goats;
the crags are a refuge for the conies.^b

¹⁹The moon marks off the seasons,
and the sun knows when to go down.

²⁰You bring darkness, it becomes night,
and all the beasts of the forest
prowl.

²¹The lions roar for their prey
and seek their food from God.

²²The sun rises, and they steal away;
they return and lie down in their dens.

²³Then people go out to their work,
to their labour until evening.

²⁴How many are your works, O LORD!
In wisdom you made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

²⁵There is the sea, vast and spacious,
teeming with creatures beyond number—
living things both large and small.

²⁶There the ships go to and fro,
and the leviathan, which you formed to frolic there.

²⁷These all look to you to give them their food at the proper time.

²⁸When you give it to them,
they gather it up;
when you open your hand,
they are satisfied with good things.

²⁹When you hide your face,
they are terrified;
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to the dust.

³⁰When you send your Spirit,
they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

³¹May the glory of the LORD endure for
ever;
may the LORD rejoice in his works—

³²he who looks at the earth, and it trembles,
who touches the mountains, and they smoke.

³³I will sing to the LORD all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.

³⁴May my meditation be pleasing to him,
as I rejoice in the LORD.

³⁵But may sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked be no more.

Praise the LORD, O my soul.

Praise the LORD.^c

Psalm 105

¹Give thanks to the LORD, call on his
name;
make known among the nations
what he has done.

²Sing to him, sing praise to him;
tell of all his wonderful acts.

³Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

⁴Look to the LORD and his strength;
seek his face always.

⁵Remember the wonders he has done,
his miracles, and the judgments he pronounced.

⁶O descendants of Abraham his servant,
O children of Jacob, his chosen
ones.

⁷He is the LORD our God;
his judgments are in all the earth.

⁸He remembers his covenant for ever,
the word he commanded, for a thousand generations,

⁹the covenant he made with Abraham,
the oath he swore to Isaac.

¹⁰He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant:
¹¹"To you I will give the land of Canaan
as the portion you will inherit."

¹²When they were but few in number,
few indeed, and strangers in it,

¹³they wandered from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another.

¹⁴He allowed no-one to oppress them;
for their sake he rebuked kings:

^{a18} That is, the hyrax or rock badger

^{c35} Hebrew Hallelu Yah; in the Septuagint this line stands at the beginning of Psalm 105.

- 15 "Do not touch my anointed ones;
do my prophets no harm."
 16 He called down famine on the land and destroyed all their supplies of food;
 17 and he sent a man before them—
Joseph, sold as a slave.
 18 They bruised his feet with shackles,
his neck was put in irons, 19 till what he foretold came to pass,
till the word of the LORD proved him true.
 20 The king sent and released him,
the ruler of peoples set him free.
 21 He made him master of his household,
ruler over all he possessed, 22 to instruct his princes as he pleased and teach his elders wisdom.
 23 Then Israel entered Egypt;
Jacob lived as an alien in the land of Ham.
 24 The LORD made his people very fruitful;
he made them too numerous for their foes,
 25 whose hearts he turned to hate his
people,
to conspire against his servants.
 26 He sent Moses his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
 27 They performed his miraculous signs
among them,
his wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness and made the land
dark—
for had they not rebelled against his words?
 29 He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.
 30 Their land teemed with frogs, which went up into the bedrooms of their rulers.
 31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
and gnats throughout their country.
 32 He turned their rain into hail,
with lightning throughout their
land;
 33 he struck down their vines and fig-trees

- and shattered the trees of their country.
 34 He spoke, and the locusts came,
grasshoppers without number;
 35 they ate up every green thing in their
land,
ate up the produce of their soil.
 36 Then he struck down all the firstborn
in their land,
the firstfruits of all their manhood.
 37 He brought out Israel, laden with silver and gold,
and from among their tribes no-one faltering.
 38 Egypt was glad when they left,
because dread of Israel had fallen on them.
 39 He spread out a cloud as a covering,
and a fire to give light at night.
 40 They asked, and he brought them quail
and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
 41 He opened the rock, and water
gushed out;
like a river it flowed in the desert.
 42 For he remembered his holy promise
given to his servant Abraham.
 43 He brought out his people with rejoicing,
his chosen ones with shouts of joy;
 44 he gave them the lands of the nations,
and they fell heir to what others had toiled for—45 that they might keep his precepts

Psalm 106

1 Praise the LORD.^a

- Give thanks to the LORD, for he is
good;
his love endures for ever.
 2 Who can proclaim the mighty acts of
the LORD
or fully declare his praise?
 3 Blessed are those who maintain justice.

^a45 Hebrew Hallelu Yah

^a1 Hebrew Hallelu Yah; also in verse 48

- who constantly do what is right.
⁴Remember me, O LORD, when you show favour to your people,
 come to my aid when you save them, ⁵that I may enjoy the prosperity of your chosen ones,
 that I may share in the joy of your nation
 and join your inheritance in giving praise.
- ⁶We have sinned, even as our ancestors
 did;
 we have done wrong and acted wickedly.
⁷When our ancestors were in Egypt, they gave no thought to your
 miracles;
 they did not remember your many kindnesses,
 and they rebelled by the sea, the Red Sea.^b
- ⁸Yet he saved them for his name's sake,
 to make his mighty power known.
⁹He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried
 up;
 he led them through the depths as through a desert.
¹⁰He saved them from the hand of the foe;
 from the hand of the enemy he redeemed them.
¹¹The waters covered their adversaries;
 not one of them survived.
¹²Then they believed his promises and sang his praise.
- ¹³But they soon forgot what he had done
 and did not wait for his counsel.
¹⁴In the desert they gave in to their craving;
 in the wasteland they put God to the test.
¹⁵So he gave them what they asked for,
 but sent a wasting disease upon them.
- ¹⁶In the camp they grew envious of Moses and of Aaron, who was consecrated
 to the LORD.
¹⁷The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan;
- it buried the company of Abiram.
¹⁸Fire blazed among their followers;
 a flame consumed the wicked.
- ¹⁹At Horeb they made a calf and worshipped an idol cast from metal.
²⁰They exchanged their Glory
 for an image of a bull, which eats
 grass.
²¹They forgot the God who saved them,
 who had done great things in Egypt, ²²miracles in the land of Ham
 and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.
²³So he said he would destroy them —
 had not Moses, his chosen one,
 stood in the breach before him
 to keep his wrath from destroying
 them.
- ²⁴Then they despised the pleasant land;
 they did not believe his promise.
²⁵They grumbled in their tents
 and did not obey the LORD.
²⁶So he swore to them with uplifted hand that he would make them fall in the
 desert,
²⁷make their descendants fall among the
 nations
 and scatter them throughout the lands.
- ²⁸They yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor
 and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless
 gods;
²⁹they provoked the LORD to anger by their wicked deeds,
 and a plague broke out among them.
³⁰But Phinehas stood up and intervened,
 and the plague was checked.
³¹This was credited to him as
 righteousness
 for endless generations to come.
- ³²By the waters of Meribah they angered the LORD,
 and trouble came to Moses because
 of them;
³³for they rebelled against the Spirit of God,

^{b7} Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds; also in verses 9 and 22

and rash words came from Moses' lips.^c

- ³⁴They did not destroy the peoples
as the LORD had commanded them, ³⁵but they mingled with the nations and adopted their customs.
³⁶They worshipped their idols,
which became a snare to them.
³⁷They sacrificed their sons
and their daughters to demons.
³⁸They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and daughters,
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
and the land was desecrated by their
blood.
³⁹They defiled themselves by what they
did;
by their deeds they prostituted
themselves.
⁴⁰Therefore the LORD was angry with his
people
and abhorred his inheritance.
⁴¹He handed them over to the nations,
and their foes ruled over them.
⁴²Their enemies oppressed them
and subjected them to their power.
⁴³Many times he delivered them,
but they were bent on rebellion
and they wasted away in their sin.
⁴⁴But he took note of their distress
when he heard their cry; ⁴⁵for their sake he remembered his
covenant
and out of his great love he relented.
⁴⁶He caused them to be pitied
by all who held them captive.
⁴⁷Save us, O LORD our God,
and gather us from the nations,
that we may give thanks to your holy
name
and glory in your praise.
⁴⁸Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Let all the people say, "Amen!"
Praise the LORD.

BOOK V

Psalms 107–150

Psalm 107

- ¹Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
his love endures for ever.
²Let the redeemed of the LORD say
this—
those he redeemed from the hand of the foe,
³those he gathered from the lands,
from east and west, from north and south.^a ⁴Some wandered in desert wastelands, finding no way to a city where they could settle.
⁵They were hungry and thirsty,
and their lives ebbed away.
⁶Then they cried out to the LORD in
their trouble,
and he delivered them from their
distress.
⁷He led them by a straight way to a city where they could settle.
⁸Let them give thanks to the LORD for his unfailing love
and his wonderful deeds for human
beings,
⁹for he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good
things.
¹⁰Some sat in darkness and the deepest gloom,
prisoners suffering in iron chains, ¹¹for they had rebelled against the words of God
and despised the counsel of the Most High.
¹²So he subjected them to bitter labour;
they stumbled, and there was no-one to help.
¹³Then they cried to the LORD in their
trouble,
and he saved them from their
distress.
¹⁴He brought them out of darkness and the deepest gloom

^c33 Or against his spirit. / and rash words came from his lips

^a3 Hebrew north and the sea

and broke away their chains.
¹⁵Let them give thanks to the LORD for
 his unfailing love
 and his wonderful deeds for human
 beings,
¹⁶for he breaks down gates of bronze and cuts through bars of iron.
¹⁷Some became fools through their rebellious ways
 and suffered affliction because of their iniquities.
¹⁸They loathed all food
 and drew near the gates of death.
¹⁹Then they cried to the LORD in their
 trouble,
 and he saved them from their
 distress.
²⁰He sent forth his word and healed them;
 he rescued them from the grave.
²¹Let them give thanks to the LORD for
 his unfailing love
 and his wonderful deeds for human
 beings.
²²Let them sacrifice thank-offerings
 and tell of his works with songs of joy.
²³Others went out on the sea in ships;
 they were merchants on the mighty
 waters.
²⁴They saw the works of the LORD,
 his wonderful deeds in the deep.
²⁵For he spoke and stirred up a tempest that lifted high the waves.
²⁶They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths;
 in their peril their courage melted
 away.
²⁷They reeled and staggered like
 drunkards;
 they were at their wits' end.
²⁸Then they cried out to the LORD in
 their trouble,
 and he brought them out of their
 distress.
²⁹He stilled the storm to a whisper;
 the waves of the sea were hushed.
³⁰They were glad when it grew calm,
 and he guided them to their desired
 haven.
³¹Let them give thanks to the LORD for
 his unfailing love
 and his wonderful deeds for human
 beings.

³²Let them exalt him in the assembly of
 the people
 and praise him in the council of the elders.
³³He turned rivers into a desert, flowing springs into thirsty ground, ³⁴and fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the wickedness of those who lived there.
³⁵He turned the desert into pools of water and the parched ground into flowing springs;
³⁶there he brought the hungry to live,
 and they founded a city where they could settle.
³⁷They sowed fields and planted
 vineyards
 that yielded a fruitful harvest; ³⁸he blessed them, and their numbers greatly increased,
 and he did not let their herds
 diminish.
³⁹Then their numbers decreased, and they were humbled
 by oppression, calamity and sorrow;
⁴⁰he who pours contempt on nobles made them wander in a trackless
 waste.
⁴¹But he lifted the needy out of their affliction
 and increased their families like flocks.
⁴²The upright see and rejoice,
 but all the wicked shut their mouths.
⁴³Let those who are wise heed these
 things
 and consider the great love of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A song. A psalm of David.

¹My heart is steadfast, O God;
 I will sing and make music with all
 my soul.
²Awake, harp and lyre!
 I will awaken the dawn.
³I will praise you, O LORD, among the
 nations;
 I will sing of you among the peoples.

- ⁴For great is your love, higher than the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
⁵Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
and let your glory be over all the earth.
- ⁶Save us and help us with your right hand,
that those you love may be delivered.
⁷God has spoken from his sanctuary:
"In triumph I will parcel out Shechem and measure off the Valley of Succoth.
⁸Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim is my helmet,
Judah my sceptre.
⁹Moab is my washbasin,
upon Edom I toss my sandal;
over Philistia I shout in triumph."
- ¹⁰Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
¹¹Is it not you, O God, you who have rejected us
and no longer go out with our armies?
¹²Give us aid against the enemy,
for human help is worthless.
¹³With God we shall gain the victory,
and he will trample down our
enemies.
- ¹⁴They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my friendship.
¹⁵Appoint^a someone evil^b to oppose
him;
let an accuser^c stand at his right hand.
¹⁶When he is tried, let him be found guilty,
and may his prayers condemn him.
¹⁷May his days be few;
may another take his place of leadership.
¹⁸May his children be fatherless
and his wife a widow.
¹⁹May his children be wandering beggars;
may they be driven^d from their ruined homes.
²⁰May a creditor seize all he has;
may strangers plunder the fruits of his labour.
²¹May no-one extend kindness to him
or take pity on his fatherless children.
²²May his descendants be cut off, their names blotted out from the next generation.
²³May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD;
may the sin of his mother never be blotted out.
²⁴May their sins always remain before
the LORD,
that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

Psalm 109

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.

- ¹O God, whom I praise,
do not remain silent, ²for people who are wicked and deceitful
have opened their mouths against
me;
they have spoken against me with lying tongues.
³With words of hatred they surround
me;
they attack me without cause.
⁴In return for my friendship they accuse me,
but I turn to prayer.
- ⁵For he never thought of doing a
kindness,
but hounded to death the poor and the needy and the broken-hearted.
⁶He loved to pronounce a curse—
may it^e come on him;
he found no pleasure in blessing—
may it be^f far from him.
⁷He wore cursing as his garment;
it entered into his body like water,
into his bones like oil.
⁸May it be like a cloak wrapped about
him,
like a belt tied for ever round him.
⁹May this be the LORD's payment to my
accusers,
to those who speak evil of me.

- ²¹ But you, O Sovereign LORD, deal well with me for your name's sake;
out of the goodness of your love,
deliver me.
- ²² For I am poor and needy,
and my heart is wounded within
me.
- ²³ I fade away like an evening shadow;
I am shaken off like a locust.
- ²⁴ My knees give way from fasting;
my body is thin and gaunt.
- ²⁵ I am an object of scorn to my
accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads.
- ²⁶ Help me, O LORD my God;
save me in accordance with your
love.
- ²⁷ Let them know that it is your hand,
that you, O LORD, have done it.
- ²⁸ They may curse, but you will bless;
when they attack they will be put to
shame,
but your servant will rejoice.
- ²⁹ My accusers will be clothed with disgrace
and wrapped in shame as in a cloak.
- ³⁰ With my mouth I will greatly extol the
LORD;
in the great throng I will praise him.
- ³¹ For he stands at the right hand of the
needy,
to save their lives from those who condemn them.

Psalm 110

Of David. A psalm.

- ¹ The LORD says to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand
until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet."
- ² The LORD will extend your mighty sceptre from Zion;
- you will rule in the midst of your
enemies.
- ³ Your troops will be willing on your day of battle.
Arrayed in holy majesty,
from the womb of the dawn
you will receive the dew of your youth.^a
- ⁴ The LORD has sworn
and will not change his mind:
"You are a priest for ever,
in the order of Melchizedek."
- ⁵ The Lord is at your right hand;
he will crush kings on the day of his
wrath.
- ⁶ He will judge nations, heaping up the dead
and crushing the rulers of the whole
earth.
- ⁷ He will drink from a brook beside the way;^b
therefore he will lift up his head.

Psalm 111^a

- ¹ Praise the LORD.^b

I will extol the LORD with all my heart in the council of the upright and in the assembly.

- ² Great are the works of the LORD;
they are pondered by all who delight in them.
- ³ Glorious and majestic are his deeds,
and his righteousness endures for
ever.
- ⁴ He has caused his wonders to be remembered;
the LORD is gracious and
compassionate.
- ⁵ He provides food for those who fear
him;
he remembers his covenant for
ever.
- ⁶ He has shown his people the power of his works,

^{a3} Or / your young men will come to you like the dew giving them the lands of other nations.

⁷The works of his hands are faithful and just;

all his precepts are trustworthy.

⁸They are steadfast for ever and ever, done in faithfulness and uprightness.

⁹He provided redemption for his people; he ordained his covenant for ever— holy and awesome is his name.

¹⁰The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;

all who follow his precepts have good understanding.

To him belongs eternal praise.

Psalm 112^a

¹Praise the LORD.^b

Blessed are those who fear the LORD,
who find great delight in his commands.

²Their children will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

³Wealth and riches are in their houses,
and their righteousness endures for ever.

⁴Even in darkness light dawns for the upright,
for those who are gracious and compassionate and righteous.^c

⁵Good will come to those who are generous and lend freely, who conduct their affairs with justice.

⁶Surely they will never be shaken;
the righteous will be remembered for ever.

⁷They will have no fear of bad news;
their hearts are steadfast, trusting in the LORD.

⁸Their hearts are secure, they will have no fear;
in the end they will look in triumph on their foes.

⁹They have scattered abroad their gifts to the poor,

their righteousness endures for ever;

their horn^d will be lifted high in honour.

¹⁰The wicked will see and be vexed,
they will gnash their teeth and waste away;
the longings of the wicked will come to nothing.

Psalm 113

¹Praise the LORD.^a

Praise, O servants of the LORD,
praise the name of the LORD.

²Let the name of the LORD be praised,
both now and for evermore.

³From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets,
the name of the LORD is to be praised.

⁴The LORD is exalted over all the nations,
his glory above the heavens.

⁵Who is like the LORD our God,
the One who sits enthroned on high,

⁶who stoops down to look on the heavens and the earth?

⁷He raises the poor from the dust
and lifts the needy from the ash heap;

⁸he seats them with princes,
with the princes of their people.

⁹He settles the barren woman in her home
as a happy mother of children.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 114

¹When Israel came out of Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of foreign tongue,

- ³The sea looked and fled,
the Jordan turned back;
⁴the mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs.
- ⁵Why was it, O sea, that you fled,
O Jordan, that you turned back, ⁶you mountains, that you skipped like rams,
you hills, like lambs?
- ⁷Tremble, O earth, at the presence of
the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob, ⁸who turned the rock into a pool,
the hard rock into springs of water.

Psalm 115

- ¹Not to us, O LORD, not to us
but to your name be the glory, because of your love and faithfulness.
- ²Why do the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
- ³Our God is in heaven;
he does whatever pleases him.
- ⁴But their idols are silver and gold,
made by human hands.
- ⁵They have mouths, but cannot speak,
eyes, but they cannot see;
⁶they have ears, but cannot hear,
noses, but they cannot smell; ⁷they have hands, but cannot feel,
feet, but they cannot walk;
nor can they utter a sound with their throats.
- ⁸Those who make them will be like
them,
and so will all who trust in them.
- ⁹O house of Israel, trust in the LORD—
he is their help and shield.
- ¹⁰O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD—
he is their help and shield.
- ¹¹You who fear him, trust in the
LORD—
he is their help and shield.

- ¹²The LORD remembers us and will bless
us:

- He will bless the house of Israel,
he will bless the house of Aaron, ¹³he will bless those who fear the LORD—
small and great alike.
- ¹⁴May the LORD make you increase,
both you and your children.
- ¹⁵May you be blessed by the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.
- ¹⁶The highest heavens belong to the
LORD,
but the earth he has given to the human race.
- ¹⁷It is not the dead who praise the LORD,
those who go down to silence;
¹⁸it is we who extol the LORD,
both now and for evermore.

Praise the LORD.^a

Psalm 116

- ¹I love the LORD, for he heard my voice;
he heard my cry for mercy.
- ²Because he turned his ear to me,
I will call on him as long as I live.
- ³The cords of death entangled me,
the anguish of the grave^a came upon me;
I was overcome by trouble and
sorrow.
- ⁴Then I called on the name of the LORD:
"O LORD, save me!"
- ⁵The LORD is gracious and righteous;
our God is full of compassion.
- ⁶The LORD protects the simple-hearted;
when I was in great need, he saved
me.
- ⁷Be at rest once more, O my soul,
for the LORD has been good to you.
- ⁸For you, O LORD, have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling,
- ⁹that I may walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.

^a18 Hebrew Hallelu Yah ^a3 Hebrew Sheol

- ¹⁰ I believed; therefore^b I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."
¹¹ And in my dismay I said,
"All people are liars."
¹² How can I repay the LORD
for all his goodness to me?
¹³ I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the LORD.
¹⁴ I will fulfil my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.
¹⁵ Precious in the sight of the LORD
is the death of his saints.
¹⁶ O LORD, truly I am your servant;
I am your servant, the son of your woman servant;^c
you have freed me from my chains.
¹⁷ I will sacrifice a thank-offering to you
and call on the name of the LORD.
¹⁸ I will fulfil my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people,

² Let Israel say:
"His love endures for ever."
³ Let the house of Aaron say:
"His love endures for ever."
⁴ Let those who fear the LORD say:
"His love endures for ever."

- ⁵ In my anguish I cried to the LORD,
and he answered by setting me free.
⁶ The LORD is with me; I will not be afraid.

What can human beings do to me?

- ⁷ The LORD is with me; he is my helper.
I will look in triumph on my enemies.

- ⁸ It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in human beings.
⁹ It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in princes.

- ¹⁰ All the nations surrounded me,
but in the name of the LORD I cut
them off.

- ¹¹ They surrounded me on every side,
but in the name of the LORD I cut
them off.

- ¹² They swarmed around me like bees,
but they died out as quickly as burning thorns;
in the name of the LORD I cut them
off.

- ¹³ I was pushed back and about to fall,
but the LORD helped me.

- ¹⁴ The LORD is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation.

- ¹⁵ Shouts of joy and victory
resound in the tents of the righteous:
"The LORD's right hand has done
mighty things!"

- ¹⁶ The LORD's right hand is lifted high;
the LORD's right hand has done
mighty things!"

- ¹⁷ I will not die but live,
and will proclaim what the LORD
has done.

- ¹⁸ The LORD has chastened me severely,
but he has not given me over to death.

- ¹⁹ Open for me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter and give thanks to the
LORD.

- ²⁰ This is the gate of the LORD
through which the righteous may enter.

- 48 I lift up my hands to^c your commands,
which I love,
and I meditate on your decrees.

‡ Zayin

- 49 Remember your word to your servant,
for you have given me hope.
- 50 My comfort in my suffering is this:
Your promise preserves my life.
- 51 The arrogant mock me without restraint,
but I do not turn from your law.
- 52 I remember your ancient laws, O LORD,
and I find comfort in them.
- 53 Indignation grips me because of the wicked,
who have forsaken your law.
- 54 Your decrees are the theme of my song
wherever I lodge.
- 55 In the night I remember your name,
O LORD,
and I will keep your law.
- 56 This has been my practice:
I obey your precepts.

‡ Heth

- 57 You are my portion, O LORD;
I have promised to obey your words.
- 58 I have sought your face with all my heart;
be gracious to me according to your promise.

- ⁵⁹ I have considered my ways and have turned my steps to your statutes.
- ⁶⁰ I will hasten and not delay
to obey your commands.
- ⁶¹ Though the wicked bind me with ropes,
I will not forget your law.
- ⁶² At midnight I rise to give you thanks
for your righteous laws.
- ⁶³ I am a friend to all who fear you,
to all who follow your precepts.
- ⁶⁴ The earth is filled with your love,
O LORD;
teach me your decrees.

▮ Teth

- ⁶⁵ Do good to your servant
according to your word, O LORD.
- ⁶⁶ Teach me knowledge and good
judgment,
for I believe in your commands.
- ⁶⁷ Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now I obey your word.
- ⁶⁸ You are good, and what you do is good;
teach me your decrees.
- ⁶⁹ Though the arrogant have smeared
me with lies,
I keep your precepts with all my
heart.
- ⁷⁰ Their hearts are callous and unfeeling,
but I delight in your law.
- ⁷¹ It was good for me to be afflicted
so that I might learn your decrees.
- ⁷² The law from your mouth is more precious to me
than thousands of pieces of silver and gold.

▮ Yodh

- ⁷³ Your hands made me and formed me;
give me understanding to learn
your commands.
- ⁷⁴ May those who fear you rejoice when they see me,
for I have put my hope in your word.
- ⁷⁵ I know, O LORD, that your laws are
righteous,
and in faithfulness you have afflicted me.
- ⁷⁶ May your unfailing love be my comfort,

according to your promise to your
servant.

- ⁷⁷ Let your compassion come to me that I may live,
for your law is my delight.
- ⁷⁸ May the arrogant be put to shame for wronging me without cause;
but I will meditate on your precepts.
- ⁷⁹ May those who fear you turn to me,
those who understand your
statutes.
- ⁸⁰ May my heart be blameless towards your decrees,
that I may not be put to shame.

▮ Kaph

- ⁸¹ My soul faints with longing for your
salvation,
but I have put my hope in your word.
- ⁸² My eyes fail, looking for your promise;
I say, "When will you comfort me?"
- ⁸³ Though I am like a wineskin in the smoke,
I do not forget your decrees.
- ⁸⁴ How long must your servant wait?
When will you punish my persecutors?
- ⁸⁵ The arrogant dig pitfalls for me,
contrary to your law.
- ⁸⁶ All your commands are trustworthy;
help me, for people persecute me
without cause.
- ⁸⁷ They almost wiped me from the earth,
but I have not forsaken your precepts.
- ⁸⁸ Preserve my life according to your love,
and I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

▮ Lamedh

- ⁸⁹ Your word, O LORD, is eternal;
it stands firm in the heavens.
- ⁹⁰ Your faithfulness continues through
all generations;
you established the earth, and it endures.
- ⁹¹ Your laws endure to this day,
for all things serve you.
- ⁹² If your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my
affliction.

- ⁹³ I will never forget your precepts,
for by them you have preserved my
life.
⁹⁴ Save me, for I am yours;
I have sought out your precepts.
⁹⁵ The wicked are waiting to destroy me,
but I will ponder your statutes.
⁹⁶ To all perfection I see a limit;
but your commands are boundless.

Mem

- ⁹⁷ Oh, how I love your law!
I meditate on it all day long.
⁹⁸ Your commands make me wiser than my enemies,
for they are ever with me.
⁹⁹ I have more insight than all my teachers,
for I meditate on your statutes.
¹⁰⁰ I have more understanding than the elders,
for I obey your precepts.
¹⁰¹ I have kept my feet from every evil
path
so that I might obey your word.
¹⁰² I have not departed from your laws,
for you yourself have taught me.
¹⁰³ How sweet are your words to my taste,
sweeter than honey to my mouth!
¹⁰⁴ I gain understanding from your
precepts;
therefore I hate every wrong path.

Nun

- ¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light for my path.
¹⁰⁶ I have taken an oath and confirmed it,
that I will follow your righteous
laws.
¹⁰⁷ I have suffered much;
preserve my life, O LORD,
according to your word.
¹⁰⁸ Accept, O LORD, the willing praise of my mouth,
and teach me your laws.
¹⁰⁹ Though I constantly take my life in my hands,
I will not forget your law.
¹¹⁰ The wicked have set a snare for me, but I have not strayed from your
precepts.

- ¹¹¹ Your statutes are my heritage for ever;
they are the joy of my heart.
¹¹² My heart is set on keeping your
decrees
to the very end.

Samekh

- ¹¹³ I hate double-minded people,
but I love your law.
¹¹⁴ You are my refuge and my shield;
I have put my hope in your word.
¹¹⁵ Away from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commands of my God!
¹¹⁶ Sustain me according to your promise, and I shall live;
do not let my hopes be dashed.
¹¹⁷ Uphold me, and I shall be delivered;
I shall always have regard for your
decrees.
¹¹⁸ You reject all who stray from your
decrees,
for their deceitfulness is in vain.
¹¹⁹ All the wicked of the earth you discard like dross;
therefore I love your statutes.
¹²⁰ My flesh trembles in fear of you;
I stand in awe of your laws.

Ayin

- ¹²¹ I have done what is righteous and just;
do not leave me to my oppressors.
¹²² Ensure your servant's well-being;
let not the arrogant oppress me.
¹²³ My eyes fail, looking for your
salvation,
looking for your righteous promise.
¹²⁴ Deal with your servant according to your love
and teach me your decrees.
¹²⁵ I am your servant; give me discernment
that I may understand your statutes.
¹²⁶ It is time for you to act, O LORD;
your law is being broken.
¹²⁷ Because I love your commands more than gold, more than pure
gold, ¹²⁸ and because I consider all your precepts right,
I hate every wrong path.

D Pe

- 129 Your statutes are wonderful;
therefore I obey them.
- 130 The unfolding of your words gives
light;
it gives understanding to the simple.
- 131 I open my mouth and pant,
longing for your commands.
- 132 Turn to me and have mercy on me,
as you always do to those who love
your name.
- 133 Direct my footsteps according to
your word;
let no sin rule over me.
- 134 Redeem me from human
oppression,
that I may obey your precepts.
- 135 Make your face shine upon your servant
and teach me your decrees.
- 136 Streams of tears flow from my eyes,
for your law is not obeyed.

T Tsadhe

- 137 Righteous are you, O LORD,
and your laws are right.
- 138 The statutes you have laid down are
righteous;
they are fully trustworthy.
- 139 My zeal wears me out,
for my enemies ignore your words.
- 140 Your promises have been thoroughly tested,
and your servant loves them.
- 141 Though I am lowly and despised,
I do not forget your precepts.
- 142 Your righteousness is everlasting
and your law is true.
- 143 Trouble and distress have come
upon me,
but your commands are my delight.
- 144 Your statutes are for ever right;
give me understanding that I may live.

P Qoph

- 145 I call with all my heart; answer me,
O LORD,
and I will obey your decrees.
- 146 I call out to you; save me and I will keep your statutes.

- 147 I rise before dawn and cry for help;
I have put my hope in your word.
- 148 My eyes stay open through the watches of the night,
that I may meditate on your promises.
- 149 Hear my voice in accordance with
your love;
preserve my life, O LORD,
according to your laws.
- 150 Those who devise wicked schemes are near,
but they are far from your law.
- 151 Yet you are near, O LORD,
and all your commands are true.
- 152 Long ago I learned from your statutes that you established them to last
for ever.

Resh

- 153 Look upon my suffering and deliver
me,
for I have not forgotten your law.
- 154 Defend my cause and redeem me;
preserve my life according to your promise.
- 155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they do not seek out your
decrees.
- 156 Your compassion is great, O LORD;
preserve my life according to your
laws.
- 157 Many are the foes who persecute me,
but I have not turned from your
statutes.
- 158 I look on the faithless with loathing,
for they do not obey your word.
- 159 See how I love your precepts;
preserve my life, O LORD,
according to your love.
- 160 All your words are true;
all your righteous laws are eternal.

Sin and Shin

- 161 Rulers persecute me without cause,
but my heart trembles at your word.
- 162 I rejoice in your promise
like one who finds great spoil.
- 163 I hate and abhor falsehood
but I love your law.

- 164 Seven times a day I praise you
for your righteous laws.
165 Great peace have they who love your law,
and nothing can make them stumble.
166 I wait for your salvation, O LORD,
and I follow your commands.
167 I obey your statutes,
for I love them greatly.
168 I obey your precepts and your
statutes,
for all my ways are known to you.

□ Tav

- 169 May my cry come before you, O LORD;
give me understanding according to
your word.
170 May my supplication come before
you;
deliver me according to your
promise.
171 May my lips overflow with praise,
for you teach me your decrees.
172 May my tongue sing of your word, for all your commands are
righteous.
173 May your hand be ready to help me,
for I have chosen your precepts.
174 I long for your salvation, O LORD,
and your law is my delight.
175 Let me live that I may praise you,
and may your laws sustain me.
176 I have strayed like a lost sheep.
Seek your servant,
for I have not forgotten your commands.

Psalm 120

A song of ascents.

- 1 I call on the LORD in my distress,
and he answers me.
2 Save me, O LORD, from lying lips
and from deceitful tongues.
3 What will he do to you,
and what more besides, O deceitful
tongue?
4 He will punish you with a warrior's
sharp arrows,
with burning coals of the broom tree.

- 5 Woe to me that I dwell in Meshech,
that I live among the tents of Kedar!
6 Too long have I lived among those who hate peace.
7 I am for peace;
but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A song of ascents.

- 1 I lift up my eyes to the hills—
where does my help come from?
2 My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.
3 He will not let your foot slip—he who watches over you will not
slumber;
4 indeed, he who watches over Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.
5 The LORD watches over you—
the LORD is your shade at your right
hand;
6 the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.
7 The LORD will keep you from all harm—
he will watch over your life;
8 the LORD will watch over your coming and going
both now and for evermore.

Psalm 122

A song of ascents. Of David.

- 1 I rejoiced with those who said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD."
2 Our feet are standing in your gates, O Jerusalem.
3 Jerusalem is built like a city that is closely compacted together.
4 That is where the tribes go up,
the tribes of the LORD,
to praise the name of the LORD
according to the statute given to Israel.
5 There the thrones for judgment
stand,
the thrones of the house of David.

- ⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
 "May those who love you be secure.
⁷May there be peace within your walls and security within your citadels." ⁸For the sake of my relatives and friends,
 I will say, "Peace be within you."
⁹For the sake of the house of the LORD
 our God,
 I will seek your prosperity.

Psalm 123

A song of ascents.

- ¹I lift up my eyes to you,
 to you whose throne is in heaven.
²As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master,
 as the eyes of a female servant look
 to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our
 God,
 till he shows us his mercy.
³Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us,
 for we have endured much
 contempt.
⁴We have endured much ridicule from
 the proud,
 much contempt from the arrogant.

Psalm 124

A song of ascents. Of David.

- ¹If the LORD had not been on our side—
 let Israel say—²if the LORD had not been on our side
 when people attacked us, ³when their anger flared against us,
 they would have swallowed us
 alive;
⁴the flood would have engulfed us,
 the torrent would have swept over
 us, ⁵the raging waters
 would have swept us away.
⁶Praise be to the LORD,
 who has not let us be torn by their teeth.

^{a1} Or LORD restored the fortunes of

^{b1} Or those restored to health

- ⁷We have escaped like a bird
 out of the fowler's snare;
 the snare has been broken,
 and we have escaped.
⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD,
 the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song of ascents.

- ¹Those who trust in the LORD are like
 Mount Zion,
 which cannot be shaken but
 endures for ever.
²As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
 so the LORD surrounds his people
 both now and for evermore.
³The sceptre of the wicked will not remain
 over the land allotted to the
 righteous,
 for then the righteous might use their hands to do evil.
⁴Do good, O LORD, to those who are
 good,
 to those who are upright in heart.
⁵But those who turn to crooked ways
 the LORD will banish with the evildoers.

Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 126

A song of ascents.

- ¹When the LORD brought back the captives to ^aZion,
 we were like those who dreamed. ^b ²Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy.
 Then it was said among the nations,
 "The LORD has done great things for
 them."
³The LORD has done great things for
 us,
 and we are filled with joy.
⁴Restore our fortunes, ^cO LORD,
 like streams in the Negev.

^{c4} Or Bring back our captives

- ⁵Those who sow in tears
will reap with songs of joy.
⁶Those who go out weeping,
carrying seed to sow,
will return with songs of joy,
carrying sheaves with them.

Psalm 127*A song of ascents. Of Solomon.*

- ¹Unless the LORD builds the house,
its builders labour in vain.
Unless the LORD watches over the
city,
the guards stand watch in vain.
²In vain you rise early and stay up late,
toiling for food to eat—
for he grants sleep to^a those he loves.
³Children are a heritage from the LORD,
offspring a reward from him.
⁴Like arrows in the hands of a warrior are children born in one's youth.
⁵Blessed are those whose quivers are full of them.
They will not be put to shame
when they contend with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128*A song of ascents.*

- ¹Blessed are all who fear the LORD,
who walk in his ways.
²You will eat the fruit of your labour;
blessings and prosperity will be yours.
³Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
within your house;
your children will be like olive shoots round your table.
⁴Thus are those blessed
who fear the LORD.
⁵May the LORD bless you from Zion
all the days of your life;
may you see the prosperity of
Jerusalem,

^a Or eat— / for while they sleep he provides for

- ⁶and may you live to see your
children's children.

Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 129*A song of ascents.*

- ¹They have greatly oppressed me from my youth—
let Israel say—²they have greatly oppressed me from
my youth,
but they have not gained the victory
over me.
³Those who plough have ploughed my back
and made their furrows long.
⁴But the LORD is righteous;
he has cut me free from the cords
of the wicked.
⁵May all who hate Zion
be turned back in shame.
⁶May they be like grass on the roof,
which withers before it can grow;
⁷with it reapers cannot fill their hands,
nor those who gather fill their arms.
⁸May those who pass by not say,
“The blessing of the LORD be upon
you;
we bless you in the name of the
LORD.”

Psalm 130*A song of ascents.*

- ¹Out of the depths I cry to you,
O LORD;
²O Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive
to my cry for mercy.
³If you, O LORD, kept a record of sins,
O Lord, who could stand?
⁴But with you there is forgiveness;
therefore you are feared.
⁵I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,
and in his word I put my hope.
⁶My soul waits for the Lord more than those on watch wait for the morning,

more than those on watch wait for the morning.

⁷ O Israel, put your hope in the LORD, for with the LORD is unfailing love and with him is full redemption.

⁸ He himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A song of ascents. Of David.

¹ My heart is not proud, O LORD, my eyes are not haughty;

I do not concern myself with great matters or things too wonderful for me.

² But I have stilled and quietened my soul; like a weaned child with its mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.

³ O Israel, put your hope in the LORD both now and for evermore.

Psalm 132

A song of ascents.

¹ O LORD, remember David and all the hardships he endured.

² He swore an oath to the LORD and made a vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:

³ "I will not enter my house or go to my bed—

⁴ I will allow no sleep to my eyes, no slumber to my eyelids,

⁵ till I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob."

⁶ We heard it in Ephrathah, we came upon it in the fields of Jaar:^{a, b}

⁷ "Let us go to his dwelling-place; let us worship at his footstool—

⁸ arise, O LORD, and come to your resting place,

you and the ark of your might.
⁹ May your priests be clothed with righteousness; may your saints sing for joy."

¹⁰ For the sake of David your servant, do not reject your anointed one.

¹¹ The LORD swore an oath to David, a sure oath that he will not revoke: "One of your own descendants I will place on your throne—

¹² if your sons keep my covenant and the statutes I teach them, then their sons shall sit on your throne for ever and ever."

¹³ For the LORD has chosen Zion, he has desired it for his dwelling:

¹⁴ "This is my resting place for ever and ever; here I will sit enthroned, for I have desired it—

¹⁵ I will bless her with abundant provisions;

her poor will I satisfy with food.

¹⁶ I will clothe her priests with salvation, and her saints shall ever sing for joy.

¹⁷ "Here I will make a horn^c grow for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.

¹⁸ I will clothe his enemies with shame, but the crown on his head shall be resplendent."

Psalm 133

A song of ascents. Of David.

¹ How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!

² It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down upon the collar of his robes.

^a That is, Kiriath Jearim

^b Or heard of it in Ephrathah, / we found it in the fields of Jaar. (and no quotation marks around verses 7–9)

^c Horn here symbolises strong one, that is, king.

- ³It is as if the dew of Hermon
were falling on Mount Zion.
For there the LORD bestows his blessing,
even life for evermore.

Psalm 134

A song of ascents.

- ¹Praise the LORD, all you servants of
the LORD
who minister by night in the house
of the LORD.
²Lift up your hands in the sanctuary
and praise the LORD.

³May the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth,
bless you from Zion.

Psalm 135

- ¹Praise the LORD.^a

- Praise the name of the LORD;
praise him, you servants of the
LORD,
²you who minister in the house of the
LORD,
in the courts of the house of our
God.

³Praise the LORD, for the LORD is
good;
sing praise to his name, for that is pleasant.
⁴For the LORD has chosen Jacob to be his own,
Israel to be his treasured possession.

⁵I know that the LORD is great,
that our Lord is greater than all
gods.
⁶The LORD does whatever pleases him,
in the heavens and on the earth,
in the seas and all their depths.
⁷He makes clouds rise from the ends of
the earth;
he sends lightning with the rain
and brings out the wind from his storehouses.

- ⁸He struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
the firstborn of people and animals.
⁹He sent his signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his
servants.

- ¹⁰He struck down many nations
and killed mighty kings—
¹¹Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan
and all the kings of Canaan—¹²and he gave their land as an
inheritance,
an inheritance to his people Israel.

- ¹³Your name, O LORD, endures for ever,
your renown, O LORD, through all
generations.
¹⁴For the LORD will vindicate his people
and have compassion on his
servants.

- ¹⁵The idols of the nations are silver and
gold,
made by human hands.
¹⁶They have mouths, but cannot speak,
eyes, but they cannot see;
¹⁷they have ears, but cannot hear,
nor is there breath in their mouths.
¹⁸Those who make them will be like
them,
and so will all who trust in them.

- ¹⁹O house of Israel, praise the LORD;
O house of Aaron, praise the LORD;
²⁰O house of Levi, praise the LORD;
you who fear him, praise the LORD.
²¹Praise be to the LORD from Zion,
to him who dwells in Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 136

- ¹Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. His love endures for ever.
²Give thanks to the God of gods.
His love endures for ever.
³Give thanks to the Lord of lords:
His love endures for ever.

^a Hebrew Hallelu Yah; also in verses 3 and 21

4 to him who alone does great wonders,
His love endures for ever.
 5 who by his understanding made the heavens,
His love endures for ever.
 6 who spread out the earth upon the waters,
His love endures for ever.
 7 who made the great lights—
His love endures for ever.
 8 the sun to govern the day,
His love endures for ever.
 9 the moon and stars to govern the night;
His love endures for ever.

10 to him who struck down the firstborn of Egypt
His love endures for ever.
 11 and brought Israel out from among them
His love endures for ever.
 12 with a mighty hand and outstretched arm;
His love endures for ever.

13 to him who divided the Red Sea^a asunder
His love endures for ever.
 14 and brought Israel through the midst of it,
His love endures for ever.
 15 but swept Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea;
His love endures for ever.

16 to him who led his people through the desert,
His love endures for ever.
 17 who struck down great kings,
His love endures for ever.
 18 and killed mighty kings—
His love endures for ever.
 19 Sihon king of the Amorites
His love endures for ever.
 20 and Og king of Bashan—
His love endures for ever.
 21 and gave their land as an inheritance,
His love endures for ever.

22 an inheritance to his servant Israel;
His love endures for ever.
 23 to the One who remembered us in our low estate
His love endures for ever.
 24 and freed us from our enemies,
His love endures for ever.
 25 and who gives food to every creature.
His love endures for ever.
 26 Give thanks to the God of heaven.
His love endures for ever.

Psalm 137

1 By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept
 when we remembered Zion.
 2 There on the poplars
 we hung our harps,
 3 for there our captors asked us for songs,
 our tormentors demanded songs of joy;
 they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

4 How can we sing the songs of the LORD
 while in a foreign land?
 5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
 may my right hand forget its skill.
 6 May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
 if I do not remember you,
 if I do not consider Jerusalem
 my highest joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, what the Edomites did
 on the day Jerusalem fell.
 "Tear it down," they cried,
 "tear it down to its foundations!"

8 O Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, happy are those who repay you for what you have done to us—9 those who seize your infants and dash them against the rocks.

^a13 Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds; also in verse 15

Psalm 138

Of David.

- ¹I will praise you, O LORD, with all my heart;
before the "gods" I will sing your praise.
²I will bow down towards your holy temple and will praise your name for your love and your faithfulness, for you have exalted above all things
your name and your word.
³When I called, you answered me;
you made me bold and stout-hearted.
- ⁴May all the kings of the earth praise
you, O LORD,
when they hear the words of your
mouth.
⁵May they sing of the ways of the
LORD,
for the glory of the LORD is great.
- ⁶Though the LORD is on high, he looks upon the lowly,
but the proud he knows from afar.
⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
you preserve my life;
you stretch out your hand against the anger of my foes,
with your right hand you save me.
⁸The LORD will fulfil ^chis purpose^c for
me;
your love, O LORD, endures for
ever—
do not abandon the works of your hands.

Psalm 139

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.

- ¹O LORD, you have searched me
and you know me.
²You know when I sit and when I rise;
you perceive my thoughts from afar.
³You discern my going out and my lying down;
you are familiar with all my ways.

- ⁴Before a word is on my tongue
you know it completely, O LORD.
- ⁵You hem me in—behind and before;
you have laid your hand upon me.
⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for
me,
too lofty for me to attain.
- ⁷Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your
presence?
⁸If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
if I make my bed in the depths,^a you are there.
⁹If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
if I settle on the far side of the sea, ¹⁰even there your hand will guide me,
your right hand will hold me fast.
- ¹¹If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide
me
and the light become night around
me," ¹²even the darkness will not be dark to
you;
the night will shine like the day,
for darkness is as light to you.
- ¹³For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my
mother's womb.
¹⁴I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,
I know that full well.
¹⁵My frame was not hidden from you
when I was made in the secret place.
When I was woven together in the depths of the earth, ¹⁶your eyes saw my unformed body.
All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.
- ¹⁷How precious to^b me are your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!
¹⁸Were I to count them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand.

^a8 Hebrew Sheol ^b17 Or concerning

When I awake,
I am still with you.

¹⁹If only you would slay the wicked,
O God!

Away from me, you who are bloodthirsty!

²⁰They speak of you with evil intent;
your adversaries misuse your
name.

²¹Do I not hate those who hate you,
O LORD,
and abhor those who rise up against
you?

²²I have nothing but hatred for them;
I count them my enemies.

²³Search me, O God, and know my
heart;
test me and know my anxious thoughts.

²⁴See if there is any offensive way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalm 140

For the director of music. A psalm of David.

¹Rescue me, O LORD, from evildoers;
protect me from the violent,

²who devise evil plans in their hearts and stir up war every day.

³They make their tongues as sharp as a serpent's;
the poison of vipers is on their lips.

Selah

⁴Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of
the wicked;
protect me from the violent
who plan to trip my feet.

⁵The proud have hidden a snare for me;
they have spread out the cords of their net
and have set traps for me along my path.

Selah

⁶O LORD, I say to you, "You are my God."

Hear, O LORD, my cry for mercy.

⁷O Sovereign LORD, my strong deliverer, who shields my head in the day of battle—

⁸do not grant the wicked their desires,
O LORD;
do not let their plans succeed,
or they will become proud. Selah

⁹Let the heads of those who surround
me

be covered with the trouble their lips have caused.

¹⁰Let burning coals fall upon them;
may they be thrown into the fire,
into miry pits, never to rise.

¹¹Let slanderers not be established in
the land;
may disaster hunt down the violent.

¹²I know that the LORD secures justice for the poor
and upholds the cause of the needy.

¹³Surely the righteous will praise your
name
and the upright will live before you.

Psalm 141

A psalm of David.

¹O LORD, I call to you; come quickly to
me.

Hear my voice when I call to you.

²May my prayer be set before you like incense;
may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.

³Set a guard over my mouth, O LORD;
keep watch over the door of my lips.

⁴Let not my heart be drawn to what is
evil,
to take part in wicked deeds
with those who are evildoers;
let me not eat of their delicacies.

⁵Let a righteous person^a strike me—
that is a kindness;
let them rebuke me—that is oil on my head.
My head will not refuse it.

Yet my prayer is ever against the deeds of evildoers;

⁶their rulers will be thrown down
from the cliffs,

^a5 Or Let the Righteous One and the wicked will learn that my words were well spoken.

7 They will say, "As one ploughs and breaks up the earth, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of the grave."^b

8 But my eyes are fixed on you, O Sovereign LORD; in you I take refuge—do not give me over to death.

9 Keep me from the snares they have laid for me, from the traps set by evildoers.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by in safety.

Psalm 142

A maskil^a of David. When he was in the cave. A prayer.

1 I cry aloud to the LORD; I lift up my voice to the LORD for mercy.

2 I pour out my complaint before him; before him I tell my trouble.

3 When my spirit grows faint within me, it is you who know my way. In the path where I walk people have hidden a snare for me.

4 Look to my right and see; no-one is concerned for me. I have no refuge; no-one cares for my life.

5 I cry to you, O LORD; I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

6 Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need; rescue me from those who pursue me, for they are too strong for me.

7 Set me free from my prison, that I may praise your name.

Then the righteous will gather about me because of your goodness to me.

Psalm 143

A psalm of David.

1 O LORD, hear my prayer, listen to my cry for mercy; in your faithfulness and righteousness come to my relief.

2 Do not bring your servant into judgment, for no-one living is righteous before you.

3 The enemy pursues me, he crushes me to the ground; he makes me dwell in darkness like those long dead.

4 So my spirit grows faint within me; my heart within me is dismayed.

5 I remember the days of long ago; I meditate on all your works and consider what your hands have done.

6 I spread out my hands to you; my soul thirsts for you like a parched land. Selah

7 Answer me quickly, O LORD; my spirit fails. Do not hide your face from me or I will be like those who go down to the pit.

8 Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in you. Show me the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.

9 Rescue me from my enemies, O LORD, for I hide myself in you.

10 Teach me to do your will, for you are my God; may your good Spirit lead me on level ground.

11 For your name's sake, O LORD, preserve my life; in your righteousness, bring me out of trouble.

12 In your unfailing love, silence my enemies; destroy all my foes, for I am your servant.

Psalm 144*Of David.*

- ¹ Praise be to the LORD my Rock,
who trains my hands for war,
my fingers for battle.
- ² He is my loving God and my fortress,
my stronghold and my deliverer,
my shield, in whom I take refuge,
who subdues peoples^a under me.
- ³ O LORD, what are human beings that you care for them,
mere mortals that you think of
them?
- ⁴ They are like a breath;
their days are like a fleeting shadow.
- ⁵ Part your heavens, O LORD, and come
down;
touch the mountains, so that they
smoke.
- ⁶ Send forth lightning and scatter the
enemies;
shoot your arrows and rout
them.
- ⁷ Reach down your hand from on high;
deliver me and rescue me
from the mighty waters,
from the hands of foreigners
- ⁸ whose mouths are full of lies,
whose right hands are deceitful.
- ⁹ I will sing a new song to you, O God;
on the ten-stringed lyre I will make music to you,
- ¹⁰ to the One who gives victory to kings,
who delivers his servant David from the deadly sword.
- ¹¹ Deliver me and rescue me
from the hands of foreigners
whose mouths are full of lies,
whose right hands are deceitful.
- ¹² Then our sons in their youth
will be like well-nurtured plants,

and our daughters will be like pillars carved to adorn a palace.

- ¹³ Our barns will be filled with every kind of provision.
Our sheep will increase by thousands,
by tens of thousands in our fields;
- ¹⁴ our oxen will draw heavy loads.^b
There will be no breaching of walls,
no going into captivity,
no cry of distress in our streets.
- ¹⁵ Blessed are the people of whom this is true;
blessed are the people whose God
is the LORD.

Psalm 145^a*A psalm of praise. Of David.*

- ¹ I will exalt you, my God the King;
I will praise your name for ever and
ever.
- ² Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and
ever.
- ³ Great is the LORD and most worthy of
praise;
his greatness no-one can fathom.
- ⁴ One generation will commend your works to another;
they will tell of your mighty acts.
- ⁵ They will speak of the glorious splendour of your majesty, and I will meditate on your wonderful works.^b
- ⁶ They will tell of the power of your awesome works,
and I will proclaim your great
deeds.
- ⁷ They will celebrate your abundant goodness
and joyfully sing of your
righteousness.
- ⁸ The LORD is gracious and
compassionate,
slow to anger and rich in love.

^{b5} Dead Sea Scrolls and Syriac (see also Septuagint); Masoretic Text On the glorious splendour of your majesty / and on your wonderful works I will meditate

- ⁹The LORD is good to all;
he has compassion on all he has made.
- ¹⁰All you have made will praise you,
O LORD;
your saints will extol you.
- ¹¹They will tell of the glory of your kingdom
and speak of your might, ¹²so that all people may know of your mighty acts
and the glorious splendour of your
kingdom.
- ¹³Your kingdom is an everlasting
kingdom,
and your dominion endures
through all generations.
- The LORD is faithful to all his promises
and loving towards all he has made.^c
- ¹⁴The LORD upholds all those who fall
and lifts up all who are bowed
down.
- ¹⁵The eyes of all look to you,
and you give them their food at the proper time.
- ¹⁶You open your hand
and satisfy the desires of every living thing.
- ¹⁷The LORD is righteous in all his ways
and loving towards all he has made.
- ¹⁸The LORD is near to all who call on
him,
to all who call on him in truth.
- ¹⁹He fulfils the desires of those who fear
him;
he hears their cry and saves
them.
- ²⁰The LORD watches over all who love
him,
but all the wicked he will destroy.
- ²¹My mouth will speak in praise of the
LORD.
Let every creature praise his holy
name
for ever and ever.

Psalm 146

- ¹Praise the LORD.^a
- Praise the LORD, O my soul.
²I will praise the LORD all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long
as I live.
- ³Do not put your trust in princes,
in human beings, who cannot save.
- ⁴When their spirit departs, they return to the ground;
on that very day their plans come to
nothing.
- ⁵Blessed are those whose help is the God of Jacob,
whose hope is in the LORD their God,
- ⁶the Maker of heaven and earth,
the sea, and everything in them—
the LORD, who remains faithful for
ever.
- ⁷He upholds the cause of the oppressed
and gives food to the hungry.
The LORD sets prisoners free,
- ⁸the LORD gives sight to the blind,
the LORD lifts up those who are bowed
down,
the LORD loves the righteous.
- ⁹The LORD watches over the alien and sustains the fatherless and the widow,
but he frustrates the ways of the
wicked.
- ¹⁰The LORD reigns for ever,
your God, O Zion, for all
generations.

Praise the LORD.

he supplies the earth with rain
and makes grass grow on the hills.
⁹He provides food for the cattle and for the young ravens when they call.
- ¹⁰His pleasure is not in the strength of the horse,
nor his delight in the power of human legs;
¹¹the LORD delights in those who fear him,
who put their hope in his unfailing love.
- ¹²Extol the LORD, O Jerusalem;
praise your God, O Zion, ¹³for he strengthens the bars of your gates and blesses your people within you.
¹⁴He grants peace to your borders
and satisfies you with the finest of wheat.
- ¹⁵He sends his command to the earth;
his word runs swiftly.
¹⁶He spreads the snow like wool
and scatters the frost like ashes.
¹⁷He hurls down hail like pebbles.
Who can withstand his icy blast?
¹⁸He sends his word and melts them;
he stirs up his breezes, and the waters flow.

- ¹⁹He has revealed his word to Jacob,
his laws and decrees to Israel.
²⁰He has done this for no other nation;
they do not know his laws.

Psalm 148

- ¹Praise the LORD.^a

- Praise the LORD from the heavens,
praise him in the heights above.
²Praise him, all his angels,
praise him, all his heavenly hosts.
³Praise him, sun and moon,
praise him, all you shining stars.
⁴Praise him, you highest heavens
and you waters above the skies.
⁵Let them praise the name of the LORD,

⁸lightning and hail, snow and clouds,
stormy winds that do his bidding, ⁹you mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars, ¹⁰wild animals and all cattle,
small creatures and flying birds, ¹¹kings of the earth and all nations,
you princes and all rulers on earth, ¹²young men and women,
old men and children.
- ¹³Let them praise the name of the LORD,
for his name alone is exalted;
his splendour is above the earth and the heavens.
¹⁴He has raised up for his people a horn,^b
the praise of all his saints,
of Israel, the people close to his heart.

his praise in the assembly of the saints.

² Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
let the people of Zion be glad in their King.

³ Let them praise his name with dancing and make music to him with tambourine and harp.

⁴ For the LORD takes delight in his
people;
he crowns the humble with
salvation.

⁵ Let the saints rejoice in this honour
and sing for joy on their beds.

⁶ May the praise of God be in their mouths
and a double-edged sword in their
hands,

⁷ to inflict vengeance on the nations
and punishment on the peoples,

⁸ to bind their kings with fetters,
their nobles with shackles of iron,

⁹ to carry out the sentence written
against them.

Proverbs

Prologue: Purpose and Theme

1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:

²for attaining wisdom and discipline;
for understanding words of insight;

³for acquiring a disciplined and prudent life,
doing what is right and just and fair;

⁴for giving prudence to the simple,
knowledge and discretion to the young—

⁵let the wise listen and add to their learning, and let the discerning get guidance—

⁶for understanding proverbs and parables,
the sayings and riddles of the wise.

⁷The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
but fools^a despise wisdom and discipline.

Exhortations to Embrace Wisdom

Warning Against Enticement

⁸Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching.

⁹They will be a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you,
do not give in to them.

¹¹If they say, "Come along with us;
let's lie in wait for someone's blood,
let's waylay some harmless soul;

¹²let's swallow them alive, like the grave,^b and whole, like those who go down to the pit;

¹³we will get all sorts of valuable things
and fill our houses with plunder;

¹⁴throw in your lot with us, and we will share a common purse"—

¹⁵my son, do not go along with them,
do not set foot on their paths;

¹⁶for their feet rush into sin,
they are swift to shed blood.

¹⁷How useless to spread a net
in full view of all the birds!

¹⁸These sinners lie in wait for their own blood;
they waylay only themselves!

¹⁹Such is the end of all who go after ill-gotten gain;
it takes away the lives of those who get it.

Warning Against Rejecting Wisdom

²⁰Wisdom calls aloud in the street,
she raises her voice in the public squares;

²¹at the head of the noisy streets^c she cries out,
in the gateways of the city she makes her speech:

^{a7} The Hebrew words rendered fool in Proverbs, and often elsewhere in the Old Testament, denote one who is morally deficient. ^{b12} Hebrew Sheol ^{c21} Hebrew; Septuagint / on the tops of the walls

- 22 "How long will you simple ones^d love
your simple ways?
How long will mockers delight in mockery
and fools hate knowledge?
23 If you had responded to my rebuke,
I would have poured out my heart
to you
and made my thoughts known to you.
24 But since you rejected me when I called and no-one gave heed when I stretched out my hand, 25 since you ignored all my advice
and would not accept my rebuke, 26 I in turn will laugh at your disaster;
I will mock when calamity
overtakes you—27 when calamity overtakes you like a storm,
when disaster sweeps over you like
a whirlwind,
when distress and trouble
overwhelm you.
28 "Then they will call to me but I will
not answer;
they will look for me but will not find me.
29 Since they hated knowledge
and did not choose to fear the LORD, 30 since they would not accept my advice
and spurned my rebuke, 31 they will eat the fruit of their ways and be filled with the fruit of their schemes.
32 For the waywardness of the simple will kill them,
and the complacency of fools will destroy them;
33 but whoever listens to me will live in safety
and be at ease, without fear of harm."

Moral Benefits of Wisdom

- 2 My son, if you accept my words
and store up my commands within
you,
2 turning your ear to wisdom
and applying your heart to understanding,

- 3 and if you call out for insight
and cry aloud for understanding, 4 and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure,
5 then you will understand the fear of
the LORD
and find the knowledge of God.
6 For the LORD gives wisdom,
and from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.
7 He holds victory in store for the
upright,
he is a shield to those whose walk is
blameless,
8 for he guards the course of the just and protects the way of his faithful
ones.
9 Then you will understand what is right and just
and fair—every good path.
10 For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
11 Discretion will protect you,
and understanding will guard you.
12 Wisdom will save you from the ways of wicked men,
from men whose words are perverse, 13 who leave the straight paths
to walk in dark ways, 14 who delight in doing wrong and rejoice in the perverseness of
evil,
15 whose paths are crooked
and who are devious in their ways.
16 It will save you also from the adulteress,
from the wayward wife with her seductive words,
17 who has left the partner of her youth and ignored the covenant she made before God.^a 18 For her house leads down to death and her paths to the spirits of the dead.
19 None who go to her return
or attain the paths of life.

^a22 The Hebrew word rendered simple in Proverbs generally denotes one without moral direction and inclined to evil. ^a17 Or covenant of her God

²⁰ Thus you will walk in the ways of the just and keep to the paths of the righteous.

²¹ For the upright will live in the land,
and the blameless will remain in it;

²² but the wicked will be cut off from the land,
and the unfaithful will be torn from it.

Further Benefits of Wisdom

3 My son, do not forget my teaching,
but keep my commands in your heart,

² for they will prolong your life many years and bring you prosperity.

³ Let love and faithfulness never leave you;
bind them around your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart.

⁴ Then you will win favour and a good name in the sight of God and other people.

⁵ Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding;

⁶ in all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make your paths straight.^a

⁷ Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear the LORD and shun evil.

⁸ This will bring health to your body
and nourishment to your bones.

⁹ Honour the LORD with your wealth,
with the firstfruits of all your crops;

¹⁰ then your barns will be filled to overflowing,
and your vats will brim over with new wine.

¹¹ My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline and do not resent his rebuke,

¹² because the LORD disciplines those he loves,
loves,

as parents the children they delight in.^b

¹³ Blessed are those who find wisdom,
those who gain understanding,
¹⁴ for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold.

¹⁵ She is more precious than rubies;
nothing you desire can compare with her.

¹⁶ Long life is in her right hand;
in her left hand are riches and honour.

¹⁷ Her ways are pleasant ways,
and all her paths are peace.

¹⁸ She is a tree of life to those who embrace her;
those who lay hold of her will be blessed.

¹⁹ By wisdom the LORD laid the earth's foundations,
by understanding he set the heavens in place;

²⁰ by his knowledge the deeps were divided,
and the clouds let drop the dew.

²¹ My son, preserve sound judgment and discernment,
do not let them out of your sight;

²² they will be life for you,
an ornament to grace your neck.

²³ Then you will go on your way in safety,
and your foot will not stumble;
²⁴ when you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.

²⁵ Have no fear of sudden disaster
or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked,

²⁶ for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being snared.

²⁷ Do not withhold good from those who deserve it,
when it is in your power to act.

²⁸ Do not say to your neighbour,

^a Or will direct your paths.

^b 12 Hebrew; Septuagint / and he punishes everyone he accepts as a child

"Come back later; I'll give it tomorrow"— when you now have it with you.

- ²⁹ Do not plot harm against your neighbour,
who lives trustfully near you.
³⁰ Do not accuse someone for no reason—
when that person has done you no harm.

³¹ Do not envy the violent or choose any of their ways, ³² for the LORD detests the perverse
but takes the upright into his confidence.

³³ The LORD's curse is on the house of
the wicked,
but he blesses the home of the righteous.
³⁴ He mocks proud mockers
but gives grace to the humble.
³⁵ The wise inherit honour,
but fools he holds up to shame.

Wisdom is Supreme

- 4 Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction;
pay attention and gain understanding.
² I give you sound learning,
so do not forsake my teaching.
³ When I was a boy in my father's house,
still tender, and an only child of my mother,
⁴ he taught me and said,
"Lay hold of my words with all your heart;
keep my commands and you will live.
⁵ Get wisdom, get understanding;
do not forget my words or swerve from them.
⁶ Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you;
love her, and she will watch over you.

- ⁷ Wisdom is supreme; therefore get wisdom.
Though it cost all you have,^a get understanding.
⁸ Esteem her, and she will exalt you;
embrace her, and she will honour you.
⁹ She will set a garland of grace on your head and present you with a crown of splendour."

¹⁰ Listen, my son, accept what I say,
and the years of your life will be many.
¹¹ I guide you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths.
¹² When you walk, your steps will not be hampered;
when you run, you will not stumble.
¹³ Hold on to instruction, do not let it go;
guard it well, for it is your life.
¹⁴ Do not set foot on the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evildoers.
¹⁵ Avoid it, do not travel on it;
turn from it and go on your way.
¹⁶ For they cannot sleep till they do evil;
they are robbed of slumber till they make someone fall.
¹⁷ They eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

¹⁸ The path of the righteous is like the first gleam of dawn, shining ever brighter till the full light of day.
¹⁹ But the way of the wicked is like deep darkness;
they do not know what makes them stumble.

²⁰ My son, pay attention to what I say;
listen closely to my words.
²¹ Do not let them out of your sight,
keep them within your heart;
²² for they are life to those who find them
and health to one's whole body.

^a Or Whatever else you get

- ²³ Above all else, guard your heart,
for it is the wellspring of life.
²⁴ Put away perversity from your mouth;
keep corrupt talk far from your lips.
²⁵ Let your eyes look straight ahead,
fix your gaze directly before you.
²⁶ Make level^b paths for your feet
and take only ways that are firm.
²⁷ Do not swerve to the right or the left;
keep your foot from evil.

Warning Against Adultery

- 5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom,
listen well to my words of insight,
² that you may maintain discretion
and your lips may preserve knowledge.
³ For the lips of an adulteress drip honey,
and her speech is smoother than oil;
⁴ but in the end she is bitter as gall,
sharp as a double-edged sword.
⁵ Her feet go down to death;
her steps lead straight to the grave.^a ⁶ She gives no thought to the way of life;
her paths are crooked, but she knows it not.
- ⁷ Now then, my sons, listen to me;
do not turn aside from what I say.
⁸ Keep to a path far from her,
do not go near the door of her house,
⁹ lest you give your best strength to others
and your years to one who is cruel, ¹⁰ lest strangers feast on your wealth
and your toil enrich the house of another.
¹¹ At the end of your life you will groan,
when your flesh and body are spent.
¹² You will say, "How I hated discipline!
How my heart spurned correction!
¹³ I would not obey my teachers or listen to my instructors.
¹⁴ I have come to the brink of utter ruin
in the midst of the whole assembly."
¹⁵ Drink water from your own cistern, running water from your own well.

- ¹⁶ Should your springs overflow in the streets,
your streams of water in the public squares?
¹⁷ Let them be yours alone,
never to be shared with strangers.
¹⁸ May your fountain be blessed,
and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth.
¹⁹ A loving doe, a graceful deer—may her breasts satisfy you always,
may you ever be captivated by her love.
²⁰ Why be captivated, my son, by an adulteress?
Why embrace the bosom of another man's wife?
- ²¹ For your ways are in full view of the Lord,
and he examines all your paths.
²² The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare them;
the cords of their sins hold them fast.
²³ They will die for lack of discipline,
led astray by their own great folly.

Warnings Against Folly

- 6 My son, if you have put up security
for your neighbour, if you have struck hands in pledge
for another,
² if you have been trapped by what you said,
ensnared by the words of your mouth,
³ then do this, my son, to free yourself,
since you have fallen into your neighbour's hands:
Go and humble yourself;
press your plea with your neighbour!
⁴ Allow no sleep to your eyes,
no slumber to your eyelids.
⁵ Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
like a bird from the snare of the fowler.
⁶ Go to the ant, you sluggard;
consider its ways and be wise!

- 7 It has no commander,
no overseer or ruler,
8 yet it stores its provisions in summer
and gathers its food at harvest.
- 9 How long will you lie there, you
s sluggard?
When will you get up from your sleep?
- 10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest—11 and poverty will come on you like a bandit
and scarcity like an armed man.^a
- 12 Scoundrels and villains,
who go about with corrupt mouths, 13 who wink with their eyes, signal with their feet
and motion with their fingers, 14 who plot evil with deceit in their hearts—
they always stir up dissension.
- 15 Therefore disaster will overtake them
in an instant;
they will suddenly be destroyed—
without remedy.
- 16 There are six things the LORD hates,
seven that are detestable to him:
17 haughty eyes,
a lying tongue,
hands that shed innocent blood, 18 a heart that devises wicked
schemes,
feet that are quick to rush into evil, 19 a false witness who pours out lies and a person who stirs up dissension among the people.

Warning Against Adultery

- 20 My son, keep your father's commands and do not forsake your mother's teaching.
- 21 Bind them upon your heart for ever;
fasten them around your neck.
- 22 When you walk, they will guide you;
when you sleep, they will watch
over you;
when you awake, they will speak to
you.

- 23 For these commands are a lamp,
this teaching is a light,
and the corrections of discipline
are the way to life, 24 keeping you from the immoral woman,
from the smooth tongue of the wayward wife.
- 25 Do not lust in your heart after her beauty
or let her captivate you with her
eyes,
26 for the prostitute reduces you to a loaf
of bread,
and the adulteress preys upon your very life.
- 27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap
without his clothes being burned?
28 Can a man walk on hot coals
without his feet being scorched?
29 So is he who sleeps with another man's wife;
no-one who touches her will go
unpunished.
- 30 People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his hunger when he is starving.
- 31 Yet if he is caught, he must pay
sevenfold,
though it costs him all the wealth of his house.
- 32 But a man who commits adultery lacks
judgment;
whoever does so destroys himself.
- 33 Blows and disgrace are his lot,
and his shame will never be wiped
away;
- 34 for jealousy arouses a husband's fury,
and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.
- 35 He will not accept any compensation;
he will refuse the bribe, however great it is.

Warning against the adulteress

- 7 My son, keep my words
and store up my commands within
you.
- 2 Keep my commands and you will live;

^a11 Or like a vagrant / and scarcity like a beggar

- guard my teachings as the apple of your eye.
- ³ Bind them on your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴ Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
and call understanding one of your family;
- ⁵ they will keep you from the adulteress,
from the wayward wife with her seductive words.
- ⁶ At the window of my house
I looked out through the lattice.
- ⁷ I saw among the simple,
I noticed among the young men,
a youth who lacked judgment.
- ⁸ He was going down the street near her corner,
walking along in the direction of her house
- ⁹ at twilight, as the day was fading,
as the dark of night set in.
- ¹⁰ Then out came a woman to meet him,
dressed like a prostitute and with crafty intent.
- ¹¹ (She is loud and defiant,
her feet never stay at home;
- ¹² now in the street, now in the squares,
at every corner she lurks.)
- ¹³ She took hold of him and kissed him
and with a brazen face she said:
- ¹⁴ "I have fellowship offerings^a at home;
today I fulfilled my vows.
- ¹⁵ So I came out to meet you;
I looked for you and have found you!
- ¹⁶ I have covered my bed
with coloured linens from Egypt.
- ¹⁷ I have perfumed my bed
with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon.
- ¹⁸ Come, let's drink deep of love till morning;
let's enjoy ourselves with love!
- ¹⁹ My husband is not at home;
he has gone on a long journey.
- ²⁰ He took his purse filled with money
and will not be home till full moon."
- ²¹ With persuasive words she led him astray;
she seduced him with her smooth talk.
- ²² All at once he followed her like an ox going to the slaughter,
like a deer^b stepping into a snare^c
- ²³ till an arrow pierces his liver,
like a bird darting into a snare,
little knowing it will cost him his life.
- ²⁴ Now then, my sons, listen to me;
pay attention to what I say.
- ²⁵ Do not let your heart turn to her ways
or stray into her paths.
- ²⁶ Many are the victims she has brought down;
her slain are a mighty throng.
- ²⁷ Her house is a highway to the grave,^d
leading down to the chambers of death.

Wisdom's Call

- 8 Does not wisdom call out?
Does not understanding raise her voice?
- ² On the heights along the way,
where the paths meet, she takes her stand;
- ³ beside the gates leading into the city,
at the entrances, she cries aloud:
- ⁴ "To you, O people, I call out;
I raise my voice to all humanity.
- ⁵ You who are simple, gain prudence;
you who are foolish, gain understanding.
- ⁶ Listen, for I have worthy things to say;
I open my lips to speak what is right.
- ⁷ My mouth speaks what is true,
for my lips detest wickedness.
- ⁸ All the words of my mouth are just;
none of them is crooked or perverse.
- ⁹ To the discerning all of them are right;

- they are faultless to those who have knowledge.
- ¹⁰ Choose my instruction instead of silver,
knowledge rather than choice gold,
- ¹¹ for wisdom is more precious than rubies,
and nothing you desire can compare with her.
- ¹² "I, wisdom, dwell together with prudence;
I possess knowledge and discretion.
- ¹³ To fear the LORD is to hate evil;
I hate pride and arrogance,
evil behaviour and perverse speech.
- ¹⁴ Counsel and sound judgment are mine;
I have understanding and power.
- ¹⁵ By me kings reign
and rulers make laws that are just;
- ¹⁶ by me princes govern,
and all nobles who rule on earth.^a
- ¹⁷ I love those who love me,
and those who seek me find me.
- ¹⁸ With me are riches and honour,
enduring wealth and prosperity.
- ¹⁹ My fruit is better than fine gold;
what I yield surpasses choice silver.
- ²⁰ I walk in the way of righteousness,
along the paths of justice,
- ²¹ bestowing wealth on those who love me
and making their treasures full.
- ²² "The LORD brought me forth as the first of his works,^{b, c} before his deeds of old;
- ²³ I was appointed^d from eternity,
from the beginning, before the world began.
- ²⁴ When there were no oceans, I was given birth,
when there were no springs
abounding with water;
- ²⁵ before the mountains were settled in place,
before the hills, I was given birth,

- ²⁶ before he made the earth or its fields
or any of the dust of the world.
- ²⁷ I was there when he set the heavens in place,
when he marked out the horizon on the face of the deep,
- ²⁸ when he established the clouds above
and fixed securely the fountains of the deep,
- ²⁹ when he gave the sea its boundary
so that the waters would not overstep his command,
and when he marked out the foundations of the earth.
- ³⁰ Then I was the master worker at his side.
I was filled with delight day after day,
rejoicing always in his presence, ³¹ rejoicing in his whole world
and delighting in the human race.
- ³² "Now then, my sons, listen to me;
blessed are those who keep my ways.
- ³³ Listen to my instruction and be wise;
do not ignore it.
- ³⁴ Blessed are those who listen to me,
watching daily at my doors,
waiting at my doorway.
- ³⁵ For those who find me find life
and receive favour from the LORD.
- ³⁶ But those who fail to find me harm themselves;
all who hate me love death."

Invitations of Wisdom and of Folly

- 9 Wisdom has built her house;
she has hewn out its seven pillars.
- ² She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.
- ³ She has sent out her servants, and she calls from the highest point of the city.
- ⁴ "Let all who are simple come in here!"
she says to those who lack judgment.
- ⁵ "Come, eat my food
and drink the wine I have mixed.

- ⁶ Leave your simple ways and you will live;
walk in the way of understanding.
- ⁷ "Whoever corrects mockers invites insult;
whoever rebukes the wicked incurs abuse.
- ⁸ Do not rebuke mockers or they will hate you;
rebuke the wise and they will love you.
- ⁹ Instruct the wise and they will be wiser still;
teach the righteous and they will add to their learning.
- ¹⁰ "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
- ¹¹ For through me your days will be many,
and years will be added to your life.
- ¹² If you are wise, your wisdom will reward you;
if you are a mocker, you alone will suffer."
- ¹³ The woman Folly is loud;
she is undisciplined and without knowledge.
- ¹⁴ She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat at the highest point of the city, ¹⁵ calling out to those who pass by,
who go straight on their way.
- ¹⁶ "Let all who are simple come in here!"
she says to those who lack judgment.
- ¹⁷ "Stolen water is sweet;
food eaten in secret is delicious!"
- ¹⁸ But little do they know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of the grave.^a
- ² Ill-gotten treasures are of no value,
but righteousness delivers from death.
- ³ The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry
but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.
- ⁴ Lazy hands make for poverty,
but diligent hands bring wealth.
- ⁵ He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son,
but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son.
- ⁶ Blessings crown the head of the righteous,
but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked.^a
- ⁷ The memory of the righteous will be a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
- ⁸ The wise in heart accept commands,
but a chattering fool comes to ruin.
- ⁹ Whoever walks in integrity walks securely,
but whoever takes crooked paths will be found out.
- ¹⁰ Whoever winks maliciously causes grief,
and a chattering fool comes to ruin.
- ¹¹ The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
but violence overwhelms the mouth of the wicked.
- ¹² Hatred stirs up dissension,
but love covers over all wrongs.
- ¹³ Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning,
but a rod is for the back of one who lacks judgment.

Proverbs of Solomon

10 The proverbs of Solomon:

Wise children bring joy to their fathers,
but the foolish bring grief to their mothers.

^a18 Hebrew Sheol

^a6 Or but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence; also in verse 11

- ¹⁴The wise store up knowledge,
but the mouth of a fool invites ruin.
- ¹⁵The wealth of the rich is their fortified city,
but poverty is the ruin of the poor.
- ¹⁶The wages of the righteous bring them life,
but the income of the wicked brings them punishment.
- ¹⁷The one who heeds discipline shows the way to life,
but whoever ignores correction leads others astray.
- ¹⁸The one who conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.
- ¹⁹When words are many, sin is not absent,
but the wise hold their tongues.
- ²⁰The tongue of the righteous is choice silver,
but the heart of the wicked is of little value.
- ²¹The lips of the righteous nourish many,
but fools die for lack of judgment.
- ²²The blessing of the LORD brings wealth,
and he adds no trouble to it.
- ²³Fools find pleasure in evil conduct,
but those who have insight delight in wisdom.
- ²⁴What the wicked dread will overtake them;
what the righteous desire will be granted.
- ²⁵When the storm has swept by, the wicked are gone,
but the righteous stand firm for ever.
- ²⁶As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,

so are sluggards to those who send them.

- ²⁷The fear of the LORD adds length to life,
but the years of the wicked are cut short.
- ²⁸The prospect of the righteous is joy,
but the hopes of the wicked come to nothing.
- ²⁹The way of the LORD is a refuge for the righteous,
but it is the ruin of those who do evil.
- ³⁰The righteous will never be uprooted,
but the wicked will not remain in the land.
- ³¹The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
but a perverse tongue will be cut out.

- ³²The lips of the righteous know what is fitting,
but the mouth of the wicked only what is perverse.

11 The LORD abhors dishonest scales,
but accurate weights are his delight.

- ²When pride comes, then comes disgrace,
but with humility comes wisdom.
- ³The integrity of the upright guides them,
but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity.
- ⁴Wealth is worthless in the day of wrath,
but righteousness delivers from death.
- ⁵The righteousness of the blameless makes a straight way for them,
but the wicked are brought down by their own wickedness.

- ⁶The righteousness of the upright delivers them,
but the unfaithful are trapped by evil desires.
- ⁷When the wicked die, their hope perishes;
all they expected from their power comes to nothing.
- ⁸The righteous are rescued from trouble,
and it comes on the wicked instead.
- ⁹With their mouths the godless destroy their neighbours,
but through knowledge the righteous escape.
- ¹⁰When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices;
when the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.
- ¹¹Through the blessing of the upright a city is exalted,
but by the mouth of the wicked it is destroyed.
- ¹²Those who lack judgment deride their neighbours,
but those who have insight hold their tongues.
- ¹³Gossips betray a confidence,
but the trustworthy keep a secret.
- ¹⁴For lack of guidance a nation falls,
but many advisers make victory sure.
- ¹⁵The one who puts up security for another will surely suffer,
but whoever refuses to strike hands in pledge is safe.
- ¹⁶A kind-hearted woman gains respect,
but ruthless men gain only wealth.
- ¹⁷Those who are kind benefit themselves,
but the cruel bring trouble on themselves.
- ¹⁸The wicked earn deceptive wages,
but those who sow righteousness reap a sure reward.
- ¹⁹The truly righteous attain life,
but those who pursue evil go to their death.
- ²⁰The LORD detests those whose hearts are perverse
but he delights in those whose ways are blameless.
- ²¹Be sure of this: The wicked will not go unpunished,
but those who are righteous will go free.
- ²²Like a gold ring in a pig's snout
is a beautiful woman who shows no discretion.
- ²³The desire of the righteous ends only in good,
but the hope of the wicked only in wrath.
- ²⁴One gives freely, yet gains even more;
another withholds unduly, but comes to poverty.
- ²⁵A generous person will prosper;
the one who refreshes others will be refreshed.
- ²⁶People curse those who hoard grain,
but blessing crowns those who are willing to sell.
- ²⁷Whoever seeks good finds goodwill,
but evil comes to the one who searches for it.
- ²⁸Those who trust in their riches will fall,
but the righteous will thrive like a green leaf.
- ²⁹Those who bring trouble on their families will inherit only wind,
and the fool will be servant to the wise.

³⁰The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
and those who win souls are wise.

³¹If the righteous receive their due on earth,
how much more the ungodly and the sinner!

12 Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge,
but whoever hates correction is stupid.

²Good people obtain favour from the LORD,
but the LORD condemns the crafty.

³No-one can be established through wickedness,
but the righteous cannot be uprooted.

⁴A wife of noble character is her husband's crown,
but a disgraceful wife is like decay in his bones.

⁵The plans of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.

⁶The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood,
but the speech of the upright rescues them.

⁷The wicked are overthrown and are no more,
but the house of the righteous stands firm.

⁸One is praised according to one's wisdom,
but people with warped minds are despised.

⁹Better to be a nobody and yet have a servant
than pretend to be somebody and have no food.

¹⁰The righteous care for the needs of their animals,

but the kindest acts of the wicked are cruel.

¹¹Those who work their land will have abundant food,
but those who chase fantasies lack judgment.

¹²The wicked desire the plunder of evildoers,
but the root of the righteous flourishes.

¹³Evildoers are trapped by their sinful talk,
but the righteous escape trouble.

¹⁴From the fruit of their lips people are filled with good things as surely as the work of their hands brings them reward.

¹⁵The way of fools seems right to them,
but the wise listen to advice.

¹⁶Fools show their annoyance at once,
but the prudent overlook an insult.

¹⁷A truthful witness gives honest testimony,
but a false witness tells lies.

¹⁸Reckless words pierce like a sword,
but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

¹⁹Truthful lips endure for ever,
but a lying tongue lasts only a moment.

²⁰There is deceit in the hearts of those who plot evil,
but joy for those who promote peace.

²¹No harm befalls the righteous,
but the wicked have their fill of trouble.

²²The LORD detests lying lips,
but he delights in those who are truthful.

²³The prudent keep their knowledge to themselves,

but the heart of fools blurts out
folly.

²⁴ Diligent hands will rule,
but laziness ends in slave labour.

²⁵ Anxiety weighs down the heart,
but a kind word cheers it up.

²⁶ The righteous are cautious in friendship,^a but the way of the wicked leads them astray.

²⁷ The lazy do not roast^b their game,
but the diligent prize their possessions.

²⁸ In the way of righteousness there is
life;
along that path is immortality.

13 A wise child heeds a parent's instruction,
but a mocker does not listen to rebuke.

² From the fruit of their lips people
enjoy good things,
but the unfaithful have a craving for
violence.

³ Those who guard their lips guard their lives,
but those who speak rashly will come to ruin.

⁴ The sluggard craves and gets nothing, but the desires of the diligent are fully satisfied.

⁵ The righteous hate what is false, but the wicked bring shame and
disgrace.

⁶ Righteousness guards the person of integrity,
but wickedness overthrows the sinner.

⁷ One pretends to be rich, yet has
nothing;

another pretends to be poor, yet
has great wealth.

⁸ The rich may ransom their lives,
but the poor hear no threats.

⁹ The light of the righteous shines brightly,
but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.

¹⁰ Pride only breeds quarrels,
but wisdom is found in those who take advice.

¹¹ Dishonest money dwindles away, but whoever gathers money little by little makes it grow.

¹² Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
but a longing fulfilled is a tree of
life.

¹³ Whoever scorns instruction will pay for it,
but whoever respects a command is rewarded.

¹⁴ The teaching of the wise is a fountain
of life,
turning people from the snares of
death.

¹⁵ Good understanding wins favour,
but the way of the unfaithful is hard.^a

¹⁶ All who are prudent act out of
knowledge,
but fools expose their folly.

¹⁷ A wicked messenger falls into
trouble,
but a trustworthy envoy brings healing.

¹⁸ The one who ignores discipline comes to poverty and shame,
but whoever heeds correction is honoured.

^{a26} Or The righteous are a guide to their neighbours

^{a15} Or unfaithful does not endure

^{b27} The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

- ¹⁹ A longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul,
but fools detest turning from evil.
- ²⁰ Whoever walks with the wise grows
wise,
but a companion of fools suffers
harm.
- ²¹ Misfortune pursues the sinner,
but prosperity is the reward of the
righteous.
- ²² Good people leave an inheritance for their children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for
the righteous.
- ²³ The field of the poor may produce abundant food,
but injustice sweeps it away.
- ²⁴ Those who spare the rod hate their
children,
but those who love them are careful to discipline them.
- ²⁵ The righteous eat to their hearts'
content,
but the stomach of the wicked goes hungry.
- 14 The wise woman builds her
house,
but with her own hands the foolish
one tears hers down.
- ² The person whose walk is upright
fears the LORD,
but the one whose ways are devious
despises him.
- ³ The talk of fools brings a rod to their backs,
but the lips of the wise protect
them.
- ⁴ Where there are no oxen, the manger
is empty,
but from the strength of an ox
comes an abundant harvest.
- ⁵ A truthful witness does not deceive,
but a false witness pours out lies.

- ⁶ The mocker seeks wisdom and finds
none,
but knowledge comes easily to the discerning.
- ⁷ Stay away from the foolish,
for you will not find knowledge on their lips.
- ⁸ The wisdom of the prudent is to give thought to their ways,
but the folly of fools is deception.
- ⁹ Fools mock at making amends for sin, but goodwill is found among the
upright.
- ¹⁰ Each heart knows its own bitterness,
and no-one else can share its joy.
- ¹¹ The house of the wicked will be
destroyed,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.
- ¹² There is a way that seems right to a person,
but in the end it leads to death.
- ¹³ Even in laughter the heart may ache,
and joy may end in grief.
- ¹⁴ The faithless will be fully repaid for their ways,
and the good rewarded for theirs.
- ¹⁵ The simple believe anything, but the prudent give thought to their steps.
- ¹⁶ The wise fear the LORD and shun evil,
but a fool is hotheaded and reckless.
- ¹⁷ The quick-tempered do foolish
things,
and the crafty are hated.
- ¹⁸ The simple inherit folly,
but the prudent are crowned with
knowledge.
- ¹⁹ Evildoers will bow down in the presence of the good,

and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

²⁰The poor are shunned even by their neighbours,
but the rich have many friends.

²¹To despise the poor is to sin, but blessed are those who are kind to the needy.

²²Do not those who plot evil go astray?
But those who plan what is good find^a love and faithfulness.

²³All hard work brings a profit,
but mere talk leads only to poverty.

²⁴The wealth of the wise is their crown,
but the folly of fools yields folly.

²⁵A truthful witness saves lives,
but a false witness is deceitful.

²⁶Those who fear the LORD have a secure fortress,
and for their children it will be a
refuge.

²⁷The fear of the LORD is a fountain of
life,
turning people from the snares of
death.

²⁸A large population is a king's glory,
but without subjects a prince is ruined.

²⁹Those who are patient have great
understanding,
but the quick-tempered display
folly.

³⁰A heart at peace gives life to the body,
but envy rots the bones.

³¹Whoever oppresses the poor shows contempt for their Maker,
but whoever is kind to the needy honours God.

³²When calamity comes, the wicked are brought down,
but even in death the righteous
have a refuge.

³³Wisdom reposes in the heart of the discerning
and even among fools she lets herself be known.^b

³⁴Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any
people.

³⁵A king delights in a wise servant,
but a shameful servant incurs his
wrath.

15 A gentle answer turns away
wrath,
but a harsh word stirs up anger.

²The tongue of the wise commends
knowledge,
but the mouth of the fool gushes
folly.

³The eyes of the LORD are everywhere, keeping watch on the wicked and the good.

⁴The tongue that brings healing is a tree of life,
but a deceitful tongue crushes the
spirit.

⁵A fool spurns a parent's discipline,
but whoever heeds correction
shows prudence.

⁶The house of the righteous contains great treasure,
but the income of the wicked brings them trouble.

⁷The lips of the wise spread
knowledge;
not so the hearts of fools.

⁸The LORD detests the sacrifice of the
wicked,

^a22 Or show ^b33 Hebrew; Septuagint and Syriac / but in the heart of fools she is not known

- but the prayer of the upright pleases him.
- ⁹The LORD detests the way of the wicked
but he loves those who pursue righteousness.
- ¹⁰Stern discipline awaits those who leave the path;
those who hate correction will die.
- ¹¹Death and Destruction^a lie open before the LORD—
how much more do human hearts!
- ¹²Mockers resent correction;
they will not consult the wise.
- ¹³A happy heart makes the face cheerful,
but heartache crushes the spirit.
- ¹⁴The discerning heart seeks knowledge,
but the mouth of a fool feeds on folly.
- ¹⁵All the days of the oppressed are wretched,
but the cheerful heart has a continual feast.
- ¹⁶Better a little with the fear of the LORD
than great wealth with turmoil.
- ¹⁷Better a meal of vegetables where there is love
than a fattened calf with hatred.
- ¹⁸The hot-tempered stir up dissension,
but those who are patient calm a quarrel.
- ¹⁹The way of the sluggard is blocked with thorns,
but the path of the upright is a highway.
- ²⁰Wise children bring joy to their fathers,
but the foolish despise their mothers.
- ²¹Folly delights those who lack judgment,
but those who have insight keep a straight course.
- ²²Plans fail for lack of counsel,
but with many advisers they succeed.
- ²³A person finds joy in giving an apt reply—
and how good is a timely word!
- ²⁴The path of life leads upward for the wise
to keep them from going down to the grave.^b
- ²⁵The LORD tears down the house of the proud
but he keeps the widow's boundaries intact.
- ²⁶The LORD detests the thoughts of the wicked,
but those of the pure are pleasing to him.
- ²⁷The greedy bring trouble to their families,
but those who hate bribes will live.
- ²⁸The heart of the righteous weighs its answers,
but the mouth of the wicked gushes evil.
- ²⁹The LORD is far from the wicked
but he hears the prayer of the righteous.
- ³⁰A cheerful look brings joy to the heart,
and good news gives health to the bones.

²People think all their ways are innocent,
but motives are weighed by the LORD.

³Commit to the LORD whatever you do,
and your plans will succeed.

⁴The LORD works out everything for his own ends—
even the wicked for a day of disaster.

⁵The LORD detests all the proud of heart.
Be sure of this: They will not go unpunished.

⁶Through love and faithfulness sin is atoned for;
through the fear of the LORD evil is avoided.

⁷When people's ways are pleasing to the LORD,
he makes even their enemies live at peace with them.

⁸Better a little with righteousness than much gain with injustice.

⁹In your heart you may plan your course,
but the LORD determines your steps.

¹⁰The lips of a king speak as an oracle,
and his mouth should not betray justice.

¹¹Honest scales and balances are from the LORD;
all the weights in the bag are of his making.

¹²Kings detest wrongdoing,
for a throne is established through righteousness.

¹³Kings take pleasure in honest lips;
they value one who speaks the truth.

¹⁴A king's wrath is a messenger of death,
but the wise will appease it.

¹⁵When a king's face brightens, it means life;
his favour is like a rain cloud in spring.

¹⁶How much better to get wisdom than gold,
to choose understanding rather than silver!

¹⁷The highway of the upright avoids evil;
those who guard their ways guard their lives.

¹⁸Pride goes before destruction,
a haughty spirit before a fall.

¹⁹Better to be lowly in spirit and among the oppressed than to share plunder with the proud.

²⁰Those who give heed to instruction prosper,

^c 33 Or Wisdom teaches the fear of the LORD

and blessed are those who trust in the LORD.

²¹ The wise in heart are called discerning,
and pleasant words promote instruction.^a

²² Understanding is a fountain of life to those who have it,
but folly brings punishment to fools.

²³ The hearts of the wise guide their mouths,
and their lips promote instruction.^b

²⁴ Pleasant words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.

²⁵ There is a way that at the time seems right,
but in the end it leads to death.

²⁶ The appetite of labourers works for them;
their hunger drives them on.

²⁷ Scoundrels plot evil,
and their speech is like a scorching fire.

²⁸ The perverse stir up dissension,
and gossips separate close friends.

²⁹ The violent entice their neighbours and lead them down a path that is not good.

³⁰ Those who wink with their eyes are plotting perversity;
those who purse their lips are bent on evil.

³¹ Grey hair is a crown of splendour;
it is attained by a righteous life.

³² Better a patient person than a warrior,

those who control their temper than those who take a city.

³³ The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD.

17 Better a dry crust with peace and quiet
than a house full of feasting,^a with strife.

² A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son,
and will share the inheritance as one of the family.

³ The crucible for silver and the furnace for gold,
but the LORD tests the heart.

⁴ A wicked person listens to evil lips;
a liar pays attention to a malicious tongue.

⁵ Whoever mocks the poor shows contempt for their Maker;
whoever gloats over disaster will not go unpunished.

⁶ Children's children are a crown to the aged,
and parents are the pride of their children.

⁷ Arrogant^b lips are unsuited to a fool—
how much worse lying lips to a ruler!

⁸ A bribe is a charm to those who give it;
wherever they turn, they succeed.

⁹ Whoever covers over an offence promotes love,
but whoever repeats the matter separates close friends.

¹⁰ A rebuke impresses a discerning person
more than a hundred lashes a fool.

^{a1} Hebrew sacrifices

- ¹¹ Evildoers are bent only on rebellion;
merciless officials will be sent
against them.
- ¹² Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs
than a fool bent on folly.
- ¹³ Evil will never leave the house
of one who pays back evil for good.
- ¹⁴ Starting a quarrel is like breaching a dam;
so drop the matter before a dispute breaks out.
- ¹⁵ Acquitting the guilty and condemning the innocent—
the LORD detests them both.
- ¹⁶ Of what use is money in the hands of
fools,
since they have no desire to get
wisdom?
- ¹⁷ A friend loves at all times,
and a relative is born for adversity.
- ¹⁸ One who lacks judgment strikes hands
in pledge and puts up security for a neighbour.
- ¹⁹ The one who loves a quarrel loves sin;
whoever builds a high gate invites destruction.
- ²⁰ One whose heart is perverse does not prosper;
one whose tongue is deceitful falls
into trouble.
- ²¹ To have a fool for a child brings grief;
there is no joy for the parent of a fool.
- ²² A cheerful heart is good medicine,
but a crushed spirit dries up the
bones.
- ²³ The wicked accept bribes in secret
to pervert the course of justice.
- ²⁴ A discerning person keeps wisdom in view,
but a fool's eyes wander to the ends
of the earth.
- ²⁵ Foolish children bring grief to their fathers
and bitterness to those who bore
them.
- ²⁶ It is not good to punish the innocent,
or to flog officials for their integrity.
- ²⁷ Those who have knowledge use words
with restraint,
and those who have insight are even-tempered.
- ²⁸ Even fools are thought wise if they keep silent,
and discerning if they hold their tongues.
- 18 An unfriendly person pursues
selfish ends
and defies all sound judgment.
- ² Fools find no pleasure in
understanding but delight in airing their own opinions.
- ³ When wickedness comes, so does
contempt,
and with shame comes disgrace.
- ⁴ The words of the mouth are deep
waters,
but the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.
- ⁵ It is not good to be partial to the
wicked
or to deprive the innocent of
justice.
- ⁶ The lips of fools bring them strife,
and their mouths invite a beating.
- ⁷ The mouths of fools are their undoing,
and their lips are a snare to their souls.

⁸The words of a gossip are like choice morsels;
they go down to the inmost parts.

⁹One who is slack in work is closely related to one who destroys.

¹⁰The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
the righteous run to it and are safe.

¹¹The wealth of the rich is their fortified
city;
they imagine it an unscalable wall.

¹²Before a downfall one's heart is proud,
but humility comes before honour.

¹³To answer before listening—that is folly and shame.

¹⁴One's spirit provides strength in times of sickness,
but a crushed spirit who can bear?

¹⁵The heart of the discerning acquires
knowledge;
the ears of the wise seek it out.

¹⁶A gift opens the way and ushers the giver into the presence of the great.

¹⁷The first to present a case seems right, till another comes forward and asks questions.

¹⁸Casting the lot settles disputes and keeps strong opponents apart.

¹⁹An offended relative is more unyielding than a fortified city, and disputes are like the barred gates of a citadel.

²⁰From the fruit of the mouth one's stomach is filled;
with the harvest from the lips one is satisfied.

²¹The tongue has the power of life and
death,
and those who love it will eat its fruit.

²²He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favour from the LORD.

²³The poor plead for mercy,
but the rich answer harshly.

²⁴One who has many companions may
come to ruin,
but there is a friend who sticks
closer than a brother or sister.

19 Better the poor whose walk is blameless
than a fool whose lips are perverse

²It is not good to have zeal without
knowledge,
nor to be hasty and miss the way.

³One's own folly leads to ruin,
yet the heart rages against the
LORD.

⁴Wealth brings many friends,
but the friends of the poor desert
them.

⁵A false witness will not go
unpunished,
and whoever pours out lies will not go free.

⁶Many curry favour with a ruler,
and everyone is the friend of one who gives gifts.

⁷The poor are shunned by all their relatives—
how much more do their friends avoid them!
Though they pursue them with pleading,
they are nowhere to be found.^a

⁸Those who get wisdom love their own
souls;

^a The meaning of the Hebrew for this sentence is uncertain.

- those who cherish understanding prosper.
- ⁹ A false witness will not go unpunished,
and whoever pours out lies will perish.
- ¹⁰ It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury—
how much worse for a slave to rule over princes!
- ¹¹ A person's wisdom yields patience;
it is to one's glory to overlook an offence.
- ¹² A king's rage is like the roar of a lion,
but his favour is like dew on the grass.
- ¹³ A foolish child is a father's ruin,
and a quarrelsome wife is like a constant dripping.
- ¹⁴ Houses and wealth are inherited from parents,
but a prudent wife is from the LORD.
- ¹⁵ Laziness brings on deep sleep,
and the shiftless go hungry.
- ¹⁶ Those who obey instructions guard their lives,
but those who are contemptuous of their ways will die.
- ¹⁷ Those who are kind to the poor lend to the LORD,
and he will reward them for what they have done.
- ¹⁸ Discipline your children, for in that there is hope;
do not be a willing party to their death.
- ¹⁹ The hot-tempered must pay the penalty;
rescue them, and you will have to do it again.
- ²⁰ Listen to advice and accept instruction,
and in the end you will be wise.
- ²¹ Many are the plans in a human heart,
but it is the LORD's purpose that prevails.
- ²² What a person desires is unfailing love;^b better to be poor than a liar.
- ²³ The fear of the LORD leads to life:
Then one rests content, untouched by trouble.
- ²⁴ Sluggards bury their hands in the dish
and will not even bring them back to their mouths!
- ²⁵ Flog a mocker, and the simple will learn prudence;
rebuke the discerning, and they will gain knowledge.
- ²⁶ Those who rob their father and drive out their mother are children who bring shame and disgrace.
- ²⁷ Stop listening to instruction, my son,
and you will stray from the words of knowledge.
- ²⁸ A corrupt witness mocks at justice,
and the mouth of the wicked gulps down evil.
- ²⁹ Penalties are prepared for mockers,
and beatings for the backs of fools.
- 20 Wine is a mocker and beer a brawler;
whoever is led astray by them is not wise.
- ² A king's wrath is like the roar of a lion;
those who anger him forfeit their lives.
- ³ It is to one's honour to avoid strife,
but every fool is quick to quarrel.

^b22 O: Greed is a person's shame

- ⁴Sluggards do not plough in season;
so at harvest time they look but find
nothing.
- ⁵The purposes of the human heart are deep waters,
but those who have insight draw them out.
- ⁶Many claim to have unfailing love,
but a faithful person who can find?
- ⁷The righteous lead blameless lives;
blessed are their children after
them.
- ⁸When a king sits on his throne to judge,
he winnows out all evil with his
eyes.
- ⁹Who can say, "I have kept my heart
pure;
I am clean and without sin"?
- ¹⁰Differing weights and differing measures—
the LORD detests them both.
- ¹¹Even children are known by their actions,
by whether their conduct is pure
and right.
- ¹²Ears that hear and eyes that see—
the LORD has made them both.
- ¹³Do not love sleep or you will grow
poor;
stay awake and you will have food
to spare.
- ¹⁴"It's no good, it's no good!" says the buyer;
then goes off and boasts about the purchase.
- ¹⁵Gold there is, and rubies in
abundance,
but lips that speak knowledge are a rare jewel.
- ¹⁶Take the garment of one who puts up security for a stranger;
hold it in pledge if it is done for a wayward woman.
- ¹⁷Food gained by fraud tastes sweet,
but one ends up with a mouth full of gravel.
- ¹⁸Make plans by seeking advice;
if you wage war, obtain guidance.
- ¹⁹A gossip betrays a confidence; so avoid anyone who talks too much.
- ²⁰If you curse your father or mother,
your lamp will be snuffed out in pitch darkness.
- ²¹An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning
will not be blessed at the end.
- ²²Do not say, "I'll pay you back for this wrong!"
Wait for the LORD, and he will deliver you.
- ²³The LORD detests differing weights,
and dishonest scales do not please
him.
- ²⁴A person's steps are directed by the
LORD.
How then can any understand their own way?
- ²⁵It is a trap to dedicate something rashly
and only later to consider one's vow
- ²⁶A wise king winnows out the wicked
he drives the threshing wheel over
them.
- ²⁷The lamp of the LORD searches the human spirit;^a
it searches out the inmost being.
- ²⁸Love and faithfulness keep a king
safe;

^a27 Or The human spirit is the LORD's lamp

through love his throne is made secure.

²⁹The glory of young men is their strength,
grey hair the splendour of the old.

³⁰Blows and wounds cleanse away evil,
and beatings purge the inmost being.

21 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD;
he directs it like a watercourse wherever he pleases.

¹All your ways seem right to you,
but the LORD weighs the heart.

²To do what is right and just
is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

³Haughty eyes and a proud heart,
the lamp of the wicked, are sin!

⁴The plans of the diligent lead to profit
as surely as haste leads to poverty.

⁵A fortune made by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapour and a deadly snare.^a

⁶The violence of the wicked will drag them away,
for they refuse to do what is right.

⁷The way of the guilty is devious,
but the conduct of the innocent is upright.

⁸Better to live on a corner of the roof
than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.

⁹The wicked crave evil;
their neighbours get no mercy from them.

¹⁰When a mocker is punished, the simple gain wisdom;

when the wise are instructed, they get knowledge.

¹²The Righteous One^b takes note of the house of the wicked
and brings the wicked to ruin.

¹³If you shut your ears to the cry of the
poor,
you too will cry out and not be answered.

¹⁴A gift given in secret soothes
anger,
and a bribe concealed in the cloak pacifies great wrath.

¹⁵When justice is done, it brings joy to
the righteous
but terror to evildoers.

¹⁶Whoever strays from the path of
understanding
comes to rest in the company of the dead.

¹⁷Whoever loves pleasure will become
poor;
whoever loves wine and oil will never be rich.

¹⁸The wicked become a ransom for the
righteous,
and the unfaithful for the upright.

¹⁹Better to live in a desert than with a quarrelsome and ill-tempered wife.

²⁰In the house of the wise are stores of choice food and oil,
but fools devour all they have.

²¹Whoever pursues righteousness and
love
finds life, prosperity^c and honour.

²²One who is wise can attack the city of the mighty
and pull down the stronghold in which they trust.

^a Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Vulgate; most Hebrew manuscripts vapour for those who seek death

^b Or The righteous person ^c21 Or righteousness

²³ Those who guard their mouths and their tongues
keep themselves from calamity.

²⁴ The proud and arrogant—"Mocker"
is their name;
they behave with overweening
pride.

²⁵ The craving of sluggards will be the death of them,
because their hands refuse to work.

²⁶ All day long they crave for more,
but the righteous give without sparing.

²⁷ The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable—
how much more so when brought with evil intent!

²⁸ Those who give false witness will
perish,
and whoever listens to them will be destroyed for ever.^d

²⁹ The wicked put up a bold front, but the upright give thought to their
ways.

³⁰ There is no wisdom, no insight, no

that can succeed against the LORD.

³¹ The horse is made ready for the day of battle,
but victory rests with the LORD.

22 A good name is more desirable than great riches;
to be esteemed is better than silver or gold.

² Rich and poor have this in common:
The LORD is the Maker of them all.

³ The prudent see danger and take
refuge,
but the simple keep going and suffer for it.

⁴ Humility and the fear of the LORD
bring wealth and honour and life.

⁵ In the paths of the wicked lie thorns and snares,
but those who guard their souls stay
far from them.

⁶ Train^a children in the way they should go,
and when they are old they will not turn from it.

⁷ The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

⁸ Whoever sows wickedness reaps
trouble,
and the rod wielded in fury will be
destroyed.

⁹ The generous will themselves be blessed,
for they share their food with the
poor.

¹⁰ Drive out the mocker, and out goes
strife;
quarrels and insults are ended.

¹¹ Whoever loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious
will have the king for a friend.

¹² The eyes of the LORD keep watch over
knowledge,
but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.

¹³ The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside!"
or, "I will be murdered in the streets!"

¹⁴ The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit;
whoever is under the LORD's wrath
will fall into it.

¹⁵ Folly is bound up in the heart of a child,

^{d28} Or / but the words of the obedient will live on ^{a6} Or Start

- ¹⁶ Those who oppress the poor to increase their wealth and those who give gifts to the rich—both come to poverty.

Sayings of the wise

- ¹⁷ Pay attention and listen to the sayings
of the wise;
apply your heart to what I teach,
¹⁸ for it is pleasing when you keep them
in your heart
and have all of them ready on your lips.
¹⁹ So that your trust may be in the LORD,
I teach you today, even you.
²⁰ Have I not written thirty^b sayings for
you,
sayings of counsel and knowledge, ²¹ teaching you true and reliable words,
so that you can give sound answers
to those who sent you?
²² Do not exploit the poor because they are poor
and do not crush the needy in court, ²³ for the LORD will take up their case and will plunder those who plunder
them.
²⁴ Do not make friends with the hot-tempered,
do not associate with those who are easily angered, ²⁵ or you may learn their ways
and get yourself ensnared.
²⁶ Do not be one who strikes hands in pledge
or puts up security for debts;
²⁷ if you lack the means to pay,
your very bed will be snatched from under you.
²⁸ Do not move an ancient boundary stone
set up by your ancestors.
²⁹ Do you see those who are skilled in their work?

They will serve before kings;
they will not serve before obscure
people.

- 23 When you sit to dine with a ruler,
note well what^a is before you,
² and put a knife to your throat
if you are given to gluttony.
³ Do not crave his delicacies,
for that food is deceptive.

⁴ Do not wear yourself out to get rich;
have the wisdom to show restraint.
⁵ Cast but a glance at riches, and they are gone,
for they will surely sprout wings
and fly off to the sky like an eagle.

⁶ Do not eat the food of the stingy,
do not crave their delicacies;
⁷ for they are the kind of people who are always thinking about the cost.^b “Eat and drink,” they say to you,
but their hearts are not with you.
⁸ You will vomit up the little you have eaten
and will have wasted your compliments.

⁹ Do not speak to fools,
for they will scorn the wisdom of your words.

¹⁰ Do not move an ancient boundary
stone
or encroach on the fields of the
fatherless,
¹¹ for their Defender is strong;
he will take up their case against you.

¹² Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of
knowledge.

¹³ Do not withhold discipline from
children;
if you punish them with the rod,
they will not die.
¹⁴ Punish them with the rod and save their souls from death.^c

^{c14} Hebrew Sheol

¹⁵ My son, if your heart is wise,
then my heart will be glad;
¹⁶ my inmost being will rejoice
when your lips speak what is right.

¹⁷ Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always be zealous for the fear
of the Lord.

¹⁸ There is surely a future hope for you,
and your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁹ Listen, my son, and be wise,
and keep your heart on the right
path.

²⁰ Do not join those who drink too much
wine
or gorge themselves on meat, ²¹ for drunkards and gluttons become
poor,
and drowsiness clothes them in rags.

²² Listen to your father, who gave you
life,
and do not despise your mother
when she is old.

²³ Buy the truth and do not sell it;
get wisdom, discipline and
understanding.

²⁴ The father of a righteous child has great joy;
whoever has a wise son delights in
him.

²⁵ May your father and mother be glad;
may she who gave you birth rejoice!

²⁶ My son, give me your heart and let your eyes keep to my ways.

²⁷ for a prostitute is a deep pit and a wayward wife is a narrow well.

²⁸ Like a bandit she lies in wait, and multiplies the unfaithful among
men.

²⁹ Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?

³⁰ Those who linger over wine,
who go to sample bowls of mixed
wine.

³¹ Do not gaze at wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly!

³² In the end it bites like a snake and poisons like a viper.

³³ Your eyes will see strange sights and your mind imagine confusing
things.

³⁴ You will be like one sleeping on the high seas,
lying on top of the rigging.

³⁵ "They hit me," you will say, "but I'm not hurt!

They beat me, but I don't feel it!
When will I wake up
so I can find another drink?"

24 Do not envy the wicked,
do not desire their company;
² for their hearts plot violence,
and their lips talk about making
trouble.

³ By wisdom a house is built,
and through understanding it is established;

⁴ through knowledge its rooms are filled
with rare and beautiful treasures.

⁵ A wise person has great power,
and one who has knowledge increases strength;

⁶ for waging war you need guidance,
and for victory many advisers.

⁷ Wisdom is too high for fools;
in the assembly at the gate they have nothing to say.

⁸ Whoever plots evil
will be known as a schemer.

⁹ The schemes of folly are sin,
and people detest a mocker.

¹⁰ If you falter in times of trouble,
how small is your strength!

¹¹ Rescue those being led away to
death;
hold back those staggering towards
slaughter.

¹² If you say, "But we knew nothing about this,"
does not he who weighs the heart perceive it?
Does not he who guards your life
know it?
Will he not repay everyone
according to what they have
done?

¹³ Eat honey, my son, for it is good;
honey from the comb is sweet to your taste.

¹⁴ Know also that wisdom is sweet to
your soul;
if you find it, there is a future hope
for you,
and your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁵ Do not lie in wait like an outlaw against the houses of the
righteous,
do not raid their dwelling-places;

¹⁶ for though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again,
but the wicked are brought down by calamity.

¹⁷ Do not gloat when your enemies fall;
when they stumble, do not let your heart rejoice,

¹⁸ or the LORD will see and disapprove
and turn his wrath away from them.

¹⁹ Do not fret because of evildoers
or be envious of the wicked,

²⁰ for the evildoer has no future hope,
and the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

²¹ Fear the LORD and the king, my son,
and do not join with the rebellious,

²² for those two will send sudden destruction upon them,
and who knows what calamities they can bring?

Further Sayings of the Wise

²³ These also are sayings of the wise:

To show partiality in judging is not
good:

²⁴ Or like a vagrant / and scarcity like a beggar

²⁴ Whoever says to the guilty, "You are innocent,"
will be cursed by peoples and denounced by nations.

²⁵ But it will go well with those who convict the guilty,
and rich blessing will come upon
them.

²⁶ An honest answer
is like a kiss on the lips.

²⁷ Finish your outdoor work
and get your fields ready;
after that, build your house.

²⁸ Do not testify against your neighbours
without cause,
or use your lips to deceive.

²⁹ Do not say, "I'll do to them as they have done to me;
I'll pay them back for what they
did."

³⁰ I went past the field of a sluggard, past the vineyard of someone who lacks judgment;

³¹ thorns had come up everywhere,
the ground was covered with weeds,
and the stone wall was in ruins.

³² I applied my heart to what I observed
and learned a lesson from what I saw:

³³ A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest—

³⁴ and poverty will come on you like a bandit
and scarcity like an armed man.^a

More Proverbs of Solomon

25 These are more proverbs of Solomon, copied by the men of Hezekiah king of Judah:

² It is the glory of God to conceal a matter;
to search out a matter is the glory
of kings.

³As the heavens are high and the earth is deep,
so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

⁴Remove the dross from the silver,
and out comes material for^a the silversmith;

⁵remove the wicked from the king's presence,
and his throne will be established through righteousness.

⁶Do not exalt yourself in the king's presence,
and do not claim a place among the great;

⁷it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here,"
than for him to humiliate you before nobles.

What you have seen with your eyes ⁸do not bring^b hastily to court, for what will you do in the end if your neighbour puts you to shame?

⁹If you argue your case with a neighbour,
do not betray another's confidence,

¹⁰or someone who hears it may shame you and you will never lose your bad reputation.

¹¹A word aptly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

¹²Like an ear-ring of gold or an ornament of fine gold is a wise rebuke to a listening ear.

¹³Like the coolness of snow at harvest time
are trustworthy messengers to those who send them;
they refresh the spirits of their masters.

¹⁴Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts of gifts never given.

¹⁵Through patience a ruler can be persuaded,
and a gentle tongue can break a bone.

¹⁶If you find honey, eat just enough—
too much of it, and you will vomit.

¹⁷Seldom set foot in your neighbour's house—
too much of you, and you will be hated.

¹⁸Like a club or a sword or a sharp arrow
is one who gives false testimony against a neighbour.

¹⁹Like a bad tooth or a lame foot is reliance on the unfaithful in times of trouble.

²⁰Like one who takes away a garment on a cold day, or like vinegar poured on soda, is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

²¹If your enemies are hungry, give them food to eat;
if they are thirsty, give them water to drink.

²²In doing this, you will heap burning coals on their heads, and the LORD will reward you.

²³As a north wind brings rain,
so a sly tongue brings angry looks.

²⁴Better to live on a corner of the roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.

²⁵Like cold water to a weary soul is good news from a distant land.

²⁶Like a muddied spring or a polluted well

^aOr comes a vessel from ^b7, 8 Or nobles / on whom you had set your eyes. / ⁸Do not go are the righteous who give way to

the wicked.

²⁷ It is not good to eat too much honey, nor is it honourable to seek one's own honour.

²⁸ Like a city whose walls are broken
down
is a person who lacks self-control.

26 Like snow in summer or rain in harvest,
honour is not fitting for a fool.

² Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow,
an undeserved curse does not come to rest.

³ A whip for the horse, a halter for the donkey,
and a rod for the backs of fools!

⁴ Do not answer fools according to their
folly,
or you will be like them yourself.

⁵ Answer fools according to their
folly,
or they will be wise in their own
eyes.

⁶ Like cutting off one's feet or drinking
violence
is the sending of a message by the hand of a fool.

⁷ Like a lame person's legs that hang limp
is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

⁸ Like tying a stone in a sling
is the giving of honour to a fool.

⁹ Like a thornbush in a drunkard's
hand
is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.

¹⁰ Like an archer who wounds at random

is one who hires a fool or any passer-by.

¹¹ As a dog returns to its vomit,
so fools repeat their folly.

¹² Do you see those who are wise in their own eyes?
There is more hope for fools than
for them.

¹³ A sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road,
a fierce lion roaming the streets!"

¹⁴ As a door turns on its hinges,
so a sluggard turns on the bed.

¹⁵ Sluggards bury their hands in the dish and are too lazy to bring them back to their mouths.

¹⁶ Sluggards are wiser in their own eyes than seven people who answer discreetly.

¹⁷ Like one who seizes a dog by the ears
is a passer-by who meddles in another's quarrel.

¹⁸ Like a maniac shooting
firebrands or deadly arrows

¹⁹ is one who deceives a neighbour and says, "I was only joking!"

²⁰ Without wood a fire goes out;
without gossip a quarrel dies down.

²¹ As charcoal to embers and as wood to
fire,
so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.

²² The words of a gossip are like choice
morsels;
they go down to the inmost parts.

²³ Like a coating of glaze^a over earthenware
are fervent lips with an evil heart.

^a23 With a different word division of the Hebrew; Masoretic Text of silver dross

- ²⁴The malicious disguise themselves
with their lips,
but in their hearts they harbour

but their wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.
- ²⁷If you dig a pit, you will fall into it;
if you roll a stone, it will roll back

²⁷ You will have plenty of goats' milk to feed you and your family and to nourish your female servants.

28 The wicked flee though no-one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

² When a country is rebellious, it has many rulers, but one with insight and knowledge maintains order.

³ A ruler^a who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no crops.

⁴ Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law resist them.

⁵ Evildoers do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.

⁶ Better the poor whose walk is blameless than the rich whose ways are perverse.

⁷ Those who keep the law are discerning children, but companions of gluttons disgrace their parents.

⁸ Whoever increases wealth by exorbitant interest amasses it for another, who will be kind to the poor.

⁹ If any turn a deaf ear to the law, even their prayers are detestable.

¹⁰ Those who lead the upright along an evil path will fall into their own trap, but the blameless will receive a good inheritance.

¹¹ The rich may be wise in their own eyes, but the poor who have discernment see how deluded they are.

¹² When the righteous triumph, there is great elation; but when the wicked rise to power, people go into hiding.

¹³ Those who conceal their sins do not prosper, but those who confess and renounce them find mercy.

¹⁴ Blessed are those who always fear the LORD, but those who harden their hearts fall into trouble.

¹⁵ Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a helpless people.

¹⁶ A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment, but whoever hates ill-gotten gain will enjoy a long life.

- ¹⁹ Those who work their land will have abundant food, but those who chase fantasies will have their fill of poverty.
- ²⁰ A faithful person will be richly blessed,
but one eager to get rich will not go unpunished.
- ²¹ To show partiality is not good—
yet a person will do wrong for a piece of bread.
- ²² The stingy are eager to get rich and are unaware that poverty awaits them.
- ²³ Whoever rebukes a person will in the end gain more favour than one who has a flattering tongue.
- ²⁴ Whoever robs father or mother and says, "It's not wrong"
is partner to one who destroys.
- ²⁵ The greedy stir up dissension,
but those who trust in the LORD will prosper.
- ²⁶ Those who trust in themselves are fools,
but those who walk in wisdom are kept safe.
- ²⁷ Those who give to the poor will lack nothing,

- ⁶ Evildoers are snared by their own sin,
but the righteous can sing and be glad.
- ⁷ The righteous care about justice for the poor,
but the wicked have no such concern.
- ⁸ Mockers stir up a city,
but the wise turn away anger.
- ⁹ If a wise person goes to court with a fool,
the fool rages and scoffs, and there is no peace.
- ¹⁰ The bloodthirsty hate people of integrity and seek to kill the upright.
- ¹¹ Fools give full vent to their anger,
but the wise keep themselves under control.
- ¹² If a ruler listens to lies,
all his officials become wicked.

- ¹³ The poor and the oppressor have this in common:
The LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.
- ¹⁴ If a king judges the poor with fairness,
his throne will always be secure.
- ¹⁵ The rod of correction imparts wisdom,
but children left to themselves disgrace their mothers.
- ¹⁶ When the wicked thrive, so does sin,
but the righteous will see their downfall.
- ¹⁷ Discipline your children, and they will give you peace;
they will bring delight to your soul.
- ¹⁸ Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint;
but blessed are those who keep the law.
- ¹⁹ Servants cannot be corrected by mere words;
though they understand, they will not respond.
- ²⁰ Do you see one who speaks in haste?
There is more hope for a fool.
- ²¹ A servant pampered from youth will bring grief^a in the end.
- ²² Angry people stir up dissension,
and the hot-tempered commit many sins.
- ²³ Pride brings people low,
but the lowly in spirit gain honour.
- ²⁴ The accomplices of thieves are their own enemies;
they are put under oath and dare not testify.
- ²⁵ To fear anyone will prove to be a snare,
but whoever trusts in the LORD is kept safe.
- ²⁶ Many seek an audience with a ruler,
but it is from the LORD that one gets justice.
- ²⁷ The righteous detest the dishonest;
the wicked detest the upright.

Sayings of King Lemuel

31 The sayings of King Lemuel—an oracle^a his mother taught him:

- 2^a“O my son, O son of my womb,
O son of my vows,^b
3 do not spend your strength on women,
your vigour on those who ruin
kings.
4 “It is not for kings, O Lemuel—
not for kings to drink wine,
not for rulers to crave beer,
5 lest they drink and forget what the law
decrees,
and deprive all the oppressed of their rights.
6 Give beer to those who are perishing,
wine to those who are in anguish;
7 let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no
more.
8 “Speak up for those who cannot speak
for themselves,
for the rights of all who are
destitute.
9 Speak up and judge fairly;
defend the rights of the poor and
needy.”

Epilogue: the wife of noble character

- 10^c A wife of noble character who can find?
She is worth far more than rubies.
11 Her husband has full confidence in her
and lacks nothing of value.
12 She brings him good, not harm,
all the days of her life.
13 She selects wool and flax
and works with eager hands.
14 She is like the merchant ships,
bringing her food from afar.
15 She gets up while it is still dark;
she provides food for her family and portions for her serving women.

- 16 She considers a field and buys it;
out of her earnings she plants a
vineyard.
17 She sets about her work vigorously;
her arms are strong for her tasks.
18 She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at
night.
19 In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers.
20 She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.
21 When it snows, she has no fear for her
household;
for all of them are clothed in scarlet.
22 She makes coverings for her bed;
she is clothed in fine linen and purple.
23 Her husband is respected at the city
gate,
where he takes his seat among the elders of the land.
24 She makes linen garments and sells
them,
and supplies the merchants with sashes.
25 She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.
26 She speaks with wisdom,
and faithful instruction is on her
tongue.
27 She watches over the affairs of her household
and does not eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children arise and call her
blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:
29 “Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all.”
30 Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
31 Give her the reward she has earned,
and let her works bring her praise
at the city gate.

Ecclesiastes

Everything Is Meaningless

1 The words of the Teacher,^a son of David, king of Jerusalem:

²"Meaningless! Meaningless!" says the Teacher.
"Utterly meaningless!
Everything is meaningless."

³What do people gain from all their labours
at which they toil under the sun?

⁴Generations come and generations go,
but the earth remains for ever.

⁵The sun rises and the sun sets,
and hurries back to where it rises.

⁶The wind blows to the south and turns to the north;
round and round it goes,
ever returning on its course.

⁷All streams flow into the sea,
yet the sea is never full.
To the place the streams come from,
there they return again.

⁸All things are wearisome,
more than one can say.
The eye never has enough of seeing,
nor the ear its fill of hearing.

⁹What has been will be again,
what has been done will be done
again;
there is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰Is there anything of which one can say,
"Look! This is something new?"

It was here already, long ago;
it was here before our time.

¹¹There is no remembrance of people
of old,

and even those who are yet to come will not be remembered
by those who follow.

Wisdom Is Meaningless

¹²I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³I devoted myself to study and to explore by wisdom all that is done under heaven. What a heavy burden God has laid on the human race! ¹⁴I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

¹⁵What is twisted cannot be straightened;
what is lacking cannot be counted.

¹⁶I thought to myself, "Look, I have grown and increased in wisdom more than anyone who has ruled over Jerusalem before me; I have experienced much of wisdom and knowledge." ¹⁷Then I applied myself to the understanding of wisdom, and also of madness and folly, but I learned that this, too, is a chasing after the wind.

¹⁸For with much wisdom comes much
sorrow;
the more knowledge, the more grief.

Pleasures Are Meaningless

2 I thought in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure to find out what is good." But that also proved to be meaningless. ²"Laughter," I said, "is foolish. And what does pleasure accomplish?" ³I tried cheering myself with wine, and embracing folly—my mind still guiding me with wisdom. I wanted to see what was worth while for people to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

⁴I undertook great projects: I built houses for myself and planted vineyards. ⁵I made gardens and parks and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. ⁶I made reservoirs to water groves of flourishing trees. ⁷I bought male and female slaves and had other slaves who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me. ⁸I amassed silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I acquired male and female singers, and a harem^a as well—the delights of the human heart. ⁹I became greater by far than anyone in Jerusalem before me. In all this my wisdom stayed with me.

¹⁰I denied myself nothing my eyes desired;

I refused my heart no pleasure.
My heart took delight in all my work,
and this was the reward for all my labour.

¹¹Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done
and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind;
nothing was gained under the sun.

Wisdom and Folly Are Meaningless

¹²Then I turned my thoughts to consider wisdom,
and also madness and folly.
What more can the king's successor
do
than what has already been done?

¹³I saw that wisdom is better than folly,
just as light is better than darkness.

¹⁴The wise have eyes in their heads,
while fools walk in the darkness;
but I came to realise that the same fate overtakes them both.

¹⁵Then I thought in my heart,

"The fate of the fool will overtake me
also.

What then do I gain by being
wise?"

I said in my heart,

"This too is meaningless."

¹⁶For the wise, like fools, will not be long remembered;
in days to come both will be forgotten.

Like fools, the wise too must die!

Toil Is Meaningless

¹⁷So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me.
All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind. ¹⁸I hated all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me.
¹⁹And who knows whether that person will be wise or foolish? Yet my heir will have control over all the work into which I have poured my effort and skill under the sun. This too is meaningless. ²⁰So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labour under the sun. ²¹For people may do their work with wisdom, knowledge and skill, and then they must leave all they own to others who have not worked for it. This too is meaningless and a great misfortune. ²²What do people get for all the toil and anxious striving with which they labour under the sun? ²³All their days their work is pain and grief;
even at night their minds do not rest. This too is meaningless.

²⁴People can do nothing better than to eat and drink and find satisfaction in their work. This too, I see, is from the hand of God, ²⁵for without him, who can eat or find enjoyment? ²⁶To the one who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness, but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and storing up wealth to hand it over to the one who pleases God.
This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

^aR The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.

A Time for Everything

3 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under
heaven:

- ² a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
- ³ a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
- ⁴ a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
- ⁵ a time to scatter stones and a time
to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain,
- ⁶ a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw
away,
- ⁷ a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to
speak,
- ⁸ a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹ What do workers gain from their toil?
¹⁰ I have seen the burden God has laid on the human race. ¹¹ He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet people cannot fathom what God has done from beginning to end. ¹² I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and do good while they live. ¹³ That each of them may eat and drink, and find satisfaction in all their toil—this is the gift of God. ¹⁴ I know that everything God does will endure for ever; nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it. God does it so that people will revere him.

¹⁵ Whatever is has already been,
and what will be has been before;
and God will call the past to account.^a

¹⁶ And I saw something else under the sun:

In the place of judgment—
wickedness was there,

in the place of justice—wickedness
was there.

¹⁷ I thought in my heart,

“God will bring to judgment
both the righteous and the wicked, for there will be a time for every activity,
a time for every deed.”

¹⁸ I also thought, “As for human beings, God tests them so that they may see that they are like the animals. ¹⁹ Surely the fate of a human being is like that of an animal:
the same fate awaits them both: As one dies, so dies the other. All have the same breath;^b the human race has no advantage over animals. Everything is meaningless.
²⁰ All go to the same place; all come from dust, and to dust all return. ²¹ Who knows if the human spirit rises upward and if the spirit of the animal^c goes down into the
earth?”

²² So I saw that there is nothing better for people than to enjoy their work, because that is their lot. For who can bring them to see what will happen after them?

Oppression, Toil, Friendlessness

4 Again I looked and saw all the oppression that was taking place under the
sun:

I saw the tears of the oppressed—
and they have no comforter;
power was on the side of their oppressors—
and they have no comforter.

² And I declared that the dead,
who had already died,
are happier than the living,
who are still alive.

³ But better than both is the one who has not yet been,
who has not seen the evil
that is done under the sun.

⁴ And I saw that all labour and all achievement spring from one person's ^a15 Or God calls back the past ^b19 Or spirit

^c21 Or Who knows the human spirit, which rises upward, or the spirit of the animal, which envy of another. This too is meaningless,

a chasing after the wind.

⁵Fools fold their hands and ruin themselves.

⁶Better one handful with tranquillity
than two handfuls with toil
and chasing after the wind.

⁷Again I saw something meaningless
under the sun:

⁸There was a man all alone;
he had neither son nor brother.
There was no end to his toil, yet his eyes were not content with his wealth.

"For whom am I toiling," he asked,
"and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?"

This too is meaningless—
a miserable business!

⁹Two are better than one,
because they have a good return for
their work:

¹⁰If they fall down,
one can help the other up.

But pity those who fall
and have no friend to help them
up!

¹¹Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.

But how can one keep warm alone?

¹²Though one may be overpowered,
two can defend themselves.

A cord of three strands is not quickly
broken.

Advancement Is Meaningless

¹³Better a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to take warning. ¹⁴The youth may have come from prison to the kingship, or he may have been born in poverty within his kingdom. ¹⁵I saw that all who lived and walked under the sun followed the youth,
the king's successor. ¹⁶There was no end
to all the people who were before them.
But those who came later were not pleased with the successor. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Stand in Awe of God

⁵Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, who do not know that they do wrong.

²Do not be quick with your mouth,
do not be hasty in your heart
to utter anything before God.
God is in heaven
and you are on earth,
so let your words be few.

³As a dream comes when there are many cares,
so the speech of a fool when there are many words.

⁴When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it. He has no pleasure in fools; fulfil your vow. ⁵It is better not to vow than to make a vow and not fulfil it.
⁶Do not let your mouth lead you into sin.
And do not protest to the temple messenger, "My vow was a mistake." Why should God be angry at what you say and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷Much dreaming and many words are meaningless. Therefore stand in awe of God.

Riches Are Meaningless

⁸If you see the poor oppressed in a district, and justice and rights denied, do not be surprised at such things; for one official is eyed by a higher one, and over them both are others higher still. ⁹The increase from the land is taken by all; the king himself profits from the fields.

¹⁰Those who love money never have enough;
those who love wealth are never satisfied with their income.
This too is meaningless.

¹¹As goods increase,
so do those who consume them.
And what benefit are they to the owners
except to feast their eyes on them?

¹²The sleep of labourers is sweet,
whether they eat little or much,

but the abundance of the rich permits them no sleep.

¹³I have seen a grievous evil under the
sun:

wealth hoarded to the harm of its owners,

¹⁴ or wealth lost through some misfortune,
so that when they have children
there is nothing left for them to inherit.

¹⁵People come naked from their
mother's womb,
and as they come, so they depart.
They take nothing from their labours
that they can carry in their hands.

¹⁶This too is a grievous evil:

As people come, so they depart,
and what do they gain,
since they toil for the wind?

¹⁷All their days they eat in darkness,
with great frustration, affliction and anger.

¹⁸Then I realised that it is good and proper for people to eat and drink, and to find satisfaction in their toilsome labour
under the sun during the few days of life
God has given them—for this is their lot.

¹⁹Moreover, when God gives people wealth and possessions and the ability to enjoy them, to accept their lot and be happy in their work—this is a gift of God.

²⁰They seldom reflect on the days of their lives, because God keeps them occupied with gladness of heart.

6 I have seen another evil under the sun,
and it weighs heavily on the human race: ²God gives wealth, possessions and honour, so that people lack nothing their hearts desire, but God does not grant the ability to enjoy them, and a stranger enjoys them instead. This is meaningless, a grievous evil.

³A man may have a hundred children and live many years; yet no matter how long he lives, if he cannot enjoy his prosperity and does not receive proper burial,
I say that a stillborn child is better off than

he. ⁴It comes without meaning, it departs in darkness, and in darkness its name is shrouded. ⁵Though it never saw the sun or knew anything, it has more rest than does that man—⁶even if he lives a thousand years twice over but fails to enjoy his prosperity. Do not all go to the same place?

⁷Every human effort is for one's mouth,
yet the appetite is never satisfied.

⁸What advantage have the wise
over fools?

What do the poor gain
by knowing how to conduct themselves before others?

⁹Better what the eye sees than the roving of the appetite.
This too is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.

¹⁰Whatever exists has already been named,
and what humanity has been known;

no-one can contend
with someone who is stronger.

¹¹The more the words,
the less the meaning,
and how does that profit anyone?

¹²For who knows what is good for people in life, during the few and meaningless days they pass through like a shadow? Who can tell them what will happen under the sun after they are gone?

Wisdom

7 A good name is better than fine
perfume,
and the day of death better than the day of birth.

²It is better to go to a house of mourning
than to go to a house of feasting, for death is the destiny of every one;
the living should take this to heart.

³Sorrow is better than laughter, because a sad face is good for the
heart.

⁴The heart of the wise is in the house
of mourning,
but the heart of fools is in the house
of pleasure.

⁵It is better to heed the rebuke of a wise person
than to listen to the song of fools.
⁶Like the crackling of thorns under the pot,
so is the laughter of fools.
This too is meaningless.

⁷Extortion turns the wise into fools,
and a bribe corrupts the heart.

⁸The end of a matter is better than its
beginning,
and patience is better than pride.

⁹Do not be quickly provoked in your
spirit,
for anger resides in the lap of fools.

¹⁰Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these?"
For it is not wise to ask such
questions.

¹¹Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing
and benefits those who see the sun.

¹²Wisdom is a shelter
as money is a shelter,
but the advantage of knowledge is this:
that wisdom preserves the life of its possessor.

¹³Consider what God has done:

Who can straighten
what he has made crooked?

¹⁴When times are good, be happy;
but when times are bad, consider:
God has made the one
as well as the other.

Therefore, you cannot discover anything about your future.

¹⁵In this meaningless life of mine I have seen both of these:

the righteous perishing in their
righteousness,
and the wicked living long in their
wickedness.

¹⁶Do not be over-righteous, neither be overwise—

why destroy yourself?

¹⁷Do not be overwicked,
and do not be a fool—
why die before your time?

¹⁸It is good to grasp the one and not let go of the other.
Those who fear God will avoid all "extremes."^a

¹⁹Wisdom makes one wise person more powerful than ten rulers in a city.

²⁰There is not a righteous person on
earth
who does what is right and never sins.

²¹Do not pay attention to every word people say,
or you may hear your servant
cursing you—

²²for you know in your heart that many times you yourself have cursed others.

²³All this I tested by wisdom and I said,

"I am determined to be wise"—
but this was beyond me.

²⁴Whatever wisdom may be,
it is far off and most profound—
who can discover it?

²⁵So I turned my mind to understand,
to investigate and to search out wisdom and the scheme of things and to understand the stupidity of wickedness
and the madness of folly.

²⁶I find more bitter than death
the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap
and whose hands are chains.
The man who pleases God will escape
her,
but the sinner she will ensnare.

²⁷"Look," says the Teacher,^b "this is what I have discovered:

"Adding one thing to another to discover the scheme of things—

^a18 Or will follow them both ^b27 Or leader of the assembly

²⁸ while I was still searching but not finding—
I found one „upright,“ man among a thousand,
but not one „upright,“ woman
among them all.
²⁹This only have I found:
God made human beings upright, but people have gone in search of many schemes.”

8 Who is like the wise?
Who knows the explanation of
things?
Wisdom brightens the face
and changes its hard appearance.

Obey the King

²Obey the king's command, I say, because you took an oath before God. ³Do not be in a hurry to leave the king's presence. Do not stand up for a bad cause, for he will do whatever he pleases. ⁴Since a king's word is supreme, who can say to him, “What are you doing?”

⁵Whoever obeys his command will come to no harm,
and the wise heart will know the proper time and procedure.

⁶For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, though a person may be weighed down by misery.

⁷Since no-one knows the future,
who can say what is to come?

⁸No-one has power over the wind to contain it;^a
so no-one has power over when death comes.

As no-one is discharged in time of war,
so wickedness will not release
those who practise it.

⁹All this I saw, as I applied my mind to everything done under the sun. There is a time when people lord it over others to their own^b hurt. ¹⁰Then too, I saw the wicked buried—those who used to come and go from the holy place and receive praise^c in the city where they did this. This too is meaningless.

¹¹When the sentence for a crime is not quickly carried out, the hearts of the people are filled with schemes to do wrong. ¹²Although a wicked person commits a hundred crimes and still lives a long time, I know that it will go better with God-fearing people, who are reverent before God. ¹³Yet because the wicked do not fear God, it will not go well with them, and their days will not lengthen like a shadow.

¹⁴There is something else meaningless that occurs on earth: the righteous who get what the wicked deserve, and the wicked who get what the righteous deserve. This too, I say, is meaningless.

¹⁵So I commend the enjoyment of life,
because nothing is better for people under the sun than to eat and drink and be glad. Then joy will accompany them in their work all the days of the life God has given them under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to observe people's labour on earth—their eyes not seeing sleep day or night—¹⁷then I saw all that God has done. No-one can comprehend what goes on under the sun. Despite every effort to search it out, no-one can discover its meaning. Even if the wise claim they know, they cannot really comprehend it.

A Common Destiny for All

9 So I reflected on all this and concluded that the righteous and the wise and what they do are in God's hands, but they do not know whether love or hate awaits them. ²All share a common destiny—the righteous and the wicked, the good and the bad,^a the clean and the unclean, those who offer sacrifices and those who do not.

As it is with the good,
so with the sinful;
as it is with those who take oaths,
so with those who are afraid to take
them.

^{a8} Or over the human spirit to retain it, / and so ^{b9} Or to their

^{c10} Some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint (Aquila); most Hebrew manuscripts and are forgotten

^{a2} Septuagint (Aquila), Vulgate and Syriac; Hebrew does not have and the bad.

³This is the evil in everything that happens under the sun: The same destiny overtakes all. The hearts of people, moreover, are full of evil and there is madness in their hearts while they live, and afterwards they join the dead. ⁴Anyone who is among the living has hope^b—even a live dog is better off than a dead lion!

⁵For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing; they have no further reward, and even the memory of them is forgotten.

⁶Their love, their hate and their jealousy have long since vanished; never again will they have a part in anything that happens under the sun.

⁷Go, eat your food with gladness, and drink your wine with a joyful heart, for it is now that God favours what you do.

⁸Always be clothed in white, and always anoint your head with oil. ⁹Enjoy life with your wife, whom you love, all the days of this meaningless life that God has given you under the sun—all your meaningless days. For this is your lot in life and in your toilsome labour under the sun. ¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might, for in the grave,^c where you are going, there is neither working nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom.

¹¹I have seen something else under the sun:

The race is not to the swift
or the battle to the strong,
nor does food come to the wise
or wealth to the brilliant
or favour to the learned;
but time and chance happen to them all.

¹²Moreover, people do not know when their hour will come:

As fish are caught in a cruel net,
or birds are taken in a snare,

so people are trapped by evil times
that fall unexpectedly upon them.

Wisdom Better Than Folly

¹³I also saw under the sun this example of wisdom that greatly impressed me: ¹⁴There was once a small city with only a few people in it. And a powerful king came against it, surrounded it and built huge siegeworks against it. ¹⁵Now there lived in that city a man poor but wise, and he saved the city by his wisdom. But nobody remembered that poor man. ¹⁶So I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." But the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are no longer heeded.

¹⁷The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded than the shouts of a ruler of fools.

¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner destroys much good.

10 As dead flies give perfume
a bad smell,
so a little folly outweighs wisdom
and honour.

²The heart of the wise inclines to the right,
but the heart of the fool to the left.

³Even as fools walk along the road,
they lack sense
and show everyone how stupid they are.

⁴If a ruler's anger rises against you,
do not leave your post;
calmness can lay great errors to rest.

⁵There is an evil I have seen under the sun,
the sort of error that arises from a ruler:

⁶Fools are put in many high positions,
while the rich occupy the low ones.

⁷I have seen slaves on horseback,
while princes go on foot like slaves.

⁸Whoever digs a pit may fall into it;
whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.

^{b4} Or What then is to be chosen? With all who live, there is hope

^{c10} Hebrew Sheol

⁹Whoever quarries stones may be injured by them;
whoever splits logs may be endangered by them.

¹⁰If the axe is dull
and its edge unsharpened,
more strength is needed
but skill will bring success.

¹¹If a snake bites before it is charmed,
there is no profit for the charmer.

¹²Words from the mouth of the wise are gracious,
but fools are consumed by their own lips.

¹³At the beginning their words are folly;
at the end they are wicked madness—

¹⁴ and fools multiply words.

People do not know what is coming—who can tell them what will happen
after them?

¹⁵The work of fools wearies them;
they do not know the way to town.

¹⁶Woe to you, O land whose king was a servant^a
and whose princes feast in the morning.

¹⁷Blessed are you, O land whose king is of noble birth
and whose princes eat at a proper time—
for strength and not for drunkenness.

¹⁸Through laziness, the rafters sag;
because of idle hands, the house leaks.

¹⁹A feast is made for laughter,
and wine makes life merry,
but money is the answer for everything.

²⁰Do not revile the king even in your thoughts,
or curse the rich in your bedroom,

because a bird of the air may carry
your words,
and a bird on the wing may report
what you say.

Bread Upon the Waters

11 Cast your bread upon the waters,
for after many days you will find it again.

²Give portions to seven, yes to eight,
for you do not know what disaster
may come upon the land.

³If clouds are full of water,
they pour rain upon the earth.
Whether a tree falls to the south or to the north,
in the place where it falls, there will it lie.

⁴Whoever watches the wind will not plant;
whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.

⁵As you do not know the path of the wind,
or how the body is formed^a in a mother's womb,
so you cannot understand the work of God,
the Maker of all things.

⁶Sow your seed in the morning,
and at evening let not your hands be idle,
for you do not know which will succeed,
whether this or that,
or whether both will do equally well.

Remember Your Creator While Young

⁷Light is sweet,
and it pleases the eyes to see the sun.

⁸However many years people may live,
let them enjoy them all.
But let them remember the days of darkness,

^{a16} Or king is a child

^{a5} Or know how life (or the spirit) / enters the body being formed for there will be many.

Everything to come is meaningless.

⁹You who are young, be happy while you are young,
and let your hearts give you joy in the days of your youth.

Follow the ways of your heart and whatever your eyes see,
but know that for all these things
God will bring you to judgment.

¹⁰So then, banish anxiety from your
heart
and cast off the troubles of your body, for youth and vigour are meaningless.

12 Remember your Creator
in the days of your youth,
before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say,
“I find no pleasure in them” —
²before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow
dark,
and the clouds return after the rain;
³when the keepers of the house
tremble,
and the strong men stoop,
when the grinders cease because they are few,
and those looking through the windows grow dim;
⁴when the doors to the street are closed and the sound of grinding fades;
when people rise up at the sound of birds,
but all their songs grow faint;
⁵when people are afraid of heights
and of dangers in the streets;
when the almond tree blossoms
and the grasshopper drags itself along
and desire no longer is stirred.

Then people go to their eternal home
and mourners go about the streets.

⁶Remember him—before the silver cord is severed,
or the golden bowl is broken;
before the pitcher is shattered at the spring,
or the wheel broken at the well, ⁷and the dust returns to the ground it came from,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸“Meaningless! Meaningless!” says the Teacher.^a “Everything is meaningless!”

The Conclusion of the Matter

⁹Not only was the Teacher wise, but also he imparted knowledge to the people. He pondered and searched out and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰The Teacher searched to find just the right words, and what he wrote was upright and
true.

¹¹The words of the wise are like goads,
their collected sayings like firmly embedded nails—given by one Shepherd.
¹²Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to them.

Of making many books there is no end,
and much study wearies the body.

¹³Now all has been heard;
here is the conclusion of the matter:
Fear God and keep his commandments,
for this is the ¹⁴“duty” of every human being.

¹⁴For God will bring every deed into
judgment,
including every hidden thing,
whether it is good or evil.

Song of Songs

1 Solomon's Song of Songs.

Beloved^a

²Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth—
for your love is more delightful than wine.

³Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes;
your name is like perfume poured
out.

No wonder the young women love
you!

⁴Take me away with you—let us hurry!
Let the king bring me into his chambers.

Friends

We rejoice and delight in you;^b
we will praise your love more than wine.

Beloved

How right they are to adore you!

⁵Dark am I, yet lovely,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
dark like the tents of Kedar,
like the tent curtains of Solomon.^c

⁶Do not stare at me because I am dark,
because I am darkened by the sun.
My mother's sons were angry with me and made me take care of the
vineyards;

my own vineyard I have neglected.
⁷Tell me, you whom I love, where you graze your flock
and where you rest your sheep at midday.
Why should I be like a veiled woman
beside the flocks of your friends?

Friends

⁸If you do not know, most beautiful of
women,
follow the tracks of the sheep and graze your young goats
by the tents of the shepherds.

Lover

⁹I liken you, my darling, to a mare harnessed to one of the chariots of Pharaoh.

¹⁰Your cheeks are beautiful with ear-rings,
your neck with strings of jewels.

¹¹We will make you ear-rings of gold,
studded with silver.

Beloved

¹²While the king was at his table,
my perfume spread its fragrance.

¹³My lover is to me a sachet of myrrh
resting between my breasts.

¹⁴My lover is to me a cluster of henna blossoms
from the vineyards of En Gedi.

^{a2} Primarily on the basis of the gender of the Hebrew pronouns used, male and female speakers are indicated in the margins by the captions Lover and Beloved respectively. The words of others are marked Friends. In some instances the divisions and their captions are debatable. ^{b4} The Hebrew is masculine singular. ^{c5} Or Salma

Lover

¹⁵How beautiful you are, my darling!
Oh, how beautiful!
Your eyes are doves.

Beloved

¹⁶How handsome you are, my lover!
Oh, how charming!
And our bed is verdant.

Lover

¹⁷The beams of our house are cedars;
our rafters are firs.

Beloved^a

2 I am a rose^b of Sharon,
a lily of the valleys.

Lover

²Like a lily among thorns is my darling among the young women.

Beloved

³Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest
is my lover among the young men.

I delight to sit in his shade,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

⁴He has taken me to the banquet hall,
and his banner over me is love.

⁵Strengthen me with raisins,
refresh me with apples,
for I am faint with love.

⁶His left arm is under my head,
and his right arm embraces me.

⁷Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge
you
by the gazelles and by the does of
the field:

Do not arouse or awaken love
until it so desires.

⁸Listen! My lover!

Look! Here he comes,
leaping across the mountains,
bounding over the hills.

⁹My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.

Look! There he stands behind our
wall,

gazing through the windows,
peering through the lattice.

¹⁰My lover spoke and said to me,
"Arise, my darling,
my beautiful one, and come with me.

¹¹See! The winter is past;
the rains are over and gone.

¹²Flowers appear on the earth;
the season of singing has come,
the cooing of doves
is heard in our land.

¹³The fig-tree forms its early fruit;
the blossoming vines spread their fragrance.

Arise, come, my darling;
my beautiful one, come with me."

Lover

¹⁴My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding-places on the mountainside,

show me your face,
let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely.

¹⁵Catch for us the foxes,
the little foxes
that ruin the vineyards,
our vineyards that are in bloom.

Beloved

¹⁶My lover is mine and I am his;
he browses among the lilies.

¹⁷Until the day breaks
and the shadows flee,
turn, my lover,
and be like a gazelle
or like a young stag
on the rugged hills.^c

3 All night long on my bed
I looked for the one my heart loves;
I looked for him but did not find
him.

²¹I will get up now and go about the city,
through its streets and squares;

^{a1} Or Lover ^{b1} Possibly a member of the crocus family

^{c17} Or the hills of Bethel

I will search for the one my heart
loves.
So I looked for him but did not find
him.

³The watchmen found me
as they made their rounds in the city.
“Have you seen the one my heart
loves?”

⁴Scarcely had I passed them when I found the one my heart
loves.

I held him and would not let him go till I had brought him to my mother's house,
to the room of the one who conceived me.

⁵Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you
by the gazelles and by the does of
the field:

Do not arouse or awaken love
until it so desires.

⁶Who is this coming up from the desert
like a column of smoke,
perfumed with myrrh and incense made from all the spices of the merchant?

⁷Look! It is Solomon's carriage, escorted by sixty warriors,
the noblest of Israel,

⁸all of them wearing the sword,
all experienced in battle,
each with his sword at his side,
prepared for the terrors of the
night.

⁹King Solomon made for himself the carriage;
he made it of wood from Lebanon.

¹⁰Its posts he made of silver,
its base of gold.
Its seat was upholstered with purple,
its interior lovingly inlaid
by^a the daughters of Jerusalem.

¹¹Come out, you daughters of Zion, and look at King Solomon wearing
the crown,
the crown with which his mother crowned him
on the day of his wedding,
the day his heart rejoiced.

Lover

4 How beautiful you are, my darling!
Oh, how beautiful!

Your eyes behind your veil are doves.

Your hair is like a flock of goats
descending from Mount Gilead.

²Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
just shorn,
coming up from the washing.

Each has its twin;
not one of them is alone.

³Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon;
your mouth is lovely.

Your temples behind your veil
are like the halves of a pomegranate.

⁴Your neck is like the tower of David,
built with elegance;^a
on it hang a thousand shields,
all of them shields of warriors.

⁵Your two breasts are like two fawns,
like twin fawns of a gazelle
that browse among the lilies.

⁶Until the day breaks
and the shadows flee,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh
and to the hill of incense.

⁷All beautiful you are, my darling;
there is no flaw in you.

⁸Come with me from Lebanon, my bride,
come with me from Lebanon.
Descend from the crest of Amana,
from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon,

from the lions' dens
and the mountain haunts of the leopards.

⁹You have stolen my heart, my sister,
my bride;
you have stolen my heart
with one glance of your eyes,
with one jewel of your necklace.

¹⁰How delightful is your love, my sister,
my bride!
How much more pleasing is your love than wine,
and the fragrance of your perfume
than any spice!

^{a10} Or is inlaid interior a gift of love / from

^{a4} The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

- ¹¹Your lips drop sweetness as the honeycomb, my bride;
milk and honey are under your
tongue.
The fragrance of your garments is like that of Lebanon.
- ¹²You are a garden locked up, my sister, my bride;
you are a spring enclosed, a sealed fountain.
- ¹³Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates
with choice fruits,
with henna and nard,
- ¹⁴nard and saffron,
calamus and cinnamon,
with every kind of incense tree,
with myrrh and aloes
and all the finest spices.
- ¹⁵You are^b a garden fountain,
a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon.

Beloved

- ¹⁶Awake, north wind,
and come, south wind!
Blow on my garden,
that its fragrance may spread
abroad.
Let my lover come into his garden
and taste its choice fruits.

Lover

- 5 I have come into my garden, my sister,
my bride;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey;
I have drunk my wine and my milk.

Friends

- Eat, O friends, and drink;
drink your fill, O lovers.

Beloved

- ²I slept but my heart was awake.
Listen! My lover is knocking:

“Open to me, my sister, my darling,
my dove, my flawless one.
My head is drenched with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the
night.”

- ³I have taken off my robe—
must I put it on again?
I have washed my feet—
must I soil them again?
- ⁴My lover thrust his hand through the
latch-opening;
my heart began to pound for him.
- ⁵I arose to open for my lover,
and my hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with flowing myrrh,
on the handles of the lock.
- ⁶I opened for my lover,
but my lover had left; he was gone.
My heart sank at his departure.^a
I looked for him but did not find him.
I called him but he did not answer.
- ⁷The watchmen found me
as they made their rounds in the city.
They beat me, they bruised me;
they took away my cloak,
those watchmen of the walls!
- ⁸O daughters of Jerusalem, I charge
you—
if you find my lover,
what will you tell him?
Tell him I am faint with love.

Friends

- ⁹How is your beloved better than
others,
most beautiful of women?
How is your beloved better than
others,
that you charge us so?

Beloved

- ¹⁰My lover is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.
- ¹¹His head is purest gold;
his hair is wavy
and black as a raven.
- ¹²His eyes are like doves
by the water streams,
washed in milk,
mounted like jewels.

^{b15} Or I am (spoken by the Beloved)

^{a6} Or heart had gone out to him when he spoke

- ¹³His cheeks are like beds of spice yielding perfume.
His lips are like lilies
dripping with myrrh.
¹⁴His arms are rods of gold
set with chrysolite.
His body is like polished ivory decorated with sapphires.^b ¹⁵His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon,
choice as its cedars.
¹⁶His mouth is sweetness itself;
he is altogether lovely.
This is my lover, this my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends

- 6 Where has your lover gone,
most beautiful of women?
Which way did your lover turn,
that we may look for him with you?

Beloved

- ²My lover has gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,
to browse in the gardens
and to gather lilies.
³I am my lover's and my lover is mine;
he browses among the lilies.

Lover

- ⁴You are beautiful, my darling, as Tirzah,
lovely as Jerusalem,
majestic as troops with banners.
⁵Turn your eyes from me;
they overwhelm me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
descending from Gilead.
⁶Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
coming up from the washing.
Each has its twin,
not one of them is alone.
⁷Your temples behind your veil
are like the halves of a
pomegranate.
⁸Sixty queens there may be,
and eighty concubines,
and virgins beyond number;

- ⁹but my dove, my perfect one, is unique,
the only daughter of her mother,
the favourite of the one who bore
her.
The young women saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and concubines praised
her.

Friends

- ¹⁰Who is this that appears like the dawn,
fair as the moon, bright as the sun,
majestic as the stars in procession?

Lover

- ¹¹I went down to the grove of nut trees
to look at the new growth in the valley,
to see if the vines had budded
or the pomegranates were in bloom.
¹²Before I realised it,
my desire set me among the royal chariots of my people.^a

Friends

- ¹³Come back, come back,
O Shulammitte;
come back, come back, that we may gaze on you!

Lover

- Why would you gaze on the Shulammitte
as on the dance of Mahanaim?

- 7 How beautiful your sandalled feet,
O prince's daughter!
Your graceful legs are like jewels,
the work of an artist's hands.
²Your navel is a rounded goblet
that never lacks blended wine.
Your waist is a mound of wheat encircled by lilies.
³Your breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.
⁴Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are the pools of Heshbon
by the gate of Bath Rabbim.

^{b14} Or lapis lazuli ^{a12} Or among the chariots of Amminadab; or among the chariots of the people of the prince

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
 looking towards Damascus.
 5 Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel.
 Your hair is like royal tapestry;
 the king is held captive by its tresses.
 6 How beautiful you are and how pleasing,
 O love, with your delights!
 7 Your stature is like that of the palm,
 and your breasts like clusters of
 fruit.
 8 I said, "I will climb the palm tree;
 I will take hold of its fruit."
 May your breasts be like the clusters
 of the vine,
 the fragrance of your breath like
 apples,
 9 and your mouth like the best wine.

Beloved

May the wine go straight to my lover, flowing gently over lips and teeth.^a 10 I belong to my lover,
 and his desire is for me.
 11 Come, my lover, let us go to the countryside,
 let us spend the night in the villages.^b
 12 Let us go early to the vineyards
 to see if the vines have budded,
 if their blossoms have opened,
 and if the pomegranates are in bloom—
 there I will give you my love.
 13 The mandrakes send out their
 fragrance,
 and at our door is every delicacy,
 both new and old,
 that I have stored up for you, my
 lover.

8 If only you were to me like a brother,
 who was nursed at my mother's breasts!
 Then, if I found you outside,
 I would kiss you,
 and no-one would despise me.

2 I would lead you
 and bring you to my mother's
 house—
 she who has taught me.
 I would give you spiced wine to drink,
 the nectar of my pomegranates.
 3 His left arm is under my head
 and his right arm embraces me.
 4 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you:
 Do not arouse or awaken love
 until it so desires.

Friends

5 Who is this coming up from the desert leaning on her lover?

Beloved

Under the apple tree I roused you;
 there your mother conceived you,
 there she who was in labour gave you birth.
 6 Place me like a seal over your heart,
 like a seal on your arm;
 for love is as strong as death,
 its jealousy^a unyielding as the grave.^b
 It burns like blazing fire,
 like a mighty flame.^c
 7 Many waters cannot quench love;
 rivers cannot wash it away.
 If one were to give all the wealth of one's house for
 love,
 it^d would be utterly scorned.

Friends

8 We have a young sister,
 and her breasts are not yet grown.
 What shall we do for our sister
 for the day she is spoken for?
 9 If she is a wall,
 we will build towers of silver on her.
 If she is a door,
 we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

Beloved

10 I am a wall,
 and my breasts are like towers.
 Thus I have become in his eyes
 like one bringing contentment.

Isaiah

1 The vision concerning Judah and Jerusalem that Isaiah son of Amoz saw during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

A Rebellious Nation

2Hear, O heavens! Listen, O earth!

For the LORD has spoken:

"I reared children and brought them up,

but they have rebelled against me.

3The ox knows its master,
the donkey its owner's manger,
but Israel does not know,
my people do not understand."

4Ah, sinful nation,
a people loaded with guilt,
a brood of evildoers,
children given to corruption!
They have forsaken the LORD;
they have spurned the Holy One of Israel
and turned their backs on him.

5Why should you be beaten any more?

Why do you persist in rebellion?

Your whole head is injured,
your whole heart afflicted.

6From the sole of your foot to the top of your head
there is no soundness—
only wounds and bruises
and open sores,
not cleansed or bandaged
or soothed with oil.

7Your country is desolate,
your cities burned with fire;
your fields are being stripped by foreigners
right before you,
laid waste as when overthrown by strangers.

like a shelter in a vineyard,
like a hut in a field of melons,
like a city under siege.

9Unless the LORD Almighty
had left us some survivors,
we would have become like Sodom,
we would have been like Gomorrah.

10Hear the word of the LORD,
you rulers of Sodom;
listen to the law of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!

11"The multitude of your sacrifices—
what are they to me?" says the LORD.
"I have more than enough of burnt
offerings,
of rams and the fat of fattened
animals;

I have no pleasure
in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.

12When you come to appear before me,
who has asked this of you,
this trampling of my courts?

13Stop bringing meaningless offerings!
Your incense is detestable to me.
New Moons, Sabbaths and convocations—
I cannot bear your evil assemblies.

¹⁴Your New Moon festivals and your appointed feasts
my soul hates.

They have become a burden to me;
I am weary of bearing them.

¹⁵When you spread out your hands in prayer,

I will hide my eyes from you;
even if you offer many prayers,
I will not listen.

Your hands are full of blood;
¹⁶wash and make yourselves clean.

Take your evil deeds
out of my sight!

Stop doing wrong,

¹⁷learn to do right!

Seek justice,
encourage the oppressed.^a

Defend the cause of the fatherless, plead the case of the widow.

¹⁸"Come now, let us reason together,"
says the LORD.

"Though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red as crimson,
they shall be like wool.

¹⁹If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the best from the land;

²⁰but if you resist and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword."
For the mouth of the LORD
has spoken.

²¹See how the faithful city has become a harlot!
She once was full of justice;
righteousness used to dwell in her—
but now murderers!

²²Your silver has become dross,
your choice wine is diluted with
water.

²³Your rulers are rebels,
companions of thieves;
they all love bribes
and chase after gifts.
They do not defend the cause of the
fatherless;
the widow's case does not come
before them.

²⁴Therefore the Lord, the LORD
Almighty,

the Mighty One of Israel, declares:

"Ah, I will get relief from my foes
and avenge myself on my enemies.

²⁵I will turn my hand against you;
I will thoroughly purge away your dross
and remove all your impurities.

²⁶I will restore your judges as in days of
old,
your counsellors as at the beginning.
Afterwards you will be called the City of Righteousness,
the Faithful City."

²⁷Zion will be redeemed with justice,
her penitent ones with righteousness.

²⁸But rebels and sinners will both be broken,
and those who forsake the LORD
will perish.

²⁹"You will be ashamed because of the sacred oaks
in which you have delighted;
you will be disgraced because of the gardens
that you have chosen.

³⁰You will be like an oak with fading
leaves,
like a garden without water.

³¹The mighty man will become tinder
and his work a spark;
both will burn together,
with no-one to quench the fire."

The Mountain of the LORD

2 This is what Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

²In the last days

the mountain of the LORD's temple
will be established
as chief among the mountains;
it will be raised above the hills,
and all nations will stream to it.

³Many peoples will come and say,

"Come, let us go up to the mountain
of the LORD,

^aOr / rebuke the oppressor

to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us his ways,
so that we may walk in his paths.”
The law will go out from Zion,
the word of the LORD from
Jerusalem.

⁴He will judge between the nations and will settle disputes for many
peoples.
They will beat their swords into ploughshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not take up sword against
nation,
nor will they train for war any more.

⁵Come, O house of Jacob,
let us walk in the light of the LORD.

The Day of the LORD

⁶You have abandoned your people,
the house of Jacob.
They are full of superstitions from the East;
they practise divination like the Philistines
and clasp hands with pagans.
⁷Their land is full of silver and gold;
there is no end to their treasures.
Their land is full of horses;
there is no end to the chariots.
⁸Their land is full of idols;
they bow down to the work of their
hands,
to what their fingers have made.
⁹So people will be brought low
and everyone humbled—
do not forgive them.^a ¹⁰Go into the rocks, hide in the ground

from dread of the LORD
and the splendour of his majesty!
¹¹The eyes of the arrogant will be humbled
and human pride brought low;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that
day.
¹²The LORD Almighty has a day in store
for all the proud and lofty,

for all that is exalted
(and they will be humbled), ¹³for all the cedars of Lebanon, tall and lofty,
and all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴for all the towering mountains
and all the high hills, ¹⁵for every lofty tower
and every fortified wall, ¹⁶for every trading ship^b and every stately vessel.
¹⁷The arrogance of all people will be brought low
and human pride humbled;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day, ¹⁸and the idols will totally disappear.

¹⁹People will flee to caves in the rocks and to holes in the ground
from the dread of the LORD
and the splendour of his majesty,
when he rises to shake the earth.
²⁰In that day people will throw away to the rodents and bats
their idols of silver and idols of gold,
which they made to worship.
²¹They will flee to caverns in the rocks and to the overhanging crags
from dread of the LORD
and the splendour of his majesty,
when he rises to shake the earth.

²²Stop trusting in human beings,
who have but a breath in their nostrils.
Of what account are they?

Judgment on Jerusalem and Judah

3 See now, the Lord,
the LORD Almighty,
is about to take from Jerusalem and Judah
both supply and support:
all supplies of food and all supplies of
water,
² the hero and warrior,
the judge and prophet,
the soothsayer and elder,
³ the captain of fifty and the person of rank,

^a9 Or not raise them up ^b16 Hebrew every ship of Tarshish

the counsellor, skilled worker and clever enchanter.

⁴I will make mere youths their officials;
children will govern them.

⁵People will oppress each other—one against another, neighbour against neighbour.

The young will rise up against the old,
the base against the honourable.

⁶A man will seize one of his brothers
in his father's house, and say,
"You have a cloak, you be our leader;
take charge of this heap of ruins!"

⁷But in that day he will cry out,
"I have no remedy.

I have no food or clothing in my
house;
do not make me the leader of the
people."

⁸Jerusalem staggers, Judah is falling;
their words and deeds are against the
LORD,
defying his glorious presence.

⁹The look on their faces testifies
against them;
they parade their sin like Sodom;
they do not hide it.

Woe to them!

They have brought disaster upon
themselves.

¹⁰Tell the righteous it will be well with
them,
for they will enjoy the fruit of their
deeds.

¹¹Woe to the wicked! Disaster is upon
them!

They will be paid back for what their hands have done.

¹²Youths oppress my people,
women rule over them.

O my people, your guides lead you
astray;
they turn you from the path.

¹³The LORD takes his place in court;
he rises to judge the people.

¹⁴The LORD enters into judgment against the elders and leaders of his

people:

"It is you who have ruined my vineyard;
the plunder from the poor is in your houses.

¹⁵What do you mean by crushing my
people
and grinding the faces of the poor?"
declares the LORD, the LORD
Almighty.

¹⁶The LORD says,
"The women of Zion are haughty, walking along with outstretched
necks,
flirting with their eyes,
tripping along with mincing steps,
with ornaments jingling on their ankles.

¹⁷Therefore the Lord will bring sores on the heads of the women of Zion;
the LORD will make their scalps
bald."

¹⁸In that day the Lord will snatch away their finery: the bangles and headbands and crescent necklaces, ¹⁹the ear-rings and bracelets and veils, ²⁰the headdresses and ankle chains and sashes, the perfume bottles and charms, ²¹the signet rings and nose rings, ²²the fine robes and the capes and cloaks, the purses ²³and mirrors, and the linen garments and tiaras and shawls.

²⁴Instead of fragrance there will be a stench;
instead of a sash, a rope;
instead of well-dressed hair, baldness;
instead of fine clothing, sackcloth;
instead of beauty, branding.

²⁵Your men will fall by the sword,
your warriors in battle.

²⁶The gates of Zion will lament and mourn;
deserted, she will sit on the ground.

4 In that day seven women will take hold of one man and say, "We will eat our own food
and provide our own clothes;
only let us be called by your name.
Take away our disgrace!"

The Branch of the LORD

²In that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of the survivors in Israel. ³Those who are left in Zion, who remain in Jerusalem, will be called holy, all who are recorded among the living in Jerusalem. ⁴The LORD will wash away the filth of the women of Zion; he will cleanse the bloodstains from Jerusalem by a spirit^a of judgment and a spirit^a of fire. ⁵Then the LORD will create over all of Mount Zion and over those who assemble there a cloud of smoke by day and a glow of flaming fire by night; over all the glory will be a canopy. ⁶It will be a shelter and shade from the heat of the day, and a refuge and hiding-place from the storm and rain.

The Song of the Vineyard

5 I will sing for the one I love
a song about his vineyard:
My loved one had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside.
²He dug it up and cleared it of stones and planted it with the choicest vines.
He built a watchtower in it
and cut out a winepress as well.
Then he looked for a crop of good
grapes,
but it yielded only bad fruit.

³Now you dwellers in Jerusalem and people of Judah,
judge between me and my
vineyard.
⁴What more could have been done for my vineyard
than I have done for it?
When I looked for good grapes,
why did it yield only bad?
⁵Now I will tell you what I am going to do to my
vineyard:
I will take away its hedge,
and it will be destroyed;

I will break down its wall,
and it will be trampled.
⁶I will make it a wasteland,
neither pruned nor cultivated,
and briars and thorns will grow there.
I will command the clouds not to rain on it.”

⁷The vineyard of the LORD Almighty is the house of Israel,
and the people of Judah
are the garden of his delight.
And he looked for justice, but saw
bloodshed;
for righteousness, but heard cries
of distress.

Woes and Judgments

⁸Woe to you who add house to house and join field to field till no space is left
and you live alone in the land.

⁹The LORD Almighty has declared in my hearing:
“Surely the great houses will become desolate,
the fine mansions left without occupants.
¹⁰A ten-acre^a vineyard will produce
only a bath^b of wine,
a homer^c of seed only an ephah^d of grain.”

¹¹Woe to those who rise early in the morning
to run after their drinks,
who stay up late at night
till they are inflamed with wine.
¹²They have harps and lyres at their banquets,
tambourines and flutes and wine,
but they have no regard for the deeds
of the LORD,
no respect for the work of his hands.
¹³Therefore my people will go into exile
for lack of understanding;
those of high rank will die of hunger and the common people will be parched with thirst.

^{a4} Or the Spirit ^{a10} Hebrew ten-yoke, that is, the land ploughed by 10 yoke of oxen in one day

^{b10} That is, probably about 5 gallons (about 22 litres)

^{c10} That is, probably about 3/5 bushel (about 22 litres)

^{d10} That is, probably about 6 bushels (about 220 litres)

- ¹⁴Therefore the grave^e enlarges its appetite
and opens its mouth without limit;
into it will descend their nobles and masses
with all their brawlers and revellers.
¹⁵So people will be brought low
and everyone humbled,
the eyes of the arrogant humbled.
¹⁶But the LORD Almighty will be exalted by his justice,
and the holy God will show himself
holy by his righteousness.
¹⁷Then sheep will graze as in their own
pasture;
lambs will feed/ among the ruins of the rich.
¹⁸Woe to those who draw sin along with cords of deceit,
and wickedness as with cart ropes, ¹⁹to those who say, "Let God hurry, let him hasten his work
so that we may see it.
Let it approach,
let the plan of the Holy One of Israel come,
so that we may know it."
²⁰Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,
who put darkness for light
and light for darkness,
who put bitter for sweet
and sweet for bitter.
²¹Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes
and clever in their own sight.
²²Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine
and champions at mixing drinks, ²³who acquit the guilty for a bribe,
but deny justice to the innocent.
²⁴Therefore, as tongues of fire lick up straw
and as dry grass sinks down in the flames,
so their roots will decay
and their flowers blow away like dust;

for they have rejected the law of the LORD Almighty
and spurned the word of the Holy
One of Israel.

- ²⁵Therefore the LORD's anger burns
against his people;
his hand is raised and he strikes
them down.
The mountains shake,
and the dead bodies are like refuse
in the streets.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned
away,
his hand is still upraised.

- ²⁶He lifts up a banner for the distant
nations,
he whistles for those at the ends of
the earth.

Here they come,
swiftly and speedily!

- ²⁷Not one of them grows tired or stumbles,
not one slumbers or sleeps;
not a belt is loosened at the waist,
not a sandal thong is broken.
²⁸Their arrows are sharp,
all their bows are strung;
their horses' hoofs seem like flint,
their chariot wheels like a whirlwind.

- ²⁹Their roar is like that of the lion,
they roar like young lions;
they growl as they seize their prey and carry it off with no-one to rescue.

- ³⁰In that day they will roar over it
like the roaring of the sea.
And if one looks at the land,
there is only darkness and distress:
even the light will be darkened by the clouds.

Isaiah's Commission

6 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled
the temple. ²Above him were seraphs, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered

^e14 Hebrew Sheol / 17 Septuagint; Hebrew / strangers will eat their feet, and with two they were flying.

³ And they were calling to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD
 Almighty;
 the whole earth is full of his glory.”

⁴ At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.

⁵ “Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty.”

⁶ Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷ With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.”

⁸ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?”

And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

⁹ He said, “Go and tell this people:

“‘Be ever hearing, but never
 understanding;
 be ever seeing, but never perceiving.’”

¹⁰ Make the heart of this people calloused;
 make their ears dull
 and close their eyes.^a Otherwise they might see with their
 eyes,
 hear with their ears,
 understand with their hearts,
 and turn and be healed.”

¹¹ Then I said, “For how long, O Lord?”
 And he answered:

“Until the cities lie ruined
 and without inhabitant,
 until the houses are left deserted
 and the fields ruined and ravaged, ¹² until the LORD has sent everyone far
 away
 and the land is utterly forsaken.

¹³ And though a tenth remains in the land,
 it will again be laid waste.
 But as the terebinth and oak leave stumps when they are cut
 down,
 so the holy seed will be the stump
 in the land.”

The Sign of Immanuel

7 When Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel marched on to fight against Jerusalem, but they could not overpower it.

² Now the house of David was told, “Aram has allied itself with^a Ephraim”; so the hearts of Ahaz and his people were shaken, as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.

³ Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out, you and your son Shear-Jashub,^b to meet Ahaz at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Laundry Field. ⁴ Say to him, ‘Be careful, keep calm and don’t be afraid. Do not lose heart because of these two smouldering stubs of firewood—because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and of the son of Remaliah. ⁵ Aram, Ephraim and Remaliah’s son have plotted your ruin, saying, ⁶ ‘Let us invade Judah; let us tear it apart and divide it among ourselves, and make the son of Tabeel king over it.’” ⁷ Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“‘It will not take place,
 it will not happen,
⁸ for the head of Aram is Damascus,
 and the head of Damascus is only Rezin.

Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be too shattered to be a people.

⁹ The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is only Remaliah’s son.

If you do not stand firm in your faith,
 you will not stand at all.’”

^a9, 10 Hebrew; Septuagint ‘You will be ever hearing, but never understanding; / you will be ever seeing, but never perceiving.’ / ¹⁰ This people’s heart has become calloused; / they hardly hear with their ears, / and they have closed their eyes ^b2 Or has set up camp in ^b3 Shear-Jashub means a remnant will return.

¹⁰Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, ¹¹"Ask the LORD your God for a sign, whether in the deepest depths or in the highest heights."

¹²But Ahaz said, "I will not ask; I will not put the LORD to the test."

¹³Then Isaiah said, "Hear now, you house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of human beings? Will you try the patience of my God also? ¹⁴Therefore
the Lord himself will give you^c a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and^d will call him Immanuel.^e ¹⁵He will eat curds and honey when he knows enough to reject the wrong and choose the right. ¹⁶But before the boy
knows enough to reject the wrong and choose the right, the land of the two kings
you dread will be laid waste. ¹⁷The LORD will bring on you and on your people and on the house of your father a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away from Judah—he will bring the king of Assyria."

¹⁸In that day the LORD will whistle for flies from the distant streams of Egypt and for bees from the land of Assyria.
¹⁹They will all come and settle in the steep ravines and in the crevices in the rocks, on all the thornbushes and at all the water holes. ²⁰In that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the River^f—the king of Assyria—to shave your head and the hair of your legs, and to take off your beards also. ²¹In that day,
a person will keep alive a young cow and two goats. ²²And because of the abundance of the milk they give, there will be curds to eat. All who remain in the land will eat curds and honey. ²³In that day, in every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand silver shekels,^g
there will be only briars and thorns.
²⁴Hunters will go there with bow and arrow, for the land will be covered with briars and thorns. ²⁵As for all the hills once cultivated by the hoe, you will no longer go there for fear of the briars and thorns;
they will become places where cattle are turned loose and where sheep run.

Assyria, the LORD's Instrument

8 The LORD said to me, "Take a large scroll and write on it with an ordinary pen: Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.^a ²And I will call in Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah as reliable witnesses for
me."

³Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. And the LORD said to me, "Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. ⁴Before the boy knows how to say 'My father' or 'My mother',
the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria."

⁵The LORD spoke to me again:

⁶"Because this people has rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoices over Rezin
and the son of Remaliah,

⁷therefore the Lord is about to bring
against them

the mighty floodwaters of the River^b—
the king of Assyria with all his pomp.

It will overflow all its channels,
run over all its banks

⁸and sweep on into Judah, swirling over it,

passing through it and reaching up to the neck.

Its outspread wings will cover the breadth of your land.
O Immanuel!^c

⁹Raise the war cry,^d you nations, and be shattered!

Listen, all you distant lands.

Prepare for battle, and be shattered!

Prepare for battle, and be shattered!

¹⁰Devise your strategy, but it will be thwarted;

propose your plan, but it will not

Fear God

¹¹The LORD spoke to me with his strong hand upon me, warning me not to follow the way of this people. He said:

¹²"Do not call conspiracy everything that these people call conspiracy;^f

do not fear what they fear, and do not dread it.

¹³The LORD Almighty is the one you are to regard as holy,

he is the one you are to fear,
he is the one you are to dread,

¹⁴and he will be a sanctuary;
but for both houses of Israel he will be a stone that causes people to stumble

and a rock that makes them fall.

And for the people of Jerusalem he will be a trap and a snare.

¹⁵Many of them will stumble;
they will fall and be broken,
they will be snared and captured."

¹⁶Bind up the testimony and seal up the law among my disciples.

¹⁷I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob.

I will put my trust in him.

¹⁸Here am I, and the children the LORD has given me. We are signs and symbols in Israel from the LORD Almighty, who dwells on Mount Zion.

¹⁹When someone tells you to consult mediums and spiritists, who whisper and mutter, should not a people enquire of their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, they have no light of dawn.

²¹Distressed and hungry, they will roam through the land; when they are famished, they will become enraged and, looking upward, will curse their king and their God. ²²Then they will look towards the earth and see only distress and darkness and fearful gloom, and they will be thrust into utter darkness.

To Us a Child Is Born

9 Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future he will honour Galilee of the Gentiles, by the way of the sea, along the Jordan—

²The people walking in darkness have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of the shadow of death^a
a light has dawned.

³You have enlarged the nation and increased their joy;
they rejoice before you
as people rejoice at the harvest, as soldiers rejoice
when dividing the plunder.

⁴For as in the day of Midian's defeat,
you have shattered
the yoke that burdens them,
the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor.

⁵Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning,
will be fuel for the fire.

⁶For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given,
and the government will be on his shoulders.

And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor,^b Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

⁷Of the increase of his government and peace
there will be no end.

He will reign on David's throne
and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness
from that time on and for ever.

^f12 Or Do not call for a treaty / every time these people call for a treaty

^a2 Or land of darkness ^b6 Or Wonderful, Counsellor

The zeal of the LORD Almighty
will accomplish this.

The LORD's Anger Against Israel

- ⁸The Lord has sent a message against Jacob;
it will fall on Israel.
⁹All the people will know it—Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria—who say with pride
and arrogance of heart,
¹⁰"The bricks have fallen down,
but we will rebuild with dressed stone;
the fig-trees have been felled,
but we will replace them with cedars."
¹¹But the LORD has strengthened Rezin's foes against them and has spurred their enemies on.
¹²Arameans from the east and Philistines from the west have devoured Israel with open mouth.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned
away,
his hand is still upraised.

- ¹³But the people have not returned to him who struck them,
nor have they sought the LORD
Almighty.
¹⁴So the LORD will cut off from Israel
both head and tail,
both palm branch and reed in a single day;
¹⁵the elders and dignitaries are the head,
the prophets who teach lies are the tail.
¹⁶Those who guide this people mislead
them,
and those who are guided are led
astray.
¹⁷Therefore the Lord will take no pleasure in the young men, nor will he pity the fatherless and
widows,
for everyone is ungodly and wicked,
every mouth speaks vileness.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned
away,
his hand is still upraised.

- ¹⁸Surely wickedness burns like a fire;
it consumes briars and thorns,
it sets the forest thickets ablaze,
so that it rolls upward in a column
of smoke.
¹⁹By the wrath of the LORD Almighty
the land will be scorched
and the people will be fuel for the fire;
they will not spare each other.
²⁰On the right they will devour,
but still be hungry;
on the left they will eat,
but not be satisfied.
They will all feed on the flesh of their own offspring;^c ²¹Manasseh will feed on Ephraim,
and Ephraim on Manasseh;
together they will turn against Judah.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned
away,
his hand is still upraised.

- 10 Woe to those who make unjust laws,
to those who issue oppressive
decrees,
²to deprive the poor of their rights and withhold justice from the oppressed of my people, making widows their prey
and robbing the fatherless.
³What will you do on the day of reckoning,
when disaster comes from afar?
To whom will you run for help?
Where will you leave your riches?
⁴Nothing will remain but to cringe
among the captives
or fall among the slain.

Yet for all this, his anger is not turned
away,
his hand is still upraised.

God's Judgment on Assyria

- ⁵"Woe to the Assyrian, the rod of my
anger,

^c20 Or arm

in whose hand is the club of my wrath!

⁶I send him against a godless nation,
I dispatch him against a people who anger me,
to seize loot and snatch plunder,
and to trample them down like mud
in the streets.

⁷But this is not what he intends,
this is not what he has in mind;
his purpose is to destroy,
to put an end to many nations.

⁸Are not my commanders all kings?
he says.

⁹ 'Has not Calno fared like Carchemish?

Is not Hamath like Arpad,
and Samaria like Damascus?

¹⁰As my hand seized the kingdoms of the idols,
kingdoms whose images excelled
those of Jerusalem and Samaria—¹¹shall I not deal with Jerusalem and her images
as I dealt with Samaria and her
idols? "

¹²When the Lord has finished all his work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, he will say, "I will punish the king of Assyria for the wilful pride of his heart and the haughty look in his eyes. ¹³For he
says:

" 'By the strength of my hand I have done this,
and by my wisdom, because I have
understanding.

I removed the boundaries of nations,
I plundered their treasures;
like a mighty one I subdued^a their
kings.

¹⁴As one reaches into a nest,
so my hand reached for the wealth
of the nations;
as people gather abandoned eggs,
so I gathered all the countries;
not one flapped a wing,
or opened its mouth to chirp. ' "

¹⁵Does the axe raise itself above the one who swings it,

or the saw boast against the one who uses it?

As if a rod were to wield the person who lifts it up,
or a club brandish one who is not wood!

¹⁶Therefore, the Lord, the LORD
Almighty,
will send a wasting disease upon his sturdy warriors;
under his pomp a fire will be kindled
like a blazing flame.

¹⁷The Light of Israel will become a fire,
their Holy One a flame;
in a single day it will burn and consume
his thorns and his briers.

¹⁸The splendour of his forests and fertile fields

it will completely destroy,
as when sick people waste away.

¹⁹And the remaining trees of his forests will be so few
that a child could write them down.

The Remnant of Israel

²⁰In that day the remnant of Israel,
the survivors of the house of Jacob,
will no longer rely on him who struck them down
but will truly rely on the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.

²¹A remnant will return,^b a remnant of Jacob
will return to the Mighty God.

²²Though your people, O Israel, be like the sand by the sea,
only a remnant will return.
Destruction has been decreed, overwhelming and righteous.

²³The Lord, the LORD Almighty, will carry out
the destruction decreed upon the whole land.

²⁴Therefore, this is what the Lord, the LORD Almighty, says:

"O my people who live in Zion,
do not be afraid of the Assyrians,
who beat you with a rod

^a13 Or / I subdued the mighty,

^b21 Hebrew shear-jashub; also in verse 22

- and lift up a club against you, as Egypt did.
- ²⁵Very soon my anger against you will end and my wrath will be directed to their destruction.”
- ²⁶The LORD Almighty will lash them with a whip, as when he struck down Midian at the rock of Oreb; and he will raise his staff over the waters, as he did in Egypt.
- ²⁷In that day their burden will be lifted from your shoulders, their yoke from your neck; the yoke will be broken because you have grown so fat.^c
- ²⁸They enter Aiath; they pass through Migron; they store supplies at Michmash.
- ²⁹They go over the pass, and say, “We will camp overnight at Geba.” Ramah trembles; Gibeah of Saul flees.
- ³⁰Cry out, O Daughter of Gallim! Listen, O Laishah! Poor Anathoth!
- ³¹Madmenah is in flight; the people of Gebim take cover.
- ³²This day they will halt at Nob; they will shake their fist at the mount of the Daughter of Zion, at the hill of Jerusalem.
- ³³See, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will lop off the boughs with great power. The lofty trees will be felled, the tall ones will be brought low.
- ³⁴He will cut down the forest thickets with an axe; Lebanon will fall before the Mighty One.

The Branch From Jesse

- 11 A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit.

^{c27} Hebrew: Septuagint broken / from your shoulders

- ²The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him— the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD—
- ³and he will delight in the fear of the LORD.

He will not judge by what he sees with his eyes, or decide by what he hears with his ears;

- ⁴but with righteousness he will judge the needy, with justice he will give decisions for the poor of the earth.

He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; with the breath of his lips he will slay the wicked.

- ⁵Righteousness will be his belt and faithfulness the sash round his waist.

- ⁶The wolf will live with the lamb, the leopard will lie down with the goat, the calf and the lion and the yearling^a together; and a little child will lead them.

- ⁷The cow will feed with the bear, their young will lie down together, and the lion will eat straw like the ox.

- ⁸Infants will play near the hole of the cobra, and young children put their hands into the viper's nest.

- ⁹They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁰In that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples; the nations will rally to him, and his place of rest will be glorious. ¹¹In that day the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to reclaim the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Lower Egypt,

^{a6} Hebrew: Septuagint lion will feed

from Upper Egypt,^b from Cush,^c from Elam, from Babylonia,^d from Hamath
and from the islands of the sea.

¹²He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel;
he will assemble the scattered people
of Judah
from the four quarters of the earth.

¹³Ephraim's jealousy will vanish,
and Judah's enemies^e will be cut off;
Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah,
nor Judah hostile towards Ephraim.

¹⁴They will swoop down on the slopes of Philistia to the west;
together they will plunder the people to the east.
They will lay hands on Edom and Moab,
and the Ammonites will be subject
to them.

¹⁵The LORD will dry up
the gulf of the Egyptian sea;
with a scorching wind he will sweep
his hand
over the Euphrates River.^f
He will break it up into seven streams so that a person can cross over in sandals.

¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant of his people that is left from Assyria,
as there was for Israel
when they came up from Egypt.

Songs of Praise

12 In that day you will say:

"I will praise you, O LORD.
Although you were angry with me,
your anger has turned away
and you have comforted me.

²Surely God is my salvation;
I will trust and not be afraid.
The LORD, the LORD, is my strength and my song;
he has become my salvation."

³With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

⁴In that day you will say:

"Give thanks to the LORD, call on his
name;
make known among the nations
what he has done,
and proclaim that his name is exalted.

⁵Sing to the LORD, for he has done
glorious things;
let this be known to all the world.

⁶Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion,
for great is the Holy One of Israel
among you."

A Prophecy Against Babylon

13 An oracle concerning Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz saw:

²Raise a banner on a bare hilltop,
shout to them;
beckon to them
to enter the gates of the nobles.

³I have commanded my holy ones;
I have summoned my warriors to carry out my wrath—
those who rejoice in my triumph.

⁴Listen, a noise on the mountains,
like that of a great multitude!
Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms,
like nations massing together!
The LORD Almighty is mustering
an army for war.

⁵They come from faraway lands,
from the ends of the heavens—
the LORD and the weapons of his
wrath—
to destroy the whole country.

⁶Wail, for the day of the LORD is near;
it will come like destruction from the Almighty.^a

⁷Because of this, all hands will go
limp,
every man's heart will melt.

⁸Terror will seize them,
pain and anguish will grip them;

^{b11} Hebrew from Pathros ^{c11} That is, the upper Nile region

^{f15} Hebrew the River ^{a6} Hebrew Shaddai

^{d11} Hebrew Shinar ^{e13} Or hostility

they will writhe like a woman in labour.

They will look aghast at each other,
their faces aflame.

⁹See, the day of the LORD is coming—
a cruel day, with wrath and fierce
anger—

to make the land desolate
and destroy the sinners within it.

¹⁰The stars of heaven and their constellations
will not show their light.
The rising sun will be darkened
and the moon will not give its light.

¹¹I will punish the world for its evil,
the wicked for their sins.
I will put an end to the arrogance of the haughty
and will humble the pride of the ruthless.

¹²I will make people scarcer than pure
gold,
more rare than the gold of Ophir.

¹³Therefore I will make the heavens
tremble;
and the earth will shake from its place
at the wrath of the LORD Almighty,
in the day of his burning anger.

¹⁴Like a hunted gazelle,
like sheep without a shepherd,
they will all return to their own
people,
they will flee to their native land.

¹⁵Whoever is captured will be thrust
through;
all who are caught will fall by the sword.

¹⁶Their infants will be dashed to pieces
before their eyes;
their houses will be looted and their wives ravished.

¹⁷See, I will stir up against them the Medes,
who do not care for silver
and have no delight in gold.

¹⁸Their bows will strike down the young
men;
they will have no mercy on infants

nor will they look with compassion on children.

¹⁹Babylon, the jewel of kingdoms,
the glory of the Babylonians^b pride,
will be overthrown by God
like Sodom and Gomorrah.

²⁰She will never be inhabited or lived in through all generations;
there no Arabs will pitch their tents,
there no shepherds will rest their
flocks.

²¹But desert creatures will lie there,
jackals will fill her houses;
there the owls will dwell,
and there the wild goats will leap
about.

²²Hyenas will howl in her strongholds,
jackals in her luxurious palaces.
Her time is at hand,
and her days will not be prolonged.

14 The LORD will have compassion on Jacob;
once again he will choose Israel
and will settle them in their own land.
Aliens will join them
and unite with the house of Jacob.
²Nations will take them
and bring them to their own place.
And the house of Israel will possess
the nations
as male and female servants in the LORD's land.
They will make captives of their captors
and rule over their oppressors.

³On the day the LORD gives you relief from suffering and turmoil and cruel bondage, ⁴you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon:

How the oppressor has come to an end!

How his fury^a has ended!

⁵The LORD has broken the rod of the
wicked,
the sceptre of the rulers.

⁶which in anger struck down peoples
with unceasing blows,
and in fury subdued nations
with relentless aggression.

^{b19} Or Chaldeans

^{a4} Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint and Syriac; the meaning of the word in the Masoretic Text is uncertain.

⁷All the lands are at rest and at peace;
they break into singing.

⁸Even the pine trees and the cedars of Lebanon

exult over you and say,

"Now that you have been laid low,
no-one comes to cut us down."

⁹The grave^b below is all astir
to meet you at your coming;
it rouses the spirits of the departed to greet you—
all those who were leaders in the world;
it makes them rise from their thrones—all those who were kings over the
nations.

¹⁰They will all respond,
they will say to you,
"You also have become weak, as we are;
you have become like us."

¹¹All your pomp has been brought down to the grave,
along with the noise of your harps;
maggots are spread out beneath you and worms cover you.

¹²How you have fallen from heaven,
O morning star, son of the dawn!
You have been cast down to the earth,
you who once laid low the nations!

¹³You said in your heart,
"I will ascend to heaven;
I will raise my throne
above the stars of God;
I will sit enthroned on the mount of
assembly,
on the utmost heights of the sacred mountain."^c

¹⁴I will ascend above the tops of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High."^c

¹⁵But you are brought down to the grave,
to the depths of the pit.

¹⁶Those who see you stare at you,
they ponder your fate:
"Is this the man who shook the earth
and made kingdoms tremble,

¹⁷the man who made the world a desert,
who overthrew its cities
and would not let his captives go home?"

¹⁸All the kings of the nations lie in state,
each in his own tomb.

¹⁹But you are cast out of your tomb
like a rejected branch;
you are covered with the slain,
with those pierced by the sword,
those who descend to the stones of the pit.

Like a corpse trampled underfoot,
²⁰ you will not join them in burial,
for you have destroyed your land
and killed your people.

The offspring of the wicked
will never be mentioned again.

²¹Prepare a place to slaughter his
children
for the sins of their ancestors;
they are not to rise to inherit the land
and cover the earth with their cities.

²²"I will rise up against them,"
declares the LORD Almighty.

"I will cut off from Babylon her name
and survivors,
her offspring and descendants,"
declares the LORD.

²³"I will turn her into a place for owls
and into swampland;
I will sweep her with the broom of
destruction,"
declares the LORD Almighty.

A Prophecy Against Assyria

²⁴The LORD Almighty has sworn,

"Surely, as I have planned, so it will be,
and as I have purposed, so it will stand.

²⁵I will crush the Assyrian in my land;
on my mountains I will trample him
down.

His yoke will be taken from my people,
and his burden removed from their shoulders."

²⁶This is the plan determined for the whole world;
this is the hand stretched out over all nations.

²⁷For the LORD Almighty has purposed,
and who can thwart him?

^b Hebrew Sheol; also in verses 11 and 15 ^c13 Or the north; Hebrew Zaphon

His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?

A Prophecy Against the Philistines

²⁸This oracle came in the year King
Ahaz died:

²⁹Do not rejoice, all you Philistines,
that the rod that struck you is broken;
from the root of that snake will spring
up a viper, its fruit will be a darting, venomous serpent.

³⁰The poorest of the poor will find
pasture,
and the needy will lie down in safety.
But your root I will destroy by famine;
it will slay your survivors.

³¹Wail, O gate! Howl, O city!
Melt away, all you Philistines!
A cloud of smoke comes from the north,
and there is not a straggler in its ranks.

³²What answer shall be given to the envoys of that nation?
“The LORD has established Zion, and in her his afflicted people will find refuge.”

A Prophecy Against Moab

15 An oracle concerning Moab:

Ar in Moab is ruined,
destroyed in a night!
Kir in Moab is ruined,
destroyed in a night!

²Dibon goes up to its temple,
to its high places to weep;
Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba.
Every head is shaved
and every beard cut off.

³In the streets they wear sackcloth;
on the roofs and in the public squares
they all wail,
prostrate with weeping.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voices are heard all the way to Jahaz.

Therefore the armed men of Moab
cry out,
and their hearts are faint.

⁵My heart cries out over Moab;
her fugitives flee as far as Zoar,
as far as Eglath Shelishiyah.

They go up the way to Luhith,
weeping as they go;
on the road to Horonaim
they lament their destruction.

⁶The waters of Nimrim are dried up and the grass is withered;
the vegetation is gone
and nothing green is left.

⁷So the wealth they have acquired and stored up
they carry away over the Ravine of the Poplars.

⁸Their outcry echoes along the border of Moab;
their wailing reaches as far as Eglaim,
their lamentation as far as Beer Elim.

⁹Dimon's^a waters are full of blood,
but I will bring still more upon Dimon^a—
a lion upon the fugitives of Moab and upon those who remain in the
land.

16 Send lambs as tribute to the ruler of the land,
from Sela, across the desert,
to the mount of the Daughter of Zion.

²Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest,
so are the women of Moab
at the fords of the Arnon.

³“Give us counsel,
render a decision.
Make your shadow like night—
at high noon.

Hide the fugitives,
do not betray the refugees.

⁴Let the Moabite fugitives stay with
you;
be their shelter from the destroyer.”

The oppressor will come to an end,
and destruction will cease;

^a Masoretic Text; Dead Sea Scrolls, some Septuagint manuscripts and Vulgate Dibon

the aggressor will vanish from the land.

⁵In love a throne will be established;
in faithfulness a man will sit on it—
one from the house^a of David—one who in judging seeks justice and speeds the cause of
righteousness.

⁶We have heard of Moab's pride—
her overweening pride and conceit,
her pride and her insolence—
but her boasts are empty.

⁷Therefore the Moabites wail,
they wail together for Moab.
Lament and grieve
for the people^b of Kir Hareseth.

⁸The fields of Heshbon wither,
the vines of Sibmah also.
The rulers of the nations have trampled down the choicest
vines,

which once reached Jazer
and spread towards the desert.
Their shoots spread out
and went as far as the sea.

⁹So I weep, as Jazer weeps,
for the vines of Sibmah.

O Heshbon, O Elealeh,
I drench you with tears!
The shouts of joy over your ripened
fruit
and over your harvests have been stilled.

¹⁰Joy and gladness are taken away from the orchards;
no-one sings or shouts in the
vineyards;

no-one treads out wine at the presses,
for I have put an end to the shouting.

¹¹My heart laments for Moab like a harp,
my inmost being for Kir Hareseth.

¹²When Moab appears at her high place,
she only wears herself out;
when she goes to her shrine to pray,
it is to no avail.

¹³This is the word the LORD has already spoken concerning Moab. ¹⁴But now the LORD says: "Within three years, as a servant bound by contract would count them,

Moab's splendour and all her many people will be despised, and her survivors will be very few and feeble."

An Oracle Against Damascus

17 An oracle concerning Damascus:

"See, Damascus will no longer be a city
but will become a heap of ruins.

²The cities of Aroer will be deserted and left to flocks, which will lie
down,

with no-one to make them afraid.

³The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim,

and royal power from Damascus;
the remnant of Aram will be like the glory of the Israelites,"
declares the LORD Almighty.

⁴"In that day the glory of Jacob will fade;
the fat of his body will waste away.

⁵It will be as when reapers harvest the standing corn
gathering the corn in their arms—
as when someone glean ears of corn
in the Valley of Rephaim.

⁶Yet some gleanings will remain,
as when an olive tree is beaten,
leaving two or three olives on the topmost branches,
four or five on the fruitful boughs,"
declares the LORD,
the God of Israel.

⁷In that day people will look to their Maker and turn their eyes to the Holy One
of Israel.

⁸They will not look to the altars,
the work of their hands,
and they will have no regard for the Asherah poles^a
and the incense altars their fingers
have made.

⁹In that day their strong cities, which they left because of the Israelites, will be like places abandoned to thickets and undergrowth. And all will be desolation.

^{a5} Hebrew tent ^{b7} Or "raisin cakes," a word play

- ¹⁰You have forgotten God your Saviour;
you have not remembered the Rock, your fortress.
Therefore, though you set out the finest plants
and plant imported vines, ¹¹though on the day you set them out,
you make them grow,
and on the morning when you plant
them, you bring them to bud,
yet the harvest will be as nothing in the day of disease and incurable
pain.
- ¹²Oh, the raging of many nations—
they rage like the raging sea!
Oh, the uproar of the peoples—
they roar like the roaring of great
waters!
- ¹³Although the peoples roar like the roar of surging waters,
when he rebukes them they flee far
away,
driven before the wind like chaff on
the hills,
like tumble-weed before a gale.
- ¹⁴In the evening, sudden terror!
Before the morning, they are gone!
This is the portion of those who loot us,
the lot of those who plunder us.

A Prophecy Against Cush

- 18 Woe to the land of whirring wings^a along the rivers of Cush,^b ²which sends envoys by sea
in papyrus boats over the water.

Go, swift messengers,
to a people tall and smooth-skinned,
to a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive nation of strange speech,
whose land is divided by rivers.

- ³All you people of the world,
you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the
mountains,
you will see it,
and when a trumpet sounds,
you will hear it.

- ⁴This is what the LORD says to me:
“I will remain quiet and will look on from my dwelling-place,
like shimmering heat in the sunshine,
like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

- ⁵For, before the harvest, when the blossom is gone
and the flower becomes a ripening
grape,
he will cut off the shoots with pruning knives,
and cut down and take away the spreading branches.

- ⁶They will all be left to the mountain
birds of prey
and to the wild animals;
the birds will feed on them all summer,
the wild animals all winter.

- ⁷At that time gifts will be brought to
the LORD Almighty

from a people tall and smooth-skinned,
from a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive nation of strange speech,
whose land is divided by rivers—

the gifts will be brought to Mount Zion,
the place of the Name of the LORD Almighty.

A Prophecy About Egypt

- 19 An oracle concerning Egypt:
See, the LORD rides on a swift cloud
and is coming to Egypt.
The idols of Egypt tremble before him,
and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within them.

- ²“I will stir up Egyptian against Egyptian—
brother will fight against brother,
neighbour against neighbour,
city against city,
kingdom against kingdom.

- ³The Egyptians will lose heart,
and I will bring their plans to nothing;
they will consult the idols and the spirits of the dead,

^a1 Or of locusts ^b1 That is, the upper Nile region

the mediums and the spiritists.
 4I will hand the Egyptians over to the power of a cruel master,
 and a fierce king will rule over them,"
 declares the Lord, the LORD
 Almighty.

5The waters of the river will dry up,
 and the river bed will be parched and dry.

6The canals will stink;
 the streams of Egypt will dwindle
 and dry up.

The reeds and rushes will wither,
 7 also the plants along the Nile,
 at the mouth of the river.

Every sown field along the Nile will become parched, will blow away and be no more.

8Those who fish will groan and lament,
 all who cast hooks into the Nile;
 those who throw nets on the water will pine away.

9Those who work with combed flax will despair,
 the weavers of fine linen will lose
 hope.

10The workers in cloth will be dejected, and all the wage earners will be sick
 at heart.

11The officials of Zoan are nothing but
 fools;
 the wise counsellors of Pharaoh give senseless advice.

How can you say to Pharaoh,
 "I am one of the wise men,
 a disciple of the ancient kings"?

12Where are your wise men now?
 Let them show you and make known

what the LORD Almighty
 has planned against Egypt.

13The officials of Zoan have become
 fools,
 the leaders of Memphis^a are deceived;
 the cornerstones of her peoples
 have led Egypt astray.

14The LORD has poured into them
 a spirit of dizziness;
 they make Egypt stagger in all that she does,
 as drunkards stagger around in their vomit.

15There is nothing Egypt can do—
 head or tail, palm branch or reed.

16In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will shudder with fear at the uplifted hand that the LORD Almighty raises against them. 17And the land of Judah will bring terror to the Egyptians;
 everyone to whom Judah is mentioned will be terrified, because of what the LORD
 Almighty is planning against them.

18In that day five cities in Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD Almighty. One of them will be called the City of Destruction.^b

19In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the heart of Egypt, and a monument to the LORD at its border. 20It
 will be a sign and witness to the LORD Almighty in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, he will send them a saviour and defender, and he will rescue them. 21So
 the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and in that day they will acknowledge the LORD. They will worship with sacrifices and grain offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and keep them. 22The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague; he will strike them and heal them.
 They will turn to the LORD, and he will respond to their pleas and heal them.

23In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will go to Egypt and the Egyptians to Assyria. The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together. 24In that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing on the earth. 25The
 LORD Almighty will bless them, saying,
 "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria
 my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance."

A Prophecy Against Egypt and Cush

20 In the year that the supreme commander, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it—²at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. He said to him, “Take off the sackcloth from your body and the sandals from your feet.” And he did so, going around stripped and barefoot.

³Then the LORD said, “Just as my servant Isaiah has gone stripped and barefoot for three years, as a sign and portent against Egypt and Cush,^a ⁴so the king of Assyria will lead away stripped and barefoot the Egyptian captives and Cushite exiles, young and old, with buttocks bared—to Egypt’s shame. ⁵Those who trusted in Cush and boasted in Egypt will be afraid and put to shame. ⁶In that day the people who live on this coast will say, ‘See what has happened to those we relied on, those we fled to for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How then can we escape?’”

A Prophecy Against Babylon

21 An oracle concerning the Desert by the Sea:

Like whirlwinds sweeping through the southland,
an invader comes from the desert,
from a land of terror.

²A dire vision has been shown to me:
The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot.
Elam, attack! Media, lay siege!
I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused.

³At this my body is racked with pain, pangs seize me, like those of a woman in labour;
I am staggered by what I hear,
I am bewildered by what I see.

⁴My heart falters,
fear makes me tremble;

the twilight I longed for
has become a horror to me.

⁵They set the tables,
they spread the rugs,
they eat, they drink!
Get up, you officers,
oil the shields!

⁶This is what the Lord says to me:

“Go, post a lookout
and have him report what he sees.

⁷When he sees chariots
with teams of horses, riders on donkeys
or riders on camels,
let him be alert,
fully alert.”

⁸And the lookout^a shouted,

“Day after day, my lord, I stand on the watchtower;
every night I stay at my post.

⁹Look, here comes a man in a chariot
with a team of horses.
And he gives back the answer:
‘Babylon has fallen, has fallen!’
All the images of its gods lie shattered on the ground!”

¹⁰O my people, crushed on the threshing-floor,
I tell you what I have heard from the LORD Almighty,
from the God of Israel.

A Prophecy Against Edom

¹¹An oracle concerning Dumah:^b

Someone calls to me from Seir, “Watchman, what is left of the night?
Watchman, what is left of the
night?”

¹²The watchman replies, “Morning is coming, but also the
night.
If you would ask, then ask;
and come back yet again.”

^{a3} That is, the upper Nile region; also in verse 5 ^{a8} Dead Sea Scrolls and Syriac; Masoretic Text A lion

^{b11} Dumah means silence or stillness, a word play on Edom.

A Prophecy Against Arabia

¹³ An oracle concerning Arabia:

You caravans of Dedanites,
who camp in the thickets of Arabia,

¹⁴ bring water for the thirsty;
you who live in Tema,
bring food for the fugitives.

¹⁵ They flee from the sword,
from the drawn sword,
from the bent bow
and from the heat of battle.

¹⁶ This is what the Lord says to me:
“Within one year, as a servant bound by contract would count it, all the pomp of Kedar will come to an end. ¹⁷ The survivors of the archers, the warriors of Kedar, will be few.” The LORD, the God of Israel,
has spoken.

A Prophecy About Jerusalem

22 An oracle concerning the Valley of Vision:

What troubles you now,
that you have all gone up on the roofs,

² O town full of commotion,
O city of tumult and revelry?

Your slain were not killed by the sword,
nor did they die in battle.

⁴ All your leaders have fled together;
they have been captured without using the bow.

All you who were caught were taken prisoner together,
having fled while the enemy was still far away.

⁴ Therefore I said, “Turn away from me;
let me weep bitterly.

Do not try to console me
over the destruction of my
people.”

⁵ The Lord, the LORD Almighty, has a
day
of tumult and trampling and terror
in the Valley of Vision,
a day of battering down walls
and of crying out to the mountains.

⁶ Elam takes up the quiver,

with her charioteers and horses;
Kir uncovers the shield.

⁷ Your choicest valleys are full of
chariots,
and horsemen are posted at the city
gates;

⁸ the defences of Judah are stripped
away.

And you looked in that day to the weapons in the Palace of the Forest;

⁹ you saw that the City of David had many breaches in its defences;
you stored up water
in the Lower Pool.

¹⁰ You counted the buildings in Jerusalem and tore down houses to strengthen the wall.

¹¹ You built a reservoir between the two walls
for the water of the Old Pool, but you did not look to the One who
made it,
or have regard for the One who planned it long ago.

¹² The Lord, the LORD Almighty, called you on that day
to weep and to wail,
to tear out your hair and put on
sackcloth.

¹³ But see, there is joy and revelry, slaughtering of cattle and killing of
sheep,
eating of meat and drinking of wine!
“Let us eat and drink,” you say,
“for tomorrow we die!”

¹⁴ The LORD Almighty has revealed this in my hearing: “Till your dying day this sin will not be atoned for,” says the Lord,
the LORD Almighty.

¹⁵ This is what the Lord, the LORD
Almighty, says:

“Go, say to this steward, to Shebna, who is in charge of the palace:

¹⁶ What are you doing here and who gave you permission
to cut out a grave for yourself here,

hewing your grave on the height and chiselling your resting place in the rock?

¹⁷“Beware, the LORD is about to take firm hold of you and hurl you away, O you mighty man.

¹⁸He will roll you up tightly like a ball
and throw you into a large country.

There you will die
and there your splendid chariots
will remain—
you disgrace to your master's house!

¹⁹I will depose you from your office, and you will be ousted from your position.

²⁰“In that day I will summon my servant,
Eliakim son of Hilkiah. ²¹I will clothe him with your robe and fasten your sash around him and hand your authority over to him. He will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. ²²I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David; what he opens no-one can shut, and what he shuts no-one can open. ²³I will drive him like a peg into a firm place; he will be a seat^a of honour for the house of his father. ²⁴All the glory of his family will hang on him: its offspring and offshoots—all its lesser vessels, from the bowls to all the jars.

²⁵“In that day,” declares the LORD Almighty, “the peg driven into the firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and will fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut down.” The LORD has spoken.

A Prophecy About Tyre

23 An oracle concerning Tyre:

Wail, O ships of Tarshish!
For Tyre is destroyed
and left without house or harbour.
From the land of Cyprus^a word has come to them.

²Be silent, you people of the island
and you merchants of Sidon, whom the seafarers have enriched.

³On the great waters
came the grain of the Shihor;
the harvest of the Nile^b was the revenue of Tyre,
and she became the market-place
of the nations.

⁴Be ashamed, O Sidon, and you,
O fortress of the sea,
for the sea has spoken:

“I have neither been in labour nor given birth;
I have neither reared sons nor brought up daughters.”

⁵When word comes to Egypt,
they will be in anguish at the report from Tyre.

⁶Cross over to Tarshish;
wail, you people of the island.

⁷Is this your city of revelry,
the old, old city,
whose feet have taken her
to settle in far-off lands?

⁸Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose merchants are princes, whose traders are renowned in the
earth?

⁹The LORD Almighty planned it,
to bring low the pride of all glory and to humble all who are renowned on the earth.

¹⁰Till^c your land as along the Nile,
O Daughter of Tarshish,
for you no longer have a harbour.

¹¹The LORD has stretched out his hand over the sea
and made its kingdoms tremble.
He has given an order concerning Phoenicia^d
that her fortresses be destroyed.

¹²He said, “No more of your revelling.
O Virgin Daughter of Sidon, now
crushed!

^{a23} Or throne ^{a1} Hebrew Kitim

^{b2, 3} Masoretic Text: one Dead Sea Scroll Sidon, / who cross over the sea; / your envoys ³are on the great waters.

^{c10} Dead Sea Scrolls and some Septuagint manuscripts; Masoretic Text Go through ^{d11} Hebrew Canaan

"Up, cross over to Cyprus;^e even there you will find no rest."

¹³Look at the land of the Babylonians,^f
this people that is now of no account!

The Assyrians have made it
a place for desert creatures;
they raised up their siege towers,
they stripped its fortresses bare and turned it into a ruin.

¹⁴Wail, you ships of Tarshish;
your fortress is destroyed!

¹⁵At that time Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the span of a king's life. But at the end of these seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute:

¹⁶"Take up a harp, walk through the city,
O prostitute forgotten;
play the harp well, sing many a song,
so that you will be remembered."

¹⁷At the end of seventy years, the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her hire as a prostitute and will ply her trade with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. ¹⁸Yet her profit and her earnings will be set apart for the LORD; they will not be stored up or hoarded. Her profits will go to those who live before the LORD,
for abundant food and fine clothes.

The LORD's Devastation of the Earth

24 See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth
and devastate it;
he will ruin its face
and scatter its inhabitants—

²it will be the same for priest as for people,
for master as for his servant,
for mistress as for her servant,
for seller as for buyer,
for borrower as for lender,
for debtor as for creditor.

³The earth will be completely laid waste and totally plundered.

The LORD has spoken
this word.

⁴The earth dries up and withers,
the world languishes and withers,
the exalted of the earth languish.

⁵The earth is defiled by its people;
they have disobeyed the laws,
violated the statutes
and broken the everlasting covenant.

⁶Therefore a curse consumes the earth;
its people must bear their guilt.
Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up,
and very few are left.

⁷The new wine dries up and the vine
withers;
all the merry-makers groan.

⁸The gaiety of the tambourines is stilled,
the noise of the revellers has stopped,
the joyful harp is silent.

⁹No longer do they drink wine with a song;
the beer is bitter to its drinkers.

¹⁰The ruined city lies desolate;
the entrance to every house is barred.

¹¹In the streets they cry out for wine;
all joy turns to gloom,
all gaiety is banished from the earth.

¹²The city is left in ruins,
its gate is battered to pieces.

¹³So will it be on the earth and among the nations,
as when an olive tree is beaten,
or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest.

¹⁴They raise their voices, they shout for
joy;
from the west they acclaim the LORD's majesty.

¹⁵Therefore in the east give glory to the LORD;
exalt the name of the LORD, the God of Israel,
in the islands of the sea.

¹⁶From the ends of the earth we hear
singing:
"Glory to the Righteous One."

But I said, "I waste away, I waste away!
Woe to me!

The treacherous betray!
With treachery the treacherous betray!"

- ¹⁷Terror and pit and snare await you,
O people of the earth.
¹⁸Whoever flees at the sound of terror
will fall into a pit;
whoever climbs out of the pit
will be caught in a snare.
- The floodgates of the heavens are opened,
the foundations of the earth shake.
- ¹⁹The earth is broken up,
the earth is split asunder,
the earth is thoroughly shaken.
- ²⁰The earth reels like a drunkard,
it sways like a hut in the wind;
so heavy upon it is the guilt of its rebellion
that it falls—never to rise again.
- ²¹In that day the LORD will punish the powers in the heavens above and the kings on the earth below.
- ²²They will be herded together
like prisoners bound in a dungeon;
they will be shut up in prison
and be punished^a after many days.
- ²³The moon will be abashed, the sun
ashamed;
for the LORD Almighty will reign
on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before its elders, gloriously.

Praise to the LORD

- 25 O LORD, you are my God;
I will exalt you and praise your
name,
for in perfect faithfulness
you have done marvellous things, things planned long ago.
- ²You have made the city a heap of
rubble,
the fortified town a ruin,
the foreigners' stronghold a city no
more;
it will never be rebuilt.
- ³Therefore strong peoples will honour
you;
cities of ruthless nations will revere
you.
- ⁴You have been a refuge for the poor,

- a refuge for the needy in their
distress,
a shelter from the storm
and a shade from the heat.
For the breath of the ruthless is like a storm driving against a wall and like the heat of the desert.
- ⁵You silence the uproar of foreigners;
as heat is reduced by the shadow of a cloud,
so the song of the ruthless is stilled.
- ⁶On this mountain the LORD Almighty will prepare
a feast of rich food for all peoples.
a banquet of aged wine—
the best of meats and the finest of wines.
- ⁷On this mountain he will destroy the shroud that enfolds all peoples,
the sheet that covers all nations;
⁸ he will swallow up death for ever.
The Sovereign LORD will wipe away
the tears
from all faces;
he will remove the disgrace of his
people
from all the earth.

The LORD has spoken.

- ⁹In that day they will say, “Surely this is our God;
we trusted in him, and he saved us.
This is the LORD, we trusted in him;
let us rejoice and be glad in his
salvation.”
- ¹⁰The hand of the LORD will rest on this
mountain;
but Moab will be trampled under him
as straw is trampled down in the manure.
- ¹¹They will spread out their hands in it,
as swimmers spread out their hands
to swim.
God will bring down their pride
despite the cleverness^a of their hands.
- ¹²He will bring down your high fortified
walls
and lay them low;

^{a22} Or released ^{a11} The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

he will bring them down to the ground,
to the very dust.

A Song of Praise

26 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city;
God makes salvation
its walls and ramparts.

²Open the gates
that the righteous nation may enter,
the nation that keeps faith.

³You will keep in perfect peace
those whose minds are steadfast,
because they trust in you.

⁴Trust in the LORD for ever,
for the LORD, the LORD, is the Rock eternal.

⁵He humbles those who dwell on high,
he lays the lofty city low;
he levels it to the ground
and casts it down to the dust.

⁶Feet trample it down —
the feet of the oppressed,
the footsteps of the poor.

⁷The path of the righteous is level;
O upright One, you make the way of the righteous smooth.

⁸Yes, LORD, walking in the way of your laws,^a
we wait for you;
your name and renown
are the desire of our hearts.

⁹My soul yearns for you in the night;
in the morning my spirit longs for
you.

When your judgments come upon the
earth,
the people of the world learn
righteousness.

¹⁰Though grace is shown to the wicked,
they do not learn righteousness;
even in a land of uprightness they go on doing evil
and regard not the majesty of the
LORD.

¹¹O LORD, your hand is lifted high,
but they do not see it.

Let them see your zeal for your people and be put to shame;
let the fire reserved for your enemies consume them.

¹²LORD, you establish peace for us;
all that we have accomplished you have done for us.

¹³O LORD, our God, other lords besides
you have ruled over us,
but your name alone do we honour.

¹⁴They are now dead, they live no more;
those departed spirits do not rise.

You punished them and brought them to ruin;
you wiped out all memory of them.

¹⁵You have enlarged the nation, O LORD;
you have enlarged the nation.

You have gained glory for yourself;
you have extended all the borders
of the land.

¹⁶LORD, they came to you in their distress;
when you disciplined them,
they could barely whisper a prayer.^b

¹⁷As a woman with child and about to give birth
writhes and cries out in her pain,
so were we in your presence, O LORD.

¹⁸We were with child, we writhed in pain,
but we gave birth to wind.

We have not brought salvation to the
earth;
we have not given birth to people of the world.

¹⁹But your dead will live;
their bodies will rise.

You who dwell in the dust,
wake up and shout for joy.

Your dew is like the dew of the morning;
the earth will give birth to her dead.

²⁰Go, my people, enter your rooms and shut the doors behind you;
hide yourselves for a little while until his wrath has passed by.

²¹See, the LORD is coming out of his dwelling
to punish the people of the earth
for their sins.

^a8 Or judgments ^b16 The meaning of the Hebrew for this clause is uncertain.

The earth will disclose the blood shed upon it;
the earth will conceal its slain no longer.

Deliverance of Israel

27 In that day,
the LORD will punish with his sword,
his fierce, great and powerful sword, Leviathan the gliding serpent,
Leviathan the coiling serpent;
he will slay the monster of the sea.

²In that day—

“Sing about a fruitful vineyard:

³ I, the LORD, watch over it;
I water it continually.

I guard it day and night
so that no-one may harm it.

⁴ I am not angry.
If only there were briars and thorns
confronting me!
I would march against them in battle;
I would set them all on fire.

⁵Or else let them come to me for refuge;
let them make peace with me,
yes, let them make peace with me.”

⁶In days to come Jacob will take root, Israel will bud and blossom
and fill all the world with fruit.

⁷Has the LORD struck her
as he struck down those who struck her?
Has she been killed
as those were killed who killed her?
⁸By warfare^a and exile you contend with her—
with his fierce blast he drives her out,
as on a day the east wind blows.

⁹By this, then, will Jacob's guilt be atoned for,
and this will be the full fruitage of
the removal of his sin:
When he makes all the altar stones
to be like chalk stones crushed to pieces,

no Asherah poles^b or incense altars
will be left standing.

¹⁰The fortified city stands desolate, an abandoned settlement, forsaken
like the desert;
there the calves graze,
there they lie down;
they strip its branches bare.

¹¹When its twigs are dry, they are broken off and women come and make fires
with them.
For this is a people without understanding;
so their Maker has no compassion on them,
and their Creator shows them no favour.

¹²In that day the LORD will thresh from the flowing Euphrates^c to the Wadi of Egypt, and you, O Israelites, will be gathered up one by one. ¹³And in that day a great trumpet will sound. Those who were perishing in Assyria and those who were exiled in Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

Woe to Ephraim

28 Woe to that wreath, the pride of Ephraim's drunkards, to the fading flower, his glorious
beauty,
set on the head of a fertile valley—
to that city, the pride of those laid low by wine!

²See, the Lord has one who is powerful and strong.
Like a hailstorm and a destructive
wind,
like a driving rain and a flooding
downpour,
he will throw it forcefully to the
ground.

³That wreath, the pride of Ephraim's
drunkards,
will be trampled underfoot.

⁴That fading flower, his glorious
beauty,
set on the head of a fertile valley.

^a See Septuagint; the meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

^b That is, symbols of the goddess Asherah ^c12 Hebrew River will be like figs ripe before harvest—

as soon as people see them and take them in hand,
they swallow them.

⁵In that day the LORD Almighty will be a glorious crown,
a beautiful wreath
for the remnant of his people.

⁶He will be a spirit of justice to those who sit in judgment,
a source of strength
to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

⁷And these also stagger from wine
and reel from beer:

Priests and prophets stagger from beer
and are befuddled with wine;
they reel from beer,
they stagger when seeing visions,
they stumble when rendering decisions.

⁸All the tables are covered with vomit
and there is not a spot without filth.

⁹“Who is it he is trying to teach?
To whom is he explaining his message?

To children weaned from their milk,
to those just taken from the breast?

¹⁰For it is:

Do and do, do and do,
rule on rule, rule on rule;^a
a little here, a little there.”

¹¹Very well then, with foreign lips and strange tongues

God will speak to this people,

¹²to whom he said,

“This is the resting-place, let the weary rest”;

and, “This is the place of repose”—
but they would not listen.

¹³So then, the word of the LORD to them will become:

Do and do, do and do,
rule on rule, rule on rule;
a little here, a little there—

so that they will go and fall backwards,
be injured and snared and captured.

¹⁴Therefore hear the word of the LORD,
you scoffers

who rule this people in Jerusalem.

¹⁵You boast, “We have entered into a covenant with death,
with the grave^b we have made an agreement.

When an overwhelming scourge
sweeps by,
it cannot touch us,
for we have made a lie our refuge
and falsehood^c our hiding-place.”

¹⁶So this is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

“See, I lay a stone in Zion,
a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation;
the one who trusts will never be dismayed.

¹⁷I will make justice the measuring line
and righteousness the plumb-line; hail will sweep away your refuge, the
lie,
and water will overflow your hiding-place.

¹⁸Your covenant with death will be annulled;

your agreement with the grave will not stand.

When the overwhelming scourge
sweeps by,
you will be beaten down by it.

¹⁹As often as it comes it will carry you
away;
morning after morning, by day and
by night,
it will sweep through.”

The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror.

²⁰The bed is too short to stretch out on,
the blanket too narrow to wrap around you.

²¹The LORD will rise up as he did at Mount Perazim,

^a10 Hebrew /sav lasav sav lasav / kav lakav kav lakav (possibly meaningless sounds; perhaps a mimicking of the prophet's words); also in verse 13 ^b15 Hebrew Sheol; also in verse 18 ^c15 Or false gods

he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon—
to do his work, his strange work,
and perform his task, his alien task.
²²Now stop your mocking,
or your chains will become heavier;
the Lord, the LORD Almighty, has told me
of the destruction decreed against the whole land.

²³Listen and hear my voice;
pay attention and hear what I say.
²⁴When farmers plough for planting, do they plough continually?
Do they keep on breaking up and harrowing the soil?
²⁵When they have levelled the surface,
do they not sow caraway and scatter cummin?
Do they not plant wheat in its place,^d barley in its plot,^d
and spelt in its field?
²⁶Their God instructs them
and teaches them the right way.
²⁷Caraway is not threshed with a sledge,
nor is a cartwheel rolled over cummin;
caraway is beaten out with a rod,
and cummin with a stick.
²⁸Grain must be ground to make bread;
so one does not go on threshing it
for ever.
Though one drives the wheels of the threshing-cart over it,
the horses do not grind it.
²⁹All this also comes from the LORD
Almighty,
wonderful in counsel and magnificent in wisdom.

Woe to David's City

29 Woe to you, Ariel, Ariel,
the city where David settled!
Add year to year
and let your cycle of festivals go on.
²Yet I will besiege Ariel;
she will mourn and lament,
she will be to me like an altar hearth.^a ³I will encamp against you all around;

I will encircle you with towers and set up my siege works against
you.

⁴Brought low, you will speak from the
ground;
your speech will mumble out of the
dust.

Your voice will come ghostlike from
the earth;
out of the dust your speech will whisper.

⁵But your many enemies will become like fine dust,
the ruthless hordes like blown chaff.

Suddenly, in an instant,

⁶ the LORD Almighty will come with thunder and earthquake and great noise,
with windstorm and tempest and flames of a devouring fire.

⁷Then the hordes of all the nations that fight against Ariel,
that attack her and her fortress and besiege her,
will be as it is with a dream,
with a vision in the night—

⁸as when hungry people dream they are eating,
but they awaken, and their hunger
remains;

as when thirsty people dream they are drinking,
but they awaken faint, with their thirst unquenched.

So will it be with the hordes of all the
nations
that fight against Mount Zion.

⁹Be stunned and amazed,
blind yourselves and be sightless;
be drunk, but not from wine,
stagger, but not from beer.

¹⁰The LORD has brought over you a deep sleep:
He has sealed your eyes (the prophets);
he has covered your heads (the seers).

^a25 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

^a2 The Hebrew for altar hearth sounds like the Hebrew for Ariel.

¹¹For you this whole vision is nothing but words sealed in a scroll. And if you give the scroll to someone who can read, and say, "Read this, please," that one will answer, "I can't; it is sealed." ¹²Or if you give the scroll to someone who cannot read, and say, "Read this, please," that one will answer, "I don't know how to read."

¹³The Lord says:

"These people come near to me with their mouth
and honour me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.
Their worship of me
is based on merely human rules
which they have been taught.^b

¹⁴Therefore once more I will astound these people with wonder upon wonder;
the wisdom of the wise will perish,
the intelligence of the intelligent will vanish."

¹⁵Woe to those who go to great depths
to hide their plans from the Lord, who do their work in darkness and think,

"Who sees us? Who will know?"

¹⁶You turn things upside down, as if the potter were thought to be like the clay!

Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it,

"You did not make me"?

Can the pot say to the potter,
"You know nothing"?

¹⁷In a very short time, will not Lebanon be turned into a fertile field and the fertile field seem like a forest?

¹⁸In that day the deaf will hear the words of the scroll,
and out of gloom and darkness
the eyes of the blind will see.

¹⁹Once more the humble will rejoice in
the Lord;
the needy will rejoice in the Holy
One of Israel.

²⁰The ruthless will vanish,

the mockers will disappear,
and all who have an eye for evil will be cut down—

²¹those who with a word make someone out to be guilty,
who ensnare the defender in court
and with false testimony deprive the innocent of justice.

²²Therefore this is what the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, says to the house of Jacob:

"No longer will Jacob be ashamed;
no longer will their faces grow pale.

²³When they see among them their
children,
the work of my hands,
they will keep my name holy;
they will acknowledge the holiness
of the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

²⁴Those who are wayward in spirit will gain understanding;
those who complain will accept
instruction."

Woe to the Obstinate Nation

30 "Woe to the obstinate children,"
declares the LORD,
"to those who carry out plans that are not mine,
forming an alliance, but not by my Spirit,
heaping sin upon sin;

²who go down to Egypt
without consulting me;
who look for help to Pharaoh's protection,
to Egypt's shade for refuge.

³But Pharaoh's protection will be to your shame,
Egypt's shade will bring you disgrace.

⁴Though they have officials in Zoan and their envoys have arrived in Hanes,

⁵everyone will be put to shame
because of a people useless to them,
who bring neither help nor advantage,
but only shame and disgrace."

^{b13} Hebrew; Septuagint They worship me in vain; / their teachings are merely human rules

⁶An oracle concerning the animals of the Negev:

Through a land of hardship and distress,
of lions and lionesses,
of adders and darting snakes,
the envoys carry their riches on donkeys' backs,
their treasures on the humps of camels,
to that unprofitable nation,
⁷ to Egypt, whose help is utterly useless.

Therefore I call her Rahab the Do-Nothing.

⁸Go now, write it on a tablet for them,
inscribe it on a scroll,
that for the days to come
it may be an everlasting witness.

⁹These are rebellious people, deceitful children,
children unwilling to listen to the LORD's instruction.

¹⁰They say to the seers,
"See no more visions!"
and to the prophets,
"Give us no more visions of what is right!

Tell us pleasant things,
prophesy illusions.

¹¹Leave this way,
get off this path,
and stop confronting us
with the Holy One of Israel!"

¹²Therefore, this is what the Holy One of Israel says:

"Because you have rejected this message, relied on oppression
and depended on deceit,

¹³this sin will become for you like a high wall, cracked and bulging,
that collapses suddenly, in an instant.

¹⁴It will break in pieces like pottery, shattered so mercilessly
that among its pieces not a fragment will be found for taking coals from a hearth
or scooping water out of a cistern."

¹⁵This is what the Sovereign LORD, the Holy One of Israel, says:

"In repentance and rest is your salvation,
in quietness and trust is your strength,
but you would have none of it.

¹⁶You said, 'No, we will flee on horses.'
Therefore you will flee!
You said, 'We will ride off on swift horses.'

Therefore your pursuers will be swift!

¹⁷A thousand will flee
at the threat of one;
at the threat of five
you will all flee away,
till you are left
like a flagstaff on a mountaintop,
like a banner on a hill."

¹⁸Yet the LORD longs to be gracious to you;
he rises to show you compassion.
For the LORD is a God of justice.
Blessed are all who wait for him!

¹⁹O people of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more. How gracious he will be when you cry for help! As soon as he hears, he will answer you.

²⁰Although the Lord gives you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, your teachers will be hidden no more; with your own eyes you will see them.

²¹Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way; walk in it."

²²Then you will defile your idols overlaid with silver and your images covered with gold; you will throw them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them, "Away with you!"

²³He will also send you rain for the seed you sow in the ground, and the food that comes from the land will be rich and plentiful. In that day your cattle will graze in broad meadows. ²⁴The oxen and donkeys that work the soil will eat fodder and mash, spread out with fork and shovel. ²⁵In the day of great slaughter, when the towers fall, streams of water will flow on every high mountain and every lofty hill.

²⁶The moon will shine like the sun, and the sunlight will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven full days, when the LORD binds up the bruises of his people and heals the wounds he inflicted.

²⁷See, the Name of the LORD comes from afar,
 with burning anger and dense clouds of smoke;
 his lips are full of wrath,
 and his tongue is a consuming fire.
²⁸His breath is like a rushing torrent, rising up to the neck.
 He shakes the nations in the sieve of destruction;
 he places in the jaws of the peoples a bit that leads them astray.

²⁹And you will sing
 as on the night you celebrate a holy festival;
 your hearts will rejoice
 as when people go up with flutes to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

³⁰The LORD will cause people to hear his majestic voice and will make them see his arm coming down with raging anger and consuming fire,
 with cloudburst, thunderstorm and hail.

³¹The voice of the LORD will shatter Assyria;
 with his sceptre he will strike them down.

³²Every stroke the LORD lays on them with his punishing rod will be to the music of tambourines and harps,
 as he fights them in battle with the blows of his arm.

³³Topheth has long been prepared;
 it has been made ready for the king.
 Its fire pit has been made deep and wide,
 with an abundance of fire and wood;
 the breath of the LORD,
 like a stream of burning sulphur,
 sets it ablaze.

Woe to Those Who Rely on Egypt

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help,
 who rely on horses,
 who trust in the multitude of their chariots
 and in the great strength of their horsemen,
 but do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
 or seek help from the LORD.

²Yet he too is wise and can bring disaster;
 he does not take back his words.
 He will rise up against the house of the wicked,
 against those who help evildoers.
³But the Egyptians are mortals and not God;
 their horses are flesh and not spirit.
 When the LORD stretches out his hand,
 those who help will stumble,
 those who are helped will fall;
 all will perish together.

⁴This is what the LORD says to me:

“As a lion growls,
 a great lion over its prey—
 and though a whole band of shepherds is called together against it, it is not frightened by their shouts or disturbed by their clamour—
 so the LORD Almighty will come down to do battle on Mount Zion and on its heights.

⁵Like birds hovering overhead,
 the LORD Almighty will shield Jerusalem;
 he will shield it and deliver it,
 he will ‘pass over’ it and will rescue it.”

⁶Return to him you have so greatly revolted against, O Israelites. ⁷For in that day every one of you will reject the idols of silver and gold your sinful hands have made.

⁸“Assyria will fall by no human sword;

a sword, not of mortals, will devour them.

They will flee before the sword and their young men will be put to forced labour.

⁹Their stronghold will fall because of terror;
at sight of the battle standard their commanders will panic,"
declares the LORD,
whose fire is in Zion,
whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

The Kingdom of Righteousness

32 See, a king will reign in
righteousness
and rulers will rule with justice.
²Each one will be like a shelter from the wind
and a refuge from the storm,
like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a thirsty land.

³Then the eyes of those who see will no longer be closed,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.

⁴The mind of the rash will know and understand,
and the stammering tongue will be fluent and clear.

⁵No longer will the fool be called noble
nor the scoundrel be highly respected.

⁶For fools speak folly,
their minds are busy with evil:
They practise ungodliness
and spread error concerning the LORD;

the hungry they leave empty
and from the thirsty they withhold
water.

⁷Scoundrels use wicked methods,
they make up evil schemes
to destroy the poor with lies, even when the plea of the needy is just.

⁸But the noble make noble plans,
and by noble deeds they stand.

The Women of Jerusalem

⁹You women who are so complacent, rise up and listen to me;
you daughters who feel secure,
hear what I have to say!

¹⁰In little more than a year
you who feel secure will tremble;
the grape harvest will fail,
and the harvest of fruit will not come.

¹¹Tremble, you complacent women;
shudder, you daughters who feel secure!

Strip off your clothes,
put sackcloth round your waists.

¹²Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vines

¹³and for the land of my people.
a land overgrown with thorns and briers—

yes, mourn for all houses of merriment
and for this city of revelry.

¹⁴The fortress will be abandoned,
the noisy city deserted;
citadel and watchtower will become a wasteland for ever,
the delight of donkeys, a pasture
for flocks,

¹⁵till the Spirit is poured upon us from
on high,
and the desert becomes a fertile
field,
and the fertile field seems like a
forest.

¹⁶Justice will dwell in the desert and righteousness live in the fertile
field.

¹⁷The fruit of righteousness will be
peace;
the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence for
ever.

¹⁸My people will live in peaceful dwelling-places,
in secure homes,
in undisturbed places of rest.

¹⁹Though hail flattens the forest and the city is levelled completely,

²⁰how blessed you will be,
sowing your seed by every stream,
and letting your cattle and donkeys
range free.

Distress and Help

33 Woe to you, O destroyer,
you who have not been destroyed!

Woe to you, O traitor,
you who have not been betrayed!
When you stop destroying,
you will be destroyed;
when you stop betraying,
you will be betrayed.

²O LORD, be gracious to us;
we long for you.
Be our strength every morning,
our salvation in time of distress.

³At the thunder of your voice, the peoples flee;
when you rise up, the nations scatter.

⁴Your plunder, O nations, is harvested
as by young locusts;
like a swarm of locusts people
pounce on it.

⁵The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on
high;
he will fill Zion with justice and
righteousness.

⁶He will be the sure foundation for your times,
a rich store of salvation and wisdom
and knowledge;
the fear of the LORD is the key to this treasure.^a

⁷Look, their brave men cry aloud in
the streets;
the envoys of peace weep bitterly.

⁸The highways are deserted,
no travellers are on the roads.
The treaty is broken,
its witnesses^b are despised,
no-one is respected.

⁹The land mourns^c and wastes away,
Lebanon is ashamed and withers;
Sharon is like the Arabah,
and Bashan and Carmel drop their
leaves.

¹⁰"Now will I arise," says the LORD.
"Now will I be exalted;
now will I be lifted up.

¹¹You conceive chaff,
you give birth to straw;

your breath is a fire that consumes
you.

¹²The peoples will be burned as if to lime;
like cut thornbushes they will be set ablaze."

¹³You who are far away, hear what I have done;
you who are near, acknowledge my
power!

¹⁴The sinners in Zion are terrified;
trembling grips the godless:
"Who of us can dwell with the consuming fire?

Who of us can dwell with everlasting burning?"

¹⁵Those who walk righteously
and speak what is right,
who reject gain from extortion and keep their hands from accepting bribes,
who stop their ears against plots of murder
and shut their eyes against contemplating evil—

¹⁶they are the ones who will dwell on the heights,
whose refuge will be the mountain fortress.

Their bread will be supplied,
and water will not fail them.

¹⁷Your eyes will see the king in his beauty and view a land that stretches afar.

¹⁸In your thoughts you will ponder the former terror:

"Where is that chief officer?
Where is the one who took the revenue?

Where is the officer in charge of the towers?"

¹⁹You will see those arrogant people no
more,
those people of an obscure speech,
with their strange,
incomprehensible tongue.

²⁰Look upon Zion, the city of our festivals;
your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful abode, a tent that will not be moved;

^a6 Or is a treasure from him ^b8 Dead Sea Scrolls; Masoretic Text / the cities ^c9 Or dries up its stakes will never be pulled up,

nor any of its ropes broken.

²¹There the LORD will be our Mighty One.
It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams.

No galley with oars will ride them,
no mighty ship will sail them.

²²For the LORD is our judge,
the LORD is our lawgiver,
the LORD is our king;
it is he who will save us.

²³Your rigging hangs loose:
The mast is not held secure,
the sail is not spread.
Then an abundance of spoils will be divided
and even the lame will carry off
plunder.

²⁴No-one living in Zion will say, "I am ill";
and the sins of those who dwell
there will be forgiven.

Judgment Against the Nations

34 Come near, you nations,
and listen;
pay attention, you peoples!
Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
the world, and all that comes out of it!

²The LORD is angry with all nations;
his wrath is upon all their armies.
He will totally destroy^a them,
he will give them over to slaughter.

³Their slain will be thrown out, their dead bodies will send up a
stench;
the mountains will be soaked with their blood.

⁴All the stars of the heavens will be dissolved
and the sky rolled up like a scroll;
all the starry host will fall
like withered leaves from the vine,
like shrivelled figs from the fig-tree.

⁵My sword has drunk its fill in the
heavens;
see, it descends in judgment on Edom,

the people I have totally destroyed.

⁶The sword of the LORD is bathed in
blood,
it is covered with fat—
the blood of lambs and goats,
fat from the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah
and a great slaughter in Edom.
⁷And the wild oxen will fall with them,
the bull calves and the great bulls.
Their land will be drenched with blood,
and the dust will be soaked with fat.

⁸For the LORD has a day of vengeance.
a year of retribution, to uphold Zion's cause.

⁹Edom's streams will be turned into pitch.
her dust into burning sulphur;
her land will become blazing pitch!

¹⁰It will not be quenched night and day;
its smoke will rise for ever.
From generation to generation it will lie desolate;
no-one will ever pass through it again.

¹¹The desert owl^b and screech owl^b will
possess it;
the great owl^b and the raven will nest there.

God will stretch out over Edom
the measuring line of chaos and the plumb-line of desolation.

¹²Her nobles will have nothing there to be called a kingdom.
all her princes will vanish away.

¹³Thorns will overrun her citadels.
nettles and brambles her strongholds.

She will become a haunt for jackals,
a home for owls.

¹⁴Desert creatures will meet with hyenas.
and wild goats will bleat to each other:
there the night creatures will also repose
and find for themselves places of
rest.

¹⁵The owl will nest there and lay eggs.
she will hatch them, and care for her young under the shadow of her wings;
there also the falcons will gather,
each with its mate.

^{a2} The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verse 5. ^{b11} The precise identification of these birds is uncertain.

¹⁶Look in the scroll of the LORD and read:

None of these will be missing,
not one will lack her mate.
For it is his mouth that has given the order,
and his Spirit will gather them
together.

¹⁷He allots their portions;
his hand distributes them by measure.

They will possess it for ever and dwell there from generation to generation.

Joy of the Redeemed

35 The desert and the parched land will be glad;
the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.

Like the crocus, ²it will burst into
bloom;
it will rejoice greatly and shout for
joy.

The glory of Lebanon will be given to
it,
the splendour of Carmel and Sharon;

they will see the glory of the LORD,
the splendour of our God.

³Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees that give way;

⁴say to those with fearful hearts,

“Be strong, do not fear;
your God will come,
he will come with vengeance;
with divine retribution
he will come to save you.”

⁵Then will the eyes of the blind be opened

and the ears of the deaf unstopped.

⁶Then will the lame leap like a deer,
and the mute tongue shout for joy.

Water will gush forth in the wilderness
and streams in the desert.

⁷The burning sand will become a pool,
the thirsty ground bubbling springs.

In the haunts where jackals once lay,
grass and reeds and papyrus will grow.

⁸And a highway will be there;
it will be called the Way of Holiness.
The unclean will not journey on it;
it will be for those who walk in that Way;
wicked fools will not go about on it.^a

⁹No lion will be there,
nor will any ferocious beast get up
on it;
they will not be found there.

But only the redeemed will walk there, ¹⁰ and the ransomed of the LORD will return.

They will enter Zion with singing;
everlasting joy will crown their
heads.

Gladness and joy will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee
away.

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

36 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ²Then the king of Assyria sent his field commander with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. When the commander stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Laundry Field, ³Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to him.

⁴The field commander said to them,
“Tell Hezekiah,

“‘This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours?

⁵You say you have strategy and military strength—but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel against me?

⁶Look now, you are depending on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which pierces the hand of anyone who leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him.

⁷And if you say to me, “We are depending on the LORD our God”—

^a Or / the simple will not stray from it isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship before this altar"?

⁸"Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses—if you can put riders on them! ⁹How then can you repulse one officer of the least of my master's officials, even though you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ¹⁰Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this land without the LORD? The LORD himself told me to march against this country and destroy it."

¹¹Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to the field commander, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall."

¹²But the commander replied, "Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the people sitting on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own filth and drink their own urine?"

¹³Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you. He cannot deliver you! ¹⁵Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, 'The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

¹⁶"Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from your own vine and fig-tree and drink water from your own cistern, ¹⁷until I come and take you to a land like your own—a land of corn and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

¹⁸"Do not let Hezekiah mislead you when he says, 'The LORD will deliver us.' Have the gods of any nations ever delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they rescued Samaria from my hand? ²⁰Who of all the gods of these countries have been able to save their lands from me? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

²¹But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, "Do not answer him."

²²Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn, and told him what the field commander had said.

Jerusalem's Deliverance Foretold

37 When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and went into the temple of the LORD. ²He sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and the leading priests, all wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. ³They told him, "This is what Hezekiah says: This day is a day of distress and rebuke and disgrace, as when children come to the point of birth and there is no strength to deliver them. ⁴It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to ridicule the living God, and that he will rebuke him for the words the LORD your God has heard. Therefore pray for the remnant that still survives."

⁵When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah, ⁶Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid of what you have heard—those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷Listen! I am going to put a spirit in him so that when he hears a certain report, he will return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down with the sword.'"

⁸When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish, he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.

⁹Now Sennacherib received a report that Tirhakah, the Cushite^a king of ^{a9} That is, from the upper Nile region

Egypt, was marching out to fight against him. When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah with this word: ¹⁰"Say to Hezekiah king of Judah: Do not let the god you depend on deceive you when he says, 'Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.' ¹¹Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the countries, destroying them completely. And will you be delivered? ¹²Did the gods of the nations that were destroyed by my ancestors deliver them—the gods of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Tel Assar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, or of Hena or Ivvah?"

Hezekiah's Prayer

¹⁴Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. ¹⁵And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD: ¹⁶"O LORD Almighty, God of Israel, enthroned between the cherubim, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷Give ear, O LORD, and hear; open your eyes, O LORD, and see; listen to all the words Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God.

¹⁸"It is true, O LORD, that the Assyrian kings have laid waste all these peoples and their lands. ¹⁹They have thrown their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods but only wood and stone, fashioned by human hands. ²⁰Now, O LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, so that all kingdoms on earth may know that you alone, O LORD, are God."^b

Sennacherib's Fall

²¹Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

"The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises and mocks you.

The Daughter of Jerusalem tosses her head as you flee.

²³Who is it you have insulted and blasphemed?

Against whom have you raised your voice

and lifted your eyes in pride?

Against the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴By your messengers

you have heaped insults on the Lord.

And you have said,

'With my many chariots

I have ascended the heights of the mountains,

the utmost heights of Lebanon.

I have cut down its tallest cedars, the choicest of its pines.

I have reached its remotest heights, the finest of its forests.

²⁵I have dug wells in foreign lands^c and drunk the water there.

With the soles of my feet

I have dried up all the streams of Egypt.'

²⁶"Have you not heard?

Long ago I ordained it.

In days of old I planned it;

now I have brought it to pass, that you have turned fortified cities into piles of stone.

²⁷Their people, drained of power, are dismayed and put to shame.

They are like plants in the field,

like tender green shoots,

like grass sprouting on the roof, scorched^d before it grows up.

²⁸"But I know where you stay and when you come and go and how you rage against me.

²⁹Because you rage against me

and because your insolence has reached my ears,

I will put my hook in your nose
and my bit in your mouth,
and I will make you return
by the way you came.

³⁰“This will be the sign for you,
O Hezekiah:

“This year you will eat what grows by itself,
and the second year what springs
from that.

But in the third year sow and reap,
plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

³¹Once more a remnant of the house of Judah
will take root below and bear fruit
above.

³²For out of Jerusalem will come a remnant,
and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors.

The zeal of the LORD Almighty
will accomplish this.

³³“Therefore this is what the LORD says
concerning the king of Assyria:

“He will not enter this city
or shoot an arrow here.
He will not come before it with shield
or build a siege ramp against it.

³⁴By the way that he came he will return;
he will not enter this city,”
declares the LORD.

³⁵“I will defend this city and save it,
for my sake and for the sake of David my servant!”

³⁶Then the angel of the LORD went out and put to death a hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the Assyrian camp.
When the people got up the next morning—there were all the dead bodies!
³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Ninevah and stayed there.

³⁸One day, while he was worshipping
in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer cut him down with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son succeeded him as king.

Hezekiah's Illness

38 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to him and said, “This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order, because you are going to die; you will not recover.”

²Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, ³“Remember, O LORD, how I have walked before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion and have done what is good in your eyes.”
And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah: ⁵“Go and tell Hezekiah, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will add fifteen years to your life. ⁶And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria.
I will defend this city.

⁷“‘This is the LORD’s sign to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: ⁸I will make the shadow cast by the sun go back the ten steps it has gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.’” So the sunlight went back the ten steps it had gone down.

⁹A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah
after his illness and recovery:

¹⁰I said, “In the prime of my life must I go through the gates of death^a
and be robbed of the rest of my
years?”

¹¹I said, “I will not again see the LORD,
the LORD, in the land of the living;
no longer will I look on other people,
or be with those who now dwell in this world.^b

¹²Like a shepherd’s tent my house has been pulled down and taken from me.

Like a weaver I have rolled up my life,
and he has cut me off from the loom;

^a10 Hebrew Sheol ^b11 A few Hebrew manuscripts; most Hebrew manuscripts in the place of cessation day and night you made an end of me.

¹³I waited patiently till dawn,
but like a lion he broke all my bones;
day and night you made an end of me.

¹⁴I cried like a swift or thrush,
I moaned like a mourning dove.
My eyes grew weak as I looked to the heavens.
I am troubled; O Lord, come to my aid!"

¹⁵But what can I say?
He has spoken to me, and he himself has done this.
I will walk humbly all my years
because of this anguish of my soul.
¹⁶Lord, by such things people live;
and my spirit finds life in them too.
You restored me to health and let me live.

¹⁷Surely it was for my benefit that I suffered such anguish.
In your love you kept me
from the pit of destruction;
you have put all my sins
behind your back.

¹⁸For the grave^c cannot praise you,
death cannot sing your praise;
those who go down to the pit
cannot hope for your faithfulness.

¹⁹The living, the living—they praise you,
as I am doing today;
parents tell their children
about your faithfulness.

²⁰The LORD will save me,
and we will sing with strunged instruments
all the days of our lives in the temple of the LORD.

²¹Isaiah had said, "Prepare a poultice of figs and apply it to the boil, and he will recover."

²²Hezekiah had asked, "What will be the sign that I will go up to the temple of the LORD?"

Envoys From Babylon

39 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of his illness and recovery.
²Hezekiah received the envoys gladly and showed them what was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold, the spices, the fine oil, his entire armoury and everything found among his treasures. There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

³Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did those men say, and where did they come from?"

"From a distant land," Hezekiah replied. "They came to me from Babylon."

⁴The prophet asked, "What did they see in your palace?"

"They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."

⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD Almighty: ⁶The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your predecessors have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD. ⁷And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

⁸"The word of the LORD you have spoken is good," Hezekiah replied. For he thought, "There will be peace and security in my lifetime."

Comfort for God's People

40 Comfort, comfort my people, says your God.

²Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her
that her hard service has been completed,

that her sin has been paid for,
that she has received from the LORD's hand
double for all her sins.

³A voice of one calling:

"In the desert prepare the way for the LORD;^a make straight in the wilderness
a highway for our God.^b

⁴Every valley shall be raised up,
every mountain and hill made low;
the rough ground shall become level,
the rugged places a plain.

⁵And the glory of the LORD will be revealed,
and all people will see it together.
For the mouth of the LORD
has spoken."

⁶A voice says, "Cry out."
And I said, "What shall I cry?"

"All people are like grass,
and all their glory is like the flowers
of the field.

⁷The grass withers and the flowers fall,
because the breath of the LORD
blows on them.

Surely the people are grass.

⁸The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God stands for
ever."

⁹You who bring good tidings to Zion,
go up on a high mountain.
You who bring good tidings to Jerusalem,^c

lift up your voice with a shout,
lift it up, do not be afraid;
say to the towns of Judah,
"Here is your God!"

¹⁰See, the Sovereign LORD comes with
power,
and his arm rules for him.

See, his reward is with him,
and his recompense accompanies him.

¹¹He tends his flock like a shepherd:
He gathers the lambs in his arms
and carries them close to his heart;
he gently leads those that have young.

¹²Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand,
or with the breadth of his hand
marked off the heavens?

Who has held the dust of the earth in a basket,
or weighed the mountains on the scales
and the hills in a balance?

¹³Who has understood the mind^d of the LORD,

or instructed him as his counsellor?

¹⁴Whom did the LORD consult to enlighten him,
and who taught him the right way?
Who was it that taught him knowledge or showed him the path of understanding?

¹⁵Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket;
they are regarded as dust on the
scales;
he weighs the islands as though they were fine dust.

¹⁶Lebanon is not sufficient for altar fires,
nor its animals enough for burnt
offerings.

¹⁷Before him all the nations are as
nothing;
they are regarded by him as worthless
and less than nothing.

¹⁸To whom, then, will you compare God?
What image will you compare him
to?

¹⁹As for an idol, a metal worker casts
it,
and a goldsmith overlays it with gold
and fashions silver chains for it.

²⁰People too poor to present such an offering
select wood that will not rot.
They look for a skilled worker
to set up an idol that will not topple.

²¹Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?

Have you not understood since the earth was founded?

²²He sits enthroned above the circle of
the earth,

^{a3} Or A voice of one calling in the desert: I "Prepare the way for the LORD

^{b3} Hebrew; Septuagint make straight the paths of our God

^{c9} Or O Zion, bringer of good tidings, I go up on a high mountain. I O Jerusalem, bringer of good tidings

^{d13} Or Spirit; or spirit

and its people are like grasshoppers.
He stretches out the heavens like a canopy,
and spreads them out like a tent to live in.

²³He brings princes to naught
and reduces the rulers of this world to nothing.

²⁴No sooner are they planted, no sooner are they sown,
no sooner do they take root in the
ground,
than he blows on them and they
wither,
and a whirlwind sweeps them away
like chaff.

²⁵"To whom will you compare me?
Or who is my equal?" says the Holy
One.

²⁶Lift your eyes and look to the
heavens:
Who created all these?
He who brings out the starry host one by one,
and calls them each by name.
Because of his great power and mighty strength,
not one of them is missing.

²⁷Why do you say, O Jacob,
and complain, O Israel,
"My way is hidden from the LORD;
my cause is disregarded by my
God"?

²⁸Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He will not grow tired or weary,
and his understanding no-one can fathom.

²⁹He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak.

³⁰Even youths grow tired and weary,
and young men stumble and fall;

³¹but those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary,
they will walk and not be faint.

The Helper of Israel

41 "Be silent before me, you islands!
Let the nations renew their
strength!

Let them come forward and speak;
let us meet together at the place of
judgment.

²"Who has stirred up one from the east, calling him in righteousness to his service?"^a

He hands nations over to him
and subdues kings before him.

He turns them to dust with his sword,
to wind-blown chaff with his bow.

³He pursues them and moves on unscathed,
by a path his feet have not travelled
before.

⁴Who has done this and carried it
through,
calling forth the generations from the beginning?

I, the LORD—with the first of them and with the last—I am he."

⁵The islands have seen it and fear;
the ends of the earth tremble.
They approach and come forward;

⁶they help each other and say to their companions, "Be strong!"

⁷The metal worker encourages the goldsmith,
and the one who smooths with the hammer
spurs on the one who strikes the anvil.

One says of the welding, "It is good."
The other nails down the idol so that it will not topple.

⁸"But you, O Israel, my servant,
Jacob, whom I have chosen,
you descendants of Abraham my friend,

⁹I took you from the ends of the earth,
from its farthest corners I called you.

I said, 'You are my servant';
I have chosen you and have not rejected you.

^a2 Or / whom victory meets at every step

¹⁰So do not fear, for I am with you;
do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you;
I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

¹¹"All who rage against you will surely be ashamed and disgraced;
those who oppose you will be as nothing and perish.
¹²Though you search for your enemies,
you will not find them.
Those who wage war against you will be as nothing at all.

¹³For I am the LORD, your God, who takes hold of your right hand
and says to you, Do not fear;
I will help you.

¹⁴Do not be afraid, O worm Jacob,
O little Israel,
for I myself will help you," declares
the LORD,
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵"See, I will make you into a threshing-sledge,
new and sharp, with many teeth.
You will thresh the mountains and crush them,
and reduce the hills to chaff.

¹⁶You will winnow them, the wind will pick them up,
and a gale will blow them away.
But you will rejoice in the LORD and glory in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷"The poor and needy search for
water,
but there is none;
their tongues are parched with
thirst.
But I the LORD will answer them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake
them.

¹⁸I will make rivers flow on barren
heights,
and springs within the valleys.
I will turn the desert into pools of
water,
and the parched ground into
springs.

¹⁹I will put in the desert
the cedar and the acacia, the myrtle and the olive.
I will set pines in the wasteland,
the fir and the cypress together, ²⁰so that people may see and know,
may consider and understand,
that the hand of the LORD has done
this,
that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

²¹"Present your case," says the LORD.
"Set forth your arguments," says
Jacob's King.

²²"Bring in your idols," to tell us
what is going to happen.
Tell us what the former things were,
so that we may consider them
and know their final outcome.
Or declare to us the things to come.
²³tell us what the future holds,
so that we may know you are gods.
Do something, whether good or bad,
so that we will be dismayed and filled with fear.

²⁴But you are less than nothing and your works are utterly
worthless;
those who choose you are detestable.

²⁵"I have stirred up one from the north, and he comes—
one from the rising sun who calls on my name.
He treads on rulers as if they were mortar,
as if he were a potter treading the clay.

²⁶Who told of this from the beginning,
so that we could know,
or beforehand, so that we could say, 'He was right'?

No-one told of this,
no-one foretold it,
no-one heard any words from you.

²⁷I was the first to tell Zion, 'Look, here
they are!'
I gave to Jerusalem a messenger of good tidings.

²⁸I look but there is no-one—no-one among them to give counsel,

no-one to give answer when I ask them.

²⁹See, they are all false!
Their deeds amount to nothing;
their images are but wind and
confusion.

The Servant of the LORD

42 "Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen one in whom I delight;
I will put my Spirit on him
and he will bring justice to the
nations.

²He will not shout or cry out,
or raise his voice in the streets.

³A bruised reed he will not break, and a smouldering wick he will not snuff out.

In faithfulness he will bring forth
justice;

⁴ he will not falter or be discouraged
till he establishes justice on earth.

In his law the islands will put their
hope."

⁵This is what God the LORD says—
he who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth and all
that comes out of it,
who gives breath to its people,
and life to those who walk on it:

⁶"I, the LORD, have called you in
righteousness;

I will take hold of your hand.

I will keep you and will make you
to be a covenant for the people
and a light for the Gentiles,

⁷to open eyes that are blind,
to free captives from prison
and to release from the dungeon
those who sit in darkness.

⁸"I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not give my glory to another or my praise to idols.

⁹See, the former things have taken place,
and new things I declare;
before they spring into being
I announce them to you."

Song of Praise to the LORD

¹⁰Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the ends of the
earth,

you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
you islands, and all who live in them.

¹¹Let the desert and its towns raise their voices;

let the settlements where Kedar
lives rejoice.

Let the people of Sela sing for joy;
let them shout from the mountaintops.

¹²Let them give glory to the LORD and proclaim his praise in the islands.

¹³The LORD will march out like a champion,

like a warrior he will stir up his zeal;
with a shout he will raise the battle cry
and will triumph over his enemies.

¹⁴"For a long time I have kept silent,
I have been quiet and held myself
back.

But now, like a woman in childbirth,
I cry out, I gasp and pant.

¹⁵I will lay waste the mountains and hills
and dry up all their vegetation;
I will turn rivers into islands and dry up the pools.

¹⁶I will lead the blind by ways they have not known,
along unfamiliar paths I will guide
them;

I will turn the darkness into light
before them
and make the rough places smooth.

These are the things I will do;
I will not forsake them.

¹⁷But those who trust in idols, who say to images, 'You are our
gods,'
will be turned back in utter shame.

Israel Blind and Deaf

¹⁸"Hear, you deaf;
look, you blind, and see!

¹⁹Who is blind but my servant,
and deaf like the messenger I send?

Who is blind like the one committed to me,
blind like the servant of the LORD?

²⁰You have seen many things,
but have paid no attention;
your ears are open, but you hear nothing."

²¹It pleased the LORD
for the sake of his righteousness
to make his law great and glorious.

²²But this is a people plundered and looted,

all of them trapped in pits
or hidden away in prisons.

They have become plunder,
with no-one to rescue them;
they have been made loot,
with no-one to say, "Send them back."

²³Which of you will listen to this or pay close attention in time to come?

²⁴Who handed Jacob over to become loot,

and Israel to the plunderers?
Was it not the LORD,
against whom we have sinned?

For they would not follow his ways;
they did not obey his law.

²⁵So he poured out on them his burning anger,

the violence of war.

It enveloped them in flames, yet they did not understand;
it consumed them, but they did not take it to heart.

Israel's Only Saviour

43 But now, this is what the LORD says—
he who created you, O Jacob,
he who formed you, O Israel:

"Fear not, for I have redeemed you;
I have summoned you by name;
you are mine.

²When you pass through the waters,
I will be with you;
and when you pass through the rivers,
they will not sweep over you.

When you walk through the fire,
you will not be burned;
the flames will not set you ablaze.

³For I am the LORD, your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour;

I give Egypt for your ransom,
Cush^a and Seba in your stead.

⁴Since you are precious and honoured
in my sight,

and because I love you,
I will give nations in exchange for you,
and peoples in exchange for your
life.

⁵Do not be afraid, for I am with you;
I will bring your children from the east
and gather you from the west.

⁶I will say to the north, 'Give them up!'
and to the south, 'Do not hold them
back.'

Bring my sons from afar
and my daughters from the ends of
the earth—

⁷everyone who is called by my name,
whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

⁸Lead out those who have eyes but are blind,
who have ears but are deaf.

⁹All the nations gather together
and the peoples assemble.

Which of them foretold this and proclaimed to us the former
things?

Let them bring in their witnesses to prove they were right,
so that others may hear and say, "It
is true."

¹⁰"You are my witnesses," declares the
LORD,

"and my servant whom I have chosen,

so that you may know and believe me
and understand that I am he.
Before me no god was formed,
nor will there be one after me.

¹¹I, even I, am the LORD, and apart from me there is no
saviour.

^a That is, the upper Nile region

- ¹²I have revealed and saved and proclaimed—
I, and not some foreign god among you.
You are my witnesses,” declares the LORD, “that I am God.
¹³ Yes, and from ancient days I am he.
No-one can deliver out of my hand.
When I act, who can reverse it?”

God's Mercy and Israel's Unfaithfulness

- ¹⁴This is what the LORD says—
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
“For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down as fugitives all the Babylonians,^b in the ships in which they took pride.
¹⁵I am the LORD, your Holy One,
Israel's Creator, your King.”
¹⁶This is what the LORD says—
he who made a way through the sea,
a path through the mighty waters, ¹⁷who drew out the chariots and horses,
the army and reinforcements together,
and they lay there, never to rise again,
extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:
¹⁸“Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.
¹⁹See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the desert
and streams in the wasteland.
²⁰The wild animals honour me,
the jackals and the owls,
because I provide water in the desert
and streams in the wasteland,
to give drink to my people, my chosen, ²¹the people I formed for myself
that they may proclaim my praise.
²²“Yet you have not called upon me,
O Jacob,

- you have not wearied yourselves
for me, O Israel.
²³You have not brought me sheep for burnt offerings,
nor honoured me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with grain offerings
nor wearied you with demands for incense.
²⁴You have not bought any fragrant calamus for me,
or lavished on me the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened me with your sins
and wearied me with your offences.
²⁵“I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions, for my own sake,
and remembers your sins no more.
²⁶Review the past for me,
let us argue the matter together;
state the case for your innocence.
²⁷Your first father sinned;
your teachers rebelled against me.
²⁸So I will disgrace the dignitaries of your temple,
and I will consign Jacob to destruction^c
and Israel to scorn.

Israel the Chosen

- 44 “But now listen, O Jacob,
my servant,
Israel, whom I have chosen.
²This is what the LORD says—
he who made you, who formed you in the womb,
and who will help you:
Do not be afraid, O Jacob, my
servant,
Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
³For I will pour water on the thirsty
land,
and streams on the dry ground;
I will pour out my Spirit on your offspring,

^b14 Or Chaldeans

^c28 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them.

and my blessing on your descendants.

⁴They will spring up like grass in a meadow,
like poplar trees by flowing
streams.

⁵Some will say, 'I belong to the LORD';
others will call themselves by the name of Jacob;
still others will write on their hand,
'The LORD's',
and will take the name Israel.

The LORD, Not Idols

⁶"This is what the LORD says—
Israel's King and Redeemer, the LORD Almighty:

I am the first and I am the last;
apart from me there is no God.

⁷Who then is like me? Let them proclaim it.
Let them declare and lay out before
me
what has happened since I established my ancient people,
and what is yet to come—
yes, let them foretell what will come.

⁸Do not tremble, do not be afraid.
Did I not proclaim this and foretell
it long ago?
You are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me?
No, there is no other Rock; I know not one."

⁹All who make idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are
worthless.

Those who would speak up for them
are blind;
they are ignorant, to their own
shame.

¹⁰Who shapes a god and casts an idol,
which can profit nothing?

¹¹People like that will be put to
shame;
skilled workers are only human.
Let them all come together and take their stand;
they will be brought down to terror and infamy.

¹²The blacksmith takes a tool
and works with it in the coals;
he shapes an idol with hammers,
he forges it with the might of his arm.

He gets hungry and loses his strength;
he drinks no water and grows faint.

¹³The carpenter measures with a line and makes an outline with a marker;
he roughs it out with chisels
and marks it with compasses.
He shapes it in human form,
human form in all its glory,
that it may dwell in a shrine.

¹⁴He cut down cedars,
or perhaps took a cypress or oak.
He let it grow among the trees of the forest,
or planted a pine, and the rain
made it grow.

¹⁵It is used as fuel for burning;
some of it he takes and warms
himself,
he kindles a fire and bakes bread.
But he also fashions a god and worships it;
he makes an idol and bows down to
it.

¹⁶Half of the wood he burns in the fire;
over it he prepares his meal,
he roasts his meat and eats his fill.
He also warms himself and says,
"Ah! I am warm; I see the fire."

¹⁷From the rest he makes a god, his idol;
he bows down to it and worships.
He prays to it and says,
"Save me; you are my god."

¹⁸They know nothing, they understand
nothing;
their eyes are plastered over so that
they cannot see,
and their minds closed so that they cannot understand.

¹⁹No-one stops to think,
no-one has the knowledge or understanding to say,
"Half of it I used for fuel;
I even baked bread over its coals.
I roasted meat and I ate.
Shall I make a detestable thing from what is left?"

Shall I bow down to a block of wood?"

- ²⁰Such people feed on ashes, a deluded heart misleads them; they cannot save themselves, or say,
"Is not this thing in my right hand a lie?"

- ²¹"Remember these things, O Jacob, for you are my servant, O Israel. I have made you, you are my servant; O Israel, I will not forget you.
²²I have swept away your offences like a cloud, your sins like the morning mist. Return to me, for I have redeemed you."

- ²³Sing for joy, O heavens, for the LORD has done this; shout aloud, O earth beneath. Burst into song, you mountains, you forests and all your trees, for the LORD has redeemed Jacob, he displays his glory in Israel.

Jerusalem to Be Inhabited

- ²⁴"This is what the LORD says— your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb:

I am the LORD, who has made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself,

- ²⁵who foils the signs of false prophets and makes fools of diviners, who overthrows the learning of the wise and turns it into nonsense, ²⁶who carries out the words of his servants and fulfils the predictions of his messengers, who says of Jerusalem, 'It shall be inhabited,' of the towns of Judah, 'They shall be built,'

and of their ruins, 'I will restore them,'

- ²⁷who says to the watery deep, 'Be dry, and I will dry up your streams,' ²⁸who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd and will accomplish all that I please; he will say of Jerusalem, "Let it be rebuilt," and of the temple, "Let its foundations be laid."'

- 45 "This is what the LORD says to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I take hold of to subdue nations before him and to strip kings of their armour, to open doors before him so that gates will not be shut:
²I will go before you and will level the mountains;^a I will break down gates of bronze and cut through bars of iron.
³I will give you the treasures of darkness, riches stored in secret places, so that you may know that I am the LORD, the God of Israel, who summons you by name.
⁴For the sake of Jacob my servant, of Israel my chosen, I summon you by name and bestow on you a title of honour, though you do not acknowledge me.
⁵I am the LORD, and there is no other; apart from me there is no God. I will strengthen you, though you have not acknowledged me, ⁶so that from the rising of the sun to the place of its setting people may know there is none besides me. I am the LORD, and there is no other.
⁷I form the light and create darkness, I bring prosperity and create disaster; I, the LORD, do all these things.

^{a2} Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint; the meaning of the word in the Masoretic Text is uncertain.

- 8^a "You heavens above, rain down righteousness;
let the clouds shower it down.
Let the earth open wide,
let salvation spring up,
let righteousness grow with it;
I, the LORD, have created it.
- 9^a "Woe to those who quarrel with their Maker,
those who are nothing but potsherds among the potsherds
on the ground.
Does the clay say to the potter,
'What are you making?'
Does your work say,
'The potter has no hands?'
- 10^a Woe to those who say to their father,
'What have you begotten?'
or to their mother,
'What have you brought to birth?'
- 11^a "This is what the LORD says—
the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker: Concerning things to come,
do you question me about my children,
or give me orders about the work
of my hands?
- 12^a It is I who made the earth
and created human beings upon it.
My own hands stretched out the
heavens;
I marshalled their starry hosts.
- 13^a I will raise up Cyrus^b in my
righteousness;
I will make all his ways straight.
He will rebuild my city
and set my exiles free,
but not for a price or reward,
says the LORD Almighty."
- 14^a This is what the LORD says:
"The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush,^c and those tall Sabeans—
they will come over to you and will be yours;
they will trudge behind you,
coming over to you in chains.
They will bow down before you and plead with you, saying,
'Surely God is with you, and there is no other;
there is no other god.'"
- 15^a Truly you are a God who hides
himself,
O God and Saviour of Israel.
- 16^a All the makers of idols will be put to shame and disgraced;
they will go off into disgrace
together.
- 17^a But Israel will be saved by the LORD
with an everlasting salvation;
you will never be put to shame or
disgraced,
to ages everlasting.
- 18^a For this is what the LORD says—
he who created the heavens,
he is God;
he who fashioned and made the earth,
he founded it;
he did not create it to be empty,
but formed it to be inhabited—
he says:
"I am the LORD,
and there is no other.
- 19^a I have not spoken in secret,
from somewhere in a land of
darkness;
I have not said to Jacob's
descendants,
'Seek me in vain.'
I, the LORD, speak the truth;
I declare what is right.
- 20^a "Gather together and come;
assemble, you fugitives from the
nations.
Ignorant are those who carry about idols of wood,
who pray to gods that cannot save.
- 21^a Declare what is to be, present it—
let them take counsel together.
Who foretold this long ago,
who declared it from the distant past?
Was it not I, the LORD?

^b13 Hebrew him ^c14 That is, the upper Nile region

And there is no God apart from me, a righteous God and a Saviour;
there is none but me.

²²“Turn to me and be saved,
all you ends of the earth;
for I am God, and there is no other.

²³By myself I have sworn,
my mouth has uttered in all
integrity
a word that will not be revoked:
Before me every knee will bow;
by me every tongue will swear.

²⁴They will say of me, ‘In the LORD alone are righteousness and strength.’ ”
All who have raged against him will come to him and be put to
shame.

²⁵But in the LORD all the descendants of Israel
will be found righteous and will exult.

Gods of Babylon

46 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops low;
their idols are borne by beasts of burden.^a

The images that are carried about are burdensome,
a burden for the weary.

²They stoop and bow down together;
unable to rescue the burden,
they themselves go off into
captivity.

³“Listen to me, O house of Jacob,
all you who remain of the house of Israel,
you whom I have upheld since you were conceived,
and have carried since your birth.

⁴Even to your old age and grey hairs
I am he, I am he who will sustain
you.

I have made you and I will carry you;
I will sustain you and I will rescue
you.

⁵“To whom will you compare me or count me equal?
To whom will you liken me that we may be compared?

⁶Some pour out gold from their bags
and weigh out silver on the scales;
they hire a goldsmith to make it into
a god,
and they bow down and worship it.
⁷They lift it to their shoulders and carry
it;
they set it up in its place, and there it stands.
From that spot it cannot move.
Though people cry out to it, it does
not answer;
it cannot save them from their
troubles.

⁸“Remember this, fix it in mind,
take it to heart, you rebels.

⁹Remember the former things, those
of long ago;
I am God, and there is no other;
I am God, and there is none like
me.

¹⁰I make known the end from the
beginning,
from ancient times, what is still to
come.

I say: My purpose will stand,
and I will do all that I please.

¹¹From the east I summon a bird of prey;
from a far-off land, a man to fulfil
my purpose.

What I have said, that will I bring
about;

what I have planned, that will I do.

¹²Listen to me, you stubborn-hearted,
you who are far from righteousness.

¹³I am bringing my righteousness near,
it is not far away;
and my salvation will not be delayed.

I will grant salvation to Zion,
my splendour to Israel.

The Fall of Babylon

47 “Go down, sit in the dust,
Virgin Daughter of Babylon;
sit on the ground without a throne,
Daughter of the Babylonians.^a
No more will you be called tender or delicate.

^a1 Or are but beasts and cattle ^a1 Or Chaldeans; also in verse 5

²Take millstones and grind flour;
take off your veil.

Lift up your skirts, bare your legs,
and wade through the streams.

³Your nakedness will be exposed and your shame uncovered.

I will take vengeance;
I will spare no-one."

⁴Our Redeemer—the LORD Almighty is his name—
is the Holy One of Israel.

⁵"Sit in silence, go into darkness,
Daughter of the Babylonians;
no more will you be called queen of kingdoms.

⁶I was angry with my people
and desecrated my inheritance;
I gave them into your hand,
and you showed them no mercy.
Even on the aged
you laid a very heavy yoke.

⁷You said, 'I will continue for ever—the eternal queen!'
But you did not consider these things
or reflect on what might happen.

⁸"Now then, listen, you wanton creature,
lounging in your security
and saying to yourself,
'I am, and there is none besides me.
I will never be a widow or suffer the loss of children.'

⁹Both of these will overtake you in a moment, on a single day:
loss of children and widowhood.
They will come upon you in full
measure,
in spite of your many sorceries
and all your potent spells.

¹⁰You have trusted in your wickedness and have said, 'No-one sees me.'
Your wisdom and knowledge mislead
you
when you say to yourself,
'I am, and there is none besides
me.'

¹¹Disaster will come upon you,
and you will not know how to conjure it away.
A calamity will fall upon you that you cannot ward off with a ransom;

a catastrophe you cannot foresee
will suddenly come upon you.

¹²"Keep on, then, with your magic spells
and with your many sorceries, which you have laboured at since childhood.

Perhaps you will succeed,
perhaps you will cause terror.

¹³All the counsel you have received has only worn you out!

Let your astrologers come forward, those stargazers who make predictions month by month, let them save you from what is coming upon you.

¹⁴Surely they are like stubble;
the fire will burn them up.
They cannot even save themselves
from the power of the flame.
Here are no coals to warm anyone;
here is no fire to sit by.

¹⁵That is all they can do for you—these you have laboured with and trafficked with since childhood.

All of them go on in their error;
there is not one that can save you.

Stubborn Israel

48 "Listen to this, O house of Jacob,
you who are called by the name of Israel
and come from the line of Judah, you who take oaths in the name of the LORD
and invoke the God of Israel—
but not in truth or righteousness—²you who call yourselves citizens of the holy city
and rely on the God of Israel—
the LORD Almighty is his name:
³I foretold the former things long ago,
my mouth announced them and I made them known;
then suddenly I acted, and they came to pass.
⁴For I knew how stubborn you were:

the sinews of your neck were iron,
your forehead was bronze.

⁵Therefore I told you these things long ago;

before they happened I announced them to you

so that you could not say,

'My idols did them;
my wooden image and metal god
ordained them.'

⁶You have heard these things; look at them all.

Will you not admit them?

"From now on I will tell you of new things,
of hidden things unknown to you.

⁷They are created now, and not long ago;

you have not heard of them before today.

So you cannot say,

'Yes, I knew of them.'

⁸You have neither heard nor understood;

from of old your ear has not been open.

Well do I know how treacherous you are;

you were called a rebel from birth.

⁹For my own name's sake I delay my wrath;

for the sake of my praise I hold it back from you,

so as not to cut you off.

¹⁰See, I have refined you, though not as silver;

I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.

¹¹For my own sake, for my own sake, I do this.

How can I let myself be defamed?

I will not yield my glory to another.

Israel Freed

¹²"Listen to me, O Jacob,
Israel, whom I have called:

I am he;

I am the first and I am the last.

¹³My own hand laid the foundations of the earth,

and my right hand spread out the heavens;

when I summon them,
they all stand up together.

¹⁴"Come together, all of you, and listen:

Which of the idols, has foretold these things?

The LORD's chosen ally
will carry out his purpose against Babylon;
his arm will be against the Babylonians.^a ¹⁵I, even I, have spoken;

yes, I have called him.

I will bring him,
and he will succeed in his mission.

¹⁶"Come near me and listen to this:

"From the first announcement I have not spoken in secret;
at the time it happens, I am there."

And now the Sovereign LORD has sent me,
with his Spirit.

¹⁷This is what the LORD says—
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:

"I am the LORD your God,
who teaches you what is best for you,
who directs you in the way you should go.

¹⁸If only you had paid attention to my commands,
your peace would have been like a river,
your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

¹⁹Your descendants would have been like the sand,
your children like its numberless grains;
their name would never be cut off
nor destroyed from before me."

²⁰Leave Babylon,
flee from the Babylonians!

^a14 Or Chaldeans; also in verse 20

Announce this with shouts of joy and proclaim it.
Send it out to the ends of the earth;
say, "The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob."

²¹They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;
he made water flow for them from
the rock;
he split the rock
and water gushed out.

²²"There is no peace," says the LORD,
"for the wicked."

The Servant of the LORD

49 Listen to me, you islands;
hear this, you distant nations:
Before I was born the LORD called me;
from my birth he has made mention of my name.

²He made my mouth like a sharpened
sword,
in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me into a polished arrow
and concealed me in his quiver.

³He said to me, "You are my servant,
Israel, in whom I will display my
splendour."

⁴But I said, "I have laboured to no purpose;
I have spent my strength in vain and
for nothing.

Yet what is due to me is in the LORD's
hand,
and my reward is with my God."

⁵And now the LORD says—
he who formed me in the womb to be his servant
to bring Jacob back to him
and gather Israel to himself, for I am honoured in the eyes of the LORD
and my God has been my strength—

⁶he says:
"It is too small a thing for you to be
my servant
to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept.

I will also make you a light for the Gentiles,
that you may bring my salvation to the ends of the earth."

⁷This is what the LORD says—
the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel—
to him who was despised and abhorred by the nation,
to the servant of rulers:
"Kings will see you and rise up,
princes will see and bow down,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

Restoration of Israel

⁸This is what the LORD says:

"In the time of my favour I will
answer you,
and in the day of salvation I will help you;

I will keep you and will make you
to be a covenant for the people,
to restore the land
and to reassign its desolate
inheritances,

⁹to say to the captives, "Come out,"
and to those in darkness, "Be free!"

"They will feed beside the roads and find pasture on every barren hill.

¹⁰They will neither hunger nor thirst,
nor will the desert heat or the sun
beat upon them.

He who has compassion on them will guide them
and lead them beside springs of
water.

¹¹I will turn all my mountains into roads,
and my highways will be raised up.

¹²See, they will come from afar—
some from the north, some from the west,
some from the region of Aswan."^a

^a12 Dead Sea Scrolls; Masoretic Text Sinim

¹³Shout for joy, O heavens;
rejoice, O earth;
burst into song, O mountains!
For the LORD comforts his people and will have compassion on his afflicted ones.

¹⁴But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me,
the Lord has forgotten me."

¹⁵"Can a mother forget the baby at her breast
and have no compassion on the child she has borne?
Though she may forget,
I will not forget you!

¹⁶See, I have engraved you on the palms
of my hands;
your walls are ever before me.

¹⁷Your children hasten back,
and those who laid you waste
depart from you.

¹⁸Lift up your eyes and look around;
all your children gather and come
to you.
As surely as I live," declares the LORD,
"you will wear them all as ornaments;
you will put them on, like a bride.

¹⁹"Though you were ruined and made desolate
and your land laid waste,
now you will be too small for your
people,
and those who devoured you will be far away.

²⁰The children born during your bereavement
will yet say in your hearing,
'This place is too small for us;
give us more space to live in.'

²¹Then you will say in your heart,
'Who bore me these?
I was bereaved and barren;
I was exiled and rejected.
Who brought these up?
I was left all alone,
but these—where have they come from?'"

²²This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"See, I will beckon to the Gentiles,
I will lift up my banner to the
peoples;
they will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

²³Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers.

They will bow down before you with their faces to the ground;
they will lick the dust at your feet.
Then you will know that I am the
LORD;
those who hope in me will not be disappointed."

²⁴Can plunder be taken from warriors, or captives rescued from the fierce?^b

²⁵But this is what the LORD says:

"Yes, captives will be taken from
warriors,
and plunder retrieved from the fierce;

I will contend with those who contend
with you,
and your children I will save.

²⁶I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh;
they will be drunk on their own blood, as with wine.

Then the whole human race will know that I, the LORD, am your Saviour, your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

Israel's Sin and the Servant's Obedience

50 This is what the LORD says:

"Where is your mother's certificate of divorce
with which I sent her away?
Or to which of my creditors
did I sell you?

^b24 Dead Sea Scrolls, Vulgate and Syriac (see also Septuagint and verse 25); Masoretic Text righteous

Because of your sins you were sold;
because of your transgressions your mother was sent away.

²When I came, why was there no-one?
When I called, why was there
no-one to answer?

Was my arm too short to ransom you?
Do I lack the strength to rescue
you?

By a mere rebuke I dry up the sea,
I turn rivers into a desert;
their fish rot for lack of water and die of thirst.

³I clothe the sky with darkness and make sackcloth its covering."

⁴The Sovereign LORD has given me an instructed tongue,
to know the word that sustains the weary.

He wakens me morning by morning,
wakens my ear to listen like one being taught.

⁵The Sovereign LORD has opened my
ears,
and I have not been rebellious;
I have not drawn back.

⁶I offered my back to those who beat
me,
my cheeks to those who pulled out
my beard;

I did not hide my face
from mocking and spitting.

⁷Because the Sovereign LORD helps
me,

I will not be disgraced.
Therefore have I set my face like flint,
and I know I will not be put to
shame.

⁸He who vindicates me is near.
Who then will bring charges against
me?

Let us face each other!
Who are my accusers?
Let them confront me!

⁹It is the Sovereign LORD who helps
me.

Who will condemn me?
They will all wear out like a garment;
the moths will eat them up.

¹⁰Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the word of his servant?

Let those who walk in the dark,
who have no light,
trust in the name of the LORD
and rely on their God.

¹¹But now, all you who light fires and provide yourselves with flaming torches,
go, walk in the light of your fires
and of the torches you have set ablaze.

This is what you shall receive from my
hand:
You will lie down in torment.

Everlasting Salvation for Zion

51 "Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness
and who seek the LORD:
Look to the rock from which you were cut
and to the quarry from which you were hewn;

²Look to Abraham, your father,
and to Sarah, who gave you birth.
When I called him he was but one,
and I blessed him and made him
many.

³The LORD will surely comfort Zion and will look with compassion on all her ruins;
he will make her deserts like Eden,
her wastelands like the garden of
the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found in her,
thanksgiving and the sound of
singing.

⁴"Listen to me, my people;
hear me, my nation:
The law will go out from me;
my justice will become a light to the
nations.

⁵My righteousness draws near speedily,
my salvation is on the way,
and my arm will bring justice to the
nations.

The islands will look to me
and wait in hope for my arm.

⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
look at the earth beneath;
the heavens will vanish like smoke,

the earth will wear out like a garment
and its inhabitants die like flies.
But my salvation will last for ever,
my righteousness will never fail.

- 7¹¹ Hear me, you who know what is right,
you people who have my law in your hearts:
Do not fear the reproach of mere mortals
or be terrified by their insults.
8¹² For the moth will eat them up like a garment;
the worm will devour them like wool.
But my righteousness will last for ever,
my salvation through all generations."

- 9¹³ Awake, awake! Clothe yourself with strength, O arm of the LORD;
awake, as in days gone by,
as in generations of old.
Was it not you who cut Rahab to pieces,
who pierced that monster through?
10¹⁴ Was it not you who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep,
who made a road in the depths of the sea
so that the redeemed might cross over?
11¹⁵ The ransomed of the LORD will return.
They will enter Zion with singing;
everlasting joy will crown their heads.
Gladness and joy will overtake them,
and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

- 12¹⁶ "I, even I, am he who comforts you.
Who are you that you fear mere mortals,
human beings, who are but grass, 13¹⁷ that you forget the LORD your Maker,
who stretched out the heavens

and laid the foundations of the earth,
that you live in constant terror every day
because of the wrath of the oppressor,
who is bent on destruction?
For where is the wrath of the oppressor?

- 14¹⁸ The cowering prisoners will soon be set free;
they will not die in their dungeon,
nor will they lack bread.
15¹⁹ For I am the LORD your God, who churns up the sea so that its waves roar—
the LORD Almighty is his name.
16²⁰ I have put my words in your mouth and covered you with the shadow of my hand—
I who set the heavens in place,
who laid the foundations of the earth,
and who say to Zion, 'You are my people.'"

The Cup of the LORD's Wrath

- 17²¹ Awake, awake!
Rise up, O Jerusalem,
you who have drunk from the hand of the LORD
the cup of his wrath,
you who have drained to its dregs
the goblet that makes people stagger.
18²² Of all the children she bore
there was none to guide her;
of all the children she brought up
there was none to take her by the hand.
19²³ These double calamities have come upon you—who can comfort you?—
ruin and destruction, famine and sword—
who can^a console you?
20²⁴ Your children have fainted;
they lie at the head of every street,
like antelope caught in a net.
They are filled with the wrath of the LORD
and the rebuke of your God.

^a19 Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint, Vulgate and Syriac; Masoretic Text / how can I

²¹Therefore hear this, you afflicted one,
made drunk, but not with wine.
²²This is what your Sovereign LORD
says,
your God, who defends his people: “See, I have taken out of your hand
the cup that made you stagger;
from that cup, the goblet of my wrath,
you will never drink again.
²³I will put it into the hands of your tormentors,
who said to you,
‘Fall prostrate that we may walk
over you.’
And you made your back like the
ground,
like a street to be walked over.”

52 Awake, awake, O Zion, clothe yourself with strength.
Put on your garments of splendour,
O Jerusalem, the holy city.
The uncircumcised and defiled
will not enter you again.
²Shake off your dust;
rise up, sit enthroned,
O Jerusalem.
Free yourself from the chains on your
neck,
O captive Daughter of Zion.

³For this is what the LORD says:

“You were sold for nothing,
and without money you will be redeemed.”

⁴For this is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

“At first my people went down to Egypt to live;
lately, Assyria has oppressed them.

⁵“And now what do I have here?” declares the LORD.

“For my people have been taken away for nothing,
and those who rule them mock,”^a
declares the LORD.

“And all day long
my name is constantly blasphemed.
⁶Therefore my people will know my
name;
therefore in that day they will know that it is I who foretold it.
Yes, it is I.”

⁷How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news,
who proclaim peace,
who bring good tidings,
who proclaim salvation,
who say to Zion,
“Your God reigns!”

⁸Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices;
together they shout for joy.
When the LORD returns to Zion,
they will see it with their own eyes.

⁹Burst into songs of joy together,
you ruins of Jerusalem,
for the LORD has comforted his
people,
he has redeemed Jerusalem.

¹⁰The LORD will lay bare his holy arm
in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see
the salvation of our God.

¹¹Depart, depart, go out from there!
Touch no unclean thing!
Come out from it and be pure,
you who carry the vessels of the
LORD.

¹²But you will not leave in haste
or go in flight;
for the LORD will go before you,
the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Suffering and Glory of the Servant

¹³See, my servant will act wisely;^b
he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.

¹⁴Just as there were many who were appalled at him^c—
his appearance was so disfigured beyond that of any human being

^a Dead Sea Scrolls and Vulgate; Masoretic Text wail

^b Or will prosper

^c Hebrew you

and his form marred beyond human likeness—

¹⁵so will he sprinkle many nations,^d and kings will shut their mouths
because of him.

For what they were not told, they will see,
and what they have not heard, they will understand.

53 Who has believed our message
and to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?

²He grew up before him like a tender shoot,
and like a root out of dry ground.
He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him,
nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.

³He was despised and rejected by
others,
a man of sorrows, and familiar with
suffering.
Like one from whom people hide
their faces
he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

⁴Surely he took up our infirmities
and carried our sorrows,
yet we considered him stricken by
God,
smitten by him, and afflicted.

⁵But he was pierced for our transgressions,
he was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace
was upon him,
and by his wounds we are healed.

⁶We all, like sheep, have gone
astray,
each of us has turned to our own
way;
and the LORD has laid on him
the iniquity of us all.

⁷He was oppressed and afflicted,
yet he did not open his mouth;
he was led like a lamb to the
slaughter,
and as a sheep before her shearers
is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.

⁸By oppression^a and judgment he was taken away.
And who can speak of his descendants?

For he was cut off from the land of
the living;
for the transgression of my people
he was stricken.^b

⁹He was assigned a grave with the
wicked,
and with the rich in his death,
though he had done no violence,
nor was any deceit in his mouth.

¹⁰Yet it was the LORD's will to crush him
and cause him to suffer,
and though the LORD makes^c his life a guilt offering,
he will see his offspring and prolong
his days,
and the will of the LORD will prosper in his hand.

¹¹After the suffering of his soul,
he will see the light of life,^d and be satisfied;^e
by his knowledge^f my righteous servant will justify many,
and he will bear their iniquities.

¹²Therefore I will give him a portion among the great,^g
and he will divide the spoils with the strong,^h
because he poured out his life unto
death,
and was numbered with the transgressors.
For he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

The Future Glory of Zion

54 "Sing, O barren woman,
 you who never bore a child;
 burst into song, shout for joy,
 you who were never in labour;
 because more are the children of the
 desolate woman
 than of her who has a husband,"
 says the LORD.

2 "Enlarge the place of your tent,
 stretch your tent curtains wide,
 do not hold back;
 lengthen your cords,
 strengthen your stakes.

3 For you will spread out to the right and to the left;
 your descendants will dispossess
 nations
 and settle in their desolate cities.

4 "Do not be afraid; you will not suffer
 shame.

Do not fear disgrace; you will not be humiliated.

You will forget the shame of your youth

and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood.

5 For your Maker is your husband—
 the LORD Almighty is his name—
 the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer;
 he is called the God of all the earth.

6 The LORD will call you back as if you were a wife deserted and distressed in spirit—

a wife who married young,
 only to be rejected," says your God.

7 "For a brief moment I abandoned you,
 but with deep compassion I will bring you back.

8 In a surge of anger
 I hid my face from you for a moment,
 but with everlasting kindness
 I will have compassion on you,"
 says the LORD your Redeemer.

9 "To me this is like the days of Noah,
 when I swore that the waters of Noah would never again cover

 the earth.

So now I have sworn not to be angry
 with you,

never to rebuke you again.

10 Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed,
 yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed,"
 says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

11 "O afflicted city, lashed by storms and not comforted,
 I will build you with stones of turquoise,^a

your foundations with sapphires.^b

12 I will make your battlements of rubies,
 your gates of sparkling jewels,
 and all your walls of precious stones.

13 All your children will be taught by the LORD,
 and great will be their peace.

14 In righteousness you will be established:

Tyranny will be far from you;
 you will have nothing to fear.
 Terror will be far removed;
 it will not come near you.

15 If anyone does attack you, it will not be my doing;
 whoever attacks you will surrender
 to you.

16 "See, it is I who created the blacksmith
 who fans the coals into flame
 and forges a weapon fit for its work.
 And it is I who have created the destroyer to work havoc;

17 no weapon forged against you will prevail,
 and you will refute every tongue
 that accuses you.

This is the heritage of the servants of
 the LORD,
 and this is their vindication from me,"
 declares the LORD.

Invitation to the Thirsty

- 55 "Come, all you who are thirsty,
 come to the waters;
 and you who have no money,
 come, buy and eat!
 Come, buy wine and milk
 without money and without cost.
²Why spend money on what is not bread,
 and your labour on what does not satisfy?
 Listen, listen to me, and eat what is
 good,
 and your soul will delight in the richest of fare.
³Give ear and come to me;
 hear me, that your soul may live.
 I will make an everlasting covenant
 with you,
 my faithful love promised to David.
⁴See, I have made him a witness to the
 peoples,
 a leader and commander of the
 peoples.
⁵Surely you will summon nations you know not,
 and nations that do not know you will hasten to you,
 because of the LORD your God,
 the Holy One of Israel,
 for he has endowed you with
 splendour."
- ⁶Seek the LORD while he may be found;
 call on him while he is near.
⁷Let the wicked forsake their ways
 and the unrighteous their thoughts.
 Let them turn to the LORD, and he will have mercy on them,
 and to our God, for he will freely
 pardon.
- ⁸"For my thoughts are not your
 thoughts,
 neither are your ways my ways,"
 declares the LORD.
⁹"As the heavens are higher than the
 earth,
 so are my ways higher than your ways
 and my thoughts than your thoughts.
¹⁰As the rain and the snow
 come down from heaven,

- and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish,
 so that it yields seed for the sower
 and bread for the eater, ¹¹so is my word that goes out from my
 mouth:
 It will not return to me empty,
 but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it.
¹²You will go out in joy
 and be led forth in peace;
 the mountains and hills
 will burst into song before you,
 and all the trees of the field
 will clap their hands.
¹³Instead of the thornbush will grow the pine tree,
 and instead of briers the myrtle will grow.
 This will be for the LORD's renown,
 for an everlasting sign,
 which will not be destroyed."

Salvation for Others

- 56 This is what the LORD says:
 "Maintain justice
 and do what is right,
 for my salvation is close at hand and my righteousness will soon be revealed.
²Blessed are those who do this,
 those who hold it fast,
 who keep the Sabbath without
 desecrating it,
 and keep their hands from doing
 any evil."
- ³Let no foreigners who have bound themselves to the LORD say,
 "The LORD will surely exclude me from his people."
 And let not any eunuch complain,
 "I am only a dry tree."
- ⁴For this is what the LORD says:
 "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths,
 who choose what pleases me

and hold fast to my covenant—5to them I will give within my temple and its walls
 a memorial and a name
 better than sons and daughters;
 I will give them an everlasting name
 that will not be cut off.
 6And foreigners who bind themselves
 to the LORD
 to serve him,
 to love the name of the LORD,
 and to worship him,
 all who keep the Sabbath without
 desecrating it
 and who hold fast to my
 covenant—
 7these I will bring to my holy mountain and give them joy in my house of prayer.
 Their burnt offerings and sacrifices
 will be accepted on my altar;
 for my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations.”
 8The Sovereign LORD declares—
 he who gathers the exiles of
 Israel:
 “I will gather still others to them
 besides those already gathered.”

God's Accusation Against the Wicked

9Come, all you beasts of the field, come and devour, all you beasts of
 the forest!
 10Israel's watchmen are blind,
 they all lack knowledge;
 they are all mute dogs,
 they cannot bark;
 they lie around and dream,
 they love to sleep.
 11They are dogs with mighty appetites;
 they never have enough.
 They are shepherds who lack
 understanding;
 they all turn to their own way,
 all seek their own gain.
 12“Come,” each one cries, “let me get
 wine!
 Let us drink our fill of beer!
 And tomorrow will be like today,
 or even far better.”

57 The righteous perish,
 and no-one takes it to heart;
 the devout are taken away,
 and no-one understands that the righteous are taken away
 to be spared from evil.
 2Those who walk uprightly
 enter into peace;
 they find rest as they lie in death.

34But you—come here, you children of a sorceress,
 you offspring of adulterers and
 prostitutes!

4Whom are you mocking?
 At whom do you sneer
 and stick out your tongue?
 Are you not a brood of rebels,
 the offspring of liars?

5You burn with lust among the oaks
 and under every spreading tree;
 you sacrifice your children in the ravines
 and under the overhanging crags.

6The idols, among the smooth stones of the ravines are your portion;
 they, they are your lot.
 Yes, to them you have poured out drink offerings
 and offered grain offerings.
 In the light of these things, should I relent?

7You have made your bed on a high and lofty hill;
 there you went up to offer your sacrifices.

8Behind your doors and your doorposts
 you have put your pagan symbols.
 Forsaking me, you uncovered your bed,
 you climbed into it and opened it wide;
 you made a pact with those whose beds you love,
 and you looked on their nakedness.

9You went to Molech^a with olive oil and increased your perfumes.
 You sent your ambassadors^b far
 away;
 you descended to the grave^c itself!

^a9 Or to the king ^b9 Or idols ^c9 Hebrew Sheol

¹⁰You were wearied by all your ways, but you would not say, 'It is hopeless.'
You found renewal of your strength,
and so you did not faint.

¹¹"Whom have you so dreaded and feared
that you have been false to me,
and have neither remembered me
nor pondered this in your hearts?

Is it not because I have long been silent
that you do not fear me?

¹²I will expose your righteousness and your works,
and they will not benefit you.

¹³When you cry out for help,
let your collection of idols save
you!

The wind will carry all of them off,
a mere breath will blow them
away.

But whoever takes refuge in me will inherit the land and possess my holy mountain."

Comfort for the Contrite

¹⁴And it will be said:

"Build up, build up, prepare the
road!

Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people."

¹⁵For this is what the high and lofty One
says—

he who lives for ever, whose name is holy:

"I live in a high and holy place,
but also with those who are contrite
and lowly in spirit,

to revive the spirit of the lowly
and to revive the heart of the contrite.

¹⁶I will not accuse for ever,
nor will I always be angry,
for then the spirit of mortals would grow faint before me—
the breath of those whom I have created.

¹⁷I was enraged by their sinful greed;

I punished them, and hid my face
in anger,
yet they kept on in their wilful
ways.

¹⁸I have seen their ways, but I will heal
them;

I will guide them and restore comfort to them,

¹⁹creating praise on the lips of the mourners in Israel.

Peace, peace, to those far and near,"
says the LORD. "And I will heal
them."

²⁰But the wicked are like the tossing
sea,
which cannot rest,
whose waves cast up mire and mud.

²¹"There is no peace," says my God,
"for the wicked."

True Fasting

58 "Shout it aloud, do not hold back.
Raise your voice like a trumpet.
Declare to my people their rebellion and to the house of Jacob their sins.

²For day after day they seek me out;
they seem eager to know my ways,
as if they were a nation that does what is right

and has not forsaken the commands of its God.

They ask me for just decisions and seem eager for God to come near them.

³'Why have we fasted,' they say,
'and you have not seen it?

Why have we humbled ourselves,
and you have not noticed?'

"Yet on the day of your fasting, you do as you please
and exploit all your workers.

⁴Your fasting ends in quarrelling and
strife,
and in striking each other with wicked fists.

You cannot fast as you do today
and expect your voice to be heard
on high.

⁵Is this the kind of fast I have chosen,

only a day for people to humble themselves?
Is it only for bowing one's head like a reed
and for lying on sackcloth and ashes?

Is that what you call a fast,
a day acceptable to the LORD?

6^a "Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen:

to loose the chains of injustice
and untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free
and break every yoke?

7^a Is it not to share your food with the hungry and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—
when you see the naked, to clothe them,

and not to turn away from your own flesh and blood?

8^a Then your light will break forth like the dawn,
and your healing will quickly appear;

then your righteousness^a will go
before you,
and the glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.

9^a Then you will call, and the LORD will answer;
you will cry for help, and he will say: Here am I.

"If you do away with the yoke of
oppression,
with the pointing finger and malicious talk,

10^a and if you spend yourselves on behalf of the hungry
and satisfy the needs of the oppressed,
then your light will rise in the
darkness,
and your night will become like the noonday.

11^a The LORD will guide you always;
he will satisfy your needs in a
sun-scorched land

and will strengthen your frame.

You will be like a well-watered
garden,
like a spring whose waters never fail.

12^a Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins
and will raise up the age-old foundations;
you will be called Repairer of Broken
Walls,
Restorer of Streets with Dwellings.

13^a "If you keep your feet from breaking the Sabbath
and from doing as you please on my holy day,

if you call the Sabbath a delight
and the LORD's holy day
honourable,

and if you honour it by not going your
own way
and not doing as you please or speaking idle words,

14^a then you will find your joy in the LORD,
and I will cause you to ride on the heights of the land
and to feast on the inheritance of your father Jacob."

The mouth of the LORD
has spoken.

Sin, Confession and Redemption

59 Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save,
nor his ear too dull to hear.

2^a But your iniquities have separated
you from your God;
your sins have hidden his face from
you,

so that he will not hear.

3^a For your hands are stained with
blood,
your fingers with guilt.
Your lips have spoken lies,
and your tongue mutters wicked
things.

4^a None call for justice;
none plead their case with
integrity.

^a8 Or your righteous One

They rely on empty arguments and speak lies;
they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.

⁵They hatch the eggs of vipers
and spin a spider's web.
Whoever eats their eggs will die,
and when one is broken, an adder
is hatched.

⁶Their cobwebs are useless for clothing;
they cannot cover themselves with what they make.

Their deeds are evil deeds,
and acts of violence are in their
hands.

⁷Their feet rush into sin;
they are swift to shed innocent
blood.

Their thoughts are evil thoughts;
ruin and destruction mark their
ways.

⁸The way of peace they do not know;
there is no justice in their paths.
They have turned them into crooked
roads;
no-one who walks in them will know peace.

⁹So justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not reach
us.

We look for light, but all is darkness;
for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.

¹⁰Like the blind we grope along the
wall,
feeling our way like people without
eyes.

At midday we stumble as if it were twilight;
among the strong, we are like the
dead.

¹¹We all growl like bears;
we moan mournfully like doves.
We look for justice, but find none;
for deliverance, but it is far away.

¹²For our offences are many in your sight,
and our sins testify against us.

Our offences are ever with us, and we acknowledge our iniquities:

¹³rebellion and treachery against the LORD,
turning our backs on our God,
fomenting oppression and revolt,
uttering lies our hearts have conceived.

¹⁴So justice is driven back,
and righteousness stands at a distance;
truth has stumbled in the streets,
honesty cannot enter.

¹⁵Truth is nowhere to be found,
and whoever shuns evil becomes a
prey.

The LORD looked and was displeased
that there was no justice.

¹⁶He saw that there was no-one,
he was appalled that there was no-one to intervene;
so his own arm worked salvation for
him,
and his own righteousness
sustained him.

¹⁷He put on righteousness as his breastplate,
and the helmet of salvation on his
head;
he put on the garments of vengeance and wrapped himself in zeal as in a cloak.

¹⁸According to what they have done,
so will he repay
wrath to his enemies
and retribution to his foes;
he will repay the islands their due.

¹⁹From the west, people will fear the name of the LORD,
and from the rising of the sun, they will revere his glory.

For he will come like a pent-up flood that the breath of the LORD drives along.^a

²⁰"The Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who repent of
their sins,"

declares the LORD.

^a19 Or When enemies come in like a flood, / the Spirit of the LORD will put them to flight

²¹“As for me, this is my covenant with them,” says the LORD. “My Spirit, who is on you, and my words that I have put in your mouth will not depart from your mouth, or from the mouths of your children, or from the mouths of their descendants from this time on and for ever,” says the LORD.

The Glory of Zion

60 “Arise, shine, for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD rises upon you.

²See, darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples,
but the LORD rises upon you
and his glory appears over you.

³Nations will come to your light,
and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

⁴“Lift up your eyes and look about you:
All assemble and come to you;
your sons come from afar,
and your daughters are carried on the arm.
⁵Then you will look and be radiant,
your heart will throb and swell with joy;
the wealth on the seas will be brought to you,
to you the riches of the nations will come.

⁶Herds of camels will cover your land,
young camels of Midian and Ephah.
And all from Sheba will come,
bearing gold and incense
and proclaiming the praise of the LORD.

⁷All Kedar’s flocks will be gathered to you,
the rams of Nebaioth will serve you;
they will be accepted as offerings on my altar,

and I will adorn my glorious temple.

⁸“Who are these that fly along like clouds,
like doves to their nests?

⁹Surely the islands look to me;
in the lead are the ships of Tarshish,^a bringing your children from afar,
with their silver and gold,
to the honour of the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for he has endowed you with splendour.

¹⁰“Foreigners will rebuild your walls,
and their kings will serve you.
Though in anger I struck you,
in favour I will show you compassion.

¹¹Your gates will always stand open,
they will never be shut, day or night,
so that people may bring you the wealth of the nations—
their kings led in triumphal procession.

¹²For the nation or kingdom that will not serve you will perish;
it will be utterly ruined.

¹³“The glory of Lebanon will come to you,
the pine, the fir and the cypress together,
to adorn the place of my sanctuary;
and I will glorify the place of my feet.

¹⁴The children of your oppressors will come bowing before you;
all who despise you will bow down at your feet
and will call you the City of the LORD, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵“Although you have been forsaken and hated,
with no-one travelling through,
I will make you the everlasting pride
and the joy of all generations.

^a Or the trading ships

¹⁶You will drink the milk of nations and be nursed at royal breasts.
Then you will know that I, the LORD,
am your Saviour,
your Redeemer, the Mighty One of
Jacob.

¹⁷Instead of bronze I will bring you
gold,
and silver in place of iron.
Instead of wood I will bring you bronze,
and iron in place of stones.
I will make peace your governor and righteousness your ruler.

¹⁸No longer will violence be heard in your land,
nor ruin or destruction within your borders,
but you will call your walls Salvation
and your gates Praise.

¹⁹The sun will no more be your light by
day,
nor will the brightness of the moon shine on you,
for the LORD will be your everlasting
light,
and your God will be your glory.

²⁰Your sun will never set again,
and your moon will wane no more;
the LORD will be your everlasting
light,
and your days of sorrow will end.

²¹Then will all your people be righteous and they will possess the land for
ever.
They are the shoot I have planted,
the work of my hands,
for the display of my splendour.

²²The least of you will become a thousand,
the smallest a mighty nation.
I am the LORD;
in its time I will do this swiftly."

The Year of the LORD's Favour

61 The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me,
because the LORD has anointed me
to preach good news to the poor.
He has sent me to bind up the
broken-hearted,

to proclaim freedom for the captives
and release from darkness for the prisoners,^a ²to proclaim the year of the LORD's favour
and the day of vengeance of our God,
to comfort all who mourn,
³ and provide for those who grieve in Zion—
to bestow on them a crown of beauty
instead of ashes,
the oil of gladness
instead of mourning,
and a garment of praise
instead of a spirit of despair.
They will be called oaks of
righteousness,
a planting of the LORD
for the display of his splendour.

⁴They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long
devastated;
they will renew the ruined cities
that have been devastated for generations.

⁵Aliens will shepherd your flocks;
foreigners will work your fields and
vineyards.

⁶And you will be called priests of the
LORD,
you will be named ministers of our
God.
You will feed on the wealth of
nations,
and in their riches you will boast.

⁷Instead of their shame
my people will receive a double portion,
and instead of disgrace
they will rejoice in their
inheritance;
and so they will inherit a double portion in their land,
and everlasting joy will be theirs.

⁸"For I, the LORD, love justice;
I hate robbery and iniquity.
In my faithfulness I will reward them

^a Hebrew: Septuagint the blind

and make an everlasting covenant
with them.

⁹Their descendants will be known
among the nations
and their offspring among the
peoples.

All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people the LORD has
blessed."

¹⁰I delight greatly in the LORD;
my soul rejoices in my God.
For he has clothed me with garments of salvation
and arrayed me in a robe of
righteousness,
as a bridegroom adorns his head like
a priest,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

¹¹For as the soil makes the young plant
come up
and a garden causes seeds to
grow,
so the Sovereign LORD will make righteousness and praise
spring up before all nations.

Zion's New Name

62 For Zion's sake I will not keep
silent,
for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet,
till her righteousness shines out like
the dawn,
her salvation like a blazing torch.

²The nations will see your
righteousness,
and all kings your glory;
you will be called by a new name
that the mouth of the LORD will bestow.

³You will be a crown of splendour in the LORD's hand,
a royal diadem in the hand of your
God.

⁴No longer will they call you Deserted,
or name your land Desolate.
But you will be called Hephzibah,^a and your land Beulah;^b

for the LORD will take delight in you,
and your land will be married.

⁵As a young man marries a young woman,
so will your people^c marry you;
as a bridegroom rejoices over his
bride,
so will your God rejoice over you.

⁶I have posted watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;
they will never be silent day or
night.

You who call on the LORD,
give yourselves no rest.

⁷and give him no rest till he establishes
Jerusalem
and makes her the praise of the
earth.

⁸The LORD has sworn by his right hand
and by his mighty arm:

"Never again will I give your grain
as food for your enemies,
and never again will foreigners drink
the new wine

for which you have toiled;

⁹but those who harvest it will eat it
and praise the LORD,
and those who gather the grapes will drink it
in the courts of my sanctuary."

¹⁰Pass through, pass through the gates!
Prepare the way for the people.
Build up, build up the highway!
Remove the stones.
Raise a banner for the nations.

¹¹The LORD has made proclamation
to the ends of the earth:

"Say to the Daughter of Zion,
'See, your Saviour comes!
See, his reward is with him,
and his recompense accompanies
him.'"

¹²They will be called the Holy People,
the Redeemed of the LORD;
and you will be called Sought After,
the City No Longer Deserted.

^a4 Hephzibah means my delight is in her.

^b4 Beulah means married.

^c5 Or Builder

God's Day of Vengeance and Redemption

63 Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah, with his garments stained crimson?

Who is this, robed in splendour, striding forward in the greatness of his strength?

"It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save."

²Why are your garments red,
like those of one treading the winepress?

³"I have trodden the winepress alone;
from the nations no-one was with
me.

I trampled them in my anger
and trod them down in my wrath;
their blood spattered my garments,
and I stained all my clothing.

⁴For the day of vengeance was in my
heart,
and the year of my redemption has
come.

⁵I looked, but there was no-one to help,
I was appalled that no-one gave support;
so my own arm worked salvation for
me,

and my own wrath sustained me.

⁶I trampled the nations in my anger;
in my wrath I made them drunk and poured their blood on the
ground."

Praise and Prayer

⁷I will tell of the kindnesses of the
LORD,
the deeds for which he is to be praised,
according to all the LORD has done
for us—
yes, the many good things he has done
for the house of Israel,
according to his compassion and many kindnesses.

⁸He said, "Surely they are my people, children who will not be false to
me";
and so he became their Saviour.

⁹In all their distress he too was distressed,
and the angel of his presence saved
them.

In his love and mercy he redeemed
them;
he lifted them up and carried them
all the days of old.

¹⁰Yet they rebelled
and grieved his Holy Spirit.
So he turned and became their enemy
and he himself fought against them.

¹¹Then his people recalled^a the days of
old,
the days of Moses and his people—
where is he who brought them through the sea,
with the shepherd of his flock?

Where is he who set
his Holy Spirit among them,

¹²who sent his glorious arm of power
to be at Moses' right hand,
who divided the waters before them,
to gain for himself everlasting renown,

¹³who led them through the depths?
Like a horse in open country,
they did not stumble;

¹⁴like cattle that go down to the plain,
they were given rest by the Spirit of
the LORD.

This is how you guided your people to make for yourself a glorious
name.

¹⁵Look down from heaven and see from your lofty throne, holy and glorious.
Where are your zeal and your might?
Your tenderness and compassion are withheld from us.

¹⁶But you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us
or Israel acknowledge us;
you, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer from of old is your
name.

^a11 Or But may he recall

- ¹⁷Why, O LORD, do you make us wander from your ways and harden our hearts so that we do not revere you?
Return for the sake of your servants,
the tribes that are your inheritance.
- ¹⁸For a little while your people
possessed your holy place, but now our enemies have trampled down your sanctuary.
- ¹⁹We are yours from of old;
but you have not ruled over them,
they have not been called by your name.^b

- 64 Oh, that you would rend
the heavens and come down,
that the mountains would tremble
before you!
- ²As when fire sets twigs ablaze
and causes water to boil,
come down to make your name
known to your enemies and cause the nations to quake
before you!
- ³For when you did awesome things
that we did not expect,
you came down, and the mountains
trembled before you.
- ⁴Since ancient times no-one has heard,
no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who acts on behalf of those who wait for him.
- ⁵You come to the help of those who gladly do right,
who remember your ways.
But when we continued to sin against
them,
you were angry.
How then can we be saved?
- ⁶All of us have become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags;
we all shrivel up like a leaf,
and like the wind our sins sweep us
away.
- ⁷No-one calls on your name
or strives to lay hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us and made us waste away because of our sins.

- ⁸Yet, O LORD, you are our Father.
We are the clay, you are the potter;
we are all the work of your hand.
- ⁹Do not be angry beyond measure,
O LORD;
do not remember our sins for ever.
Oh, look upon us we pray,
for we are all your people.
- ¹⁰Your sacred cities have become a
desert;
even Zion is a desert, Jerusalem a desolation.
- ¹¹Our holy and glorious temple, where our ancestors praised you,
has been burned with fire,
and all that we treasured lies in ruins.
- ¹²After all this, O LORD, will you hold yourself back?
Will you keep silent and punish us
beyond measure?

Judgment and Salvation

- 65 "I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me;
I was found by those who did not
seek me.
To a nation that did not call on my name,
I said, 'Here am I, here am I.'
- ²All day long I have held out my hands
to an obstinate people,
who walk in ways not good,
pursuing their own imaginations—
- ³a people who continually provoke me
to my very face,
offering sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on altars of brick;
- ⁴who sit among the graves
and spend their nights keeping secret vigil;
who eat the flesh of pigs,
and whose pots hold broth of unclean meat;
- ⁵who say, 'Keep away; don't come near me,
for I am too sacred for you!'
Such people are smoke in my nostrils,
a fire that keeps burning all day.

^{b19} Or We are like those you have never ruled, / like those never called by your name

⁶"See, it stands written before me;
I will not keep silent but will pay back in full;

I will pay it back into their laps—⁷both your sins and the sins of your ancestors,"
says the LORD.

"Because they burned sacrifices on the mountains
and defied me on the hills,
I will measure into their laps
the full payment for their former
deeds."

⁸This is what the LORD says:

"As when juice is still found in a cluster of grapes
and people say, 'Don't destroy it,
there is yet some good in it,'
so will I do on behalf of my servants;
I will not destroy them all.

⁹I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
and from Judah those who will possess my mountains;
my chosen people will inherit them,
and there will my servants live.

¹⁰Sharon will become a pasture for
flocks,
and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds,
for my people who seek me.

¹¹"But as for you who forsake the LORD and forget my holy mountain, who spread a table for Fortune and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny,

¹²I will destine you for the sword, and you will all bend down for the
slaughter;
for I called but you did not answer,
I spoke but you did not listen.
You did evil in my sight
and chose what displeases me."

¹³Therefore this is what the Sovereign
LORD says:

"My servants will eat,
but you will go hungry;
my servants will drink,
but you will go thirsty;

my servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.

¹⁴My servants will sing
out of the joy of their hearts,
but you will cry out
from anguish of heart
and wail in brokenness of spirit.

¹⁵You will leave your name
to my chosen ones as a curse;
the Sovereign LORD will put you to
death,
but to his servants he will give another name.

¹⁶All who invoke a blessing in the land
will do so by the God of truth;
those who take an oath in the land
will swear by the God of truth.
For the past troubles will be forgotten
and hidden from my eyes.

New Heavens and a New Earth

¹⁷"Behold, I will create
new heavens and a new earth.
The former things will not be remembered,

nor will they come to mind.
¹⁸But be glad and rejoice for ever in what I will create,
for I will create Jerusalem to be a delight
and its people a joy.

¹⁹I will rejoice over Jerusalem
and take delight in my people;
the sound of weeping and of crying
will be heard in it no more.

²⁰"Never again will there be in it infants who live but a few days, or older people who do not live out their years;
those who die at a hundred
will be thought mere youths;
those who fail to reach^a a hundred will be considered accursed.

²¹They will build houses and dwell in
them;
they will plant vineyards and eat
their fruit.

²²No longer will they build houses and others live in them,

^a20 Or / the sinner who reaches or plant and others eat.

For as the days of a tree,
so will be the days of my people;
my chosen ones will long enjoy
the works of their hands.

- ²³They will not toil in vain
or bear children doomed to
misfortune;
for they will be a people blessed by
the LORD,
they and their descendants with them.
²⁴Before they call I will answer;
while they are still speaking I will
hear.
²⁵The wolf and the lamb will feed
together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox,
but dust will be the serpent's food.
They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain,"
says the LORD.

Judgment and Hope

66 This is what the LORD says:

"Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my footstool.
Where is the house you will build for
me?

Where will my resting place be?

- ²Has not my hand made all these
things,
and so they came into being?"
declares the LORD.

"These are the ones I esteem:
those who are humble and contrite
in spirit,
and tremble at my word.

- ³But whoever sacrifices a bull
is like one who kills a human being,
and whoever offers a lamb,
like one who breaks a dog's neck;
whoever makes a grain offering is like one who presents pig's
blood,
and whoever burns memorial incense, like one who worships an idol.
They have chosen their own ways,
and their souls delight in their abominations;

⁴so I also will choose harsh treatment
for them
and will bring upon them what they dread.

For when I called, no-one answered,
when I spoke, no-one listened.
They did evil in my sight
and chose what displeases me."

⁵Hear the word of the LORD,
you who tremble at his word;
"Your own people who hate you,
and exclude you because of my name, have said,
'Let the LORD be glorified,
that we may see your joy!'
Yet they will be put to shame.

⁶Hear that uproar from the city,
hear that noise from the temple!
It is the sound of the LORD
repaying his enemies all they deserve

⁷"Before she goes into labour,
she gives birth;
before the pains come upon her,
she delivers a child.

⁸Who has ever heard of such a thing?
Who has ever seen such things?
Can a country be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment?

Yet no sooner is Zion in labour
than she gives birth to her children.

⁹Do I bring to the moment of birth and not give delivery?" says the LORD.

"Do I close up the womb
when I bring to delivery?" says
your God.

¹⁰"Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her,

all you who love her;
rejoice greatly with her,
all you who mourn over her.

¹¹For you will nurse and be satisfied
at her comforting breasts;
you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing
abundance."

¹²For this is what the LORD says:

"I will extend peace to her like a river.

and the wealth of nations like a flooding stream;
you will nurse and be carried on her
arm
and dandled on her knees.

¹³As a mother comforts her child,
so will I comfort you;
and you will be comforted over
Jerusalem."

¹⁴When you see this, your heart will rejoice
and you will flourish like grass;
the hand of the LORD will be made known to his servants,
but his fury will be shown to his
foes.

¹⁵See, the LORD is coming with fire,
and his chariots are like a
whirlwind;
he will bring down his anger with fury,
and his rebuke with flames of fire.

¹⁶For with fire and with his sword
the LORD will execute judgment
upon all people,
and many will be those slain by the
LORD.

¹⁷"Those who consecrate and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following the one in the midst of^a those who eat the flesh of pigs and rats and other abominable things—they will meet their end together," declares the LORD.

¹⁸"And I, because of their actions and their imaginations, am about to come^b and gather all nations and tongues, and they will come and see my glory.

¹⁹"I will set a sign among them, and I will send some of those who survive to the nations—to Tarshish, to the Libyans^c and Lydians (famous as archers), to Tubal and Greece, and to the distant islands that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory among the nations. ²⁰And they will bring all your people, from all the nations, to my holy mountain in Jerusalem as an offering to the LORD—on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and camels," says
the LORD. "They will bring them, as the Israelites bring their grain offerings, to the temple of the LORD in ceremonially clean vessels. ²¹And I will select some of them also to be priests and Levites," says the
LORD.

²²"As the new heavens and the new earth that I make will endure before me," declares the LORD, "so will your name and descendants endure. ²³From one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, all people will come and bow down before me," says the LORD. ²⁴"And they will go out and look upon the dead bodies of those who rebelled against me;
their worm will not die, nor will their fire
be quenched, and they will be loathsome
to the whole human race."

Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. ²The word of the LORD came to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, ³and through the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, down to the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

The Call of Jeremiah

⁴The word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁵"Before I formed you in the womb I knew^a you,
before you were born I set you apart;
I appointed you as a prophet to the
nations."

⁶"Ah, Sovereign LORD," I said, "I do not know how to speak; I am only a child."

⁷But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a child.' You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you. ⁸Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you and will rescue you," declares the LORD.

⁹Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me, "Now, I have put my words in your mouth. ¹⁰See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant."

¹¹The word of the LORD came to me: "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

"I see the branch of an almond tree," I replied.

¹²The LORD said to me, "You have seen correctly, for I am watching^b to see that my word is fulfilled."

¹³The word of the LORD came to me again: "What do you see?"

"I see a boiling pot, tilting away from the north," I answered.

¹⁴The LORD said to me, "From the north disaster will be poured out on all who live in the land. ¹⁵I am about to summon all the peoples of the northern kingdoms," declares the LORD.

"Their kings will come and set up their thrones
in the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem;

they will come against all her surrounding walls
and against all the towns of Judah.

¹⁶I will pronounce my judgments on my
people
because of their wickedness in forsaking me,
in burning incense to other gods
and in worshipping what their hands have made.

¹⁷"Get yourself ready! Stand up and say to them whatever I command you. Do not be terrified by them, or I will terrify you before them. ¹⁸Today I have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests and the people of the land. ¹⁹They will fight against you but will not overcome you, for I am with you and will rescue you,” declares the LORD.

^{a5} Or chose ^{b12} The Hebrew for watching sounds like the Hebrew for almond tree.

Israel Forsakes God

2 The word of the LORD came to me: ^{2a}“Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem:

“ ‘I remember the devotion of your youth,
how as a bride you loved me
and followed me through the desert,
through a land not sown.

³Israel was holy to the LORD,
the firstfruits of his harvest;
all who devoured her were held
guilty,
and disaster overtook them,’ ”
declares the LORD.

⁴Hear the word of the LORD, O house
of Jacob,
all you clans of the house of Israel.

⁵This is what the LORD says:

“What fault did your ancestors find in
me,
that they strayed so far from me?
They followed worthless idols
and became worthless themselves.

⁶They did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD, who brought us up out of Egypt and led us through the barren wilderness,
through a land of deserts and rifts,
a land of drought and darkness,^a a land where no-one travels and no-one lives?’

⁷I brought you into a fertile land
to eat its fruit and rich produce.

But you came and defiled my land and made my inheritance
detestable.

⁸The priests did not ask,
‘Where is the LORD?’

Those who deal with the law did not know me;
the leaders rebelled against me.
The prophets prophesied by Baal,
following worthless idols.

^{9a}“Therefore I bring charges against you again,”
declares the LORD.

“And I will bring charges against your children’s children.

¹⁰Cross over to the coasts of Kittim^b and look,
send to Kedar^c and observe closely;
see if there has ever been anything like this:

¹¹Has a nation ever changed its
gods?
(Yet they are not gods at all.)
But my people have exchanged their^d
Glory
for worthless idols.

¹²Be appalled at this, O heavens,
and shudder with great horror,”
declares the LORD.

¹³“My people have committed two sins:
They have forsaken me,
the spring of living water,
and have dug their own cisterns,
broken cisterns that cannot hold
water.

¹⁴Is Israel a servant, a slave by birth?
Why then has he become plunder?

¹⁵Lions have roared;
they have growled at him.
They have laid waste his land;
his towns are burned and deserted.

¹⁶Also, the men of Memphis^e and Tahpanhes
have shaved the crown of your head.^f

¹⁹Your wickedness will punish you;
your backsliding will rebuke you.
Consider then and realise how evil and bitter it is for you when you forsake the LORD your God and have no awe of me,"
declares the Lord,
the LORD Almighty.

²⁰"Long ago you broke off your yoke
and tore off your bonds;
you said, 'I will not serve you!'
Indeed, on every high hill
and under every spreading tree
you lay down as a prostitute.
²¹I had planted you like a choice vine
of sound and reliable stock.
How then did you turn against me
into a corrupt, wild vine?
²²Although you wash yourself with soda
and use an abundance of soap,
the stain of your guilt is still before
me,"

declares the Sovereign LORD.

²³"How can you say, 'I am not defiled;
I have not run after the Baals'?
See how you behaved in the valley;
consider what you have done.
You are a swift she-camel
running here and there, ²⁴a wild donkey accustomed to the
desert,
sniffing the wind in her craving—
in her heat who can restrain her?
Any males that pursue her need not tire themselves;
at mating time they will find her.
²⁵Do not run until your feet are bare and your throat is dry.
But you said, 'It's no use!
I love foreign gods,
and I must go after them.'

²⁶"As a thief is disgraced when caught,
so the house of Israel is disgraced—

they, their kings and their officials,
their priests and their prophets.
²⁷They say to wood, 'You are my father,'
and to stone, 'You gave me birth.'
They have turned their backs to me
and not their faces;
yet when they are in trouble, they say,
'Come and save us!'
²⁸Where then are the gods you made for yourselves?
Let them come if they can save you when you are in trouble!
For you have as many gods
as you have towns, O Judah.

²⁹"Why do you bring charges against me?
You have all rebelled against me,"
declares the LORD.

³⁰"In vain I punished your people;
they did not respond to correction.
Your sword has devoured your
prophets
like a ravaging lion.

³¹"You of this generation, consider the word of the LORD:

"Have I been a desert to Israel
or a land of great darkness?
Why do my people say, 'We are free
to roam;

we will come to you no more'?"

³²Does a young woman forget her
jewellery,
a bride her wedding ornaments?
Yet my people have forgotten me,
days without number.

³³How skilled you are at pursuing love!
Even the worst of women can learn from your ways.

³⁴On your clothes is found
the lifeblood of the innocent poor, though you did not catch them
breaking in.

Yet in spite of all this ³⁵you say, 'I am innocent;

he is not angry with me.'
But I will pass judgment on you because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

^g18 That is, a branch of the Nile

- ³⁶Why do you go about so much,
changing your ways?
You will be disappointed by Egypt
as you were by Assyria.
- ³⁷You will also leave that place
with your hands on your head, for the LORD has rejected those you
trust;
you will not be helped by them.

3 "If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and marries another man, should he return to her again?

Would not the land be completely defiled?

But you have lived as a prostitute with many lovers—

would you now return to me?"

declares the LORD.

²"Look up to the barren heights and see.

Is there any place where you have not been ravished?

By the roadside you sat waiting for lovers,

sat like a nomad^a in the desert.

You have defiled the land with your prostitution and
wickedness.

³Therefore the showers have been withheld,

and no spring rains have fallen.

Yet you have the brazen look of a prostitute;

you refuse to blush with shame.

⁴Have you not just called to me:

'My Father, my friend from my
youth,

⁵will you always be angry?

Will your wrath continue for ever?"

This is how you talk,

but you do all the evil you can."

Unfaithful Israel

⁶During the reign of King Josiah, the LORD said to me, "Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every spreading tree and has committed adultery there. ⁷I thought that after she had done all this she would return to me but she did not, and her unfaithful sister Judah saw it. ⁸I gave faithless Israel her certificate of divorce and sent her away because of all her adulteries. Yet I saw that her unfaithful sister Judah had no fear; she also went out and committed adultery. ⁹Because Israel's immorality mattered so little to her, she defiled the land and committed adultery with stone and wood. ¹⁰In spite of all this, her unfaithful sister Judah did not return to me with all her heart, but only in pretence,"

declares the LORD.

¹¹The LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel is more righteous than unfaithful Judah. ¹²Go, proclaim this message towards the north:

"Return, faithless Israel," declares
the LORD,

'I will frown on you no longer,

for I am merciful,' declares the LORD,

'I will not be angry for ever.

¹³Only acknowledge your guilt—

you have rebelled against the LORD
your God,

you have scattered your favours to foreign gods

under every spreading tree,
and have not obeyed me,"

declares the LORD.

¹⁴"Return, faithless people," declares the LORD, "for I am your husband. I will choose you—one from a town and two from a clan—and bring you to Zion.

¹⁵Then I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will lead you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶In those days,
when your numbers have increased greatly in the land," declares the LORD,
"people will no longer say, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD.' It will never enter their minds or be remembered; it will not be missed, nor will another one be made.

¹⁷At that time they will call Jerusalem The Throne of the LORD, and all nations will gather in Jerusalem to honour the name of the LORD. No longer will they follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts. ¹⁸In
those days the house of Judah will join

^a Or an Arab

the house of Israel, and together they will come from a northern land to the land I gave your ancestors as an inheritance.

¹⁹“I myself said,

“‘How gladly would I treat you like my children and give you a desirable land,
the most beautiful inheritance of any nation.’

I thought you would call me ‘Father’
and not turn away from following me.

²⁰But like a woman unfaithful to her husband,
so you have been unfaithful to me,
O house of Israel,”
declares the LORD.

²¹A cry is heard on the barren heights,
the weeping and pleading of the people of Israel,
because they have perverted their ways
and have forgotten the LORD their God.

²²“Return, faithless people;
I will cure you of backsliding.”

“Yes, we will come to you,
for you are the LORD our God.

²³Surely the idolatrous commotion on the hills and mountains is a deception;
surely in the LORD our God
is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴From our youth shameful gods have consumed
the fruits of our ancestors’ labour—
their flocks and herds,
their sons and daughters.

²⁵Let us lie down in our shame,
and let our disgrace cover us.
We have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our ancestors;
from our youth till this day
we have not obeyed the LORD our God.”

4 “If you will return, O Israel, return to me,”
declares the LORD.

“If you put your detestable idols out of my sight
and no longer go astray, ²and if in a truthful, just and righteous
way
you swear, ‘As surely as the LORD
lives,’
then the nations will be blessed by him
and in him they will glory.”

³This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem:

“Break up your unploughed ground
and do not sow among thorns.
⁴Circumcise yourselves to the LORD,
circumcise your hearts,
you people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
or my wrath will break out and burn
like fire
because of the evil you have done—
burn with no-one to quench it.

Disaster From the North

⁵“Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem and say:
‘Sound the trumpet throughout the
land!’

Cry aloud and say:
‘Gather together!
Let us flee to the fortified cities!’

⁶Raise the signal to go to Zion!
Flee for safety without delay!
For I am bringing disaster from the
north,
even terrible destruction.”

⁷A lion has come out of his lair;
a destroyer of nations has set out.
He has left his place
to lay waste your land.
Your towns will lie in ruins
without inhabitant.

⁸So put on sackcloth,
lament and wail,
for the fierce anger of the LORD
has not turned away from us.

⁹“In that day,” declares the LORD,
“the king and the officials will lose
heart,

the priests will be horrified,
and the prophets will be appalled."

¹⁰Then I said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD, how completely you have deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'You will have peace,' when the sword is at our throats."

¹¹At that time this people and Jerusalem will be told, "A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert blows towards my people, but not to winnow or cleanse; ¹²a wind too strong for that comes from me.^a Now I pronounce my judgments against them."

¹³Look! He advances like the clouds, his chariots come like a whirlwind,
his horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us! We are ruined!

¹⁴O Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart and be saved.
How long will you harbour wicked
thoughts?

¹⁵A voice is announcing from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Ephraim.

¹⁶"Tell this to the nations,
proclaim it to Jerusalem:
'A besieging army is coming from a distant land,
raising a war cry against the cities
of Judah.

¹⁷They surround her like people
guarding a field,
because she has rebelled against
me,'"

declares the LORD.

¹⁸"Your own conduct and actions have brought this upon you.
This is your punishment.
How bitter it is!
How it pierces to the heart!"

¹⁹Oh, my anguish, my anguish!
I writhe in pain.
Oh, the agony of my heart!
My heart pounds within me,
I cannot keep silent.
For I have heard the sound of the
trumpet;

I have heard the battle cry.

²⁰Disaster follows disaster;
the whole land lies in ruins.
In an instant my tents are destroyed,
my shelter in a moment.

²¹How long must I see the battle standard
and hear the sound of the trumpet?

²²"My people are fools;
they do not know me.
They are senseless children;
they have no understanding.
They are skilled in doing evil;
they know not how to do good."

²³I looked at the earth,
and it was formless and empty;
and at the heavens,
and their light was gone.

²⁴I looked at the mountains,
and they were quaking;
all the hills were swaying.

²⁵I looked, and there were no
people;
every bird in the sky had flown
away.

²⁶I looked, and the fruitful land was a
desert;
all its towns lay in ruins
before the LORD, before his fierce
anger.

²⁷This is what the LORD says:

"The whole land will be ruined,
though I will not destroy it completely.

²⁸Therefore the earth will mourn
and the heavens above grow dark, because I have spoken and will not relent,
I have decided and will not turn
back."

²⁹At the sound of horsemen and archers
every town takes to flight.
Some go into the thickets;
some climb up among the rocks.
All the towns are deserted;
no-one lives in them.

^a12 Or comes at my command

³⁰What are you doing, O devastated one?
 Why dress yourself in scarlet and put on jewels of gold?
 Why shade your eyes with paint?
 You adorn yourself in vain.
 Your lovers despise you;
 they seek your life.

³¹I hear a cry as of a woman in labour,
 a groan as of one bearing her first
 child—
 the cry of the Daughter of Zion
 gasping for breath,
 stretching out her hands and
 saying,
 “Alas! I am fainting;
 my life is given over to murderers.”

Not One Is Upright

5 “Go up and down the streets of Jerusalem,
 look around and consider,
 search through her squares.

If you can find but one person who deals honestly and seeks the
 truth,
 I will forgive this city.

²Although they say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’
 still they are swearing falsely.”

³O LORD, do not your eyes look for
 truth?
 You struck them, but they felt no
 pain;
 you crushed them but they refused correction.

They made their faces harder than
 stone
 and refused to repent.

⁴I thought, “These are only the poor;
 they are foolish,
 for they do not know the way of the LORD,
 the requirements of their God.

⁵So I will go to the leaders and speak to them;
 surely they know the way of the LORD,
 the requirements of their God.”
 But with one accord they too had broken off the yoke
 and torn off the bonds.

⁶Therefore a lion from the forest will attack them,
 a wolf from the desert will ravage
 them,
 a leopard will lie in wait near their towns
 to tear to pieces any who venture
 out,
 for their rebellion is great and their backslidings many.

⁷“Why should I forgive you?
 Your children have forsaken me and sworn by gods that are not
 gods.

I supplied all their needs,
 yet they committed adultery and thronged to the houses of prostitutes.

⁸They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for another man's
 wife.

⁹Should I not punish them for this?”
 declares the LORD.

“Should I not avenge myself
 on such a nation as this?

¹⁰“Go through her vineyards and ravage them,
 but do not destroy them
 completely.

Strip off her branches,
 for these people do not belong to
 the LORD.

¹¹The house of Israel and the house of Judah
 have been utterly unfaithful to me,”
 declares the LORD

¹²They have lied about the LORD;
 they said, “He will do nothing!
 No harm will come to us;
 we will never see sword or famine.

¹³The prophets are but wind and the word is not in them;
 so let what they say be done to
 them.”

¹⁴Therefore this is what the LORD God
 Almighty says:

“Because the people have spoken
 these words,

I will make my words in your mouth
a fire
and these people the wood it consumes.

¹⁵O house of Israel," declares the
LORD,

"I am bringing a distant nation
against you—
an ancient and enduring nation,
a people whose language you do not know,
whose speech you do not understand.

¹⁶Their quivers are like an open grave;
all of them are mighty warriors.

¹⁷They will devour your harvests and
food,
devour your sons and daughters;
they will devour your flocks and
herds,
devour your vines and fig-trees.
With the sword they will destroy the fortified cities in which you trust.

¹⁸"Yet even in those days," declares
the LORD, "I will not destroy you completely. ¹⁹And when the people ask, 'Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?'
you will tell them, 'As you have forsaken me and served foreign gods in your own land, so now you will serve foreigners in a land not your own.'

²⁰"Announce this to the house of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah:

²¹Hear this, you foolish and senseless
people,
who have eyes but do not see,
who have ears but do not hear:

²²Should you not fear me?" declares the
LORD.

"Should you not tremble in my
presence?

I made the sand a boundary for the
sea,
an everlasting barrier it cannot cross.
The waves may roll, but they cannot
prevail;
they may roar, but they cannot cross it.

²³But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts;

they have turned aside and gone
away.

²⁴They do not say to themselves,
'Let us fear the LORD our God, who gives autumn and spring rains in season,
who assures us of the regular weeks
of harvest.'

²⁵Your wrongdoings have kept these
away;
your sins have deprived you of
good.

²⁶"Among my people are the wicked who lie in wait like those who snare
birds
and like those who set traps to catch
people.

²⁷Like cages full of birds,
their houses are full of deceit;
they have become rich and powerful ²⁸and have grown fat and sleek.

Their evil deeds have no limit;
they do not plead the case of the fatherless to win it,
they do not defend the rights of the
poor.

²⁹Should I not punish them for this?"
declares the LORD.

"Should I not avenge myself
on such a nation as this?

³⁰"A horrible and shocking thing
has happened in the land:

³¹The prophets prophesy lies,
the priests rule by their own authority,
and my people love it this way.
But what will you do in the end?

Jerusalem Under Siege

6 "Flee for safety, people of Benjamin!
Flee from Jerusalem!

Sound the trumpet in Tekoa!
Raise the signal over Beth Hakkerem!

For disaster looms out of the north,
even terrible destruction.

²I will destroy the Daughter of Zion,
so beautiful and delicate.

³Shepherds with their flocks will come against her;

they will pitch their tents round
her,
each of them tending their own portions."

4"Prepare for battle against her!
Arise, let us attack at noon!
But, alas, the daylight is fading,
and the shadows of evening grow
long.

5So arise, let us attack at night and destroy her fortresses!"

6This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Cut down the trees
and build siege ramps against
Jerusalem.

This city must be punished;
it is filled with oppression.

7As a well pours out its water,
so she pours out her wickedness.
Violence and destruction resound in
her;
her sickness and wounds are ever before me.

8Take warning, O Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you and make your land desolate
so that no-one can live in it."

9This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Let them glean the remnant of Israel
as thoroughly as a vine;
pass your hand over the branches
again,
like one gathering grapes."

10To whom can I speak and give warning?

Who will listen to me?

Their ears are closed^a
so that they cannot hear.

The word of the LORD is offensive to
them;
they find no pleasure in it.

11But I am full of the wrath of the LORD,
and I cannot hold it in.

"Pour it out on the children in the street

and on the youths gathered
together;
both husband and wife will be caught
in it,
and the old, those weighed down
with years.

12Their houses will be turned over to
others,
together with their fields and their wives,
when I stretch out my hand against those who live in the land,"
declares the LORD.

13"From the least to the greatest,
all are greedy for gain;
prophets and priests alike,
all practise deceit.

14They dress the wound of my people
as though it were not serious.
'Peace, peace,' they say,
when there is no peace.

15Are they ashamed of their loathsome
conduct?
No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.
So they will fall among the fallen;
they will be brought down when I punish them,"
says the LORD.

16This is what the LORD says:

"Stand at the crossroads and look;
ask for the ancient paths,
ask where the good way is, and walk
in it,
and you will find rest for your souls.
But you said, 'We will not walk in
it.'

17I appointed watchmen over you and said,
'Listen to the sound of the
trumpet!'

But you said, 'We will not listen.'
18Therefore hear, O nations;
observe, O witnesses,
what will happen to them.

19Hear, O earth:
I am bringing disaster on this people,
the fruit of their schemes,
because they have not listened to my
words

^a10 Hebrew uncircumcised

- and have rejected my law.
 20 What do I care about incense from Sheba
 or sweet calamus from a distant
 land?
 Your burnt offerings are not acceptable;
 your sacrifices do not please me.”
 21 Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“I will put obstacles before this
 people.
 Parents and children alike will stumble over them;
 neighbours and friends will
 perish.”

22 This is what the LORD says:

- “Look, an army is coming from the land of the north;
 a great nation is being stirred up
 from the ends of the earth.
 23 They are armed with bow and spear;
 they are cruel and show no mercy.
 They sound like the roaring sea
 as they ride on their horses;
 they come like men in battle
 formation
 to attack you, O Daughter of Zion.”

- 24 We have heard reports about them,
 and our hands hang limp.
 Anguish has gripped us,
 pain like that of a woman in labour.

- 25 Do not go out to the fields
 or walk on the roads,
 for the enemy has a sword,
 and there is terror on every side.

- 26 O my people, put on sackcloth
 and roll in ashes;
 mourn with bitter wailing
 as for an only child,
 for suddenly the destroyer
 will come upon us.

- 27 “I have made you a tester of metals
 and my people the ore,
 that you may observe
 and test their ways.

- 28 They are all hardened rebels,
 going about to slander.
 They are bronze and iron;
 they all act corruptly.
 29 The bellows blow fiercely
 to burn away the lead with fire,
 but the refining goes on in vain;
 the wicked are not purged out.
 30 They are called rejected silver,
 because the LORD has rejected them.”

False Religion Worthless

7 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“Stand at the gate of the LORD’s house and there proclaim this
 message:

“Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the LORD. ³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways and your actions, and I will let you live in this place. ⁴Do not trust in deceptive words and say, “This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!” ⁵If you really change your ways and your actions and deal with each other justly, ⁶if you do not oppress the alien, the fatherless or the widow and do not shed innocent blood in this place, and if you do not follow other gods to your own harm, ⁷then I will let you live in this place, in the land I gave to your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁸But look, you are trusting in deceptive words that are worthless.

⁹“Will you steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury,^a burn incense to Baal and follow other gods you have not known,¹⁰ and then come and stand before me in this house, which bears my Name, and say, “We are safe”—safe to do all these detestable things? ¹¹Has this house, which bears my Name, become a den of robbers to you? But I have been watching!
 declares the LORD.

¹²“Go now to the place in Shiloh
 where I first made a dwelling for my Name, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of my people Israel.
¹³While you were doing all these things,

^a Or and swear by false gods

declares the LORD, I spoke to you again and again, but you did not listen; I called you, but you did not answer. ¹⁴Therefore, what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house that bears my Name, the temple you trust in, the place I gave to you and your ancestors. ¹⁵I will thrust you from my presence, just as I did all your fellow Israelites, the people of Ephraim.'

¹⁶'So do not pray for this people nor offer any plea or petition for them; do not plead with me, for I will not listen to you. ¹⁷Do you not see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough and make cakes of bread for the Queen of Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger. ¹⁹But am I the one they are provoking?' declares the LORD. Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?

²⁰'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: My anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on people and animals, on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground, and it will burn and not be quenched.

²¹'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go ahead, add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves! ²²For when I brought your ancestors out of Egypt and spoke to them, I did not just give them commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices, ²³but I gave them this command: Obey me, and I will be your God and you will be my people. Walk in all the ways I command you, that it may go well with you. ²⁴But they did not listen or pay attention; instead, they followed the stubborn inclinations of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward. ²⁵From the time your ancestors left Egypt until now, day after day, again and again I sent you my servants the prophets. ²⁶But they did not listen to me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their ancestors.'

²⁷'When you tell them all this, they will not listen to you; when you call to them, they will not answer. ²⁸Therefore say to them, 'This is the nation that has not obeyed the LORD its God or responded to correction. Truth has perished; it has vanished from their lips. ²⁹Cut off your hair and throw it away; take up a lament on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned this generation that is under his wrath.

The Valley of Slaughter

³⁰'The people of Judah have done evil in my eyes, declares the LORD. They have set up their detestable idols in the house that bears my Name and have defiled it. ³¹They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire—something I did not command, nor did it enter my mind. ³²So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call it Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter, for they will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room. ³³Then the carcasses of this people will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no-one to frighten them away. ³⁴I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride and bridegroom in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become desolate.

8 'At that time, declares the LORD, the bones of the kings and officials of Judah, the bones of the priests and prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be removed from their graves. ²They will be exposed to the sun and the moon and all the stars of the heavens, which they have loved and served and which they have followed and consulted and worshipped. They will not be gathered up or buried, but will be like refuse lying on the ground. ³Wherever I banish them, all the survivors of this evil nation will prefer death to life, declares the LORD Almighty.'

Sin and Punishment

⁴'Say to them, 'This is what the LORD says:

“When people fall down, do they not get up?

When people turn away, do they not return?

⁵Why then have these people turned away?

Why does Jerusalem always turn away?

They cling to deceit;
they refuse to return.

⁶I have listened attentively,
but they do not say what is right.

None of them repent of their wickedness,
saying, “What have I done?”

They each pursue their own course
like a horse charging into battle.

⁷Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons,
and the dove, the swift and the thrush
observe the time of their migration.
But my people do not know
the requirements of the LORD.

⁸“How can you say, “We are wise,
for we have the law of the LORD,”
when actually the lying pen of the scribes has handled it falsely?

⁹The wise will be put to shame;
they will be dismayed and trapped.
Since they have rejected the word of the LORD,
what kind of wisdom do they have?

¹⁰Therefore I will give their wives to other men
and their fields to new owners.
From the least to the greatest,
all are greedy for gain;
prophets and priests alike,
all practise deceit.

¹¹They dress the wound of my people
as though it were not serious.

“Peace, peace,” they say,
when there is no peace.

¹²Are they ashamed of their loathsome
conduct?

No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.

So they will fall among the fallen;

they will be brought down when they are punished,
says the LORD.

¹³“I will take away their harvest,
declares the LORD.

There will be no grapes on the vine.
There will be no figs on the tree,
and their leaves will wither.
What I have given them will be taken from them.”^a ¹⁴“Why are we sitting here?

Gather together!

Let us flee to the fortified cities
and perish there!
For the LORD our God has doomed us
to perish
and given us poisoned water to drink,
because we have sinned against
him.

¹⁵We hoped for peace
but no good has come,
for a time of healing
but there was only terror.

¹⁶The snorting of the enemy’s horses
is heard from Dan;
at the neighing of their stallions
the whole land trembles.
They have come to devour
the land and everything in it,
the city and all who live there.”

¹⁷“See, I will send venomous snakes
among you,
vipers that cannot be charmed,
and they will bite you,”
declares the LORD.

¹⁸O my Comforter^b in sorrow,
my heart is faint within me.

¹⁹Listen to the cry of my people
from a land far away:
“Is the LORD not in Zion?
Is her King no longer there?”

“Why have they provoked me to anger with their images,
with their worthless foreign
idols?”

^a13 The meaning of the Hebrew for this sentence is uncertain.

^b18 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

²⁰"The harvest is past,
the summer has ended,
and we are not saved."

²¹Since my people are crushed, I am
crushed;

I mourn, and horror grips me.

²²Is there no balm in Gilead?

Is there no physician there?

Why then is there no healing
for the wound of my people?

9 ¹Oh, that my head were a spring of
water

and my eyes a fountain of tears!

I would weep day and night
for the slain of my people.

²Oh, that I had in the desert
a lodging place for travellers,
so that I might leave my people
and go away from them;
for they are all adulterers,
a crowd of unfaithful people.

³"They make ready their tongue
like a bow, to shoot lies;

it is not by truth

that they triumph^a in the land.

They go from one sin to another;
they do not acknowledge me."

declares the LORD.

⁴"Beware of your friends;

do not trust your own relatives.

For every one of them is a deceiver,^b and every friend a slanderer.

⁵Friend deceives friend,

and no-one speaks the truth.

They have taught their tongues to lie;
they weary themselves with sinning.

⁶You^c live in the midst of deception;
in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge me,"

declares the LORD.

⁷Therefore this is what the LORD
Almighty says:

"See, I will refine and test them,
for what else can I do
because of the sin of my people?

⁸Their tongue is a deadly arrow;

it speaks with deceit.

With their mouths they all speak
cordially to their neighbours, but in their hearts they set traps for
them.

⁹Should I not punish them for this?"
declares the LORD.

"Should I not avenge myself
on such a nation as this?"

¹⁰I will weep and wail for the mountains and take up a lament concerning the desert pastures.

They are desolate and untravelled,
and the lowing of cattle is not heard.
The birds of the air have fled and the animals are gone.

¹¹"I will make Jerusalem a heap of
ruins,
a haunt of jackals;
and I will lay waste the towns of Judah
so that no-one can live there."

¹²Who is wise enough to understand this? Who has been instructed by the LORD and can explain it? Why has the land been ruined and laid waste like a desert that no-one can cross?

¹³The LORD said, "It is because they have forsaken my law, which I set before them; they have not obeyed me or followed my law. ¹⁴Instead, they have followed the stubbornness of their hearts;
they have followed the Baals, as their ancestors taught them." ¹⁵Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "See, I will make this people eat bitter food and drink poisoned water."

¹⁶I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known, and I will pursue them with the sword until I have destroyed them."

¹⁷This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Consider now! Call for the wailing women to come;
send for the most skilful of them.

¹⁸Let them come quickly and wail over us

^a Or lies; / they are not valiant for truth

^b Or a deceiving Jacob

^c That is, Jeremiah (the Hebrew is singular)

till our eyes overflow with tears and water streams from our eyelids.

¹⁹The sound of wailing is heard from Zion:

'How ruined we are!
How great is our shame!
We must leave our land
because our houses are in ruins.' "

²⁰Now, O women, hear the word of the LORD;
open your ears to the words of his
mouth.

Teach your daughters how to wail;
teach one another a lament.

²¹Death has climbed in through our windows
and has entered our fortresses;
it has cut off the children from the streets
and the youths from the public squares.

²²Say, "This is what the LORD declares:

" 'Human corpses will lie
like refuse on the open field,
like cut corn behind the reaper,
with no-one to gather them.' "

²³This is what the LORD says:

"Let not the wise boast of their wisdom
or the strong boast of their strength
or the rich boast of their riches,

²⁴but let those who boast about
this:
that they understand and know me,
that I am the LORD, who exercises
kindness,
justice and righteousness on earth,
for in these I delight,"
declares the LORD.

²⁵"The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh—²⁶Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab and all who live in the desert in distant places.^d For all these nations are really uncircumcised, and even the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart."

God and Idols

10 Hear what the LORD says to you, O house of Israel. ²This is what the LORD says:

"Do not learn the ways of the nations
or be terrified by signs in the sky, though the nations are terrified by
them.

³For the customs of the peoples are
worthless;
they cut a tree out of the forest,
and a skilled worker shapes it with a chisel.

⁴They adorn it with silver and gold;
they fasten it with hammer and nails
so that it will not totter.

⁵Like a scarecrow in a melon patch,
their idols cannot speak;
they must be carried
because they cannot walk.

Do not fear them;
they can do no harm
nor can they do any good."

⁶No-one is like you, O LORD;
you are great,
and your name is mighty in power.

⁷Who should not revere you,
O King of the nations?
This is your due.

Among all the wise counsellors of the
nations
and in all their kingdoms,
there is no-one like you.

⁸They are all senseless and foolish;
they are taught by worthless
wooden idols.

⁹Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish
and gold from Uphaz.

What the goldsmith and engraver
have made
is then dressed in blue and purple—
all made by skilled workers.

^{d26} Or desert and who clip the hair by their foreheads

¹⁰But the LORD is the true God;
he is the living God, the eternal
King.
When he is angry, the earth trembles;
the nations cannot endure his wrath.

¹¹"Tell them this: 'These gods, who did not make the heavens and the earth, will perish from the earth and from under the heavens.'"^a

¹²But God made the earth by his power;
he founded the world by his
wisdom
and stretched out the heavens by
his understanding.

¹³When he thunders, the waters in the heavens roar;
he makes clouds rise from the ends
of the earth.
He sends lightning with the rain
and brings out the wind from his
storehouses.

¹⁴Everyone is senseless and without
knowledge;
all goldsmiths are shamed by their
idols.

Their images are a fraud;
they have no breath in them.

¹⁵They are worthless, the objects of
mockery;
when their judgment comes, they
will perish.

¹⁶He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these,
for he is the Maker of all things,
including Israel, the tribe of his
inheritance —
the LORD Almighty is his name.

Coming Destruction

¹⁷Gather up your belongings to leave
the land,
you who live under siege.

¹⁸For this is what the LORD says:
"At this time I will hurl out
those who live in this land;
I will bring distress on them
so that they may be captured."

¹⁹Woe to me because of my injury!
My wound is incurable!
Yet I said to myself,
"This is my sickness, and I must endure it."

²⁰My tent is destroyed;
all its ropes are snapped.
My children are gone from me and are
no more;
no-one is left now to pitch my tent
or to set up my shelter.

²¹The shepherds are senseless
and do not enquire of the LORD;
so they do not prosper
and all their flock is scattered.

²²Listen! The report is coming—a great commotion from the land of the north!
It will make the towns of Judah
desolate,
a haunt of jackals.

Jeremiah's Prayer

²³I know, O LORD, that people's lives are not their own;
it is not for them to direct their steps.

²⁴Correct me, LORD, but only with
justice—
not in your anger,
lest you reduce me to nothing.

²⁵Pour out your wrath on the nations
that do not acknowledge you,
on the peoples who do not call on
your name.

For they have devoured Jacob;
they have devoured him
completely
and destroyed his homeland.

The Covenant Is Broken

11 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Listen to the terms of this covenant and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem. ³Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Cursed is anyone who does not obey the terms of this covenant—⁴the terms I commanded your ancestors when I brought them out of ^a11 The text of this verse is in Aramaic.

Egypt, out of the iron-smelting furnace.' I said, 'Obey me and do everything I command you, and you will be my people, and I will be your God. ⁵Then I will fulfil the oath I swore to your ancestors, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey—the land you possess today."

I answered, "Amen, LORD."

⁶The LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the terms of this covenant and follow them. ⁷From the time I brought your ancestors up from Egypt until today, I warned them again and again, saying, "Obey me." ⁸But they did not listen or pay attention; instead, they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts. So I brought on them all the curses of the covenant I had commanded them to follow but that they did not keep.'"

⁹Then the LORD said to me, "There is a conspiracy among the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem. ¹⁰They have returned to the sins of their ancestors who refused to listen to my words. They have followed other gods to serve them. Both the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant I made with their ancestors. ¹¹Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I will bring on them a disaster they cannot escape. Although they cry out to me, I will not listen to them. ¹²The towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense, but they will not help them at all when disaster strikes. ¹³You have as many gods as you have towns, O Judah; and the altars you have set up to burn incense to that shameful god Baal are as many as the streets of Jerusalem.'"

¹⁴"Do not pray for this people nor offer any plea or petition for them, because I will not listen when they call to me in the time of their distress.

¹⁵"What is my beloved doing in my temple
as she works out her evil schemes with many?

Can consecrated meat avert ¹your punishment?

When you engage in your wickedness,
then you rejoice."⁴

¹⁶The LORD called you a thriving olive tree

with fruit beautiful in form.

But with the roar of a mighty storm
he will set it on fire,
and its branches will be broken.

¹⁷ The LORD Almighty, who planted you, has decreed disaster for you, because the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done evil and provoked me to anger by burning incense to Baal.

Plot Against Jeremiah

¹⁸Because the LORD revealed their plot to me, I knew it, for at that time he showed me what they were doing. ¹⁹I had been like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter; I did not realise that they had plotted against me, saying,

"Let us destroy the tree and its fruit;
let us cut him off from the land of
the living,
that his name be remembered no
more."

²⁰But, O LORD Almighty, you who judge righteously and test the heart and mind,
let me see your vengeance upon them,
for to you I have committed my
cause.

²¹"Therefore this is what the LORD says about the people of Anathoth who are seeking your life and saying, 'Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD or you will die by our hands'—²²therefore this is what the LORD Almighty says: 'I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters by famine. ²³Not even a remnant will be left to them, because I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.'"

Jeremiah's Complaint

12 You are always righteous, O LORD,
 when I bring a case before you.
 Yet I would speak with you about your justice:
 Why does the way of the wicked
 prosper?
 Why do all the faithless live at ease?
²You have planted them, and they have taken root;
 they grow and bear fruit.
 You are always on their lips
 but far from their hearts.
³Yet you know me, O LORD;
 you see me and test my thoughts about you.
 Drag them off like sheep to be butchered!
 Set them apart for the day of
 slaughter!
⁴How long will the land lie parched^a and the grass in every field be withered?
 Because those who live in it are
 wicked,
 the animals and birds have perished.
 Moreover, the people are saying,
 "He will not see what happens to
 us."

God's Answer

⁵"If you have raced with people on foot
 and they have worn you out,
 how can you compete with horses?
 If you stumble in safe country,^b
 how will you manage in the thickets by^c the Jordan?
⁶Your relatives, members of your own family—
 even they have betrayed you;
 they have raised a loud cry against
 you.
 Do not trust them,
 though they speak well of you.
⁷"I will forsake my house,
 abandon my inheritance;

I will give the one I love
 into the hands of her enemies.
⁸My inheritance has become to me
 like a lion in the forest.
 She roars at me;
 therefore I hate her.
⁹Has not my inheritance become to me like a speckled bird of prey that other birds of prey surround
 and attack?
 Go and gather all the wild beasts;
 bring them to devour.
¹⁰Many shepherds will ruin my vineyard and trample down my field;
 they will turn my pleasant field
 into a desolate wasteland.
¹¹It will be made a wasteland,
 parched and desolate before me;
 the whole land will be laid waste
 because there is no-one who cares.
¹²Over all the barren heights in the desert
 destroyers will swarm,
 for the sword of the LORD will devour from one end of the land to the other;
 no-one will be safe.
¹³They will sow wheat but reap thorns;
 they will wear themselves out but gain nothing.
 So bear the shame of your harvest
 because of the LORD's fierce
 anger."

¹⁴This is what the LORD says: "As for all my wicked neighbours who seize the inheritance I gave to my people Israel, I will uproot them from their lands and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵But after I uproot them, I will again have compassion and will bring all of them back to their own inheritance and their own country. ¹⁶And if they learn well the ways of my people and swear by my name, saying, 'As surely as the LORD lives'—even as they once taught my people to swear by Baal—then they will be established among my people. ¹⁷But if any nation does not listen, I will completely uproot and destroy it," declares
 the LORD.

A Linen Belt

13 This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and buy a linen belt and put it round your waist, but do not let it touch water."² So I bought a belt, as the LORD directed, and put it round my waist.

³ Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: ⁴ "Take the belt you bought and are wearing round your waist, and go now to Perath^a and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks."⁵ So I went and hid it at Perath, as the LORD told me.

⁶ Many days later the LORD said to me, "Go now to Perath and get the belt I told you to hide there."⁷ So I went to Perath and dug up the belt and took it from the place where I had hidden it, but now it was ruined and completely useless.

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹ "This is what the LORD says: 'In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ These wicked people, who refuse to listen to my words, who follow the stubbornness of their hearts and go after other gods to serve and worship them, will be like this belt—completely useless! ¹¹ For as a belt is bound round someone's waist, so I bound the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to me,' declares the LORD, 'to be my people for my renown and praise and honour. But they have not listened.'

Wineskins

¹² "Say to them: 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin should be filled with wine.' And if they say to you, 'Don't we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine?' ¹³ then tell them, 'This is what the LORD says: I am going to fill with drunkenness all who live in this land, including the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets and all those living in Jerusalem. ¹⁴ I will smash them one against the other, parents and children alike, declares the LORD. I will allow no pity or mercy or compassion to keep me from destroying them.'

Threat of Captivity

¹⁵ Hear and pay attention, do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken.

¹⁶ Give glory to the LORD your God before he brings the darkness, before your feet stumble on the darkening hills.

You hope for light, but he will turn it to thick darkness and change it to deep gloom.

¹⁷ But if you do not listen, I will weep in secret because of your pride; my eyes will weep bitterly, overflowing with tears, because the LORD's flock will be taken captive.

¹⁸ Say to the king and to the queen mother, "Come down from your thrones, for your glorious crowns will fall from your heads."

¹⁹ The cities in the Negev will be shut up, and there will be no-one to open them.

All Judah will be carried into exile, carried completely away.

²⁰ Lift up your eyes and see those who are coming from the north. Where is the flock that was entrusted to you, the sheep of which you boasted?

²¹ What will you say when the LORD sets over you those you cultivated as your special allies?

Will not pain grip you like that of a woman in labour?

²² And if you ask yourself, "Why has this happened to me?"—it is because of your many sins that your skirts have been torn off and your body ill-treated.

²³ Can Ethiopians^b change their skin or leopards their spots?

Neither can you do good who are accustomed to doing evil.

you,"

"because you have forgotten me
and trusted in false gods.
²⁶I will pull up your skirts over your face that your shame may be seen—²⁷your adulteries and lustful neighings,
your shameless prostitution!
I have seen your detestable acts
on the hills and in the fields.
Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
How long will you be unclean?"

Drought, Famine, Sword

14 This is the word of the LORD to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

- ²"Judah mourns,
her cities languish;
they wait for the land,
and a cry goes up from Jerusalem.
³The nobles send their servants for
water;
they go to the cisterns
but find no water.
They return with their jars unfilled;
dismayed and despairing,
they cover their heads.
⁴The ground is cracked
because there is no rain in the land;
the farmers are dismayed
and cover their heads.
⁵Even the doe in the field deserts her newborn fawn
because there is no grass.
⁶Wild donkeys stand on the barren
heights
and pant like jackals;
their eyesight fails
for lack of pasture."
⁷Although our sins testify against us, O LORD, do something for the sake of your name.
For our backsliding is great;
we have sinned against you.

- ⁸O Hope of Israel,
its Saviour in times of distress,
why are you like a stranger in the land,
like a traveller who stays only a
night?
⁹Why are you like someone taken by surprise,
like a warrior powerless to save?
You are among us, O LORD,
and we bear your name;
do not forsake us!

¹⁰This is what the LORD says about this
people:

- "They greatly love to wander;
they do not restrain their feet.
So the LORD does not accept them;
he will now remember their
wickedness
and punish them for their sins."

¹¹Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for the well-being of this people.
¹²Although they fast, I will not listen to their cry; though they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead, I will destroy them with the sword, famine and plague."

¹³But I said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD, the prophets keep telling them, 'You will not see the sword or suffer famine. Indeed, I will give you lasting peace in this place.'"

¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, "The prophets are prophesying lies in my name.
I have not sent them or appointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to you false visions, divinations, idolatries^a and the delusions of their own minds. ¹⁵Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the prophets who are prophesying in my name: I did not send them,
yet they are saying, 'No sword or famine will touch this land.' Those same prophets will perish by sword and famine. ¹⁶And
the people they are prophesying to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and sword. There will be no-one to bury them or their wives, their sons or their daughters. I will pour out on them the calamity they deserve.

^a14 Or visions, worthless divinations

¹⁷"Speak this word to them:

"Let my eyes overflow with tears night and day without ceasing;
for my virgin daughter—my
people—

has suffered a grievous wound,
a crushing blow.

¹⁸If I go into the country,
I see those slain by the sword;
if I go into the city,
I see the ravages of famine.
Both prophet and priest
have gone to a land they know not."

¹⁹Have you rejected Judah completely?
Do you despise Zion?

Why have you afflicted us
so that we cannot be healed?
We hoped for peace
but no good has come,
for a time of healing
but there is only terror.

²⁰O LORD, we acknowledge our
wickedness
and the guilt of our ancestors;
we have indeed sinned against you.

²¹For the sake of your name do not despise us;
do not dishonour your glorious throne.

Remember your covenant with us
and do not break it.

²²Do any of the worthless idols of the nations bring rain?

Do the skies themselves send down showers?

No, it is you, O LORD our God.
Therefore our hope is in you,
for you are the one who does all
this.

15 Then the LORD said to me: "Even if Moses and Samuel were to stand before me, my heart would not go out to this people. Send them away from my presence! Let them go! ²And if they ask you, 'Where shall we go?' tell them, 'This is what the LORD says:

"Those destined for death, to death;
those for the sword, to the sword;

those for starvation, to starvation;
those for captivity, to captivity.'

³"I will send four kinds of destroyers against them," declares the LORD, "the sword to kill and the dogs to drag away and the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. ⁴I will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.

⁵"Who will have pity on you,
O Jerusalem?
Who will mourn for you?
Who will stop to ask how you are?
⁶You have rejected me," declares the
LORD.

"You keep on backsliding.
So I will lay hands on you and destroy
you;

I can no longer show compassion.

⁷I will winnow them with a winnowing fork
at the city gates of the land.

I will bring bereavement and destruction on my people,
for they have not changed their
ways.

⁸I will make their widows more numerous
than the sand of the sea.
At midday I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of their young
men;

suddenly I will bring down on them
anguish and terror.

⁹The mother of seven will grow faint and breathe her last.
Her sun will set while it is still day;
she will be disgraced and humiliated.

I will put the survivors to the sword
before their enemies,"
declares the LORD.

¹⁰Alas, my mother, that you gave me birth,
a man with whom the whole land
strives and contends!
I have neither lent nor borrowed,
yet everyone curses me.

- ¹¹The LORD said,
 "Surely I will deliver you for a good purpose;
 surely I will make your enemies plead with you
 in times of disaster and times of
 distress.
- ¹²"Can anyone break iron—
 iron from the north—or bronze?
- ¹³Your wealth and your treasures
 I will give as plunder, without charge,
 because of all your sins
 throughout your country.
- ¹⁴I will enslave you to your enemies
 in^a a land you do not know,
 for my anger will kindle a fire that will burn against you."
- ¹⁵You understand, O LORD;
 remember me and care for me.
 Avenge me on my persecutors.
 You are long-suffering—do not take me away;
 think of how I suffer reproach for your sake.
- ¹⁶When your words came, I ate them;
 they were my joy and my heart's
 delight,
 for I bear your name,
 O LORD God Almighty.
- ¹⁷I never sat in the company of revellers,
 never made merry with them;
 I sat alone because your hand was on
 me
 and you had filled me with indignation.
- ¹⁸Why is my pain unending and my wound grievous and incurable?
 Will you be to me like a deceptive
 brook,
 like a spring that fails?
- ¹⁹Therefore this is what the LORD says:
- "If you repent, I will restore you that you may serve me;

if you utter worthy, not worthless,
 words,
 you will be my spokesman.

Let this people turn to you,
 but you must not turn to them.

- ²⁰I will make you a wall to this people,
 a fortified wall of bronze;
 they will fight against you
 but will not overcome you,
 for I am with you
 to rescue and save you."

declares the LORD.

- ²¹"I will save you from the hands of the
 wicked
 and redeem you from the grasp of the cruel."

Day of Disaster

16 Then the word of the LORD came to me: ²"You must not marry and have sons or daughters in this place." ³For this is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this land and about the women who are their mothers and the men who are their fathers: ⁴"They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried but will be like refuse lying on the ground. They will perish by sword and famine, and their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth."

⁵For this is what the LORD says: "Do not enter a house where there is a funeral meal; do not go to mourn or show sympathy, because I have withdrawn my blessing, my love and my pity from this people," declares the LORD. ⁶"Both high and low will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned, nor will people cut themselves or shave their heads for them. ⁷No-one will offer food to comfort those who mourn for the dead—not even for a father or a mother—nor will anyone give them a drink to console them.

⁸"And do not enter a house where there is feasting and sit down to eat and drink. ⁹For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Before your eyes and in your days I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride and bridegroom in this place.

¹⁰“When you tell these people all this and they ask you, ‘Why has the LORD decreed such a great disaster against us? What wrong have we done? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?’ ¹¹then say to them, ‘It is because your ancestors forsook me,’ declares the LORD, ‘and followed other gods and served and worshipped them. They forsook me and did not keep my law. ¹²But you have behaved more wickedly than your ancestors. See how all of you are following the stubbornness of your evil hearts instead of obeying me. ¹³So I will throw you out of this land into a land neither you nor your ancestors have known, and there you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favour.’

¹⁴“However, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when people will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,’ ¹⁵but they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.’ For I will restore them to the land I gave to their ancestors.

¹⁶“But now I will send for many fishers,” declares the LORD, “and they will catch them. After that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down on every mountain and hill and from the crevices of the rocks. ¹⁷My eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from me, nor is their sin concealed from my eyes. ¹⁸I will repay them double for their wickedness and their sin, because they have defiled my land with the lifeless forms of their vile images and have filled my inheritance with their detestable idols.”

¹⁹O LORD, my strength and my fortress,
my refuge in time of distress,
to you the nations will come from the ends of the earth and say, “Our ancestors possessed nothing but false gods,
worthless idols that did them no
good.

²⁰Do people make their own gods?
Yes, but they are not gods!”

²¹“Therefore I will teach them—this time I will teach them
my power and might.
Then they will know that my name is the LORD.

17 “Judah’s sin is engraved with an inscribed with a flint point,

the inheritance I gave you.
I will enslave you to your
enemies

in a land you do not know,
for you have kindled my anger,
and it will burn for ever.”

⁵This is what the LORD says:

“Cursed are those who trust in mortals,
who depend on flesh for their
strength
and whose hearts turn away from
the LORD.

⁶They will be like a bush in the wastelands;
they will not see prosperity when it comes.

They will dwell in the parched places
of the desert,
in a salt land where no-one lives.

Who can understand it?

¹⁰"I the LORD search the heart to reward everyone according to their conduct,

according to what their deeds deserve."

¹¹Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay are those who gain riches by unjust means.

When their lives are half gone, their riches will desert them,
and in the end they will prove to be fools.

¹²A glorious throne, exalted from the beginning,
is the place of our sanctuary.

¹³O LORD, the hope of Israel,
all who forsake you will be put to shame.

Those who turn away from you will be written in the dust
because they have forsaken the LORD,
the spring of living water.

¹⁴Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed;
save me and I shall be saved,
for you are the one I praise.

¹⁵They keep saying to me,
"Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it now be fulfilled!"

¹⁶I have not run away from being your shepherd;
you know I have not desired the day of despair.
What passes my lips is open before you.

¹⁷Do not be a terror to me;
you are my refuge in the day of disaster.

¹⁸Let my persecutors be put to shame,
but keep me from shame;
let them be terrified,
but keep me from terror.
Bring on them the day of disaster;
destroy them with double destruction.

Keeping the Sabbath Holy

¹⁹This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and stand at the gate of the people, through which the kings of Judah go in and out; stand also at all the other gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰Say to them, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and all people of Judah and everyone living in Jerusalem who come through these gates.

²¹This is what the LORD says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.

²²Do not bring a load out of your houses or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your ancestors. ²³Yet they did not listen or pay attention; they were stiff-necked and would not listen or respond to discipline. ²⁴But if you are careful to obey me, declares the LORD, and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it, ²⁵then kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this city with their officials. They and their officials will come riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited for ever. ²⁶People will come from the towns of Judah and the villages around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin and the western foothills, from the hill country and the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings, incense and thank-offerings to the house of the LORD. ²⁷But if you do not obey me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire in the gates of Jerusalem that will consume her fortresses.'"

At the Potter's House

18 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give you my message." ³So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw him working at the wheel. ⁴But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him.

⁵Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁶"O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?" declares the LORD. ⁷"Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.

⁸If at any time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down and destroyed, ⁹and if that nation I warned repents of its evil, then I will relent and not inflict on it the disaster I had planned. ¹⁰And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built up and planted, ¹¹and if it does evil in my sight and does not obey me, then I will reconsider the good I had intended to do for it.

¹²"Now therefore say to the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says: Look! I am preparing a disaster for you and devising a plan against you. So turn from your evil ways, each one of you, and reform your ways and your actions.' ¹³But they will reply, 'It's no use. We will continue with our own plans; we will all follow the stubbornness of our evil hearts.'"

¹⁴Therefore this is what the LORD says:

"Enquire among the nations:
Who has ever heard anything like
this?"

A most horrible thing has been done
by Virgin Israel.

¹⁵Does the snow of Lebanon
ever vanish from its rocky slopes?
Do its cool waters from distant sources

ever cease to flow?^a ¹⁶Yet my people have forgotten me;

they burn incense to worthless idols,
which made them stumble in their
ways

and in the ancient paths.

They made them walk in bypaths
and on roads not built up.

¹⁷Their land will be laid waste,
an object of lasting scorn;
all who pass by will be appalled
and will shake their heads.

¹⁸Like a wind from the east,
I will scatter them before their
enemies;

I will show them my back and not my face
in the day of their disaster."

¹⁹They said, "Come, let's make plans against Jeremiah; for the teaching of the law by the priest will not be lost, nor will counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophets. So come, let's attack him with our tongues and pay no attention to anything he says."

²⁰Listen to me, O LORD;
hear what my accusers are saying!

²¹Should good be repaid with evil?
Yet they have dug a pit for me.

Remember that I stood before you and spoke on their behalf to turn your wrath away from them.

²²So give their children over to famine;
hand them over to the power of the
sword.

Let their wives be made childless and
widows;
let their men be put to death,
their young men slain by the sword
in battle.

²³Let a cry be heard from their houses
when you suddenly bring invaders
against them,
for they have dug a pit to capture me
and have hidden snares for my feet.

²⁴But you know, O LORD,
all their plots to kill me.
Do not forgive their crimes or blot out their sins from your sight.

^a14 The meaning of the Hebrew for this sentence is uncertain.

Let them be overthrown before you;
deal with them in the time of your
anger.

19 This is what the LORD says: "Go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take along some of the elders of the people and of the priests² and go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. There proclaim the words I tell you,³ and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Listen! I am going to bring a disaster on this place that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle.⁴ For they have forsaken me and made this a place of foreign gods; they have burned sacrifices in it to gods that neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah ever knew, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent.⁵ They have built the high places of Baal to burn their children in the fire as offerings to Baal—something I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind.⁶ So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

⁷"In this place I will ruin^a the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, at the hands of those who seek their lives, and I will give their carcasses as food to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.⁸ I will devastate this city and make it an object of scorn; all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff because of all its wounds.⁹ I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters, and they will eat one another's flesh during the stress of the siege imposed on them by the enemies who seek their lives."

dead in Topheth until there is no more room.¹² This is what I will do to this place and to those who live here, declares the LORD. I will make this city like Topheth.¹³ The houses in Jerusalem and those of the kings of Judah will be defiled like this place, Topheth—all the houses where they burned incense on the roofs to all the starry hosts and poured out drink offerings to other gods.'"

¹⁴Jeremiah then returned from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court of the LORD's temple and said to all the people.¹⁵"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'Listen! I am going to bring on this city and the villages around it every disaster I pronounced against them, because they were stiff-necked and would not listen to my words.'"

Jeremiah and Pashhur

20 When the priest Pashhur son of Immer, the chief officer in the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things,² he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin at the LORD's temple.³ The next day, when Pashhur released him from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name for you is not Pashhur, but Magor-Missabib.^a ⁴For this is what the LORD says: 'I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; with your own eyes you will see them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will hand all Judah over to the king of Babylon, who will carry them away to Babylon or put them to the sword.⁵ I will hand over to their enemies all the wealth of this city—all its products, all its valuables and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. They will take it away as plunder and carry it off to Babylon.⁶ And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into exile to Babylon. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.'"

Jeremiah's Complaint

⁷O LORD, you deceived^b me, and I was deceived;^b

you overpowered me and prevailed.
I am ridiculed all day long;
everyone mocks me.

⁸Whenever I speak, I cry out proclaiming violence and destruction.

So the word of the LORD has brought me insult and reproach all day long.

⁹But if I say, "I will not mention him or speak any more in his name,"
his word is in my heart like a fire,
a fire shut up in my bones.

I am weary of holding it in;
indeed, I cannot.

¹⁰I hear many whispering,
"Terror on every side!
Report him! Let's report him!"

All my friends
are waiting for me to slip, saying,
"Perhaps he will be deceived;
then we will prevail over him
and take our revenge on him."

¹¹But the LORD is with me like a mighty warrior;
so my persecutors will stumble and not prevail.

They will fail and be thoroughly
disgraced;
their dishonour will never be forgotten.

¹²O LORD Almighty, you who examine
the righteous
and probe the heart and mind,
let me see your vengeance upon them,
for to you I have committed my
cause.

¹³Sing to the LORD!
Give praise to the LORD!
He rescues the life of the needy
from the hands of the wicked.

¹⁴Cursed be the day I was born!
May the day my mother bore me
not be blessed!

¹⁵Cursed be the man who brought my father the news,
who made him very glad, saying,
"A child is born to you—a son!"

¹⁶May that man be like the towns
the LORD overthrew without pity.
May he hear wailing in the morning,
a battle cry at noon.

¹⁷For he did not kill me in the womb,
with my mother as my grave,
her womb enlarged for ever.

¹⁸Why did I ever come out of the womb
to see trouble and sorrow
and to end my days in shame?

God Rejects Zedekiah's Request

21 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. They said: ²"Enquire now of the LORD for us because Nebuchadnezzar^a king of Babylon is attacking us. Perhaps the LORD will perform wonders for us as in times past so that he will withdraw from us."

³But Jeremiah answered them, "Tell Zedekiah, ⁴'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn against you the weapons of war that are in your hands, which you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Babylonians^b who are outside the wall besieging you.
And I will gather them inside this city. ⁵I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm in anger and fury and great wrath. ⁶I will strike down those who live in this city—both people and animals—and they will die of a terrible plague. ⁷After that, declares the LORD, I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials and the people in this city who survive the plague, sword and famine, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to their enemies who seek their lives. He will put them to the sword; he will show them no mercy or pity or compassion.'

⁸"Furthermore, tell the people, 'This is what the LORD says: See, I am setting

^{b7} Or persuaded

^{a2} Hebrew Nebuchadrezzar, of which Nebuchadnezzar is a variant; here and often in Jeremiah and Ezekiel before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹Those who stay in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague. But those who go out and surrender to the Babylonians who are besieging you will live; they will escape with their lives. ¹⁰I have determined to do this city harm and not good, declares the LORD. It will be given into the hands of the king of Babylon, and he will destroy it with fire.'

¹¹'Moreover, say to the royal house of Judah, 'Hear the word of the LORD; ¹²house of David, this is what the LORD says:

'Administer justice every morning;
rescue from the hands of their oppressors
those who have been robbed,
or my wrath will break out and burn
like fire
because of the evil you have
done—
burn with no-one to quench it.

¹³I am against you, ¹⁴Jerusalem, ¹⁵you who live above this valley on the rocky plateau,
declares the LORD—
you who say, "Who can come against
us?"

Who can enter our refuge?"
¹⁴I will punish you as your deeds deserve,
declares the LORD.
I will kindle a fire in your forests that will consume everything
around you.'

Judgment Against Evil Kings

22 This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and proclaim this message there: ²Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, you who sit on David's throne—you, your officials and your people who come through these gates. ³This is what the LORD says: Do what is just and right. Rescue from the hands of their oppressors those who have been robbed. Do no wrong or violence to the alien, the fatherless or the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you are careful to carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by their officials and their people. ⁵But if you do not obey these commands, declares the LORD, I swear by myself that this palace will become a ruin.'

⁶For this is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah:

"Though you are like Gilead to me,
like the summit of Lebanon,
I will surely make you like a desert,
like towns not inhabited.
⁷I will send destroyers against you,
each man with his weapons,
and they will cut up your fine cedar beams
and throw them into the fire.

⁸"People from many nations will pass by this city and will ask one another, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?' ⁹And the answer will be: 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshipped and served other gods.'

¹⁰Do not weep for the dead ¹¹king ¹²or
mourn his loss;
rather, weep bitterly for him who is exiled,
because he will never return
nor see his native land again.

¹¹For this is what the LORD says about Shallum^a son of Josiah, who succeeded his father as king of Judah but has gone from this place: "He will never return. ¹²He will die in the place where they have led him captive; he will not see this land again."

¹³"Woe to him who builds his palace by unrighteousness,
his upper rooms by injustice,
making his countrymen work for
nothing,
not paying them for their labour.
¹⁴He says, 'I will build myself a great palace
with spacious upper rooms.'

^a11 Also called Jehoahaz

¹⁵“Does it make you a king to have more and more cedar?
Did not your father have food and drink?

He did what was right and just,
so all went well with him.

¹⁶He defended the cause of the poor and needy,
and so all went well.

Is that not what it means to know
me?”

declares the LORD.

¹⁷“But your eyes and your heart
are set only on dishonest gain,
on shedding innocent blood
and on oppression and extortion.”

¹⁸ Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

“They will not mourn for him:
‘Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!’
They will not mourn for him:
‘Alas, my master! Alas, his splendour!’

¹⁹He will have the burial of a donkey—dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.”

but you said, ‘I will not listen!’
This has been your way from your
youth;
you have not obeyed me.

and your allies will go into exile.
Then you will be ashamed and
disgraced
because of all your wickedness.

²³You who live in ‘Lebanon’,^b
who are nestled in cedar buildings,

how you will groan when pangs come
upon you,
pain like that of a woman in labour!

²⁴“As surely as I live,” declares the LORD, “even if you, Jehoiachin^c son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on my right hand, I would still pull you off. ²⁵I will hand you over to those who seek your life, those you fear—to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to the Babylonians.^d ²⁶I will hurl you and the mother who gave you birth into another country, where neither of you was born, and there you both will die. ²⁷You will never come back to the land you long to return to.”

²⁸Is this man Jehoiachin a despised,
broken pot,
an object no-one wants?
Why will he and his children be hurled
out,
cast into a land they do not know?

²⁹O land, land, land,
hear the word of the LORD!

³⁰This is what the LORD says:
“Record this man as if childless,
a man who will not prosper in his lifetime,
for none of his offspring will prosper,
none will sit on the throne of David or rule any more in Judah.”

The Righteous Branch

23 “Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of my pasture!” declares the LORD. ²Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to the shepherds who tend my people: “Because you have scattered my flock and driven them away and have not bestowed care on them, I will bestow punishment on you for the evil you have done,” declares the LORD. ³“I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them
and will bring them back to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and increase in number. ⁴I will place shepherds over them

^{b23} That is, the palace in Jerusalem (see 1 Kings 7:2)

who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or terrified, nor will any be missing," declares the LORD.

⁵"The days are coming," declares the LORD,
 "when I will raise up to David^a a righteous Branch,
 a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the
 land.
⁶In his days Judah will be saved
 and Israel will live in safety.
 This is the name by which he will be called:
 The LORD Our Righteousness.

⁷"So then, the days are coming," declares the LORD, "when people will no longer say, 'As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,'⁸ but they will say, 'As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.' Then they will live in their own land."

Lying Prophets

⁹Concerning the prophets:

My heart is broken within me;
 all my bones tremble.
 I am like a drunken man,
 like one overcome by wine,
 because of the LORD
 and his holy words.

¹⁰The land is full of adulterers;
 because of the curse^b the land lies parched^c
 and the pastures in the desert are
 withered.

The prophets follow an evil course
 and use their power unjustly.

¹¹"Both prophet and priest are godless;
 even in my temple I find their
 wickedness,"

declares the LORD.

¹²"Therefore their path will become slippery;

they will be banished to darkness
 and there they will fall.

I will bring disaster on them
 in the year they are punished,"
 declares the LORD.

¹³"Among the prophets of Samaria
 I saw this repulsive thing:
 They prophesied by Baal
 and led my people Israel astray.

¹⁴And among the prophets of
 Jerusalem
 I have seen something horrible:
 They commit adultery and live a
 lie.

They strengthen the hands of
 evildoers,
 so that none of them turn from their
 wickedness.

They are all like Sodom to me;
 the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."

¹⁵Therefore, this is what the LORD
 Almighty says concerning the prophets:

"I will make them eat bitter food
 and drink poisoned water, because from the prophets of
 Jerusalem
 ungodliness has spread throughout
 the land."

¹⁶This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Do not listen to what the prophets are prophesying to you;
 they fill you with false hopes.
 They speak visions from their own minds,

not from the mouth of the LORD.

¹⁷They keep saying to those who despise me,

'The LORD says: You will have
 peace.'

And to all who follow the stubbornness of their hearts
 they say, 'No harm will come to
 you.'

¹⁸But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD
 to see or to hear his word?

^a5 Or up from David's line ^b10 Or because of these things

^c10 Or land mourns

Who has listened and heard his word?

- ¹⁹See, the storm of the LORD will burst out in wrath, a whirlwind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.
²⁰The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he fully accomplishes the purposes of his heart.
 In days to come you will understand it clearly.
²¹I did not send these prophets, yet they have run with their message;
 I did not speak to them, yet they have prophesied.
²²But if they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds.

- ²³"Am I only a God nearby," declares the LORD, "and not a God far away?"
²⁴Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them?" declares the LORD.
 "Do not I fill heaven and earth?" declares the LORD.

²⁵"I have heard what the prophets say who prophesy lies in my name. They say, 'I had a dream! I had a dream!'" ²⁶How long will this continue in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions of their own minds? ²⁷They think the dreams they tell one another will make my people forget my name, just as their ancestors forgot my name through Baal worship. ²⁸Let the prophets who have dreams tell their dreams, but let the one who has my word speak it faithfully. For what has straw to do with grain?" declares the LORD. ²⁹"Is not my word like fire," declares the LORD, "and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?"

³⁰"Therefore," declares the LORD, "I am against the prophets who steal from one another words supposedly from me. ³¹Yes," declares the LORD, "I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and yet declare, 'The LORD declares.' ³²Indeed, I am against those who prophesy false dreams," declares the LORD. "They tell them and lead my people astray with their reckless lies, yet I did not send or appoint them. They do not benefit these people in the least," declares the LORD.

False Oracles and False Prophets

³³"When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask you, 'What is the oracle^d of the LORD?' say to them, 'What oracle?' ³⁴I will forsake you, declares the LORD. ³⁵If a prophet or a priest or anyone else claims, 'This is the oracle of the LORD,' I will punish them and their households. ³⁶This is what each of you keeps on saying to your friend or relative: 'What is the LORD's answer?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?' ³⁷But you must not mention 'the oracle of the LORD' again, because everyone's own word becomes an oracle and so you distort the words of the living God, the LORD Almighty, our God. ³⁸This is what you keep saying to a prophet: 'What is the LORD's answer to you?' or 'What has the LORD spoken?' ³⁹Although you claim, 'This is the oracle of the LORD,' this is what the LORD says: You used the words, 'This is the oracle of the LORD,' even though I told you that you must not claim, 'This is the oracle of the LORD.' ⁴⁰Therefore, I will surely forget you and cast you out of my presence along with the city I gave to you and your ancestors. ⁴¹I will bring upon you everlasting disgrace—everlasting shame that will not be forgotten."

Jerusalem to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the LORD. ²One basket had very good figs, like those that ripen early; the other basket had very poor figs, so bad that they could not be eaten.

³Then the LORD asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

"Figs," I answered. "The good ones are very good, but the poor ones are so bad that they cannot be eaten."

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁵"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I sent away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.' ⁶My eyes will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up and not tear them down; I will plant them and not uproot them. ⁷I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me with all their heart.

⁸"'But like the poor figs, which are so bad that they cannot be eaten,' says the LORD, 'so will I deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials and the survivors from Jerusalem, whether they remain in this land or live in Egypt. ⁹I will make them abhorrent and an offence to all the kingdoms of the earth, a reproach and a byword, an object of ridicule and cursing, wherever I banish them. ¹⁰I will send the sword, famine and plague against them until they are destroyed from the land I gave to them and their ancestors.'"

Seventy Years of Captivity

25 The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. ²So Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people of Judah and to all those living in Jerusalem: ³For twenty-three years—

from the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—the word of the LORD has come to me and I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened.

⁴And though the LORD has sent all his servants the prophets to you again and again, you have not listened or paid any attention. ⁵They said, "Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways and your evil practices, and you can stay in the land the LORD gave to you and your ancestors for ever and ever. ⁶Do not follow other gods to serve and worship them; do not provoke me to anger with what your hands have made. Then I will not harm you."

⁷"But you did not listen to me," declares the LORD, "and you have provoked me with what your hands have made, and you have brought harm to yourselves."

⁸Therefore the LORD Almighty says this: "Because you have not listened to my words, ⁹I will summon all the peoples of the north and my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon," declares the LORD, "and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy^a them and make them an object of horror and scorn, and an everlasting ruin. ¹⁰I will banish from them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, the sound of millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹This whole country will become a desolate wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

¹²"But when the seventy years are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation, the land of the Babylonians,^b for their guilt," declares the LORD, "and will make it desolate for ever. ¹³I will bring upon that land all the things I have spoken against it, all that are written in this book and prophesied by Jeremiah against all the nations. ¹⁴They themselves will be enslaved by many nations and great kings; I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their hands."

The Cup of God's Wrath

¹⁵This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from my hand this cup filled with the wine of my wrath and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it. ¹⁶When they drink it, they will stagger and go mad because of the sword I will send among them."

¹⁷So I took the cup from the LORD's hand and made all the nations to whom he sent me drink it: ¹⁸Jerusalem and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a ruin and an object of horror and scorn and cursing, as they are today; ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials and all his people, ²⁰and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines (those of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod); ²¹Edom, Moab and Ammon; ²²all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; the kings of the coastlands across the sea; ²³Dedan, Tema, Buz and all who are in distant places;^c ²⁴all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the foreign people who live in the desert; ²⁵all the kings of Zimri, Elam and Media; ²⁶and all the kings of the north, near and far, one after the other—all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Sheshach^d will drink it too.

²⁷"Then tell them, 'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Drink, get drunk and vomit, and fall to rise no more because of the sword I will send among you.' ²⁸But if they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink, tell them, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says: You must drink it! ²⁹See, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears my Name, and will you indeed go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am calling down a sword upon all who live on the earth, declares the LORD Almighty.'

³⁰"Now prophesy all these words against them and say to them:

"The LORD will roar from on high;
he will thunder from his holy dwelling and roar mightily against his land.

He will shout like those who tread
the grapes,
shout against all who live on the
earth.

³¹The tumult will resound to the ends
of the earth,
for the LORD will bring charges
against the nations;
he will bring judgment on all mankind
and put the wicked to the sword,'"
declares the LORD.

³²This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Look! Disaster is spreading from nation to nation;
a mighty storm is rising
from the ends of the earth."

³³At that time those slain by the LORD will be everywhere—from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned or gathered up or buried, but will be like refuse lying on the ground.

³⁴Weep and wail, you shepherds;
roll in the dust, you leaders of the
flock.

For your time to be slaughtered has
come;
you will fall and be shattered like fine pottery.

³⁵The shepherds will have nowhere to flee,
the leaders of the flock no place to escape.

³⁶Hear the cry of the shepherds,
the wailing of the leaders of the
flock,
for the LORD is destroying their
pasture.

³⁷The peaceful meadows will be laid
waste
because of the fierce anger of the
LORD.

³⁸Like a lion he will leave his lair,
and their land will become desolate
because of the sword^e of the oppressor
and because of the LORD's fierce
anger.

Jeremiah Threatened With Death

26 Early in the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: ²"This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard of the LORD's house and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD. Tell them everything I command you; do not omit a word. ³Perhaps they will listen and each will turn from their evil ways. Then I will relent and not bring on them the disaster I was planning because of the evil they have done. ⁴Say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: If you do not listen to me and follow my law, which I have set before you, ⁵and if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you again and again (though you have not listened), ⁶then I will make this house like Shiloh and this city an object of cursing among all the nations of the earth.'"

⁷The priests, the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the house of the LORD. ⁸But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded him to say, the priests, the prophets and all the people seized him and said, "You must die!" ⁹Why do you prophesy in the LORD's name that this house will be like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted?" And all the people crowded around Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they went up from the royal palace to the house of the LORD and took their places at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD's house. ¹¹Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man should be sentenced to death because he has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!"

¹²Then Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people: "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the things you have heard. ¹³Now reform your ways and your actions and obey the LORD your God. Then the LORD will relent and not bring the disaster he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴As for me, I am in your hands; do with me whatever you think is good and right. ¹⁵Be assured, however, that if you put me to death, you will bring the guilt of innocent blood on yourselves and on this city and on those who live in it, for in truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."

¹⁶Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man should not be sentenced to death! He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

¹⁷Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly of people, ¹⁸"Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says:

" 'Zion will be ploughed like a field.
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble.
the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.'"

¹⁹"Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah fear the LORD and seek his favour? And did not the LORD relent, so that he did not bring the disaster he pronounced against them? We are about to bring a terrible disaster on ourselves!"

²⁰(Now Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD; he prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did. ²¹When King Jehoiakim and all his officers and officials heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But Uriah heard of it and fled in fear to Egypt. ²²King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan son of Achbor to Egypt, along with some other men. ²³They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with a sword and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.)

²⁴Furthermore, Ahikam son of Shaphan

¹⁸ Micah 3:12

supported Jeremiah, and so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

Judah to Serve Nebuchadnezzar

27 Early in the reign of Zedekiah^a son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²This is what the LORD said to me: "Make a yoke out of straps and crossbars and put it on your neck. ³Then send word to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon through the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. ⁴Give them a message for their masters and say, 'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "Tell this to your masters: ⁵With my great power and outstretched arm I made the earth and its people and the animals that are on it, and I give it to anyone I please. ⁶Now I will hand all your countries over to my servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; I will make even the wild animals subject to him. ⁷All nations will serve him and his son and his grandson until the time for his land comes; then many nations and great kings will subjugate him.

⁸... "If, however, any nation or kingdom will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon or bow its neck under his yoke, I will punish that nation with the sword, famine and plague, declares the LORD, until I destroy it by his hand. ⁹So do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your interpreters of dreams, your mediums or your sorcerers who tell you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon.' ¹⁰They prophesy lies to you that will only serve to remove you far from your lands; I will banish you and you will perish. ¹¹But if any nation will bow its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to till it and to live there, declares the LORD. "..."

¹²I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, "Bow your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you will live. ¹³Why will you and your people die by the sword, famine and plague with which the LORD has threatened any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying lies to you. ¹⁵'I have not sent them,' declares the LORD. 'They are prophesying lies in my name. Therefore, I will banish you and you will perish, both you and the prophets who prophesy to you.' "

¹⁶Then I said to the priests and all these people, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the prophets who say, 'Very soon now the articles from the LORD's house will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying lies to you. ¹⁷Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become a ruin? ¹⁸If they are prophets and have the word of the LORD, let them plead with the LORD Almighty that the furnishings remaining in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon. ¹⁹For this is what the LORD Almighty says about the pillars, the Sea, the movable stands and the other furnishings that are left in this city, ²⁰which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away when he carried Jehoiachin^b son of Jehoiakim king of Judah into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem—²¹yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about the things that are left in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem: ²²'They will be taken to Babylon and there they will remain until the day I come for them,' declares the LORD. 'Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.' "

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people: ²"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and took to Babylon. ⁴I will also bring back to this place Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the other exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,' declares the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

^a1 A few Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac (see also Jer. 27:3, 12 and 28:1); most Hebrew manuscripts Jehoiakim (most Septuagint manuscripts do not have this verse.) ^b20 Hebrew Jeconiah, a variant of Jehoiachin; also in 28:4 and 29:2

⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD. ⁶He said, "Amen! May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfil the words you have prophesied by bringing the articles of the LORD's house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon. ⁷Nevertheless, listen to what I have to say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: ⁸From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague against many countries and great kingdoms. ⁹But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognised as one truly sent by the LORD only if his prediction comes true."

¹⁰Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it, ¹¹and he said before all the people, "This is what the LORD says: 'In the same way will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years.'"

At this, the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.

¹²Shortly after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³"Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place you will get a yoke of iron. ¹⁴This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I will even give him control over the wild animals.'"

¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent you, yet you have persuaded this nation to trust in lies. ¹⁶Therefore, this is what the LORD says: 'I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. This very year you are going to die, because you have preached rebellion against the LORD.'"

¹⁷In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.

A Letter to the Exiles

29 This is the text of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the surviving elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets and all the other people Nebuchadnezzar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²(This was after King Jehoiachin and the queen mother, the court officials and the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the artisans and the other skilled workers had gone into exile from Jerusalem.) ³He entrusted the letter to Elash son of Shaphan and to Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. It said:

⁴This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says to all those I carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵"Build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce. ⁶Marry and have sons and daughters; find wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Increase in number there; do not decrease. ⁷Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray to the LORD for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper." ⁸Yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "Do not let the prophets and diviners among you deceive you. Do not listen to the dreams you encourage them to have. ⁹They are prophesying lies to you in my name. I have not sent them," declares the LORD.

¹⁰This is what the LORD says: "When seventy years are completed for Babylon, I will come to you and fulfil my gracious promise to bring you back to this place. ¹¹For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. ¹²Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. ¹⁴I will be found by you," declares the LORD, "and will bring you back from captivity." ¹⁵I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have banished you," declares the LORD, "and will bring you back to the place from which I carried you into exile."

¹⁵You may say, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon," ¹⁶but this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David's throne and all the people who remain in this city, your countrymen who did not go with you into exile— ¹⁷yes, this is what the LORD Almighty says: "I will send the sword, famine and plague against them and I will make them like poor figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten. ¹⁸I will pursue them with the sword, famine and plague and will make them abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth and an object of cursing and horror, of scorn and reproach, among all the nations where I drive them. ¹⁹For they have not listened to my words," declares the LORD, "words that I sent to them again and again by my servants the prophets. And you exiles have not listened either," declares the LORD.

²⁰Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.

²¹This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to you in my name: "I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before your very eyes. ²²Because of them, all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: 'The LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned in the fire.' ²³For they have done outrageous things in Israel; they have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives and in my name have spoken lies, which I did not tell them to do. I know it and am a witness to it," declares the LORD.

Message to Shemaiah

²⁴Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite, ²⁵"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the other priests. You said to Zephaniah, ²⁶'The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada to be in charge of the house of the LORD; you should put any madman who acts like a prophet into the stocks and neck-irons. ²⁷So why have you not reprimanded Jeremiah from Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you? ²⁸He has sent this message to us in Babylon: It will be a long time. Therefore build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce.'"

²⁹Zephaniah the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ³¹"Send this message to all the exiles: 'This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, even though I did not send him, and has led you to believe a lie, ³²this is what the LORD says: I will surely punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. He will have no-one left among this people, nor will he see the good things I will do for my people, declares the LORD, because he has preached rebellion against me.”

Restoration of Israel

30 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Write in a book all the words I have spoken to you. ³The days are coming,’ declares the LORD, ‘when I will bring my people Israel and Judah back from captivity^a and restore them to the land I gave to their ancestors to possess,’ says the LORD.”

⁴These are the words the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah: ⁵“This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘Cries of fear are heard—terror, not peace.

⁶Ask and see:

Can a man bear children?
Then why do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labour,
every face turned deathly pale?

⁷How awful that day will be!

None will be like it.
It will be a time of trouble for Jacob,
but he will be saved out of it.

⁸“ ‘In that day,’ declares the LORD
Almighty,

‘I will break the yoke off their necks
and will tear off their bonds;
no longer will foreigners enslave
them.

⁹Instead, they will serve the LORD their
God
and David their king,
whom I will raise up for them.

¹⁰“ ‘So do not fear, O Jacob my servant;
do not be dismayed, O Israel,’
declares the LORD.

‘I will surely save you out of a distant
place,
your descendants from the land of their exile.

Jacob will again have peace and
security,

and no-one will make him afraid.

¹¹‘I am with you and will save you,’
declares the LORD.

‘Though I completely destroy all the
nations

among which I scatter you,
I will not completely destroy you.

I will discipline you but only with
justice;

I will not let you go entirely
unpunished.’

¹²“This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘Your wound is incurable,
your injury beyond healing.

¹³There is no-one to plead your cause,
no remedy for your sore,
no healing for you.

¹⁴All your allies have forgotten you;
they care nothing for you.

I have struck you as an enemy would and punished you as would the cruel,

because your guilt is so great and your sins so many.

¹⁵Why do you cry out over your wound,
your pain that has no cure?

Because of your great guilt and many
sins
I have done these things to you.

¹⁶“ ‘But all who devour you will be devoured;
all your enemies will go into exile.
Those who plunder you will be plundered;
all who make spoil of you I will despoil.

¹⁷But I will restore you to health and heal your wounds,’
declares the LORD.

‘because you are called an outcast,
Zion for whom no-one cares.’

¹⁸“This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘I will restore the fortunes of Jacob’s
tents

and have compassion on his dwellings;

the city will be rebuilt on her ruins,

^a Or will restore the fortunes of my people Israel and Judah and the palace will stand in its proper place.

- ¹⁹From them will come songs of thanksgiving and the sound of rejoicing. I will add to their numbers, and they will not be decreased; I will bring them honour, and they will not be disdained.
- ²⁰Their children will be as in days of old, and their community will be established before me; I will punish all who oppress them.
- ²¹Their leader will be one of their own; their ruler will arise from among them. I will bring him near and he will come close to me, for who is he who will devote himself to be close to me?"

declares the LORD.

- ²²"So you will be my people, and I will be your God."
- ²³See, the storm of the LORD will burst out in wrath, a driving wind swirling down on the heads of the wicked.
- ²⁴The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until he fully accomplishes the purposes of his heart. In days to come you will understand this.

31 "At that time," declares the LORD, "I will be the God of all the clans of Israel, and they will be my people."

²This is what the LORD says:

"The people who survive the sword will find favour in the desert; I will come to give rest to Israel."

³The LORD appeared to us in the past,^a saying:

"I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with loving-kindness.

- ⁴I will build you up again and you will be rebuilt, O Virgin Israel. Again you will take up your tambourines and go out to dance with the joyful.
- ⁵Again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria; the farmers will plant them and enjoy their fruit.
- ⁶There will be a day when watchmen cry out on the hills of Ephraim, 'Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.'"

⁷This is what the LORD says:

"Sing with joy for Jacob; shout for the foremost of the nations.

Make your praises heard, and say, 'O LORD, save your people, the remnant of Israel.'

- ⁸See, I will bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the ends of the earth. Among them will be the blind and the lame, expectant mothers and women in labour; a great throng will return.
- ⁹They will come with weeping; they will pray as I bring them back. I will lead them beside streams of water on a level path where they will not stumble, because I am Israel's father, and Ephraim is my firstborn son.

- ¹⁰"Hear the word of the LORD, O nations; proclaim it in distant coastlands: 'He who scattered Israel will gather them and will watch over his flock like a shepherd.'

¹¹For the LORD will ransom Jacob and redeem them from the hand of those stronger than they.

^a3 Or LORD has appeared to us from afar

¹²They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion;
they will rejoice in the bounty of
the LORD—

the grain, the new wine and the oil,
the young of the flocks and herds.
They will be like a well-watered
garden,
and they will sorrow no more.

¹³Then young women will dance and be glad,
young men and old as well.

I will turn their mourning into gladness;

I will give them comfort and joy
instead of sorrow.

¹⁴I will satisfy the priests with abundance, and my people will be filled with my bounty,"

declares the LORD.

¹⁵This is what the LORD says:

"A voice is heard in Ramah,
mourning and great weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children
and refusing to be comforted,
because her children are no more."

¹⁶This is what the LORD says:

"Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears,
for your work will be rewarded,"
declares the LORD.

"They will return from the land of
the enemy.

¹⁷So there is hope for your future,"
declares the LORD.

"Your children will return to their own land.

¹⁸"I have surely heard Ephraim's moaning:

"You disciplined me like an unruly
calf,

and I have been disciplined.

Restore me, and I will return,
because you are the LORD my God.

¹⁹After I strayed,
I repented;

after I came to understand,
I beat my breast.

I was ashamed and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth."

²⁰Is not Ephraim my dear son,
the child in whom I delight?

Though I often speak against him,
I still remember him.

Therefore my heart yearns for him;
I have great compassion for him,"
declares the LORD.

²¹"Set up road signs;
put up guideposts.

Take note of the highway,
the road that you take.

Return, O Virgin Israel, return to your towns.

²²How long will you wander,
O unfaithful daughter?

The LORD will create a new thing on
earth—
a woman will surround^b a man."

²³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "When I bring them back from captivity,^c the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: 'The LORD bless you, O righteous dwelling, O sacred mountain.'^d ²⁴People will live together in Judah and all its towns—farmers and those who move about with their flocks.
²⁵I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint."

²⁶At this I awoke and looked around.
My sleep had been pleasant to me.

²⁷"The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will plant the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the offspring of people and of animals. ²⁸Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, and to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," declares the LORD.

²⁹"In those days people will no longer say,

'The parents have eaten sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on
edge.'

^{b22} Or will go about seeking; or will protect ^{c23} Or I restore their fortunes

³⁰Instead, everyone will die for their own sin; whoever eats sour grapes—their own teeth will be set on edge.

³¹“The time is coming,” declares the LORD,
“when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.

³²It will not be like the covenant
I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of Egypt,
because they broke my covenant,
though I was a husband to^d them,”^e
declares the LORD.

³³“This is the covenant that I will make
with the house of Israel
after that time,” declares the LORD.
“I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

³⁴No longer will they teach their
neighbours,
or say to one another, ‘Know the
LORD,’
because they will all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest,”
declares the LORD.

“For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no
more.”

³⁵This is what the LORD says,

he who appoints the sun
to shine by day,
who decrees the moon and stars
to shine by night,
who stirs up the sea
so that its waves roar—
the LORD Almighty is his name:

³⁶“Only if these decrees vanish from my sight,”
declares the LORD,
“will the descendants of Israel ever cease
to be a nation before me.”

³⁷This is what the LORD says:

“Only if the heavens above can be measured
and the foundations of the earth
below be searched out will I reject all the descendants of Israel
because of all they have done,”
declares the LORD.

³⁸“The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when this city will be rebuilt for me from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹The measuring line will stretch from there straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah. ⁴⁰The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate, will be holy to the LORD. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished.”

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²The army of the king of Babylon was then besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace of Judah.

³Now Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him there, saying, “Why do you prophesy as you do? You say, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will capture it. ⁴Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape out of the hands of the Babylonians^a but will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him with his own eyes. ⁵He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with him, declares the LORD. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed.’”

⁶Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me: ⁷Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say, 'Buy my field at Anathoth, because as nearest relative it is your right and duty to buy it.'

⁸"Then, just as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said, 'Buy my field at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. Since it is your right to redeem it and possess it, buy it for yourself.'

"I knew that this was the word of the LORD; ⁹so I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and weighed out for him seventeen shekels^b of silver. ¹⁰I signed and sealed the deed, had it witnessed, and weighed out the silver on the scales. ¹¹I took the deed of purchase—the sealed copy containing the terms and conditions, as well as the unsealed copy—¹²and I gave this deed to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel and of the witnesses who had signed the deed and of all the Jews sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

¹³"In their presence I gave Baruch these instructions: ¹⁴'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Take these documents, both the sealed and unsealed copies of the deed of purchase, and put them in a clay jar so that they will last a long time. ¹⁵For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.'

¹⁶"After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD:

¹⁷"Ah, Sovereign LORD, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for you.

¹⁸You show love to thousands but bring the punishment for the parents' sins into the laps of their children after them. O great and powerful God, whose name is the LORD Almighty, ¹⁹great are your purposes and mighty are your deeds. Your eyes are open to the ways of all; you reward everyone according to their conduct and as their deeds deserve.

²⁰You performed miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt and have continued them to this day, both in Israel and among all nations, and have gained the renown that is still yours.

²¹You brought your people Israel out of Egypt with signs and wonders, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with great terror. ²²You gave them this land you had sworn to give to their ancestors, a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³They came in and took possession of it, but they did not obey you or follow your law; they did not do what you commanded them to do. So you brought all this disaster upon them.

²⁴"See how the siege ramps are built up to take the city. Because of the sword, famine and plague, the city will be handed over to the Babylonians who are attacking it. What you said has happened, as you now see. ²⁵And though the city will be handed over to the Babylonians, you, O Sovereign LORD, say to me, 'Buy the field with silver and have the transaction witnessed.'

²⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁷"I am the LORD, the God of the whole human race. Is anything too hard for me? ²⁸Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it. ²⁹The Babylonians who are attacking this city will come in and set it on fire; they will burn it down, along with the houses where the people provoked me to anger by burning incense on the roofs to Baal and by pouring out drink offerings to other gods.

³⁰"The people of Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil in my sight from their youth; indeed, the people of Israel have done nothing but provoke me with what their hands have made, declares the LORD. ³¹From the day it was built until now, this city has so aroused my anger and wrath that I must remove it from my sight.

³²The people of Israel and Judah have provoked me by all the evil they have done—they, their kings and officials, their priests and prophets, the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem.

³³They turned their backs to me and not their faces; though I taught them again and again, they would not listen or respond to discipline. ³⁴They set up their abominable idols in the house that bears my Name and defiled it. ³⁵They built high places for Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to sacrifice their sons and daughters^c to Molech, though I never commanded, nor did it enter my mind, that they should do such a detestable thing and so make Judah sin.

³⁶“You are saying about this city, ‘By the sword, famine and plague it will be handed over to the king of Babylon’; but this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ³⁷I will surely gather them from all the lands where I banish them in my furious anger and great wrath; I will bring them back to this place and let them live in safety. ³⁸They will be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹I will give them singleness of heart and action, so that they will always fear me for their own good and the good of their children after them. ⁴⁰I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them, and I will inspire them to fear me, so that they will never turn away from me. ⁴¹I will rejoice in doing them good and will assuredly plant them in this land with all my heart and soul.

⁴²“This is what the LORD says: As I have brought all this great calamity on this people, so I will give them all the prosperity I have promised them. ⁴³Once more fields will be bought in this land of which you say, ‘It is a desolate waste, without people or animals, for it has been handed over to the Babylonians.’ ⁴⁴Fields will be bought for silver, and deeds will be signed, sealed and witnessed in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah and in the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills and of the Negev, because I will restore their fortunes,^d declares the LORD.”

Promise of Restoration

33 While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him a second time: ²“This is what the LORD says, he who made the earth, the LORD who formed it and established it—the LORD is his name: ³‘Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.’ ⁴For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the houses in this city and the royal palaces of Judah that have been torn down to be used against the siege ramps and the sword⁵ in the fight with the Babylonians: ⁶‘They will be filled with the dead bodies of the people I will slay in my anger and wrath. I will hide my face from this city because of all its wickedness.

⁶“Nevertheless, I will bring health and healing to it; I will heal my people and will let them enjoy abundant peace and security. ⁷I will bring Judah and Israel back from captivity^b and will rebuild them as they were before. ⁸I will cleanse them from all the sin they have committed against me and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against me. ⁹Then this city will bring me renown, joy, praise and honour before all nations on earth that hear of all the good things I do for it; and they will be in awe and will tremble at the abundant prosperity and peace I provide for it.’

¹⁰“This is what the LORD says: ‘You say about this place, “It is a desolate waste, without people or animals.” Yet in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted, inhabited by neither people nor animals, there will be heard once more ¹¹the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom, and the voices of those who bring

³⁵ Or to make their sons and daughters pass through the fire. ⁴⁴ Or will bring them back from captivity

⁴⁵ Or Chaldeans ⁶⁷ Or will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel

thank-offerings to the house of the LORD, saying,

"Give thanks to the LORD Almighty,
for the LORD is good;
his love endures for ever."

For I will restore the fortunes of the land as they were before," says the LORD.

¹²"This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'In this place, desolate and without people or animals—in all its towns there will again be pastures for shepherds to rest their flocks. ¹³In the towns of the hill country, of the western foothills and of the Negev, in the territory of Benjamin, in the villages around Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah, flocks will again pass under the hand of the one who counts them,' says the LORD.

¹⁴"The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will fulfil the gracious promise I made to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

¹⁵"In those days and at that time
I will make a righteous Branch
sprout from David's line;
he will do what is just and right in
the land.

¹⁶In those days Judah will be saved
and Jerusalem will live in safety.
This is the name by which it^c will be called:
The LORD Our Righteousness.'

¹⁷For this is what the LORD says: 'David will never fail to have a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, ¹⁸nor will the priests, who are Levites, ever fail to have a man to stand before me continually to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings and to present sacrifices.'

¹⁹The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁰"This is what the LORD says: 'If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night no longer come at their appointed time, ²¹then my covenant with David my servant—and my covenant with the Levites who are priests ministering before me—can be broken and David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne. ²²I will make the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who minister before me as countless as the stars of the sky and as measureless as the sand on the seashore.'"

²³The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁴"Have you not noticed that these people are saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two kingdoms^d he chose'? So they despise my people and no longer regard them as a nation. ²⁵This is what the LORD says: 'If I have not established my covenant with day and night and the fixed laws of heaven and earth, ²⁶then I will reject the descendants of Jacob and David my servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes^e and have compassion on them.'"

Warning to Zedekiah

34 While Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms and peoples in the empire he ruled were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding towns, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. ³You will not escape from his grasp but will surely be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes, and he will speak with you face to face. And you will go to Babylon.

⁴"Yet hear the promise of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword; ⁵you will die peacefully. As people made a funeral fire in honour of your ancestors, the former kings who preceded you, so they will make a fire in your honour and lament. "Alas, O master!" I myself make this promise, declares the LORD.'"

^c16 Or he ^d24 Or families ^e26 Or will bring them back from captivity

⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem, ⁷while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah that were still holding out—Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in Judah.

Freedom for Slaves

⁸The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom for the slaves. ⁹All were to free their Hebrew slaves, both male and female; no-one was to hold another Jew in bondage. ¹⁰So all the officials and people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their male and female slaves and no longer hold them in bondage. They agreed, and set them free. ¹¹But afterwards they changed their minds and took back the slaves they had freed and enslaved them again.

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³“This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery. I said, ¹⁴‘Every seventh year each of you must free any other Hebrews who have sold themselves to you. After they have served you for six years, you must let them go free.’^a Your ancestors, however, did not listen to me or pay attention to me. ¹⁵Recently you repented and did what is right in my sight: Each of you proclaimed freedom to your own people. You even made a covenant before me in the house that bears my Name. ¹⁶But now you have turned round and profaned my name; each of you has taken back the male and female slaves you had set free to go where they wished. You have forced them to become your slaves again.

¹⁷“Therefore, this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed me; you have not proclaimed freedom for your own people. So I now proclaim ‘freedom’ for you, declares the LORD—‘freedom’ to fall by the sword, plague and famine. I will make you abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸Those who have violated my covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before me, I will treat like the calf they cut in two and then walked between its pieces. ¹⁹The leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests and all the people of the land who walked between the pieces of the calf, ²⁰I will hand over to their enemies who seek their lives. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.

²¹“I will hand Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials over to their enemies who seek their lives, to the army of the king of Babylon, which has withdrawn from you. ²²I am going to give the order, declares the LORD, and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, take it and burn it down. And I will lay waste the towns of Judah so that no-one can live there.”

The Recabites

35 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: ²“Go to the Recabite family and invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the house of the LORD and give them wine to drink.”

³So I went to get Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons—the whole family of the Recabites. ⁴I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan son of Igdliah the man of God. It was next to the room of the officials, which was over that of Maaseiah son of Shallum the door-keeper. ⁵Then I set bowls full of wine and some cups before the men of the Recabite family and said to them, “Drink some wine.”

⁶But they replied, “We do not drink wine, because our ancestor Jonadab son of Recab gave us this command: ‘Neither you nor your descendants must ever drink wine. ⁷Also you must never build houses, sow seed or plant vineyards; you must never have any of these things, but must always live in tents. Then you will live a long time in the land where you are nomads.' ⁸We have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab son of Recab commanded us. Neither we nor our wives nor our sons and daughters have ever drunk wine ⁹or built houses to live in or had vineyards, fields or crops. ¹⁰We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. ¹¹But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded this land, we said, 'Come, we must go to Jerusalem to escape the Babylonian^a and Aramean armies.' So we have remained in Jerusalem."

¹²Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ¹³"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, 'Will you not learn a lesson and obey my words?' declares the LORD. ¹⁴'Jonadab son of Recab ordered his descendants not to drink wine and this command has been kept. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their ancestor's command. But I have spoken to you again and again, yet you have not obeyed me. ¹⁵Again and again I sent all my servants the prophets to you. They said, 'Each of you must turn from your wicked ways and reform your actions; do not follow other gods to serve them. Then you shall live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.' But you have not paid attention or listened to me. ¹⁶The descendants of Jonadab son of Recab have carried out the command their ancestor gave them, but these people have not obeyed me.'

¹⁷"Therefore, this is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'Listen! I am going to bring on Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem every disaster I pronounced against them. I spoke to them, but they did not listen; I called to them, but they did not answer.'"

¹⁸Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Recabites, "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'You have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab and have followed all his instructions and have done everything he ordered.' ¹⁹Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'Jonadab son of Recab shall never fail to have a descendant to serve me.'"

Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah's Scroll

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah and all the other nations from the time I began speaking to you in the reign of Josiah till now. ³Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about every disaster I plan to inflict on them, they will each turn from their wicked ways; then I will forgive their wickedness and their sin."

⁴So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the LORD had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll. ⁵Then Jeremiah told Baruch, "I am restricted; I cannot go to the LORD's temple. ⁶So you go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting and read to the people from the scroll the words of the LORD that you wrote as I dictated. Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns. ⁷Perhaps they will bring their petition before the LORD, and each will turn from their wicked ways, for the anger and wrath pronounced against this people by the LORD are great."

⁸Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do; at the LORD's temple he read the words of the LORD from the scroll. ⁹In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a time of fasting before the LORD was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah. ¹⁰From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the LORD's temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll.

¹¹When Micaiah son of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll,¹² he went down to the secretary's room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of She-maiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials.¹³ After Micaiah told them everything he had heard Baruch read to the people from the scroll,¹⁴ all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, "Bring the scroll from which you have read to the people and come." So Baruch son of Neriah went to them with the scroll in his hand.¹⁵ They said to him, "Sit down, please, and read it to us."

So Baruch read it to them.¹⁶ When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must report all these words to the king."¹⁷ Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?"

¹⁸ "Yes," Baruch replied, "he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll."

¹⁹ Then the officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah, go and hide. Don't let anyone know where you are."

²⁷ After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:²⁸ "Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up."²⁹ Also tell Jehoiakim king of Judah, "This is what the LORD says: You burned that scroll and said, 'Why did you write on it that the king of Babylon would certainly come and destroy this land and cut off both people and animals from it?'"³⁰ Therefore, this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no-one to sit on the throne of David; his body will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.³¹ I will punish him and his children and his attendants for their wickedness; I will bring on them and those living in Jerusalem and the people of Judah every disaster I pronounced against them, because they have not listened."

³² So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah in Prison

37 Zedekiah son of Josiah was made king of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he reigned in place of Jehoiachin^a son of Jehoiakim.² Neither he nor his attendants nor the people of the land paid any attention to the words the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.

³ King Zedekiah, however, sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah with the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah the prophet with this message: "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."

⁴ Now Jeremiah was free to come and

go among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison. ⁵Pharaoh's army had marched out of Egypt, and when the Babylonians^b who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: ⁷"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of me, 'Pharaoh's army, which has marched out to support you, will go back to its own land, to Egypt. ⁸Then the Babylonians will return and attack this city; they will capture it and burn it down.'

¹¹After the Babylonian army had withdrawn from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army, ¹²Jeremiah started to leave the city to go to the territory of Benjamin to get his share of the property among the people there. ¹³But when he reached the Benjamin Gate, the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, "You are deserting to the Babylonians!"

¹⁴"That's not true!" Jeremiah said. "I am not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah would not listen to him; instead, he arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials. ¹⁵They were angry with Jeremiah and had him beaten and imprisoned in the house of Jonathan the secretary, which they had made into a prison.

¹⁶Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained a long time. ¹⁷Then King Zedekiah sent for him and had him brought to the palace, where he asked him privately, "Is there any word from the LORD?"

"Yes," Jeremiah replied, "you will be handed over to the king of Babylon."

¹⁸Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What crime have I committed against you or your officials or this people, that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, 'The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land'? ²⁰But now, my lord the king, please listen. Let me bring my petition before you: Do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, or I shall die there."

²¹King Zedekiah then gave orders for Jeremiah to be placed in the courtyard of the guard and given bread from the street of the bakers each day until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah Thrown Into a Cistern

38 Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal^d son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah was telling all the people when he said, ²"This is what the LORD says: 'All who stay in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague, but all who go over to the Babylonians^b will live. They will escape with their lives; they will live.' ³And this is what the LORD says: 'This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.'"

⁴Then the officials said to the king, "This man should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, as well as all the people, by the things he is saying to them. This man is not seeking the good of these people but their ruin."

⁵"He is in your hands." King Zedekiah answered, "The king can do nothing to oppose you."

⁶So they took Jeremiah and put him into the cistern of Malkijah, the king's son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the cistern; it had no water in it, only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

⁷But Ebed-Melech, a Cushite,^c an official^d in the royal palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. While the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate, ⁸Ebed-Melech went out of the palace and said to him, ⁹"My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will starve to death when there is no longer any bread in the city."

¹⁰Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Cushite, "Take thirty men from here with you and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies."

¹¹So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went to a room under the treasury in the palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from there and let them down with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. ¹²Ebed-Melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms to pad the ropes." Jeremiah did so, ¹³and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Zedekiah Questions Jeremiah Again

¹⁴Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance to the temple of the LORD. "I am going to ask you something," the king said to Jeremiah. "Do not hide anything from me."

¹⁵Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I give you an answer, will you not kill me? Even if I did give you counsel, you would not listen to me."

¹⁶But King Zedekiah swore this oath secretly to Jeremiah: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has given us breath, I will neither kill you nor hand you over to those who are seeking your life."

¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down; you and your family will live. ¹⁸But if you will not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be handed over to the Babylonians and they will burn it down; you yourself will not escape from their hands.'"

¹⁹King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have gone over to the Babylonians, for the Babylonians may hand me over to them and they will ill-treat me."

²⁰"They will not hand you over," Jeremiah replied. "Obey the LORD by doing what I tell you. Then it will go well with you, and your life will be spared. ²¹But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me: ²²All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you:

"They misled you and overcame you—those trusted friends of yours.

Your feet are sunk in the mud;
your friends have deserted you.'

²³"All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You yourself will not escape from their hands but will be captured by the king of Babylon; and this city will be burned down."

²⁴Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may die. ²⁵If the officials hear that I talked with you, and they come to you and say, 'Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us or we will kill you,' ²⁶then tell them, 'I was pleading with the king not to send me back to Jonathan's house to die there.'"

²⁷All the officials did come to Jeremiah and question him, and he told them everything the king had ordered him to say. So they said no more to him, for no-one had heard his conversation with the king.

²⁸And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39 This is how Jerusalem was taken: ¹In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid

²³ Or and you will cause this city to siege to it. ²And on the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, the city wall was broken through. ³Then all the officials of the king of Babylon came and took seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezzer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim^a a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezzer a high official and all the other officials of the king of Babylon. ⁴When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled; they left the city at night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls, and headed towards the Arabah.^b

⁵But the Babylonian^c army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him. ⁶There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes and also killed all the nobles of Judah. ⁷Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.

⁸The Babylonians^d set fire to the royal palace and the houses of the people and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, along with those who had gone over to him, and the rest of the people. ¹⁰But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people, who owned nothing; and at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.

¹¹Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given these orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard: ¹²"Take him and look after him; don't harm him but do for him whatever he asks." ¹³So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezzer a high official and all the other officers of the king of Babylon ¹⁴sent and had Jeremiah taken out of the courtyard of the guard. They handed him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him back to his home. So he remained among his own people.

¹⁵While Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him: ¹⁶"Go and tell Ebed-Melech the Cushite, 'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfil my words against this city through disaster, not prosperity. At that time they will be fulfilled before your eyes. ¹⁷But I will rescue you on that day, declares the LORD; you will not be handed over to those you fear. ¹⁸I will save you; you will not fall by the sword but will escape with your life, because you trust in me, declares the LORD.'"

Jeremiah Freed

40 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon. ²When the commander of the guard found Jeremiah, he said to him, "The LORD your God decreed this disaster for this place. ³And now the LORD has brought it about; he has done just as he said he would. All this happened because you people sinned against the LORD and did not obey him. ⁴But today I am freeing you from the chains on your wrists. Come with me to Babylon, if you like, and I will look after you; but if you do not want to, then don't come. Look, the whole country lies before you; go wherever you please." ⁵However, before Jeremiah turned to go, ⁶Nebuzaradan added, "Go back to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the towns of Judah, and live with him among the people, or go anywhere else you please."

Then the commander gave him provisions and a present and let him go. ⁶So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

Gedaliah Assassinated

⁷When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women and children who were the poorest in the land and who had not been carried into exile to Babylon, ⁸they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah^b the son of the Maacathite, and their men. ⁹Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to reassure them and their men. "Do not be afraid to serve the Babylonians,"^c he said. "Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you. ¹⁰I myself will stay in Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us, but you are to harvest the wine, summer fruit and oil, and put them in your storage jars, and live in the towns you have taken over."

¹¹When all the Jews in Moab, Ammon, Edom and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as governor over them, ¹²they all came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, from all the countries where they had been scattered. And they harvested an abundance of wine and summer fruit.

¹³Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers still in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah ¹⁴and said to him, "Don't you know that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

¹⁵Then Johanan son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah, "Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no-one will know it. Why should he take your life and cause all the Jews who are gathered around you to be scattered and the remnant of Judah to perish?"

¹⁶But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Don't do such a thing! What you are saying about Ishmael is not true."

41 In the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood and had been one of the king's officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating together there, ²Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword, killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land. ³Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian^d soldiers who were there.

⁴The day after Gedaliah's assassination, before anyone knew about it, ⁵eighty men who had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes and cut themselves came from Shechem, Shiloh and Samaria, bringing grain offerings and incense with them to the house of the LORD. ⁶Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went. When he met them, he said, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam." ⁷When they went into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern. ⁸But ten of them said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat and barley, oil and honey, hidden in a field." So he let them alone and did not kill them with the others. ⁹Now the cistern where he threw all the bodies of the men he had killed along with Gedaliah was the one King Asa had made as part of his defence against Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the dead.

¹⁰Ishmael made captives of all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah—the king's daughters along with all the others who were left there, over whom Nebuzardan commander of the imperial guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

They caught up with him near the great pool in Gibeon. ¹³When all the people Ishmael had with him saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him, they were glad. ¹⁴All the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah. ¹⁵But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and fled to the Ammonites.

Flight to Egypt

¹⁶Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him led away all the survivors from Mizpah whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after he had assassinated Gedaliah son of Ahikam: the soldiers, women, children and court officials he had brought from Gibeon. ¹⁷And they went on, stopping at Geruth Kimham near Bethlehem on their way to Egypt ¹⁸to escape the Babylonians. ¹⁹They were afraid of them because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

42 Then all the army officers, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah^a son of Hoshai^a, and all the people from the least to the greatest approached ²Jeremiah the prophet and said to him, "Please hear our petition and pray to the LORD your God for this entire remnant. For as you now see, though we were once many, now only a few are left. ³Pray that the LORD your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do."

⁴"I have heard you," replied Jeremiah the prophet. "I will certainly pray to the LORD your God as you have requested; I will tell you everything the LORD says and will keep nothing back from you."

⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act in accordance with everything the LORD your God sends you to tell us. ⁶Whether it is favourable or unfavourable, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it will go well with us, for we will obey the LORD our God."

⁷Ten days later the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸So he called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him and all the people from the least to the greatest. ⁹He said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition, says: ¹⁰'If you stay in this land, I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not uproot you, for I am grieved over the disaster I have inflicted on you. ¹¹Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear. Do not be afraid of him, declares the LORD, for I am with you and will save you and deliver you from his hands. ¹²I will show you compassion so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your land.'

¹³"However, if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' and so disobey the LORD your God, ¹⁴and if you say, 'No, we will go and live in Egypt, where we will not see war or hear the trumpet or be hungry for bread,' ¹⁵then hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'If you are determined to go to Egypt and you do go to settle there, ¹⁶then the sword you fear will overtake you there, and the famine you dread will follow you into Egypt, and there you will die. ¹⁷Indeed, all who are determined to go to Egypt to settle there will die by the sword, famine and plague: not one of them will survive or escape the disaster I will bring on them.' ¹⁸This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'As my anger and wrath have been poured out on those who lived in Jerusalem, so will my wrath be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You will be an object of cursing and horror, of condemnation and reproach; you will never see this place again.'

¹⁹"O remnant of Judah, the LORD has

told you, 'Do not go to Egypt.' Be sure of this: I warn you today ²⁰that you made a fatal mistake^b when you sent me to the LORD your God and said, 'Pray to the LORD our God for us; tell us everything he says and we will do it.' ²¹I have told you today, but you still have not obeyed the LORD your God in all he sent me to tell you. ²²So now, be sure of this: You will die by the sword, famine and plague in the place where you want to go to settle."

43 When Jeremiah finished telling the people all the words of the LORD their God—everything the LORD had sent him to tell them—²Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the arrogant people said to Jeremiah, "You are lying! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'You must not go to Egypt to settle there.' ³But Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Babylonians,^a so that they may kill us or carry us into exile to Babylon."

⁴So Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers and all the people disobeyed the LORD's command to stay in the land of Judah. ⁵Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led away all the remnant of Judah who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered. ⁶They also led away all the men, women and children and the king's daughters whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had left with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah. ⁷So they entered Egypt in disobedience to the LORD and went as far as Tahpanhes.

will set his throne over these stones I have buried here; he will spread his royal canopy above them. ¹¹He will come and attack Egypt, bringing death to those destined for death, captivity to those destined for captivity, and the sword to those destined for the sword. ¹²He^b will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt; he will burn their temples and take their gods captive. As a shepherd wraps his garment round him, so will he wrap Egypt round himself and depart from there unscathed. ¹³There in the temple of the sun^c in Egypt he will demolish the sacred pillars and will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.'"

Disaster Because of Idolatry

44 This word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Lower Egypt—in Migdol, Tahpanhes and Memphis^d—and in Upper Egypt:^b ²"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You saw the great disaster I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah. Today they lie deserted and in ruins ³because of the evil they have done. They provoked me to anger by burning incense and by worshipping other gods that neither they nor you nor your ancestors ever knew. ⁴Again and again I sent my servants the prophets, who said, 'Do not do this detestable thing that I hate!' ⁵But they did not listen or pay attention; they did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods. ⁶Therefore, my fierce anger was poured out; it raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins they are today.

⁷"Now this is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Why bring such great disaster on yourselves by cutting off from Judah the men and women, the children and infants, and so leave yourselves without a remnant? ⁸Why provoke me to anger with what your hands have made, burning incense to other gods in Egypt, where you have come to live? You will destroy yourselves and

^{b20} Or you erred in your hearts ^{a3} Or Chaldeans

^{b12} Or I

^{c13} Or in Heliopolis

^{d1} Hebrew Noph

^{b1} Hebrew in Pathros

make yourselves an object of cursing and reproach among all the nations on earth. ⁹Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your ancestors and by the kings and queens of Judah and the wickedness committed by you and your wives in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed my law and the decrees I set before you and your ancestors.

¹¹"Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster on you and to destroy all Judah. ¹²I will take away the remnant of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt; they will fall by the sword or die from famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine. They will become an object of cursing and horror, of condemnation and reproach. ¹³I will punish those who live in Egypt with the sword, famine and plague, as I punished Jerusalem. ¹⁴None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live; none will return except a few fugitives."

¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women who were present—a large assembly—and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt, ^csaid to Jeremiah, ¹⁶"We will not listen to the message you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD! ¹⁷We will certainly do everything we said we would: We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our ancestors, our kings and our officials did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. At that time we had plenty of food and were well off and suffered no harm. ¹⁸But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine."

¹⁹The women added, "When we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, did not our husbands know that we were making cakes like her image and pouring out drink offerings to her?"

²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him, ²¹"Did not the LORD remember and think about the incense burned in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem by you and your ancestors, your kings and your officials and the people of the land? ²²When the LORD could no longer endure your wicked actions and the detestable things you did, your land became an object of cursing and a desolate waste without inhabitants, as it is today. ²³Because you have burned incense and have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed him or followed his law or his decrees or his stipulations, this disaster has come upon you, as you now see."

²⁴Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah in Egypt. ²⁵This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You and your wives have shown by your actions what you promised when you said, 'We will certainly carry out the vows we made to burn incense and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.'

"Go ahead then, do what you promised! Keep your vows! ²⁶But hear the word of the LORD, all Jews living in Egypt: 'I swear by my great name,' says the LORD, 'that no-one from Judah living anywhere in Egypt shall ever again invoke my name or swear, "As surely as the Sovereign LORD lives." ²⁷For I am watching over them for harm, not for good; the Jews in Egypt will perish by sword and famine until they are all destroyed. ²⁸Those who escape the sword and return to the land of Judah from Egypt will be very few. Then the whole remnant of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand—mine or theirs.

²⁹"This will be the sign to you that I will punish you in this place," declares the

^c15 Hebrew in Egypt and Pathros

LORD, 'so that you will know that my threats of harm against you will surely stand.' ³⁰This is what the LORD says: 'I am going to hand Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt over to his enemies who seek his life, just as I handed Zedekiah king of Judah over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the enemy who was seeking his life.'"

A Message to Baruch

45 This is what Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch son of Neriah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, after Baruch had written on a scroll the words Jeremiah was then dictating: ²"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: ³You said, 'Woe to me! The LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am worn out with groaning and find no rest.'"

⁴[The LORD said,] "Say this to him: 'This is what the LORD says: I will overthrow what I have built and uproot what I have planted, throughout the land. ⁵Should you then seek great things for yourself? Seek them not. For I will bring disaster on all people, declares the LORD, but wherever you go I will let you escape with your life.'"

A Message About Egypt

46 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations:

²Concerning Egypt:

This is the message against the army of Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

³"Prepare your shields, both large and small,

and march out for battle!

⁴Harness the horses,

mount the steeds!

Take your positions

with helmets on!

Polish your spears,

put on your armour!

⁵What do I see?

They are terrified,

they are retreating,

their warriors are defeated.

They flee in haste

without looking back,

and there is terror on every side,"

declares the LORD.

⁶"The swift cannot flee

nor the strong escape.

In the north by the River Euphrates

they stumble and fall.

⁷"Who is this that rises like the Nile,

like rivers of surging waters?

⁸Egypt rises like the Nile,

like rivers of surging waters.

She says, 'I will rise and cover the earth;

I will destroy cities and their people.'

⁹Charge, O horses!

Drive furiously, O charioteers!

March on, O warriors—

men of Cush^a and Put who carry shields,

men of Lydia who draw the bow.

¹⁰But that day belongs to the Lord, the LORD Almighty—

a day of vengeance, for vengeance on his foes.

The sword will devour till it is satisfied,

till it has quenched its thirst with blood.

For the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will offer sacrifice

in the land of the north by the River Euphrates.

¹¹"Go up to Gilead and get balm,

O Virgin Daughter of Egypt.

But you multiply remedies in vain; there is no healing for you.

¹²The nations will hear of your shame; your cries will fill the earth.

^a9 That is, the upper Nile region

One warrior will stumble over another;
both will fall down together.”

¹³This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to attack Egypt:

¹⁴“Announce this in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol;
proclaim it also in Memphis^b and Tahpanhes:

‘Take your positions and get ready,
for the sword devours those around
you.’

¹⁵Why will your warriors be laid low?
They cannot stand, for the LORD will push them down.

¹⁶They will stumble repeatedly;
they will fall over each other.
They will say, ‘Get up, let us go back to our own people and our native
lands,
away from the sword of the
oppressor.’

¹⁷There they will exclaim, ‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is only a loud noise;
he has missed his opportunity.’

¹⁸“As surely as I live,” declares the King, whose name is the LORD Almighty,
“one will come who is like Tabor among the mountains,
like Carmel by the sea.

¹⁹Pack your belongings for exile,
you who live in Egypt,
for Memphis will be laid waste and lie in ruins without inhabitant.

²⁰“Egypt is a beautiful heifer,
but a gadfly is coming against her from the north.

²¹The mercenaries in her ranks
are like fattened calves.
They too will turn and flee together,
they will not stand their ground,
for the day of disaster is coming upon
them,
the time for them to be punished.

²²Egypt will hiss like a fleeing serpent
as the enemy advances in force;
they will come against her with axes,
like those who cut down trees.

²³They will chop down her forest,”
declares the LORD,
“dense though it be.

They are more numerous than locusts,
they cannot be counted.

²⁴The Daughter of Egypt will be put to
shame,
handed over to the people of the north.”

²⁵The LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: “I am about to bring punishment on Amon god of Thebes,^c on Pharaoh, on Egypt and her gods and her kings, and on those who rely on Pharaoh. ²⁶I will hand them over to those who seek their lives, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. Later, however, Egypt will be inhabited as in times past,” declares the LORD.

²⁷“Do not fear, O Jacob my servant;
do not be dismayed, O Israel.
I will surely save you out of a distant
place,
and your descendants from the land
of their exile.

Jacob will again have peace and
security,
and no-one will make him afraid.

²⁸Do not fear, O Jacob my servant,
for I am with you,” declares the LORD.

“Though I completely destroy all the
nations
among which I scatter you,
I will not completely destroy you.
I will discipline you but only with
justice;
I will not let you go entirely
unpunished.”

A Message About the Philistines

47 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:

^{b14} Hebrew Noph; also in verse 19 ^{c25} Hebrew No

²This is what the LORD says:

“See how the waters are rising in the north;
they will become an overflowing torrent.

They will overflow the land and everything in it,
the towns and those who live in them.

The people will cry out;
all who dwell in the land will wail ³at the sound of the hoofs of galloping steeds,

at the noise of enemy chariots
and the rumble of their wheels.
Parents will not turn to help their children;
their hands will hang limp.

⁴For the day has come to destroy all the Philistines and to cut off all survivors who could help Tyre and Sidon.
The LORD is about to destroy the Philistines,
the remnant from the coasts of Caphor.^a

⁵Gaza will shave her head in mourning;
Ashkelon will be silenced.
O remnant on the plain,
how long will you cut yourselves?

⁶“‘Ah, sword of the LORD,’ you cry,
‘how long till you rest?
Return to your scabbard;
cease and be still.’

⁷But how can it rest
when the LORD has commanded it,
when he has ordered it to attack Ashkelon and the coast?”

A Message About Moab

48 Concerning Moab:

This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

“Woe to Nebo, for it will be ruined.

Kiriathaim will be disgraced and
captured;
the stronghold^a will be disgraced
and shattered.

²Moab will be praised no more;
in Heshbon^b people will plot her downfall:

‘Come, let us put an end to that nation.’

You too, O Madmen,^c will be
silenced;
the sword will pursue you.

³Listen to the cries from Horonaim, cries of great havoc and
destruction.

⁴Moab will be broken;
her little ones will cry out.^d

⁵They go up the way to Luhith, weeping bitterly as they go;
on the road down to Horonaim anguished cries over the destruction are heard.

⁶Flee! Run for your lives;
become like a bush^e in the desert.

⁷Since you trust in your deeds and riches,
you too will be taken captive,
and Chemosh will go into exile,
together with his priests and
officials.

⁸The destroyer will come against every town,
and not a town will escape.
The valley will be ruined
and the plateau destroyed,
because the LORD has spoken.

⁹Put salt on Moab,
for she will be laid waste;^f
her towns will become desolate,
with no-one to live in them.

¹⁰“A curse on those who are lax in doing the LORD’s work!
A curse on those who keep their swords from bloodshed!

¹¹“Moab has been at rest from youth,
like wine left on its dregs,
not poured from one jar to another—
she has not gone into exile.

^a That is, Crete. ^{a1} Or / Misgab ^{b2} The Hebrew for Heshbon sounds like the Hebrew for plot.

^{c2} The name of the Moabite town Madmen sounds like the Hebrew for be silenced.

^{d4} Hebrew: Septuagint / proclaim it to Zoar ^{e6} Or like Aroer ^{f9} Or Give wings to Moab, / for she will fly away

- So she tastes as she did,
and her aroma is unchanged.
- ¹²But days are coming,"
declares the LORD,
"when I will send people who pour
from jars,
and they will pour her out;
they will empty her jars
and smash her jugs.
- ¹³Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh,
as the house of Israel was ashamed
when they trusted in Bethel.
- ¹⁴"How can you say, 'We are warriors,
men valiant in battle'?
- ¹⁵Moab will be destroyed and her towns invaded;
her finest young men will go down in the slaughter,"
declares the King, whose name is
the LORD Almighty.
- ¹⁶"The fall of Moab is at hand;
her calamity will come quickly.
- ¹⁷Mourn for her, all who live around
her,
all who know her fame;
say, 'How broken is the mighty sceptre,
how broken the glorious staff!'
- ¹⁸"Come down from your glory
and sit on the parched ground,
O inhabitants of the Daughter of Dibon,
for Moab's destroyer
will come up against you
and ruin your fortified cities.
- ¹⁹Stand by the road and watch,
you who live in Aroer.
Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping,
ask them, 'What has happened?'
- ²⁰Moab is disgraced, for she is
shattered.
Wail and cry out!
Announce by the Arnon
that Moab is destroyed.
- ²¹Judgment has come to the plateau—
to Holon, Jahzah and Mephaath, ²²to Dibon, Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
- ²³to Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul and Beth Meon,
²⁴to Kerioth and Bozrah—to all the towns of Moab, far and near.
- ²⁵Moab's horn^g is cut off;
her arm is broken,"
declares the LORD.
- ²⁶"Make her drunk,
for she has defied the LORD.
Let Moab wallow in her vomit;
let her be an object of ridicule.
- ²⁷Was not Israel the object of your ridicule?
Was she caught among thieves,
that you shake your head in scorn
whenever you speak of her?
- ²⁸Abandon your towns and dwell
among the rocks,
you who live in Moab.
Be like a dove that makes its nest
at the mouth of a cave.
- ²⁹"We have heard of Moab's pride—
her overweening pride and conceit,
her pride and arrogance
and the haughtiness of her heart.
- ³⁰I know her insolence but it is futile,"
declares the LORD,
"and her boasts accomplish
nothing.
- ³¹Therefore I wail over Moab,
for all Moab I cry out,
I moan for the people of Kir Hareseth.
- ³²I weep for you, as Jazer weeps,
O vines of Sibmah.
Your branches spread as far as the sea;
they reached as far as the sea of Jazer.
The destroyer has fallen
on your ripened fruit and grapes.
- ³³Joy and gladness are gone
from the orchards and fields of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine from
the presses;
no-one treads them with shouts of
joy.
Although there are shouts,
they are not shouts of joy.

^g25 Horn here symbolises strength.

34^a "The sound of their cry rises from Heshbon to Elealeh and Jahaz,
from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah, for even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.

35 In Moab I will put an end to those who make offerings on the high places
and burn incense to their gods,"
declares the LORD.

36^a "So my heart laments for Moab like a flute;
it laments like a flute for the people of Kir Hareseth.
The wealth they acquired is gone.

37 Every head is shaved
and every beard cut off;
every hand is slashed
and every waist is covered with sackcloth.

38 On all the roofs in Moab
and in the public squares
there is nothing but mourning,
for I have broken Moab
like a jar that no-one wants,"
declares the LORD.

39^a "How shattered she is! How they wail!
How Moab turns her back in
shame!
Moab has become an object of
ridicule,
an object of horror to all those around her."

40 This is what the LORD says:

"Look! An eagle is swooping down, spreading its wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth^h will be captured and the strongholds taken.
In that day the hearts of Moab's
warriors
will be like the heart of a woman in labour.

42 Moab will be destroyed as a nation
because she defied the LORD.

43 Terror and pit and snare await you,
O people of Moab,"
declares the LORD.

44^a "Whoever flees from the terror
will fall into a pit,
whoever climbs out of the pit
will be caught in a snare;
for I will bring upon Moab
the year of her punishment,"
declares the LORD.

45^a "In the shadow of Heshbon
the fugitives stand helpless,
for a fire has gone out from Heshbon,
a blaze from the midst of Sihon;
it burns the foreheads of Moab,
the skulls of the noisy boasters.

46 Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh are
destroyed;
your sons are taken into exile
and your daughters into captivity.

47^a "Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab
in days to come,"
declares the LORD.

Here ends the judgment on Moab.

A Message About Ammon

49 Concerning the Ammonites:

This is what the LORD says:

"Has Israel no children?
Has she no heirs?
Why then has Molech^a taken possession of Gad?
Why do his people live in its towns?

2 But the days are coming,"
declares the LORD,
"when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites;
it will become a mound of ruins,
and its surrounding villages will be set on fire.

Then Israel will drive out those who drove her out,"
says the LORD.

3 "Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is
destroyed!
Cry out, O inhabitants of Rabbah!

^a41 Or The cities ^a1 Or their king; Hebrew malcam; also in verse 3

Put on sackcloth and mourn;
rush here and there inside the
walls,
for Molech will go into exile,
together with his priests and
officials.

⁴Why do you boast of your valleys,
boast of your valleys so fruitful?
O unfaithful daughter,
you trust in your riches and say,
'Who will attack me?'

⁵I will bring terror on you from all those around you,"
declares the LORD,
the LORD Almighty.
"Every one of you will be driven
away,
and no-one will gather the fugitives.

⁶"Yet afterwards, I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites,"
declares the LORD.

A Message About Edom

⁷Concerning Edom:

This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom decayed?

⁸Turn and flee, hide in deep caves,
you who live in Dedan,
for I will bring disaster on Esau
at the time I punish him.

⁹If grape-pickers came to you,
would they not leave a few grapes?
If thieves came during the night,
would they not steal only as much
as they wanted?

¹⁰But I will strip Esau bare;
I will uncover his hiding-places,
so that he cannot conceal himself.
His children, relatives and neighbours
will perish,
and he will be no more.

¹¹Leave your orphans; I will protect their lives.
Your widows too can trust in me."

¹²This is what the LORD says: "If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, why should you go unpunished?
You will not go unpunished, but must drink it. ¹³I swear by myself," declares the LORD, "that Bozrah will become a ruin and an object of horror, of reproach and of cursing; and all its towns will be in ruins
for ever."

¹⁴I have heard a message from the
LORD:
An envoy was sent to the nations to
say,
"Assemble yourselves to attack it!
Rise up for battle!"

¹⁵"Now I will make you small among
the nations,
despised among the peoples.

¹⁶The terror you inspire and the pride of your heart have deceived you,
you who live in the clefts of the rocks,
who occupy the heights of the hill.
Though you build your nest as high as
the eagle's,
from there I will bring you down."
declares the LORD.

¹⁷"Edom will become an object of horror;
all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff
because of all its wounds.

¹⁸As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown,
along with their neighbouring
towns,"
says the LORD.

"so no-one will live there;
no-one will dwell in it.

¹⁹"Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets
to a rich pasture-land,
I will chase Edom from its land in an instant.

Who is the chosen one I will
appoint for this?
Who is like me and who can challenge
me?
And what shepherd can stand
against me?"

- ²⁰Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Edom, what he has purposed against those who live in Teman:
The young of the flock will be dragged
away;
he will completely destroy their
pasture because of them.
- ²¹At the sound of their fall the earth will
tremble;
their cry will resound to the Red Sea.^b
- ²²Look! An eagle will soar and swoop
down,
spreading its wings over Bozrah.
In that day the hearts of Edom's
warriors
will be like the heart of a woman in labour.

A Message About Damascus

- ²³Concerning Damascus:
- "Hamath and Arpad are dismayed,
for they have heard bad news.
They are disheartened,
troubled like^c the restless sea.
- ²⁴Damascus has become feeble,
she has turned to flee
and panic has gripped her;
anguish and pain have seized her,
pain like that of a woman in labour.
- ²⁵Why has the city of renown not been abandoned,
the town in which I delight?
- ²⁶Surely, her young men will fall in the
streets;
all her soldiers will be silenced in
that day,"
- declares the LORD Almighty.
- ²⁷"I will set fire to the walls of Damascus;
it will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad."

A Message About Kedar and Hazor

- ²⁸Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon attacked:

This is what the LORD says:

- "Arise, and attack Kedar
and destroy the people of the East.
- ²⁹Their tents and their flocks will be
taken;
their shelters will be carried off
with all their goods and camels.
People will shout to them,
'Terror on every side!'
- ³⁰"Flee quickly away!
Stay in deep caves, you who live in Hazor,"
- declares the LORD.
- "Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon
has plotted against you;
he has devised a plan against you.
- ³¹"Arise and attack a nation at ease,
which lives in confidence,"
- declares the LORD,
- "a nation that has neither gates nor bars;
its people live alone.
- ³²Their camels will become plunder,
and their large herds will be booty.
I will scatter to the winds those who are in distant places^d
and will bring disaster on them from every side,"
- declares the LORD.
- ³³"Hazor will become a haunt of jackals,
a desolate place for ever.
No-one will live there;
no-one will dwell in it."

A Message About Elam

- ³⁴This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, early in the reign of Zedekiah king
of Judah:
- ³⁵This is what the LORD Almighty says:
- "See, I will break the bow of Elam,
the mainstay of their might.
- ³⁶I will bring against Elam the four winds

^{b21} Hebrew Yam Suph; that is, Sea of Reeds ^{c23} Hebrew on or by ^{d32} Or who clip the hair by their foreheads

from the four quarters of the
heavens;

I will scatter them to the four winds,
and there will not be a nation
where Elam's exiles do not go.

³⁷I will shatter Elam before their foes,
before those who seek their lives;
I will bring disaster upon them,
even my fierce anger."

declares the LORD.

"I will pursue them with the sword
until I have made an end of them.

³⁸I will set my throne in Elam and destroy her king and officials,"
declares the LORD.

³⁹"Yet I will restore the fortunes of Elam
in days to come."

declares the LORD.

A Message About Babylon

50 This is the word the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians:^a

²"Announce and proclaim among the
nations,

lift up a banner and proclaim it;
keep nothing back, but say,

'Babylon will be captured;

Bel will be put to shame,
Marduk filled with terror.

Her images will be put to shame
and her idols filled with terror.'

³A nation from the north will attack
her

and lay waste her land.

No-one will live in it;

both people and animals will flee
away.

⁴"In those days, at that time,"

declares the LORD,

"the people of Israel and the people of Judah together

will go in tears to seek the LORD
their God.

⁵They will ask the way to Zion
and turn their faces towards it.

They will come and bind themselves
to the LORD

in an everlasting covenant
that will not be forgotten.

⁶"My people have been lost sheep;
their shepherds have led them
astray

and caused them to roam on the
mountains.

They wandered over mountain and hill

and forgot their own resting place.

⁷Whoever found them devoured them;
their enemies said, 'We are not
guilty,

for they sinned against the LORD, their true pasture.

the LORD, the hope of their
ancestors.'

⁸"Flee out of Babylon;

leave the land of the Babylonians,
and be like the goats that lead the
flock.

⁹For I will stir up and bring against Babylon

an alliance of great nations from the land of the north.

They will take up their positions
against her,

and from the north she will be
captured.

Their arrows will be like skilled warriors

who do not return empty-handed.

¹⁰So Babylonia^b will be plundered;
all who plunder her will have their fill,"

declares the LORD.

¹¹"Because you rejoice and are glad,
you who pillage my inheritance,

because you frolic like a heifer threshing corn

and neigh like stallions,

¹²your mother will be greatly ashamed;
she who gave you birth will be
disgraced.

She will be the least of the nations—
a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.

^a Or Chaldeans; also in verses 8, 25, 35 and 45 ^b 10 Or Chaldea

¹³Because of the LORD's anger she will not be inhabited
but will be completely desolate.
All who pass Babylon will be horrified and scoff
because of all her wounds.

¹⁴"Take up your positions round
Babylon,
all you who draw the bow.
Shoot at her! Spare no arrows,
for she has sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵Shout against her on every side!
She surrenders, her towers fall,
her walls are torn down.
Since this is the vengeance of the

LORD,
take vengeance on her;
do to her as she has done to others.

¹⁶Cut off from Babylon the sowers, and the reapers with their sickles at harvest.

Because of the sword of the oppressor
let the captives return to their own
people,
let them all flee to their own lands.

¹⁷"Israel is a scattered flock that lions have chased away.
The first to devour them
was the king of Assyria;
the last to crush their bones
was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon."

¹⁸Therefore this is what the LORD
Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

"I will punish the king of Babylon and his land
as I punished the king of Assyria.

¹⁹But I will bring Israel back to their own pasture
and they will graze on Carmel and Bashan;
their appetite will be satisfied
on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰In those days, at that time,"

declares the LORD,
"search will be made for Israel's guilt,
but there will be none,

and for the sins of Judah,
but none will be found,
for I will forgive the remnant I spare.

²¹"Attack the land of Merathaim
and those who live in Pekod.
Pursue, kill and completely destroy^c
them,"

declares the LORD.

"Do everything I have commanded
you.

²²The noise of battle is in the land,
the noise of great destruction!

²³How broken and shattered is the hammer of the whole earth!
How desolate is Babylon
among the nations!

²⁴I set a trap for you, O Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it;

you were found and captured
because you opposed the LORD.

²⁵The LORD has opened his arsenal and brought out the weapons of his
wrath,

for the Sovereign LORD Almighty has work to do
in the land of the Babylonians.

²⁶Come against her from afar.
Break open her granaries;
pile her up like heaps of grain.
Completely destroy her
and leave her no remnant.

²⁷Kill all her young bulls;
let them go down to the slaughter!
Woe to them! For their day has come,
the time for them to be punished.

²⁸Listen to the fugitives and refugees from Babylon
declaring in Zion
how the LORD our God has taken
vengeance,
vengeance for his temple.

²⁹"Summon archers against Babylon,
all those who draw the bow.
Encamp all round her;
let no-one escape.
Repay her for her deeds;
do to her as she has done.

^c21 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verse 26.

- For she defied the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.
³⁰Therefore, her young men will fall in
the streets;
all her soldiers will be silenced in
that day,"
declares the LORD.
³¹"See, I am against you, O arrogant one,"
declares the LORD, the LORD
Almighty,
"for your day has come,
the time for you to be punished.
³²The arrogant one will stumble and fall
and no-one will help her up;
I will kindle a fire in her towns that will consume all who are
around her."
³³This is what the LORD Almighty says:
"The people of Israel are oppressed,
and the people of Judah as well.
All their captors hold them fast,
refusing to let them go.
³⁴Yet their Redeemer is strong;
the LORD Almighty is his name.
He will vigorously defend their cause so that he may bring rest to their
land,
but unrest to those who live in Babylon.
³⁵"A sword against the Babylonians!"
declares the LORD—
"against those who live in Babylon and against her officials and wise counsellors!
³⁶A sword against her false prophets!
They will become fools.
A sword against her warriors!
They will be filled with terror.
³⁷A sword against her horses and
chariots
and all the foreigners in her ranks!
They will become weaklings.
A sword against her treasures!
They will be plundered.
³⁸A drought on^d her waters!
They will dry up.
For it is a land of idols,
idols that will go mad with terror.

- ³⁹"So desert creatures and hyenas will live there,
and there the owl will dwell.
It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
⁴⁰As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah
along with their neighbouring
towns,"
declares the LORD,
"so no-one will live there;
no-one will dwell in it.
⁴¹"Look! An army is coming from the north;
a great nation and many kings
are being stirred up from the ends
of the earth.
⁴²They are armed with bows and spears;
they are cruel and without mercy.
They sound like the roaring sea
as they ride on their horses;
they come like men in battle
formation
to attack you, O Daughter of Babylon.
⁴³The king of Babylon has heard reports about them,
and his hands hang limp.
Anguish has gripped him,
pain like that of a woman in labour.
⁴⁴Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets
to a rich pasture-land,
I will chase Babylon from its land in an instant.
Who is the chosen one I will
appoint for this?
Who is like me and who can challenge
me?
And what shepherd can stand
against me?"
⁴⁵Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Babylon,
what he has purposed against the land of the Babylonians:
The young of the flock will be dragged
away;
he will completely destroy their
pasture because of them.

^{d38} Or A sword against

⁴⁶At the sound of Babylon's capture the earth will tremble;
its cry will resound among the nations.

51 This is what the LORD says:

"See, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon and the people of Leb Kamai.^a

²I will send foreigners to Babylon to winnow her and to devastate her
land;

they will oppose her on every side
in the day of her disaster.

³Let not the archer string his bow,
nor let him put on his armour.
Do not spare her young men;
completely destroy^b her army.

⁴They will fall down slain in Babylon,^c fatally wounded in her streets.

⁵For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken
by their God, the LORD Almighty, though their land^d is full of guilt
before the Holy One of Israel.

⁶"Flee from Babylon!
Run for your lives!
Do not be destroyed because of her
sins.

It is time for the LORD's vengeance;
he will pay her what she deserves.

⁷Babylon was a gold cup in the LORD's
hand;

she made the whole earth drunk.

The nations drank her wine;
therefore they have now gone mad.

⁸Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken.

Wail over her!

Get balm for her pain;
perhaps she can be healed.

⁹"We would have healed Babylon,
but she cannot be healed;
let us leave her and each go to our
own land,
for her judgment reaches to the skies,
it rises as high as the clouds.'

¹⁰"The LORD has vindicated us;
come, let us tell in Zion
what the LORD our God has
done.'

¹¹"Sharpen the arrows, take up the shields!
The LORD has stirred up the kings of the Medes,
because his purpose is to destroy Babylon.

The LORD will take vengeance,
vengeance for his temple.

¹²Lift up a banner against the walls of Babylon!

Reinforce the guard,
station the watchmen,
prepare an ambush!

The LORD will carry out his purpose,
his decree against the people of Babylon.

¹³You who live by many waters
and are rich in treasures,
your end has come,
the time for you to be cut off.

¹⁴The LORD Almighty has sworn by
himself:

I will surely fill you with troops, as
with a swarm of locusts,
and they will shout in triumph over
you.

¹⁵"He made the earth by his power;
he founded the world by his
wisdom
and stretched out the heavens by
his understanding.

¹⁶When he thunders, the waters in the
heavens roar;
he makes clouds rise from the ends
of the earth.

He sends lightning with the rain
and brings out the wind from his
storehouses.

¹⁷"All people are senseless and without
knowledge;
all goldsmiths are shamed by their
idols.

Their images are a fraud;
they have no breath in them.

^a1 Leb Kamai is a cryptogram for Chaldea, that is, Babylonia.

^b3 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the Lord, often by totally destroying them. ^c4 Or Chaldea ^d5 Or I and the land of the Babylonians.

¹⁸They are worthless, the objects of mockery;
when their judgment comes, they will perish.

¹⁹He who is the Portion of Jacob is not like these,
for he is the Maker of all things,
including the tribe of his inheritance—
the LORD Almighty is his name.

²⁰“You are my war club,
my weapon for battle—
with you I shatter nations,
with you I destroy kingdoms,

²¹with you I shatter horse and rider,
with you I shatter chariot and driver,

²²with you I shatter man and woman,
with you I shatter old man and youth,
with you I shatter young man and young woman,

²³with you I shatter shepherd and flock,
with you I shatter farmer and oxen,
with you I shatter governors and officials.

²⁴“Before your eyes I will repay Babylon and all who live in Babylonia^e for all the wrong they have done in Zion,” declares the LORD.

²⁵“I am against you, O destroying mountain,
you who destroy the whole earth,”
declares the LORD.

“I will stretch out my hand against you,
roll you off the cliffs,
and make you a burnt-out mountain.

²⁶No rock will be taken from you for a cornerstone,
nor any stone for a foundation,
for you will be desolate for ever,”
declares the LORD.

²⁷“Lift up a banner in the land!
Blow the trumpet among the nations!
Prepare the nations for battle against her;

summon against her these kingdoms:

Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz.

Appoint a commander against her;
send up horses like a swarm of locusts.

²⁸Prepare the nations for battle against her—
the kings of the Medes,
their governors and all their officials,
and all the countries they rule.

²⁹The land trembles and writhes,
for the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand—

to lay waste the land of Babylon
so that no-one will live there.

³⁰Babylon's warriors have stopped fighting;
they remain in their strongholds.
Their strength is exhausted;
they have become weaklings.
Her dwellings are set on fire;
the bars of her gates are broken.

³¹One courier follows another and messenger follows messenger to announce to the king of Babylon
that his entire city is captured.

³²the river crossings seized,
the marshes set on fire,
and the soldiers terrified.”

³³This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

“The Daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor
at the time it is trampled;
the time to harvest her will soon come.”

³⁴“Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured us,
he has thrown us into confusion,
he has made us an empty jar.
Like a serpent he has swallowed us
and filled his stomach with our delicacies,
and then has spewed us out.

³⁵May the violence done to our flesh/be upon Babylon,” say the inhabitants of Zion.

^e24 Or Chaldea; also in verse 35 / 35 Or done to us and to our children

"May our blood be on those who live in Babylonia," says Jerusalem.

³⁶Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

"See, I will defend your cause
and avenge you;
I will dry up her sea
and make her springs dry.

³⁷Babylon will be a heap of ruins,
a haunt of jackals,
an object of horror and scorn,
a place where no-one lives.

³⁸Her people all roar like young lions,
they growl like lion cubs.

³⁹But while they are aroused,
I will set out a feast for them
and make them drunk,
so that they shout with laughter—
then sleep for ever and not awake,"
declares the LORD.

⁴⁰"I will bring them down
like lambs to the slaughter,
like rams and goats.

⁴¹"How Sheshach^g will be captured,
the boast of the whole earth seized!
What a horror Babylon will be
among the nations!

⁴²The sea will rise over Babylon;
its roaring waves will cover her.

⁴³Her towns will be desolate, a dry and desert land,
a land where no-one lives,
through which no-one travels.

⁴⁴I will punish Bel in Babylon and make him spew out what he has swallowed.
The nations will no longer stream to
him.
And the wall of Babylon will fall.

⁴⁵"Come out of her, my people!
Run for your lives!
Run from the fierce anger of the
LORD.

⁴⁶Do not lose heart or be afraid when rumours are heard in the
land;
one rumour comes this year, another
the next,

rumours of violence in the land
and of ruler against ruler.

⁴⁷For the time will surely come when I will punish the idols of Babylon;
her whole land will be disgraced and her slain will all lie fallen within
her.

⁴⁸Then heaven and earth and all that is in them
will shout for joy over Babylon, for out of the north destroyers will attack her,"
declares the LORD.

⁴⁹"Babylon must fall because of Israel's slain,
just as the slain in all the earth
have fallen because of Babylon.

⁵⁰You who have escaped the sword,
leave and do not linger!
Remember the LORD in a distant
land,
and think on Jerusalem."

⁵¹"We are disgraced, for we have been insulted
and shame covers our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's
house."

⁵²"But days are coming," declares the
LORD,
"when I will punish her idols,
and throughout her land
the wounded will groan.

⁵³Even if Babylon reaches the sky
and fortifies her lofty stronghold,
I will send destroyers against her,"
declares the LORD.

⁵⁴"The sound of a cry comes from Babylon,
the sound of great destruction
from the land of the Babylonians.^h

⁵⁵The LORD will destroy Babylon;
he will silence her noisy din.
Waves of enemies will rage like great waters;
the roar of their voices will resound.

^g41 Sheshach is a cryptogram for Babylon. ^h54 Or Chaldeans

⁵⁶A destroyer will come against Babylon;
her warriors will be captured,
and their bows will be broken.
For the LORD is a God of retribution;
he will repay in full.

⁵⁷I will make her officials and wise
counsellors drunk,
her governors, officers and warriors as well;
they will sleep for ever and not awake,"
declares the King, whose name is
the LORD Almighty.

⁵⁸This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Babylon's thick wall will be levelled and her high gates set on fire;
the peoples exhaust themselves for
nothing,
the nations' labour is only fuel for the flames."

⁵⁹This is the message Jeremiah gave to the staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went to Babylon with Zedekiah king of Judah in the fourth year of his reign. ⁶⁰Jeremiah had written on a scroll about all the disasters that would come upon Babylon—all that had been recorded concerning Babylon. ⁶¹He said to Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud. ⁶²Then say, 'O LORD, you have said you will destroy this place, so that neither people nor animals will live in it; it will be desolate for ever.' ⁶³When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates. ⁶⁴Then say, 'So will Babylon sink to rise no more because of the disaster I will bring upon her. And her people will fall.'"

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah. ²He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. ³It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah, and in the end he thrust them from his presence.

Now Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁴So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. They camped outside the city and built siege works all around it. ⁵The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

⁶By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat. ⁷Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled. They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Babylonians^a were surrounding the city. They fled towards the Arabah,^b ⁸but the Babylonian^c army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered. ⁹and he was captured.

He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him. ¹⁰There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes; he also killed all the officials of Judah. ¹¹Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon, where he put him in prison till the day of his death.

¹²On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ¹³He set fire to the temple of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down. ¹⁴The whole Babylonian army under the commander of the

^{a7} Or Chaldeans; also in verse 17

^{b7} Or the Jordan Valley

^{c8} Or Chaldean; also in verse 14

imperial guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem. ¹⁵Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the rest of the skilled workers^d and those who had gone over to the king of Babylon. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan left behind the rest of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.

¹⁷The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars, the movable stands and the bronze Sea that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried all the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and all the bronze articles used in the temple service. ¹⁹The commander of the imperial guard took away the basins, censers, sprinkling bowls, pots, lamp-stands, dishes and bowls used for drink offerings—all that were made of pure gold or silver.

²⁰The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed.

²¹Each of the pillars was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference;^e each was four fingers thick, and hollow.

²²The bronze capital on the top of the one pillar was five cubits high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; the total number of pomegranates above the surrounding network was a hundred.

²⁴The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men, and seven royal advisers. He also took the secretary who was chief officer in charge of conscripting the people of the land and sixty of his men who were found in the city. ²⁶Nebuzaradan the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷There at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed.

So Judah went into captivity, away from her land. ²⁸This is the number of the people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile:

in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;
²⁹in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year,
 832 people from Jerusalem;
³⁰in his twenty-third year,
 745 Jews taken into exile by Nebuzaradan the commander of the imperial guard.

There were 4,600 people in all.

Jehoiachin Released

³¹In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the year Evil-Merodach⁸ became king of Babylon, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah and freed him from prison on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month. ³²He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honour higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table. ³⁴Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance as long as he lived, till the day of his death.

Lamentations

¹^a How deserted lies the city, once so full of people!
How like a widow is she,
who once was great among the
nations!
She who was queen among the provinces
has now become a slave.

²Bitterly she weeps at night,
tears are upon her cheeks.
Among all her lovers
there is none to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her;
they have become her enemies.

³After affliction and harsh labour,
Judah has gone into exile.
She dwells among the nations;
she finds no resting place.
All who pursue her have overtaken
her
in the midst of her distress.

⁴The roads to Zion mourn,
for no-one comes to her appointed
feasts.
All her gateways are desolate,
her priests groan,
her young women grieve,
and she is in bitter anguish.

⁵Her foes have become her masters;
her enemies are at ease.
The LORD has brought her grief
because of her many sins.
Her children have gone into exile,
captive before the foe.

⁶All the splendour has departed
from the Daughter of Zion.
Her princes are like deer
that find no pasture;
in weakness they have fled
before the pursuer.

⁷In the days of her affliction and wandering
Jerusalem remembers all the treasures
that were hers in days of old.
When her people fell into enemy
hands,
there was no-one to help her.
Her enemies looked at her
and laughed at her destruction.

⁸Jerusalem has sinned greatly and so has become unclean.
All who honoured her despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness;
she herself groans
and turns away.

⁹Her filthiness clung to her skirts;
she did not consider her future.
Her fall was astounding;
there was none to comfort her.
“Look, O LORD, on my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed.”

¹⁰The enemy laid hands
on all her treasures;
she saw pagan nations
enter her sanctuary—
those you had forbidden
to enter your assembly.

^aThis chapter is an acrostic poem, the verses of which begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

¹¹All her people groan
as they search for bread;
they barter their treasures for food
to keep themselves alive.

"Look, O LORD, and consider,
for I am despised."

¹²"Is it nothing to you, all you who pass
by?

Look around and see.

Is any suffering like my suffering
that was inflicted on me,
that the LORD brought on me
in the day of his fierce anger?

¹³"From on high he sent fire, sent it down into my bones.

He spread a net for my feet
and turned me back.

He made me desolate,
faint all the day long.

¹⁴"My sins have been bound into a yoke;^b

by his hands they were woven
together.

They have come upon my neck and the Lord has sapped my
strength.

He has handed me over to those I cannot withstand.

¹⁵"The Lord has rejected
all the warriors in my midst;
he has summoned an army against me
to^c crush my young men.

In his winepress the Lord has trampled
the Virgin Daughter of Judah.

¹⁶"This is why I weep
and my eyes overflow with tears.

No-one is near to comfort me,
no-one to restore my spirit.

My children are destitute
because the enemy has prevailed."

¹⁷Zion stretches out her hands,
but there is no-one to comfort her.

The LORD has decreed for Jacob

that his neighbours become his foes; Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

¹⁸"The LORD is righteous,
yet I rebelled against his command.

Listen, all you peoples;
look upon my suffering.

My young men and young women
have gone into exile.

¹⁹"I called to my allies
but they betrayed me.

My priests and my elders perished in the city while they searched for food
to keep themselves alive.

²⁰"See, O LORD, how distressed I am!

I am in torment within,
and in my heart I am disturbed,
for I have been most rebellious.

Outside, the sword bereaves;
inside, there is only death.

²¹"People have heard my groaning,
but there is no-one to comfort me.

All my enemies have heard of my
distress;

they rejoice at what you have done.
May you bring the day you have announced

so that they may become like me.

²²"Let all their wickedness come before
you;

deal with them
as you have dealt with me
because of all my sins.

My groans are many
and my heart is faint."

2^a How the Lord has covered the Daughter of Zion
with the cloud of his anger!^b
He has hurled down the splendour of Israel
from heaven to earth;
he has not remembered his footstool
in the day of his anger.

²Without pity the Lord has swallowed
up
all the dwellings of Jacob;
in his wrath he has torn down
the strongholds of the Daughter of

He has brought her kingdom and its princes
down to the ground in dishonour.

³In fierce anger he has cut off
every horn^c of Israel.
He has withdrawn his right hand
at the approach of the enemy.
He has burned in Jacob like a flaming ⁴Like an enemy he has strung his bow;

his right hand is ready.
Like a foe he has slain
all who were pleasing to the eye;
he has poured out his wrath like fire

⁵The Lord is like an enemy;
he has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces

He has multiplied mourning and lamentation
for the Daughter of Judah.

⁶He has laid waste his dwelling like a
garden;
he has destroyed his place of meeting.
The Lord has made Zion forget her appointed feasts and her Sabbaths;
in his fierce anger he has spurned
both king and priest.

⁷The Lord has rejected his altar
and abandoned his sanctuary.
He has handed over to the enemy
the walls of her palaces;
they have raised a shout in the house
of the LORD
as on the day of an appointed feast.

⁸The Lord determined to tear down
the wall around the Daughter of Zion.
He stretched out a measuring line and did not withhold his hand from destroying.
He made ramparts and walls lament;
together they wasted away.

⁹Her gates have sunk into the ground;
their bars he has broken and
destroyed.
Her king and her princes are exiled
among the nations,
the law is no more,
and her prophets no longer find visions from the Lord.

¹⁰The elders of the Daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence;
they have sprinkled dust on their heads and put on sackcloth.
The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the
ground.

¹¹My eyes fail from weeping.
I am in torment within,
my heart is poured out on the ground
because my people are destroyed,
because children and infants faint
in the streets of the city.

¹²They say to their mothers,
"Where is bread and wine?"
as they faint like the wounded
in the streets of the city,
as their lives ebb away
in their mothers' arms.

¹³What can I say for you?
With what can I compare you,
O Daughter of Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you,
that I may comfort you,
O Virgin Daughter of Zion?
Your wound is as deep as the sea.
Who can heal you?

¹⁴The visions of your prophets were false and worthless;

^c Or / all the strength; or every king; horn here symbolises strength.

they did not expose your sin
to ward off your captivity.
The oracles they gave you were false and misleading.

¹⁵All who pass your way
clap their hands at you;
they scoff and shake their heads
at the Daughter of Jerusalem: “Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?”

¹⁶All your enemies open their mouths wide against you;
they scoff and gnash their teeth
and say, “We have swallowed her up.
This is the day we have waited for;
we have lived to see it.”

¹⁷The LORD has done what he planned;
he has fulfilled his word,
which he decreed long ago.
He has overthrown you without pity,
he has let the enemy gloat over you,
he has exalted the horn^d of your
foes.

¹⁸The hearts of the people
cry out to the Lord.
O wall of the Daughter of Zion,
let your tears flow like a river
day and night;
give yourself no relief,
your eyes no rest.

¹⁹Arise, cry out in the night,
as the watches of the night begin;
pour out your heart like water
in the presence of the Lord.
Lift up your hands to him
for the lives of your children, who faint from hunger
at the head of every street.

²⁰“Look, O LORD, and consider:
Whom have you ever treated like
this?
Should women eat their offspring,
the children they have cared for?

Should priest and prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

²¹“Young and old lie together in the dust of the streets;
my young men and young women
have fallen by the sword.
You have slain them in the day of your
anger;
you have slaughtered them without
pity.

²²“As you summon to a feast day,
so you summoned against me
terrors on every side.
In the day of the LORD’s anger
no-one escaped or survived;
those I cared for and reared,
my enemy has destroyed.”

3^a I am one who has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

²He has driven me away and made me walk
in darkness rather than light; ³indeed, he has turned his hand against
me
again and again, all day long.

⁴He has made my skin and my flesh grow old
and has broken my bones.
⁵He has besieged me and surrounded
me
with bitterness and hardship.
⁶He has made me dwell in darkness
like those long dead.

⁷He has walled me in so that I cannot
escape;
he has weighed me down with chains.

⁸Even when I call out or cry for help,
he shuts out my prayer.
⁹He has barred my way with blocks of
stone;
he has made my paths crooked.

¹⁰Like a bear lying in wait,
like a lion in hiding,

^{d17} Horn here symbolises strength.

^aThis chapter is an acrostic poem; the verses of each stanza begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet, and the verses within each stanza begin with the same letter.

¹¹He dragged me from the path and mangled me
and left me without help.

¹²He drew his bow
and made me the target for his arrows.

¹³He pierced my heart
with arrows from his quiver.

¹⁴I became the laughing-stock of all my
people;
they mock me in song all day long.

¹⁵He has filled me with bitter herbs
and sated me with gall.

¹⁶He has broken my teeth with gravel;
he has trampled me in the dust.

¹⁷I have been deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what prosperity is.

¹⁸So I say, "My splendour is gone and all that I had hoped for from the LORD."

¹⁹I remember my affliction and my
wandering,
the bitterness and the gall.

²⁰I well remember them,
and my soul is downcast within me.

²¹Yet this I call to mind
and therefore I have hope:

²²Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed,
for his compassions never fail.

²³They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

²⁴I say to myself, "The LORD is my
portion;
therefore I will wait for him."

²⁵The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him,
to the one who seeks him;

²⁶it is good to wait quietly
for the salvation of the LORD.

²⁷It is good for people to bear the yoke
while they are young.

²⁸Let them sit alone in silence,
for the LORD has laid it on them.

²⁹Let them bury their faces in the dust—
there may yet be hope.

³⁰Let them offer their cheeks to one who would strike them,
and let them be filled with disgrace.

³¹For people are not cast off
by the LORD for ever.

³²Though he brings grief, he will show
compassion,
so great is his unfailing love.

³³For he does not willingly bring affliction
or grief to any human being.

³⁴To crush underfoot
all prisoners in the land,

³⁵to deny people their rights
before the Most High,

³⁶to deprive them of justice—
would not the LORD see such things?

³⁷Who can speak and have it happen
if the LORD has not decreed it?

³⁸Is it not from the mouth of the Most High
that both calamities and good things come?

³⁹Why should the living complain
when punished for their sins?

⁴⁰Let us examine our ways and test
them,
and let us return to the LORD.

⁴¹Let us lift up our hearts and our hands
to God in heaven, and say:

⁴²"We have sinned and rebelled and you have not forgiven.

⁴³"You have covered yourself with anger and pursued us;
you have slain without pity.

⁴⁴You have covered yourself with a cloud
so that no prayer can get through.

⁴⁵You have made us scum and refuse
among the nations.

⁴⁶"All our enemies have opened their mouths
wide against us.

⁴⁷We have suffered terror and pitfalls,
ruin and destruction."

⁴⁸Streams of tears flow from my eyes
because my people are destroyed.

- ⁴⁹My eyes will flow unceasingly,
without relief,
⁵⁰until the LORD looks down
from heaven and sees.
⁵¹What I see brings grief to my soul because of all the women of my
city.
- ⁵²Those who were my enemies without
cause
hunted me like a bird.
⁵³They tried to end my life in a pit
and threw stones at me; ⁵⁴the waters closed over my head,
and I thought I was about to be cut
off.
- ⁵⁵I called on your name, O LORD,
from the depths of the pit.
⁵⁶You heard my plea: "Do not close your ears
to my cry for relief."
⁵⁷You came near when I called you,
and you said, "Do not fear."
- ⁵⁸O Lord, you took up my case;
you deemed my life.
⁵⁹You have seen, O LORD, the wrong done to me.
Uphold my cause!
⁶⁰You have seen the depth of their vengeance,
all their plots against me.
- ⁶¹O LORD, you have heard their insults,
all their plots against me—
⁶²what my enemies whisper and mutter against me all day long.
⁶³Look at them! Sitting or standing,
they mock me in their songs.
- ⁶⁴Pay them back what they deserve,
O LORD,
for what their hands have done.
⁶⁵Put a veil over their hearts,
and may your curse be on them!
⁶⁶Pursue them in anger and destroy
them
from under the heavens of the
LORD.

⁴^a How the gold has lost its lustre,
the fine gold become dull!
The sacred gems are scattered
at the head of every street.

²How the precious children of Zion,
once worth their weight in gold,
are now considered as pots of clay,
the work of a potter's hands!

³Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young,
but my people have become heartless
like ostriches in the desert.

⁴Because of thirst the infant's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth;
the children beg for bread,
but no-one gives it to them.

⁵Those who once ate delicacies are destitute in the streets.
Those nurtured in purple
now lie on ash heaps.

⁶The punishment of my people is greater than that of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment
without a hand turned to help her.

⁷Their princes were brighter than snow
and whiter than milk,
their bodies more ruddy than rubies,
their appearance like sapphires.^b

⁸But now they are blacker than soot;
they are not recognised in the
streets.
Their skin has shrivelled on their
bones;
it has become as dry as a stick.

⁹Those killed by the sword are better
off
than those who die of famine;
racked with hunger, they waste away
for lack of food from the field.

¹⁰With their own hands compassionate
women

have cooked their own children, who became their food
when my people were destroyed.

¹¹The LORD has given full vent to his
wrath;
he has poured out his fierce anger.
He kindled a fire in Zion
that consumed her foundations.

¹²The kings of the earth did not believe,
nor did any of the world's people,
that enemies and foes could enter
the gates of Jerusalem.

¹³But it happened because of the sins of her prophets
and the iniquities of her priests, who shed within her
the blood of the righteous.

¹⁴Now they grope through the streets
as if they were blind.
They are so defiled with blood that no-one dares to touch their garments.

¹⁵"Go away! You are unclean!" people cry to them.
"Away! Away! Don't touch us!"
When they flee and wander about,
people among the nations say,
"They can stay here no longer."

¹⁶The LORD himself has scattered them;
he no longer watches over them.
The priests are shown no honour,
the elders no favour.

¹⁷Moreover, our eyes failed,
looking in vain for help;
from our towers we watched
for a nation that could not save us.

¹⁸People stalked us at every step,
so we could not walk in our
streets.
Our end was near, our days were numbered,
for our end had come.

¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter
than eagles in the sky;

they chased us over the mountains
and lay in wait for us in the desert.

²⁰The LORD's anointed, our very life breath,
was caught in their traps.
We thought that under his shadow
we would live among the nations.

²¹Rejoice and be glad, O Daughter of Edom,
you who live in the land of Uz.
But to you also the cup will be passed;
you will be drunk and stripped naked.

²²O Daughter of Zion, your punishment will end;
he will not prolong your exile.
But, O Daughter of Edom, he will punish your sin
and expose your wickedness.

5 Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us;
look, and see our disgrace.

²Our inheritance has been turned over to aliens,
our homes to foreigners.

³We have become orphans and
fatherless,
our mothers like widows.

⁴We must buy the water we drink;
our wood can be had only at a price.

⁵Those who pursue us are at our heels;
we are weary and find no rest.

⁶We submitted to Egypt and Assyria to get enough bread.

⁷Our parents sinned and are no more,
and we bear their punishment.

⁸Slaves rule over us,
and there is none to free us from their hands.

⁹We get our bread at the risk of our lives
because of the sword in the desert.

¹⁰Our skin is hot as an oven,
feverish from hunger.

¹¹Women have been ravished in Zion,
and virgins in the towns of Judah.

¹²Princes have been hung up by their
hands;
elders are shown no respect.

¹³Young men toil at the millstones;
boys stagger under loads of wood.

¹⁴The elders are gone from the city
gate;
the young men have stopped their music.

¹⁵Joy is gone from our hearts;
our dancing has turned to mourning.

¹⁶The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!

¹⁷Because of this our hearts are faint;
because of these things our eyes
grow dim

¹⁸for Mount Zion, which lies desolate, with jackals prowling over it.

¹⁹You, O LORD, reign for ever;
your throne endures from generation to generation.

²⁰Why do you always forget us?
Why do you forsake us so long?

²¹Restore us to yourself, O LORD, that we may return;
renew our days as of old

²²unless you have utterly rejected us and are angry with us beyond measure.

Ezekiel

The Living Creatures and the Glory of the LORD

1 In the^a thirtieth year, in the fourth month on the fifth day, while I was among the exiles by the Kebar River, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

²On the fifth of the month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—³the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi,^b by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians.^c There the hand of the LORD was upon him.

⁴I looked, and I saw a windstorm coming out of the north—an immense cloud with flashing lightning and surrounded by brilliant light. The centre of the fire looked like glowing metal,⁵ and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures. In appearance their form was human,⁶ but each of them had four faces and four wings.⁷ Their legs were straight; their feet were like those of a calf and gleamed like burnished bronze.⁸ Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. All four of them had faces and wings,⁹ and their wings touched one another. Each one went straight ahead; they did not turn as they moved.

¹⁰Their faces looked like this: Each of the four had the face of a human being, and on the right side each had the face of a lion, and on the left the face of an ox; each also had the face of an eagle.¹¹ Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out upwards; each had two wings, one touching the wing of another creature on either side, and two wings covering its body.¹² Each one went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went.¹³ The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among the creatures; it was bright, and lightning flashed out of it.¹⁴ The creatures sped back and forth like flashes of lightning.

¹⁵As I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each creature with its four faces.¹⁶ This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: They sparkled like chrysolite, and all four looked alike. Each appeared to be made like a wheel intersecting a wheel.¹⁷ As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the creatures faced; the wheels did not turn about^d as the creatures went.¹⁸ Their rims were high and awesome, and all four rims were full of eyes all around.

¹⁹When the living creatures moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose.²⁰ Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, and the wheels would rise along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.²¹ When the creatures moved, they also moved; when the creatures stood still, they also stood still; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

^a1 Or my, ^b3 Or Ezekiel son of Buzi the priest ^c3 Or Chaldeans ^d17 Or aside

²²Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was what looked like an expanse, sparkling like ice, and awesome.

²³Under the expanse their wings were stretched out one towards the other, and each had two wings covering its body.

²⁴When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings, like the roar of rushing waters, like the voice of the Almighty,^e like the tumult of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.

²⁵Then there came a voice from above the expanse over their heads as they stood with lowered wings. ²⁶Above the expanse over their heads was what looked like a throne of sapphire,^f and high above on the throne was a figure like that of a man.

²⁷I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him. ²⁸Like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him.

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell face down, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel's Call

2 He said to me, "Son of man,^g stand up on your feet and I will speak to you." ²As he spoke, the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet, and I heard him speaking to me.

³He said: "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me to this very day. ⁴The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and stubborn. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.' ⁵And whether they listen or fail to listen—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has been among them. ⁶And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words.

Do not be afraid, though briars and thorns are all around you and you live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of what they say or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house. ⁷You must speak my words to them, whether they listen or fail to listen, for they are rebellious. ⁸But you, son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not rebel like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you."

⁹Then I looked, and I saw a hand stretched out to me. In it was a scroll, ¹⁰which he unrolled before me. On both sides of it were written words of lament and mourning and woe.

3 And he said to me, "Son of man, eat what is before you, eat this scroll; then go and speak to the house of Israel." ²So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

³Then he said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll I am giving you and fill your stomach with it." So I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴He then said to me: "Son of man, go now to the house of Israel and speak my words to them. ⁵You are not being sent to a people of obscure speech and difficult language, but to the house of Israel—⁶not to many peoples of obscure speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you. ⁷But the house of Israel is not willing to listen to you because they are not willing to listen to me, for the whole house of Israel is hardened and obstinate. ⁸But I will make you as unyielding and hardened as they are. ⁹I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house."

¹⁰And he said to me, "Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart all the words I speak to you. ¹¹Go now to your people in exile and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says,' whether they listen or fail to listen."

^e24 Hebrew Shaddai / ^f26 Or lapis lazuli

^g1 The Hebrew ben 'adam means human being. Son of man is retained as a form of address throughout Ezekiel because of its traditional associations.

¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me a loud rumbling sound—May the glory of the LORD be praised in his dwelling-place!—¹³the sound of the wings of the living creatures brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a loud rumbling sound. ¹⁴The Spirit then lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness and in the anger of my spirit, with the strong hand of the LORD upon me. ¹⁵I came to the exiles who lived at Tel Abib near the Kebar River. And there, where they were living, I sat among them for seven days—overwhelmed.

Warning to Israel

¹⁶At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. ¹⁸When I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' and you do not warn them or speak out to dissuade them from their evil ways in order to save their lives, those wicked people will die for^a their sins, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. ¹⁹But if you do warn the wicked and they do not turn from their wickedness or from their evil ways, they will die for their sins; but you will have saved yourself.

²⁰"Again, when the righteous turn from their righteousness and do evil, and I put a stumbling-block before them, they will die. Since you did not warn them, they will die for their sins. The righteous things they did will not be remembered, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. ²¹But if you do warn the righteous not to sin and they do not sin, they will surely live because they took warning, and you will have saved yourself."

²²The hand of the LORD was upon me there, and he said to me, "Get up and go out to the plain, and there I will speak to you." ²³So I got up and went out to the plain. And the glory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell face down.

²⁴Then the Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet. He spoke to me and said: "Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes; you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people. ²⁶I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, though they are a rebellious house. ²⁷But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.' Whoever will listen let them listen, and whoever will refuse let them refuse; for they are a rebellious house.

Siege of Jerusalem Symbolised

4 "Now, son of man, take a clay tablet, put it in front of you and draw the city of Jerusalem on it. ²Then lay siege to it: Erect siege works against it, build a ramp up to it, set up camps against it and put battering-rams around it. ³Then take an iron pan, place it as an iron wall between you and the city and turn your face towards it. It will be under siege, and you shall besiege it. This will be a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴"Then lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel upon yourself. "You are to bear their sin for the number of days you lie on your side. ⁵I have assigned you the same number of days as the years of their sin. So for 390 days you will bear the sin of the house of Israel.

⁶"After you have finished this, lie down again, this time on your right side, and bear the sin of the house of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year. ⁷Turn your face towards the siege of Jerusalem and with bared arm prophesy against her. ⁸I will tie you up with ropes so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished the days of your siege.

⁹"Take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt; put them in a storage jar and use them to make bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the 390 days you lie on your side. ¹⁰Weigh out twenty shekels^b of food to eat each day and eat it at set times. ¹¹Also measure out a sixth of a hin^c of water and drink it at set times. ¹²Eat the food as you would a barley cake; bake it in the sight of the people, using human excrement for fuel.”

¹³The LORD said, “In this way the people of Israel will eat defiled food among the nations where I will drive them.”

¹⁴Then I said, “Not so, Sovereign LORD! I have never defiled myself. From my youth until now I have never eaten anything found dead or torn by wild animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth.”

¹⁵“Very well,” he said, “I will let you bake your bread over cow manure instead of human excrement.”

¹⁶He then said to me: “Son of man, I will cut off the supply of food in Jerusalem. The people will eat rationed food in anxiety and drink rationed water in despair. ¹⁷for food and water will be scarce. They will be appalled at the sight of each other and will waste away because of their sin.

5 “Now, son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a barber’s razor to shave your head and your beard. Then take a set of scales and divide up the hair. ²When the days of your siege come to an end, burn a third of the hair with fire inside the city. Take a third and strike it with the sword all around the city. And scatter a third to the wind. For I will pursue them with drawn sword. ³But take a few strands of hair and tuck them away in the folds of your garment. ⁴Again, take a few of these and throw them into the fire and burn them up. A fire will spread from there to the whole house of Israel.

⁵“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This is Jerusalem, which I have set in the centre of the nations, with countries all around her. ⁶Yet in her wickedness she has rebelled against my laws and decrees more than the nations and countries around her. She has rejected my laws and has not followed my decrees.

⁷“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have been more unruly than the nations around you and have not followed my decrees or kept my laws. You have not even^a conformed to the standards of the nations around you.

⁸“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself am against you, Jerusalem, and I will inflict punishment on you in the sight of the nations. ⁹Because of all your detestable idols, I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again. ¹⁰Therefore in your midst parents will eat their children, and children will eat their parents. I will inflict punishment on you and will scatter all your survivors to the winds. ¹¹Therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your vile images and detestable practices, I myself will withdraw my favour; I will not look on you with pity or spare you. ¹²A third of your people will die of the plague or perish by famine inside you; a third will fall by the sword outside your walls; and a third I will scatter to the winds and pursue with drawn sword.

¹³“Then my anger will cease and my wrath against them will subside, and I will be avenged. And when I have spent my wrath upon them, they will know that I the LORD have spoken in my zeal.

¹⁴“I will make you a ruin and a reproach among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by. ¹⁵You will be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and an object of horror to the nations around you when I inflict punishment on you in anger and in wrath and with stinging rebuke. I the LORD have spoken. ¹⁶When I shoot at you with my deadly and destructive arrows of famine, I will shoot to destroy you. I will bring more and more famine upon you and cut off your supply of food. ¹⁷I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will leave you childless. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I the LORD have spoken.”

A Prophecy Against the Mountains of Israel

6 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, set your face against the mountains of Israel; prophesy against them ³and say: 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴Your altars will be demolished and your incense altars will be smashed; and I will slay your people in front of your idols. ⁵I will lay the dead bodies of the Israelites in front of their idols, and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶Wherever you live, the towns will be laid waste and the high places demolished, so that your altars will be laid waste and devastated, your idols smashed and ruined, your incense altars broken down, and what you have made wiped out. ⁷Your people will fall slain among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

⁸"But I will spare some, for some of you will escape the sword when you are scattered among the lands and nations. ⁹Then in the nations where they have been carried captive, those who escape will remember me—how I have been grieved by their adulterous hearts, which have turned away from me, and by their eyes, which have lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves for the evil they have done and for all their detestable practices. ¹⁰And they will know that I am the LORD; I did not threaten in vain to bring this calamity on them.

¹¹"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Strike your hands together and stamp your feet and cry out "Alas!" because of all the wicked and detestable practices of the house of Israel, for they will fall by the sword, famine and plague. ¹²Those who are far away will die of the plague, and those who are near will fall by the sword, and those who survive and are spared will die of famine. So will I spend my wrath upon them. ¹³And they will know that I am the LORD, when their people lie slain among their idols around their altars, on every high hill and on all the mountaintops, under every spreading tree and every leafy oak—places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols. ¹⁴And I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land a desolate waste from the desert to Diblah^a—wherever they live. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

The End Has Come

7 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says to the land of Israel: The end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land. ³The end is now upon you and I will unleash my anger against you. I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices. ⁴I will not look on you with pity or spare you; I will surely repay you for your conduct and the detestable practices among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Disaster! An unheard-of^a disaster is coming. ⁶The end has come! The end has come! It has roused itself against you. It has come! ⁷Doom has come upon you—you who dwell in the land. The time has come, the day is near; there is panic, not joy, upon the mountains. ⁸I am about to pour out my wrath on you and spend my anger against you; I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices. ⁹I will not look on you with pity or spare you; I will repay you in accordance with your conduct and the detestable practices among you. Then you will know that it is I the LORD who strikes the blow.

that crowd—no wealth, nothing of value. ¹²The time has come, the day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice nor the seller grieve, for wrath is upon the whole crowd. ¹³The seller will not recover the land that was sold as long as both of them live, for the vision concerning the whole crowd will not be reversed. Because of their sins, not one of them will escape death. ¹⁴Though they blow the trumpet and get everything ready, no-one will go into battle, for my wrath is upon the whole crowd.

¹⁵“Outside is the sword, inside are plague and famine; those in the country will die by the sword, and those in the city will be devoured by famine and plague. ¹⁶All who survive and escape will be in the mountains, moaning like doves of the valleys because of their sins. ¹⁷Every hand will go limp, and every knee will become as weak as water. ¹⁸They will put on sackcloth and be clothed with terror. Their faces will be covered with shame and their heads will be shaved. ¹⁹They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be an unclean thing. Their silver and gold will not be able to save them in the day of the LORD’s wrath. They will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it, for it has made them stumble into sin. ²⁰They were proud of their beautiful jewellery and used it to make their detestable idols and vile images. Therefore I will turn these into an unclean thing for them. ²¹I will hand it all over as plunder to foreigners and as loot to the wicked of the earth, and they will defile it. ²²I will turn my face away from them, and they will desecrate my treasured place; robbers will enter it and desecrate it.

²³“Prepare chains, because the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of violence. ²⁴I will bring the most wicked of the nations to take possession of their houses; I will put an end to the pride of the mighty, and their sanctuaries will be desecrated. ²⁵When terror comes, they will seek peace, but there will be none. ²⁶Calamity upon calamity will come, and rumour upon rumour. They will try to get a vision from the prophet; the teaching of the law by the priest will be lost, as will the counsel of the elders. ²⁷The king will mourn, the prince will be clothed with despair, and the hands of the people of the land will tremble. I will deal with them according to their conduct, and by their own standards I will judge them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Idolatry in the Temple

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth month on the fifth day, while I was sitting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting before me, the hand of the Sovereign LORD came upon me there. ²I looked, and I saw a figure like that of a man.^a From what appeared to be his waist down he was like fire, and from there up his appearance was as bright as glowing metal. ³He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and in visions of God he took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance to the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes to jealousy stood. ⁴And there before me was the glory of the God of Israel, as in the vision I had seen in the plain.

⁵Then he said to me, “Son of man, look towards the north.” So I looked, and in the entrance north of the gate of the altar I saw this idol of jealousy.

⁶And he said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the utterly detestable things the house of Israel is doing here, things that will drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see things that are even more detestable.”

⁷Then he brought me to the entrance to the court. I looked, and I saw a hole in the wall. ⁸He said to me, “Son of man, now dig into the wall.” So I dug into the wall and saw a doorway there.

⁹And he said to me, “Go in and see the wicked and detestable things they are doing here.” ¹⁰So I went in and looked, and I saw portrayed all over the walls all kinds of crawling things and detestable animals and all the idols of the house of

^a2 Or saw a fiery figure

Israel. ¹¹In front of them stood seventy elders of the house of Israel, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing among them. Each had a censer in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising.

¹²He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his own idol? They say, 'The LORD does not see us; the LORD has forsaken the land.'" ¹³Again, he said, "You will see them doing things that are even more detestable."

¹⁴Then he brought me to the entrance to the north gate of the house of the LORD, and I saw women sitting there, mourning for Tammuz. ¹⁵He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? You will see things that are even more detestable than this."

¹⁶He then brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men. With their backs towards the temple of the LORD and their faces towards the east, they were bowing down to the sun in the east.

¹⁷He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a trivial matter for the house of Judah to do the detestable things they are doing here? Must they also fill the land with violence and continually provoke me to anger? Look at them putting the branch to their nose! ¹⁸Therefore I will deal with them in anger; I will not look on them with pity or spare them. Although they shout in my ears, I will not listen to them."

Idolaters Killed

9 Then I heard him call out in a loud voice, "Bring the guards of the city here, each with a weapon in his hand." ²And I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man clothed in linen who had a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

³Now the glory of the God of Israel went up from above the cherubim, where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. Then the LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side ⁴and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament over all the detestable things that are done in it."

⁵As I listened, he said to the others, "Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity or compassion. ⁶Slaughter the old men, the young men and women, the mothers and children, but do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

⁷Then he said to them, "Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!" So they went out and began killing throughout the city. ⁸While they were killing and I was left alone, I fell face down, crying out, "Ah, Sovereign LORD! Are you going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel in this outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

⁹He answered me, "The sin of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of injustice. They say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land; the LORD does not see.' ¹⁰So I will not look on them with pity or spare them, but I will bring down on their own heads what they have done."

¹¹Then the man in linen with the writing kit at his side brought back word, saying, "I have done as you commanded."

The Glory Departs From the Temple

10 I looked, and I saw the likeness of a throne of sapphire^a above the expanse that was over the heads of the cherubim. ²The LORD said to the man clothed in linen, "Go in among the wheels beneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And as I watched, he went in.

³Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court. ⁴Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the temple. The cloud filled the temple, and the court was full of the radiance of the glory of the LORD. ⁵The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far away as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty^b when he speaks.

⁹I looked, and I saw beside the cherubim four wheels, one beside each of the cherubim; the wheels sparkled like chrysolite. ¹⁰As for their appearance, the four of them looked alike; each was like a wheel intersecting a wheel. ¹¹As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the cherubim faced; the wheels did not turn about^c as the cherubim went. The cherubim went in whatever direction the head faced, without turning as they went. ¹²Their entire bodies, including their backs, their hands and their wings, were completely full of eyes, as were their four wheels. ¹³I heard the wheels being called "the whirling wheels". ¹⁴Each of the cherubim had four faces: One face was that of a cherub, the second the face of a human being, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵Then the cherubim rose upwards. These were the living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River. ¹⁶When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not leave their side. ¹⁷When

the cherubim stood still, they also stood still; and when the cherubim rose, they rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

¹⁸Then the glory of the LORD departed from over the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cherubim. ¹⁹While I watched, the cherubim spread their wings and rose from the ground, and as they went, the wheels went with them. They stopped at the entrance to the east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²⁰These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Kebar River, and I realised that they were cherubim. ²¹Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings was what looked like human hands. ²²Their faces had the same appearance as those I had seen by the Kebar River. Each one went straight ahead.

Judgment on Israel's Leaders

11 Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the gate of the house of the LORD that faces east. There at the entrance to the gate were twenty-five men, and I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. ²The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are plotting evil and giving wicked advice in this city. ³They say, 'Will it not soon be time to build houses?'^a This city is a cooking pot, and we are the meat.' ⁴Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man."

⁵Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon me, and he told me to say: "This is what the LORD says: That is what you are saying, O house of Israel, but I know what is going through your mind. ⁶You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

⁷"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: The bodies you have thrown there are the meat and this city is the pot, but I will drive you out of it. ⁸You fear the sword, and the sword is what I will bring against you, declares the Sovereign LORD. ⁹I will drive you out of the city and hand you over to foreigners and inflict punishment on you. ¹⁰You will fall by the sword, and I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹¹This city will not be a pot for you, nor will you be the meat in it; I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel. ¹²And you will know that I am the LORD, for you have not followed my decrees or kept my laws but have conformed to the standards of the nations around you."

¹³Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell face down and cried out in a loud voice, "Ah, Sovereign LORD! Will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?"

¹⁴The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁵"Son of man, your own people—those who are your blood-relatives^b and the whole house of Israel—are those of whom the people of Jerusalem have said, 'They are^c far away from the LORD; this land was given to us as our possession.'

Promised Return of Israel

¹⁶"Therefore say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone.'

¹⁷"Therefore say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will gather you from the nations and bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you back the land of Israel again.'

¹⁸"They will return to it and remove all its vile images and detestable idols. ¹⁹I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh. ²⁰Then they will follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. They will be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹But as for those whose hearts are devoted to their vile images and detestable idols, I will bring down on their own heads what they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD."

²²Then the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, spread their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²³The glory of the LORD went up from within the city and stopped above the mountain east of it. ²⁴The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the exiles in Babylonia^d in the vision given by the Spirit of God.

Then the vision I had seen went up from me, ²⁵and I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

The Exile Symbolised

12 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, you are living among a rebellious people. They have eyes to see but do not see and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious people.

³"Therefore, son of man, pack your belongings for exile and in the daytime, as they watch, set out and go from where you are to another place. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴During the daytime, while they watch, bring out your belongings packed for exile. Then in the evening, while they are watching, go out like those who go into exile. ⁵While they watch, dig through the wall and take your belongings out through it. ⁶Put them on your shoulder as they are watching and carry them out at dusk. Cover your face so that you cannot see the land, for I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

⁷So I did as I was commanded. During the day I brought out my things packed for exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I took my belongings out at dusk, carrying them on my shoulders while they watched.

⁸In the morning the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹"Son of man, did not that rebellious house of Israel ask you, 'What are you doing?'

^{b15} Or are in exile with you (see Septuagint and Syriac)

^{c15} Or those to whom the people of Jerusalem have said, 'Stay

^{d24} Or Chaldea

¹⁰“Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and the whole house of Israel who are there.’ ¹¹Say to them, ‘I am a sign to you.’

“As I have done, so it will be done to them. They will go into exile as captives.

¹²“The prince among them will put his things on his shoulder at dusk and leave, and a hole will be dug in the wall for him to go through. He will cover his face so that he cannot see the land. ¹³I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my snare; I will bring him to Babylonia, the land of the Chaldeans, but he will not see it, and there he will die. ¹⁴I will scatter to the winds all those around him—his staff and all his troops—and I will pursue them with drawn sword.

¹⁵“They will know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries. ¹⁶But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine and plague, so that in the nations where they go they may acknowledge all their detestable practices. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

¹⁷The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, tremble as you eat your food, and shudder in fear as you drink your water. ¹⁹Say to the people of the land: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: They will eat their food in anxiety and drink their water in despair, for their land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who live there. ²⁰The inhabited towns will be laid waste and the land will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

²¹The word of the LORD came to me: ²²“Son of man, what is this proverb you have in the land of Israel: ‘The days go by and every vision comes to nothing’? ²³Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to put an end to this proverb, and they will no longer quote it in Israel.’ Say to them, ‘The days are near when every vision will be fulfilled. ²⁴For there will be no more false visions or flattering divinations among the people of Israel. ²⁵But I the LORD will speak what I will, and it shall be fulfilled without delay. For in your days, you rebellious house, I will fulfil whatever I say, declares the Sovereign LORD.’”

²⁶The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁷“Son of man, the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision he sees is for many years from now, and he prophesies about the distant future.’

²⁸“Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: None of my words will be delayed any longer; whatever I say will be fulfilled, declares the Sovereign LORD.’”

False Prophets Condemned

13 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are now prophesying. Say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination: ‘Hear the word of the LORD! ³This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the foolish^a prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! ⁴Your prophets, O Israel, are like jackals among ruins. ⁵You have not gone up to the breaks in the wall to repair it for the house of Israel so that it will stand firm in the battle on the day of the LORD. ⁶Their visions are false and their divinations a lie. They say, ‘The LORD declares’, when the LORD has not sent them; yet they expect their words to be fulfilled. ⁷Have you not seen false visions and uttered lying divinations when you say, ‘The LORD declares’, though I have not spoken?

⁸“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because of your false words and lying visions, I am against you, declares the Sovereign LORD. ⁹My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will not belong to the council of my people or be listed in the records of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁰“Because they lead my people astray, saying, “Peace”, when there is no

peace, and because, when a flimsy wall is built, they cover it with whitewash, ¹¹therefore tell those who cover it with whitewash that it is going to fall. Rain will come in torrents, and I will send hailstones hurtling down, and violent winds will burst forth. ¹²When the wall collapses, will people not ask you, "Where is the whitewash you covered it with?"

¹³"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my wrath I will unleash a violent wind, and in my anger hailstones and torrents of rain will fall with destructive fury. ¹⁴I will tear down the wall you have covered with whitewash and will level it to the ground so that its foundation will be laid bare. When it^b falls, you will be destroyed in it; and you will know that I am the LORD. ¹⁵So I will spend my wrath against the wall and against those who covered it with whitewash. I will say to you, "The wall is gone and so are those who whitewashed it, ¹⁶those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Sovereign LORD."

²⁰"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against your magic charms with which you ensnare people like birds and I will tear them from your arms; I will set free the people that you ensnare like birds. ²¹I will tear off your veils and save my people from your hands, and they will no longer fall prey to your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ²²Because you disheartened the righteous with your lies, when I had brought them no grief, and because you encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and so save their lives, ²³therefore you will no longer see false visions or practise divination. I will save my people from your hands. And then you will know that I am the LORD."

Idolaters Condemned

14 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me. ²Then the word of the LORD came to me: ³"Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and put wicked stumbling-blocks before their faces. Should I let them enquire of me at all? ⁴Therefore speak to them and tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When any of the Israelites set up idols in their hearts and put a wicked stumbling-block before their faces and then go to a prophet, I the LORD will answer them myself in keeping with their great idolatry. ⁵I will do this to recapture the hearts of the people of Israel, who have all deserted me for their idols.'

⁷"When any of the Israelites or any aliens living in Israel separate themselves from me and set up idols in their hearts and put a wicked stumbling-block before their faces and then go to a prophet to enquire of me, I the LORD will answer them myself. ⁸I will set my face against them and make them an example and a byword. I will cut them off from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁹"And if the prophet is enticed to utter a prophecy, I the LORD have enticed that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from among my people Israel. ¹⁰They will bear their guilt—the prophet will be as guilty as the one who consults him. ¹¹Then the people of Israel will no longer stray from me, nor will they defile themselves any more with all their sins. They will be my people, and I will be their God, declares the Sovereign LORD.¹¹

Judgment Inescapable

¹²The word of the LORD came to me: ¹³"Son of man, if a country sins against me by being unfaithful and I stretch out my hand against it to cut off its food supply and send famine upon it and kill its people and their animals, ¹⁴even if these three men—Noah, Daniel^a and Job—were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁵"Or if I send wild beasts through that country and they leave it childless and it becomes desolate so that no-one can pass through it because of the beasts, ¹⁶as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate.

¹⁷"Or if I bring a sword against that country and say, 'Let the sword pass throughout the land,' and I kill its people and their animals, ¹⁸as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved.

¹⁹"Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out my wrath upon it through bloodshed, killing its people and their animals, ²⁰as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if Noah, Daniel and Job were in it, they could save neither son nor daughter. They would save only themselves by their righteousness.

²¹"For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem my four dreadful judgments—sword and famine and wild beasts and plague—to kill its men and their animals! ²²Yet there will be some survivors—sons and daughters who will be brought out of it. They will come to you, and when you see their conduct and their actions, you will be consoled regarding the disaster I have brought upon Jerusalem—every disaster I have brought upon it. ²³You will be consoled when you see their conduct and their actions, for you will know that I have done nothing in it without cause, declares the Sovereign LORD."

Jerusalem, a Useless Vine

15 The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴"Son of man, how is the wood of a vine better than that of a branch on any of the trees in the forest? ³Is wood ever taken from it to make anything useful? Do they make pegs from it to hang things on? ⁴And after it is thrown on the fire as fuel and the fire burns both ends and chars the middle, is it then useful for anything? ⁵If it was not useful for anything when it was whole, how much less can it be made into something useful when the fire has burned it and it is charred?

⁶"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As I have given the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest as fuel for the fire, so will I treat the people living in Jerusalem. ⁷I will set my face against them. Although they have come out of the fire, the fire will yet consume them. And when I set my face against them, you will know that I am the LORD. ⁸I will make the land desolate because they have been unfaithful, declares the Sovereign LORD."

An Allegory of Unfaithful Jerusalem

16 The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴"Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her detestable practices ³and say, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Jerusalem: Your ancestry and birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. ⁴On the day you were born your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to make you clean, nor were you rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. ⁵No-one looked on you with pity or had compassion enough to do any of these things for you. Rather, you were thrown out into the open field, for on the day you were born you were despised.

^a14 Or Daniel; the Hebrew spelling may suggest a person other than the prophet Daniel; also in verse 20.

6^a "Then I passed by and saw you kicking about in your blood, and as you lay there in your blood I said to you, "Live!"^a 7 I made you grow like a plant of the field. You grew up and developed and became the most beautiful of jewels.^b Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, you who were naked and bare.

8^c "Later I passed by, and when I looked at you and saw that you were old enough for love, I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your nakedness. I gave you my solemn oath and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Sovereign LORD, and you became mine.

9^c "I bathed^c you with water and washed the blood from you and put ointments on you. 10 I clothed you with an embroidered dress and put leather sandals on you. I dressed you in fine linen and covered you with costly garments. 11 I adorned you with jewellery: I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck, 12 and I put a ring on your nose, ear-rings on your ears and a beautiful crown on your head. 13 So you were adorned with gold and silver; your clothes were of fine linen and costly fabric and embroidered cloth. Your food was fine flour, honey and olive oil. You became very beautiful and rose to be a queen. 14 And your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, because the splendour I had given you made your beauty perfect, declares the Sovereign LORD.

15^c "But you trusted in your beauty and used your fame to become a prostitute. You lavished your favours on anyone who passed by and your beauty became his.^d 16 You took some of your garments to make gaudy high places, where you carried on your prostitution. Such things should not happen, nor should they ever occur. 17 You also took the fine jewellery I gave you, the jewellery made of my gold and silver, and you made for yourself male idols and engaged in prostitution with them. 18 And you took your embroidered clothes to put on them, and you offered my oil and incense before them. 19 Also the food I provided for you—the fine flour, olive oil and honey I gave you to eat—you offered as fragrant incense before them. That is what happened, declares the Sovereign LORD.

20^c "And you took your sons and daughters whom you bore to me and sacrificed them as food to the idols. Was your prostitution not enough? 21 You slaughtered my children and sacrificed them^e to the idols. 22 In all your detestable practices and your prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, kicking about in your blood.

23^c "Woe! Woe to you, declares the Sovereign LORD. In addition to all your other wickedness, 24 you built a mound for yourself and made a lofty shrine in every public square. 25 At the head of every street you built your lofty shrines and degraded your beauty, offering your body with increasing promiscuity to anyone who passed by. 26 You engaged in prostitution with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbours, and provoked me to anger with your increasing promiscuity. 27 So I stretched out my hand against you and reduced your territory; I gave you over to the greed of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, who were shocked by your lewd conduct. 28 You engaged in prostitution with the Assyrians too, because you were insatiable; and even after that, you still were not satisfied. 29 Then you increased your promiscuity to include Babylonia,^f a land of merchants, but even with this you were not satisfied.

30^c "How weak-willed you are, declares the Sovereign LORD, when you do all these things, acting like a brazen prostitute! 31 When you built your mounds at the head of every street and made your lofty shrines in every public square, you were

unlike a prostitute, because you scorned payment.

³² "You adulterous wife! You prefer strangers to your own husband! ³³ Every prostitute receives a fee, but you give gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from everywhere for your illicit favours. ³⁴ So in your prostitution you are the opposite of others; no-one runs after you for your favours. You are the very opposite, for you give payment and none is given to you.

³⁵ "Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD! ³⁶ This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you poured out your wealth^s and exposed your nakedness in your promiscuity with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children's blood, ³⁷ therefore I am going to gather all your lovers, with whom you found pleasure, those you loved as well as those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and will strip you in front of them, and they will see all your nakedness. ³⁸ I will sentence you to the punishment of women who commit adultery and who shed blood; I will bring upon you the blood vengeance of my wrath and jealous anger. ³⁹ Then I will hand you over to your lovers, and they will tear down your mounds and destroy your lofty shrines. They will strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewellery and leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰ They will bring a mob against you, who will stone you and hack you to pieces with their swords. ⁴¹ They will burn down your houses and inflict punishment on you in the sight of many women. I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers. ⁴² Then my wrath against you will subside and my jealous anger will turn away from you; I will be calm and no longer angry.

⁴³ "Because you did not remember the days of your youth but enraged me with all these things, I will surely bring down on your head what you have done, declares the Sovereign LORD. Did you not add lewdness to all your other detestable practices?

⁴⁹ "Now this was the sin of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were arrogant, overfed and unconcerned; they did not help the poor and needy. ⁵⁰ They were haughty and did detestable things before me. Therefore I did away with them as you have seen. ⁵¹ Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You have done more detestable things than they, and have made your sisters seem righteous by all these things you have done. ⁵² Bear your disgrace, for you have furnished some justification for your sisters. Because your sins were more vile than theirs, they appear more righteous than you. So then, be ashamed and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

⁵³ "However, I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and of Samaria and her daughters, and your fortunes along with them, ⁵⁴ so that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you have done in giving them comfort. ⁵⁵ And your sisters, Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters, will return to what they were before; and you and your daughters will return to what you were before. ⁵⁶ You would not even mention your sister Sodom in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷ before your wickedness was uncovered. Even so, you are now scorned by the daughters of Edom^h and all her neighbours and the daughters of the Philistines—all those around you who despise you. ⁵⁸You will bear the consequences of your lewdness and your detestable practices, declares the LORD.

⁵⁹“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will deal with you as you deserve, because you have despised my oath by breaking the covenant. ⁶⁰Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. ⁶¹Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, both those who are older than you and those who are younger. I will give them to you as daughters, but not on the basis of my covenant with you. ⁶²So I will establish my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD. ⁶³Then, when I make atonement for you for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed and never again open your mouth because of your humiliation, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Two Eagles and a Vine

17 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set forth an allegory and tell the house of Israel a parable. ³Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: A great eagle with powerful wings, long feathers and full plumage of varied colours came to Lebanon. Taking hold of the top of a cedar, ⁴he broke off its top-most shoot and carried it away to a land of merchants, where he planted it in a city of traders.

⁵“He took some of the seed of your land and put it in fertile soil. He planted it like a willow by abundant water, ⁶and it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine. Its branches turned towards him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine and produced branches and put out leafy boughs.

⁷“But there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage. The vine now sent out its roots towards him from the plot where it was planted and stretched out its branches to him for water. ⁸It had been planted in good soil by abundant water so that it would produce branches, bear fruit and become a splendid vine.’

⁹“Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will it thrive? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers? All its new growth will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots. ¹⁰Even if it is transplanted, will it thrive? Will it not wither completely when the east wind strikes it—wither away in the plot where it grew?’”

¹¹Then the word of the LORD came to me: ¹²“Say to this rebellious house, ‘Do you not know what these things mean?’ Say to them: ‘The king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and carried off her king and her nobles, bringing them back with him to Babylon. ¹³Then he took a member of the royal family and made a treaty with him, putting him under oath. He also carried away the leading men of the land, ¹⁴so that the kingdom would be brought low, unable to rise again, surviving only by keeping his treaty. ¹⁵But the king rebelled against him by sending his envoys to Egypt to get horses and a large army. Will he succeed? Will he who does such things escape? Will he break the treaty and yet escape?’

¹⁶“As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, he shall die in Babylon, in the land of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose treaty he broke. ¹⁷Pharaoh with his mighty army and great horde will be of no help to him in war, when ramps are built and siege works erected to destroy many lives. ¹⁸He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Because he had given his hand in pledge and yet did all these things, he shall not escape.

¹⁹“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, I will bring down on his head my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke. ²⁰I will spread my net for him, and he will be caught in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment upon him there because he was unfaithful to me.

²¹All his fleeing troops will fall by the sword, and the survivors will be scattered to the winds. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken.

²²“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will take a shoot from the very top of a cedar and plant it; I will break off a tender sprig from its topmost shoots and plant it on a high and lofty mountain. ²³On the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it; it will produce branches and bear fruit and become a splendid cedar. Birds of every kind will nest in it; they will find shelter in the shade of its branches. ²⁴All the trees of the field will know that I the LORD bring down the tall tree and make the low tree grow tall. I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish.

“I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.”

The Soul Who Sins Will Die

18 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel:

“The parents eat sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on
edge?”

³“As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel. ⁴For every living soul belongs to me, the parent as well as the child—both alike belong to me. The soul who sins is the one who will die.

⁵“Suppose there is a righteous man who does what is just and right.

⁶He does not eat at the mountain
shrines
or look to the idols of the house of
Israel.

He does not defile his neighbour's
wife
or lie with a woman during her period.

⁷He does not oppress anyone,
but returns what he took in pledge for a loan.

He does not commit robbery,
but gives his food to the hungry
and provides clothing for the naked.

⁸He does not lend at usury or take excessive interest.^a

He withholds his hand from doing
wrong
and judges fairly between two parties.

⁹He follows my decrees
and faithfully keeps my laws.

That man is righteous;
he will surely live,
declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁰“Suppose he has a violent son, who sheds blood or does any of these other things^b ¹¹(though the father has done none of them):

“He eats at the mountain shrines.
He defiles his neighbour's wife.

¹²He oppresses the poor and needy.
He commits robbery.

He does not return what he took in
pledge.

He looks to the idols.

He does detestable things.

¹³He lends at usury and takes excessive interest.

Will such a person live? He will not! Because he has done all these detestable things, he will surely be put to death and his blood will be on his own head.

¹⁴“But suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father commits, and though he sees them, he does not do such
things:

¹⁵“He does not eat at the mountain
shrines
or look to the idols of the house of
Israel.

He does not defile his neighbour's
wife.

¹⁶He does not oppress anyone or require a pledge for a loan.

He does not commit robbery,
but gives his food to the hungry

^a8 Or take interest; similarly in verses 13 and 17 ^b10 Or things to a brother and provides clothing for the naked.

¹⁷He withholds his hand from sin^c and takes no usury or excessive interest.

He keeps my laws and follows my decrees.

He will not die for his father's sin; he will surely live. ¹⁸But his father will die for his own sin, because he practised extortion, robbed his brother and did what was wrong among his people.

¹⁹"Yet you ask, 'Why does the son not share the guilt of his father?' Since the son has done what is just and right and has been careful to keep all my decrees, he will surely live. ²⁰The soul who sins is the one who will die. The child will not share the guilt of the parent, nor will the parent share the guilt of the child. The righteousness of the righteous will be credited to them, and the wickedness of the wicked will be charged against them.

²¹"But if the wicked turn away from all the sins they have committed and keep all my decrees and do what is just and right, they will surely live; they will not die. ²²None of the offences they have committed will be remembered against them. Because of the righteous things they have done, they will live. ²³Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Sovereign LORD. Rather, am I not pleased when they turn from their ways and live?

²⁴"But if the righteous turn from their righteousness and commit sin and do the same detestable things the wicked do, will they live? None of the righteous things they have done will be remembered. Because of the unfaithfulness they are guilty of and because of the sins they have committed, they will die.

²⁵"Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' Hear, O house of Israel: Is my way unjust? Is it not your ways that are unjust? ²⁶If the righteous turn from their righteousness and commit sin, they will die for it; because of the sin they have committed they will die. ²⁷But if the wicked turn away from the wickedness they have committed and do what is just and right, they will save their lives. ²⁸Because they consider all the offences they have committed and turn away from them, they will surely live; they will not die. ²⁹Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' Are my ways unjust, O house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

³⁰"Therefore, O house of Israel, I will judge each of you according to your own ways, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent! Turn away from all your offences; then sin will not be your downfall. ³¹Rid yourselves of all the offences you have committed, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, O house of Israel? ³²For I take no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Sovereign LORD. Repent and live!

A Lament for Israel's Princes

19 "Take up a lament concerning the princes of Israel ²and say:

"What a lioness was your mother among the lions!

She lay down among the young lions and reared her cubs.

³She brought up one of her cubs, and he became a strong lion.

He learned to tear the prey and he devoured people.

⁴The nations heard about him.

and he was trapped in their pit.

They led him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

⁵"When she saw her hope unfulfilled, her expectation gone,

she took another of her cubs and made him a strong lion.

⁶He prowled among the lions, for he was now a strong lion.

He learned to tear the prey and he devoured people.

⁷He broke down^a their strongholds and devastated their towns.

They spread their net for him,

They put him in prison,
so his roar was heard no longer

it was fruitful and full of branches

fit for a ruler’s sceptre.

It towered high above the thick foliage, conspicuous for its height
and for its many branches.

¹²But it was uprooted in fury
and thrown to the ground.
The east wind made it shrivel,
it was stripped of its fruit;
its strong branches withered
and fire consumed them.

in a dry and thirsty land.

and consumed its fruit.

No strong branch is left on it

This is a lament and is to be used as a lament.”

Rebellious Israel

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month on the tenth day, some of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and they sat down in front of me.

²Then the word of the LORD came to me: ³“Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Have you come to enquire of me? As surely as I live, I will not let you enquire of me, declares the Sovereign LORD.’

⁴“Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Then confront them with the detestable practices of their ancestors ⁵and say to them: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore with uplifted hand to the descendants of the house of Jacob and revealed myself to them in Egypt. With uplifted hand I said to them, ‘I am the LORD your God.’ ⁶On that day I swore to them that I would bring them out of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands. ⁷And I said to them, “Each of you, get rid of the vile images
you have set your eyes on, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.”

⁸“But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me; they did not get rid of the vile images they had set their eyes on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in Egypt. ⁹But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations they lived among and in whose sight I had revealed myself to the Israelites by bringing them out of Egypt. ¹⁰Therefore
I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the desert. ¹¹I gave them my decrees and made known to them my laws, for the one who obeys them will live by them.

¹²Also I gave them my Sabbaths as a sign between us, so they would know that I the LORD made them holy.

¹³“Yet the people of Israel rebelled against me in the desert. They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws—
although the one who obeys them will live by them—and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and destroy them in the desert. ¹⁴But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I

had brought them out. ¹⁵Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the desert that I would not bring them into the land I had given them—a land flowing with milk and honey, most beautiful of all lands—¹⁶because they rejected my laws and did not follow my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths. For their hearts were devoted to their idols. ¹⁷Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy them or put an end to them in the desert. ¹⁸I said to their children in the desert, “Do not follow the statutes of your parents or keep their laws or defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹I am the LORD your God; follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. ²⁰Keep my Sabbaths holy, that they may be a sign between us. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.”

²¹“But the children rebelled against me: They did not follow my decrees, they were not careful to keep my laws—although the one who obeys them will live by them—and they desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in the desert. ²²But I withheld my hand, and for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ²³Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the desert that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the countries, ²⁴because they had not obeyed my laws but had rejected my decrees and desecrated my Sabbaths, and their eyes ^alusted after their parents’ idols. ²⁵I also gave them over to statutes that were not good and laws they could not live by; ²⁶I let them become defiled through their gifts—the sacrifice of every firstborn^a—that I might fill them with horror so that they would know that I am the LORD.”

²⁷“Therefore, son of man, speak to the people of Israel and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In this also your ancestors blasphemed me by forsaking me: ²⁸When I brought them into the land I had sworn to give them and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices, made offerings that provoked me to anger, presented their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings. ²⁹Then I said to them: What is this high place you go to?’” (It is called Bamah^b to this day.)

Judgment and Restoration

³⁰“Therefore say to the house of Israel: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will you defile yourselves the way your ancestors did and lust after their vile images? ³¹When you offer your gifts—the sacrifice of your children in^c the fire—you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. Am I to let you enquire of me, O house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will not let you enquire of me.

³²“You say, “We want to be like the nations, like the peoples of the world, who serve wood and stone.” But what you have in mind will never happen. ³³As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will rule over you with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath. ³⁴I will bring you from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered—with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and with outpoured wrath. ³⁵I will bring you into the desert of the nations and there, face to face, I will execute judgment upon you. ³⁶As I judged your ancestors in the desert of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you, declares the Sovereign LORD. ³⁷I will take note of you as you pass under my rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸I will purge you of those who revolt and rebel against me. Although I will bring them out of the land where they are living, yet they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

³⁹“As for you, O house of Israel, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Go and serve your idols, every one of you! But afterwards you will surely listen to me and no longer profane my holy name with your gifts and idols. ⁴⁰For on my holy ^a26 Or—making every firstborn pass through the fire.

^b29 Bamah means high place.

^c31 Or—making your children pass through mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD, there in the land the entire house of Israel will serve me, and there I will accept them. There I will require your offerings and your choice gifts,^d along with all your holy sacrifices. ⁴¹I will accept you as fragrant incense when I bring you out from the nations and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will show myself holy among you in the sight of the nations. ⁴²Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the land I had sworn with uplifted hand to give to your ancestors. ⁴³There you will remember your conduct and all the actions by which you have defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evil you have done. ⁴⁴You will know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for my name's sake and not according to your evil ways and your corrupt practices, O house of Israel, declares the Sovereign LORD.' "

Prophecy Against the South

⁴⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ⁴⁶"Son of man, set your face towards the south; preach against the south and prophesy against the forest of the south-land. ⁴⁷Say to the southern forest: 'Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to set fire to you, and it will consume all your trees, both green and dry. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and every face from south to north will be scorched by it. ⁴⁸Everyone will see that I the LORD have kindled it; it will not be quenched.' " ⁴⁹Then I said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD! They are saying of me, 'Isn't he just telling parables?'"

Babylon, God's Sword of Judgment

21 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, set your face against Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuary. Prophesy against the land of Israel ³and say to her: 'This is what the LORD says: I am against you. I will draw my sword from its scabbard and cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked. ⁴Because I am going to cut off the righteous and the wicked, my sword will be unsheathed against everyone from south to north. ⁵Then all people will know that I the LORD have drawn my sword from its scabbard; it will not return again.'

⁶"Therefore groan, son of man! Groan before them with broken heart and bitter grief. ⁷And when they ask you, 'Why are you groaning?' you shall say, 'Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt and every hand go limp; every spirit will become faint and every knee become as weak as water.' It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD."

⁸The word of the LORD came to me: ⁹"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'This is what the Lord says:

" 'A sword, a sword,
sharpened and polished — ¹⁰sharpened for the slaughter,
polished to flash like lightning!

" 'Shall we rejoice in the sceptre of my son Judah? The sword despises every such stick.

¹¹" 'The sword is appointed to be polished,
to be grasped with the hand;
it is sharpened and polished,
made ready for the hand of the slayer. ¹²Cry out and wail, son of man,
for it is against my people;
it is against all the princes of Israel.
They are thrown to the sword
along with my people.
Therefore beat your breast.

¹³" 'Testing will surely come. And what if the sceptre of Judah, which the sword despises, does not continue? declares the Sovereign LORD.'

¹⁴"So then, son of man, prophesy and strike your hands together.

^{d40} Or and the gifts of your firstfruits

Let the sword strike twice,
even three times.
It is a sword for slaughter —
a sword for great slaughter,
closing in on them from every side.

¹⁵So that hearts may melt and the fallen be many,
I have stationed the sword for slaughter^a
at all their gates.

Oh! It is made to flash like lightning,
it is grasped for slaughter.

¹⁶O sword, slash to the right,
then to the left,
wherever your blade is turned.

¹⁷I too will strike my hands together,
and my wrath will subside.
I the LORD have spoken.”

¹⁸The word of the LORD came to me:

¹⁹“Son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take, both starting from the same country. Make a signpost where the road branches off to the city. ²⁰Mark out one road for the sword to come against Rabbah of the Ammonites and another against Judah and fortified Jerusalem. ²¹For the king of Babylon will stop at the fork in the road, at the junction of the two roads, to seek an omen: He will cast lots with arrows, he will consult his idols, he will examine the liver. ²²Into his right hand will come the lot for Jerusalem, where he is to set up battering-rams, to give the command to slaughter, to sound the battle cry, to set battering-rams against the gates, to build a ramp and to erect siege works. ²³It will seem like a false omen to those who have sworn allegiance to him, but he will remind them of their guilt and take them captive.

²⁴“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: ‘Because you people have brought to mind your guilt by your open rebellion, revealing your sins in all that you do—because you have done this, you will be taken captive.

is what the Sovereign LORD says: Take off the turban, remove the crown. It will not be as it was: The lowly will be exalted and the exalted will be brought low. ²⁷A ruin! A ruin! I will make it a ruin! It will not be restored until he comes to whom it rightfully belongs; to him I will give it.’

²⁸“And you, son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says about the Ammonites and their insults:

“‘A sword, a sword,
drawn for the slaughter,
polished to consume
and to flash like lightning!

²⁹Despite false visions concerning you and lying divinations about you,
it will be laid on the necks
of the wicked who are to be slain,
whose day has come,

whose time of punishment has reached its climax.

³⁰Return the sword to its scabbard.
In the place where you were created,
in the land of your ancestry,
I will judge you.

³¹I will pour out my wrath upon you and breathe out my fiery anger
against you;
I will hand you over to brutal men,
men skilled in destruction.

³²You will be fuel for the fire,
your blood will be shed in your land,
you will be remembered no more;
for I the LORD have spoken.’”

Jerusalem's Sins

22 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, will you judge her? Will you judge this city of bloodshed? Then confront her with all her detestable practices³ and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O city that brings on herself doom by shedding blood in her midst and defiles herself by making idols, ⁴you have become guilty because of the blood you have shed and have become defiled by the idols you have made. You have brought your days to a close, and the end of your years has come. Therefore I will make you an object of scorn to the nations and a laughing-stock to all the countries. ⁵Those who are near and those who are far away will mock you, O infamous city, full of turmoil.

⁶“See how each of the princes of Israel who are in you uses his power to shed blood. ⁷In you they have treated father and mother with contempt; in you they have oppressed the alien and ill-treated the fatherless and the widow. ⁸You have despised my holy things and desecrated my Sabbaths. ⁹In you are slanderers who are bent on shedding blood; in you are those who eat at the mountain shrines and commit lewd acts. ¹⁰In you are those who dishonour their fathers’ bed; in you are those who violate women during their period, when they are ceremonially unclean. ¹¹In you one man commits a detestable offence with his neighbour’s wife, another shamefully defiles his daughter-in-law, and another violates his sister, his own father’s daughter. ¹²In you are people who accept bribes to shed blood; you take usury and excessive interest^a and make unjust gain from your neighbours by extortion. And you have forgotten me, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹³“I will surely strike my hands together at the unjust gain you have made and at the blood you have shed in your midst. ¹⁴Will your courage endure or your hands be strong in the day I deal with you? I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it. ¹⁵I will disperse you among the nations and scatter you through the countries; and I will put an end to your uncleanness. ¹⁶When you have been defiled^b in the eyes of the nations, you will know that I am the LORD.”

¹⁷Then the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me; all of them are the copper, tin, iron and lead left inside a furnace. They are but the dross of silver. ¹⁹Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: ‘Because you have all become dross, I will gather you into Jerusalem. ²⁰As silver, copper, iron, lead and tin are gathered into a furnace to be melted with a fiery blast, so will I gather you in my anger and my wrath and put you inside the city and melt you. ²¹I will gather you and I will blow on you with my fiery wrath, and you will be melted inside her. ²²As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted inside her, and you will know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath upon you.”

²³Again the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴“Son of man, say to the land, ‘You are a land that has had no rain or showers’ in the day of wrath.’ ²⁵There is a conspiracy of her princes^d within her like a roaring lion tearing its prey; they devour people, take treasures and precious things and make many widows within her. ²⁶Her priests do violence to my law and profane my holy things; they do not distinguish between the holy and the common; they teach that there is no difference between the unclean and the clean; and they shut their eyes to the keeping of my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them. ²⁷Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey; they shed blood and kill people to make unjust gain. ²⁸Her prophets whitewash these deeds for them by false visions and lying divinations. They say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says’—when the LORD has not spoken. ²⁹The people of the land practise extortion and commit robbery; they oppress the poor and needy and ill-treat the alien, denying them justice.

³⁰“I looked for someone among them who would build up the wall and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so that I would not have to destroy it, but I found no-one. ³¹So I will pour out my wrath on them and consume them with my fiery anger, bringing down on their own heads all they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

Two Adulterous Sisters

23 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother.

³They became prostitutes in Egypt, engaging in prostitution from their youth. In that land their breasts were fondled and their virgin bosoms caressed. ⁴The older was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. They were mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

¹¹"Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet in her lust and prostitution she was more depraved than her sister. ¹²She too lusted after the Assyrians—governors and commanders, warriors in full dress, mounted horsemen, all handsome young men. ¹³I saw that she too defiled herself; both of them went the same way.

¹⁴"But she carried her prostitution still further. She saw men portrayed on a wall, figures of Chaldeans^a portrayed in red, ¹⁵with belts round their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like Babylonian chariot officers, natives of Chaldea. ¹⁶As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her. After she had been defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. ¹⁸When she carried on her prostitution openly and exposed

her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister. ¹⁹Yet she became more and more promiscuous as she recalled the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in Egypt. ²⁰There she lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses. ²¹So you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when in Egypt your bosom was caressed and your young breasts fondled.^c

²²"Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stir up your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side—²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, all of them governors and commanders, chariot officers and men of high rank, all mounted on horses. ²⁴They will come against you with weapons,^d chariots and wagons and with a throng of people: they will take up positions against you on every side with large and small shields and with helmets. I will turn you over to them for punishment, and they will punish you according to their standards. ²⁵I will direct my jealous anger against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and those of you who are left will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and daughters, and those of you who are left will be consumed by fire. ²⁶They will also strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewelry. ²⁷So I will put a stop to the lewdness and prostitution you began in Egypt. You will not look on these things with longing or remember Egypt any more.

²⁸"For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to hand you over to those you hate, to those you turned away from in disgust. ²⁹They will deal with you in hatred and take away everything you have worked for. They will leave you naked and bare, and the shame of your prostitution will be exposed. Your lewdness and promiscuity³⁰ have brought this upon you, because you lusted after the nations and defiled yourself with their idols. ³¹ You have gone the way of your sister; so I will put her cup into your hand.

³² "This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"You will drink your sister's cup,
a cup large and deep;
it will bring scorn and derision,
for it holds so much.

³³ You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
the cup of ruin and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴ You will drink it and drain it dry;
you will dash it to pieces
and tear your breasts.

I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.

³⁵ "Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you have forgotten me and thrust me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your lewdness and prostitution."

³⁶ The LORD said to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then confront them with their detestable practices,³⁷ for they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They committed adultery with their idols; they even sacrificed their children, whom they bore to me,^e as food for them. ³⁸ They have also done this to me: At that same time they defiled my sanctuary and desecrated my Sabbaths. ³⁹ On the very day they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered my sanctuary and desecrated it. That is what they did in my house.

⁴⁰ "They even sent messengers for men who came from far away, and when they arrived you bathed yourself for them, painted your eyes and put on your jewelry. ⁴¹ You sat on an elegant couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed the incense and oil that belonged to me.

⁴² "The noise of a carefree crowd was around her; Sabaeans^f were brought from the desert along with men from the rabble, and they put bracelets on the arms of the woman and her sister and beautiful crowns on their heads. ⁴³ Then I said about the one worn out by adultery, 'Now let them use her as a prostitute, for that is all she is.' ⁴⁴ And they slept with her. As men sleep with a prostitute, so they slept with those lewd women, Oholah and Oholibah. ⁴⁵ But righteous judges will sentence them to the punishment of women who commit adultery and shed blood, because they are adulterous and blood is on their hands.

⁴⁶ "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Bring a mob against them and give them over to terror and plunder. ⁴⁷ The mob will stone them and cut them down with their swords; they will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses.

⁴⁸ "So I will put an end to lewdness in the land, that all women may take warning and not imitate you. ⁴⁹ You will suffer the penalty for your lewdness and bear the consequences of your sins of idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD."

The Cooking Pot

24 In the ninth year, in the tenth month on the tenth day, the word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, record this date, this very date, because the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day. ³ Tell this rebellious house a parable and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"Put on the cooking pot; put it on and pour water into it.

⁴ Put into it the pieces of meat,
all the choice pieces—the leg and the shoulder.

Fill it with the best of these bones;

⁵ take the pick of the flock.

Pile wood beneath it for the bones;
bring it to the boil
and cook the bones in it.

³⁷ Or even made the children they bore to me pass through the fire. ⁴² Or drunkards

6“ ‘For this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Woe to the city of bloodshed,
to the pot now encrusted,
whose deposit will not go away!
Empty it piece by piece
without casting lots for them.

7“ ‘For the blood she shed is in her midst:
She poured it on the bare rock;
she did not pour it on the ground,
where the dust would cover it.

8To stir up wrath and take revenge
I put her blood on the bare rock,
so that it would not be covered.

9“ ‘Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I, too, will pile the wood high.

10So heap on the wood and kindle the fire.

Cook the meat well,
mixing in the spices;
and let the bones be charred.

11Then set the empty pot on the coals till it becomes hot and its copper glows

so its impurities may be melted
and its deposit burned away.

12It has frustrated all efforts;
its heavy deposit has not been removed,
not even by fire.

13“ ‘Now your impurity is lewdness. Because I tried to cleanse you but you would not be cleansed from your impurity, you will not be clean again until my wrath against you has subsided.

14“ ‘I the LORD have spoken. The time has come for me to act. I will not hold back; I will not have pity, nor will I relent. You will be judged according to your conduct and your actions, declares the Sovereign LORD.’”

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

15The word of the LORD came to me:

16“Son of man, with one blow I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes. Yet do not lament or weep or shed any tears. ¹⁷Groan quietly; do not mourn for the dead. Keep your turban fastened and your sandals on your feet; do not cover the lower part of your face or eat the customary food of mourners.”

¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I had been commanded.

¹⁹Then the people asked me, “Won’t you tell us what these things have to do with us?”

²⁰So I said to them, “The word of the LORD came to me: ²¹Say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to desecrate my sanctuary—the stronghold in which you take pride, the delight of your eyes, the object of your affection. The sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword.

²²And you will do as I have done. You will not cover the lower part of your face or eat the customary food of mourners.”

²³You will keep your turbans on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep but will waste away because of^a your sins and groan among yourselves. ²⁴Ezekiel will be a sign to you; you will do just as he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.’

²⁵“And you, son of man, on the day I take away their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes, their heart’s desire, and their sons and daughters as well—²⁶on that day a fugitive will come to tell you the news. ²⁷At that time your mouth will be opened; you will speak with him and will no longer be silent. So you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

A Prophecy Against Ammon

Sovereign LORD says: Because you said "Aha!" over my sanctuary when it was desecrated and over the land of Israel when it was laid waste and over the people of Judah when they went into exile, ⁴therefore I am going to give you to the people of the East as a possession. They will set up their camps and pitch their tents among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk. ⁵I will turn Rabbah into a pasture for camels and Ammon into a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ⁶For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet, rejoicing with all the malice of your heart against the land of Israel, ⁷therefore I will stretch out my hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the nations and exterminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am the LORD."

A Prophecy Against Moab

⁸"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: 'Because Moab and Seir said, "Look, the house of Judah has become like all the other nations," ⁹therefore I will expose the flank of Moab, beginning at its frontier towns—Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon and Kiriathaim—the glory of that land. ¹⁰I will give Moab along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, so that the Ammonites will not be remembered among the nations; ¹¹and I will inflict punishment on Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

A Prophecy Against Edom

¹²"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: 'Because Edom took revenge on the house of Judah and became very guilty by doing so, ¹³therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stretch out my hand against Edom and kill its people and their animals. I will lay it waste, and from Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword. ¹⁴I will take vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they will deal with Edom in accordance with my anger and my wrath; they will know my vengeance,' declares the Sovereign LORD."

A Prophecy Against Philistia

¹⁵"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: 'Because the Philistines acted in vengeance and took revenge with malice in their hearts, and with ancient hostility sought to destroy Judah, ¹⁶therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Kere-thites and destroy those remaining along the coast. ¹⁷I will carry out great vengeance on them and punish them in my wrath. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I take vengeance on them.'"

A Prophecy Against Tyre

26 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, because Tyre has said of Jerusalem, 'Aha! The gate to the nations is broken, and its doors have swung open to me; now that she lies in ruins I will prosper,' ³therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, like the sea casting up its waves. ⁴They will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers; I will scrape away her rubble and make her a bare rock. ⁵Out in the sea she will become a place to spread fishing nets, for I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD. She will become plunder for the nations, ⁶and her settlements on the mainland will be ravaged by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

⁷"For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: From the north I am going to bring against Tyre Nebuchadnezzar^a king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses and chariots, with horsemen and a great army. ⁸He will ravage your settlements on the mainland with the sword; he will set up

siege works against you, build a ramp up to your walls and raise his shields against you. ⁹He will direct the blows of his battering-rams against your walls and demolish your towers with his weapons. ¹⁰His horses will be so many that they will cover you with dust. Your walls will tremble at the noise of the war horses, wagons and chariots when he enters your gates as men enter a city whose walls have been broken through. ¹¹The hoofs of his horses will trample all your streets; he will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars will fall to the ground. ¹²They will plunder your wealth and loot your merchandise; they will break down your walls and demolish your fine houses and throw your stones, timber and rubble into the sea. ¹³I will put an end to your noisy songs, and the music of your harps will be heard no more. ¹⁴I will make you a bare rock, and you will become a place to spread fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I the LORD have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁵"This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands tremble at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan and the slaughter takes place in you? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the coast will step down from their thrones and lay aside their robes and take off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit on the ground, trembling every moment, appalled at you. ¹⁷Then they will take up a lament concerning you and say to you:

"How you are destroyed, O city of renown,
peopled by men of the sea!
You were a power on the seas,
you and your citizens;
you put your terror
on all who lived there.

¹⁸Now the coastlands tremble
on the day of your fall;
the islands in the sea
are terrified at your collapse."

¹⁹"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I make you a desolate city, like cities no longer inhabited, and when I bring the ocean depths over you and its vast waters cover you, ²⁰then I will bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of long ago. I will make you dwell in the earth below, as in ancient ruins, with those who go down to the pit, and you will not return or take your place^b in the land of the living. ²¹I will bring you to a horrible end and you will be no more. You will be sought, but you will never again be found, declares the Sovereign LORD."

A Lament for Tyre

27 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, take up a lament concerning Tyre. ³Say to Tyre, situated at the gateway to the sea, merchant of peoples on many coasts, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"You say, O Tyre,
"I am perfect in beauty."

⁴Your domain was on the high seas;
your builders brought your beauty to perfection.

of pine trees from Senir;^a they took a cedar from Lebanon
to make a mast for you.

⁶Of oaks from Bashan
they made your oars;
of cypress wood^b from the coasts of Cyprus^c
they made your deck, inlaid with ivory.

⁷Fine embroidered linen from Egypt
was your sail
and served as your banner;
your awnings were of blue and purple
from the coasts of Elishah.

⁸Men of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers;
your skilled men, O Tyre, were

A Prophecy Against the King of Tyre

28 The word of the LORD came to me:
²“Son of man, say to the ruler of Tyre, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

“‘In the pride of your heart
you say, “I am a god;
I sit on the throne of a god
in the heart of the seas.”

But you are a mortal and not a god, though you think you are as wise as
a god.

³Are you wiser than Daniel?^a
Is no secret hidden from you?

⁴By your wisdom and understanding you have gained wealth for yourself and amassed gold and silver in your treasuries.

⁵By your great skill in trading
you have increased your wealth,
and because of your wealth
your heart has grown proud.

⁶“Therefore this is what the Sovereign
LORD says:

“‘Because you think you are wise,
as wise as a god,

⁷I am going to bring foreigners against
you,

the most ruthless of nations;
they will draw their swords against your beauty and wisdom
and pierce your shining splendour.

⁸They will bring you down to the pit,
and you will die a violent death
in the heart of the seas.

⁹Will you then say, “I am a god,”
in the presence of those who kill
you?

You will be but a mortal, not a god,
in the hands of those who slay you.

¹⁰You will die the death of the uncircumcised
at the hands of foreigners.

I have spoken, declares the Sovereign
LORD.”

¹¹The word of the LORD came to me:

¹²“Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him:
‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“‘You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

¹³You were in Eden,
the garden of God;
every precious stone adorned you:
ruby, topaz and emerald,
chrysolite, onyx and jasper,
sapphire,^b turquoise and beryl.^c

made of gold;
on the day you were created they were prepared.

you walked among the fiery stones.

from the day you were created

¹⁶Through your widespread trade
you were filled with violence, and you sinned.

So I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God,
and I expelled you, O guardian
cherub,
from among the fiery stones.

¹⁷Your heart became proud
on account of your beauty,
and you corrupted your wisdom
because of your splendour.

So I threw you to the earth;
I made a spectacle of you before
kings.

¹⁸By your many sins and dishonest trade
you have desecrated your sanctuaries.

So I made a fire come out from you,
and it consumed you,
and I reduced you to ashes on the
ground
in the sight of all who were watching.

are appalled at you;
you have come to a horrible end
and will be no more.’”

A Prophecy Against Sidon

²⁰The word of the LORD came to me:

²¹“Son of man, set your face against Sidon; prophesy against her ²²and say:
‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“‘I am against you, O Sidon,
and I will gain glory within you.
They will know that I am the LORD,
when I inflict punishment on her and show myself holy within her.

²³I will send a plague upon her and make blood flow in her streets.
The slain will fall within her,
with the sword against her on every side.

Then they will know that I am the
LORD.

²⁴“No longer will the people of Israel have malicious neighbours who are painful briers and sharp thorns. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

²⁵“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I gather the people of Israel from the nations where they have been scattered, I will show myself holy among them in the sight of the nations. Then they will live in their own land, which I gave to my servant Jacob. ²⁶They will live there in safety and will build houses and plant vineyards; they will live in safety when I inflict punishment on all their neighbours who maligned them. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.’”

A Prophecy Against Egypt

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month on the twelfth day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. ³Speak to him and say:
‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“‘I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,
you great monster lying among your streams.

You say, “The Nile is mine;
I made it for myself.”

⁴But I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your streams stick to your scales.

I will pull you out from among your
streams,
with all the fish sticking to your
scales.

⁵I will leave you in the desert,
you and all the fish of your streams.
You will fall on the open field
and not be gathered or picked up.
I will give you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the air.

⁶Then all who live in Egypt will know that I am the LORD.

“‘You have been a staff of reed for the house of Israel. ⁷When they grasped you with their hands, you splintered and you

tore open their shoulders; when they leaned on you, you broke and their backs were wrenched.^a

⁸“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will bring a sword against you and kill your people and their animals. ⁹Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

“Because you said, ‘The Nile is mine; I made it,’ ¹⁰therefore I am against you and against your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt a ruin and a desolate waste from Migdol to Aswan, as far as the border of Cush.^b ¹¹No foot of people or animals will pass through it; no-one will live there for forty years. ¹²I will make the land of Egypt desolate among devastated lands, and her cities will lie desolate for forty years among ruined cities. And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries.

¹³“Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered. ¹⁴I will bring them back from captivity and return them to Upper Egypt,^c the land of their ancestry. There they will be a lowly kingdom. ¹⁵It will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the other nations. I will make it so weak that it will never again rule over the nations. ¹⁶Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence for the people of Israel but will be a reminder of their sin in turning to her for help. Then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.”

¹⁷In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁸“Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon drove his army in a hard campaign against Tyre; every head was rubbed bare and every shoulder made raw. Yet he and his army got no reward from the campaign he led against Tyre. ¹⁹Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth. He will loot and plunder the land as pay for his army. ²⁰I have given him Egypt as a reward for his efforts because he and his army did it for me, declares the Sovereign LORD.

²¹“On that day I will make a horn^d grow for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A Lament for Egypt

30 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, prophesy and say: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

“Wail and say,

“Alas for that day!”

³For the day is near,
the day of the LORD is near —
a day of clouds,
a time of doom for the nations.

⁴A sword will come against Egypt,
and anguish will come upon Cush.^e
When the slain fall in Egypt,
her wealth will be carried away
and her foundations torn down.

Egypt.

⁶“This is what the LORD says:

“The allies of Egypt will fall
and her proud strength will fail.
From Migdol to Aswan
they will fall by the sword within her.
declares the Sovereign LORD.

⁷“They will be desolate
among desolate lands,
and their cities will lie
among ruined cities.

⁸Then they will know that I am the
LORD,
when I set fire to Egypt
and all her helpers are crushed.

⁹“On that day messengers will go out from me in ships to frighten Cush out of ¹⁰ "This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt
by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar
king of Babylon.

¹¹ He and his army—the most ruthless of nations—
will be brought in to destroy the
land.

They will draw their swords against Egypt
and fill the land with the slain.

¹² I will dry up the streams of the Nile and sell the land to an evil nation;
by the hand of foreigners
I will lay waste the land and everything in it.

I the LORD have spoken.

¹³ "This is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

"I will destroy the idols
and put an end to the images in Memphis.^c

No longer will there be a prince in Egypt,
and I will spread fear throughout
the land.

¹⁴ I will lay waste Upper Egypt,^d

¹⁵ I will pour out my wrath on Pelusium,^f
the stronghold of Egypt, and cut off the hordes of Thebes.

¹⁶ I will set fire to Egypt;
Pelusium will writhe in agony.
Thebes will be taken by storm;
Memphis will be in constant

there her proud strength will come to an end.

and her villages will go into
captivity.

¹⁹ So I will inflict punishment on Egypt,
and they will know that I am the LORD.ⁱ

²⁰ In the eleventh year, in the first month on the seventh day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²¹ "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt.
It has not been bound up for healing or put in a splint so as to become strong enough to hold a sword. ²² Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the good arm as well as the broken one, and make the sword fall from his hand. ²³ I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries. ²⁴ I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him like someone mortally wounded. ²⁵ I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall limp. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he brandishes it against Egypt. ²⁶ I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries. Then they will know that I am
the LORD."

A Cedar in Lebanon

31 In the eleventh year, in the third month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me: ² "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes:

^c13 Hebrew Noph; also in verse 16
^f15 Hebrew Sin; also in verse 16

^d14 Hebrew waste Pathros

"Who can be compared with you in majesty?

³Consider Assyria, once a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches
overshadowing the forest;
it towered on high,
its top above the thick foliage.

⁴The waters nourished it,
deep springs made it grow tall;
their streams flowed
all around its base
and sent their channels
to all the trees of the field.

⁵So it towered higher than all the trees of the field;
its boughs increased
and its branches grew long,
spreading because of abundant
waters.

⁶All the birds of the air
nested in its boughs,
all the beasts of the field
gave birth under its branches;
all the great nations
lived in its shade.

⁷It was majestic in beauty,
with its spreading boughs,
for its roots went down to abundant waters.

⁸The cedars in the garden of God
could not rival it,
nor could the pine trees
equal its boughs.
nor could the plane trees compare with its branches —
no tree in the garden of God could match its beauty.

⁹I made it beautiful
with abundant branches,
the envy of all the trees of Eden
in the garden of God.

¹⁰"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because it towered on high, lifting its top above the thick foliage, and because it was proud of its height, ¹¹I handed it over to the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside, ¹²and the most ruthless of foreign nations cut it down and left it. Its boughs fell on the mountains and in all the valleys; its branches lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth came out from under its shade and left it. ¹³All the birds of the air settled on the fallen tree, and all the beasts of the field were among its branches. ¹⁴Therefore no other trees by the waters are ever to tower proudly on high, lifting their tops above the thick foliage. No other trees so well-watered are ever to reach such a height; they are all destined for death, for the earth below, among mortals, with those who go down to the pit.

¹⁵"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day it was brought down to the grave^a I covered the deep springs with mourning for it; I held back its streams, and its abundant waters were restrained. Because of it I clothed Lebanon with gloom, and all the trees of the field withered away. ¹⁶I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall when I brought it down to the grave with those who go down to the pit. Then all the trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, all the trees that were well-watered, were consoled in the earth below. ¹⁷Those who lived in its shade, its allies among the nations, had also gone down to the grave with it, joining those killed by the sword.

¹⁸"Which of the trees of Eden can be compared with you in splendour and majesty? Yet you, too, will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth below; you will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.

"This is Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the Sovereign LORD."

A Lament for Pharaoh

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, take up a lament concerning Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

"You are like a lion among the nations;
you are like a monster in the seas

^a15 Hebrew Sheol; also in verses 16 and 17

thrashing about in your streams, churning the water with your feet
and muddying the streams.

34 "This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"With a great throng of people
I will cast my net over you,
and they will haul you up in my net.

41 I will throw you on the land and hurl you on the open field.

I will let all the birds of the air settle on you
and all the beasts of the earth gorge themselves on you.

51 I will spread your flesh on the
mountains
and fill the valleys with your
remains.

61 I will drench the land with your flowing blood
all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with your flesh.

7 When I snuff you out, I will cover the
heavens

and darken their stars;
I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon will not give its light.

8 All the shining lights in the heavens
I will darken over you;
I will bring darkness over your land,
declares the Sovereign LORD.

9 I will trouble the hearts of many
peoples
when I bring about your destruction among the nations,
among^a lands you have not known.

10 I will cause many peoples to be appalled at you,
and their kings will shudder with horror because of you when I brandish my sword before
them.

On the day of your downfall
each of them will tremble
every moment for his life.

11 "For this is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

"The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

12 I will cause your hordes to fall
by the swords of mighty men —
the most ruthless of all nations.
They will shatter the pride of Egypt,
and all her hordes will be overthrown.

13 I will destroy all her cattle from beside abundant waters
no longer to be stirred by human feet or muddied by the hoofs of cattle.

14 Then I will let her waters settle and make her streams flow like oil,
declares the Sovereign LORD.

15 When I make Egypt desolate and strip the land of everything in it,
when I strike down all who live there,
then they will know that I am the LORD."

16 "This is the lament they will chant for her. The daughters of the nations will chant it; for Egypt and all her hordes they will chant it, declares the Sovereign LORD."

17 In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: 18 "Son of man, wait for the hordes of Egypt and consign to the earth below both her and the daughters of mighty nations, with those who go down to the pit. 19 Say to them, 'Are you more favoured than others? Go down and be laid among the uncircumcised.' 20 They will fall among those killed by the sword.
The sword is drawn; let her be dragged off with all her hordes. 21 From within the grave^b the mighty leaders will say of Egypt and her allies, 'They have come down and they lie with the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.'

22 "Assyria is there with her whole army; she is surrounded by the graves of all her slain, all who have fallen by the sword. 23 Their graves are in the depths of the pit and her army lies around her grave.
All who had spread terror in the land of the living are slain, fallen by the sword.

24 "Elam is there, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are slain, fallen by the sword. All who had spread terror in the land of the living went down uncircumcised to the earth below. They bear their shame with those who go down

^a9 Hebrew: Septuagint bring you into captivity among the nations, I to ^b21 Hebrew Sheol; also in verse 27

to the pit. ²⁵A bed is made for her among the slain, with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword. Because their terror had spread in the land of the living, they bear their shame with those who go down to the pit; they are laid among the slain.

²⁶"Meshech and Tubal are there, with all their hordes around their graves. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword because they spread their terror in the land of the living. ²⁷Do they not lie with the other uncircumcised warriors who have fallen, who went down to the grave with their weapons of war, whose swords were placed under their heads? The punishment for their sins rested on their bones, though the terror of these warriors had stalked through the land of the living.

²⁸"You too, O Pharaoh, will be broken and will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword.

²⁹"Edom is there, her kings and all her princes; despite their power, they are laid with those killed by the sword. They lie with the uncircumcised, with those who go down to the pit.

³¹"Pharaoh—he and all his army—will see them and he will be consoled for all his hordes that were killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD. ³²Although I had him spread terror in the land of the living, Pharaoh and all his hordes will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD."

Ezekiel a Watchman

33 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, speak to your people and say to them: 'When I bring the sword against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman, ³and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet to warn the people, ⁴then if any hear the trumpet but do not take warning and the sword comes and takes their lives, their blood will be on their own heads. ⁵Since they heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning, their blood will be on their own heads. If they had taken warning, they would have saved themselves. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes the lives of any of them, those people will be taken away because of their sins, but I will hold the watchman accountable for their blood.'

⁷"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me. ⁸When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked people, you will surely die,' and you do not speak out to dissuade them from their ways, those wicked people will die for^a their sins, and I will hold you accountable for their blood. ⁹But if you do warn the wicked to turn from their ways and they do not do so, they will die for their sins, but you will be saved yourself.

¹⁰"Son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'This is what you are saying: "Our offences and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away because of^b them. How then can we live?"' ¹¹Say to them, 'As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! Why will you die, O house of Israel?'

¹²"Therefore, son of man, say to your people, 'If someone who is righteous then disobeys, that person's former righteousness will count for nothing. And if someone who is wicked then repents, that person's former wickedness will not bring condemnation. The righteous, if they sin, will not be allowed to live because of their former righteousness.' ¹³If I tell the righteous that they will surely live, but then they trust in their righteousness and do evil, none of the righteous things they have done will be remembered; they will die for the evil they have done. ¹⁴And if I say to the wicked, 'You will surely die,' but they then turn away from their sins and do what is just and right—¹⁵if they give back what they took in pledge for a loan, return what they have stolen, follow the decrees that give life, and do no evil, they will surely live; they will not die. ¹⁶None of the sins they have committed will be remembered against them. They have done what is just and right; they will surely live.

¹⁷"Yet your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' But it is their way that is not just. ¹⁸If the righteous turn from their righteousness and do evil, they will die for it. ¹⁹And if the wicked turn away from their wickedness and do what is just and right, they will live by doing so. ²⁰Yet, O house of Israel, you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' But I will judge each of you according to your own ways."

Jerusalem's Fall Explained

²¹In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month on the fifth day, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen!" ²²Now the evening before the man arrived, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer silent.

²³Then the word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴"Son of man, the people living in those ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as our possession.' ²⁵Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you eat meat with the blood still in it and look to your idols and shed blood, should you then possess the land?' ²⁶You rely on your sword, you do detestable things, and each of you defiles his neighbour's wife. Should you then possess the land?'"

those who are left in the ruins will fall by the sword, those out in the country I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of a plague. ²⁸I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains of Israel will become desolate so that no-one will cross them. ²⁹Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the detestable things they have done.'

³⁰"As for you, son of man, your people are talking together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, saying to each other, 'Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD.' ³¹My people come to you, as they usually do, and sit before you to listen to your words, but they do not put them into practice. With their mouths they express devotion, but their hearts are greedy for unjust gain. ³²Indeed, to them you are nothing more than one who sings love songs with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear your words but do not put them into practice.

³³"When all this comes true—and it surely will—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Shepherds and Sheep

34 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should not shepherds take care of the flock?' ³You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the choice animals, but you do not take care of the flock. ⁴You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bound up the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally. ⁵So they were scattered because there was no shepherd, and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild animals. ⁶My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. They were scattered over the whole earth, and no-one searched or looked for them.

⁷“Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ⁸As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because my flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered and has become food for all the wild animals, and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than for my flock, ⁹therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ¹⁰This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.

¹¹“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep and look after them. ¹²As shepherds look after their scattered flocks when they are with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. ¹³I will bring them out from the nations and gather them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land. I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land. ¹⁴I will tend them in a good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I myself will tend my sheep and make them lie down, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up the injured and strengthen the weak, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy. I will shepherd the flock with justice.

¹⁷“As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will judge between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats. ¹⁸Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of your pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink clear water? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? ¹⁹Must my flock feed on what you have trampled and drink what you have muddied with your feet?

²⁰“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says to them: See, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak sheep with your horns until you have driven them away, ²²I will save my flock, and they will no longer be plundered. I will judge between one sheep and another. ²³I will place over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd. ²⁴I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David will be prince among them. I the LORD have spoken.

²⁵“I will make a covenant of peace with them and rid the land of wild beasts so that they may live in the desert and sleep in the forests in safety. ²⁶I will bless them and the places surrounding my hill. ²⁷I will send down showers in season; there will be showers of blessing. ²⁸The trees of the field will yield their fruit and the ground will yield its crops; the people will be secure in their land. They will know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hands of those who enslaved them. ²⁹They will no longer be plundered by the nations, nor will wild animals devour them. They will live in safety, and no-one will make them afraid. ³⁰I will provide for them a land renowned for its crops, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land or bear the scorn of the nations. ³¹Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, declares the Sovereign LORD. ³²You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are people, and I am your God, declares the Sovereign LORD.”

A Prophecy Against Edom

35 The word of the LORD came to me: ²“Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir; prophesy against it ³and say:

²⁶ Or I will make them and the places surrounding my hill a blessing

'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and make you a desolate waste. ⁴I will turn your towns into ruins and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵"'Because you harboured an ancient hostility and delivered the Israelites over to the sword at the time of their calamity, the time their punishment reached its climax, ⁶therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will give you over to bloodshed and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you. ⁷I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and cut off from it all who come and go. ⁸I will fill your mountains with the slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines. ⁹I will make you desolate for ever; your towns will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰"'Because you have said, "These two nations and countries will be ours and we will take possession of them," even though I the LORD was there, ¹¹therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will treat you in accordance with the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred of them and I will make myself known among them when I judge you. ¹²Then you will know that I the LORD have heard all the contemptible things you have said against the mountains of Israel. You said, "They have been laid waste and have been given over to us to devour." ¹³You boasted against me and spoke against me without restraint, and I heard it. ¹⁴This is what the Sovereign LORD says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. ¹⁵Because you rejoiced when the inheritance of the house of Israel became desolate, that is how I will treat you. You will be desolate, O Mount Seir, you and all of Edom. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

A Prophecy to the Mountains of Israel

36 "Son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say, 'O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. ²This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The enemy said of you, "Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession." ³Therefore prophesy and say, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because they ravaged and hounded you from every side so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations and the object of people's malicious talk and slander, ⁴therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD: This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and the deserted towns that have been plundered and ridiculed by the rest of the nations around you—⁵this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my burning zeal I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against Edom, for with glee and with malice in their hearts they made my land their own possession so that they might plunder its pasture-land.' ⁶Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I speak in my jealous wrath because you have suffered the scorn of the nations. ⁷Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I swear with uplifted hand that the nations around you will also suffer scorn.

⁸"'But you, O mountains of Israel, will produce branches and fruit for my people Israel, for they will soon come home. ⁹I am concerned for you and will look on you with favour; you will be ploughed and sown, ¹⁰and I will multiply the number of people upon you, even the whole house of Israel. The towns will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. ¹¹I will increase the number of people and animals upon you, and they will be fruitful and become numerous. I will settle people on you as in the past and will make you prosper more than before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹²I will cause people, my people Israel, to walk upon you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance; you will never again deprive them of their children.

¹³"'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because some say to you, "You devour your people and deprive your nation of its children," ¹⁴ therefore you will no longer devour people or make your nation childless, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁵ No longer will I make you hear the taunts of the nations, and no longer will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause your nation to fall, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶

Again the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷ "Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and their actions. Their conduct was like a woman's monthly uncleanness in my sight. ¹⁸ So I poured out my wrath on them because they had shed blood in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹ I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered through the countries; I judged them according to their conduct and their actions. ²⁰ And wherever they went among the nations they profaned my holy name, for it was said of them, 'These are the LORD's people, and yet they had to leave his land.' ²¹ I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they had gone.

²² "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations where you have gone. ²³ I will show the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Sovereign LORD, when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.

²⁴ "For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land. ²⁵ I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols. ²⁶ I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷ And I will put my Spirit in you and move you to follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. ²⁸ You will live in the land I gave your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹ I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the corn and make it plentiful and will not bring famine upon you. ³⁰ I will increase the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field, so that you will no longer suffer disgrace among the nations because of famine. ³¹ Then you will remember your evil ways and wicked deeds, and you will loathe yourselves for your sins and detestable practices. ³² I want you to know that I am not doing this for your sake, declares the Sovereign LORD. Be ashamed and disgraced for your conduct. O house of Israel!

³³ "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I cleanse you from all your sins, I will resettle your towns, and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴ The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through it. ³⁵ They will say, 'This land that was laid waste has become like the garden of Eden; the cities that were lying in ruins, desolate and destroyed, are now fortified and inhabited.' ³⁶ Then the nations around you that remain will know that I the LORD have rebuilt what was destroyed and have replanted what was desolate. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.'

³⁷ "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Once again I will yield to the plea of the house of Israel and do this for them: I will make their people as numerous as sheep, ³⁸ as numerous as the flocks for offerings at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts. So will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

The Valley of Dry Bones

37 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. ² He led me to and fro among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. ³ He asked me, "Son of man, can these bones live?"

I said, "O Sovereign LORD, you alone know."

⁴Then he said to me, "Prophecy to these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD! ⁵This is what the Sovereign LORD says to these bones: I will make breath^a enter you, and you will come to life. ⁶I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone. ⁸I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.

⁹Then he said to me, "Prophecy to the breath; prophecy, son of man, and say to it, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.'"

¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet—a vast army.

¹¹Then he said to me: "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off.' ¹²Therefore prophecy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O my people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel. ¹³Then you, my people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. ¹⁴I will put my Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.'"

One Nation Under One King

¹⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁶"Son of man, take a stick of wood and write on it, 'Belonging to Judah and the Israelites associated with him.' Then take another stick of wood, and write on it, 'Ephraim's stick, belonging to Joseph and all the house of Israel associated with him.' ¹⁷Join them together into one stick so that they will become one in your hand.

¹⁸"When your people ask you, 'Won't you tell us what you mean by this?' ¹⁹say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph—which is in Ephraim's hand—and of the Israelite tribes associated with him, and join it to Judah's stick, making them a single stick of wood, and they will become one in my hand.' ²⁰Hold before their eyes the sticks you have written on ²¹and say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all around and bring them back into their own land. ²²I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. There will be one king over all of them and they will never again be two nations or be divided into two kingdoms. ²³They will no longer defile themselves with their idols and vile images or with any of their offences, for I will save them from all their sinful backsliding,^b and I will cleanse them. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴"My servant David will be king over them, and they will all have one shepherd. They will follow my laws and be careful to keep my decrees. ²⁵They will live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob, the land where your ancestors lived. They and their children and their children's children will live there for ever, and David my servant will be their prince for ever. ²⁶I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant. I will establish them and increase their numbers, and I will put my sanctuary among them for ever. ²⁷My dwelling-place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people. ²⁸Then the nations will know that I the LORD make Israel holy, when my sanctuary is among them for ever.'"

A Prophecy Against Gog

38 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of ^aMeshech and Tubal; prophesy against him ³and say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of ^bMeshech and Tubal. ⁴I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws and bring you out with your whole army—your horses, your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords. ⁵Persia, Cush^c and Put will be with them, all with shields and helmets, ⁶also Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the far north with all its troops—the many nations with you.

⁷"Get ready; be prepared, you and all the hordes gathered about you, and take command of them. ⁸After many days you will be called to arms. In future years you will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety. ⁹You and all your troops and the many nations with you will go up, advancing like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

¹⁰"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On that day thoughts will come into your mind and you will devise an evil scheme. ¹¹You will say, "I will invade a land of unwarred villages; I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people—all of them living without walls and without gates and bars. ¹²I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, rich in livestock and goods, living at the centre of the land." ¹³Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all her villages^d will say to you, "Have you come to plunder? Have you gathered your hordes to loot, to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods and to seize much plunder?"

¹⁴"Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In that day, when my people Israel are living in safety, will you not take notice of it? ¹⁵You will come from your place in the far north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army. ¹⁶You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In days to come, O Gog, I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.

¹⁷"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Are you not the one I spoke of in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel? At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them. ¹⁸This is what will happen in that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, my hot anger will be aroused, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁹In my zeal and fiery wrath I declare that at that time there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰The fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the beasts of the field, every creature that moves along the ground, and all the people on the face of the earth will tremble at my presence. The mountains will be overturned, the cliffs will crumble and every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹I will summon a sword against Gog on all my mountains, declares the Sovereign LORD. Every man's sword will be against his fellow. ²²I will execute judgment upon him with plague and bloodshed; I will pour down torrents of rain, hailstones and burning sulphur on him and on his troops and on the many nations with him. ²³And so I will show my greatness and my holiness, and I will make myself known in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'

39 "Son of man, prophesy against Gog and say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of ^aMeshech and Tubal. ²I will turn you around and drag you along. I will bring you from the far north and send you against the mountains of Israel. ³Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. ⁴On the mountains of Israel you will fall, you and all your troops and the nations with you. I will give you as food to all kinds of carrion birds and to the wild animals. ⁵You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD. ⁶I will send fire on Magog and on those who live in safety in the coastlands, and they will know that I am the LORD.

⁷“I will make known my holy name among my people Israel. I will no longer let my holy name be profaned, and the nations will know that I the LORD am the Holy One in Israel. ⁸It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD. This is the day I have spoken of.

⁹“Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons for fuel and burn them up—the small and large shields, the bows and arrows, the war clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel. ¹⁰They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut it from the forests, because they will use the weapons for fuel. And they will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹¹“On that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel, in the valley of those who travel east towards^b the Sea. ^cIt will block the way of travellers, because Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog.^d

¹²“For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land. ¹³All the people of the land will bury them, and the day I am glorified will be a memorable day for them, declares the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁴“Workers will be regularly employed to cleanse the land. Some will go throughout the land and, in addition to them, others will bury those that remain on the ground. At the end of the seven months they will begin their search. ¹⁵As they go through the land, any of them who sees a human bone will set up a marker beside it until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. ¹⁶(Also a town called Hamonah^e will be there.) And so they will cleanse the land.’

¹⁷“Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Call out to every kind of bird and all the wild animals: ‘Assemble and come together from all around to the sacrifice I am preparing for you, the great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as if they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls—all of them fattened animals from Bashan. ¹⁹At the sacrifice I am preparing for you, you will eat fat till you are glutted and drink blood till you are drunk. ²⁰At my table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, mighty men and soldiers of every kind,’ declares the Sovereign LORD.

²¹“I will display my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the punishment I inflict and the hand I lay upon them. ²²From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. ²³And the nations will know that the people of Israel went into exile for their sin, because they were unfaithful to me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, and they all fell by the sword. ²⁴I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offences, and I hid my face from them.

²⁵“Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will now bring Jacob back from captivity/ and will have compassion on all the people of Israel, and I will be zealous for my holy name. ²⁶They will forget their shame and all the unfaithfulness they showed towards me when they lived in safety in their land with no-one to make them afraid. ²⁷When I have brought them back from the nations and have gathered them from the countries of their enemies, I will show myself holy through them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸Then they will know that I am the LORD their God, for though I sent them into exile among the nations, I will gather them to their own land, not leaving any behind.

The New Temple Area

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the fall of the city—on that very day the hand of the LORD was upon me and he took me there. ²In visions of God he took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, on whose south side were some buildings that looked like a city. ³He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze; he was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. ⁴The man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Tell the house of Israel everything you see."

The East Gate to the Outer Court

⁵I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring rod in the man's hand was six long cubits, each of which was a cubit^a and a handbreadth.^b He measured the wall; it was one measuring rod thick and one rod high.

⁶Then he went to the gate facing east. He climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate; it was one rod deep.^c ⁷The alcoves for the guards were one rod long and one rod wide, and the projecting walls between the alcoves were five cubits thick. And the threshold of the gate next to the portico facing the temple was one rod deep.

⁸Then he measured the portico of the gateway; ⁹it^d was eight cubits deep and its jambs were two cubits thick. The portico of the gateway faced the temple.

¹⁰Inside the east gate were three alcoves on each side; the three had the same measurements, and the faces of the projecting walls on each side had the same measurements. ¹¹Then he measured the width of the entrance to the gateway; it was ten cubits and its length was thirteen cubits. ¹²In front of each alcove was a wall one cubit high, and the alcoves were six cubits square. ¹³Then he measured the gateway from the top of the rear wall of one alcove to the top of the opposite one; the distance was twenty-five cubits from one parapet opening to the opposite one. ¹⁴He measured along the faces of the projecting walls all around the inside of the gateway—sixty cubits. The measurement was up to the portico^e facing the courtyard.^f ¹⁵The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its portico was fifty cubits. ¹⁶The alcoves and the projecting walls inside the gateway were surmounted by narrow parapet openings all round, as was the portico; the openings all round faced inward. The faces of the projecting walls were decorated with palm trees.

The Outer Court

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court. There I saw some rooms and a pavement that had been constructed all round the court; there were thirty rooms along the pavement. ¹⁸It abutted the sides of the gateways and was as wide as they were long; this was the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court; it was a hundred cubits on the east side as well as on the north.

The North Gate

²⁰Then he measured the length and width of the gate facing north, leading into the outer court. ²¹Its alcoves—three on each side—its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.²² Its openings, its portico and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them.²³ There was a gate to the inner court facing the north gate, just as there was on the east. He measured from one gate to the opposite one; it was a hundred cubits.

The South Gate

²⁴Then he led me to the south side and I saw a gate facing south. He measured its jambs and its portico, and they had the same measurements as the others.²⁵ The gateway and its portico had narrow openings all round, like the openings of the others. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.²⁶ Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them; it had palm tree decorations on the faces of the projecting walls on each side.²⁷ The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side; it was a hundred cubits.

Gates to the Inner Court

²⁸Then he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements as the others.²⁹ Its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.³⁰ (The porticoes of the gateways around the inner court were twenty-five cubits wide and five cubits deep.)³¹ Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated its jambs, and eight steps led up to it.

³²Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gateway; it had the same measurements as the others.³³ Its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.³⁴ Its portico faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.

³⁵Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same measurements as the others,³⁶ as did its alcoves, its projecting walls and its portico, and it had openings all round. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.³⁷ Its portico⁸ faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.

The Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

³⁸A room with a doorway was by the portico in each of the inner gateways, where the burnt offerings were washed.³⁹ In the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings, sin offerings and guilt offerings were slaughtered.⁴⁰ By the outside wall of the portico of the gateway, near the steps at the entrance to the north gateway were two tables, and on the other side of the steps were two tables.⁴¹ So there were four tables on one side of the gateway and four on the other—eight tables in all—on which the sacrifices were slaughtered.⁴² There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offerings, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide and a cubit high. On them were placed the utensils for slaughtering the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices.⁴³ And double-pronged hooks, each a handbreadth long, were attached to the wall all around. The tables were for the flesh of the offerings.

Rooms for the Priests

⁴⁴Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two rooms, one^h at the side of the north gate and facing south, and another at the side of the southⁱ gate and facing north.⁴⁵ He said to me, "The room facing south is for the priests who have charge of the temple,⁴⁶ and the room facing north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who are the only Levites who may draw near to the LORD to minister before him."

⁴⁷Then he measured the court: It was square—a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

The Temple

⁴⁸He brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the jambs of the portico; they were five cubits wide on either side. The width of the entrance was fourteen cubits and its projecting walls were ^j three cubits wide on either side. ⁴⁹The portico was twenty cubits wide, and twelve ^k cubits from front to back. It was reached by a flight of stairs, ^l and there were pillars on each side of the jambs.

41 Then the man brought me to the outer sanctuary and measured the jambs; the width of the jambs was six cubits ^a on each side. ^b ²The entrance was ten cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were five cubits wide. He also measured the outer sanctuary; it was forty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.

³Then he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the jambs of the entrance; each was two cubits wide. The entrance was six cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were seven cubits wide. ⁴And he measured the length of the inner sanctuary; it was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits across the end of the outer sanctuary. He said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

⁵Then he measured the wall of the temple; it was six cubits thick, and each side room round the temple was four cubits wide. ⁶The side rooms were on three levels, one above another, thirty on each level. There were ledges all round the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports were not inserted into the wall of the temple. ⁷The side rooms all round the temple were wider at each successive level. The structure surrounding the temple was built in ascending stages, so that the rooms widened as one went upward. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the top floor through the middle floor.

⁸I saw that the temple had a raised base all round it, forming the foundation of the side rooms. It was the length of the rod, six long cubits. ⁹The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple ¹⁰and the ^j priests' rooms was twenty cubits wide all round the temple. ¹¹There were entrances to the side rooms from the open area, one on the north and another on the south; and the base adjoining the open area was five cubits wide all round.

¹²The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all round, and its length was ninety cubits.

¹³Then he measured the temple; it was a hundred cubits long, and the temple courtyard and the building with its walls were also a hundred cubits long. ¹⁴The width of the temple courtyard on the east, including the front of the temple, was a hundred cubits.

¹⁵Then he measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the rear of the temple, including its galleries on each side; it was a hundred cubits.

The outer sanctuary, the inner sanctuary and the portico facing the court, ¹⁶as well as the thresholds and the narrow windows and galleries round the three of them—everything beyond and including the threshold was covered with wood. The floor, the wall up to the windows, and the windows were covered. ¹⁷In the space above the outside of the entrance to the inner sanctuary and on the walls at regular intervals all round the inner and outer sanctuary ¹⁸were carved cherubim and palm trees. Palm trees alternated with cherubim. Each cherub had two faces: ¹⁹the face of a human being towards the palm tree on one side and the face of a lion towards the palm tree on the other. They were carved all round the whole temple.²⁰ From the floor to the area above the entrance, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall of the outer sanctuary.

²¹The outer sanctuary had a rectangular door-frame, and the one at the front of the Most Holy Place was similar.²² There was a wooden altar three cubits high and two cubits square;^c its corners, its base^d and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."²³ Both the outer sanctuary and the Most Holy Place had double doors.²⁴ Each door had two leaves—two hinged leaves for each door.²⁵ And on the doors of the outer sanctuary were carved cherubim and palm trees like those carved on the walls, and there was a wooden overhang on the front of the portico.²⁶ On the side walls of the portico were narrow windows with palm trees carved on each side. The side rooms of the temple also had overhangs.

42 Then the man led me northward into the outer court and brought me to the rooms opposite the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall on the north side.² The building whose door faced north was a hundred cubits^a long and fifty cubits wide.³ Both in the section twenty cubits from the inner court and in the section opposite the pavement of the outer court, gallery faced gallery at the three levels.⁴ In front of the rooms was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits^b long. Their doors were on the north.⁵ Now the upper rooms were narrower, for the galleries took more space from them than from the rooms on the lower and middle floors of the building.⁶ The rooms on the third floor had no pillars, as the courts had; so they were smaller in floor space than those on the lower and middle floors.⁷ There was an outer wall parallel to the rooms and the outer court; it extended in front of the rooms for fifty cubits.⁸ While the row of rooms on the side next to the outer court was fifty cubits long, the row on the side nearest the sanctuary was a hundred cubits long.⁹ The lower rooms had an entrance on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.

¹⁰On the south side^c along the length of the wall of the outer court, adjoining the temple courtyard and opposite the outer wall, were rooms¹¹ with a passageway in front of them. These were like the rooms on the north; they had the same length and width, with similar exits and dimensions. Similar to the doorways on the north¹² were the doorways of the rooms on the south. There was a doorway at the beginning of the passageway that was parallel to the corresponding wall extending eastward, by which one enters the rooms.

¹³Then he said to me, "The north and south rooms facing the temple courtyard are the priests' rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will put the most holy offerings—the grain offerings, the sin offerings and the guilt offerings—for the place is holy.¹⁴ Once the priests enter the holy precincts, they are not to go into the outer court until they leave behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they go near the places that are for the people."

¹⁵When he had finished measuring what was inside the temple area, he led me out by the east gate and measured the area all around:¹⁶ He measured the east side with the measuring rod; it was five hundred cubits.^d ¹⁷He measured the north side; it was five hundred cubits^e by the measuring rod.¹⁸ He measured the south side; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.¹⁹ Then he turned to the west side and measured; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod.

The Glory Returns to the Temple

43 Then the man brought me to the gate facing east, ²and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with his glory. ³The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when he^a came to destroy the city and like the visions I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell face down. ⁴The glory of the LORD entered the temple through the gate facing east. ⁵Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

⁶While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple. ⁷He said: "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet. This is where I will live among the Israelites for ever. The house of Israel will never again defile my holy name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution^b and the lifeless idols^c of their kings at their high places. ⁸When they placed their threshold next to my threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them, they defiled my holy name by their detestable practices. So I destroyed them in my anger. ⁹Now let them put away from me their prostitution and the lifeless idols of their kings, and I will live among them for ever.

¹⁰"Son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins. Let them consider the plan, ¹¹and if they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple—its arrangement, its exits and entrances—its whole design and all its regulations^d and laws. Write these down before them so that they may be faithful to its design and follow all its regulations.

¹²"This is the law of the temple: All the surrounding area on top of the mountain will be most holy. Such is the law of the temple.

The Altar

¹³"These are the measurements of the altar in long cubits, that cubit being a cubit^e and a handbreadth:^f Its gutter is a cubit deep and a cubit wide, with a rim of one span^g around the edge. And this is the height of the altar: ¹⁴From the gutter on the ground up to the lower ledge it is two cubits high and a cubit wide, and from the smaller ledge up to the larger ledge it is four cubits high and a cubit wide. ¹⁵The altar hearth is four cubits high, and four horns project upward from the hearth. ¹⁶The altar hearth is square, twelve cubits long and twelve cubits wide. ¹⁷The upper ledge also is square, fourteen cubits long and fourteen cubits wide, with a rim of half a cubit and a gutter of a cubit all round. The steps of the altar face east."

¹⁸Then he said to me, "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: These will be the regulations for sacrificing burnt offerings and sprinkling blood upon the altar when it is built: ¹⁹You are to give a young bull as a sin offering to the priests, who are Levites, of the family of Zadok, who come near to minister before me, declares the Sovereign LORD. ²⁰You are to take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar and on the four corners of the upper ledge and all round the rim, and so purify the altar and make atonement for it. ²¹You are to take the bull for the sin offering and burn it in the designated part of the temple area outside the sanctuary.

²²"On the second day you are to offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering, and the altar is to be purified as it was

purified with the bull. ²³When you have finished purifying it, you are to offer a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect. ²⁴You are to offer them before the LORD, and the priests are to sprinkle salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the LORD.

²⁵"For seven days you are to provide a male goat daily for a sin offering; you are also to provide a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without defect. ²⁶For seven days they are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it; thus they will dedicate it. ²⁷At the end of these days, from the eighth day on, the priests are to present your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings^h on the altar. Then I will accept you, declares the Sovereign LORD."

The Prince, the Levites, the Priests

44 Then the man brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east, and it was shut. ²The LORD said to me, "This gate is to remain shut. It must not be opened; no-one may enter through it. It is to remain shut because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it. ³The prince himself is the only one who may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the LORD. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way."

⁴Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling the temple of the LORD, and I fell face down.

⁵The LORD said to me, "Son of man, look carefully, listen closely and give attention to everything I tell you concerning all the regulations regarding the temple of the LORD. Give attention to the entrance of the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary. ⁶Say to the rebellious house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Enough of your detestable practices, O house of Israel! ⁷In addition to all your other detestable practices, you brought foreigners uncircumcised in heart and flesh into my sanctuary, desecrating my temple while you offered me food, fat and blood, and you broke my covenant. ⁸Instead of carrying out your duty in regard to my holy things, you put others in charge of my sanctuary. ⁹This is what the Sovereign LORD says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh is to enter my sanctuary, not even the foreigners who live among the Israelites.

¹⁰"The Levites who went far from me when Israel went astray and who wandered from me after their idols must bear the consequences of their sin. ¹¹They may serve in my sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple and serving in it; they may slaughter the burnt offerings and sacrifices for the people and stand before the people and serve them. ¹²But because they served them in the presence of their idols and made the house of Israel fall into sin, therefore I have sworn with uplifted hand that they must bear the consequences of their sin, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹³They are not to come near to serve me as priests or come near any of my holy things or my most holy offerings; they must bear the shame of their detestable practices. ¹⁴Yet I will put them in charge of the duties of the temple and all the work that is to be done in it.

¹⁵"But the priests, who are Levites and descendants of Zadok and who faithfully carried out the duties of my sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from me, are to come near to minister before me; they are to stand before me to offer sacrifices of fat and blood, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶They alone are to enter my sanctuary; they alone are to come near my table to minister before me and perform my service.

¹⁷"When they enter the gates of the inner court, they are to wear linen clothes; they must not wear any woollen garment while ministering at the gates of the inner court or inside the temple. ¹⁸They are to wear linen turbans on their heads and linen undergarments round their waists. They must not wear anything that makes them perspire. ¹⁹When they go out into the outer court where the people are, they are to take off the clothes they have been ministering in and leave them in the sacred rooms, and put on other clothes, so that they do not consecrate the people by means of their garments.

²⁰ "They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but they are to keep the hair of their heads trimmed. ²¹ No priest is to drink wine when he enters the inner court. ²² They must not marry widows or divorced women; they may marry only virgins of Israelite descent or widows of priests. ²³ They are to teach my people the difference between the holy and the common and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.

²⁴ "In any dispute, the priests are to serve as judges and decide it according to my ordinances. They are to keep my laws and my decrees for all my appointed feasts, and they are to keep my Sabbaths holy.

²⁵ "A priest must not defile himself by going near a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, then he may defile himself. ²⁶ After he is cleansed, he must wait seven days. ²⁷ On the day he goes into the inner court of the sanctuary to minister in the sanctuary, he is to offer a sin offering for himself, declares the Sovereign LORD.

²⁸ "I am to be the only inheritance the priests have. You are to give them no possession in Israel; I will be their possession. ²⁹ They will eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings and the guilt offerings; and everything in Israel devoted^a to the LORD will belong to them. ³⁰ The best of all the firstfruits and of all your special gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give them the first portion of your ground meal so that a blessing may rest on your household. ³¹ The priests must not eat anything, bird or animal, found dead or torn by wild animals.

Division of the Land

45 "When you allot the land as an inheritance, you are to present to the LORD a portion of the land as a sacred district, 25,000 cubits long and 20,000^a cubits wide; the entire area will be holy. ² Of this, a section 500 cubits square is to be for the sanctuary, with 50 cubits around it for open land. ³ In the sacred district, measure off a section 25,000 cubits^b long and 10,000 cubits^c wide. In it will be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. ⁴ It will be the sacred portion of the land for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and who draw near to minister before the LORD. It will be a place for their houses as well as a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵ An area 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide will belong to the Levites, who serve in the temple, as their possession for towns to live in.^d

⁶ "You are to give the city as its property an area 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, adjoining the sacred portion; it will belong to the whole house of Israel.

⁷ "The prince will have the land bordering each side of the area formed by the sacred district and the property of the city. It will extend westward from the west side and eastward from the east side, running lengthwise from the western to the eastern border parallel to one of the tribal portions. ⁸ This land will be his possession in Israel. And my princes will no longer oppress my people but will allow the house of Israel to possess the land according to their tribes.

⁹ "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have gone far enough, O princes of Israel! Give up your violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Stop dispossessing my people, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁰ You are to use accurate scales, an accurate ephah^e and an accurate bath.^f ¹¹ The ephah and the bath are to be the same size, the bath containing a tenth of a homer^g and the

Offerings and Holy Days

¹³ "This is the special gift you are to offer: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley. ¹⁴The prescribed portion of oil, measured by the bath, is a tenth of a bath from each cor (which consists of ten baths or one homer, for ten baths are equivalent to a homer). ¹⁵Also one sheep is to be taken from every flock of two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These will be used for the grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings/ to make atonement for the people, declares the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶All the people of the land will participate in this special gift for the use of the prince in Israel. ¹⁷It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the festivals, the New Moons and the Sabbaths—at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.

²¹ "In the first month on the fourteenth day you are to observe the Passover, a feast lasting seven days, during which you shall eat bread made without yeast. ²²On that day the prince is to provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land. ²³Every day during the seven days of the Feast he is to provide seven bulls and seven rams without defect as a burnt offering to the LORD, and a male goat for a sin offering. ²⁴He is to provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin^k of oil for each ephah.

²⁵ "During the seven days of the Feast, which begins in the seventh month on the fifteenth day, he is to make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings and oil.

46 "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The gate of the inner court facing east is to be shut on the six working days, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon it is to be opened. ²The prince is to enter from the outside through the portico of the gateway and stand by the gatepost. The priests are to sacrifice his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings.^a He is to worship at the threshold of the gateway and then go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening. ³On the Sabbaths and New Moons the people of the land are to worship in the presence of the LORD at the entrance to that gateway. ⁴The burnt offering the prince brings to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six male lambs and a ram, all without defect. ⁵The grain offering given with the ram is to be an ephah,^b and the grain offering with the lambs is to be as much as he pleases, along with a hin^c of oil for each ephah. ⁶On the day of the New Moon he is to offer a young bull, six lambs and a ram, all without defect. ⁷He is to provide as a grain offering one ephah with the bull, one ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he wants to give, along with a hin of oil with each ephah. ⁸When the prince enters, he is to go in through the portico of the gateway, and he is to come out the same way.

⁹ "When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, whoever enters by the north gate to worship is to go out by the south gate; and whoever enters by the south gate is to go out by the north gate. No-one is to return through the gate by which he entered, but each is to go out by the opposite gate. ¹⁰The prince is to be among them, going in when they go in and going out when they go out.

¹¹“At the festivals and the appointed feasts, the grain offering is to be an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as one pleases, along with a hin of oil for each ephah. ¹²When the prince provides a freewill offering to the LORD—whether a burnt offering or fellowship offerings—the gate facing east is to be opened for him. He shall offer his burnt offering or his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out, the gate will be shut.

¹³“Every day you are to provide a year-old lamb without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD; morning by morning you shall provide it. ¹⁴You are also to provide with it morning by morning a grain offering, consisting of a sixth of an ephah with a third of a hin of oil to moisten the flour. The presenting of this grain offering to the LORD is a lasting ordinance. ¹⁵So the lamb and the grain offering and the oil shall be provided morning by morning for a regular burnt offering.

¹⁹Then the man brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate to the sacred rooms facing north, which belonged to the priests, and showed me a place at the western end. ²⁰He said to me, “This is the place where the priests will cook the guilt offering and the sin offering and bake the grain offering, to avoid bringing them into the outer court and consecrating the people.”

²¹He then brought me to the outer court and led me round to its four corners, and I saw in each corner another court.

²²In the four corners of the outer court were enclosed^d courts, forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide; each of the courts in the four corners was the same size.

²³Around the inside of each of the four courts was a ledge of stone, with places for fire built all round under the ledge.

²⁴He said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple will cook the sacrifices of the people.”

The River From the Temple

47 The man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water coming out from under the threshold of the temple towards the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar. ²He then brought me out through the north gate and led me round the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was flowing from the south side.

³As the man went eastward with a measuring line in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits^a and then led me through water that was ankle-deep. ⁴He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist. ⁵He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—a river that no-one could cross. ⁶He asked me, “Son of man, do you see this?”

^{a3} That is, about 1,500 feet (about 460 metres)

Then he led me back to the bank of the river. ⁷When I arrived there, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river. ⁸He said to me, "This water flows towards the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah,^b where it enters the Sea.^c When it empties into the Sea,^c the water there becomes fresh. ⁹Swarms of living creatures will live wherever the river flows. There will be large numbers of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so where the river flows everything will live. ¹⁰People will fish along the shore; from En Gedi to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets. The fish will be of many kinds—like the fish of the Great Sea.^d ¹¹But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt. ¹²Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river. Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit fail. Every month they will bear, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing."

The Boundaries of the Land

¹³This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "These are the boundaries by which you are to divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel, with two portions for Joseph. ¹⁴You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with uplifted hand to give it to your ancestors this land will become your inheritance.

¹⁵"This is to be the boundary of the land:

"On the north side it will run from the Great Sea by the Hethlon road past Lebo^e Hamath to Zedad, ¹⁶Berothah/ and Sibraim (which lies on the border between Damascus and Hamath), as far as Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. ¹⁷The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazar Enan,^f along the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This will be the north boundary.

¹⁸"On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar.^h This will be the east boundary.

¹⁹"On the south side it will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt, to the Great Sea. This will be the south boundary.

²⁰"On the west side, the Great Sea will be the boundary to a point opposite Leboⁱ Hamath. This will be the west boundary.

²¹"You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. ²²You are to allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the aliens who have settled among you and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites; along with you they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. ²³In whatever tribe aliens settle there you are to give them their inheritance," declares the Sovereign LORD.

The Division of the Land

48 "These are the tribes, listed by name: At the northern frontier, Dan will have one portion; it will follow the Hethlon road to Lebo^a Hamath; Hazar Enan and the northern border of Damascus next to Hamath will be part of its border from the east side to the west side.

⁷“Judah will have one portion; it will border the territory of Reuben from east to west.

⁸“Bordering the territory of Judah from east to west will be the portion you are to present as a special gift. It will be 25,000 cubits^b wide, and its length from east to west will equal one of the tribal portions; the sanctuary will be in the centre of it.

⁹“The special portion you are to offer to the LORD will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits^c wide. ¹⁰This will be the sacred portion for the priests. It will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. In the centre of it will be the sanctuary of the LORD.

¹¹This will be for the consecrated priests, the Zadokites, who were faithful in serving me and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray. ¹²It will be a special gift to them from the sacred portion of the land, a most holy portion, bordering the territory of the Levites.

¹³“Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites will have an allotment 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. Its total length will be 25,000 cubits and its width 10,000 cubits. ¹⁴They must not sell or exchange any of it. This is the best of the land, and must not pass into other hands, because it is holy to the LORD.

¹⁵“The remaining area, 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, will be for the common use of the city, for houses and for pasture-land. The city will be in the centre of it ¹⁶and will have these measurements: the north side 4,500 cubits, the south side 4,500 cubits, the east side 4,500 cubits, and the west side 4,500 cubits. ¹⁷The pasture-land for the city will be 250 cubits on the north, 250 cubits on the south, 250 cubits on the east, and 250 cubits on the west. ¹⁸What remains of the area, bordering on the sacred portion and running the length of it, will be 10,000 cubits on the east side and 10,000 cubits on the west side. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city. ¹⁹The workers from the city who farm it will come from all the tribes of Israel. ²⁰The entire portion will be a square, 25,000 cubits on each side. As a special gift you will set aside the sacred portion, along with the property of the city.

²¹“What remains on both sides of the area formed by the sacred portion and the city property will belong to the prince. It will extend eastward from the 25,000 cubits of the sacred portion to the eastern border, and westward from the 25,000 cubits to the western border. Both these areas running the length of the tribal portions will belong to the prince, and the sacred portion with the temple sanctuary will be in the centre of them. ²²So the property of the Levites and the property of the city will lie in the centre of the area that belongs to the prince. The area belonging to the prince will lie between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin.

²³“As for the rest of the tribes: Benjamin will have one portion; it will extend from the east side to the west side.

²⁴“Simeon will have one portion; it will border the territory of Benjamin from east to west.

²⁵“Issachar will have one portion; it will border the territory of Simeon from east to west.

²⁶“Zebulun will have one portion; it will border the territory of Issachar from east to west.

²⁷“Gad will have one portion; it will border the territory of Zebulun from east to west.

^{b8} That is, about 7 miles (about 11 kilometres) ^{c9} That is, about 3 miles (about 5 kilometres)

²⁸“The southern boundary of Gad will run south from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh, then along the Wadi of Egypt, to the Great Sea.^d

²⁹“This is the land you are to allot as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel, and these will be their portions,” declares the Sovereign LORD.

The Gates of the City

³⁰“These will be the exits of the city: Beginning on the north side, which is 4,500 cubits long, ³¹the gates of the city will be named after the tribes of Israel. The three gates on the north side will be the gate of Reuben, the gate of Judah and the gate of Levi.

³²“On the east side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Joseph, the gate of Benjamin and the gate of Dan.

³³“On the south side, which measures 4,500 cubits, will be three gates: the gate of Simeon, the gate of Issachar and the gate of Zebulun.

³⁴“On the west side, which is 4,500 cubits long, will be three gates: the gate of Gad, the gate of Asher and the gate of Naphtali.

³⁵“The distance all around will be 18,000 cubits.

“And the name of the city from that time on will be:

THE LORD IS THERE.”

Daniel

Daniel's Training in Babylon

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ²And the Lord delivered Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles from the temple of God. These he carried off to the temple of his god in Babylonia^a and put in the treasure-house of his god.

³Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, chief of his court officials, to bring in some of the Israelites from the royal family and the nobility—⁴young men without any physical defect, handsome, showing aptitude for every kind of learning, well informed, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the language and literature of the Babylonians.^b ⁵The king assigned them a daily amount of food and wine from the king's table. They were to be trained for three years, and after that they were to enter the king's service.

⁶Among these were some from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël and Azariah. ⁷The chief official gave them new names: to Daniel, the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishaël, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

⁸But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself in this way. ⁹Now God had caused the official to show favour and sympathy to Daniel, ¹⁰but the official told

Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your^c food and drink. Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men of your age? The king would then have my head because of you."

¹¹Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël and Azariah, ¹²"Please test your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see." ¹⁴So he agreed to this and tested them for ten days.

¹⁵At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food. ¹⁶So the guard took away their choice food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables instead.

¹⁷To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding of all kinds of literature and learning. And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of all kinds.

¹⁸At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹The king talked with them, and he found none equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël and Azariah; so they entered the king's service. ²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his whole kingdom.

²¹And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; his mind was troubled and he could not sleep. ²So the king summoned the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers and astrologers^a to tell him what he had dreamed. When they came in and stood before the king, ³he said to them, "I have had a dream that troubles me and I want to know what it means."^b

⁴Then the astrologers answered the king in Aramaic, ^c "O king, live for ever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will interpret it."

⁵The king replied to the astrologers, "This is what I have firmly decided: If you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut into pieces and your houses turned into piles of rubble. ⁶But if you tell me the dream and explain it, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honour. So tell me the dream and interpret it for me."

⁷Once more they replied, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it."

⁸Then the king answered, "I am certain that you are trying to gain time, because you realise that this is what I have firmly decided: ⁹If you do not tell me the dream, there is just one penalty for you. You have conspired to tell me misleading and wicked things, hoping the situation will change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can interpret it for me."

¹⁰The astrologers answered the king, "There is not a person on earth who can do what the king asks! No king, however great and mighty, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or astrologer. ¹¹What the king asks is too difficult. No-one can reveal it to the king except the gods, and they do not live on earth."

¹²This made the king so angry and furious that he ordered the execution of all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death.

¹⁴When Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, had gone out to put to death the wise men of Babylon, Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and tact. ¹⁵He asked the king's officer, "Why did the king issue such a harsh decree?" Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel. ¹⁶At this, Daniel went in to the king and asked for time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.

¹⁷Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. ¹⁸He urged them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven ²⁰and said:

"Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever;
wisdom and power are his.

²¹He changes times and seasons;
he sets up kings and deposes them.

He gives wisdom to the wise
and knowledge to the discerning.

²²He reveals deep and hidden things;
he knows what lies in darkness,
and light dwells with him.

²³I thank and praise you, O God of my ancestors:

You have given me wisdom and power,

you have made known to me what we asked of you,
you have made known to us the dream of the king."

Daniel Interprets the Dream

²⁴Then Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise

^{a2} Or Chaldeans; also in verses 4, 5 and 10 ^{b3} Or was

men of Babylon, and said to him, "Do not execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will interpret his dream for him."

²⁵ Arioch took Daniel to the king at once and said, "I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who can tell the king what his dream means."

²⁶ The king asked Daniel (also called Belteshazzar), "Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream and interpret it?"

²⁷ Daniel replied, "No wise man, enchanter, magician or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about, ²⁸ but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in days to come. Your dream and the visions that passed through your mind as you lay on your bed are these:

²⁹ "As you were lying there, O king, your mind turned to things to come, and the revealer of mysteries showed you what is going to happen. ³⁰ As for me, this mystery has been revealed to me, not because I have greater wisdom than anyone else alive, but so that you, O king, may know the interpretation and that you may understand what went through your mind.

³¹ "You looked, O king, and there before you stood a large statue—an enormous, dazzling statue, awesome in appearance. ³² The head of the statue was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, ³³ its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay. ³⁴ While you were watching, a rock was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. ³⁵ Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were broken to pieces at the same time and became like chaff on a threshing-floor in the summer. The wind swept them away without leaving a trace. But the rock that struck the statue became a huge mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶ "This was the dream, and now we will interpret it to the king. ³⁷ You, O king, are the king of kings. The God of heaven has given you dominion and power and might and glory; ³⁸ in your hands he has placed all people and the beasts of the field and the birds of the air. Wherever they live, he has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.

³⁹ "After you, another kingdom will rise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth. ⁴⁰ Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron breaks and smashes everything—and as iron breaks things to pieces, so it will crush and break all the others. ⁴¹ Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of baked clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay. ⁴² As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. ⁴³ And just as you saw the iron mixed with baked clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay.

⁴⁴ "In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush all those kingdoms and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure for ever. ⁴⁵ This is the meaning of the vision of the rock cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands—a rock that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold to pieces.

"The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future. The dream is true and the interpretation is trustworthy."

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate before Daniel and paid him honour and ordered that an offering and incense be presented to him. ⁴⁷ The king said to Daniel, "Surely your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings and a revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this mystery."

⁴⁸ Then the king placed Daniel in a high position and lavished many gifts on him. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and placed him in charge of all its wise men. ⁴⁹ Moreover, at Daniel's request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego administrators over the province of Babylon.

while Daniel himself remained at the royal court.

The Image of Gold and the Fiery Furnace

3 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, ninety feet high and nine feet^a wide, and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ²He then summoned the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials to come to the dedication of the image he had set up. ³So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.

⁴Then the herald loudly proclaimed, "This is what you are commanded to do, O nations and peoples of every language: ⁵As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶Whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."

⁷Therefore, as soon as they heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and all kinds of music, all the nations and peoples of every language fell down and worshipped the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁸At this time some astrologers^b came forward and denounced the Jews. ⁹They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live for ever! ¹⁰You have issued a decree, O king, that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the image of gold, ¹¹and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into a blazing furnace. ¹²But there are some Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego—who pay no attention to you, O king. They neither serve your gods nor worship the image of gold you have set up."

¹³Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king, ¹⁴and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the image of gold I have set up? ¹⁵Now when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, if you are ready to fall down and worship the image I made, very good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god will be able to rescue you from my hand?"

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter. ¹⁷If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to save us from it, and he will rescue us from your hand, O king. ¹⁸But even if he does not, we want you to know, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."

¹⁹Then Nebuchadnezzar was furious with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and his attitude towards them changed. He ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than usual ²⁰and commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace. ²¹So these men, wearing their robes, trousers, turbans and other clothes, were bound and thrown into the blazing furnace. ²²The king's command was so urgent and the furnace so hot that the flames of the fire killed the soldiers who took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, ²³and these three men, firmly tied, fell into the blazing furnace.

²⁴Then King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisers, "Weren't there three men that we tied up and threw into the fire?"

They replied, "Certainly, O king."

²⁵He said, "Look! I see four men

^a1 Aramaic sixty cubits high and six cubits wide (about 27 metres high and 2.7 metres wide) ^b8 O: Chaldeans walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the fourth looks like a son of the gods.”

²⁶Nebuchadnezzar then approached the opening of the blazing furnace and shouted, “Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!”

So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire, ²⁷and the satraps, prefects, governors and royal advisers crowded around them. They saw that the fire had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them.

²⁸Then Nebuchadnezzar said, “Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who has sent his angel and rescued his servants! They trusted in him and defied the king’s command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I decree that the people of any nation or language who say anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be cut into pieces and their houses be turned into piles of rubble, for no other god can save in this way.”

³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream of a Tree

4 King Nebuchadnezzar,

To the nations and peoples of every language, who live in all the world:

May you prosper greatly!

²It is my pleasure to tell you about the miraculous signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed for me.

³ How great are his signs,
how mighty his wonders!

His kingdom is an eternal kingdom;
his dominion endures from
generation to generation.

⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace, contented and prosperous. ⁵I had a dream that made me afraid. As I was lying in my bed, the images and visions that passed through my mind terrified me. ⁶So I commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret the dream for me. ⁷When the magicians, enchanters, astrologers^a and diviners came, I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me. ⁸Finally, Daniel came into my presence and I told him the dream. (He is called Belteshazzar, after the name of my god, and the spirit of the holy gods is in him.)

⁹I said, “Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no mystery is too difficult for you. Here is my dream; interpret it for me. ¹⁰These are the visions I saw while lying in my bed: I looked, and there before me stood a tree in the middle of the land. Its height was enormous. ¹¹The tree grew large and strong and its top touched the sky; it was visible to the ends of the earth. ¹²Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Under it the beasts of the field found shelter, and the birds of the air lived in its branches; from it every creature was fed.

¹³“In the visions I saw while lying in my bed, I looked, and there before me was a messenger,^b a holy one, coming down from heaven. ¹⁴He called in a loud voice: ‘Cut down the tree and trim off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches. ¹⁵But let the stump and its roots, bound with iron and bronze, remain in the ground, in the grass of the field.

“Let him be drenched with the

^a Or Chaldeans ^b 13 Or watchman; also in verses 17 and 23

dew of heaven, and let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth. ¹⁶Let his mind be changed from that of a human being and let him be given the mind of an animal, till seven times^c pass by for him.

¹⁷“The decision is announced by messengers, the holy ones declare the verdict, so that the living may know that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes and sets over them the lowliest of people.”

¹⁸“This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me what it means, for none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you can, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Daniel Interprets the Dream

¹⁹Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) was greatly perplexed for a time, and his thoughts terrified him. So the king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its meaning alarm you.”

Belteshazzar answered, “My lord, if only the dream applied to your enemies and its meaning to your adversaries! ²⁰The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth, ²¹with beautiful leaves and abundant fruit, providing food for all, giving shelter to the beasts of the field, and having nesting places in its branches for the birds of the air—²²you, O king, are that tree! You have become great and strong; your greatness has grown until it reaches the sky, and your dominion extends to distant parts of the earth.

remain in the ground. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven; let him live like the wild animals, until seven times pass by for him.’

²⁴“This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree the Most High has issued against my lord the king: ²⁵You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like cattle and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes. ²⁶The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots means that your kingdom will be restored to you when you acknowledge that Heaven rules. ²⁷Therefore, O king, be pleased to accept my advice: Renounce your sins by doing what is right, and your wickedness by being kind to the oppressed. It may be that then your prosperity will continue.”

The Dream Is Fulfilled

²⁸All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹Twelve months later, as the king was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, ³⁰he said, “Is not this the great Babylon I have built as the royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?”

³¹The words were still on his lips when a voice came from heaven, “This is what is decreed for you, King Nebuchadnezzar: Your royal authority has been taken from you. ³²You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like cattle. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes.”

³³Immediately what had been said about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled.

^c16 Or years; also in verses 23, 25 and 32

He was driven away from people and ate grass like cattle. His body was drenched with the dew of heaven until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.

³⁴ At the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes towards heaven, and my sanity was restored. Then I praised the Most High; I honoured and glorified him who lives for ever.

His dominion is an eternal dominion;
his kingdom endures from
generation to generation.

³⁵ All the peoples of the earth
are regarded as nothing.
He does as he pleases with the powers of heaven
and the peoples of the earth.
No-one can hold back his hand or say to him: "What have you
done?"

³⁶ At the same time that my sanity was restored, my honour and splendour were returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne and became even greater than before. ³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, because everything he does is right and all his ways are just. And those who walk in pride he is able to humble.

The Writing on the Wall

S King Belshazzar gave a great banquet for a thousand of his nobles and drank wine with them. ² While Belshazzar was drinking his wine, he gave orders to bring in the gold and silver goblets that Nebuchadnezzar his father^a had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines might drink from them. ³ So they brought in the gold goblets that had been taken from the temple of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines drank from them. ⁴ As they drank the wine, they praised the gods of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood and stone.

⁷ The king called out for the enchanters, astrologers^b and diviners to be brought and said to these wise men of Babylon: "Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around his neck, and he will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

¹¹ There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the time of your father he was found to have insight and intelligence and wisdom like that of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar your father—your father the king, I say—appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, astrologers and diviners. ¹² This man Daniel, whom the king called Belshazzar, was found to have a keen mind and knowledge and understanding, and also the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means."

¹³ So Daniel was brought before the king, and the king said to him, "Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah?" ¹⁴ I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you have insight, intelligence and outstanding wisdom. ¹⁵The wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this writing and tell me what it means, but they could not explain it. ¹⁶Now I have heard that you are able to give interpretations and to solve difficult problems. If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."

^{a2} Or ancestor; or predecessor; also in verses 11, 13 and 18

^{b10} Or queen mother

^{b7} Or Chaldeans; also in verse 11

¹⁷Then Daniel answered the king, "You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means."

¹⁸"O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendour. ¹⁹Because of the high position he gave him, all the nations and peoples of every language dreaded and feared him. Those the king wanted to put to death, he put to death; those he wanted to spare, he spared; those he wanted to promote, he promoted; and those he wanted to humble, he humbled. ²⁰But when his heart became arrogant and hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. ²¹He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal; he lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like cattle; and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he acknowledged that the Most High God is sovereign over the kingdoms on earth and sets over them anyone he wishes.

²²"But you his son,^d O Belshazzar, have not humbled yourself, though you knew all this. ²³Instead, you have set yourself up against the Lord of heaven. You had the goblets from his temple brought to you, and you and your nobles, your wives and your concubines drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. But you did not honour the God who holds in his hand your life and all your ways. ²⁴Therefore he sent the hand that wrote the inscription.

²⁵"This is the inscription that was written:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN^e

²⁶"This is what these words mean:

Mene^f: God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

²⁷*Tekel^g:* You have been weighed on the scales and found wanting.

²⁸*Peresh^h:* Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

²⁹Then at Belshazzar's command, Daniel was clothed in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰That very night Belshazzar, king of the Babylonians,ⁱ was slain, ³¹and Darius the Mede took over the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two.

Daniel in the Den of Lions

6 It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom, ²with three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel. The satraps were made accountable to them so that the king might not suffer loss. ³Now Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom. ⁴At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, but they were unable to do so. They could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent. ⁵Finally these men said, "We will never find any basis for charges against this man Daniel unless it has something to do with the law of his God."

⁶So the administrators and the satraps

went as a group to the king and said: "O King Darius, live for ever! ⁷The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers and governors have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or human being during the next thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the lions' den. ⁸Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered—in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed." ⁹So King Darius put the decree in writing.

¹⁰Now when Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened towards Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as he had done before. ¹¹Then these men went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help. ¹²So they went to the king and spoke to him about his royal decree: "Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or human being except to you, O king, would be thrown into the lions' den?"

The king answered, "The decree stands—in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."

¹³Then they said to the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day." ¹⁴When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed; he was determined to rescue Daniel and made every effort until sundown to save him.

¹⁵Then the men went as a group to the king and said to him, "Remember, O king, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed."

¹⁶So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!"

¹⁷A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed

it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel's situation might not be changed. ¹⁸Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night without eating and without any entertainment being brought to him. And he could not sleep.

¹⁹At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' den. ²⁰When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?"

²¹Daniel answered, "O king, live for ever! ²²My God sent his angel, and he shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight. Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, O king."

²³The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. And when Daniel was lifted from the den, no wound was found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

²⁴At the king's command, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought in and thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. And before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

²⁵Then King Darius wrote to all the nations and peoples of every language throughout the land:

"May you prosper greatly!

²⁶"I issue a decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Daniel.

"For he is the living God
and he endures for ever;
his kingdom will not be destroyed,
his dominion will never end.

²⁷He rescues and he saves;
he performs signs and wonders
in the heavens and on the earth.
He has rescued Daniel
from the power of the lions."

²⁸So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus^a the Persian.

Daniel's Dream of Four Beasts

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he was lying on his bed. He wrote down the substance of his dream.

²Daniel said: "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven churning up the great sea.

³Four great beasts, each different from the others, came up out of the sea.

⁴"The first was like a lion, and it had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground so that it stood on two feet like a human being, and a human heart was given to it.

⁶"After that, I looked, and there before me was another beast, one that looked like a leopard. And on its back it had four wings like those of a bird. This beast had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.

⁷"After that, in my vision at night I looked, and there before me was a fourth beast—terrifying and frightening and very powerful. It had large iron teeth; it crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the former beasts, and it had ten horns.

⁸"While I was thinking about the horns, there before me was another horn, a little one, which came up among them; and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like the eyes of a human being and a mouth that spoke boastfully.

⁹"As I looked,

"thrones were set in place,

and the Ancient of Days took his seat.

His clothing was as white as snow; the hair of his head was white like wool.

His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were all ablaze.

¹⁰A river of fire was flowing, coming out from before him.

Thousands upon thousands attended him;

ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him.

The court was seated, and the books were opened.

¹¹"Then I continued to watch because of the boastful words the horn was speaking. I kept looking until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire. ¹²(The other beasts had been stripped of their authority, but were allowed to live for a period of time.)

¹³"In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man^a, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. ¹⁴He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshipped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

The Interpretation of the Dream

¹⁵"I, Daniel, was troubled in spirit, and the visions that passed through my mind disturbed me. ¹⁶I approached one of those standing there and asked him the true meaning of all this.

"So he told me and gave me the interpretation of these things: ¹⁷'The four great beasts are four kingdoms that will rise from the earth. ¹⁸But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will possess it for ever—yes, for ever and ever.'

¹⁹"Then I wanted to know the true

^a28 Or Darius, that is, the reign of Cyrus ^a13 Or a human being meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others and most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws—the beast that crushed and devoured its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left.²⁰ I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and about the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell—the horn that looked more imposing than the others and that had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastfully.²¹ As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and defeating them,²² until the Ancient of Days came and pronounced judgment in favour of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when they possessed the kingdom.

²³“He gave me this explanation: ‘The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms and will devour the whole earth, trampling it down and crushing it.’²⁴ The ten horns are ten kings who will come from this kingdom. After them another king will arise, different from the earlier ones; he will subdue three kings.²⁵ He will speak against the Most High and oppress his saints and try to change the set times and the laws. The saints will be handed over to him for a time, times and half a time.^b

²⁶“‘But the court will sit, and his power will be taken away and completely destroyed for ever.’²⁷ Then the sovereignty, power and greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be handed over to the saints, the people of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will worship and obey him.’

²⁸“This is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was deeply troubled by my thoughts, and my face turned pale, but I kept the matter to myself.”

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, had a vision, after the one that had already appeared to me.² In my vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa in the province of Elam; in the vision I was beside the Ulai Canal.³ I looked up, and there before me was a ram with two horns, standing beside the canal, and the horns were long. One of the horns was longer than the other but grew up later.⁴ I watched the ram as it charged towards the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against it, and none could rescue from its power. It did as it pleased and became great.

⁹ Out of one of them came another horn, which started small but grew in power to the south and to the east and towards the Beautiful Land.¹⁰ It grew until it reached the host of the heavens, and it threw some of the starry host down to the earth and trampled on them.¹¹ It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host; it took away the daily sacrifice from him, and the place of his sanctuary was brought low.¹² Because of rebellion, the host of the saints,^a and the daily sacrifice were given over to it. It prospered in everything it did, and truth was thrown to the ground.

¹³ Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to him, “How long will it take for the vision to be fulfilled—the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the surrender of the sanctuary and of the host that will be trampled underfoot?”

^b25 Or for a year, two years and half a year ^a12 Or rebellion, the armies

¹⁴He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be reconsecrated."

The Interpretation of the Vision

¹⁵While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there before me stood one who looked like a man. ¹⁶And I heard a man's voice from the Ulai calling, "Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of the vision."

¹⁷As he came near the place where I was standing, I was terrified and fell prostrate. "Son of man,"^b he said to me, "understand that the vision concerns the time of the end."

¹⁸While he was speaking to me, I was in a deep sleep, with my face to the ground. Then he touched me and raised me to my feet.

¹⁹He said: "I am going to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath, because the vision concerns the appointed time of the end."^c ²⁰The two-horned ram that you saw represents the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹The shaggy goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first king. ²²The four horns that replaced the one that was broken off represent four kingdoms that will emerge from his nation but will not have the same power.

²³"In the latter part of their reign, when rebels have become completely wicked, a stern-faced king, a master of intrigue, will arise. ²⁴He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause astounding devastation and will succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty warriors and the holy people. ²⁵He will cause deceit to prosper, and he will consider himself superior. When they feel secure, he will destroy many and take his stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be destroyed, but not by human power.

²⁶"The vision of the evenings and mornings that has been given you is true, but seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future."

²⁷I, Daniel, was exhausted and lay ill for several days. Then I got up and went about the king's business. I was appalled by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

Daniel's Prayer

9 In the first year of Darius son of Xerxes^a (a Mede by descent), who was made ruler over the Babylonian^b kingdom—²in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, understood from the Scriptures, according to the word of the LORD given to Jeremiah the prophet, that the desolation of Jerusalem would last seventy years. ³So I turned to the LORD God and pleaded with him in prayer and petition, in fasting, and in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed:

"O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with all who love him and obey his commands, ⁵we have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and have rebelled; we have turned away from your commands and laws. ⁶We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes and our ancestors, and to all the people of the land.

⁷"Lord, you are righteous, but this day we are covered with shame—the people of Judah and Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far, in all the countries where you have scattered us because of our unfaithfulness to you. ⁸O LORD, we and our kings, our princes and our ancestors are covered with shame because we have sinned against you. ⁹The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him; ¹⁰we have not obeyed the LORD our God or kept the laws he gave us through his servants the prophets.

"Therefore the curses and sworn judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out on us, because we have sinned against you. ¹²You have fulfilled the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing upon us great disaster. Under the whole heaven nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem. ¹³Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us, yet we have not sought the favour of the LORD our God by turning from our sins and giving attention to your truth. ¹⁴The LORD did not hesitate to bring the disaster upon us, for the LORD our God is righteous in everything he does; yet we have not obeyed him.

¹⁵"Now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and who made for yourself a name that endures to this day, we have sinned, we have done wrong. ¹⁶O Lord, in keeping with all your righteous acts, turn away your anger and your wrath from Jerusalem, your city, your holy hill. Our sins and the iniquities of our ancestors have made Jerusalem and your people an object of scorn to all those around us.

¹⁷"Now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of your servant. For your sake, O Lord, look with favour on your desolate sanctuary. ¹⁸Give ear, O God, and hear; open your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears your Name. We do not make requests of you because we are righteous, but because of your great mercy. ¹⁹O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For your sake, O my God, do not delay, because your city and your people bear your Name."

The Seventy "Sevens"

²⁰While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and making my request to the LORD, my God for his holy hill—²¹while I was still in prayer, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice. ²²He instructed me and said to me "Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding. ²³As soon as you began to pray, an answer was given, which I have come to tell you, for you are highly esteemed. Therefore, consider the message and understand the vision:

²⁵"Know and understand this: From the issuing of the decree^f to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One,^g the ruler, comes, there will be seven 'sevens', and sixty-two 'sevens'. It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of trouble. ²⁶After the sixty-two 'sevens', the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing.^h The people of the ruler who will come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood: War will continue until the end, and desolations have been decreed. ²⁷He will confirm a covenant with many for one 'seven'.ⁱ In the middle of the 'seven'ⁱ he will put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on a wing^j of the temple, he will set up an abomination that causes desolation, until the end that is decreed is poured out on him.^j ^k message was true and it concerned a great war.^a The understanding of the message came to him in a vision.

²At that time I, Daniel, mourned for three weeks. ³I ate no choice food; no meat or wine touched my lips; and I used no lotions at all until the three weeks were over.

⁷I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision; those who were with me did not see it, but such terror overwhelmed them that they fled and hid themselves. ⁸So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision; I had no strength left, my face turned deathly pale and I was helpless. ⁹Then I heard him speaking, and as I listened to him, I fell into a deep sleep, my face to the ground.

¹⁰A hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. ¹¹He said, "Daniel, you who are highly esteemed, consider carefully the words I am about to speak to you, and stand up, for I have now been sent to you." And when he said this to me, I stood up trembling.

¹²Then he continued, "Do not be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day that you set your mind to gain understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. ¹³But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia. ¹⁴Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, for the vision concerns a time yet to come."

¹⁵While he was saying this to me, I bowed with my face towards the ground and was speechless. ¹⁶Then one who looked like a man^b touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak. I said to the one standing before me, "I am overcome with anguish because of the vision, my lord, and I am helpless. ¹⁷How can I, your servant, talk with you, my lord? My strength is gone and I can hardly breathe."

¹⁸Again the one who looked like a man touched me and gave me strength. ¹⁹"Do not be afraid, O man highly esteemed," he said. "Peace! Be strong now; be strong."

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Speak, my lord, since you have given me strength."

²⁰So he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Soon I will return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I go, the prince of Greece will come; ²¹but first I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. (No-one supports me against them except Michael, your prince.

11 ¹And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I took my stand to support and protect him.)

The Kings of the South and the North

²"Now then, I tell you the truth: Three more kings will appear in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. When he has gained power by his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. ³Then a mighty king will appear, who will rule with great power and do as he pleases. ⁴After he has appeared, his empire will be broken up and parcelled out towards the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the power he exercised, because his empire will be uprooted and given to others.

⁵"The king of the South will become strong, but one of his commanders will become even stronger than he and will rule his own kingdom with great power. ⁶After some years, they will become allies. The daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to make an alliance, but she will not retain her power, and he and his power^a will not last. In those days she will be handed over, together with her royal escort and her father^b and the one who supported her.

⁷“One from her family line will arise to take her place. He will attack the forces of the king of the North and enter his fortress; he will fight against them and be victorious. ⁸He will also seize their gods, their metal images and their valuable articles of silver and gold and carry them off to Egypt. For some years he will leave the king of the North alone. ⁹Then the king of the North will invade the realm of the king of the South but will retreat to his own country. ¹⁰His sons will prepare for war and assemble a great army, which will sweep on like an irresistible flood and carry the battle as far as his fortress.

¹¹“Then the king of the South will march out in a rage and fight against the king of the North, who will raise a large army, but it will be defeated. ¹²When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be filled with pride and will slaughter many thousands, yet he will not remain triumphant. ¹³For the king of the North will muster another army, larger than the first; and after several years, he will advance with a huge army fully equipped.

¹⁴“In those times many will rise against the king of the South. The violent ones among your own people will rebel in fulfilment of the vision, but without success. ¹⁵Then the king of the North will come and build up siege ramps and will capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will be powerless to resist; even their best troops will not have the strength to stand. ¹⁶The invader will do as he pleases; no-one will be able to stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it. ¹⁷He will determine to come with the might of his entire kingdom and will make an alliance with the king of the South. And he will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plans^c will not succeed or help him. ¹⁸Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and will take many of them, but a commander will put an end to his insolence and will turn his insolence back upon him. ¹⁹After this, he will turn back towards the fortresses of his own country but will stumble and fall, to be seen no more.

²⁰“His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendour. In a few years, however, he will be destroyed, yet not in anger or in battle.

²¹“He will be succeeded by a contemptible person who has not been given the honour of royalty. He will invade the kingdom when its people feel secure, and he will seize it through intrigue. ²²Then an overwhelming army will be swept away before him; both it and a prince of the covenant will be destroyed. ²³After coming to an agreement with him, he will act deceitfully, and with only a few people he will rise to power. ²⁴When the richest provinces feel secure, he will invade them, and will achieve what neither his fathers nor his forefathers did. He will distribute plunder, loot and wealth among his followers. He will plot the overthrow of fortresses—but only for a time.

²⁹“At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time the outcome will be different from what it was before.

^a6 Or offspring ^b6 Or child (see Vulgate and Syriac)

³⁰Ships of the western coastlands^d will oppose him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his fury against the holy covenant. He will return and show favour to those who forsake the holy covenant.

³¹“His armed forces will rise up to desecrate the temple fortress and will abolish the daily sacrifice. Then they will set up the abomination that causes desolation. ³²With flattery he will corrupt those who have violated the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist him.

³³“Those who are wise will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by the sword or be burned or captured or plundered. ³⁴When they fall, they will receive a little help, and many who are not sincere will join them. ³⁵Some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

The King Who Exalts Himself

³⁶“The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place. ³⁷He will show no regard for the gods of his ancestors or for the one desired by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all. ³⁸Instead of them, he will honour a god of fortresses; a god unknown to his ancestors he will honour with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. ³⁹He will attack the mightiest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honour those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and will distribute the land at a price.^e

countries and sweep through them like a flood. ⁴¹He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many countries will fall, but Edom, Moab and the leaders of Ammon will be delivered from his hand. ⁴²He will extend his power over many countries; Egypt will not escape. ⁴³He will gain control of the treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt, with the Libyans and Nubians in submission. ⁴⁴But reports from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will set out in a great rage to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵He will pitch his royal tents between the seas at the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will come to his end, and no-one will help him.

The End Times

12 “At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered. ²Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake: some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt. ³Those who are wise^a will shine like the brightness of the heavens, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever. ⁴But you, Daniel, close up and seal the words of the scroll until the time of the end. Many will go here and there to increase knowledge.”

⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and there before me stood two others, one on this bank of the river and one on the opposite bank.

⁶One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long will it be before these astonishing things are fulfilled?”

⁷The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, lifted his right hand and his left hand towards heaven, and I heard him swear by him who lives for ever, saying, “It will be for a time, times and half a time.^b When the power of the holy people has been finally broken, all these things will be completed."

⁸I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, "My lord, what will the outcome of all this be?"

⁹He replied, "Go your way, Daniel, because the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. None of the wicked will understand, but those who are wise will understand.

¹¹"From the time that the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination that causes desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. ¹²Blessed is the one who waits for and reaches the end of the 1,335 days.

¹³"As for you, go your way till the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days you will rise to receive your allotted inheritance."

Hosea

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the reign of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel:

Hosea's Wife and Children

²When the LORD began to speak through Hosea, the LORD said to him, "Go, take to yourself an adulterous wife and children of unfaithfulness, because the land is guilty of the vilest adultery in departing from the LORD."³ So he married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

⁴Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Call him Jezreel, because I will soon punish the house of Jehu for the massacre at Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel. ⁵In that day I will break Israel's bow in the Valley of Jezreel."

⁶Gomer conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Call her Lo-Ruhamah,^a for I will no longer show love to the house of Israel, that I should at all forgive them. ⁷Yet I will show love to the house of Judah; and I will save them—not by bow, sword or battle, or by horses and horsemen, but by the LORD their God."

⁸After she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, Gomer had another son. ⁹Then the LORD said, "Call him Lo-Ammi,^b for you are not my people, and I am not your God.

¹⁰"Yet the Israelites will be like the sand on the seashore, which cannot be measured or counted. In the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people', they will be called 'children of the living God'. ¹¹The people of Judah and the people of Israel will be reunited, and they will appoint one leader and will come up out of the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel.

2 "Say of your brothers, 'My people', and of your sisters, 'My loved one'.

Israel Punished and Restored

^{2a}"Rebuke your mother, rebuke her, for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband.

Let her remove the adulterous look from her face and the unfaithfulness from between her breasts.

³Otherwise I will strip her naked and make her as bare as on the day she was born;

I will make her like a desert, turn her into a parched land, and slay her with thirst.

⁴I will not show my love to her children, because they are the children of adultery.

⁵Their mother has been unfaithful and has conceived them in disgrace.

She said, 'I will go after my lovers, who give me my food and my water, my wool and my linen, my oil and my drink.'

^a6 Lo-Ruhamah means not loved. ^b9 Lo-Ammi means not my people.

⁶Therefore I will block her path with thornbushes;
I will wall her in so that she cannot find her way.
⁷She will chase after her lovers but not catch them;
she will look for them but not find
them.
Then she will say,
'I will go back to my husband as at first,
for then I was better off than now.'
⁸She has not acknowledged that I was the one who gave her the grain, the new
wine and oil,
who lavished on her the silver and
gold—
which they used for Baal.

⁹"Therefore I will take away my grain
when it ripens,
and my new wine when it is ready.
I will take back my wool and my linen,
intended to cover her nakedness.
¹⁰So now I will expose her lewdness
before the eyes of her lovers;
no-one will take her out of my hands.
¹¹I will stop all her celebrations:
her yearly festivals, her New Moons,
her Sabbath days—all her
appointed feasts.
¹²I will ruin her vines and her fig-trees, which she said were her pay from her lovers;
I will make them a thicket,
and wild animals will devour them.
¹³I will punish her for the days
she burned incense to the Baals;
she decked herself with rings and
jewellery,
and went after her lovers,
but me she forgot,"
declares the LORD.

¹⁴"Therefore I am now going to allure
her;
I will lead her into the desert
and speak tenderly to her.

¹⁵There I will give her back her
vineyards,
and will make the Valley of Achor^a
a door of hope.
There she will sing^b as in the days of her youth,
as in the day she came up out of Egypt.

¹⁶"In that day," declares the LORD,
"you will call me 'my husband';
you will no longer call me 'my master'.^c ¹⁷I will remove the names of the Baals
from her lips;
no longer will their names be invoked.
¹⁸In that day I will make a covenant for
them
with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air
and the creatures that move along
the ground.
Bow and sword and battle
I will abolish from the land,
so that all may lie down in safety.
¹⁹I will betroth you to me for ever;
I will betroth you in^d righteousness
and justice,
in^e love and compassion.
²⁰I will betroth you in faithfulness,
and you will acknowledge the
LORD.

²¹"In that day I will respond,"
declares the LORD —
"I will respond to the skies,
and they will respond to the earth;
²²and the earth will respond to the
grain,
the new wine and oil,
and they will respond to Jezreel.^f ²³I will plant her for myself in the
land;
I will show my love to the one I called 'Not my loved one'.^g I will say to those called 'Not my people',^h 'You are my people';
and they will say, 'You are my
God.'"

Hosea's Reconciliation With His Wife

3 The LORD said to me, "Go, show your love to your wife again, though she is loved by another and is an adulteress. Love her as the LORD loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods and love the sacred raisin cakes."

² So I bought her for fifteen shekels^a of silver and about a homer and a lethek^b of barley. ³ Then I told her, "You are to live with^c me for many days; you must not be a prostitute or be intimate with any man, and I will live with^c you."

⁴ For the Israelites will live for many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred stones, without ephod or idol. ⁵ Afterwards the Israelites will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.

The Charge Against Israel

4 Hear the word of the LORD, you Israelites, because the LORD has a charge to bring against you who live in the land: "There is no faithfulness, no love, no acknowledgment of God in the land.

² There is only cursing,^a lying and murder, stealing and adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

³ Because of this the land mourns,^b and all who live in it waste away; the beasts of the field and the birds of the air and the fish of the sea are dying.

⁴ "But let no-one bring a charge, let no-one accuse another, for your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.

⁵ You stumble day and night, and the prophets stumble with you. So I will destroy your mother — ⁶ my people are destroyed from lack of knowledge.

"Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law of your God, I also will ignore your children.

⁷ The more the priests increased, the more they sinned against me; they exchanged^c their^d Glory for something disgraceful.

⁸ They feed on the sins of my people and relish their wickedness.

⁹ And it will be: Like people, like priests. I will punish both of them for their ways and repay them for their deeds.

¹⁰ "They will eat but not have enough; they will engage in prostitution but not increase, because they have deserted the LORD to give themselves ¹¹ to prostitution, to old wine and new, which take away the understanding ¹² of my people.

They consult a wooden idol and are answered by a stick of wood. A spirit of prostitution leads them astray;

they are unfaithful to their God. ¹³ They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills, under oak, poplar and terebinth, where the shade is pleasant. Therefore your daughters turn to prostitution and your daughters-in-law to adultery.

¹⁴ "I will not punish your daughters when they turn to prostitution, nor your daughters-in-law

when they commit adultery,
because the men themselves consort with harlots
and sacrifice with shrine-prostitutes —
a people without understanding will come to ruin!

15“Though you commit adultery,
O Israel,
let not Judah become guilty.

“Do not go to Gilgal;
do not go up to Beth Aven.^c
And do not swear, ‘As surely as the LORD lives!’

16The Israelites are stubborn,
like a stubborn heifer.
How then can the LORD pasture them
like lambs in a meadow?

17Ephraim is joined to idols;
leave him alone!

18Even when their drinks are gone,
they continue their prostitution;
their rulers dearly love shameful
ways.

19A whirlwind will sweep them away,
and their sacrifices will bring them
shame.

Judgment Against Israel

5 “Hear this, you priests!
Pay attention, you Israelites!
Listen, O royal house!
This judgment is against you:
You have been a snare at Mizpah,
a net spread out on Tabor.
2The rebels are deep in slaughter.
I will discipline all of them.
3I know all about Ephraim;
Israel is not hidden from me.
Ephraim, you have now turned to prostitution;
Israel is corrupt.

4“Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God.

A spirit of prostitution is in their
heart;
they do not acknowledge the LORD.
5Israel’s arrogance testifies against
them;
the Israelites, even Ephraim,
stumble in their sin;
Judah also stumbles with them.

6When they go with their flocks and
herds
to seek the LORD,
they will not find him;
he has withdrawn himself from them.
7They are unfaithful to the LORD;
they give birth to illegitimate
children.
Now their New Moon festivals
will devour them and their fields.

8“Sound the trumpet in Gibeah,
the horn in Ramah.
Raise the battle cry in Beth Aven;^a lead on, O Benjamin.

9Ephraim will be laid waste
on the day of reckoning.
Among the tribes of Israel
I proclaim what is certain.

10Judah’s leaders are like those who move boundary stones.
I will pour out my wrath on them
like a flood of water.

11Ephraim is oppressed,
trampled in judgment,
intent on pursuing idols.^b 12I am like a moth to Ephraim,
like rot to the people of Judah.

13“When Ephraim saw his sickness,
and Judah his sores,
then Ephraim turned to Assyria,
and sent to the great king for help.
But he is not able to cure you,
not able to heal your sores.
14For I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
like a great lion to Judah.
I will tear them to pieces and go
away;
I will carry them off, with no-one to rescue them.

^c15 Beth Aven means house of wickedness (a name for Bethel, which means house of God).

^a8 Beth Aven means house of wickedness (a name for Bethel, which means house of God).

^b11 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

¹⁵Then I will go back to my place until they admit their guilt.
And they will seek my face;
in their misery they will earnestly
seek me."

Israel Unrepentant

6 "Come, let us return to the LORD.
He has torn us to pieces
but he will heal us;
he has injured us
but he will bind up our wounds.
²After two days he will revive us;
on the third day he will restore us,
that we may live in his presence.
³Let us acknowledge the LORD;
let us press on to acknowledge him.
As surely as the sun rises,
he will appear;
he will come to us like the winter
rains, like the spring rains that water the
earth."

⁴"What can I do with you, Ephraim?
What can I do with you, Judah?
Your love is like the morning mist,
like the early dew that disappears.

⁵Therefore I cut you in pieces with my
prophets,
I killed you with the words of my
mouth;
my judgments flashed like lightning
upon you.

⁶For I desire mercy, not sacrifice,
and acknowledgment of God
rather than burnt offerings.

⁷Like Adam,^a they have broken the
covenant —
they were unfaithful to me there.

⁸Gilead is a city of wicked people,
stained with footprints of blood.

⁹As marauders lie in ambush for a victim,
so do bands of priests;
they murder on the road to Shechem,
committing shameful crimes.

¹⁰I have seen a horrible thing
in the house of Israel.

There Ephraim is given to prostitution and Israel is defiled.

¹¹"Also for you, Judah,
a harvest is appointed.

"Whenever I would restore the fortunes of my people,

7 ¹whenver I would heal Israel,
the sins of Ephraim are exposed and the crimes of Samaria revealed.
They practise deceit,
thieves break into houses,
bandits rob in the streets;
²but they do not realise that I remember all their evil deeds.
Their sins engulf them;
they are always before me.

³"They delight the king with their
wickedness,
the princes with their lies.

⁴They are all adulterers,
burning like an oven
whose fire the baker need not stir from the kneading of the dough till it rises.

⁵On the day of the festival of our king
the princes become inflamed with
wine,
and he joins hands with the mockers.

⁶Their hearts are like an oven;
they approach him with intrigue.
Their passion smoulders all night;
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

⁷All of them are hot as an oven;
they devour their rulers.
All their kings fall,
and none of them calls on me.

⁸"Ephraim mixes with the nations; Ephraim is a flat cake not turned over.

⁹Foreigners sap his strength,
but he does not realise it.
His hair is sprinkled with grey,
but he does not notice.

¹⁰Israel's arrogance testifies against him,
but despite all this

^a7 Or As at Adam; or Like human beings

he does not return to the LORD his
God
or search for him.

- ¹¹“Ephraim is like a dove, easily deceived and senseless —
now calling to Egypt,
now turning to Assyria.
¹²When they go, I will throw my net
over them;
I will pull them down like birds of the air.
When I hear them flocking together,
I will catch them.
¹³Woe to them,
because they have strayed from me!
Destruction to them,
because they have rebelled against
me!
I long to redeem them
but they speak lies against me.
¹⁴They do not cry out to me from their hearts
but wail upon their beds.
They gather together^a for grain and new wine
but turn away from me.
¹⁵I trained them and strengthened
them,
but they plot evil against me.
¹⁶They do not turn to the Most High;
they are like a faulty bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword
because of their insolent words.
For this they will be ridiculed
in the land of Egypt.

Israel to Reap the Whirlwind

- 8 “Put the trumpet to your lips!
An eagle is over the house of the
LORD
because the people have broken my
covenant
and rebelled against my law.
²Israel cries out to me,
‘O our God, we acknowledge you!’
³But Israel has rejected what is good;
an enemy will pursue him.
⁴They set up kings without my consent;

- they choose princes without my approval.
With their silver and gold
they make idols for themselves
to their own destruction.
⁵Throw out your calf-idol, O Samaria!
My anger burns against them.
How long will they be incapable of purity?
⁶ They are from Israel!
This calf—a metalworker has
made it;
it is not God.
It will be broken in pieces,
that calf of Samaria.
⁷“They sow the wind
and reap the whirlwind.
The stalk has no head;
it will produce no flour.
Were it to yield grain,
foreigners would swallow it up.
⁸Israel is swallowed up;
now she is among the nations
like a worthless thing.
⁹For they have gone up to Assyria
like a wild donkey wandering alone
Ephraim has sold herself to lovers ¹⁰Although they have sold themselves
among the nations,
I will now gather them together.
They will begin to waste away
under the oppression of the mighty
king.

- ¹¹“Though Ephraim built many altars
for sin offerings,
these have become altars for
sinning.
¹²I wrote for them the many things of my law,
but they regarded them as something alien.
¹³They offer sacrifices given to me
and they eat the meat,
but the LORD is not pleased with
them.
Now he will remember their
wickedness
and punish their sins:
They will return to Egypt.

^a14 Most Hebrew manuscripts; some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint They slash themselves

¹⁴Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;
Judah has fortified many towns.
But I will send fire upon their cities that will consume their fortresses.”

Punishment for Israel

9 Do not rejoice, O Israel;
do not be jubilant like the other
nations.

For you have been unfaithful to your
God;

you love the wages of a prostitute
at every threshing-floor.

²Threshing-floors and winepresses will not feed the people;
the new wine will fail them.

³They will not remain in the LORD's
land;

Ephraim will return to Egypt and eat unclean^a food in Assyria.

⁴They will not pour out wine offerings
to the LORD,

nor will their sacrifices please him.

Such sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;

all who eat them will be unclean.

This food will be for themselves;
it will not come into the temple of
the LORD.

⁵What will you do on the day of your
appointed feasts,
on the festival days of the LORD?

⁶Even if they escape from destruction,
Egypt will gather them,
and Memphis will bury them.

Their treasures of silver will be taken over by briars,
and thorns will overrun their
tents.

⁷The days of punishment are coming,
the days of reckoning are at hand.
Let Israel know this.

Because your sins are so many and your hostility so great,
the prophet is considered a fool,
anyone who is inspired a maniac.

⁸The prophet, along with my God, is the watchman over Ephraim,^b

yet snares await him on all his paths, and hostility in the house of his
God.

⁹They have sunk deep into corruption,
as in the days of Gibeah.
God will remember their wickedness
and punish them for their sins.

¹⁰“When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the
desert;

when I saw your ancestors,
it was like seeing the early fruit on the fig-tree.

But when they came to Baal Peor, they consecrated themselves to that shameful idol
and became as vile as the thing they loved.

¹¹Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird —
no birth, no pregnancy, no conception.

¹²Even if they bring up children,
I will bereave them of every one.
Woe to them

when I turn away from them!

¹³I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place.
But Ephraim will bring out their children to the slayer.”

¹⁴Give them, O LORD —
what will you give them?
Give them wombs that miscarry
and breasts that are dry.

¹⁵“Because of all their wickedness in Gilgal,
I hated them there.
Because of their sinful deeds,
I will drive them out of my house.
I will no longer love them;
all their leaders are rebellious.

¹⁶Ephraim is blighted,
their root is withered,
they yield no fruit.
Even if they bear children,
I will slay their cherished
offspring.”

^a3 That is, ceremonially unclean

^b8 Or The prophet is the watchman over Ephraim, / the people of my God

¹⁷My God will reject them because they have not obeyed him;
they will be wanderers among the
nations.

10 Israel was a spreading vine;
he brought forth fruit for himself.
As his fruit increased,
he built more altars;
as his land prospered,
he adorned his sacred stones.
²Their heart is deceitful,
and now they must bear their guilt.
The LORD will demolish their altars
and destroy their sacred stones.

³Then they will say, "We have no king
because we did not revere the LORD.
But even if we had a king,
what could he do for us?"

⁴They make many promises,
take false oaths
and make agreements;
therefore lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in a ploughed
field.

⁵The people who live in Samaria fear for the calf-idol of Beth Aven.^a Its people will mourn over it,
and so will its idolatrous priests,
those who had rejoiced over its
splendour,
because it is taken from them into exile.

⁶It will be carried to Assyria
as tribute for the great king.
Ephraim will be disgraced;
Israel will be ashamed of its wooden idols.^b

⁷Samaria and its king will float away like a twig on the surface of the waters.

⁸The high places of wickedness^c will be destroyed —
it is the sin of Israel.
Thorns and thistles will grow up and cover their altars.
Then they will say to the mountains,
"Cover us!"
and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

⁹"Since the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel,
and there you have remained.^d
Did not war overtake the evildoers in Gibeah?

¹⁰When I please, I will punish them;
nations will be gathered against them
to put them in bonds for their double sin.

¹¹Ephraim is a trained heifer
that loves to thresh;
so I will put a yoke
on her fair neck.
I will drive Ephraim,
Judah must plough,
and Jacob must break up the
ground.

¹²Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap the fruit of unfailing love,
and break up your unploughed
ground;
for it is time to seek the LORD,
until he comes
and showers righteousness on you.

¹³But you have planted wickedness,
you have reaped evil,
you have eaten the fruit of deception.

Because you have depended on your own strength
and on your many warriors,

¹⁴the roar of battle will rise against you
people,
so that all your fortresses will be
devastated —
as Shalman devastated Beth Arbel on the day of battle,
when mothers were dashed to the ground with their children.

¹⁵Thus will it happen to you, O Bethel, because your wickedness is great.
When that day dawns,
the king of Israel will be completely
destroyed.

God's Love for Israel

11 "When Israel was a child, I loved
him,
and out of Egypt I called my son.

^{a5} Beth Aven means house of wickedness (a name for Bethel, which means house of God). ^{b6} Or its counsel

^{c8} Hebrew aven, a reference to Beth Aven (a derogatory name for Bethel) ^{d9} Or there a stand was taken

²But the more I^a called Israel,
the further they went from me.^b
They sacrificed to the Baals
and they burned incense to images.

³It was I who taught Ephraim to walk,
taking them by the arms;
but they did not realise
it was I who healed them.

⁴I led them with cords of human
kindness,
with ties of love;
I lifted the yoke from their neck
and bent down to feed them.

⁵Will they not return to Egypt and will not Assyria rule over them because they refuse to repent?

⁶Swords will flash in their cities, will destroy the bars of their gates
and put an end to their plans.

⁷My people are determined to turn
from me.
Even if they call to the Most High,
he will by no means exalt them.

⁸How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I treat you like Admah?
How can I make you like Zeboiim?
My heart is changed within me;
all my compassion is aroused.

⁹I will not carry out my fierce anger,
nor will I turn and devastate
Ephraim.

For I am God, and not a human being —
the Holy One among you.
I will not come in wrath.^c

¹⁰They will follow the LORD;
he will roar like a lion.

When he roars,
his children will come trembling
from the west.

¹¹They will come trembling
like birds from Egypt,
like doves from Assyria.
I will settle them in their homes,"
declares the LORD.

Israel's Sin

¹²Ephraim has surrounded me with lies,

the house of Israel with deceit.
And Judah is unruly against God, even against the faithful Holy
One.

12 ¹Ephraim feeds on the wind;
he pursues the east wind all day
and multiplies lies and violence.

He makes a treaty with Assyria
and sends olive oil to Egypt.

²The LORD has a charge to bring
against Judah;
he will punish Jacob^a according to his ways
and repay him according to his
deeds.

³In the womb he grasped his brother's heel;
as a man he struggled with God.

⁴He struggled with the angel and overcame him;
he wept and begged for his favour.
He found him at Bethel
and talked with him there —

⁵the LORD God Almighty,
the LORD is his name of renown!

⁶But you must return to your God;
maintain love and justice,
and wait for your God always.

⁷The merchants use dishonest scales;
they love to defraud.

⁸Ephraim boasts,
"I am very rich; I have become wealthy.

With all my wealth they will not find in me
any iniquity or sin."

⁹"I am the LORD your God,
who brought you out of^b Egypt;
I will make you live in tents again,
as in the days of your appointed
feasts.

¹⁰I spoke to the prophets, gave them many visions
and told parables through them."

¹¹Is Gilead wicked?
Its people are worthless!
Do they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal?

^{a2} Some Septuagint manuscripts; Hebrew they ^{b2} Septuagint; Hebrew them ^{c9} Or come against any city
² Jacob means he grasps the heel (figuratively, he deceives). ^{b9} Or God / ever since you were in

- Their altars will be like piles of stones
 on a ploughed field.
¹²Jacob fled to the country of Aram;^c
 Israel served to get a wife,
 and to pay for her he tended sheep.
¹³The LORD used a prophet to bring Israel up from Egypt,
 by a prophet he cared for him.
¹⁴But Ephraim has bitterly provoked
 him to anger;
 his Lord will leave upon him the guilt of his bloodshed
 and will repay him for his contempt.

The LORD's Anger Against Israel

- 13 When Ephraim spoke, people trembled;
 he was exalted in Israel.
 But he became guilty of Baal
 worship and died.
²Now they sin more and more;
 they make idols for themselves
 from their silver,
 cleverly fashioned images,
 all of them the work of skilled hands.
 It is said of these people,
 "They offer human sacrifice and kiss^a the calf-idols."
³Therefore they will be like the morning mist,
 like the early dew that disappears,
 like chaff swirling from a
 threshing-floor,
 like smoke escaping through a window.
⁴"But I am the LORD your God,
 who brought you^a out of^b Egypt.
 You shall acknowledge no God but
 me,
 no Saviour except me.
⁵I cared for you in the desert,
 in the land of burning heat.
⁶When I fed them, they were satisfied;
 when they were satisfied, they became proud;
 then they forgot me.

- ⁷So I will come upon them like a lion,
 like a leopard I will lurk by the
 path.
⁸Like a bear robbed of her cubs,
 I will attack them and rip them
 open.
 Like a lion I will devour them;
 a wild animal will tear them apart.
⁹"You are destroyed, O Israel, because you are against me, against your helper.
¹⁰Where is your king, that he may save
 you?
 Where are your rulers in all your
 towns,
 of whom you said,
 'Give me a king and princes'?
¹¹So in my anger I gave you a king,
 and in my wrath I took him away.
¹²The guilt of Ephraim is stored up, his sins are kept on record.
¹³Pains as of a woman in childbirth
 come to him,
 but he is a child without wisdom:
 when the time arrives,
 he does not come to the opening of the womb.
¹⁴"I will ransom them from the power of the grave;^c
 I will redeem them from death.
 Where, O death, are your plagues?
 Where, O grave,^c is your
 destruction?
¹⁵"I will have no compassion, even though he thrives among his brothers.
 An east wind from the LORD will
 come,
 blowing in from the desert;
 his spring will fail
 and his well dry up.
 His storehouse will be plundered
 of all its treasures.
¹⁶The people of Samaria must bear
 their guilt,
 because they have rebelled against
 their God.

^{c12} That is, North-west Mesopotamia ^{c13} Or "People who sacrifice / kiss

^{b4} Or God / ever since you were in ^{c14} Hebrew Sheol

They will fall by the sword;
 their little ones will be dashed to
 the ground,
 their pregnant women ripped open.”

Repentance to Bring Blessing

14 Return, O Israel, to the LORD your
 God.

Your sins have been your downfall!

²Take words with you and return to the LORD.

Say to him:

“Forgive all our sins
 and receive us graciously,
 that we may offer the fruit of our lips.”^a

³Assyria cannot save us;
 we will not mount war-horses.
 We will never again say ‘Our gods’
 to what our own hands have made,
 for in you the fatherless find
 compassion.”

⁴“I will heal their waywardness
 and love them freely,
 for my anger has turned away from
 them.

⁵I will be like the dew to Israel;
 he will blossom like a lily.
 Like a cedar of Lebanon
 he will send down his roots;
⁶his young shoots will grow.
 His splendour will be like an olive tree,
 his fragrance like a cedar of Lebanon.

⁷People will dwell again in his shade.
 He will flourish like the corn.
 He will blossom like a vine,
 and his fame will be like the wine
 from Lebanon.

⁸O Ephraim, what more have I^b to do with idols?
 I will answer him and care for him.
 I am like a green pine tree;
 your fruitfulness comes from me.”

⁹Who are wise? They will realise these
 things.
 Who are discerning? They will understand them.

The ways of the LORD are right;
 the righteous walk in them,
 but the rebellious stumble in
 them.

^a2 Or offer our lips as sacrifices of bulls

Joel

1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel son of Pethuel.

An Invasion of Locusts

²Hear this, you elders;
listen, all who live in the land.
Has anything like this ever happened
in your days
or in the days of your ancestors?

³Tell it to your children,
and let your children tell it to their
children,
and their children to the next generation.

⁴What the locust swarm has left
the great locusts have eaten;
what the great locusts have left
the young locusts have eaten;
what the young locusts have left
other locusts^a have eaten

⁵Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!
Wail, all you drinkers of wine;
wail because of the new wine,
for it has been snatched from your
lips.

⁶A nation has invaded my land,
powerful and without number;
it has the teeth of a lion,
the fangs of a lioness.

⁷It has laid waste my vines
and ruined my fig-trees.
It has stripped off their bark and thrown it away,
leaving their branches white.

⁸Mourn like a virgin^b in sackcloth grieving for the husband^c of her
youth.

⁹Grain offerings and drink offerings are cut off from the house of the LORD.

The priests are in mourning,
those who minister before the
LORD.

¹⁰The fields are ruined,
the ground is dried up;^d
the grain is destroyed,
the new wine is dried up,
the oil fails.

¹¹Despair, you farmers,
wail, you vine growers;
grieve for the wheat and the barley,
because the harvest of the field is
destroyed.

¹²The vine is dried up and the fig-tree is withered;
the pomegranate, the palm and the apple tree—
all the trees of the field—are dried
up.

Surely the people's joy
is withered away.

A Call to Repentance

¹³Put on sackcloth, O priests, and
mourn;
wail, you who minister before the altar.

Come, spend the night in sackcloth,
you who minister before my God;

^a The precise meaning of the four Hebrew words used here for locusts is uncertain.

^b Or young woman ^c Or betrothed ^d Or ground mourns

for the grain offerings and drink
offerings
are withheld from the house of your
God.

¹⁴Declare a holy fast;
call a sacred assembly.
Summon the elders
and all who live in the land to the house of the LORD your God,
and cry out to the LORD.

¹⁵Alas for that day!
For the day of the LORD is near;
it will come like destruction from
the Almighty.^e

¹⁶Has not the food been cut off before our very eyes—
joy and gladness
from the house of our God?

¹⁷The seeds are shrivelled
beneath the clods.^f
The storehouses are in ruins,
the granaries have been broken
down,
for the grain has dried up.

¹⁸How the cattle moan!
The herds mill about
because they have no pasture;
even the flocks of sheep are suffering.

¹⁹To you, O LORD, I call,
for fire has devoured the open pastures
and flames have burned up all the trees of the field.

²⁰Even the wild animals pant for you;
the streams of water have dried up and fire has devoured the open pastures.

An Army of Locusts

2 Blow the trumpet in Zion;
sound the alarm on my holy hill.
Let all who live in the land tremble,
for the day of the LORD is coming.
It is close at hand—
² a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and blackness.

Like dawn spreading across the
mountains
a large and mighty army comes,
such as never was of old
nor ever will be in ages to come.

³Before them fire devours,
behind them a flame blazes.
Before them the land is like the garden of Eden,
behind them, a desert waste—
nothing escapes them.

⁴They have the appearance of horses;
they gallop along like cavalry.
⁵With a noise like that of chariots
they leap over the mountaintops, like a crackling fire consuming
stubble,
like a mighty army drawn up for
battle.

⁶At the sight of them, nations are in anguish;
every face turns pale.

⁷They charge like warriors;
they scale walls like soldiers.
They all march in line,
not swerving from their course.

⁸They do not jostle each other;
each marches straight ahead.
They plunge through defences
without breaking ranks.

⁹They rush upon the city;
they run along the wall.
They climb into the houses;
like thieves they enter through the windows.

¹⁰Before them the earth shakes,
the sky trembles,
the sun and moon are darkened,
and the stars no longer shine.

¹¹The LORD thunders
at the head of his army;
his forces are beyond number,
and mighty are those who obey his command.

The day of the LORD is great;
it is dreadful.
Who can endure it?

^e15 Hebrew Shaddai / ^f17 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

Rend Your Heart

¹²“Even now,” declares the LORD, “return to me with all your heart,
with fasting and weeping and mourning.”

¹³Rend your heart
and not your garments.
Return to the LORD your God,
for he is gracious and
compassionate,
slow to anger and abounding in love,
and he relents from sending
calamity.

¹⁴Who knows? He may turn and have pity
and leave behind a blessing—
grain offerings and drink offerings for the LORD your God.

¹⁵Blow the trumpet in Zion, declare a holy fast,
call a sacred assembly.

¹⁶Gather the people,
consecrate the assembly;
bring together the elders,
gather the children,
those nursing at the breast.
Let the bridegroom leave his room
and the bride her chamber.

¹⁷Let the priests, who minister before
the LORD,
weep between the temple porch
and the altar.
Let them say, “Spare your people,
O LORD.

Do not make your inheritance an object of scorn,
a byword among the nations.
Why should they say among the
peoples,
‘Where is their God?’”

The LORD's Answer

¹⁸Then the LORD will be jealous for his
land
and take pity on his people.

¹⁹The LORD will reply^a to them:

“I am sending you grain, new wine
and oil,
enough to satisfy you fully;
never again will I make you an object of scorn to the nations.

²⁰“I will drive the northern army far from you,
pushing it into a parched and barren land,
with its front columns going into the eastern sea^b
and those in the rear into the western sea.^c
And its stench will go up;
its smell will rise.”

Surely he has done great things.^d

²¹Be not afraid, O land;
be glad and rejoice.
Surely the LORD has done great
things.

²²Be not afraid, O wild animals, for the open pastures are becoming green.
The trees are bearing their fruit;
the fig-tree and the vine yield their riches.

²³Be glad, O people of Zion, rejoice in the LORD your God,
for he has given you
the autumn rains in righteousness.^e
He sends you abundant showers, both autumn and spring rains, as
before.

²⁴The threshing-floors will be filled with
grain;
the vats will overflow with new
wine and oil.

²⁵“I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten—
the great locust and the young locust,
the other locusts and the locust
swarm^f—
my great army that I sent among you.

^a18, 19 Or LORD was jealous . . . / and took pity . . . / ¹⁹The LORD replied

^b20 That is, the Dead Sea ^c20 That is, the Mediterranean ^d20 Or rise. / Surely it has done great things.”

^e23 Or / the teacher for righteousness.

^f25 The precise meaning of the four Hebrew words used here for locusts is uncertain.

- ²⁶You will have plenty to eat, until you are full,
and you will praise the name of the LORD your God,
who has worked wonders for you;
never again will my people be shamed.
- ²⁷Then you will know that I am in Israel,
that I am the LORD your God,
and that there is no other;
never again will my people be shamed.

The Day of the LORD

- ²⁸“And afterwards,
I will pour out my Spirit on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions.
- ²⁹Even on my servants, both men and women,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days.
- ³⁰I will show wonders in the heavens
and on the earth,
blood and fire and billows of smoke.
- ³¹The sun will be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood
before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.
- ³²And everyone who calls
on the name of the LORD will be saved;
for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
there will be deliverance,
as the LORD has said,
among the survivors
whom the LORD calls.

The Nations Judged

- 3 “In those days and at that time,
when I restore the fortunes of Judah
and Jerusalem,
²I will gather all nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.^a

^{a2} Jehoshaphat means the LORD judges; also in verse 12.

There I will enter into judgment
against them
concerning my inheritance, my people Israel,
for they scattered my people among
the nations
and divided up my land.

³They cast lots for my people and traded boys for prostitutes;
they sold girls for wine
that they might drink.

⁴“Now what have you against me, O Tyre and Sidon and all you regions of Philistia? Are you repaying me for something I have done? If you are paying me back, I will swiftly and speedily return on your own heads what you have done. ⁵For you took my silver and my gold and carried off my finest treasures to your temples. ⁶You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, that you might send them far from their homeland.

⁷“See, I am going to rouse them out of the places to which you sold them, and I will return on your own heads what you have done. ⁸I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, a nation far away.” The LORD has spoken.

- ⁹Proclaim this among the nations:
Prepare for war!
Rouse the warriors!
Let all the fighting men draw near
and attack.
- ¹⁰Beat your ploughshares into swords
and your pruning hooks into spears.
Let the weakling say,
“I am strong!”
- ¹¹Come quickly, all you nations from every side,
and assemble there.

Bring down your warriors, O LORD!

- ¹²“Let the nations be roused;
let them advance into the Valley of Jehoshaphat,
for there I will sit
to judge all the nations on every side.

- ¹³Swing the sickle,
for the harvest is ripe.
Come, trample the grapes,
for the winepress is full and the vats overflow—
so great is their wickedness!”
- ¹⁴Multitudes, multitudes
in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near
in the valley of decision.
- ¹⁵The sun and moon will be darkened,
and the stars no longer shine.
- ¹⁶The LORD will roar from Zion
and thunder from Jerusalem;
the earth and the sky will tremble.
But the LORD will be a refuge for his
people,
a stronghold for the people of Israel.

Blessings for God's People

- ¹⁷“Then you will know that I, the LORD
your God,
dwell in Zion, my holy hill.

Jerusalem will be holy;
never again will foreigners invade
her.

- ¹⁸“In that day the mountains will drip
new wine,
and the hills will flow with milk;
all the ravines of Judah will run
with water.
A fountain will flow out of the LORD's
house
and will water the valley of acacias.^b
- ¹⁹But Egypt will be desolate,
Edom a desert waste,
because of violence done to the
people of Judah,
in whose land they shed innocent
blood.
- ²⁰Judah will be inhabited for ever and Jerusalem through all
generations.
- ²¹Their bloodguilt, which I have not pardoned,
I will pardon.”
- The LORD dwells in Zion!

^b18 Or Valley of Shitim

Amos

1 The words of Amos, one of the shepherds of Tekoa—what he saw concerning Israel two years before the earthquake, when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Jehoash^a was king of Israel.

²He said:

“The LORD roars from Zion
and thunders from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds dry up,^b and the top of Carmel withers.”

Judgment on Israel's Neighbours

³This is what the LORD says:

“For three sins of Damascus,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.

Because she threshed Gilead
with sledges having iron teeth,

⁴I will send fire upon the house of Hazeel

that will consume the fortresses of Ben-Hadad.

⁵I will break down the gate of Damascus;

I will destroy the king who is in^c the Valley of Aven^d

and the one who holds the sceptre in Beth Eden.

The people of Aram will go into exile to Kir,”

says the LORD.

⁶This is what the LORD says:

“For three sins of Gaza,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.

Because she took captive whole communities

and sold them to Edom,

⁷I will send fire upon the walls of Gaza

that will consume her fortresses.

⁸I will destroy the king^e of Ashdod and the one who holds the sceptre
in Ashkelon.

I will turn my hand against Ekron, till the last of the Philistines is dead,”

says the Sovereign LORD.

⁹This is what the LORD says:

“For three sins of Tyre,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.

Because she sold whole communities of captives to Edom, disregarding a treaty of brotherhood,

¹⁰I will send fire upon the walls of Tyre
that will consume her fortresses.”

¹¹This is what the LORD says:

“For three sins of Edom,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.

Because he pursued his brother with a sword,
stifling all compassion,”

^a1 Hebrew Joash, a variant of Jehoash ^b2 Or shepherds mourn ^c5 Or the inhabitants of because his anger raged continually and his fury flamed unchecked, 12I will send fire upon Teman

that will consume the fortresses of Bozrah."

13This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Ammon,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.
Because he ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead
in order to extend his borders, 14I will set fire to the walls of Rabbah
that will consume her fortresses
amid war cries on the day of battle, amid violent winds on a stormy
day.
15Her king^a will go into exile,
he and his officials together,"
says the LORD.

2 This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Moab,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.
Because he burned, as if to lime,
the bones of Edom's king, 2I will send fire upon Moab
that will consume the fortresses of Kerioth.^a Moab will go down in great tumult amid war cries and the blast of the trumpet.
3I will destroy her ruler and kill all her officials with him."
says the LORD.

4This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Judah,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.
Because they have rejected the law of
the LORD
and have not kept his decrees, because they have been led astray by false gods,^b

the gods^c their ancestors followed, 5I will send fire upon Judah
that will consume the fortresses of
Jerusalem."

Judgment on Israel

6This is what the LORD says:

"For three sins of Israel,
even for four, I will not turn back
my wrath.
They sell the righteous for silver,
and the needy for a pair of sandals.
7They trample on the heads of the poor as upon the dust of the ground and deny justice to the oppressed.
Father and son use the same girl
and so profane my holy name.
8They lie down beside every altar
on garments taken in pledge.
In the house of their god
they drink wine taken as fines.

9"I destroyed the Amorites before
them,
though they were tall as the cedars
and strong as the oaks.
I destroyed their fruit above
and their roots below.

10"I brought you up out of Egypt, and I led you for forty years in the desert
to give you the land of the Amorites.

11I also raised up prophets from among your children
and Nazirites from among your youths.

Is this not true, people of Israel?"
declares the LORD.

12"But you made the Nazirites drink
wine
and commanded the prophets not to prophesy.

13"Now then, I will crush you as a cart crushes when loaded with grain.

14The swift will not escape,

^a15 Or / Molech; Hebrew malcam

the strong will not muster their strength,
and the warrior will not save his life.

¹⁵The archer will not stand his ground,
the fleet-footed soldier will not get away,
and the horseman will not save his life.

¹⁶Even the bravest warriors will flee naked on that day,"
declares the LORD.

Witnesses Summoned Against Israel

3 Hear this word the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel—against the whole family I brought up out
of Egypt:

²"You only have I chosen
of all the families of the earth;
therefore I will punish you for all your sins."

³Do two walk together
unless they have agreed to do so?

⁴Does a lion roar in the thicket
when it has no prey?
Does it growl in its den
when it has caught nothing?

⁵Does a bird fall into a trap on the
ground
where no snare has been set?
Does a trap spring up from the earth
when there is nothing to catch?

⁶When a trumpet sounds in a city,
do not the people tremble?
When disaster comes to a city,
has not the LORD caused it?

⁷Surely the Sovereign LORD does
nothing
without revealing his plan
to his servants the prophets.

⁸The lion has roared—who will not fear?
The Sovereign LORD has spoken—
who can but prophesy?

⁹Proclaim to the fortresses of Ashdod
and to the fortresses of Egypt:

^{a12} The meaning of the Hebrew for this line is uncertain.

"Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria;
see the great unrest within her
and the oppression among her
people."

¹⁰"They do not know how to do right,"
declares the LORD,
"who hoard plunder and loot in their fortresses."

¹¹Therefore this is what the Sovereign
LORD says:

"An enemy will overrun your land,
pull down your strongholds
and plunder your fortresses."

¹²This is what the LORD says:

"As a shepherd saves from the lion's
mouth
only two leg bones or a piece of an ear,
so will the Israelites be saved,
those who sit in Samaria
on the edge of their beds and in Damascus on their couches."^a

¹³"Hear this and testify against the house of Jacob," declares the Lord, the LORD God Almighty.

¹⁴"On the day I punish Israel for her sins,
I will destroy the altars of Bethel;
the horns of the altar will be cut off
and fall to the ground.

¹⁵I will tear down the winter house
along with the summer house;
the houses adorned with ivory will be
destroyed
and the mansions will be demolished,"
declares the LORD.

Israel Has Not Returned to God

4 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan
on Mount Samaria,
you women who oppress the poor
and crush the needy

- and say to your husbands, "Bring us some drinks!"
- ²The Sovereign LORD has sworn by his holiness:
 "The time will surely come when you will be taken away with hooks,
 the last of you with fish-hooks.
- ³You will each go straight out through breaks in the wall, and you will be cast out towards Harmon,"^a
 declares the LORD.
- ⁴"Go to Bethel and sin;
 go to Gilgal and sin yet more.
 Bring your sacrifices every morning,
 your tithes every three years.^b
- ⁵Burn leavened bread as a thank-offering and brag about your freewill offerings—
 boast about them, you Israelites, for this is what you love to do,"
 declares the Sovereign LORD.
- ⁶"I gave you empty stomachs^c in every city
 and lack of bread in every town,
 yet you have not returned to me,"
 declares the LORD.
- ⁷"I also withheld rain from you
 when the harvest was still three months away.
 I sent rain on one town,
 but withheld it from another.
 One field had rain;
 another had none and dried up.
- ⁸People staggered from town to town
 for water
 but did not get enough to drink,
 yet you have not returned to me,"
 declares the LORD.
- ⁹"Many times I struck your gardens
 and vineyards,
 I struck them with blight and mildew.
 Locusts devoured your fig and olive trees,
 yet you have not returned to me,"
 declares the LORD.

- ¹⁰"I sent plagues among you
 as I did to Egypt.
 I killed your young men with the sword,
 along with your captured horses.
 I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camps,
 yet you have not returned to me,"
 declares the LORD.
- ¹¹"I overthrew some of you
 as I^d overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
 You were like a burning stick snatched from the fire,
 yet you have not returned to me,"
 declares the LORD.
- ¹²"Therefore this is what I will do to you, Israel,
 and because I will do this to you,
 prepare to meet your God,
 O Israel."
- ¹³He who forms the mountains,
 creates the wind,
 and reveals his thoughts to mortals,
 he who turns dawn to darkness,
 and treads the high places of the earth—
 the LORD God Almighty is his name.

A Lament and Call to Repentance

- 5 Hear this word, O house of Israel, this lament I take up concerning you:
- ²⁴Fallen is Virgin Israel,
 never to rise again,
 deserted in her own land,
 with no-one to lift her up."
- ³This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
 "The city that marches out a thousand strong for Israel
 will have only a hundred left;
 the town that marches out a hundred
 strong
 will have only ten left."

^{a3} Masoretic Text; with a different word division of the Hebrew (see Septuagint) our, O mountain of oppression

^{b4} Or tithes on the third day ^{c6} Hebrew you cleanness of teeth ^{d11} Hebrew God

⁴This is what the LORD says to the house of Israel:

"Seek me and live;

⁵ do not seek Bethel,
do not go to Gilgal,
do not journey to Beersheba.
For Gilgal will surely go into exile,
and Bethel will be reduced to nothing."^a

⁶Seek the LORD and live, or he will sweep through the house
of Joseph like a fire;
it will devour,
and Bethel will have no-one to quench it.

⁷You who turn justice into bitterness and cast righteousness to the
ground

⁸(he who made the Pleiades and Orion,
who turns blackness into dawn
and darkens day into night,
who calls for the waters of the sea
and pours them out over the face of
the land—
the LORD is his name—

⁹he flashes destruction on the stronghold
and brings the fortified city to ruin), ¹⁰you hate the one who reproves in court
and despise the one who tells the truth.

¹¹You trample on the poor and force them to give you grain.
Therefore, though you have built stone mansions,
you will not live in them;
though you have planted lush
vineyards,
you will not drink their wine.

¹²For I know how many are your offences
and how great your sins.

You oppress the righteous and take bribes
and you deprive the poor of justice in the courts.

¹³Therefore the prudent keep quiet in such times,
for the times are evil.

¹⁴Seek good, not evil,
that you may live.
Then the LORD God Almighty will be
with you,
just as you say he is.

¹⁵Hate evil, love good;
maintain justice in the courts.
Perhaps the LORD God Almighty will have mercy
on the remnant of Joseph.

¹⁶Therefore this is what the Lord, the LORD God Almighty, says:

"There will be wailing in all the streets and cries of anguish in every public square.

The farmers will be summoned to weep
and the mourners to wail.

¹⁷There will be wailing in all the
vineyards,
for I will pass through your midst,"
says the LORD.

The Day of the LORD

¹⁸Woe to you who long for the day of the LORD!
Why do you long for the day of the
LORD?

That day will be darkness, not light.

¹⁹It will be as though a man fled from a lion
only to meet a bear,
as though he entered his house
and rested his hand on the wall
only to have a snake bite him.

²⁰Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, not light—pitch-dark, without a ray of brightness?

²¹"I hate, I despise your religious
feasts;
I cannot stand your assemblies.

²²Even though you bring me burnt offerings and grain offerings,

^a Or grief; or wickedness; Hebrew aven, a reference to Beth Aven (a derogatory name for Bethel)

- I will not accept them.
 Though you bring choice fellowship offerings,^b
 I will have no regard for them.
²³Away with the noise of your songs!
 I will not listen to the music of your harps.
²⁴But let justice roll on like a river,
 righteousness like a never-failing stream!

- ²⁵"Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings
 for forty years in the desert,
 O house of Israel?
²⁶You have lifted up the shrine of your king,
 the pedestal of your idols,
 the star of your god—^c
 which you made for yourselves.
²⁷Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Damascus,"
 says the LORD, whose name is God Almighty.

Woe to the Complacent

- 6 Woe to you who are complacent in Zion,
 and to you who feel secure on Mount Samaria,
 you notable men of the foremost nation,
 to whom the people of Israel come!
²Go to Calneh and look at it;
 go from there to great Hamath,
 and then go down to Gath in Philistia.
 Are they better off than your two kingdoms?
 Is their land larger than yours?
³You put off the evil day
 and bring near a reign of terror.
⁴You lie on beds inlaid with ivory and lounge on your couches.
 You dine on choice lambs
 and fattened calves.
⁵You strum away on your harps like David and improvise on musical instruments.

- ⁶You drink wine by the bowlful
 and use the finest lotions, but you do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph.
⁷Therefore you will be among the first to go into exile;
 your feasting and lounging will end.

The LORD Abhors the Pride of Israel

⁸The Sovereign LORD has sworn by himself—the LORD God Almighty declares:

"I abhor the pride of Jacob and detest his fortresses;
 I will deliver up the city
 and everything in it."

⁹If ten people are left in one house, they too will die. ¹⁰And if a relative who is to burn the bodies comes to carry them out of the house and asks anyone still hiding there, "Is anyone with you?" and he says, "No," then he will say, "Hush! We must not mention the name of the LORD."

¹¹For the LORD has given the command, and he will smash the great house into pieces
 and the small house into bits.

¹²Do horses run on the rocky crags?
 Does one plough there with oxen?
 But you have turned justice into poison
 and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness—

¹³you who rejoice in the conquest of Lo Debar^d and say, "Did we not take Karnaïm^b by our own
 strength?"

¹⁴For the LORD God Almighty declares,
 "I will stir up a nation against you,
 O house of Israel,

^{b22} Traditionally peace offerings

^{c26} Or lifted up Sakkuth your king / and Kaiwan your idols, / your star-gods; Septuagint lifted up the shrine of Molech and the star of your god Rephan, / their idols ^{d13} Lo Debar means nothing.

^{b13} Karnaïm means horns; horn here symbolises strength.

that will oppress you all the way from Lebo^c Hamath to the valley of the Arabah."

Locusts, Fire and a Plumb-Line

7 This is what the Sovereign LORD showed me: He was preparing swarms of locusts after the king's share had been harvested and just as the second crop was coming up. ²When they had stripped the land clean, I cried out, "Sovereign LORD, forgive! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!"

³So the LORD relented.

"This will not happen," the LORD said.

⁴This is what the Sovereign LORD showed me: The Sovereign LORD was calling for judgment by fire; it dried up the great deep and devoured the land. ⁵Then I cried out, "Sovereign LORD, I beg you, stop! How can Jacob survive? He is so small!"

⁶So the LORD relented.

"This will not happen either," the Sovereign LORD said.

⁷This is what he showed me: the Lord was standing by a wall that had been built true to plumb, with a plumb-line in his hand. ⁸And the LORD asked me, "What do you see, Amos?"

"A plumb-line," I replied.

Then the Lord said, "Look, I am setting a plumb-line among my people Israel; I will spare them no longer.

⁹"The high places of Isaac will be destroyed and the sanctuaries of Israel will be ruined;
with my sword I will rise against the house of Jeroboam."

Amos and Amaziah

¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent a message to Jeroboam king of Israel: "Amos is raising a conspiracy against you in the very heart of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words. ¹¹For this is what Amos is saying:

"Jeroboam will die by the sword,
and Israel will surely go into exile,
away from their native land.'"

¹²Then Amaziah said to Amos, "Get out, you seer! Go back to the land of Judah. Earn your bread there and do your prophesying there. ¹³Don't prophesy any more at Bethel, because this is the king's sanctuary and the temple of the kingdom."

¹⁴Amos answered Amaziah, "I was neither a prophet nor a prophet's son, but I was a shepherd, and I also took care of sycamore-fig trees. ¹⁵But the LORD took me from tending the flock and said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' ¹⁶Now then, hear the word of the LORD. You say,

"Do not prophesy against Israel, and stop preaching against the house of Isaac."

¹⁷"Therefore this is what the LORD says:

"Your wife will become a prostitute
in the city,
and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword.
Your land will be measured and divided up,
and you yourself will die in a pagan^a country.
And Israel will certainly go into exile,
away from their native land.'"

A Basket of Ripe Fruit

8 This is what the Sovereign LORD showed me: a basket of ripe fruit. ²"What do you see, Amos?" he asked.

"A basket of ripe fruit," I answered.

Then the LORD said to me, "The time is ripe for my people Israel; I will spare them no longer.

³"In that day," declares the Sovereign LORD, "the songs in the temple will turn to wailing.^a Many, many bodies—flung everywhere! Silence!"

^c14 Or from the entrance to

^a17 Hebrew an unclean

^a3 Or "the temple singers will wail"

⁴Hear this, you who trample the needy and do away with the poor of the
land,

⁵saying,

“When will the New Moon be over that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath be ended
that we may market wheat?”—
skimping the measure, boosting the price
and cheating with dishonest scales, ⁶buying the poor with silver
and the needy for a pair of sandals,
selling even the sweepings with the wheat.

⁷The LORD has sworn by the Pride of Jacob: “I will never forget anything they have done.

⁸“Will not the land tremble for this,
and all who live in it mourn?
The whole land will rise like the Nile;
it will be stirred up and then sink
like the river of Egypt.

⁹“In that day,” declares the Sovereign
LORD,

“I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.

¹⁰I will turn your religious feasts into mourning
and all your singing into weeping.
I will make all of you wear sackcloth
and shave your heads.
I will make that time like mourning
for an only son
and the end of it like a bitter day.

¹¹“The days are coming,” declares the Sovereign LORD,
“when I will send a famine through
the land—
not a famine of food or a thirst for
water,
but a famine of hearing the words
of the LORD.

¹²People will stagger from sea to sea and wander from north to east,
searching for the word of the LORD,
but they will not find it.

¹³“In that day

“the lovely young women and strong young men
will faint because of thirst.

¹⁴They who swear by the shame^b of Samaria,
or say, ‘As surely as your god lives,
O Dan’,
or, ‘As surely as the god^c of Beersheba lives’—
they will fall,
never to rise again.”

Israel to Be Destroyed

9 I saw the Lord standing by the altar,
and he said:

“Strike the tops of the pillars
so that the thresholds shake.
Bring them down on the heads of all
the people;
those who are left I will kill with the
sword.

Not one will get away,
none will escape.

²Though they dig down to the depths of the grave,^a
from there my hand will take them.
Though they climb up to the heavens,
from there I will bring them down.

³Though they hide themselves on the top of Carmel,
there I will hunt them down and seize them.
Though they hide from me at the bottom of the sea,
there I will command the serpent to bite them.

⁴Though they are driven into exile by their enemies,
there I will command the sword to slay them.

I will fix my eyes upon them
for evil and not for good.”

^{b14} Or by Ashima; or by the idol ^{c14} Or power ^{a2} Hebrew to Sheol

⁵The Lord, the LORD Almighty,
 he who touches the earth and it melts,
 and all who live in it mourn—
 the whole land rises like the Nile,
 then sinks like the river of Egypt—⁶he who builds his lofty palace^b in the heavens
 and sets its foundation^c on the earth,
 who calls for the waters of the sea
 and pours them out over the face
 of the land—
 the LORD is his name.

⁷“Are not you Israelites
 the same to me as the Cushites?”^d
 declares the LORD.

“Did I not bring Israel up from Egypt,
 the Philistines from Caphtor^e
 and the Arameans from Kir?

⁸“Surely the eyes of the Sovereign LORD are on the sinful kingdom.
 I will destroy it

 the house of Jacob,”
 declares the LORD.

 and I will shake the house of Israel

 as grain is shaken in a sieve,
 and not a pebble will reach the ¹⁰All the sinners among my people will die by the sword,

 all those who say,
 ‘Disaster will not overtake or meet
 us.’

Israel's Restoration

 David's fallen tent.
 I will repair its broken places,
 restore its ruins,
 and build it as it used to be,

 declares the LORD,
 who will do these things.

¹³“The days are coming,” declares the
 LORD,

“when the reaper will be overtaken
 by the one who ploughs and the planter by the one treading
 grapes.

New wine will drip from the mountains
 and flow from all the hills.

¹⁴I will bring back my exiled^g people
 Israel;
 they will rebuild the ruined cities
 and live in them.

They will plant vineyards and drink
 their wine;
 they will make gardens and eat
 their fruit.

¹⁵I will plant Israel in their own
 land,
 never again to be uprooted
 from the land I have given
 them,”

says the LORD your God.

¹The vision of Obadiah.

This is what the Sovereign LORD says
about Edom—

We have heard a message from the

LORD:

An envoy was sent to the nations to
say,

“Rise, and let us go against her for
battle” —

²“See, I will make you small among the
nations;
you will be utterly despised.

³The pride of your heart has deceived
you,
you who live in the clefts of the rocks^a
and make your home on the heights,
you who say to yourself,
“Who can bring me down to the
ground?”

⁴Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest among the

from there I will bring you down,”
declares the LORD.

⁵“If thieves came to you,
if robbers in the night—
Oh, what a disaster awaits you—
would they not steal only as much
as they wanted?

If grape pickers came to you,
would they not leave a few
grapes?

⁶But how Esau will be ransacked,
his hidden treasures pillaged!

⁷All your allies will force you to the border;
your friends will deceive and overpower you;
those who eat your bread will set a trap for you,^b
but you will not detect it.

⁸“In that day,” declares the LORD,
“will I not destroy the wise in Edom,
people of understanding in the mountains of Esau?”

⁹Your warriors, O Teman, will be terrified,
and everyone in Esau’s mountains
will be cut down in the slaughter.

¹⁰Because of the violence against your brother Jacob,
you will be covered with shame;
you will be destroyed for ever.

¹¹On the day you stood aloof while strangers carried off his wealth
and foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem,
you were like one of them.

¹²You should not look down on your

Jonah

Jonah Flees From the LORD

1 The word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai: ²“Go to the great city of Nineveh and preach against it, because its wickedness has come up before me.”

³But Jonah ran away from the LORD and headed for Tarshish. He went down to Joppa, where he found a ship bound for that port. After paying the fare, he went aboard and sailed for Tarshish to flee from the LORD.

⁴Then the LORD sent a great wind on the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship threatened to break up. ⁵All the sailors were afraid and each cried out to his own god. And they threw the cargo into the sea to lighten the ship.

But Jonah had gone below deck, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep. ⁶The captain went to him and said, “How can you sleep? Get up and call on your god! Maybe he will take notice of us, and we will not perish.”

⁷Then the sailors said to each other, “Come, let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity.” They cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah.

⁸So they asked him, “Tell us, who is responsible for making all this trouble for us? What do you do? Where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?”

⁹He answered, “I am a Hebrew and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the land.”

¹⁰This terrified them and they asked,

“What have you done?” (They knew he was running away from the LORD, because he had already told them so.)

¹¹The sea was getting rougher and rougher. So they asked him, “What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?”

¹²“Pick me up and throw me into the sea,” he replied, “and it will become calm. I know that it is my fault that this great storm has come upon you.”

¹³Instead, the men did their best to row back to land. But they could not, for the sea grew even wilder than before. ¹⁴Then they cried to the LORD, “O LORD, please do not let us die for taking this man’s life. Do not hold us accountable for killing an innocent man, for you, O LORD, have done as you pleased.” ¹⁵Then they took Jonah and threw him overboard, and the raging sea grew calm. ¹⁶At this the men greatly feared the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows to him.

¹⁷But the LORD provided a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was inside the fish three days and three nights.

Jonah’s Prayer

2 From inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God. ²He said:

“In my distress I called to the LORD,
and he answered me.

From the depths of the grave^a I called for help,

and you listened to my cry.
 3You hurled me into the deep,
 into the very heart of the seas,
 and the currents swirled about me;
 all your waves and breakers
 swept over me.

4I said, 'I have been banished
 from your sight;
 yet I will look again
 towards your holy temple.'

5The engulfing waters threatened me,^b
 the deep surrounded me;
 seaweed was wrapped around my
 head.

6To the roots of the mountains I sank
 down;
 the earth beneath barred me in for
 ever.

But you brought my life up from the
 pit,
 O LORD my God.

7When my life was ebbing away,
 I remembered you, LORD,
 and my prayer rose to you,
 to your holy temple.

8Those who cling to worthless idols forfeit the grace that could be theirs.

9But I, with a song of thanksgiving,
 will sacrifice to you.

What I have vowed I will make
 good.
 Salvation comes from the LORD."

10And the LORD commanded the fish,
 and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Jonah Goes to Nineveh

3 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: 2"Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you."

3Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very important city—a visit required three days. 4On the first day, Jonah started into the city. He proclaimed:

"Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned." 5The Ninevites believed God. They declared a fast, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth.

6When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the dust. 7Then
 he issued a proclamation in Nineveh:

"By the decree of the king and his nobles:

Do not let people or animals,
 herds or flocks, taste anything; do not let them eat or drink. 8But let people and animals be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call urgently on God. Let them give up their evil ways and their violence. 9Who knows? God may yet relent and with compassion turn from his fierce anger so that we will not perish."

10When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he had compassion and did not bring upon them the destruction he had threatened.

Jonah's Anger at the LORD's Compassion

4 But Jonah was greatly displeased and became angry. 2He prayed to the LORD, "O LORD, is this not what I said when I was still at home? That is why I was so quick to flee to Tarshish. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate
 God, slow to anger and abounding in love,
 a God who relents from sending calamity.
 3Now, O LORD, take away my life, for it is better for me to die than to live."

4But the LORD replied, "Have you any right to be angry?"

5Jonah went out and sat down at a place east of the city. There he made himself a shelter, sat in its shade and waited to see what would happen to the city. 6Then the LORD God provided a vine and made it grow up over Jonah to give shade for his

^{b5} Or waters were at my throat

head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was very happy about the vine. ⁷But at dawn the next day God provided a worm, which chewed the vine so that it withered. ⁸When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind, and the sun blazed on Jonah's head so that he grew faint. He wanted to die, and said, "It would be better for me to die than to live."

⁹But God said to Jonah, "Do you have a right to be angry about the vine?"

"I do," he said. "I am angry enough to die."

¹⁰But the LORD said, "You have been concerned about this vine, though you did not tend it or make it grow. It sprang up overnight and died overnight. ¹¹But Nineveh has more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well. Should I not be concerned about that great city?"

Micah

1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—the vision he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

²Hear, O peoples, all of you,
listen, O earth and all who are in it,
that the Sovereign LORD may witness
against you,
the LORD from his holy temple.

Judgment Against Samaria and Jerusalem

³Look! The LORD is coming from his dwelling-place;
he comes down and treads the high places of the earth.

⁴The mountains melt beneath him
and the valleys split apart,
like wax before the fire,
like water rushing down a slope.

⁵All this is because of Jacob's
transgression,
because of the sins of the house of
Israel.

What is Jacob's transgression?
Is it not Samaria?

What is Judah's high place?
Is it not Jerusalem?

⁶Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of rubble,
a place for planting vineyards.

I will pour her stones into the valley and lay bare her foundations.

⁷All her idols will be broken to pieces;
all her temple gifts will be burned
with fire;

I will destroy all her images.
Since she gathered her gifts from the wages of prostitutes,
as the wages of prostitutes they will again be used."

Weeping and Mourning

⁸Because of this I will weep and wail;
I will go about barefoot and naked.
I will howl like a jackal
and moan like an owl.

⁹For her wound is incurable;
it has come to Judah.
It^a has reached the very gate of my
people,
even to Jerusalem itself.

¹⁰Tell it not in Gath;^b weep not at all.^c

In Beth Ophrah^d
roll in the dust.

¹¹Pass on in nakedness and shame,
you who live in Shaphir.^e
Those who live in Zaanana/will not come out.

Beth Ezel is in mourning;
its protection is taken from you.

¹²Those who live in Maroth^f writhe in
pain,
waiting for relief,

^{a9} Or He ^{b10} Gath sounds like the Hebrew for tell.

^{c10} Hebrew; Septuagint may suggest not in Acco. The Hebrew for in Acco sounds like the Hebrew for weep.

^{d10} Beth Ophrah means house of dust. ^{e11} Shaphir means pleasant.

^{f11} Zaanana sounds like the Hebrew for come out. ^{g12} Maroth sounds like the Hebrew for bitter.

- because disaster has come from the LORD,
even to the gate of Jerusalem.
13 You who live in Lachish,^h harness the team to the chariot.
You were the beginning of sin
to the Daughter of Zion,
for the transgressions of Israel
were found in you.
14 Therefore you will give parting gifts to Moresheth Gath.
The town of Aczibⁱ will prove deceptive
to the kings of Israel.
15 I will bring a conqueror against you who live in Mareshah.^j
He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.
16 Shave your heads in mourning for the children in whom you
delight;
make yourselves as bald as the vulture,
for they will go from you into exile.

Human Plans and God's Plans

- 2 Woe to those who plan iniquity,
to those who plot evil on their beds!
At morning's light they carry it out because it is in their power to do it.
2 They covet fields and seize them,
and houses, and take them.
They defraud people of their homes,
they rob them of their inheritance.
3 Therefore, the LORD says:

"I am planning disaster against this
people,
from which you cannot save
yourselves.
You will no longer walk proudly,
for it will be a time of calamity.
4 In that day people will ridicule you;
they will taunt you with this mournful song:
'We are utterly ruined;
my people's possession is divided up.
He takes it from me!
He assigns our fields to traitors.'"

- 5 Therefore you will have no-one in the assembly of the LORD
to divide the land by lot.

False Prophets

- 6 "Do not prophesy," their prophets
say.
"Do not prophesy about these
things;
disgrace will not overtake us."
7 Should it be said, O house of Jacob:
"Is the Spirit of the LORD angry?
Does he do such things?"
"Do not my words do good to those whose ways are upright?"
8 Lately my people have risen up like an enemy.
You strip off the rich robe
from those who pass by without a care,
like men returning from battle.
9 You drive the women of my people from their pleasant homes.
You take away my blessing
from their children for ever.
10 Get up, go away!
For this is not your resting place,
because it is defiled,
it is ruined, beyond all remedy.
11 If liars and deceivers come and say,
'We will prophesy for you plenty of wine and beer,'
they would be just the prophets for this people!

Deliverance Promised

- 12 "I will surely gather all of you,
O Jacob;
I will surely bring together the remnant of Israel.
I will bring them together like sheep
in a pen,
like a flock in its pasture;
the place will throng with people.
13 One who breaks open the way will go up before them;
they will break through the gate
and go out.

^h13 Lachish sounds like the Hebrew for team. ⁱ14 Aczib means deception.
^j15 Mareshah sounds like the Hebrew for conqueror.

Their king will pass through before
them,
the LORD at their head."

Leaders and Prophets Rebuked

3 Then I said,

"Listen, you leaders of Jacob,
you rulers of the house of Israel.
Should you not know justice,
² you who hate good and love evil;
who tear the skin from my people
and the flesh from their bones;
³ who eat my people's flesh, strip off their skin
and break their bones in pieces;
who chop them up like meat for the pan,
like flesh for the pot."

⁴ Then they will cry out to the LORD,
but he will not answer them.
At that time he will hide his face from
them
because of the evil they have done.

⁵ This is what the LORD says:

"As for the prophets
who lead my people astray,
if you feed them,
they proclaim 'peace';
if you do not,
they prepare to wage war against
you.

⁶ Therefore night will come over you,
without visions,
and darkness, without divination.
The sun will set for the prophets,
and the day will go dark for
them.

⁷ The seers will be ashamed and the diviners disgraced.
They will all cover their faces because there is no answer from
God."

⁸ But as for me, I am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD,
and with justice and might,
to declare to Jacob his transgression,
to Israel his sin.

⁹ Hear this, you leaders of the house of Jacob,
you rulers of the house of Israel,
who despise justice
and distort all that is right; ¹⁰ who build Zion with bloodshed,
and Jerusalem with wickedness.
¹¹ Her leaders judge for a bribe,
her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets tell fortunes for money.

Yet they lean upon the LORD and say,
"Is not the LORD among us?
No disaster will come upon us."

¹² Therefore because of you,
Zion will be ploughed like a field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of
rubble,
the temple hill a mound overgrown with thickets.

The Mountain of the LORD

4 In the last days

the mountain of the LORD's temple
will be established
as chief among the mountains;
it will be raised above the hills,
and peoples will stream to it.

² Many nations will come and say,

"Come, let us go up to the mountain
of the LORD,
to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us his ways,
so that we may walk in his paths."
The law will go out from Zion,
the word of the LORD from
Jerusalem.

³ He will judge between many
peoples
and will settle disputes for strong nations far and wide.
They will beat their swords into
ploughshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will not take up sword against
nation,
nor will they train for war any
more.

⁴Everyone will sit under their own vine
and under their own fig-tree,
and no-one will make them afraid,
for the LORD Almighty has spoken.

⁵All the nations may walk
in the name of their gods;
we will walk in the name of the LORD
our God for ever and ever.

The LORD's Plan

⁶"In that day," declares the LORD,

"I will gather the lame;
I will assemble the exiles
and those I have brought to grief.

⁷I will make the lame a remnant,
those driven away a strong nation.
The LORD will rule over them in Mount Zion

from that day and for ever.

⁸As for you, O watchtower of the
flock,
O stronghold^a of the Daughter of Zion,
the former dominion will be restored
to you;
kingship will come to the Daughter of Jerusalem."

⁹Why do you now cry aloud—
have you no king?
Has your counsellor perished,
that pain seizes you like that of a woman in labour?

¹⁰Write in agony, O Daughter of Zion,
like a woman in labour,
for now you must leave the city
to camp in the open field.
You will go to Babylon;
there you will be rescued.
There the LORD will redeem you out of the hand of your enemies.

¹¹But now many nations
are gathered against you.
They say, "Let her be defiled,
let our eyes gloat over Zion!"

¹²But they do not know
the thoughts of the LORD;
they do not understand his plan,

he who gathers them like sheaves
to the threshing-floor.

¹³"Rise and thresh, O Daughter of Zion,
for I will give you horns of iron;
I will give you hoofs of bronze and you will break to pieces many
nations."

You will devote their ill-gotten gains
to the LORD,
their wealth to the Lord of all the
earth.

A Promised Ruler from Bethlehem

5 Marshal your troops, O city of troops,^a
for a siege is laid against us.
They will strike Israel's ruler
on the cheek with a rod.

²"But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans^b of Judah,
out of you will come for me
one who will be ruler over Israel,
whose origins^c are from of old,
from ancient times."^d

³Therefore Israel will be abandoned until the time when she who is in labour gives birth
and the rest of his people return to join the Israelites.

⁴He will stand and shepherd his flock
in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
And they will live securely, for then his greatness
will reach to the ends of the earth.
⁵ And he will be their peace.

Deliverance and Destruction

When the Assyrian invades our land and marches through our fortresses,

^a Or hill ^{a1} Or Strengthen your walls, O walled city
^{a2} Or from days of eternity

^{b2} Or rulers ^{c2} Hebrew goings out

we will raise against him seven shepherds,
 even eight leaders of people.
⁶They will rule^e the land of Assyria
 with the sword,
 the land of Nimrod with drawn sword.^f
 He will deliver us from the Assyrian
 when he invades our land and marches into our borders.

⁷The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples
 like dew from the LORD,
 like showers on the grass,
 which do not wait for mortals
 or linger for anyone.

⁸The remnant of Jacob will be among
 the nations,
 in the midst of many peoples,
 like a lion among the beasts of the
 forest,
 like a young lion among flocks of
 sheep,
 which mauls and mangles as it goes,
 and no-one can rescue.

⁹Your hand will be lifted up in triumph
 over your enemies,
 and all your foes will be destroyed.

¹⁰"In that day," declares the LORD,

"I will destroy your horses from among you
 and demolish your chariots.

¹¹I will destroy the cities of your land
 and tear down all your strongholds.

¹²I will destroy your witchcraft
 and you will no longer cast spells.

¹³I will destroy your carved images and your sacred stones from among
 you;

you will no longer bow down
 to the work of your hands.

¹⁴I will uproot from among you your Asherah poles^g
 and demolish your cities.

¹⁵I will take vengeance in anger and
 wrath
 upon the nations that have not obeyed me."

The LORD's Case Against Israel

6 Listen to what the LORD says:

"Stand up, plead your case before the
 mountains;
 let the hills hear what you have to
 say.

²Hear, O mountains, the LORD's accusation;
 listen, you everlasting foundations
 of the earth.

For the LORD has a case against his
 people;
 he is lodging a charge against
 Israel.

³"My people, what have I done to you?
 How have I burdened you? Answer
 me.

⁴I brought you up out of Egypt and redeemed you from the land of slavery.

I sent Moses to lead you,
 also Aaron and Miriam.

⁵My people, remember what Balak king of Moab
 counselled
 and what Balaam son of Beor
 answered.

Remember ¹your journey ²from
 Shittim to Gilgal,
 that you may know the righteous
 acts of the LORD."

⁶With what shall I come before the LORD
 and bow down before the exalted
 God?

Shall I come before him with burnt
 offerings,
 with calves a year old?

⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
 with ten thousand rivers of oil?
 Shall I offer my firstborn for my
 transgression,

the fruit of my body for the sin of
 my soul?

⁸He has showed you, O people, what is good.

⁶ Or crush ^f Or Nimrod in its gates ^g14 That is, symbols of the goddess Asherah

And what does the LORD require of you?

To act justly and to love mercy
and to walk humbly with your God.

Israel's Guilt and Punishment

⁹Listen! The LORD is calling to the city—and to fear your name is wisdom—“Heed the rod and the One who appointed it.”^a

¹⁰Am I still to forget, O wicked house, your ill-gotten treasures
and the short ephah,^b which is accursed?

¹¹Shall I acquit a person with dishonest
scales,
with a bag of false weights?

¹²Her rich people are violent;
her inhabitants are liars
and their tongues speak deceitfully.

¹³Therefore, I have begun to destroy
you,
to ruin you because of your sins.

¹⁴You will eat but not be satisfied;
your stomach will still be empty.^c
You will store up but save nothing, because what you save I will give to the sword.

¹⁵You will plant but not harvest;
you will press olives but not use the oil on yourselves,
you will crush grapes but not drink
the wine.

¹⁶You have observed the statutes of Omri
and all the practices of Ahab's
house,
and you have followed their traditions.

Therefore I will give you over to ruin
and your people to derision;
you will bear the scorn of the nations.”^d

7 What misery is mine!
I am like one who gathers summer
fruit

at the gleaning of the vineyard;
there is no cluster of grapes to eat,
none of the early figs that I crave.

²The godly have been swept from the
land;

not one upright person remains.
Everyone lies in wait to shed blood;
they hunt each other with nets.

³Both hands are skilled in doing evil;
the ruler demands gifts,
the judge accepts bribes,
the powerful dictate what they desire—

they all conspire together.

⁴The best of them is like a brier,
the most upright worse than a thorn
hedge.

The day of your watchmen has come,
the day God visits you.
Now is the time of their confusion.

⁵Do not trust a neighbour;
put no confidence in a friend.
Even with her who lies in your embrace

be careful of your words.

⁶For a son dishonours his father,
a daughter rises up against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her
mother-in-law—
your enemies are the members of your own household.

⁷But as for me, I watch in hope for the
LORD,
I wait for God my Saviour;
my God will hear me.

Israel Will Rise

⁸Do not gloat over me, my enemy!
Though I have fallen, I will rise.
Though I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light.

⁹Because I have sinned against him,
I will bear the LORD's wrath,
until he pleads my case
and establishes my right.

He will bring me out into the light;
I will see his righteousness.

 the day for extending your

 and from sea to sea
 and from mountain to mountain.

¹³The earth will become desolate
 because of its inhabitants,
 as the result of their deeds.

Prayer and Praise

¹⁴Shepherd your people with your staff,
 the flock of your inheritance,
 which lives by itself in a forest,
 in fertile pasture-lands.^a Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead
 as in days long ago.

¹⁵"As in the days when you came out
 of Egypt,
 I will show them my wonders."

¹⁶Nations will see and be ashamed,
 deprived of all their power.
 They will lay their hands on their mouths
 and their ears will become deaf.

¹⁷They will lick dust like a snake, like creatures that crawl on the
 ground.
 They will come trembling out of their
 dens;
 they will turn in fear to the LORD
 our God
 and will be afraid of you.

¹⁸Who is a God like you,
 who pardons sin and forgives the
 transgression
 of the remnant of his
 inheritance?

You do not stay angry for ever
 but delight to show mercy.

¹⁹You will again have compassion on
 us;
 you will tread our sins
 underfoot
 and hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea.

²⁰You will be true to Jacob,
 and show mercy to Abraham,
 as you pledged on oath to our ancestors
 in days long ago.

Nahum

1 An oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

The LORD's Anger Against Nineveh

2The LORD is a jealous and avenging God;

the LORD takes vengeance and is filled with wrath.

The LORD takes vengeance on his foes and maintains his wrath against his enemies.

3The LORD is slow to anger and great in power;
the LORD will not leave the guilty unpunished.

His way is in the whirlwind and the storm,
and clouds are the dust of his feet.

4He rebukes the sea and dries it up;
he makes all the rivers run dry.
Bashan and Carmel wither
and the blossoms of Lebanon fade.

5The mountains quake before him and the hills melt away.
The earth trembles at his presence,
the world and all who live in it.

6Who can withstand his indignation?
Who can endure his fierce anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire;
the rocks are shattered before him.

7The LORD is good,
a refuge in times of trouble.
He cares for those who trust in him,
8 but with an overwhelming flood

he will make an end of Nineveh;
he will pursue his foes into darkness.

9Whatever they plot against the LORD
he^a will bring to an end;
trouble will not come a second time.
10They will be entangled among thorns
and drunk from their wine;
they will be consumed like dry stubble.^b

11From you, O Nineveh, has one come forth
who plots evil against the LORD and counsels wickedness.

12This is what the LORD says:

"Although they have allies and are
numerous,
they will be cut off and pass away.
Although I have afflicted you,
O Judah,
I will afflict you no more.

13Now I will break their yoke from your neck
and tear your shackles away."

14The LORD has given a command
concerning you, Nineveh:
"You will have no descendants to bear your name.
I will destroy the carved images and cast idols
that are in the temple of your gods.
I will prepare your grave,
for you are vile."

^{a9} Or What do you foes plot against the LORD? / He ^{b10} The meaning of the Hebrew for this verse is uncertain.

¹⁵Look, there on the mountains,
the feet of one who brings good
news,
who proclaims peace!
Celebrate your festivals, O Judah,
and fulfil your vows.
No more will the wicked invade you;
they will be completely destroyed.

Nineveh to Fall

2 An attacker advances against you,
Nineveh.
Guard the fortress,
watch the road,
brace yourselves,
marshal all your strength!

²The LORD will restore the splendour
of Jacob
like the splendour of Israel,
though destroyers have laid them
waste
and have ruined their vines.

³The shields of his soldiers are red;
the warriors are clad in scarlet.
The metal on the chariots flashes
on the day they are made ready;
the spears of pine are banished.^a

⁴The chariots storm through the streets,
rushing back and forth through the
squares.
They look like flaming torches;
they dart about like lightning.

⁵He summons his picked troops,
yet they stumble on their way.
They dash to the city wall;
the protective shield is put in place.

⁶The river gates are thrown open and the palace collapses.

⁷It is decreed^b that 'the city'
be exiled and carried away.
Its female slaves moan like doves
and beat upon their breasts.

⁸Nineveh is like a pool,
and its water is draining away.
"Stop! Stop!" they cry,
but no-one turns back.

⁹Plunder the silver!
Plunder the gold!
The supply is endless,
the wealth from all its treasures!
¹⁰She is pillaged, plundered, stripped!
Hearts melt, knees give way,
bodies tremble, every face grows
pale.

¹¹Where now is the lions' den,
the place where they fed their young,
where the lion and lioness went,
and the cubs, with nothing to fear?
¹²The lion killed enough for his cubs
and strangled the prey for his mate, filling his lairs with the kill
and his dens with the prey.

¹³"I am against you,"
declares the LORD Almighty.
"I will burn up your chariots in
smoke,
and the sword will devour your young lions.
I will leave you no prey on the
earth.
The voices of your messengers
will no longer be heard."⁵

Woe to Nineveh

3 Woe to the city of blood,
full of lies,
full of plunder,
never without victims!

²The crack of whips,
the clatter of wheels,
galloping horses
and jolting chariots!

³Charging cavalry,
flashing swords
and glittering spears!
Many casualties,
piles of dead,
bodies without number,
people stumbling over the corpses—

⁴all because of the wanton lust of a harlot,
alluring, the mistress of sorceries, who enslaved nations by her prostitution

and peoples by her witchcraft.

⁵“I am against you,” declares the LORD
Almighty.

“I will lift your skirts over your face.

I will show the nations your nakedness
and the kingdoms your shame.

⁶I will pelt you with filth,
I will treat you with contempt
and make you a spectacle.

⁷All who see you will flee from you and
say,
‘Nineveh is in ruins—who will mourn for her?’
Where can I find anyone to comfort
you?”

⁸Are you better than Thebes,^a situated on the Nile,
with water around her?

The river was her defence,
the waters her wall.

⁹Cush^b and Egypt were her boundless
strength;
Put and Libya were among her allies.

¹⁰Yet she was taken captive
and went into exile.
Her infants were dashed to pieces
at the head of every street.
Lots were cast for her nobles,
and all her leaders were put in chains.

¹¹You too will become drunk;
you will go into hiding
and seek refuge from the enemy.

¹²All your fortresses are like fig-trees
with their first ripe fruit;
when they are shaken,
the figs fall into the mouth of the eater.

¹³Look at your troops—
they are all weaklings!
The gates of your land
are wide open to your
enemies;
fire has consumed their bars.

¹⁴Draw water for the siege,
strengthen your defences!
Work the clay,
tread the mortar,
repair the brickwork!

¹⁵There the fire will devour you;
the sword will cut you down
and, like grasshoppers, consume
you.

Multiply like grasshoppers,
multiply like locusts!

¹⁶You have increased the number of your merchants till they are more than the stars of the sky,
but like locusts they strip the land
and then fly away.

¹⁷Your guards are like locusts,
your officials like swarms of locusts
that settle in the walls on a cold
day—
but when the sun appears they fly
away,
and no-one knows where.

¹⁸O king of Assyria, your shepherds^c
slumber;
your nobles lie down to rest.
Your people are scattered on the
mountains
with no-one to gather them.

¹⁹Nothing can heal your wound;
your injury is fatal.
All who hear the news about
you
clap their hands at your fall, for who has not felt
your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

1 The oracle that Habakkuk the prophet received.

Habakkuk's Complaint

²How long, O LORD, must I call for help,
but you do not listen?
Or cry out to you, "Violence!"
but you do not save?
³Why do you make me look at injustice?
Why do you tolerate wrong?
Destruction and violence are before me;
there is strife, and conflict abounds.
⁴Therefore the law is paralysed,
and justice never prevails.
The wicked hem in the righteous,
so that justice is perverted.

The LORD's Answer

⁵"Look at the nations and watch—
and be utterly amazed.
For I am going to do something in your days
that you would not believe,
even if you were told.
⁶I am raising up the Babylonians,^a that ruthless and impetuous
people,
who sweep across the whole earth
to seize dwelling-places not their own.
⁷They are a feared and dreaded
people;

they are a law to themselves
and promote their own honour.
⁸Their horses are swifter than
leopards,
fiercer than wolves at dusk.
Their cavalry gallops headlong;
their horsemen come from afar.
They fly like a vulture swooping to devour;
⁹they all come bent on violence.
Their hordes^b advance like a desert
wind
and gather prisoners like sand.
¹⁰They deride kings
and scoff at rulers.
They laugh at all fortified cities;
they build earthen ramps and capture them.
¹¹Then they sweep past like the wind and go on—guilty people, whose own strength is their god."

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

¹²O LORD, are you not from everlasting?
My God, my Holy One, we will not die.
O LORD, you have appointed them to execute judgment;
O Rock, you have ordained them
to punish.
¹³Your eyes are too pure to look on evil;
you cannot tolerate wrong.
Why then do you tolerate the treacherous?

^a6 Or Chaldeans ^b9 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

- Why are you silent while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves?
 14 You have made people like fish in the sea,
like sea creatures that have no ruler.
 15 The wicked foe pulls all of them up with hooks,
he catches them in his net,
he gathers them up in his drag-net;
and so he rejoices and is glad.
 16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net
and burns incense to his drag-net,
for by his net he lives in luxury
and enjoys the choicest food.
 17 Is he to keep on emptying his net,
destroying nations without mercy?

2 I will stand at my watch and station myself on the ramparts;
I will look to see what he will say to me,
and what answer I am to give to this complaint.^a

The LORD's Answer

2 Then the LORD replied:

"Write down the revelation and make it plain on tablets
so that a herald^b may run with it.

3 For the revelation awaits an appointed time;
it speaks of the end
and will not prove false.
Though it linger, wait for it;
it^c will certainly come and will not delay.

4 "See, he is puffed up;
his desires are not upright—
but the righteous will live by their faith—^d

5 indeed, wine betrays him;
he is arrogant and never at rest.
Because he is as greedy as the grave^e
and like death is never satisfied,

he gathers to himself all the nations
and takes captive all the peoples.

6 "Will not all of them taunt him with ridicule and scorn, saying,

"Woe to him who piles up stolen goods
and makes himself wealthy by extortion!
How long must this go on?"

7 Will not your debtors/ suddenly arise?
Will they not wake up and make you tremble?

Then you will become their victim.

8 Because you have plundered many
nations,
the peoples who are left will plunder you.

For you have shed human blood;
you have destroyed lands and cities
and everyone in them.

9 "Woe to him who builds his realm by unjust gain
to set his nest on high,
to escape the clutches of ruin!

10 You have plotted the ruin of many
peoples,
shaming your own house and forfeiting your life.

11 The stones of the wall will cry out,
and the beams of the woodwork
will echo it.

12 "Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed
and establishes a town by crime!

13 Has not the LORD Almighty determined that the people's labour is only fuel
for the fire,
that nations exhaust themselves for
nothing?

14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
as the waters cover the sea.

15 "Woe to him who gives drink to his
neighbours,

¹⁶You will be filled with shame instead of glory.

Now it is your turn! Drink and be exposed!¹⁸

The cup from the LORD's right hand is coming round to you,
and disgrace will cover your glory.

¹⁷The violence you have done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and your destruction of animals will terrify you.

For you have shed human blood;
you have destroyed lands and cities
and everyone in them.

¹⁸"Of what value is an idol, since someone has carved it?

Or an image that teaches lies?

For those who make them trust in their own creations;
they make idols that cannot speak.

¹⁹Woe to him who says to wood, 'Come to life!'

Or to lifeless stone, 'Wake up!'

Can it give guidance?

It is covered with gold and silver;
there is no breath in it.

²⁰But the LORD is in his holy temple;
let all the earth be silent before
him."

Habakkuk's Prayer

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet.
On shigionoth.^a

²LORD, I have heard of your fame;
I stand in awe of your deeds,
O LORD.

Renew them in our day,
in our time make them known;
in wrath remember mercy.

³God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Selah^b

His glory covered the heavens
and his praise filled the earth.

⁴His splendour was like the sunrise;
rays flashed from his hand,
where his power was hidden.

⁵Plague went before him;
pestilence followed his steps.

⁶He stood, and shook the earth;
he looked, and made the nations
tremble.

The ancient mountains crumbled
and the age-old hills collapsed.
His ways are eternal.

⁷I saw the tents of Cushan in distress,
the dwellings of Midian in anguish.

⁸Were you angry with the rivers,
O LORD?

Was your wrath against the
streams?

Did you rage against the sea
when you rode with your horses and your victorious chariots?

⁹You uncovered your bow,
you called for many arrows. Selah

writhed.

at the lightning of your flashing

to save your anointed one.

You crushed the leader of the land of
wickedness,
you stripped him from head to foot.

Zephaniah

1 The word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, during the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah:

Warning of Coming Destruction

²"I will sweep away everything from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.
³"I will sweep away both people and animals;
I will sweep away the birds of the air and the fish of the sea.
The wicked will have only heaps of rubble^a when I cut off people from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.

Against Judah

⁴"I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all who live in Jerusalem.
I will cut off from this place every remnant of Baal, the names of the pagan and the idolatrous priests—⁵those who bow down on the roofs to worship the starry host, those who bow down and swear by the LORD and who also swear by Molech,^b

those who turn back from following the LORD and neither seek the LORD nor enquire of him.

⁷Be silent before the Sovereign LORD, for the day of the LORD is near. The LORD has prepared a sacrifice; he has consecrated those he has invited.

⁸On the day of the LORD's sacrifice I will punish the princes and the king's sons and all those clad in foreign clothes.

⁹On that day I will punish all who avoid stepping on the threshold,^c who fill the temple of their gods with violence and deceit.

¹⁰"On that day," declares the LORD, "a cry will go up from the Fish Gate, wailing from the New Quarter, and a loud crash from the hills.

¹¹Wail, you who live in the market district;^d all your merchants will be wiped out, all who trade with^e silver will be ruined.

¹²At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish those who are complacent, who are like wine left on its dregs,

The Great Day of the LORD

¹⁴"The great day of the LORD is near—near and coming quickly.

Listen! The cry on the day of the LORD will be bitter,
the shouting of the warrior there.

¹⁵That day will be a day of wrath,
a day of distress and anguish,
a day of trouble and ruin,
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and blackness,

¹⁶a day of trumpet and battle cry against the fortified cities
and against the corner towers.

¹⁷I will bring distress on the people and they will walk like those who
are blind,
because they have sinned against
the LORD.

Their blood will be poured out like
dust
and their entrails like filth.

¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath.

In the fire of his jealousy
the whole world will be consumed, for he will make a sudden end
of all who live in the earth."

2 Gather together, gather together,

Against Philistia

⁴Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon left in ruins.
At midday Ashdod will be emptied and Ekron uprooted.

⁵Woe to you who live by the sea,
O Kerethite people;
the word of the LORD is against you.
O Canaan, land of the Philistines.

"I will destroy you,
and none will be left."

⁶The land by the sea, where the Kerethites^a dwell,
will be a place for shepherds and sheep pens.

⁷It will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah;
there they will find pasture.
In the evening they will lie down
in the houses of Ashkelon.
The LORD their God will care for
them;
he will restore their fortunes.^b

Against Moab and Ammon

⁸"I have heard the insults of Moab
and the taunts of the Ammonites, who insulted my people
and made threats against their
land.

⁹Therefore, as surely as I live," declares the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel,
"surely Moab will become like Sodom,
the Ammonites like Gomorrah—
a place of weeds and salt pits,
a wasteland for ever.
The remnant of my people will plunder them;
the survivors of my nation will inherit their land."

^a6 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

^b7 Or will bring back their captives

- ¹⁰This is what they will get in return for their pride,
for insulting and mocking the people of the LORD Almighty.
¹¹The LORD will be awesome to them when he destroys all the gods of the land.

Against Cush

- ¹²"You too, O Cushites,^c

Against Assyria

- ¹³He will stretch out his hand against the north and destroy Assyria,
leaving Nineveh utterly desolate and dry as the desert.
¹⁴Flocks and herds will lie down there, creatures of every kind.
The desert owl and the screech owl will roost on her columns.

he does no wrong.

and every new day he does not fail,
yet the unrighteous know no shame.

- ⁶"I have cut off nations;
their strongholds are demolished.
I have left their streets deserted,

Haggai

A Call to Build the House of the LORD

1 In the second year of King Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua^a son of Jehozadak, the high priest:

²This is what the LORD Almighty says: "These people say, 'The time has not yet come for the LORD's house to be built.'"

³Then the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai: ⁴"Is it a time for you yourselves to be living in your panelled houses, while this house remains a ruin?"

⁵Now this is what the LORD Almighty says: "Give careful thought to your ways. ⁶You have planted much, but have harvested little. You eat, but never have enough. You drink, but never have your fill. You put on clothes, but are not warm. You earn wages, only to put them in a purse with holes in it."

⁷This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Give careful thought to your ways. ⁸Go up into the mountains and bring down timber and build the house, so that I may take pleasure in it and be honoured," says the LORD. ⁹"You expected much, but see, it turned out to be little. What you brought home, I blew away. Why?" declares the LORD Almighty. "Because of my house, which remains a ruin, while each of you is busy with his own house. ¹⁰Therefore, because of you the heavens have withheld their dew and the earth its crops. ¹¹I called for a drought on the fields and the mountains, on the grain, the new wine, the oil and whatever the ground produces, on people and animals, and on the labour of your hands."

¹²Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the whole remnant of the people obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the message of the prophet Haggai, because the LORD their God had sent him. And the people feared the LORD.

¹³Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, gave this message of the LORD to the people: "I am with you," declares the LORD. ¹⁴So the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of the whole remnant of the people. They came and began work on the house of the LORD Almighty, their God, ¹⁵on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of King Darius.

The Promised Glory of the New House

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai: ²"Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people. Ask them, ³'Who of you is left who saw this house in its former glory? How does it look to you now? Does it not seem to you like nothing? ⁴But now be strong, O Zerubbabel,' declares the LORD. 'Be strong, O Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' declares the LORD, 'and work. For I am with you,' declares the LORD Almighty. ⁵'This is what I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt. And my Spirit remains among you. Do not fear.'

⁶"This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'In a little while I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. ⁷I will shake all nations, and the desired of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD Almighty. ⁸'The silver is mine and the gold is mine,' declares the LORD Almighty. ⁹'The glory of this present house will be greater than the glory of the former house,' says the LORD Almighty. 'And in this place I will grant peace,' declares the LORD Almighty."

Blessings for a Defiled People

¹⁰On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Haggai: ¹¹"This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'Ask the priests what the law says: ¹²If a person carries consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and that fold touches some bread or stew, some wine, oil or other food, does it become consecrated?'"

The priests answered, "No."

¹³Then Haggai said, "If a person defiled by contact with a dead body touches one of these things, does it become defiled?"

"Yes," the priests replied, "it becomes defiled."

¹⁴Then Haggai said, "'So it is with this people and this nation in my sight,' declares the LORD. 'Whatever they do and whatever they offer there is defiled.'

¹⁵"'Now give careful thought to this from this day on^a—consider how things were before one stone was laid on another in the LORD's temple. ¹⁶When anyone came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When anyone went to a wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were only twenty. ¹⁷I struck all the work of your hands with blight, mildew and hail, yet you did not turn to me,' declares the LORD. ¹⁸'From this day on, from this twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, give careful thought to the day when the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid. Give careful thought: ¹⁹Is there yet any seed left in the barn? Until now, the vine and the fig-tree, the pomegranate and the olive tree have not borne fruit.

"'From this day on I will bless you.'"

Zerubbabel the LORD's Signet Ring

²⁰The word of the LORD came to Haggai a second time on the twenty-fourth day of the month: ²¹"Tell Zerubbabel governor of Judah that I will shake the heavens and the earth. ²²I will overturn royal thrones and shatter the power of the foreign kingdoms. I will overthrow chariots and their drivers; horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of a comrade.

²³"'On that day,' declares the LORD Almighty, 'I will take you, my servant Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel,' declares the LORD, 'and I will make you like my signet ring, for I have chosen you,' declares the LORD Almighty."

Zechariah

A Call to Return to the LORD

1 In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berehiah, the son of Iddo:

²“The LORD was very angry with your ancestors. ³Therefore tell the people: This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Return to me,’ declares the LORD Almighty, ‘and I will return to you,’ says the LORD Almighty. ⁴Do not be like your ancestors, to whom the earlier prophets proclaimed: This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Turn from your evil ways and your evil practices.’ But they would not listen or pay attention to me, declares the LORD. ⁵Where are your ancestors now? And the prophets, do they live for ever? ⁶But did not my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, overtake your ancestors?”

“Then they repented and said, ‘The LORD Almighty has done to us what our ways and practices deserve, just as he determined to do.’”

The Man Among the Myrtle Trees

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berehiah, the son of Iddo.

⁸During the night I had a vision—and there before me was a man riding a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in a ravine. Behind him were red, brown and white horses.

⁹I asked, “What are these, my lord?”

The angel who was talking with me answered, “I will show you what they are.”

¹⁰Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth.”

¹¹And they reported to the angel of the LORD, who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have gone throughout the earth and found the whole world at rest and in peace.”

¹²Then the angel of the LORD said, “LORD Almighty, how long will you withhold mercy from Jerusalem and from the towns of Judah, which you have been angry with these seventy years?” ¹³So the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

¹⁴Then the angel who was speaking to me said, “Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion, ¹⁵but I am very angry with the nations that feel secure. I was only a little angry, but they added to the calamity.’”

¹⁶“Therefore, this is what the LORD says: ‘I will return to Jerusalem with mercy, and there my house will be rebuilt. And the measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem,’ declares the LORD Almighty.

¹⁷“Proclaim further: This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘My towns will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.’”

Four Horns and Four Workers

¹⁸Then I looked up—and there before me were four horns! ¹⁹I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these?”

He answered me, “These are the horns that scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.”

²⁰Then the LORD showed me four skilled workers. ²¹I asked, “What are these coming to do?”

He answered, “These are the horns that scattered Judah so its people could not raise their heads, but the workers have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter its people.”

A Man With a Measuring Line

2 Then I looked up—and there before me was a man with a measuring line in his hand! ²I asked, “Where are you going?”

He answered me, “To measure Jerusalem, to find out how wide and how long it is.”

³Then the angel who was speaking to me left, and another angel came to meet him ⁴and said to him: “Run, tell that young man, ‘Jerusalem will be a city without walls because of the great number of people and animals in it.’ ⁵And I myself will be a wall of fire around it,” declares the LORD, “and I will be its glory within.”

⁷“Come, O Zion! Escape, you who live in the Daughter of Babylon!” ⁸For this is what the LORD Almighty says: “After he has honoured me and has sent me against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye—⁹I will surely raise my hand against them so that their slaves will plunder them.” ^aThen you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me.

¹⁰“Shout and be glad, O Daughter of Zion. For I am coming, and I will live among you,” declares the LORD. ¹¹“Many nations will be joined with the LORD in that day and will become my people. I will live among you and you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you. ¹²The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land and will again choose Jerusalem. ¹³Be still before the LORD, all people, because he has roused himself from his holy dwelling.”

Clean Garments for the High Priest

3 Then he showed me Joshua^a the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan^b standing at his right side to accuse him. ²The LORD said to Satan, “The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Is not this man a burning stick snatched from the fire?”

³Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood before the angel. ⁴The angel said to those who were standing before him, “Take off his filthy clothes.”

Then he said to Joshua, “See, I have taken away your sin, and I will put rich garments on you.”

⁵Then I said, “Put a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood by.

⁶The angel of the LORD gave this charge to Joshua: ⁷“This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘If you will walk in my ways and keep my requirements, then you will govern my house and have charge of my courts, and I will give you a place among these standing here.’

⁸“Listen, O high priest Joshua and your associates seated before you, you who are symbolic of things to come: I am going to bring my servant, the Branch. ⁹See, the stone I have set in front of Joshua! There are seven eyes^c on that one stone, and I will engrave an inscription on it,” says the LORD Almighty, “and I will remove the sin of this land in a single day.

¹⁰“In that day each of you will invite your neighbour to sit under your vine and fig-tree,' declares the LORD Almighty."

The Gold Lampstand and the Two Olive Trees

4 Then the angel who talked with me returned and wakened me, as one is wakened from sleep. ²He asked me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl at the top and seven lights on it, with seven channels to the lights. ³Also there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left."

⁴I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵He answered, "Do you not know what these are?"

"No, my lord," I replied.

⁶So he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: 'Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says the LORD Almighty.

⁷"What^a are you, O mighty mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become level ground. Then he will bring out the capstone to shouts of 'God bless it! God bless it!'" ⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this temple; his hands will also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD Almighty has sent me to you.

¹⁰"Who despises the day of small things? People will rejoice when they see the plumb-line in the hand of Zerubbabel. "(These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which range throughout the earth.)"

¹¹Then I asked the angel, "What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?"

¹²Again I asked him, "What are these two olive branches beside the two gold pipes that pour out golden oil?"

¹³He replied, "Do you not know what these are?"

"No, my lord," I said.

¹⁴So he said, "These are the two who are anointed to^b serve the Lord of all the earth."

The Flying Scroll

5 I looked again—and there before me was a flying scroll!

²He asked me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a flying scroll, thirty feet long and fifteen feet wide."^a ³And he said to me, "This is the curse that is going out over the whole land; for according to what it says on one side, every thief will be banished, and according to what it says on the other, everyone who swears falsely will be banished. ⁴The LORD Almighty declares, 'I will send it out, and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of anyone who swears falsely by my name. It will remain in that house and destroy it, both its timbers and its stones.'"

The Woman in a Basket

⁵Then the angel who was speaking to me came forward and said to me, "Look up and see what this is that is appearing."

⁶I asked, "What is it?"

He replied, "It is a measuring basket."^b And he added, "This is the iniquity^c of the people throughout the land."

⁷Then the cover of lead was raised, and there in the basket sat a woman!⁸ He said, "This is wickedness," and he pushed her back into the basket and pushed the lead cover down over its mouth.

⁹Then I looked up—and there before me were two women, with the wind in their wings! They had wings like those of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between heaven and earth.

¹⁰"Where are they taking the basket?" I asked the angel who was speaking to me.

¹¹He replied, "To the country of Babylon^d to build a house for it. When it is ready, the basket will be set there in its place."

Four Chariots

6 I looked up again—and there before me were four chariots coming out from between two mountains—mountains of bronze! ²The first chariot had red horses, the second black, ³the third white, and the fourth dappled—all of them powerful. ⁴I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these, my lord?”

⁵The angel answered me, “These are the four spirits^a of heaven, going out from standing in the presence of the Lord of the whole world. ⁶The one with the black horses is going towards the north country, the one with the white horses towards the west,^b and the one with the dappled horses towards the south.”

⁷When the powerful horses went out, they were straining to go throughout the earth. And he said, “Go throughout the earth!” So they went throughout the earth.

⁸Then he called to me, “Look, those going towards the north country have given my Spirit^c rest in the land of the north.”

A Crown for Joshua

⁹The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁰“Take silver and gold,^d from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon. Go the same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. ¹¹Take the silver and gold and make a crown, and set it on the head of the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak. ¹²Tell him this is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Here is the man whose name is the Branch, and he will branch out from his place and build the temple of the LORD. ¹³It is he who will build the temple of the LORD, and he will be clothed with majesty and will sit and rule on his throne. And he will be a priest on his throne. And there will be harmony between the two.’ ¹⁴The crown will be given to Heldai,^d Tobijah, Jedaiah and Hen^e son of Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

Justice and Mercy, Not Fasting

7 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Kislev. ²The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melech, together with their men, to entreat the LORD ³by asking the priests of the house of the LORD Almighty and the prophets. “Should I mourn and fast in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?”

⁴Then the word of the LORD Almighty came to me: ⁵“Ask all the people of the land and the priests, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months for the past seventy years, was it really for me that you fasted? ⁶And when you were eating and drinking, were you not just feasting for yourselves? ⁷Are these not the words the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets when Jerusalem and its surrounding towns were at rest and prosperous, and the Negev and the western foothills were settled?’”

⁸And the word of the LORD came again to Zechariah: ⁹“This is what the LORD Almighty says: ‘Administer true justice; show mercy and compassion to one another. ¹⁰Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the alien or the poor. In your hearts do not think evil of each other.’”

¹¹“But they refused to pay attention; stubbornly they turned their backs and stopped up their ears. ¹²They made their hearts as hard as flint and would not listen to the law or to the words that the LORD Almighty had sent by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. So the LORD Almighty was very angry.

¹³“‘When I called, they did not listen; so when they called, I would not listen,’ says the LORD Almighty. ¹⁴I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations, where they were strangers. The land was left so desolate behind them that no-one could come or go. This is how they made the pleasant land desolate.'"

^d14 Syriac; Hebrew Helem

The LORD Promises to Bless Jerusalem

8 Again the word of the LORD Almighty came to me. ²This is what the LORD Almighty says: "I am very jealous for Zion; I am burning with jealousy for her."

³This is what the LORD says: "I will return to Zion and dwell in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD Almighty will be called the Holy Mountain."

⁴This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Once again men and women of ripe old age will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each of them with cane in hand because of their age. ⁵The city streets will be filled with boys and girls playing there."

⁶This is what the LORD Almighty says: "It may seem marvellous to the remnant of this people at that time, but will it seem marvellous to me?" declares the LORD Almighty.

⁷This is what the LORD Almighty says: "I will save my people from the countries of the east and the west. ⁸I will bring them back to live in Jerusalem; they will be my people, and I will be faithful and righteous to them as their God."

⁹This is what the LORD Almighty says: "You who now hear these words spoken by the prophets who were there when the foundation was laid for the house of the LORD Almighty, let your hands be strong so that the temple may be built. ¹⁰Before that time there were no wages for people or animals. People could not go about their business safely because of the enemy, for I had turned all of them against each other. ¹¹But now I will not deal with the remnant of this people as I did in the past," declares the LORD Almighty.

¹²"The seed will grow well, the vine will yield its fruit, the ground will produce its crops, and the heavens will drop their dew. I will give all these things as an inheritance to the remnant of this people.

¹³As you have been an object of cursing

among the nations, O Judah and Israel, so will I save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid, but let your hands be strong."

¹⁴This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Just as I had determined to bring disaster upon you and showed no pity when your ancestors angered me," says the LORD Almighty, ¹⁵"so now I have determined to do good again to Jerusalem and Judah. Do not be afraid. ¹⁶These are the things you are to do: Speak the truth to each other, and render true and sound judgment in your courts; ¹⁷do not plot evil against your neighbour, and do not love to swear falsely. I hate all this," declares the LORD.

¹⁸Again the word of the LORD Almighty came to me. ¹⁹This is what the LORD Almighty says: "The fasts of the fourth, fifth, seventh and tenth months will become joyful and glad occasions and happy festivals for Judah. Therefore love truth and peace."

²⁰This is what the LORD Almighty says: "Many peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come, ²¹and the inhabitants of one city will go to another and say, 'Let us go at once to entreat the LORD and seek the LORD Almighty. I myself am going.' ²²And many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the LORD Almighty and to entreat him."

²³This is what the LORD Almighty says: "In those days ten people from all languages and nations will take firm hold of one Jew by the hem of his robe and say, 'Let us go with you, because we have heard that God is with you.'"

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

An Oracle

9 The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus—for the eyes of all people and all the tribes of Israel are on the LORD—^a ^a1 Or Damascus. / For the eye of the LORD is on all people, / as well as on the tribes of Israel.

²and upon Hamath too, which borders
on it,
and upon Tyre and Sidon, though they are very skilful.

³Tyre has built herself a stronghold;
she has heaped up silver like dust,
and gold like the dirt of the streets.

⁴But the Lord will take away her
possessions
and destroy her power on the sea,
and she will be consumed by fire.

⁵Ashkelon will see it and fear;
Gaza will writhe in agony,
and Ekron too, for her hope will wither.

Gaza will lose her king
and Ashkelon will be deserted.

⁶Foreigners will occupy Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

⁷I will take the blood from their
mouths,
the forbidden food from between their teeth.

Those who are left will belong to our
God

and become leaders in Judah, and Ekron will be like the Jebusites.

⁸But I will defend my house against marauding forces.
Never again will an oppressor overrun
my people,
for now I am keeping watch.

The Coming of Zion's King

⁹Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion!
Shout, Daughter of Jerusalem!
See, your king^b comes to you,
righteous and having salvation,
gentle and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

¹⁰I will take away the chariots from Ephraim
and the war-horses from
Jerusalem,
and the battle-bow will be broken.
He will proclaim peace to the nations.
His rule will extend from sea to sea
and from the River^c to the ends of
the earth.^d

¹¹As for you, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
I will free your prisoners from the waterless pit.

¹²Return to your fortress, O prisoners of hope;
even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you.

¹³I will bend Judah as I bend my bow and fill it with Ephraim.
I will rouse your sons, O Zion,
against your sons, O Greece,
and make you like a warrior's
sword.

The LORD Will Appear

¹⁴Then the LORD will appear over them:
his arrow will flash like lightning.
The Sovereign LORD will sound the
trumpet;

he will march in the storms of the south,

¹⁵and the LORD Almighty will shield
them.

They will destroy
and overcome with slingstones.

They will drink and roar as with wine;
they will be full like a bowl used for sprinkling^e the corners of the altar.

¹⁶The LORD their God will save them on
that day
as the flock of his people.
They will sparkle in his land
like jewels in a crown.

¹⁷How attractive and beautiful they will be!

Grain will make the young men thrive,
and new wine the young women.

they will be as numerous as before.

peoples,
yet in distant lands they will remember me.

They and their children will survive,
and they will return.

¹⁰I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria.

I will bring them to Gilead and Lebanon,
and there will not be room enough
for them.

¹¹They will pass through the sea of
trouble;
the surging sea will be subdued and all the depths of the Nile will dry up.

Assyria's pride will be brought down and Egypt's sceptre will pass away.

¹²I will strengthen them in the LORD and in his name they will walk,"
declares the LORD.

11 Open your doors, O Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedars!

fallen;

the stately trees are ruined!
Wail, oaks of Bashan;
the dense forest has been cut down!

³Listen to the wail of the shepherds:
their rich pastures are destroyed!
Listen to the roar of the lions;
the lush thicket of the Jordan is ruined!

Two Shepherds

⁴This is what the LORD my God says:
"Pasture the flock marked for slaughter.

⁵Their buyers slaughter them and go unpunished. Those who sell them say,
'Praise the LORD, I am rich!' Their own shepherds do not spare them. ⁶For I will no longer have pity on the people of the land," declares the LORD. "I will hand them all over to their neighbours and their king. They will oppress the land, and I will not rescue them from their hands."

⁷So I pastured the flock marked for slaughter, particularly the oppressed of the flock. Then I took two staves and called one Favour and the other Union, and I pastured the flock. ⁸In one month I got rid of the three shepherds.

^a4, 5 Or ruler, all of them together. / ⁵They

The flock detested me, and I grew weary of them ⁹and said, "I will not be your shepherd. Let the dying die, and the perishing perish. Let those who are left eat one another's flesh."

¹⁰Then I took my staff called Favour and broke it, revoking the covenant I had made with all the nations. ¹¹It was revoked on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock who were watching me knew it was the word of the LORD.

¹²I told them, "If you think it best, give me my pay; but if not, keep it." So they paid me thirty pieces of silver.

¹³And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"—the handsome price at which they priced me! So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD to the potter.

¹⁴Then I broke my second staff called Union, breaking the family bond between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵Then the LORD said to me, "Take again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶For I am going to raise up a shepherd over the land who will not care for the lost, or seek the young, or heal the injured, or feed the healthy, but will eat the meat of the choice sheep, tearing off their hoofs.

¹⁷"Woe to the worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock!
May the sword strike his arm and his right eye!
May his arm be completely
withered,
his right eye totally blinded!"

Jerusalem's Enemies to Be Destroyed

An Oracle

12 This is the word of the LORD concerning Israel. The LORD, who stretches out the heavens, who lays the foundation of the earth, and who forms the spirit in human beings, declares: ²"I am going to make Jerusalem a cup that sends all the surrounding peoples reeling. Judah will be besieged as well as

Jerusalem. ³On that day, when all the nations of the earth are gathered against her, I will make Jerusalem an immovable rock for all the nations. All who try to move it will injure themselves. ⁴On that day I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness," declares the LORD. "I will keep a watchful eye over the house of Judah, but I will blind all the horses of the nations. ⁵Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts, 'The people of Jerusalem are strong, because the LORD Almighty is their God.'

⁶"On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a brazier in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among sheaves. They will consume right and left all the surrounding peoples, but Jerusalem will remain intact in her place.

⁷"The LORD will save the dwellings of Judah first, so that the honour of the house of David and of Jerusalem's inhabitants may not be greater than that of Judah. ⁸On that day the LORD will shield those who live in Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the Angel of the LORD going before them. ⁹On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that attack Jerusalem.

Mourning for the One They Pierced

¹⁰"And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit ^aof grace and supplication. They will look on ^bme, the one they have pierced, and they will mourn for him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for him as one grieves for a firstborn son. ¹¹On that day the weeping in Jerusalem will be great, like the weeping of Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. ¹²The land will mourn, each clan by itself, with their wives by themselves: the clan of the house of David and their wives, the clan of the house of Nathan and their wives, ¹³the clan of the house of Levi and their wives, the clan of Shimei and their wives, ¹⁴and all the rest of the clans and their wives.

Cleansing From Sin

13 “On that day a fountain will be opened to the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and impurity.

²“On that day, I will banish the names of the idols from the land, and they will be remembered no more,” declares the LORD Almighty. “I will remove both the prophets and the spirit of impurity from the land. ³And if some still prophesy, their fathers and mothers, to whom they were born, will say to them, ‘You must die, because you have told lies in the LORD’s name.’ When they prophesy, their own parents will stab them.

⁴“On that day the prophets will all be ashamed of their prophetic visions. They will not put on a prophet’s garment of hair in order to deceive. ⁵Every one of them will say, ‘I am not a prophet. I am a farmer; the land has been my livelihood since my youth.’” ⁶If someone asks, ‘What are these wounds on your body?’^b they will answer, ‘The wounds I was given at the house of my friends.’

The Shepherd Struck, the Sheep Scattered

⁷“Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is close to me!”
declares the LORD Almighty.

“Strike the shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered,
and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

⁸In the whole land,” declares the LORD,

“two-thirds will be struck down and perish;
yet one-third will be left in it.

⁹This third I will bring into the fire;
I will refine them like silver and test them like gold.

They will call on my name
and I will answer them;

I will say, ‘They are my people,’
and they will say, ‘The LORD is our God.’”

The LORD Comes and Reigns

14 A day of the LORD is coming when your plunder will be divided among you.

²I will gather all the nations to Jerusalem to fight against it; the city will be captured, the houses ransacked, and the women raped. Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be taken from the city.

³Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as he fights in the day of battle. ⁴On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half of the mountain moving north and half moving south. ⁵You will flee by my mountain valley, for it will extend to Azel. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake^a in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

⁶On that day there will be no light, no cold or frost. ⁷It will be a unique day, without daytime or night-time—a day known to the LORD. When evening comes, there will be light.

⁸On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half to the eastern sea^b and half to the western sea,^c in summer and in winter.

⁹The LORD will be king over the whole earth. On that day there will be one LORD, and his name the only name.

¹⁰The whole land, from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will become like the Arabah. But Jerusalem will be raised up and remain in its place, from the Benjamin Gate to the site of the First Gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses. ¹¹It will be inhabited; never again will it be destroyed. Jerusalem will be secure.

¹²This is the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

¹³On that day people will be stricken by the LORD with great panic. They will seize each other by the hand and attack one another. ¹⁴Judah too will fight at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected—great quantities of gold and silver and clothing. ¹⁵A similar plague will strike the horses and mules, the camels and donkeys, and all the animals in those camps.

¹⁶Then the survivors from all the nations that have attacked Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD Almighty, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁷If any of the peoples of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD Almighty, they will have no rain. ¹⁸If the Egyptian people do not go up and take part, they will have no rain. The LORD^d will bring on them the plague he inflicts on the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁹This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

²⁰On that day HOLY TO THE LORD will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, and the cooking pots in the LORD's house will be like the sacred bowls in front of the altar. ²¹Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD Almighty, and all who come to sacrifice will take some of the pots and cook in them. And on that day there will no longer be a Canaanite^e in the house of the LORD Almighty.

Malachi

1 An oracle: The word of the LORD to Israel through Malachi.^a

Jacob Loved, Esau Hated

²“I have loved you,” says the LORD.

“But you ask, ‘How have you loved us?’

‘Was not Esau Jacob’s brother?’ the LORD says. “Yet I have loved Jacob, ³but Esau I have hated, and I have turned his mountains into a wasteland and left his inheritance to the desert jackals.”

⁴Edom may say, “Though we have been crushed, we will rebuild the ruins.”

But this is what the LORD Almighty says: “They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called the Wicked Land, a people always under the wrath of the LORD. ⁵You will see it with your own eyes and say, ‘Great is the LORD—even beyond the borders of Israel!’

Blemished Sacrifices

⁶“A son honours his father, and slaves honour their master. If I am a father, where is the honour due to me? If I am a master, where is the respect due to me?” says the LORD Almighty. “It is you, O priests, who show contempt for my name.

“But you ask, ‘How have we shown contempt for your name?’

⁷“You place defiled food on my altar.

“But you ask, ‘How have we defiled you?’

“By saying that the LORD’s table is contemptible. ⁸When you bring blind animals for sacrifice, is that not wrong? When you sacrifice crippled or diseased animals, is that not wrong? Try offering them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you?” says the LORD Almighty.

⁹“Now implore God to be gracious to us. With such offerings from your hands, will he accept you?”—says the LORD Almighty.

¹⁰“Oh, that one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would not light useless fires on my altar! I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD Almighty, “and I will accept no offering from your hands.

¹¹My name will be great among the nations, from the rising to the setting of the sun. In every place incense and pure offerings will be brought to my name, because my name will be great among the nations,” says the LORD Almighty.

¹²“But you profane it by saying of the Lord’s table, ‘It is defiled’, and of its food, ‘It is contemptible.’ ¹³And you say, ‘What a burden!’ and you sniff at it contemptuously,” says the LORD Almighty.

“When you bring injured, crippled or diseased animals and offer them as sacrifices, should I accept them from your hands?” says the LORD. ¹⁴“Cursed is the cheat who has an acceptable male in the flock and vows to give it, but then sacrifices a blemished animal to the Lord. For I am a great king,” says the LORD Almighty, “and my name is to be feared among the nations.

^a1 Malachi means my messenger.

Admonition for the Priests

2 "And now this admonition is for you, O priests. ²If you do not listen, and if you do not set your heart to honour my name," says the LORD Almighty, "I will send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have already cursed them, because you have not set your heart to honour me.

³"Because of you I will rebuke^a your descendants;^b I will spread on your faces the offal from your festival sacrifices, and you will be carried off with it. ⁴And you will know that I have sent you this admonition so that my covenant with Levi may continue," says the LORD Almighty. ⁵"My covenant was with him, a covenant of life and peace, and I gave them to him; this called for reverence and he revered me and stood in awe of my name. ⁶True instruction was in his mouth and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many from sin.

⁷"For the lips of a priest ought to preserve knowledge, and from his mouth people should seek instruction—because he is the messenger of the LORD Almighty. ⁸But you have turned from the way and by your teaching have caused many to stumble; you have violated the covenant with Levi," says the LORD Almighty. ⁹"So I have caused you to be despised and humiliated before all the people, because you have not followed my ways but have shown partiality in matters of the law."

Judah Unfaithful

¹⁰Have we not all one Father?^c Did not one God create us? Why do we profane the covenant of our ancestors by breaking faith with one another?

¹¹Judah has broken faith. A detestable thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: Judah has desecrated the sanctuary the LORD loves, by marrying the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²If you do this, whoever you may be, may the LORD cut you off from the tents of Jacob^d—even though you bring offerings to the LORD Almighty.

¹³Another thing you do: You flood the LORD's altar with tears. You weep and wail because he no longer pays attention to your offerings or accepts them with pleasure from your hands. ¹⁴You ask, "Why?" It is because the LORD is acting as the witness between you and the wife of your youth, because you have broken faith with her, though she is your partner, the wife of your marriage covenant.

¹⁵Has not the LORD^e made them one? In flesh and spirit they are his. And why one? Because he was seeking godly offspring.^e So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith with the wife of your youth.

¹⁶"I hate divorce," says the LORD God of Israel, "and I hate when people cover themselves with violence as well as with their garments," says the LORD Almighty.

So guard yourself in your spirit, and do not break faith.

The Day of Judgment

¹⁷You have wearied the LORD with your words.

"How have we wearied him?" you ask.

By saying, "All who do evil are good in the eyes of the LORD, and he is pleased with them" or "Where is the God of justice?"

3 "See, I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the LORD Almighty.

²But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire or a launderer's soap. ³He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver. Then the LORD will have people who will bring

^{a3} Or cut off (see Septuagint) ^{b3} Or will blight your corn ^{c10} Or father

^{d12} Or ¹²May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob anyone who gives testimony on behalf of the one who does this

^{e15} Or ¹⁵But the one who is our father, did not do this, not as long as life remained in him. And what was he seeking? An offspring from God ^{f16} Or their spouses offerings in righteousness,⁴ and the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will be acceptable to the LORD, as in days gone by, as in former years.

⁵“So I will come near to you for judgment. I will be quick to testify against sorcerers, adulterers and perjurers, against those who defraud labourers of their wages, who oppress the widows and the fatherless, and deprive aliens of justice, but do not fear me,” says the LORD Almighty.

Robbing God

⁶“I the LORD do not change. So you, O descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed. ⁷Ever since the time of your ancestors you have turned away from my decrees and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD Almighty.

“But you ask, ‘How are we to return?’

⁸“Will a mere mortal rob God? Yet you rob me.

“But you ask, ‘How do we rob you?’

“In tithes and offerings. ⁹You are under a curse—the whole nation of you—because you are robbing me. ¹⁰Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this,” says the LORD Almighty, “and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that you will not have room enough for it. ¹¹I will prevent pests from devouring your crops, and the vines in your fields will not cast their fruit,” says the LORD Almighty. ¹²“Then all the nations will call you blessed, for yours will be a delightful land,” says the LORD Almighty.

¹³“You have said harsh things against me,” says the LORD.

“Yet you ask, ‘What have we said against you?’

¹⁴“You have said, ‘It is futile to serve God. What did we gain by carrying out his requirements and going about like mourners before the LORD Almighty?’ ¹⁵But now we call the arrogant blessed. Certainly the evildoers prosper, and even those who challenge God escape.’”

¹⁶Then those who feared the LORD talked with each other, and the LORD listened and heard. A scroll of remembrance was written in his presence concerning those who feared the LORD and honoured his name.

¹⁷“They will be mine,” says the LORD Almighty, “in the day when I make up my treasured possession.” ⁴ I will spare them, just as in compassion parents spare their children who serve them. ¹⁸And you will again see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.

The Day of the LORD

4 “Surely the day is coming; it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble, and that day that is coming will set them on fire,” says the LORD Almighty. “Not a root or a branch will be left to them. ²But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. And you will go out and leap like calves released from the stall. ³Then you will trample down the wicked; they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I do these things,” says the LORD Almighty.

⁴“Remember the law of my servant Moses, the decrees and laws I gave him at Horeb for all Israel.

⁵“See, I will send you the prophet Elijah before that great and dreadful day of the LORD comes. ⁶He will turn the hearts of the parents to their children, and the hearts of the children to their parents; or else I will come and strike the land with a curse.”

THE NEW TESTAMENT

Matthew

The Genealogy of Jesus

1 A record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ the son of David, the son of Abraham:

- ²Abraham was the father of Isaac,
Isaac the father of Jacob,
Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,
³Judah the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron,
Hezron the father of Ram,
⁴Ram the father of Amminadab,
Amminadab the father of Nahshon,
Nahshon the father of Salmon,
⁵Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth,
Obed the father of Jesse,
⁶and Jesse the father of King David.

David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife,

- ⁷Solomon the father of Rehoboam,
Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa,
⁸Asa the father of Jehoshaphat,
Jehoshaphat the father of Jehoram,
Jehoram the father of Uzziah, ⁹Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,

- ¹⁰Hezekiah the father of Manasseh,
Manasseh the father of Amon,
Amon the father of Josiah,
¹¹and Josiah the father of Jeconiah^a and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

- ¹²After the exile to Babylon:
Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel,
Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, ¹³Zerubbabel the father of Abiud,
Abiud the father of Eliakim,
Eliakim the father of Azor, ¹⁴Azor the father of Zadok,
Zadok the father of Akim,
Akim the father of Eliud, ¹⁵Eliud the father of Eleazar,
Eleazar the father of Matthan,
Matthan the father of Jacob,
¹⁶and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

¹⁷Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.^b

The Birth of Jesus Christ

¹⁸This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit.
¹⁹Because Joseph her husband was a righteous man and did not want to expose

^aThat is, Jehoiachin; also in verse 12

^b17 Or Messiah. "The Christ" (Greek) and "the Messiah" (Hebrew) both mean "the Anointed One".

her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly.

²⁰But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus,^c because he will save his people from their sins."

²²All this took place to fulfil what the Lord had said through the prophet: ²³"The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel"^d—which means, "God with us."

²⁴When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. ²⁵But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus.

The Visit of the Magi

2 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi^a from the east came to Jerusalem² and asked, "Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star in the east^b and have come to worship him."

³When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴When he had called together all the people's chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Christ^c was to be born. ⁵"In Bethlehem in Judea," they replied, "for this is what the prophet has written:

⁶"But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of my people Israel."^d

⁷Then Herod called the Magi secretly

and found out from them the exact time the star had appeared. ⁸He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and make a careful search for the child. As soon as you find him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship him."

⁹After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen in the east^e went ahead of them until it stopped over the place where the child was. ¹⁰When they saw the star, they were overjoyed. ¹¹On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold and of incense and of myrrh. ¹²And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their country by another route.

The Escape to Egypt

¹³When they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. "Get up," he said, "take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the child to kill him."

¹⁴So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt, ¹⁵where he stayed until the death of Herod. And so was fulfilled what the Lord had said through the prophet: "Out of Egypt I called my son."^f

¹⁶When Herod realised that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was furious, and he gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had learned from the Magi. ¹⁷Then what was said through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

¹⁸"A voice is heard in Ramah,
weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children
and refusing to be comforted,
because they are no more."^g

The Return to Nazareth

¹⁹After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt ²⁰and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who were trying to take the child's life are dead."

²¹So he got up, took the child and his mother and went to the land of Israel.

²²But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee, ²³and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth. So was fulfilled what was said through the prophets: "He will be called a Nazarene."

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the Desert of Judea ²and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near." ³This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah:

"A voice of one calling in the desert,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.'"^a

⁴John's clothes were made of camel's hair, and he had a leather belt round his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan. ⁶Confessing their sins, they were baptised by him in the Jordan River.

⁷But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptising, he said to them: "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. ⁹And do not think you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹¹"I baptise you with^b water for repentance. But after me will come one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not fit to carry. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹²His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing-floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

The Baptism of Jesus

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptised by John. ¹⁴But John tried to deter him, saying, "I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?"

¹⁵Jesus replied, "Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfil all righteousness." Then John consented.

¹⁶As soon as Jesus was baptised, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. ¹⁷And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

²After fasting for forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. ³The tempter came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

⁴Jesus answered, "It is written: 'People do not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'^a"

⁵Then the devil took him to the holy city and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. ⁶"If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down. For it is written:

" 'He will command his angels
concerning you,
and they will lift you up in their
hands,
so that you will not strike your foot
against a stone.'^b "

^a3 Isaiah 40:3 ^b11 Or in ^a4 Deut. 8:3 ^b6 Psalm 91:11,12

⁷Jesus answered him, "It is also written: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'^c"

⁸Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. ⁹"All this I will give you," he said, "if you will bow down and worship me."

¹⁰Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.'^d"

¹¹Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.

Jesus Begins to Preach

¹²When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he returned to Galilee.

¹³Leaving Nazareth, he went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali—¹⁴to fulfil what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁵"Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way to the sea, along the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles—

¹⁶the people living in darkness
have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of the shadow of death
a light has dawned."^e

¹⁷From that time on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

The Calling of the First Disciples

¹⁸As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹"Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men and women." ²⁰At once they left their nets and followed him.

²¹Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, ²²and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Jesus Heals the Sick

²³Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. ²⁴News about him spread all over Syria, and people brought to him all who were ill with various diseases, those suffering severe pain, the demon-possessed, those having seizures, and the paralysed, and he healed them. ²⁵Large crowds from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and the region across the Jordan followed him.

The Beatitudes

5 Now when he saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, ²and he began to teach them, saying:

³"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

⁵Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

⁶Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

⁷Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

⁸Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

⁹Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

¹⁰Blessed are those who are persecuted
because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

¹¹"Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. ¹²Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Salt and Light

¹³“You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled under foot.

¹⁴“You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

The Fulfilment of the Law

¹⁷“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them. ¹⁸I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. ¹⁹Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practises and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

²¹“You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, ‘Do not murder,’^a and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.’ ²²But I tell you that anyone who is angry with a brother or sister^b will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to a brother or sister, ‘Raca,’^c is answerable to the Sanhedrin. But anyone who says, ‘You fool!’ will be in danger of the fire of hell.

²³“Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother or sister has something against you, ²⁴leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to them; then come and offer your gift.

²⁵“Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are still together on the way, or your adversary may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. ²⁶I tell you the truth, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.^d

Adultery

²⁷“You have heard that it was said, ‘Do not commit adultery.’^e ²⁸But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ³⁰And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Divorce

³¹“It has been said, ‘Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.’^f ³²But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, causes her to become an adulteress, and anyone who marries the divorced woman commits adultery.

Oaths

³³“Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago, ‘Do not break

^{a21} Exodus 20:13

^{a26} Greek kodrantēs

your oath, but keep the oaths you have made to the Lord.' ³⁴But I tell you, Do not swear at all: either by heaven, for it is God's throne; ³⁵or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. ³⁶And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black. ³⁷Simply let your 'Yes' be 'Yes', and your 'No', 'No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one.

An Eye for an Eye

³⁸"You have heard that it was said, 'Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth.'³⁸ ³⁹But I tell you, Do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other cheek also. ⁴⁰And if someone wants to sue you and take your tunic, hand over your cloak as well. ⁴¹If someone forces you to go one mile, go two miles. ⁴²Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

Love for Enemies

⁴³"You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbour^h and hate your enemy.'⁴⁴ But I tell you: Love your enemiesⁱ and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. ⁴⁶If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that? ⁴⁷And if you greet only your own people, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that? ⁴⁸Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Giving to the Needy

6 "Be careful not to do your 'acts of righteousness' before others, to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

²"So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honoured by others. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. ³But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Prayer

⁵"And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. ⁶But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. ⁷And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. ⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

⁹"This, then, is how you should pray:

"Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
¹⁰your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
¹¹Give us today our daily bread.
¹²Forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
¹³And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one."^a

¹⁴For if you forgive others when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.

Fasting

¹⁶“When you fast, do not look sombre as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces to show others they are fasting. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. ¹⁷But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, ¹⁸so that it will not be obvious to others that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Treasures in Heaven

¹⁹“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. ²⁰But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. ²¹For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

²²“The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good, your whole body will be full of light. ²³But if your eyes are bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

²⁴“No-one can be a slave to two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot be a slave to both God and Money.

Do not Worry

²⁵“Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? ²⁷Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to your life?^b ²⁸“And why do you worry about clothes? See how the lilies of the field grow. They do not labour or spin. ²⁹Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these. ³⁰If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? ³¹So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ ³²For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. ³³But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. ³⁴Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Judging Others

7 “Do not judge, or you too will be judged. ²For in the same way as you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

³“Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in someone else’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? ⁴How can you say, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? ⁵You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from the other person’s eye.

⁶“Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

Ask, Seek, Knock

⁷“Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives; everyone who seeks finds; and to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

⁹“Which of you, if your children ask for bread, will give them a stone? ¹⁰Or if they ask for a fish, will give them a snake? ¹¹If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him! ¹²So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow and Wide Gates

¹³“Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. ¹⁴But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

A Tree and Its Fruit

¹⁵“Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves. ¹⁶By their fruit you will recognise them. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? ¹⁷Likewise every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. ¹⁸A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. ¹⁹Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. ²⁰Thus, by their fruit you will recognise them.

²¹“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²²Many will say to me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?’ ²³Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!’

The Wise and Foolish Builders

²⁴“Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock.

²⁶But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. ²⁷The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash.”

²⁸When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at his teaching, ²⁹because he taught as one who had authority, and not as their teachers of the law.

The Man with Leprosy

8 When he came down from the mountainside, large crowds followed him. ²A man with leprosy^a came and knelt before him and said, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

³Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!” Immediately he was cured^b of his leprosy. ⁴Then Jesus said to him, “See that you don’t tell anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

The Faith of the Centurion

⁵When Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking for help.

⁶“Lord,” he said, “my servant lies at home paralysed and in terrible suffering.”

⁷Jesus said to him, “I will go and heal him.”

⁸The centurion replied, “Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁹For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and that one, ‘Come,’ and he comes. I say to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

¹⁰When Jesus heard this, he was astonished and said to those following him, “I tell you the truth, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith. ¹¹I say to you that many will come from the east and the west, and will take their places at the feast with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. ¹²But the subjects of the kingdom will be thrown outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹³Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go! It will be done just as you believed it would." And his servant was healed at that very hour.

Jesus Heals Many

¹⁴When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw Peter's mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever. ¹⁵He touched her hand and the fever left her, and she got up and began to wait on him.

¹⁶When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to him, and he drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick. ¹⁷This was to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

"He took up our infirmities and carried our diseases."^c

The Cost of Following Jesus

¹⁸When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake. ¹⁹Then a teacher of the law came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

²⁰Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

²¹Another disciple said to him, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

²²But Jesus told him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Jesus Calms the Storm

²³Then he got into the boat and his disciples followed him. ²⁴Without warning, a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. ²⁵The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Lord, save us! We're going to drown!"

²⁶He replied, "You of little faith, why are you so afraid?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm.

²⁷The disciples were amazed and asked, "What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the waves obey him!"

The Healing of Two Demon-possessed Men

²⁸When he arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes,^d two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs met him. They were so violent that no-one could pass that way. ²⁹"What do you want with us, Son of God?" they shouted. "Have you come here to torture us before the appointed time?"

³⁰Some distance from them a large herd of pigs was feeding. ³¹The demons begged Jesus, "If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs."

³²He said to them, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and died in the water. ³³Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the town and reported all this, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. ³⁴Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they pleaded with him to leave their region.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

9 Jesus stepped into a boat, crossed over and came to his own town. ²Some people brought to him a paralytic, lying on a mat. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven."

³At this, some of the teachers of the law said to themselves, "This fellow is blaspheming!"

⁴Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said, "Why do you entertain evil thoughts in your hearts? ⁵Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? ⁶But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins. . . ." Then he said to the paralytic, "Get up, take your mat and go home." ⁷ And the man got up and went home. ⁸ When the crowd saw this, they were filled with awe; and they praised God, who had given such authority to human beings.

The Calling of Matthew

⁹ As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. "Follow me," he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.

¹⁰ While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and "sinners" came and ate with him and his disciples. ¹¹ When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and 'sinners'?"

¹² On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. ¹³ But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' ¹⁴ For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

¹⁴ Then John's disciples came and asked him, "How is it that we and the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁵ Jesus answered, "How can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while he is with them? The time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.

¹⁶ "No-one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch will pull away from the garment, making the tear worse. ¹⁷ Neither do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

A Dead Girl and a Sick Woman

¹⁸ While he was saying this, a ruler came and knelt before him and said, "My daughter has just died. But come and put your hand on her, and she will live." ¹⁹ Jesus got up and went with him, and so did his disciples.

²⁰ Just then a woman who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak. ²¹ She said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed."

²² Jesus turned and saw her. "Take heart, daughter," he said, "your faith has healed you." And the woman was healed from that moment.

²³ When Jesus entered the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd, ²⁴ he said, "Go away. The girl is not dead but asleep." But they laughed at him. ²⁵ After the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took the girl by the hand, and she got up. ²⁶ News of this spread through all that region.

Jesus Heals the Blind and Mute

²⁷ As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, calling out. "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

²⁸ When he had gone indoors, the blind men came to him, and he asked them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

"Yes, Lord," they replied.

²⁹ Then he touched their eyes and said. "According to your faith will it be done to you"; ³⁰ and their sight was restored. Jesus warned them sternly. "See that no-one knows about this." ³¹ But they went out and spread the news about him all over that region.

³² While they were going out, a man who was demon-possessed and could not talk was brought to Jesus. ³³ And when the demon was driven out, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowd was amazed and said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel."

³⁴ But the Pharisees said, "It is by the prince of demons that he drives out demons."

The Workers Are Few

³⁵ Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues.

preaching the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. ³⁶When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. ³⁸Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

10 He called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority to drive out evil^a spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

²These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; ³Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

¹¹"Whatever town or village you enter, search for some worthy person there and stay at that house until you leave. ¹²As you enter the home, give it your greeting. ¹³If the home is deserving, let your peace rest on it; if it is not, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that home or town. ¹⁵I tell you the truth, it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town. ¹⁶I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves.

¹⁷"Be on your guard against other people; they will hand you over to the local councils and flog you in their synagogues. ¹⁸On my account you will be brought before governors and kings as witnesses to them and to the Gentiles. ¹⁹But when they arrest you, do not worry about what to say or how to say it. At that time you will be given what to say, ²⁰for it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

²¹"Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death. ²²Everyone will hate you because of me, but those who stand firm to the end will be saved. ²³When you are persecuted in one place, flee to another. I tell you the truth, you will not finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

²⁶"So do not be afraid of them. There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. ²⁷What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs. ²⁸Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell. ²⁹Are not two sparrows sold for a penny?^d Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from the will of your Father. ³⁰And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹So don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

³²"Those who acknowledge me before others, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven. ³³But those who disown

^a Greek unclean

^b The Greek word was used for various diseases affecting the skin—not necessarily leprosy.

^c Greek Beezebul or Beelzeboul ^d29 Greek an assarion

me before others, I will disown before my Father in heaven.

³⁴ "Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I have come to turn

" 'a man against his father,
a daughter against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her
mother-in-law—

³⁶ your enemies will be the members
of your own household.'^e

³⁷ "Anyone who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; anyone who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; ³⁸ Those who do not take up their cross and follow me are not worthy of me. ³⁹ Those who find their lives will lose them, and those who lose their lives for my sake will find them.

⁴⁰ "Anyone who receives you receives me, and anyone who receives me receives the one who sent me. ⁴¹ Anyone who receives a prophet as a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and anyone who receives a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward. ⁴² And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, I tell you the truth, that person will certainly be rewarded."

Jesus and John the Baptist

11 After Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in the towns of Galilee.^a

² When John heard in prison what Christ was doing, he sent his disciples ³ to ask him, "Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?"

⁴ Jesus replied, "Go back and report to John what you hear and see: ⁵ The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy^b are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. ⁶ Blessed is anyone who does not fall away on account of me."

⁷ As John's disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? ⁸ If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings' palaces. ⁹ Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰ This is the one about whom it is written:

" 'I will send my messenger ahead of
you,
who will prepare your way before you.'^c

¹¹ I tell you the truth: Among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet whoever is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹² From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful people lay hold of it. ¹³ For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. ¹⁴ And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come. ¹⁵ Those who have ears, let them hear.

¹⁶ "To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the market-places and calling out to others:

¹⁷ "We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not mourn.'

¹⁸ For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.'

¹⁹ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and "sinners".' But wisdom is proved right by her actions."

Woe on Unrepentant Cities

²⁰ Then Jesus began to denounce the cities in which most of his miracles had been performed, because they did not

^a Micah 7:6 ^{a1} Greek in their towns

^{b5} The Greek word was used for various diseases affecting the skin—not necessarily leprosy. ^c 10 Mal. 3:1

repent. ²¹“Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²²But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. ²³And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to the skies? No, you will go down to the depths. ²⁴If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. ²⁵But I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”

Rest for the Weary

²⁵At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. ²⁶Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure.

²⁷“All things have been committed to me by my Father. No-one knows the Son except the Father, and no-one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

²⁸“Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

Lord of the Sabbath

12 At that time Jesus went through the cornfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick some ears of corn and eat them. ²When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, “Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath.”

³He answered, “Haven’t you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? ⁴He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread—which was not lawful for them to do, but only for the priests. ⁵Or haven’t you read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple desecrate the day and yet are innocent? ⁶I tell you that one^a greater than the temple is here. ⁷If you had known what these words mean, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice,’^b you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

⁹Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, ¹⁰and a man with a shrivelled hand was there. Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, they asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”

¹¹He said to them, “If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will you not take hold of it and lift it out?”

¹²How much more valuable is a human being than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”

¹³Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out and it was completely restored, just as sound as the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

God’s Chosen Servant

¹⁵Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. Many followed him, and he healed all their sick, ¹⁶warning them not to tell who he was. ¹⁷This was to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

¹⁸“Here is my servant whom I have chosen,
the one I love, in whom I delight;
I will put my Spirit on him,
and he will proclaim justice to the nations.

¹⁹He will not quarrel or cry out;
no-one will hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰A bruised reed he will not break,
and a smouldering wick he will not snuff out,
till he leads justice to victory.

²¹ In his name the nations will put their hope.”^c

Jesus and Beelzebub

²²Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him, so that he could both talk and see. ²³All the people were astonished and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

²⁴But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, "It is only by Beelzebub,^d the prince of demons, that this fellow drives out demons."

²⁵Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? ²⁷And if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your people drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. ²⁸But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

²⁹"Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions without first tying up the strong man? Then his house can be plundered.

³⁰"Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. ³¹And so I tell you, people will be forgiven every sin and blasphemy. But the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. ³²Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

³³"Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognised by its fruit. ³⁴You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵Good people bring good things out of the good stored up in them, and evil people bring evil things out of the evil stored up in them. ³⁶But I tell you that people will have to give account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. ³⁷For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Sign of Jonah

³⁸Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the law said to him, "Teacher, we want to see a miraculous sign from you."

³⁹He answered, "A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. ⁴⁰For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹The people of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now one^e greater than Jonah is here. ⁴²The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now one greater than Solomon is here.

⁴³"When an evil^f spirit comes out of anyone, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. ⁴⁴Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. ⁴⁵Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

⁴⁶While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. ⁴⁷Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you."^g

⁴⁸He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?"

⁴⁹Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake.

²Such large crowds gathered round him that he got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore. ³Then he told them many things in parables, saying: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. ⁴As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. ⁵Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. ⁶But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. ⁸Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown. ⁹Those who have ears, let them hear."

¹⁰The disciples came to him and asked, "Why do you speak to the people in parables?"

¹¹He replied, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. ¹²Those who have will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Those who do not have, even what they have will be taken from them. ¹³This is why I speak to them in parables:

"Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

¹⁴In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

"You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

¹⁵For this people's heart has become calloused;

they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts
and turn, and I would heal them."^a

¹⁶"But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear.

¹⁷For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

¹⁸"Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: ¹⁹When people hear the message about the kingdom and do not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their hearts. This is the seed sown along the path. ²⁰Those who received the seed that fell on rocky places are people who hear the word and at once receive it with joy. ²¹But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away. ²²Those who received the seed that fell among the thorns are people who hear the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke it, making it unfruitful. ²³But those who received the seed that fell on good soil are people who hear the word and understand it. They produce a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown."

The Parable of the Weeds

²⁴Jesus told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. ²⁵But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away. ²⁶When the wheat sprouted and formed ears, then the weeds also appeared.

²⁷"The owner's servants came to him and said, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?'

^a15 Isaiah 6:9,10

²⁸“‘An enemy did this,’ he replied.

“The servants asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and pull them up?’”

²⁹“‘No,’ he answered, ‘because while you are pulling the weeds, you may root up the wheat with them. ³⁰Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn.’”

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

³¹He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. ³²Though it is the smallest of all your seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and perch in its branches.”

³³He told them still another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount^b of flour until it worked all through the dough.”

³⁴Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; he did not say anything to them without using a parable. ³⁵So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet:

“I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world.”^c

The Parable of the Weeds Explained

³⁶Then he left the crowd and went into the house. His disciples came to him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

³⁷He answered, “The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man. ³⁸The field is the world, and the good seed stands for the people of the kingdom. The weeds are the people of the evil one, ³⁹and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.

⁴⁰“As the weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the age. ⁴¹The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will weed out of his kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil. ⁴²They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Those who have ears, let them hear.

The Parables of the Hidden Treasure and the Pearl

⁴⁴“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

⁴⁵“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. ⁴⁶When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

⁴⁷“Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was let down into the lake and caught all kinds of fish. ⁴⁸When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. Then they sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away. ⁴⁹This is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous ⁵⁰and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

⁵¹“Have you understood all these things?” Jesus asked.

“Yes,” they replied.

⁵²He said to them, “Therefore every teacher of the law who has been instructed about the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of the storeroom new treasures as well as old.”

A Prophet Without Honour

⁵³When Jesus had finished these parables, he moved on from there. ⁵⁴Coming

^b33 Greek three satas (probably about 3/5 bushel or 22 litres)

to his home town, he began teaching the people in their synagogue, and they were amazed. "Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?" they asked. "Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother's name Mary, and aren't his brothers James, Joseph, Simon and Judas?"⁵⁶ Aren't all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?"⁵⁷ And they took offence at him.

But Jesus said to them, "Only in their hometowns and in their own homes are prophets without honour."

⁵⁸And he did not do many miracles there because of their lack of faith.

John the Baptist Beheaded

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus,² and he said to his attendants, "This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

³Now Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife,⁴ for John had been saying to him: "It is not lawful for you to have her." ⁵Herod wanted to kill John, but he was afraid of the people, because they considered him a prophet.

⁶On Herod's birthday the daughter of Herodias danced for them and pleased Herod so much⁷ that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. ⁸Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist." ⁹The king was distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he ordered that her request be granted¹⁰ and had John beheaded in the prison. ¹¹His head was brought in on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother. ¹²John's disciples came and took his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

¹³When Jesus heard what had happened, he withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. Hearing of this, the crowds followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

¹⁵As evening approached, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. Send the crowds away, so that they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food."

¹⁶Jesus replied, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

¹⁸"Bring them here to me," he said. ¹⁹And he directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. ²⁰They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. ²¹The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water

²²Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowd. ²³After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone,²⁴ but the boat was already a considerable distance^a from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

²⁵During the fourth watch of the night Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. ²⁶When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear.

²⁷But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

²⁸"Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water."

²⁹"Come," he said.

Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came towards

^a24 Greek many stadia

Jesus. ³⁰But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!"

³¹Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. "You of little faith," he said, "why did you doubt?"

³²And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down. ³³Then those who were in the boat worshipped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

³⁴When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret. ³⁵And when the people of that place recognised Jesus, they sent word to all the surrounding country. People brought all their sick to him ³⁶and begged him to let the sick just touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched him were healed.

Clean and Unclean

15 Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked, ²"Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don't wash their hands before they eat!"

³Jesus replied, "And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴For God said, 'Honour your father and mother'^a and 'Anyone who curses father or mother must be put to death.'^b ⁵But you say that if any say to their father or mother, 'Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is a gift devoted to God,' ⁶they are not to 'honour their father or mother' with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. ⁷You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

⁸" "These people honour me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.

⁹They worship me in vain;
their teachings are merely human rules."^c

¹⁰Jesus called the crowd to him and said, "Listen and understand. ¹¹What goes into your mouth does not make you

'unclean', but what comes out of your mouth, that is what makes you 'unclean'."

¹²Then the disciples came to him and asked, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?"

¹³He replied, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots. ¹⁴Leave them; they are blind guides.^d If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit."

¹⁵Peter said, "Explain the parable to us."

¹⁶"Are you still so dull?" Jesus asked them. ¹⁷"Don't you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body?" ¹⁸But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these make you 'unclean'. ¹⁹For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander. ²⁰These are what make you 'unclean'; but eating with unwashed hands does not make you 'unclean'."

The Faith of the Canaanite Woman

²¹Leaving that place, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. ²²A Canaanite woman from that vicinity came to him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is suffering terribly from demon-possession."

²³Jesus did not answer a word. So his disciples came to him and urged him, "Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us."

²⁴He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel."

²⁵The woman came and knelt before him. "Lord, help me!" she said.

²⁶He replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to their dogs."

²⁷"Yes, Lord," she said, "but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."

²⁸Then Jesus answered, "Woman, you have great faith! Your request is granted." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

²⁹ Jesus left there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on a mountainside and sat down. ³⁰ Great crowds came to him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute and many others, and laid them at his feet; and he healed them. ³¹ The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

³² Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may collapse on the way."

³³ His disciples answered, "Where could we get enough bread in this remote place to feed such a crowd?"

³⁴ "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied, "and a few small fish."

³⁵ He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. ³⁶ Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, and when he had given thanks, he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and they in turn to the people. ³⁷ They all ate and were satisfied. Afterwards the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. ³⁸ The number of those who ate was four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹ After Jesus had sent the crowd away, he got into the boat and went to the vicinity of Magadan.

The Demand for a Sign

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from heaven.

² He replied, "When evening comes, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,' ³ and in the morning, 'Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times. ⁴ A wicked and adulterous generation looks for a miraculous sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah." Jesus then left them and went away.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees

⁵ When they went across the lake, the disciples forgot to take bread. ⁶ "Be careful," Jesus said to them. "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

⁷ They discussed this among themselves and said, "It is because we didn't bring any bread."

⁸ Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked, "You of little faith, why are you talking among yourselves about having no bread? ⁹ Do you still not understand? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered? ¹⁰ Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered? ¹¹ How is it you don't understand that I was not talking to you about bread? But be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees." ¹² Then they understood that he was not telling them to guard against the yeast used in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's Confession of Christ

¹³ When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?"

¹⁴ They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

¹⁵ "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, ^b the Son of the living God."

¹⁷ Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in heaven. ¹⁸ And I tell you that you are Peter, ^c and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades^d will not overcome it.^e ¹⁹I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be^f bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be^g loosed in heaven.” ²⁰Then he warned his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

Jesus Predicts His Death

²¹From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

²²Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. “Never, Lord!” he said. “This shall never happen to you!”

²³Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but human concerns.”

²⁴Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Those who would come after me must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. ²⁵For those who want to save their lives^h will lose them, but those who lose their lives for me will find them. ²⁶What good will it be for you to gain the whole world, yet forfeit your soul? Or what can you give in exchange for your soul? ²⁷For the Son of Man is going to come in his Father’s glory with his angels, and then he will reward everyone according to what they have done. ²⁸I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

The Transfiguration

17 After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James and John the brother of James, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. ²There he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. ³Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus.

⁴Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

⁵While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!”

⁶When the disciples heard this, they fell face down to the ground, terrified. ⁷But Jesus came and touched them. “Get up,” he said. “Don’t be afraid.” ⁸When they looked up, they saw no-one except Jesus.

⁹As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

¹⁰The disciples asked him, “Why then do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

¹¹Jesus replied, “To be sure, Elijah comes and will restore all things. ¹²But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognise him, but have done to him everything they wished. In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands.” ¹³Then the disciples understood that he was talking to them about John the Baptist.

The Healing of a Boy With a Demon

¹⁴When they came to the crowd, a man approached Jesus and knelt before him. ¹⁵“Lord, have mercy on my son,” he said. “He has seizures and is suffering greatly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. ¹⁶I brought him to your disciples, but they could not heal him.”

¹⁷“O unbelieving and perverse generation,” Jesus replied, “how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me.” ¹⁸Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed from that moment.

¹⁹Then the disciples came to Jesus in private and asked, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

²⁰He replied, "Because you have so little faith. I tell you the truth, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."^a ²²When they came together in Galilee, he said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands. ²³People will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised to life." And the disciples were filled with grief.

The Temple Tax

²⁴After Jesus and his disciples arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma tax came to Peter and asked, "Doesn't your teacher pay the temple tax?"^b

²⁵"Yes, he does," he replied.

When Peter came into the house, Jesus was the first to speak. "What do you think, Simon?" he asked. "From whom do the kings of the earth collect duty and taxes—from their own children or from others?"

²⁶"From others," Peter answered.

"Then the children are exempt," Jesus said to him. ²⁷"But so that we may not offend them, go to the lake and throw out your line. Take the first fish you catch; open its mouth and you will find a four-drachma coin. Take it and give it to them for my tax and yours."

The Greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

²He called a little child whom he placed among them. ³And he said: "I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴Therefore, those who humble themselves like this child are

the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

⁵"And whoever welcomes a little child like this in my name welcomes me. ⁶But if any of you causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for you to have a large millstone hung around your neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea.

⁷"Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to sin! Such things must come, but woe to the person through whom they come! ⁸If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire. ⁹And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

¹⁰"See that you do not look down on one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven."^c

¹²"What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off? ¹³And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off. ¹⁴In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should be lost.

Dealing with Sin in the Church

¹⁵"If your brother or sister sins against you,^b go and show them their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. ¹⁶But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.'^c ¹⁷If they refuse to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if they refuse to listen even to the church, treat them as you would a pagan or a tax collector.

¹⁸“I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will be^d bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be^d loosed in heaven.

¹⁹“Again, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them.”

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

²¹Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive someone who sins against me? Up to seven times?”

²²Jesus answered, “I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times.”

²³“Therefore, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. ²⁴As he began the settlement, a man who owed him ten thousand talents^f was brought to him. ²⁵Since he was not able to pay, the master ordered that he and his wife and his children and all that he had be sold to repay the debt.

²⁶“The servant fell on his knees before him. ‘Be patient with me,’ he begged, ‘and I will pay back everything.’ ²⁷The servant’s master took pity on him, cancelled the debt and let him go.

²⁸“But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow-servants who owed him a hundred denarii.^g He grabbed him and began to choke him. ‘Pay back what you owe me!’ he demanded.

²⁹“His fellow-servant fell to his knees and begged him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.’

³⁰“But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt. ³¹When the other servants saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed and went and told their master everything that had happened.

³²“Then the master called the servant in. ‘You wicked servant,’ he said, ‘I cancelled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. ³³Shouldn’t you have had mercy on your fellow-servant just as I had on you?’ ³⁴In anger his master turned him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed.

³⁵“This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive one another from your heart.”

Divorce

19 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went into the region of Judea to the other side of the Jordan. ²Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

³Some Pharisees came to him to test him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any and every reason?”

⁴“Haven’t you read,” he replied, “that at the beginning the Creator ‘made them male and female’,^a ⁵and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh’^b? ⁶So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let no-one separate.”

⁷“Why then,” they asked, “did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?”

⁸Jesus replied, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning. ⁹I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, and marries another woman commits adultery.”

¹⁰The disciples said to him, “If this is the situation between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry.”

¹¹Jesus replied, “Not everyone can accept this word, but only those to whom it has been given. ¹²For some are eunuchs because they were born that way; others have been made eunuchs; and others have renounced marriage^c because of the

The Little Children and Jesus

¹³Then little children were brought to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

¹⁴Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." ¹⁵When he had placed his hands on them, he went on from there.

The Rich Young Man

¹⁶Now someone came up to Jesus and asked, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life?"

¹⁷"Why do you ask me about what is good?" Jesus replied. "There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, obey the commandments."

¹⁸"Which ones?" he enquired.

Jesus replied, "Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, ¹⁹honour your father and mother,^d and 'love your neighbour as yourself.'^e"

²⁰"All these I have kept," the young man said. "What do I still lack?"

²¹Jesus answered, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

²²When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth.

²³Then Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you the truth, it is hard for the rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁴Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for the rich to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁵When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished and asked, "Who then can be saved?"

²⁶Jesus looked at them and said, "Humanly, this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

²⁷Peter answered him, "We have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?"

²⁸Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother^f or children or fields for my sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life. ³⁰But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ²He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

³"About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the market-place doing nothing. ⁴He told them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.'⁵So they went.

"He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing. ⁶About the eleventh hour he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, 'Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?"

⁷"'Because no-one has hired us,' they answered.

"He said to them, 'You also go and work in my vineyard.'

⁸"When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.'

⁹"The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius. ¹⁰So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius.¹¹ When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner.¹² "These people who were hired last worked only one hour," they said, "and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day."

¹³"But he answered one of them, 'Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Didn't you agree to work for a denarius?'

¹⁴"Take your pay and go. I want to give the one who was hired last the same as I gave you. ¹⁵Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?'

¹⁶"So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

¹⁷Now as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside and said to them, ¹⁸"We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the teachers of the law. They will condemn him to death¹⁹ and will turn him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified. On the third day he will be raised to life!"

A Mother's Request

²⁰Then the mother of Zebedee's sons came to Jesus with her sons and, kneeling down, asked a favour of him.

²¹"What is it you want?" he asked.

She said, "Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at your right and the other at your left in your kingdom."

²²"You don't know what you are asking," Jesus said to them. "Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?"

"We can," they answered.

²³Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink from my cup, but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by my Father."

²⁴When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers.²⁵ Jesus called them together and said,

"You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. ²⁶Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant,²⁷ and whoever wants to be first must be your slave—²⁸just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Two Blind Men Receive Sight

²⁹As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. ³⁰Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"

³¹The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!"

³²Jesus stopped and called them. "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked.

³³"Lord," they answered, "we want our sight."

³⁴Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

The Triumphal Entry

21 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples,² saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away."

⁴This took place to fulfil what was spoken through the prophet:

⁵"Say to the Daughter of Zion,

'See, your king comes to you,
gentle and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"^a

⁶The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. ⁷They brought the donkey and the colt, placed their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them. ⁸A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted,

"Hosanna^b to the Son of David!"

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"^c

"Hosanna^b in the highest!"

¹⁰When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?"

¹¹The crowds answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee."

Jesus at the Temple

¹²Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the benches of those selling doves. ¹³"It is written," he said to them, "'My house will be called a house of prayer,'^d but you are making it a 'den of robbers'."^e

¹⁴The blind and the lame came to him at the temple, and he healed them. ¹⁵But when the chief priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things he did and the children shouting in the temple area, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they were indignant.

¹⁶"Do you hear what these children are saying?" they asked him.

"Yes," replied Jesus, "have you never read,

"'From the lips of children and infants
you have ordained praise'^f?"

¹⁷And he left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night.

The Fig-Tree Withers

¹⁸Early in the morning, as he was on his way back to the city, he was hungry. ¹⁹Seeing a fig-tree by the road, he went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then he said to it, "May you never bear fruit again!" Immediately the tree withered.

²⁰When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. "How did the fig-tree wither so quickly?" they asked.

²¹Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only can you do what was done to the fig-tree, but also you can say to this mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and it will be done. ²²If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

²³Jesus entered the temple courts, and, while he was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. "By what authority are you doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave you this authority?"

²⁴Jesus replied, "I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. ²⁵John's baptism—where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or of human origin?"

They discussed it among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven', he will ask, 'Then why didn't you believe him?'" ²⁶But if we say, 'Of human origin'—we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet."

²⁷So they answered Jesus, "We don't know."

Then he said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

The Parable of the Two Sons

²⁸"What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.'

^b A Hebrew expression meaning "Save!" which became an exclamation of praise; also in verse 15

^c Psalm 118:26 ^d 13 Isaiah 56:7 ^e 13 Jer. 7:11 ^f 16 Psalm 8:2

²⁹“‘I will not,’ he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

³⁰“Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I will, sir,’ but he did not go.

³¹“Which of the two did what his father wanted?”

“The first,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you. ³²For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him.

The Parable of the Tenants

³³“Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey. ³⁴When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his fruit.

³⁵“The tenants seized his servants; they beat one, killed another, and stoned a third. ³⁶Then he sent other servants to them, more than the first time, and the tenants treated them in the same way. ³⁷Last of all, he sent his son to them. ‘They will respect my son,’ he said.

³⁸“But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him and take his inheritance.’ ³⁹So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

⁴⁰“Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

⁴¹“He will bring those wretches to a wretched end,” they replied, “and he will rent the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time.”

⁴²Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures:

“‘The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone;”

the Lord has done this,
and it is marvellous in our eyes’?”

⁴³“Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. ⁴⁴Anyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”

⁴⁵When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus’ parables, they knew he was talking about them. ⁴⁶They looked for a way to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowd because the people held that he was a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: ²“The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. ³He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

⁴“Then he sent some more servants and said, ‘Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: My oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.’

⁵“But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business. ⁶The rest seized his servants, ill-treated them and killed them. ⁷The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

⁸“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. ⁹Go to the street corners and invite to the banquet anyone you find.’ ¹⁰So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, both good and bad, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹“But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed someone there who was not wearing wedding clothes. ¹²‘Friend,’ he asked, ‘how did you get in here without wedding clothes?" The man was speechless.

¹³"Then the king told the attendants, 'Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

¹⁴"For many are invited, but few are chosen."

Paying Taxes to Caesar

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words. ¹⁶They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians. "Teacher," they said, "we know you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren't swayed by others, because you pay no attention to who they are. ¹⁷Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

¹⁸But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, "You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me? ¹⁹Show me the coin used for paying the tax." They brought him a denarius, ²⁰and he asked them, "Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?"

²¹"Caesar's," they replied.

Then he said to them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

²²When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.

Marriage at the Resurrection

²³That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him with a question. ²⁴"Teacher," they said, "Moses told us that if a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and have children for him.

²⁵Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother. ²⁶The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh. ²⁷Finally, the woman died. ²⁸Now then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven, since all of them were married to her?"

²⁹Jesus replied, "You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God. ³⁰At the resurrection people will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven. ³¹But about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read what God said to you, ³²'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?" He is not the God of the dead but of the living."

³³When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

The Greatest Commandment

³⁴Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together.

³⁵One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: ³⁶"Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"

³⁷Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' ³⁸This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' ⁴⁰All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Whose Son Is the Christ?

⁴¹While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, ⁴²"What do you think about the Christ? ⁴³Whose son is he?"

"The son of David," they replied.

⁴³He said to them, "How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls him 'Lord'? For he says, ⁴⁴"The Lord said to my Lord:

"Sit at my right hand
until I put your enemies
under your feet." ⁴⁵

⁴⁵If then David calls him 'Lord', how can he be his son?" ⁴⁶No-one could say a word in reply, and from that day on no-one dared to ask him any more questions.

Seven Woes

23 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples: ^{2a}“The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses’ seat. ³So you must obey them and do everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practise what they preach. ⁴They tie up heavy loads and put them on other people’s shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

⁵“Everything they do is done for others to see: They make their phylacteries^a wide and the tassels on their garments long; ⁶they love the place of honour at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues; ⁷they love to be greeted in the market-places and to have people call them ‘Rabbi’.

⁸“But you are not to be called ‘Rabbi’, for you have only one Master and you are all brothers and sisters. ⁹And do not call anyone on earth ‘father’, for you have one Father, and he is in heaven. ¹⁰Nor are you to be called ‘teacher’, for you have one Teacher, the Christ.^b ¹¹The greatest among you will be your servant. ¹²For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.

¹³“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in people’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.^c ¹⁵“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and then you make that convert twice as much a child of hell as you are.

¹⁶“Woe to you, blind guides! You say, ‘If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple is bound by the oath.’ ¹⁷You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred? ¹⁸You also say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is bound by his oath.’ ¹⁹You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred? ²⁰Therefore, anyone who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. ²¹And anyone who swears by the temple swears by it and by the one who dwells in it. ²²And anyone who swears by heaven swears by God’s throne and by the one who sits on it.

²³“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You give a tenth of your spices—mint, dill and cummin. But you have neglected the more important matters of the law—justice, mercy and faithfulness. You should have practised the latter, without neglecting the former. ²⁴You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.

²⁵“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. ²⁶Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean.

²⁷“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of the bones of the dead and everything unclean. ²⁸In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.

²⁹“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous. ³⁰And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ ³¹So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. ³²Fill up, then, the measure of the sin of your ancestors!

³³“You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell? ³⁴Therefore I am sending you prophets and sages and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town.³⁵ And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barakiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.³⁶ I tell you the truth, all this will come upon this generation.

³⁷“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing.³⁸ Look, your house is left to you desolate.³⁹ For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’”^d

Signs of the End of the Age

24 Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings.² “Do you see all these things?” he asked. “I tell you the truth, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”

³As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. “Tell us,” they said, “when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”

⁴Jesus answered: “Watch out that no-one deceives you.⁵ For many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Christ,’^a and will deceive many.⁶ You will hear of wars and rumours of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come.⁷ Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.⁸ All these are the beginning of birth-pains.

⁹“Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me.

¹⁰At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other,¹¹ and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people.¹² Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold,¹³ but whoever stands firm to the end will be saved.¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

¹⁵“So when you see standing in the holy place ‘the abomination that causes desolation’,^b spoken of through the prophet Daniel—let the reader understand—¹⁶then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.¹⁷ Let no-one on the housetop go down to take anything out of the house.¹⁸ Let no-one in the field go back to get a cloak.¹⁹ How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers!²⁰ Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath.²¹ For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equalled again.²² If those days had not been cut short, no-one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.²³ At that time if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or, ‘There he is!’ do not believe it.²⁴ For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and miracles to deceive even the elect—if that were possible.²⁵ See, I have told you ahead of time.

²⁶“So if anyone tells you, ‘There he is, out in the desert,’ do not go out; or, ‘Here he is, in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it.²⁷ For as lightning that comes from the east is visible even in the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.²⁸ Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather.

²⁹“Immediately after the distress of those days

“‘the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light;
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.’”^c

³⁰“At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. ³¹And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

³²“Now learn this lesson from the fig-tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. ³³Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it^d is near, right at the door. ³⁴I tell you the truth, this generation^e will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. ³⁵Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

The Day and Hour Unknown

³⁶“No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son,^f but only the Father. ³⁷As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; ³⁹and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left. ⁴¹Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.

⁴²“Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come. ⁴³But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

⁴⁵“Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time? ⁴⁶It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. ⁴⁷I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁸But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, ‘My master is staying away a long time,’ ⁴⁹and he then begins to beat his fellow-servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. ⁵⁰The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. ⁵¹He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

25 “At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. ²Five of them were foolish and five were wise. ³The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. ⁴The wise, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. ⁵The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

⁶“At midnight the cry rang out: ‘Here’s the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’

⁷“Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. ⁸The foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.’

⁹“‘No,’ they replied, ‘there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

¹⁰“But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.

¹¹“Later the others also came. ‘Sir! Sir!’ they said. ‘Open the door for us!’

¹²“But he replied, ‘I tell you the truth, I don’t know you.’

¹³“Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour.

The Parable of the Talents

¹⁴“Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his property to them. ¹⁵To one he gave five talents^a of money, to another two talents, and to another one talent, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. ¹⁶The man who had received the five talents went at once and put his money to work and gained five more. ¹⁷So also, the one with the two talents gained two more. ¹⁸But the man who had received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

¹⁹"After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. ²⁰The man who had received the five talents brought the other five. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.'

²¹"His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

²²"The man with the two talents also came. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with two talents; see, I have gained two more.'

²³"His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'

²⁴"Then the man who had received the one talent came. 'Master,' he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. ²⁵So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.'

²⁶"His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? ²⁷Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.'

²⁸"Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents. ²⁹For those who have will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Those who do not have, even what they have will be taken from them. ³⁰And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

The Sheep and the Goats

³¹"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his throne in heavenly glory. ³²All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

³⁴"Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. ³⁵For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, ³⁶I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'

³⁷"Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? ³⁹When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

⁴⁰"The King will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

⁴¹"Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴²For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, ⁴³I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.'

⁴⁴"They also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?"

⁴⁵"He will reply, 'I tell you the truth, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.'

⁴⁶"Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

The Plot Against Jesus

26 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples, ²"As you know, the Passover is two days away—and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

³Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas, ⁴and they plotted to arrest Jesus in some sly way and kill him. ⁵"But not during the Feast," they said, "or there may be a riot among the people."

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

⁶While Jesus was in Bethany in the home of Simon the Leper, ⁷a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on his head as he was reclining at the table.

⁸When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. "Why this waste?" they asked. ⁹"This perfume could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor."

¹⁰Aware of this, Jesus said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ¹¹The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have me. ¹²When she poured this perfume on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. ¹³I tell you the truth, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

¹⁴Then one of the Twelve—the one called Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests ¹⁵and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?" So they counted out for him thirty silver coins. ¹⁶From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

The Lord's Supper

¹⁷On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

¹⁸He replied, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.' " ¹⁹So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

²⁰When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve. ²¹And while they were eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me."

²²They were very sad and began to say to him one after the other, "Surely not I, Lord?"

²³Jesus replied, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me. ²⁴The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born."

²⁵Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?" Jesus answered, "Yes, it is you."^a ²⁶While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body."

²⁷Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. ²⁸This is my blood of the^b covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. ²⁹I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's kingdom."

³⁰When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

³¹Then Jesus told them, "This very night you will all fall away on account of me, for it is written:

"I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep of the flock will be scattered."^c

³²But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

³³Peter replied, "Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will."

³⁴"I tell you the truth," Jesus answered, "this very night, before the cock crows, you will disown me three times."

³⁵But Peter declared, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you." And all the other disciples said the same.

Gethsemane

³⁶Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." ³⁷He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸Then he said to them, "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."

³⁹Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will."

⁴⁰Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. "Couldn't you keep watch with me for one hour?" he asked Peter. ⁴¹"Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak."

⁴²He went away a second time and prayed, "My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done."

⁴³When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴So he left them and went away

once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.

⁴⁵Then he returned to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶Rise, let us go! Here comes my betrayer!"

Jesus Arrested

⁴⁷While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. ⁴⁸Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The one I kiss is the man; arrest him." ⁴⁹Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed him.

⁵⁰Jesus replied, "Friend, do what you came for."^d

Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him. ⁵¹With that, one of Jesus' companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

⁵²"Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him, "for all who draw the sword will die by the sword. ⁵³Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way?"

⁵⁵At that time Jesus said to the crowd, "Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day I sat in the temple courts teaching, and you did not arrest me. ⁵⁶But this has all taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Before the Sanhedrin

⁵⁷Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas, the high priest, where the teachers of the law and the elders had assembled. ⁵⁸But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. He entered and sat down with the guards to see the outcome.

⁵⁹The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death. ⁶⁰But they did not find any, though many false witnesses came forward.

Finally two came forward ⁶¹and declared, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"

⁶²Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?" ⁶³But Jesus remained silent.

The high priest said to him, "I charge you under oath by the living God: Tell us if you are the Christ,^e the Son of God."

⁶⁴"Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied. "But I say to all of you: In the future you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven."

⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶What do you think?"

"He is worthy of death," they answered.

⁶⁷Then they spat in his face and struck him with their fists. Others slapped him ⁶⁸and said, "Prophecy to us, Christ. Who hit you?"

Peter Disowns Jesus

⁶⁹Now Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a female servant came to him. "You also were with Jesus of Galilee," she said.

⁷⁰But he denied it before them all. "I don't know what you're talking about," he said.

⁷¹Then he went out to the gateway, where another female servant saw him and said to the people there, "This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth."

⁷²He denied it again, with an oath: "I don't know the man!"

⁷³After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter and said, "Surely you are one of them, for your accent gives you away."

⁷⁴Then he began to call down curses on himself and he swore to them, "I don't know the man!"

Immediately a cock crowed. ⁷⁵Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken: "Before the cock crows, you will disown me three times." And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Judas Hangs Himself

27 Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people came to the decision to put Jesus to death. ²They bound him, led him away and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.

³When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders. ⁴"I have sinned," he said, "for I have betrayed innocent blood."

"What is that to us?" they replied. "That's your responsibility."

⁵So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.

⁶The chief priests picked up the coins and said, "It is against the law to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money."

⁷So they decided to use the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. ⁸That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. ⁹Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty silver coins, the price set on him by the people of Israel, ¹⁰and they used them to buy the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."^a

Jesus Before Pilate

¹¹Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

"Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied.

^e63 Or Messiah; also in verse 68

^a10 See Zech. 11:12,13; Jer. 19:1-13; 32:6-9.

¹²When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer. ¹³Then Pilate asked him, "Don't you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?" ¹⁴But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge—to the great amazement of the governor.

¹⁵Now it was the governor's custom at the Feast to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd. ¹⁶At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas. ¹⁷So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" ¹⁸For he knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him.

¹⁹While Pilate was sitting on the judge's seat, his wife sent him this message: "Don't have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him."

²⁰But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.

²¹"Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" asked the governor. "Barabbas," they answered.

²²"What shall I do, then, with Jesus who is called Christ?" Pilate asked.

They all answered, "Crucify him!"

²³"Why? What crime has he committed?" asked Pilate.

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify him!"

²⁴When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood," he said. "It is your responsibility!"

²⁵All the people answered, "Let his blood be on us and on our children!"

²⁶Then he released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified.

the whole company of soldiers round him. ²⁸They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, ²⁹and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand and knelt in front of him and mocked him. "Hail, king of the Jews!" they said. ³⁰They spat on him, and took the staff and struck him on the head again and again. ³¹After they had mocked him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

The Crucifixion

³²As they were going out, they met a man from Cyrene, named Simon, and they forced him to carry the cross. ³³They came to a place called Golgotha (which means The Place of the Skull). ³⁴There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall; but after tasting it, he refused to drink it. ³⁵When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots. ³⁶And sitting down, they kept watch over him there. ³⁷Above his head they placed the written charge against him: THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS. ³⁸Two robbers were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁹Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads ⁴⁰and saying, "You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!"

⁴¹In the same way the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders mocked him. ⁴²"He saved others," they said, "but he can't save himself! He's the King of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. ⁴³He trusts in God. Let God rescue him now if he wants him, for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'"^b ⁴⁴In the same way the robbers who were crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

²⁷Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered

⁴⁶About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi,^c lama sabachthani?"—which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"^d

⁴⁷When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He's calling Elijah."

⁴⁸Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink. ⁴⁹The rest said, "Now leave him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to save him."

⁵⁰And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.

⁵¹At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks split. ⁵²The tombs broke open and the bodies of many holy people who had died were raised to life. ⁵³They came out of the tombs, and after Jesus' resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many people.

⁵⁴When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, "Surely he was the Son^e of God!"

⁵⁵Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for his needs.

⁵⁶Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

The Burial of Jesus

⁵⁷As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. ⁵⁹Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away. ⁶¹Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

The Guard at the Tomb

⁶²The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. ⁶³"Sir," they said, "we remember that while he was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.' ⁶⁴So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he has been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first."

⁶⁵"Take a guard," Pilate answered. "Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how." ⁶⁶So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting the guard.

The Resurrection

28 After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

²There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. ⁴The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

⁵The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. ⁶He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. ⁷Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you."

⁸So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshipped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

The Guards' Report

¹¹ While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened. ¹² When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money, ¹³ telling them, "You are to say, 'His disciples came during the night and stole him away while we were asleep.' ¹⁴ If this report gets to the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble." ¹⁵ So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this very day.

The Great Commission

¹⁶ Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. ¹⁷ When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. ¹⁸ Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in^a the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Mark

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

1 The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.^a ²It is written in Isaiah the prophet:

“I will send my messenger ahead of you,
who will prepare your way”^b—

³“a voice of one calling in the desert,
‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.’”^c

⁴And so John came, baptising in the desert region and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptised by him in the Jordan River. ⁶John wore clothing made of camel’s hair, with a leather belt round his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷And this was his message: “After me will come one more powerful than I, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. ⁸I baptise you with^d water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.”

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus

⁹At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptised by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰As Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. ¹¹And a voice came from heaven: “You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

¹²At once the Spirit sent him out into the desert, ¹³and he was in the desert for forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended him.

The Calling of the First Disciples

¹⁴After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God. ¹⁵“The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!”

¹⁶As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷“Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will make you fishers of men and women.” ¹⁸At once they left their nets and followed him.

¹⁹When he had gone a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John in a boat, preparing their nets. ²⁰Without delay he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

Jesus Drives Out an Evil Spirit

²¹They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach. ²²The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had

^a1 Some manuscripts do not have the Son of God. ^b2 Mal. 3:1 ^c3 Isaiah 40:3 ^d4 Or in authority, not as the teachers of the law.

²³Just then a man in their synagogue who was possessed by an evil^e spirit cried out, ²⁴“What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

²⁵“Be quiet!” said Jesus sternly. “Come out of him!” ²⁶The evil spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek.

²⁷The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching—and with authority! He even gives orders to evil spirits and they obey him.” ²⁸News about him spread quickly over the whole region of Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many

²⁹As soon as they left the synagogue, they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. ³⁰Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told Jesus about her. ³¹So he went to her, took her hand and helped her up. The fever left her and she began to wait on them.

³²That evening after sunset the people brought to Jesus all the sick and demon-possessed. ³³The whole town gathered at the door, ³⁴and Jesus healed many who had various diseases. He also drove out many demons, but he would not let the demons speak because they knew who he was.

Jesus Prays in a Solitary Place

³⁵Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed. ³⁶Simon and his companions went to look for him, ³⁷and when they found him, they exclaimed: “Everyone is looking for you!”

³⁸Jesus replied, “Let us go somewhere else—to the nearby villages—so that I can preach there also. That is why I have come.” ³⁹So he travelled throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out demons.

A Man With Leprosy

⁴⁰A man with leprosy^f came to him and begged him on his knees, “If you are willing, you can make me clean.”

⁴¹Filled with compassion, Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!” ⁴²Immediately the leprosy left him and he was cured.

⁴³Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning: ⁴⁴“See that you don’t tell this to anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.” ⁴⁵Instead he went out and began to talk freely, spreading the news. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in lonely places. Yet the people still came to him from everywhere.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

2 A few days later, when Jesus again entered Capernaum, the people heard that he had come home. ²So many gathered that there was no room left, not even outside the door, and he preached the word to them. ³Some people came, bringing to him a paralytic, carried by four of them. ⁴Since they could not get him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus and, after digging through it, lowered the mat the paralysed man was lying on. ⁵When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

⁶Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves, ⁷“Why does this fellow talk like that? He’s blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

⁸Immediately Jesus knew in his spirit that this was what they were thinking in their hearts, and he said to them, “Why are you thinking these things? ⁹Which is easier: to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, take your mat and walk’? ¹⁰But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins . . .” He said to the paralytic, ¹¹“I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home.” ¹²He got up, took his mat and walked out in full view of them all. This amazed everyone and they praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

^e23 Greek unclean; also in verses 26 and 27

The Calling of Levi

¹³Once again Jesus went out beside the lake. A large crowd came to him, and he began to teach them. ¹⁴As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. “Follow me,” Jesus told him, and Levi got up and followed him.

¹⁵While Jesus was having dinner at Levi's house, many tax collectors and “sinners” were eating with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. ¹⁶When the teachers of the law who were Pharisees saw him eating with the “sinners” and tax collectors, they asked his disciples: “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

¹⁷On hearing this, Jesus said to them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

¹⁸Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came and asked Jesus, “How is it that John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees are fasting, but yours are not?”

¹⁹Jesus answered, “How can the guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them? They cannot, so long as they have him with them. ²⁰But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and on that day they will fast.

²¹“People do not sew a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If they do, the new piece will pull away from the old, making the tear worse. ²²And people do not pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins.”

Lord of the Sabbath

²³One Sabbath Jesus was going through the cornfields, and as his disciples walked along, they began to pick some ears of corn. ²⁴The Pharisees said to him, “Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?”

²⁵He answered, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need? ²⁶In the days of Abiathar the high priest, he entered the house of God and ate the consecrated bread, which is lawful only for priests to eat. And he also gave some to his companions.”

²⁷Then he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for people, not people for the Sabbath. ²⁸So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

3 Another time he went into the synagogue, and a man with a shrivelled hand was there. ²Some of them were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath. ³Jesus said to the man with the shrivelled hand, “Stand up in front of everyone.”

⁴Then Jesus asked them, “Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” But they remained silent.

⁵He looked round at them in anger and, deeply distressed at their stubborn hearts, said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored. ⁶Then the Pharisees went out and began to plot with the Herodians how they might kill Jesus.

Crowds Follow Jesus

⁷Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the lake, and a large crowd from Galilee followed. ⁸When they heard all he was doing, many people came to him from Judea, Jerusalem, Idumea, and the regions across the Jordan and around Tyre and Sidon. ⁹Because of the crowd he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him, to keep the people from crowding him. ¹⁰For he had healed many, so that those with diseases were pushing forward to touch him. ¹¹Whenever the evil^a spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, "You are the Son of God." ¹²But he gave them strict orders not to tell who he was.

The Appointing of the Twelve Apostles

¹³Jesus went up on a mountainside and called to him those he wanted, and they came to him. ¹⁴He appointed twelve—designating them apostles^b—that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach ¹⁵and to have authority to drive out demons. ¹⁶These are the twelve he appointed: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter); ¹⁷James son of Zebedee and his brother John (to them he gave the name Boanerges, which means Sons of Thunder); ¹⁸Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Jesus and Beelzebul

²⁰Then Jesus entered a house, and again a crowd gathered, so that he and his disciples were not even able to eat. ²¹When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

²²And the teachers of the law who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebul!^c By the prince of demons he is driving out demons."

²³So Jesus called them and spoke to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? ²⁴If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. ²⁶And if Satan opposes himself and is divided, he cannot stand; his end has come. ²⁷In fact, no-one can enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions without first tying up the strong man. Then his house can be plundered. ²⁸I tell you the truth, people will be forgiven all their sins and all the blasphemies they utter. ²⁹But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, but is guilty of an eternal sin."

³⁰He said this because they were saying, "He has an evil spirit."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

³¹Then Jesus' mother and brothers arrived. Standing outside, they sent someone in to call him. ³²A crowd was sitting around him, and they told him, "Your mother and brothers are outside looking for you."

³³"Who are my mother and my brothers?" he asked.

³⁴Then he looked at those seated in a circle around him and said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! ³⁵Whoever does God's will is my brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

4 Again Jesus began to teach by the lake. The crowd that gathered round him was so large that he got into a boat and sat in it out on the lake, while all the people were along the shore at the water's edge. ²He taught them many things by parables, and in his teaching said: ³"Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed. ⁴As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. ⁵Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. ⁶But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants, so that they did not bear grain. ⁸Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up, grew and produced a crop, multiplying thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times."

⁹Then Jesus said, "Those who have ears to hear, let them hear."

¹⁰When he was alone, the Twelve and the others around him asked him about the parables. ¹¹He told them, "The secret of the kingdom of God has been given to you. But to those on the outside everything is said in parables¹² so that, “they may be ever seeing but never perceiving,

and ever hearing but never understanding;
otherwise they might turn and be forgiven!”¹³

¹³Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? How then will you understand any parable?”¹⁴The farmer sows the word.¹⁵Some people are like seed along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the word that was sown in them.¹⁶Others, like seed sown on rocky places, hear the word and at once receive it with joy.¹⁷But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.¹⁸Still others, like seed sown among thorns, hear the word;¹⁹but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful.²⁰Others, like seed sown on good soil, hear the word, accept it, and produce a crop—thirty, sixty or even a hundred times what was sown.”

A Lamp on a Stand

²¹He said to them, “Do you bring in a lamp to put it under a bowl or a bed? Instead, don’t you put it on its stand?”²²For whatever is hidden is meant to be disclosed, and whatever is concealed is meant to be brought out into the open.²³If any have ears to hear, let them hear.”
²⁴“Consider carefully what you hear,” he continued. “With the measure you use, it will be measured to you—and even more.²⁵Those who have will be given more; those who do not have, even what they have will be taken from them.”

The Parable of the Growing Seed

²⁶He also said, “This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man scatters seed on the ground.²⁷Night and day, whether he sleeps or gets up, the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how.²⁸All by itself the soil produces corn—first the stalk, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.²⁹As soon as the grain is ripe, he puts the sickle to it, because the harvest has come.”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

³⁰Again he said, “What shall we say the kingdom of God is like, or what parable shall we use to describe it?”³¹It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest seed you plant in the ground.³²Yet when planted, it grows and becomes the largest of all garden plants, with such big branches that the birds of the air can perch in its shade.”

³³With many similar parables Jesus spoke the word to them, as much as they could understand.³⁴He did not say anything to them without using a parable. But when he was alone with his own disciples, he explained everything.

Jesus Calms the Storm

³⁵That day when evening came, he said to his disciples, “Let us go over to the other side.”³⁶Leaving the crowd behind, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat. There were also other boats with him.³⁷A furious squall came up, and the waves broke over the boat, so that it was nearly swamped.³⁸Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. The disciples woke him and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care if we drown?”

³⁹He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind died down and it was completely calm.

⁴⁰He said to his disciples, “Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

⁴¹They were terrified and asked each other, “Who is this? Even the wind and the waves obey him!”

The Healing of a Demon-possessed Man

5 They went across the lake to the region of the Gerasenes.^a ²When Jesus got out of the boat, a man with an evil^b spirit came from the tombs to meet him. ³This man lived in the tombs, and no-one could bind him any more, not even with a chain. ⁴For he had often been chained hand and foot, but he tore the chains apart and broke the irons on his feet. No-one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵Night and day among the tombs and in the hills he would cry out and cut himself with stones.

⁶When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and fell on his knees in front of him. ⁷He shouted at the top of his voice, "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Swear to God that you won't torture me!" ⁸For Jesus had said to him, "Come out of this man, you evil spirit!"

⁹Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

"My name is Legion," he replied, "for we are many." ¹⁰And he begged Jesus again and again not to send them out of the area.

¹¹A large herd of pigs was feeding on the nearby hillside. ¹²The demons begged Jesus, "Send us among the pigs; allow us to go into them." ¹³He gave them permission, and the evil spirits came out and went into the pigs. The herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the steep bank into the lake and were drowned.

¹⁴Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened. ¹⁵When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons, sitting there, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. ¹⁶Those who had seen it told the people what had happened to the demon-possessed man—and told about the pigs as well. ¹⁷Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region.

¹⁸As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him. ¹⁹Jesus did not let him, but said, "Go home to your family and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you." ²⁰So the man went away and began to tell in the Decapolis^c how much Jesus had done for him. And all the people were amazed.

A Dead Girl and a Sick Woman

²¹When Jesus had again crossed over by boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd gathered round him while he was by the lake. ²²Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came there. Seeing Jesus, he fell at his feet ²³and pleaded earnestly with him, "My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on her so that she will be healed and live." ²⁴So Jesus went with him.

A large crowd followed and pressed around him. ²⁵And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years. ²⁶She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse. ²⁷When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸because she thought, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed." ²⁹Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering.

³⁰At once Jesus realised that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

³¹"You see the people crowding against you," his disciples answered, "and yet you can ask, 'Who touched me?'"

³²But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it. ³³Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth. ³⁴He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering."

³⁵ While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler. "Your daughter is dead," they said. "Why bother the teacher any more?"

³⁶ Ignoring what they said, Jesus told the synagogue ruler, "Don't be afraid; just believe."

³⁷ He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James and John the brother of James. ³⁸ When they came to the home of the synagogue ruler, Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly. ³⁹ He went in and said to them, "Why all this commotion and wailing? The child is not dead but asleep." ⁴⁰ But they laughed at him.

After he put them all out, he took the child's father and mother and the disciples who were with him, and went in where the child was. ⁴¹ He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha kum!" (which means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!"). ⁴² Immediately the girl stood up and walked around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished. ⁴³ He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and told them to give her something to eat.

A Prophet Without Honour

6 Jesus left there and went to his home town, accompanied by his disciples. ² When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed.

"Where did this man get these things?" they asked. "What's this wisdom that has been given him, that he even does miracles! ³ Isn't this the carpenter? Isn't this Mary's son and the brother of James, Joseph, ⁴ Judas and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" And they took offence at him.

⁴ Jesus said to them, "Only in their home towns, among their relatives and in their own homes are prophets without honour." ⁵ He could not do any miracles there, except lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them. ⁶ And he was amazed at their lack of faith.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

Then Jesus went round teaching from village to village. ⁷ Calling the Twelve to him, he sent them out two by two and gave them authority over evil^b spirits.

⁸ These were his instructions: "Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your belts. ⁹ Wear sandals but not an extra tunic. ¹⁰ Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. ¹¹ And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave, as a testimony against them."

¹² They went out and preached that people should repent. ¹³ They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

John the Baptist Beheaded

¹⁴ King Herod heard about this, for Jesus' name had become well known. Some were saying, "^c John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

¹⁵ Others said, "He is Elijah."

And still others claimed, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of long ago."

¹⁶ But when Herod heard this, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised from the dead!"

¹⁷ For Herod himself had given orders to have John arrested, and he had him bound and put in prison. He did this because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom he had married. ¹⁸ For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." ¹⁹ So Herodias nursed a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she was not able to, ²⁰ because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard John, he was greatly puzzled;^d yet he liked to listen to him.

²¹ Finally the opportune time came. On his birthday Herod gave a banquet for his high officials and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee. ²² When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests.

The king said to the girl, "Ask me for anything you want, and I'll give it to you." ²³ And he promised her with an oath, "Whatever you ask I will give you, up to half my kingdom."

²⁴ She went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?"

"The head of John the Baptist," she answered.

²⁵ At once the girl hurried in to the king with the request: "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

²⁶ The king was greatly distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he did not want to refuse her. ²⁷ So he immediately sent an executioner with orders to bring John's head. The man went, beheaded John in the prison, ²⁸ and brought back his head on a platter. He presented it to the girl, and she gave it to her mother. ²⁹ On hearing of this, John's disciples came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

³⁰ The apostles gathered round Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. ³¹ Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest."

³² So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place. ³³ But many who saw them leaving recognised them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. ³⁴ When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

³⁵ By this time it was late in the day, so his disciples came to him. "This is a remote place," they said, "and it's already very late. ³⁶ Send the people away so that they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

³⁷ But he answered, "You give them something to eat."

They said to him, "That would take eight months' wages." ³⁸ Are we to go and spend that much on bread and give it to them to eat?"

³⁹ "How many loaves do you have?" he asked. "Go and see."

When they found out, they said, "Five—and two fish."

⁴⁰ Then Jesus directed them to have all the people sit down in groups on the green grass. ⁴¹ So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties. ⁴² Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to his disciples to set before the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. ⁴³ They all ate and were satisfied, ⁴⁴ and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish. ⁴⁵ The number of the men who had eaten was five thousand.

⁴⁶ Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. ⁴⁷ After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.

⁴⁸ When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and he was alone on land. ⁴⁹ He saw the disciples straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night he went out to them, walking on the lake. He was about to pass by them, ⁵⁰ but when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought he was a ghost. They cried out, ⁵¹ because they all saw him and were terrified.

Immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

⁵² Then he climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. They were

³⁷ Greek take two hundred denarii completely amazed, ⁵²for they had not understood about the loaves; their hearts were hardened.

⁵³When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there. ⁵⁴As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognised Jesus. ⁵⁵They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶And wherever he went—into villages, towns or countryside—they placed the sick in the market-places. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched him were healed.

Clean and Unclean

7 The Pharisees and some of the teachers of the law who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus and ²saw some of his disciples eating food with hands that were "unclean", that is, unwashed. ³(The Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they give their hands a ceremonial washing, holding to the tradition of the elders. ⁴When they come from the market-place they do not eat unless they wash. And they observe many other traditions, such as the washing of cups, pitchers and kettles.)

⁵So the Pharisees and teachers of the law asked Jesus, "Why don't your disciples live according to the tradition of the elders instead of eating their food with 'unclean' hands?"

⁶He replied, "Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you hypocrites; as it is written:

"These people honour me with their lips,

but their hearts are far from me.

⁷They worship me in vain;

their teachings are merely human rules."^b

⁸You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to human traditions."

⁹And he said to them: "You have a fine way of setting aside the commands of God in order to observe^c your own traditions!

¹⁰For Moses said, 'Honour your father and your mother,'^d and, 'Anyone who curses father or mother must be put to death.'^e ¹¹But you say that if anyone says to father or mother: 'Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is Corban' (that is, a gift devoted to God), ¹²then you no longer let them do anything for their father or mother. ¹³Thus you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like that."

¹⁴Again Jesus called the crowd to him and said, "Listen to me, everyone, and understand this. ¹⁵Nothing outside you can make you 'unclean' by going into you. Rather, it is what comes out of you that makes you 'unclean'."^f

¹⁷After he had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about this parable. ¹⁸"Are you so dull?" he asked. "Don't you see that nothing that enters you from the outside can make you 'unclean'? ¹⁹For it doesn't go into your heart but into your stomach, and then out of your body." (In saying this, Jesus declared all foods "clean".)

²⁰He went on: "What comes out of you is what makes you 'unclean'. ²¹For from within, out of your hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, ²²greed, malice, deceit, lewdness, envy, slander, arrogance and folly. ²³All these evils come from inside and make you 'unclean'."

The Faith of a Syro-Phoenician Woman

²⁴Jesus left that place and went to the vicinity of Tyre.^g He entered a house and did not want anyone to know it; yet he could not keep his presence secret. ²⁵In fact, as soon as she heard about him, a woman whose little daughter was possessed by an evil^h spirit came and fell at his feet. ²⁶The woman was a Greek, born in Syrian Phoenicia. She begged Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷"First let the children eat all they want," he told her, "for it is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to their dogs."

²⁸"Yes, Lord," she replied, "but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

²⁹Then he told her, "For such a reply, you may go; the demon has left your daughter."

³⁰She went home and found her child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

The Healing of a Deaf and Mute Man

³¹Then Jesus left the vicinity of Tyre and went through Sidon, down to the Sea of Galilee and into the region of the Decapolis.ⁱ ³²There some people brought to him a man who was deaf and could hardly talk, and they begged him to place his hand on him.

³³After he took him aside, away from the crowd, Jesus put his fingers into the man's ears. Then he spat and touched the man's tongue. ³⁴He looked up to heaven and with a deep sigh said to him, "Ephphatha!" (which means, "Be opened!").

³⁵At this, the man's ears were opened, his tongue was loosened and he began to speak plainly.

³⁶Jesus commanded them not to tell anyone. But the more he did so, the more they kept talking about it. ³⁷People were overwhelmed with amazement. "He has done everything well," they said. "He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

8 During those days another large crowd gathered. Since they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to him and said, ²"I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. ³If I send them home hungry, they will collapse on the way, because some of them have come a long distance."

⁴His disciples answered, "But where in this remote place can anyone get enough bread to feed them?"

⁵"How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied.

⁶He told the crowd to sit down on the ground. When he had taken the seven loaves and given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people, and they did so. ⁷They had a few small fish as well; he gave thanks for them also and told the disciples to distribute them. ⁸The people ate and were satisfied. Afterwards the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. ⁹About four thousand were present. And having sent them away, ¹⁰he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the region of Dalmanutha.

¹¹The Pharisees came and began to question Jesus. To test him, they asked him for a sign from heaven. ¹²He sighed deeply and said, "Why does this generation ask for a miraculous sign? I tell you the truth, no sign will be given to it." ¹³Then he left them, got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

¹⁴The disciples had forgotten to bring bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat. ¹⁵"Be careful," Jesus warned them. "Watch out for the yeast of the Pharisees and that of Herod."

¹⁶They discussed this with one another and said, "It is because we have no bread."

¹⁷Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked them: "Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Are your hearts hardened? ¹⁸Do you have eyes but fail to see, and ears but fail to hear? And don't you remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many basketfuls of pieces did you pick up?"

ⁱ31 That is, the Ten Cities

"Twelve," they replied.

²⁰ "And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many basketsfuls of pieces did you pick up?"

They answered, "Seven."

²¹ He said to them, "Do you still not understand?"

The Healing of a Blind Man at Bethsaida

²² They came to Bethsaida, and some people brought a blind man and begged Jesus to touch him. ²³ He took the blind man by the hand and led him outside the village. When he had spat on the man's eyes and put his hands on him, Jesus asked, "Do you see anything?"

²⁴ He looked up and said, "I see people; they look like trees walking around."

²⁵ Once more Jesus put his hands on the man's eyes. Then his eyes were opened, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. ²⁶ Jesus sent him home, saying, "Don't go into the village."^a

Peter's Confession of Christ

²⁷ Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"

²⁸ They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets."

²⁹ "But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "You are the Christ."^b

³⁰ Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Predicts His Death

³¹ He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and after three days rise again. ³² He spoke plainly about this, and Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

³³ But when Jesus turned and looked at his disciples, he rebuked Peter. "Get behind me, Satan!" he said. "You do not have in mind the concerns of God, but human concerns."

³⁴ Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: "Those who would come after me must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. ³⁵ For those who want to save their lives^c will lose them, but those who lose their lives for me and for the gospel will save them. ³⁶ What good is it for you to gain the whole world, yet forfeit your soul? ³⁷ Or what can you give in exchange for your soul? ³⁸ All who are ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation the Son of Man will be ashamed of when he comes in his Father's glory with the holy angels."

9 And he said to them, "I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power."

The Transfiguration

² After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and led them up a high mountain, where they were all alone. There he was transfigured before them.

³ His clothes became dazzling white, whiter than anyone in the world could bleach them. ⁴ And there appeared before them Elijah and Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

⁵ Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." ⁶ (He did not know what to say, they were so frightened.)

⁷ Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is my Son, whom I love. Listen to him!"

⁸ Suddenly, when they looked round, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.¹⁰ They kept the matter to themselves, discussing what "rising from the dead" meant.

¹¹ And they asked him, "Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?"

¹² Jesus replied, "To be sure, Elijah does come first, and restores all things. Why then is it written that the Son of Man must suffer much and be rejected?" ¹³ But I tell you, Elijah has come, and they have done to him everything they wished, just as it is written about him."

The Healing of a Boy With an Evil Spirit

¹⁴ When they came to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and the teachers of the law arguing with them. ¹⁵ As soon as all the people saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with wonder and ran to greet him.

¹⁶ "What are you arguing with them about?" he asked.

¹⁷ A man in the crowd answered, "Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that has robbed him of speech. ¹⁸ Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to drive out the spirit, but they could not."

¹⁹ "O unbelieving generation," Jesus replied, "how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy to me."

²⁰ So they brought him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.

²¹ Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has he been like this?"

"From childhood," he answered. ²² "It has often thrown him into fire or water to kill him. But if you can do anything, take pity on us and help us."

²³ "If you can?" said Jesus. "Everything is possible for one who believes."

²⁴ Immediately the boy's father exclaimed, "I do believe; help me overcome my unbelief!"

²⁵ When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, he rebuked the evil^a spirit. "You deaf and mute spirit," he said, "I command you, come out of him and never enter him again."

²⁶ The spirit shrieked, convulsed him violently and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, "He's dead." ²⁷ But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him to his feet, and he stood up.

²⁸ After Jesus had gone indoors, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

²⁹ He replied, "This kind can come out only by prayer."^b

³⁰ They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were, ³¹ because he was teaching his disciples. He said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands. People will kill him, and after three days he will rise." ³² But they did not understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him about it.

Who Is the Greatest?

³³ They came to Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the road?"

³⁴ But they kept quiet because on the way they had argued about who was the greatest.

³⁵ Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, "Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last, and the servant of all."

³⁶ He took a little child whom he placed among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me."

Whoever Is Not Against Us Is for Us

³⁸ "Teacher," said John, "we saw someone driving out demons in your name and we told him to stop, because he was not one of us."

³⁹“Do not stop him,” Jesus said. “No-one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment say anything bad about me, ⁴⁰for whoever is not against us is for us. ⁴¹I tell you the truth, anyone who gives you a cup of water in my name because you belong to Christ will certainly be rewarded.

Causing to Sin

⁴²“And if any of you causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for you to be thrown into the sea with a large millstone tied around your neck. ⁴³If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go into hell, where the fire never goes out. ⁴⁴And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. ⁴⁵And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, ⁴⁶where

“their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.”^e

⁴⁹Everyone will be salted with fire.

⁵⁰“Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with each other.”

Divorce

10 Jesus then left that place and went into the region of Judea and across the Jordan. Again crowds of people came to him, and as was his custom, he taught them.

²Some Pharisees came and tested him by asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

³“What did Moses command you?” he replied.

⁴They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away.”

⁵“It was because your hearts were hard that Moses wrote you this law,” Jesus replied. ⁶“But at the beginning of creation God ‘made them male and female.’ ⁷‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, ⁸and the two will become one flesh.’ ⁹So they are no longer two, but one. ¹⁰Therefore what God has joined together, let no-one separate.”

¹¹When they were in the house again, the disciples asked Jesus about this. ¹²He answered, “Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her. ¹³And if she divorces her husband and marries another man, she commits adultery.”

The Little Children and Jesus

¹³People were bringing little children to Jesus to have him touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁵I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.” ¹⁶And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them and blessed them.

The Rich Young Man

¹⁷As Jesus started on his way, someone ran up to him and fell on his knees before him. “Good teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

¹⁸“Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No-one is good—except God alone. ¹⁹You know the commandments: ‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honour your father and mother.’ ²⁰”

²¹Jesus looked at him and loved him. “One thing you lack,” he said. “Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

²²At this the man’s face fell. He went away sad, because he had great wealth.

²³Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!”

²⁴The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, “Children, how hard it is^e to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for the rich to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶The disciples were even more amazed, and said to each other, “Who then can be saved?”

²⁷Jesus looked at them and said, “Humanly, this is impossible, but not with God; all things are possible with God.”

²⁸Peter said to him, “We have left everything to follow you!”

²⁹“I tell you the truth,” Jesus replied, “no-one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel ³⁰will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—and with them, persecutions) and in the age to come, eternal life. ³¹But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

³²They were on their way up to Jerusalem, with Jesus leading the way, and the disciples were astonished, while those who followed were afraid. Again he took the Twelve aside and told them what was going to happen to him. ³³“We are going up to Jerusalem,” he said, “and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and teachers of the law. They will condemn him to death and will hand him over to the Gentiles, ³⁴who will mock him and spit on him, flog him and kill him. Three days later he will rise.”

The Request of James and John

³⁵Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want you to do for us whatever we ask.”

³⁶“What do you want me to do for you?” he asked.

³⁷They replied, “Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory.”

³⁸“You don’t know what you are asking,” Jesus said. “Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptised with the baptism I am baptised with?”

³⁹“We can,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink and be baptised with the baptism I am baptised with, ⁴⁰but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared.”

⁴¹When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John.

⁴²Jesus called them together and said, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. ⁴³Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. ⁴⁵For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Blind Bartimaeus Receives His Sight

⁴⁶Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples, together with a large crowd, were leaving the city, a blind man, Bartimaeus (that is, the Son of Timaeus), was sitting by the roadside begging.

⁴⁷When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁸Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁹Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.”

So they called to the blind man, “Cheer up! On your feet! He’s calling you.”

⁵⁰Throwing his cloak aside, he jumped to his feet and came to Jesus.

⁵¹"What do you want me to do for you?" Jesus asked him.

The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see."

⁵²"Go," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you." Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

The Triumphal Entry

11 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, ²saying to them, "Go to the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no-one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here shortly.'"

⁴They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. As they untied it, ⁵some people standing there asked, "What are you doing, untying that colt?" ⁶They answered as Jesus had told them to, and the people let them go. ⁷When they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, he sat on it. ⁸Many people spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut in the fields. ⁹Those who went ahead and those who followed shouted,

"Hosanna!"^a

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"^b

¹⁰"Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!"

"Hosanna in the highest!"

¹¹Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Jesus Clears the Temple

¹²The next day as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. ¹³Seeing in the distance a fig-tree in leaf, he went to find out if it had any fruit. When he reached it, he found nothing but leaves, because it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴Then he said to the tree, "May no-one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard him say it.

¹⁵On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple area and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the benches of those selling doves, ¹⁶and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. ¹⁷And as he taught them, he said, "Is it not written:

"My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations"^c?

But you have made it 'a den of robbers'."^d

¹⁸The chief priests and the teachers of the law heard this and began looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed at his teaching.

¹⁹When evening came, they^e went out of the city.

The Withered Fig-Tree

²⁰In the morning, as they went along, they saw the fig-tree withered from the roots. ²¹Peter remembered and said to Jesus, "Rabbi, look! The fig-tree you cursed has withered!"

²²"Have faith in God," Jesus answered. ²³"I tell you the truth, if you say to this mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and do not doubt in your heart but believe that what you say will happen, it will be done for you. ²⁴Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. ²⁵And when you stand praying,

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

²⁷They arrived again in Jerusalem, and while Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders came to him. ²⁸“By what authority are you doing these things?” they asked. “And who gave you authority to do this?”

²⁹Jesus replied, “I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. ³⁰John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or of human origin? Tell me!”

³¹They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven’, he will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’” ³²But if we say, ‘Of human origin’ . . .” (They feared the people, for everyone held that John really was a prophet.)

³³So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

The Parable of the Tenants

12 He then began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a pit for the winepress and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and went away on a journey. ²At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants to collect from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. ³But they seized him, beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ⁴Then he sent another servant to them; they struck this man on the head and treated him shamefully. ⁵He sent still another, and that one they killed. He sent many others; some of them they beat, others they killed.

⁶“He had one left to send, a son, whom he loved. He sent him last of all, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

⁷“But the tenants said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ ⁸So they took him and killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

⁹“What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Haven’t you read this scripture:

“‘The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone;”

¹¹the Lord has done this, and it is marvellous in our eyes?”

¹²Then they looked for a way to arrest him because they knew he had spoken the parable against them. But they were afraid of the crowd; so they left him and went away.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

¹³Later they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Jesus to catch him in his words. ¹⁴They came to him and said, “Teacher, we know you are a man of integrity. You aren’t swayed by others, because you pay no attention to who they are; but you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not? ¹⁵Should we pay or shouldn’t we?”

But Jesus knew their hypocrisy. “Why are you trying to trap me?” he asked. “Bring me a denarius and let me look at it.” ¹⁶They brought the coin, and he asked them, “Whose portrait is this? And whose inscription?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

¹⁷Then Jesus said to them, “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s and to God what is God’s.”

And they were amazed at him.

Marriage at the Resurrection

¹⁸Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him with a question. ¹⁹“Teacher,” they said, “Moses

The first one married and died without leaving any children. ²¹The second one married the widow, but he also died, leaving no child. It was the same with the third. ²²In fact, none of the seven left any children. Last of all, the woman died too. ²³At the resurrection^c whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?"

²⁴Jesus replied, "Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God? ²⁵When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven. ²⁶Now about the dead rising—have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account of the bush, how God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'^d? ²⁷He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are badly mistaken!"

The Greatest Commandment

²⁸One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?"

²⁹"The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one.'^e ³⁰Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.'^f ³¹The second is this: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.'^g There is no commandment greater than these."

³²"Well said, teacher," the man replied. "You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. ³³To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

³⁴When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And from then on no-one dared ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Christ?

³⁵While Jesus was teaching in the temple courts, he asked, "How is it that the teachers of the law say that the Christ^h is the son of David? ³⁶David himself, speaking by the Holy Spirit, declared:

"The Lord said to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand
until I put your enemies
under your feet."ⁱ

³⁷David himself calls him 'Lord'. How then can he be his son?"

The large crowd listened to him with delight.

³⁸As he taught, Jesus said, "Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted in the market-places, ³⁹and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets. ⁴⁰They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. Such people will be punished most severely."

The Widow's Offering

⁴¹Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts. ⁴²But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins,^j worth only a fraction of a penny.^k

⁴³Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. ⁴⁴They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on."

Signs of the End of the Age

13 As he was leaving the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher! What massive stones! What magnificent buildings!"

²"Do you see all these great buildings?" replied Jesus. "Not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

³As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴"Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are all about to be fulfilled?"

⁵Jesus said to them: "Watch out that no-one deceives you. ⁶Many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and will deceive many. ⁷When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁸Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and famines. These are the beginning of birth-pains.

⁹"You must be on your guard. You will be handed over to the local councils and flogged in the synagogues. On account of me you will stand before governors and kings as witnesses to them. ¹⁰And the gospel must first be preached to all nations. ¹¹Whenever you are arrested and brought to trial, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Just say whatever is given you at the time, for it is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

¹²"Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death. ¹³Everyone will hate you because of me, but those who stand firm to the end will be saved.

the field go back to get a cloak. ¹⁷How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers! ¹⁸Pray that this will not take place in winter, ¹⁹because those will be days of distress unequalled from the beginning, when God created the world, until now—and never to be equalled again. ²⁰If the Lord had not cut short those days, no-one would survive. But for the sake of the elect, whom he has chosen, he has shortened them. ²¹At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!'^c or, 'Look, there he is!' do not believe it. ²²For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and miracles to deceive the elect—if that were possible. ²³So be on your guard; I have told you everything ahead of time.

²⁴"But in those days, following that distress,

" 'the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light;
²⁵the stars will fall from the sky,
and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.'^d

²⁶"At that time people will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷And he will send his angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the heavens.

²⁸"Now learn this lesson from the fig-tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. ²⁹Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, right at the door. ³⁰I tell you the truth, this generation^e will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. ³¹Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

The Day and Hour Unknown

³²"No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. ³³Be on guard! Be alert! You do not know when that time will come. ³⁴It's like a man going away: He leaves his house and puts his servants in charge, each with an assigned task, and tells the one at the door to keep watch.

³⁵"Therefore keep watch because you do not know when the owner of the house will come back—whether in the evening, or at midnight, or when the cock crows, or at dawn. ³⁶If he comes suddenly, do not let him find you sleeping. ³⁷What I say to you, I say to everyone: 'Watch!'"

14 Now the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were only two days away, and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some sly way to arrest Jesus and kill him. ²"But not during the Feast," they said, "or the people may riot."

³While he was in Bethany, reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his head.

⁴Some of those present were saying indignantly to one another, "Why this waste of perfume? ⁵It could have been sold for more than a year's wages^a and the money given to the poor." And they rebuked her harshly.

⁶"Leave her alone," said Jesus. "Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ⁷The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me. ⁸She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial. ⁹I tell you the truth, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her."

¹⁰Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them. ¹¹They were delighted to hear this and promised to give him money. So he watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

The Lord's Supper

¹²On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when it was customary to sacrifice the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make preparations for you to eat the Passover?"

¹³So he sent two of his disciples, telling them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. ¹⁴Say to the owner of the house he enters, 'The Teacher asks: Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' ¹⁵He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."

¹⁶The disciples left, went into the city and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve. ¹⁸While they were reclining at the table eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me—one who is eating with me."

¹⁹They were saddened, and one by one they said to him, "Surely not I?"

²⁰"It is one of the Twelve," he replied, "one who dips bread into the bowl with me. ²¹The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born."

²²While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take it; this is my body."

²³Then he took the cup, gave thanks and offered it to them, and they all drank from it.

²⁴"This is my blood of the^b covenant, which is poured out for many," he said to them. ²⁵"I tell you the truth, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."

²⁶When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

²⁷“You will all fall away,” Jesus told them, “for it is written:

“‘I will strike the shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.’”^c

²⁸But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

²⁹Peter declared, “Even if all fall away, I will not.”

³⁰“I tell you the truth,” Jesus answered, “today—yes, tonight—before the cock crows twice^d you yourself will disown me three times.”

³¹But Peter insisted emphatically, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you.” And all the others said the same.

Gethsemane

³²They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” ³³He took Peter, James and John along with him, and he began to be deeply distressed and troubled. ³⁴“My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death,” he said to them. “Stay here and keep watch.”

³⁵Going a little farther, he fell to the ground and prayed that if possible the hour might pass from him. ³⁶“Abba,^e Father,” he said, “everything is possible for you. Take this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will.”

³⁷Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Simon,” he said to Peter, “are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? ³⁸Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

³⁹Once more he went away and prayed the same thing. ⁴⁰When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. They did not know what to say to him.

⁴¹Returning the third time, he said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting?

Enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Rise! Let us go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Jesus Arrested

⁴³Just as he was speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, appeared. With him was a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, the teachers of the law, and the elders.

⁴⁴Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest him and lead him away under guard.” ⁴⁵Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, “Rabbi!” and kissed him. ⁴⁶The men seized Jesus and arrested him. ⁴⁷Then one of those standing near drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

⁴⁸“Am I leading a rebellion,” said Jesus, “that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? ⁴⁹Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled.” ⁵⁰Then everyone deserted him and fled.

⁵¹A young man, wearing nothing but a linen garment, was following Jesus. When they seized him, ⁵²he fled naked, leaving his garment behind.

Before the Sanhedrin

⁵³They took Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests, elders and teachers of the law came together. ⁵⁴Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards and warmed himself at the fire.

⁵⁵The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. ⁵⁶Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree.

⁵⁷Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him: ⁵⁸“We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple made with human hands and in three days will build another, not made with hands.’”

^c27 Zech. 13:7 ^d30 Some early manuscripts do not have twice. ^e36 Aramaic for Father

⁵⁹ Yet even then their testimony did not agree.

⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, "Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?"

⁶¹ But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer.

Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

⁶² "I am," said Jesus. "And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven."

⁶³ The high priest tore his clothes. "Why do we need any more witnesses?" he asked. ⁶⁴ "You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?"

They all condemned him as worthy of death. ⁶⁵ Then some began to spit at him; they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, "Prophecy!" And the guards took him and beat him.

Peter Disowns Jesus

⁶⁶ While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the female servants of the high priest came by. ⁶⁷ When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him.

"You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus," she said.

⁶⁸ But he denied it. "I don't know or understand what you're talking about," he said, and went out into the entrance.^g

⁶⁹ When the female servant saw him there, she said again to those standing around, "This fellow is one of them."⁷⁰ Again he denied it.

After a little while, those standing near said to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean."

⁷¹ He began to call down curses on himself, and he swore to them, "I don't know this man you're talking about."

⁷² Immediately the cock crowed the second time.^h Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: "Before the cock crows twiceⁱ you will disown me three times." And he broke down and wept.

Jesus Before Pilate

15 Very early in the morning, the chief priests, with the elders, the teachers of the law and the whole Sanhedrin, reached a decision. They bound Jesus, led him away and turned him over to Pilate.

² "Are you the king of the Jews?" asked Pilate.

"Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied.

³ The chief priests accused him of many things. ⁴ So again Pilate asked him, "Aren't you going to answer? See how many things they are accusing you of."

⁵ But Jesus still made no reply, and Pilate was amazed.

⁶ Now it was the custom at the Feast to release a prisoner whom the people requested. ⁷ A man called Barabbas was in prison with the insurrectionists who had committed murder in the uprising. ⁸ The crowd came up and asked Pilate to do for them what he usually did.

⁹ "Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?" asked Pilate, knowing it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him.

¹¹ But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have Pilate release Barabbas instead.

¹² "What shall I do, then, with the one you call the king of the Jews?" Pilate asked them.

¹³ "Crucify him!" they shouted.

¹⁴ "Why? What crime has he committed?" asked Pilate.

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify him!"

¹⁵ Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He had Jesus flogged, and handed him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

¹⁶ The soldiers led Jesus away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers.

⁶¹ Or Messiah ⁶⁸ Some early manuscripts entrance and the cock crowed

⁷² Some early manuscripts do not have the second time. ⁷³ Some early manuscripts do not have twice.

¹⁷They put a purple robe on him, then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on him. ¹⁸And they began to call out to him, "Hail, king of the Jews!" ¹⁹Again and again they struck him on the head with a staff and spat on him. Falling on their knees, they paid homage to him. ²⁰And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him out to crucify him.

The Crucifixion

²¹A certain man from Cyrene, Simon, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was passing by on his way in from the country, and they forced him to carry the cross. ²²They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means The Place of the Skull). ²³Then they offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it. ²⁴And they crucified him. Dividing up his clothes, they cast lots to see what each would get.

²⁵It was the third hour when they crucified him. ²⁶The written notice of the charge against him read: THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁷They crucified two robbers with him, one on his right and one on his left. ²⁸Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads and saying, "So! You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, ²⁹come down from the cross and save yourself!"

³⁰In the same way the chief priests and the teachers of the law mocked him among themselves. "He saved others," they said, "but he can't save himself!" ³¹Let this Christ,^b this King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe." Those crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

The Death of Jesus

³²At the sixth hour darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. ³³And

at the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" — which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"^c

³⁴When some of those standing near heard this, they said, "Listen, he's calling Elijah."

³⁵Someone ran, filled a sponge with wine vinegar, put it on a stick, and offered it to Jesus to drink. "Now leave him alone. Let's see if Elijah comes to take him down," he said.

³⁶With a loud cry, Jesus breathed his last.

³⁷The curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. ³⁸And when the centurion, who stood there in front of Jesus, heard his cry and^d saw how he died, he said, "Surely this man was the Son^e of God!"

³⁹Some women were watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. ⁴⁰In Galilee these women had followed him and cared for his needs. Many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem were also there.

The Burial of Jesus

⁴¹It was Preparation Day (that is, the day before the Sabbath). So as evening approached, ⁴²Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent member of the Council, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. ⁴³Pilate was surprised to hear that he was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him if Jesus had already died. ⁴⁴When he learned from the centurion that it was so, he gave the body to Joseph. ⁴⁵So Joseph bought some linen cloth, took down the body, wrapped it in the linen, and placed it in a tomb cut out of rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. ⁴⁶Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

The Resurrection

16 When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go to anoint Jesus' body. ²Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they were on their way to the tomb ³and they asked each other, "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb?"

⁴But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away. ⁵As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

⁶"Don't be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'"

⁸Trembling and bewildered, the women went out and fled from the tomb. They said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

[The earliest manuscripts and some other ancient witnesses do not have Mark 16:9 – 20.]

⁹When Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary

Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons. ¹⁰She went and told those who had been with him and who were mourning and weeping. ¹¹When they heard that Jesus was alive and that she had seen him, they did not believe it.

¹²Afterwards Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them while they were walking in the country. ¹³These returned and reported it to the rest; but they did not believe them either.

¹⁴Later Jesus appeared to the Eleven as they were eating; he rebuked them for their lack of faith and their stubborn refusal to believe those who had seen him after he had risen.

¹⁵He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation. ¹⁶Whoever believes and is baptised will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. ¹⁷And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues; ¹⁸they will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all; they will place their hands on sick people, and they will get well."

¹⁹After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven and he sat at the right hand of God. ²⁰Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them and confirmed his word by the signs that accompanied it.

Luke

Introduction

1 Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled^a among us, ²just as they were handed down to us by those who from the first were eye-witnesses and servants of the word. ³Therefore, since I myself have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, it seemed good also to me to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

⁵In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah; his wife Elizabeth was also a descendant of Aaron. ⁶Both of them were upright in the sight of God, observing all the Lord's commandments and regulations blamelessly. ⁷But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren; and they were both well on in years.

⁸Once when Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, ⁹he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰And when the time for the burning of incense came, all the assembled worshippers were praying outside.

¹¹Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. ¹²When Zechariah saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear. ¹³But the angel said to him: "Do not be afraid, Zechariah; your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to give him the name John. ¹⁴He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice because of his birth, ¹⁵for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He is never to take wine or other fermented drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from birth.^b ¹⁶Many of the people of Israel will he bring back to the Lord their God. ¹⁷And he will go on before the Lord, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the parents to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

¹⁸Zechariah asked the angel, "How can I be sure of this? I am an old man and my wife is well on in years."

¹⁹The angel answered, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news. ²⁰And now you will be silent and not able to speak until the day this happens, because you did not believe my words, which will come true at their proper time."

²¹Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he stayed so long in the temple. ²²When he came out, he could not speak to them. They realised he had seen a vision in the temple, for he kept making signs to them but remained unable to speak.

^a1 Or been surely believed ^b15 Or from his mother's womb

²³When his time of service was completed, he returned home. ²⁴After this his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion. ²⁵"The Lord has done this for me," she said. "In these days he has shown his favour and taken away my disgrace among the people."

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

²⁶In the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, ²⁷to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favoured! The Lord is with you."

²⁹Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favour with God. ³¹You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus. ³²He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, ³³and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; his kingdom will never end."

³⁴"How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?"

³⁵The angel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called^c the Son of God. ³⁶Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be barren is in her sixth month. ³⁷For nothing is impossible with God."

³⁸"I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May it be to me as you have said." Then the angel left her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

³⁹At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea,

⁴⁰where she entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. ⁴²In a loud voice she exclaimed: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the child you will bear! ⁴³But why am I so favoured, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? ⁴⁴As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. ⁴⁵Blessed is she who has believed that what the Lord has said to her will be accomplished!"

Mary's Song

⁴⁶And Mary said:

"My soul glorifies the Lord
⁴⁷and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,

⁴⁸for he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant.
From now on all generations will call me blessed,

⁴⁹for the Mighty One has done great things for me—
holy is his name.

⁵⁰His mercy extends to those who fear
him,
from generation to generation.

⁵¹He has performed mighty deeds with his arm;

he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts.

⁵²He has brought down rulers from
their thrones

but has lifted up the humble.

⁵³He has filled the hungry with good
things

but has sent the rich away empty.

⁵⁴He has helped his servant Israel, remembering to be merciful

⁵⁵to Abraham and his descendants for
ever,
even as he said to our ancestors."

⁵⁶Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

^c35 Or So the child to be born will be called holy.

The Birth of John the Baptist

⁵⁷When it was time for Elizabeth to have her baby, she gave birth to a son.
⁵⁸Her neighbours and relatives heard that the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they shared her joy.

⁵⁹On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him after his father Zechariah, ⁶⁰but his mother spoke up and said, "No! He is to be called John."

⁶¹They said to her, "There is no-one among your relatives who has that name."

⁶²Then they made signs to his father, to find out what he would like to name the child. ⁶³He asked for a writing tablet, and to everyone's astonishment he wrote, "His name is John." ⁶⁴Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue was loosed, and he began to speak, praising God. ⁶⁵The neighbours were all filled with awe, and throughout the hill country of Judea people were talking about all these things. ⁶⁶Everyone who heard this wondered about it, asking, "What then is this child going to be?" For the Lord's hand was with him.

Zechariah's Song

⁶⁷His father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied:

⁶⁸"Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel,
 because he has come and has redeemed his people.

⁶⁹He has raised up a horn^d of salvation for us in the house of his servant David ⁷⁰(as he said through his holy prophets of long ago),

⁷¹salvation from our enemies
 and from the hand of all who hate us—

⁷²to show mercy to our ancestors
 and to remember his holy covenant,

⁷³the oath he swore to our father Abraham:

⁷⁴to rescue us from the hand of our enemies,

and to enable us to serve him without fear

⁷⁵in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

⁷⁶And you, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High;
 for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for him,

⁷⁷to give his people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,

⁷⁸because of the tender mercy of our God,
 by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven

⁷⁹to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the path of peace."

⁸⁰And the child grew and became strong in spirit; and he lived in the desert until he appeared publicly to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus

2 In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (²This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) ³And all went to their own towns to register.

⁴So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. ⁵He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, ⁷and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

⁸And there were shepherds living out in the fields near by, keeping watch over their flocks at night. ⁹An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. ¹¹Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; he is Christ^a the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

¹³Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

¹⁴"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to those on whom his favour rests."

¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

¹⁶So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

Jesus Presented in the Temple

²¹On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise him, he was named Jesus, the name the angel had given him before he had been conceived.

²²When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses had been completed, Joseph and Mary took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord ²³(as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the Lord"^b), ²⁴and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: "a pair of doves or two young pigeons".^c

²⁵Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. ²⁶It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ. ²⁷Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required, ²⁸Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying:

²⁹"Sovereign Lord, as you have promised,
you now dismiss^d your servant in
peace.

³⁰For my eyes have seen your salvation,

³¹which you have prepared in the sight of all people,

³²a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people
Israel."

³³The child's father and mother marvelled at what was said about him. ³⁴Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: "This child is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, ³⁵so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too."

³⁶There was also a prophet, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, ³⁷and then was a widow until she was eighty-four.^e She never left the temple but worshipped night and day, fasting and praying. ³⁸Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

³⁹When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee to their

The Boy Jesus at the Temple

⁴¹Every year his parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover. ⁴²When he was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast, according to the custom. ⁴³After the Feast was over, while his parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it. ⁴⁴Thinking he was in their company, they travelled on for a day. Then they began looking for him among their relatives and friends. ⁴⁵When they did not find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him. ⁴⁶After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷Everyone who heard him was amazed at his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you."

⁴⁹"Why were you searching for me?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my Father's house?" ⁵⁰But they did not understand what he was saying to them.

⁵¹Then he went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But his mother treasured all these things in her heart. ⁵²And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and people.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and Tracónitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene—²during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the desert. ³He went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁴As is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet:

"A voice of one calling in the desert,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.

⁵Every valley shall be filled in,
every mountain and hill made low.
The crooked roads shall become straight,
the rough ways smooth.

⁶And the whole human race will see God's salvation.'"^a

⁷John said to the crowds coming out to be baptised by him, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ⁹The axe is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

¹⁰"What should we do then?" the crowd asked.

¹¹John answered, "The person with two tunics should share with the one who has none, and the one who has food should do the same."

¹²Tax collectors also came to be baptised. "Teacher," they asked, "what should we do?"

¹³"Don't collect any more than you are required to," he told them.

¹⁴Then some soldiers asked him, "And what should we do?"

He replied, "Don't extort money and don't accuse people falsely—be content with your pay."

¹⁵The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John might possibly be the Christ. ¹⁶John answered them all, "I baptise you with^c water. But one more powerful than I will come, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹⁷His winnowing fork is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." ¹⁸And with many other words John exhorted the people and preached the good news to them.

^a6 Isaiah 40:3–5 ^b15 Or Messiah ^c16 Or in

¹⁹But when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of Herodias, his brother's wife, and all the other evil things he had done, ²⁰Herod added this to them all: He locked John up in prison.

The Baptism and Genealogy of Jesus

²¹When all the people were being baptised, Jesus was baptised too. And as he was praying, heaven was opened ²²and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased."

²³Now Jesus himself was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. He was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph,

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the desert, ²where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry.

³The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."

⁴Jesus answered, "It is written: 'People do not live on bread alone.'"^a

⁵The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. ⁶And he said to him, "I will give you all their authority and splendour, for it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to. ⁷So if you worship me, it will all be yours."

⁸Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.'"^b

⁹The devil led him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. "If you are the Son of God," he said, "throw yourself down from here. ¹⁰For it is written:

" 'He will command his angels concerning you to guard you carefully;

¹²Jesus answered, "It says: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'^d"

¹³When the devil had finished all this tempting, he left him until an opportune time.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

¹⁴Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about him spread through the whole countryside. ¹⁵He taught in their synagogues, and everyone praised him.

¹⁶He went to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and on the Sabbath day he went into the synagogue, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. ¹⁷The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written:

¹⁸"The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me
to preach good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners
and recovery of sight for the blind,
to release the oppressed, ¹⁹to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour."^e

²⁰Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him, ²¹and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

²²All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his lips. "Isn't this Joseph's son?" they asked.

²³Jesus said to them, "Surely you will quote this proverb to me: 'Physician, heal yourself! Do here in your home town what we have heard that you did in Capernaum.'"

²⁴"I tell you the truth," he continued,

"prophets are not accepted in their home towns. ²⁵I assure you that there were many widows in Israel in Elijah's time, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and there was a severe famine throughout the land. ²⁶Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to a widow in Zarephath in the region of Sidon. ²⁷And there were many in Israel with leprosy^f in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian."

²⁸All the people in the synagogue were furious when they heard this. ²⁹They got up, drove him out of the town, and took him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw him down the cliff. ³⁰But he walked right through the crowd and went on his way.

Jesus Drives Out an Evil Spirit

³¹Then he went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath began to teach the people. ³²They were amazed at his teaching, because his message had authority.

³³In the synagogue there was a man possessed by a demon, an evil^g spirit. He cried out at the top of his voice, ³⁴"Ha! What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

³⁵"Be quiet!" Jesus said sternly. "Come out of him!" Then the demon threw the man down before them all and came out without injuring him.

³⁶All the people were amazed and said to each other, "What is this teaching? With authority and power he gives orders to evil spirits and they come out!" ³⁷And the news about him spread throughout the surrounding area.

Jesus Heals Many

³⁸Jesus left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Jesus to help her. ³⁹So he bent over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. She got up at once and began to wait on them.

⁴⁰ When the sun was setting, the people brought to Jesus all who had various kinds of sickness, and laying his hands on each one, he healed them. ⁴¹ Moreover, demons came out of many people, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew he was the Christ.^h

⁴² At daybreak Jesus went out to a solitary place. The people were looking for him and when they came to where he was, they tried to keep him from leaving them. ⁴³ But he said, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because that is why I was sent." ⁴⁴ And he kept on preaching in the synagogues of Judea.ⁱ

S One day as Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret,^a with the people crowding round him and listening to the word of God,² he saw at the water's edge two boats, left there by the fishermen, who were washing their nets. ³ He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little from shore. Then he sat down and taught the people from the boat.

⁴ When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down^b the nets for a catch."

⁵ Simon answered, "Master, we've worked hard all night and haven't caught anything. But because you say so, I will let down the nets."

⁶ When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to break. ⁷ So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

⁸ When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Go away from me, Lord; I am a sinful man!" ⁹ For he and all his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken,¹⁰ and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners.

Then Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will catch men and women."¹¹ So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him.

The Man With Leprosy

¹² While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy.^c When he saw Jesus, he fell with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

¹³ Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. "I am willing," he said. "Be clean!" And immediately the leprosy left him.

¹⁴ Then Jesus ordered him, "Don't tell anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them."

¹⁵ Yet the news about him spread all the more, so that crowds of people came to hear him and to be healed of their sicknesses. ¹⁶ But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

¹⁷ One day as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law, who had come from every village of Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem, were sitting there. And the power of the Lord was present for him to heal the sick. ¹⁸ Some people came carrying a paralytic on a mat and tried to take him into the house to lay him before Jesus. ¹⁹ When they could not find a way to do this because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

²⁰ When Jesus saw their faith, he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven."

²¹ The Pharisees and the teachers of the law began thinking to themselves, "Who is this fellow who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

²² Jesus knew what they were thinking and asked, "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? ²³ Which is easier: to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? ²⁴ But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins. . . ." He said to the paralysed man, "I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home." ²⁵ Immediately he stood up in front of them, took what he had been lying on and went home praising God. ²⁶ Everyone was amazed and gave praise to God. They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen remarkable things today."

The Calling of Levi

²⁷ After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector by the name of Levi sitting at his tax booth. "Follow me," Jesus said to him. ²⁸ and Levi got up, left everything and followed him.

²⁹ Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect complained to his disciples, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and 'sinners'?"

³¹ Jesus answered them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. ³² I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

³³ They said to him, "John's disciples often fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours go on eating and drinking."

³⁴ Jesus answered, "Can you make the guests of the bridegroom fast while he is with them? ³⁵ But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; in those days they will fast."

³⁶ He told them this parable: "No-one tears a patch from a new garment and sews it on an old one. Whoever does will have torn the new garment, and the patch from the new will not match the old. ³⁷ And no-one pours new wine into old wineskins. If anyone does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. ³⁸ No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins. ³⁹ And none of you, after drinking old wine, wants the new, for you say, 'The old is better.'"

Lord of the Sabbath

6 One Sabbath Jesus was going through the cornfields, and his disciples began to pick some ears of corn, rub them in their hands and eat the grain. ² Some of the Pharisees asked, "Why are you doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"

³ Jesus answered them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? ⁴ He entered the house of God, and taking the consecrated bread, he ate what is lawful only for priests to eat. And he also gave some to his companions." ⁵ Then Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

⁶ On another Sabbath he went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was shrivelled. ⁷ The Pharisees and the teachers of the law were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely to see if he would heal on the Sabbath. ⁸ But Jesus knew what they were thinking and said to the man with the shrivelled hand, "Get up and stand in front of everyone." So he got up and stood there.

⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?"

¹⁰ He looked round at them all, and then said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was completely restored. ¹¹ But they were furious and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

¹² One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God. ¹³ When morning came,

he called his disciples to him and chose twelve of them, whom he also designated apostles: ¹⁴Simon (whom he named Peter), his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, ¹⁵Matthew, Thomas, James son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called the Zealot, ¹⁶Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Blessings and Woes

¹⁷He went down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples was there and a great number of people from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the coast of Tyre and Sidon, ¹⁸who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. Those troubled by evil^a spirits were cured, ¹⁹and the people all tried to touch him, because power was coming from him and healing them all.

²⁰Looking at his disciples, he said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you will be satisfied.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

²²Blessed are you when people hate you,
when they exclude you and insult
you
and reject your name as evil,
because of the Son of Man.

²³“Rejoice in that day and leap for joy,
because great is your reward in heaven.
For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.

²⁴“But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort.

²⁵Woe to you who are well fed now,
for you will go hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.

²⁶Woe to you when everyone speaks
well of you,
for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.

Love for Enemies

²⁷“But I tell you who hear me: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, pray for those who ill-treat you. ²⁹If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn the other also. If someone takes your cloak, do not withhold your tunic. ³⁰Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. ³¹Do to others as you would have them do to you.

³²“If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even ‘sinners’ love those who love them. ³³And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even ‘sinners’ do that. ³⁴And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even ‘sinners’ lend to ‘sinners’, expecting to be repaid in full. ³⁵But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. ³⁶Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

³⁷“Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. ³⁸Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.”

³⁹He also told them this parable: “Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

⁴¹“Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in someone else’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

⁴²How can you say, ‘Friend, let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when you yourself fail to see the plank in your own eye?”

^a18 Greek unclean

You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from the other person's eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

⁴³“No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. ⁴⁴Each tree is recognised by its own fruit. People do not pick figs from thorn-bushes, or grapes from briars. ⁴⁵Good people bring good things out of the good stored up in their hearts, and evil people bring evil things out of the evil stored up in their hearts. For out of the overflow of one's heart the mouth speaks.

The Wise and Foolish Builders

⁴⁶“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say? ⁴⁷I will show you what people are like who come to me and hear my words and put them into practice. ⁴⁸They are like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When the flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. ⁴⁹But those who hear my words and do not put them into practice are like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete.”

The Faith of the Centurion

7 When Jesus had finished saying all this in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum. ²There a centurion's servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die. ³The centurion heard of Jesus and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant. ⁴When they came to Jesus, they pleaded earnestly with him, “This man deserves to have you do this, ⁵because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue.” ⁶So Jesus went with them.

He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him:

“Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. ⁷That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁸For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, ‘Go’, and he goes; and that one, ‘Come’, and he comes. I say to my servant, ‘Do this’, and he does it.”

⁹When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, “I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel.” ¹⁰Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

¹¹Soon afterwards, Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. ¹²As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. ¹³When the Lord saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, “Don't cry.”

¹⁴Then he went up and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stood still. He said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!” ¹⁵The dead man sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶They were all filled with awe and praised God. “A great prophet has appeared among us,” they said. “God has come to help his people.” ¹⁷This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea^a and the surrounding country.

¹⁸John's disciples told him about all these things. Calling two of them, ¹⁹he sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?”

²⁰When the men came to Jesus, they said, “John the Baptist sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?’”

^a17 Or the land of the Jews

²¹ At that very time Jesus cured many who had diseases, sicknesses and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind. ²² So he replied to the messengers, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy^b are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. ²³ Blessed is anyone who does not fall away on account of me."

²⁴ After John's messengers left, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? ²⁵ If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear expensive clothes and indulge in luxury are in palaces. ²⁶ But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ²⁷ This is the one about whom it is written:

"I will send my messenger ahead of you,
who will prepare your way before you."^c

²⁸ I tell you, among those born of women there is no-one greater than John; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

(²⁹ All the people, even the tax collectors, when they heard Jesus' words, acknowledged that God's way was right, because they had been baptised by John. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and experts in the law rejected God's purpose for themselves, because they had not been baptised by John.)

³¹ "To what, then, can I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? ³² They are like children sitting in the market-place and calling out to each other:

"We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not cry."

³³ For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' ³⁴ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and "sinners".' ³⁵ But wisdom is proved right by all her children."

Jesus Anointed by a Sinful Woman

³⁶ Now one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, so he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. ³⁷ When a woman who had lived a sinful life in that town learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume. ³⁸ And as she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.

³⁹ When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is—that she is a sinner."

⁴⁰ Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you."

"Tell me, teacher," he said.

⁴¹ "Two people owed money to a certain money-lender. One owed him five hundred denarii,^d and the other fifty. ⁴² Neither of them had the money to pay him back, so he cancelled the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?"

⁴³ Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt cancelled."

"You have judged correctly," Jesus said.

⁴⁴ Then he turned towards the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. ⁴⁵ You did not give me a kiss, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped kissing my feet.

⁴⁶ You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet. ⁴⁷Therefore, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven—for she loved much. But the one who has been forgiven little loves little.”

^{c27} Mal. 3:1 ^{d41} A denarius was a coin worth about a day's wages.

⁴⁸Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

⁴⁹The other guests began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

⁵⁰Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

The Parable of the Sower

8 After this, Jesus travelled about from one town and village to another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, ²and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary (called Magdalene) from whom seven demons had come out; ³Joanna the wife of Chuza, the manager of Herod’s household; Susanna; and many others. These women were helping to support them out of their own means.

⁴While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from town after town, he told this parable: ⁵“A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it up. ⁶Some fell on rock, and when it came up, the plants withered because they had no moisture. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the plants. ⁸Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up and yielded a crop, a hundred times more than was sown.”

When he said this, he called out, “Those who have ears to hear, let them hear.”

⁹His disciples asked him what this parable meant. ¹⁰He said, “The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to others I speak in parables, so that,

“though seeing, they may not see;
though hearing, they may not understand.”^a

¹¹“This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God. ¹²Those along the path are the ones who hear, and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. ¹³Those on the rock are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in the time of testing they fall away. ¹⁴The seed that fell among thorns stands for those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life’s worries, riches and pleasures, and they do not mature. ¹⁵But the seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and by persevering produce a crop.

¹⁶“People do not light a lamp and hide it in a jar or put it under a bed. Instead, they put it on a stand, so that those who come in can see the light. ¹⁷For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be known or brought out into the open. ¹⁸Therefore consider carefully how you listen. Those who have will be given more; those who do not have, even what they think they have will be taken from them.”

Jesus’ Mother and Brothers

¹⁹Now Jesus’ mother and brothers came to see him, but they were not able to get near him because of the crowd. ²⁰Someone told him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you.”

²¹He replied, “My mother and brothers are those who hear God’s word and put it into practice.”

Jesus Calms the Storm

²²One day Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s go over to the other side of the lake.” So they got into a boat and set out.

²³As they sailed, he fell asleep. A squall

came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger.

²⁴The disciples went and woke him, saying, "Master, Master, we're going to drown!"

He got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm. ²⁵"Where is your faith?" he asked his disciples.

In fear and amazement they asked one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him."

The Healing of a Demon-possessed Man

²⁶They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes,^b which is across the lake from Galilee. ²⁷When Jesus stepped ashore, he was met by a demon-possessed man from the town. For a long time this man had not worn clothes or lived in a house, but had lived in the tombs. ²⁸When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet, shouting at the top of his voice, "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torture me!" ²⁹For Jesus had commanded the evil^c spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was chained hand and foot and kept under guard, he had broken his chains and had been driven by the demon into solitary places.

³⁰Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

"Legion," he replied, because many demons had gone into him. ³¹And they begged him repeatedly not to order them to go into the Abyss.

³²A large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside. The demons begged Jesus to let them go into them, and he gave them permission. ³³When the demons came out of the man, they went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

³⁴When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, ³⁵and the people went out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, dressed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. ³⁶Those who had seen it told the people how the demon-possessed man had been cured. ³⁷Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them, because they were overcome with fear. So he got into the boat and left.

³⁸The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹"Return home and tell how much God has done for you." So the man went away and told all over the town how much Jesus had done for him.

A Dead Girl and a Sick Woman

⁴⁰Now when Jesus returned, a crowd welcomed him, for they were all expecting him. ⁴¹Then a man named Jairus, a ruler of the synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with him to come to his house ⁴²because his only daughter, a girl of about twelve, was dying.

As Jesus was on his way, the crowds almost crushed him. ⁴³And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years,^d but no-one could heal her. ⁴⁴She came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak, and immediately her bleeding stopped.

⁴⁵"Who touched me?" Jesus asked.

When they all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the people are crowding and pressing against you."

⁴⁶But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; I know that power has gone out from me."

⁴⁷Then the woman, seeing that she could not go unnoticed, came trembling and fell at his feet. In the presence of all the people, she told why she had touched him and how she had been instantly healed. ⁴⁸Then he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace."

⁴⁹While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue ruler. "Your daughter is dead," he said. "Don't bother the teacher any more."

⁵⁰Hearing this, Jesus said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed."

⁵¹When he arrived at the house of Jairus, he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John and James, and the child's father and mother. ⁵²Meanwhile, all the people were wailing and mourning for her. "Stop wailing," Jesus said. "She is not dead but asleep."

⁵³They laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴But he took her by the hand and said, "My child, get up!" ⁵⁵Her spirit returned, and at once she stood up. Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat. ⁵⁶Her parents were astonished, but he ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

9 When Jesus had called the Twelve together, he gave them power and authority to drive out all demons and to cure diseases, ²and he sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. ³He told them: "Take nothing for the journey—no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, no extra tunic. ⁴Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that town. ⁵If people do not welcome you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave their town, as a testimony against them." ⁶So they set out and went from village to village, preaching the gospel and healing people everywhere.

⁷Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was going on. And he was perplexed, because some were saying that John had been raised from the dead, ⁸others that Elijah had appeared, and still others that one of the prophets of long ago had come back to life. ⁹But Herod said, "I beheaded John. Who, then, is this I hear such things about?" And he tried to see him.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

¹⁰When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus what they had done. Then he took them with him and they withdrew by themselves to a town called Bethsaida, ¹¹but the crowds learned about it and followed him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing.

¹²Late in the afternoon the Twelve came to him and said, "Send the crowd away so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside and find food and lodging, because we are in a remote place here."

¹³He replied, "You give them something to eat."

They answered, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish—unless we go and buy food for all this crowd." ¹⁴(About five thousand men were there.)

But he said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." ¹⁵The disciples did so, and everybody sat down. ¹⁶Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them. Then he gave them to the disciples to set before the people. ¹⁷They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Peter's Confession of Christ

¹⁸Once when Jesus was praying in private and his disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say I am?"

¹⁹They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, that one of the prophets of long ago has come back to life."

²⁰"But what about you?" he asked. "Who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "The Christ^a of God."

²¹Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone. ²²And he said, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life."

²³Then he said to them all: "Those who would come after me must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and

^a20 Or Messiah

follow me. ²⁴For those who want to save their lives will lose them, but those who lose their lives for me will save them. ²⁵What good is it for you to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit your very self? ²⁶All who are ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. ²⁷I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

²⁸About eight days after Jesus said this, he took Peter, John and James with him and went up onto a mountain to pray. ²⁹As he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning. ³⁰Two men, Moses and Elijah, ³¹appeared in glorious splendour, talking with Jesus. They spoke about his departure, which he was about to bring to fulfilment at Jerusalem. ³²Peter and his companions were very sleepy, but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. ³³As the men were leaving Jesus, Peter said to him, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." (He did not know what he was saying.)

³⁴While he was speaking, a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵A voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, whom I have chosen; listen to him." ³⁶When the voice had spoken, they found that Jesus was alone. The disciples kept this to themselves, and told no-one at that time what they had seen.

³⁷The next day, when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. ³⁸A man in the crowd called out, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. ³⁹A spirit seizes him and he suddenly screams; it throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It scarcely ever leaves him and is destroying him. ⁴⁰I begged your disciples to drive it out, but they could not."

⁴¹"O unbelieving and perverse generation," Jesus replied, "how long shall I stay with you and put up with you? Bring your son here."

⁴²Even while the boy was coming, the demon threw him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil^b spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father. ⁴³And they were all amazed at the greatness of God.

While everyone was marvelling at all that Jesus did, he said to his disciples. ⁴⁴"Listen carefully to what I am about to tell you: The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into human hands." ⁴⁵But they did not understand what this meant. It was hidden from them, so that they did not grasp it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

Who Will Be the Greatest?

⁴⁶An argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest. ⁴⁷Jesus, knowing their thoughts, took a little child and made him stand beside him. ⁴⁸Then he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. For whoever is least among you all is the greatest."

⁴⁹"Master," said John, "we saw someone driving out demons in your name and we tried to stop him, because he is not one of us."

⁵⁰"Do not stop him," Jesus said, "for whoever is not against you is for you."

Samaritan Opposition

⁵¹As the time approached for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. ⁵²And he sent messengers on ahead, who went into a Samaritan village to get things ready for him; ⁵³but

the people there did not welcome him, because he was heading for Jerusalem. ⁵⁴When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?" ⁵⁵But Jesus turned and rebuked them, ⁵⁶and they went to another village.

The Cost of Following Jesus

⁵⁷As they were walking along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."

⁵⁸Jesus replied, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

⁵⁹He said to another man, "Follow me."

But he replied, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

⁶⁰Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

⁶¹Still another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but first let me go back and say good-bye to my family."

⁶²Jesus replied, "No-one who takes hold of the plough and looks back is fit for service in the kingdom of God."

Jesus Sends Out the Seventy-two

10 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two^a others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. ²He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. ³Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. ⁴Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road.

⁵"When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' ⁶If anyone there loves peace, your peace will rest on that person; if not, it will return to you. ⁷Stay in that house, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for workers deserve their wages. Do not move around from house to house.

⁸"When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is set before you. ⁹Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God is near you.'

¹⁰But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, ¹¹'Even the dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.' ¹²I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

¹³"Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. ¹⁵And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to the skies? No, you will go down to the depths.^b

¹⁶"Whoever listens to you listens to me; whoever rejects you rejects me; but whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."

¹⁷The seventy-two returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name."

¹⁸He replied, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. ¹⁹I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. ²⁰However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

²¹At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was your good pleasure.

²²"All things have been committed to me by my Father. No-one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no-one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

²³Then he turned to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

²⁵On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

²⁶"What is written in the Law?" he replied. "How do you read it?"

²⁷He answered: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind';^c and, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.'^d"

²⁸"You have answered correctly," Jesus replied. "Do this and you will live."

²⁹But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"

³⁰In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half-dead. ³¹A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. ³²So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a Samaritan, as he travelled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. ³⁴He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵The next day he took out two silver coins^e and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'

³⁶"Which of these three do you think was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"

³⁷The expert in the law replied, "The one who had mercy on him."

Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

At the Home of Martha and Mary

³⁸As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him. ³⁹She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!"

⁴¹"Martha, Martha," the Lord answered, "you are worried and upset about many things, ⁴²but only one thing is needed.^f Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her."

Jesus' Teaching on Prayer

11 One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

²He said to them, "When you pray, say:

"Father,^g
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come.^h

³Give us each day our daily bread.

⁴Forgive us our sins,

for we also forgive everyone who sins against us.ⁱ

And lead us not into temptation."^j

⁵Then he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and he goes to him at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁶because a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before him.'

⁷Then the one inside answers, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.' ⁸I tell you, though he will not get up and give him the bread because he is his friend, yet because of the man's boldness^k he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

Jesus and Beelzebub

¹⁴Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon left, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowd was amazed. ¹⁵But some of them said, “By Beelzebub,⁸ the prince of demons, he is driving out demons.” ¹⁶Others tested him by asking for a sign from heaven.

¹⁷Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them: “Any kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and a house divided against itself will fall. ¹⁸If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? I say this because you claim that I drive out demons by Beelzebub. ¹⁹Now if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your followers drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. ²⁰But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

²⁴“When an evil^h spirit comes out of anyone, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’ ²⁵When it arrives, it finds the house swept clean and put in order. ²⁶Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first.”

²⁷As Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd called out, “Blessed is the mother who gave you birth and nursed you.”

²⁸He replied, “Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it.”

The Sign of Jonah

²⁹As the crowds increased, Jesus said, “This is a wicked generation. It asks for a miraculous sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah. ³⁰For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation. ³¹The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, and now oneⁱ greater than Solomon is here. ³²The people of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now one greater than Jonah is here.

The Lamp of the Body

³³“None of you lights a lamp and puts it in a place where it will be hidden, or under a bowl. Instead you put it on its stand, so that those who come in may see the light. ³⁴Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are good, your whole body also is full of light. But when they are bad, your body also is full of darkness. ³⁵See to it, then, that the light within you is not darkness. ³⁶Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, and no part of it dark, it will be completely lighted, as when the light of a lamp shines on you.”

Six Woes

³⁷When Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited him to eat with him; so he went in and reclined at the table.³⁸ But the Pharisee, noticing that Jesus did not first wash before the meal, was surprised.

³⁹Then the Lord said to him, "Now then, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.⁴⁰ You foolish people! Did not the one who made the outside make the inside also?⁴¹ But give what is inside the dish to the poor, and everything will be clean for you.

⁴²"Woe to you Pharisees, because you give God a tenth of your mint, rue and all other kinds of garden herbs, but you neglect justice and the love of God. You should have practised the latter without leaving the former undone.

⁴³"Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the most important seats in the synagogues and greetings in the market-places.

⁴⁴"Woe to you, because you are like unmarked graves, which people walk over without knowing it."

⁴⁵One of the experts in the law answered him, "Teacher, when you say these things, you insult us also."

⁴⁶Jesus replied, "And you experts in the law, woe to you, because you load people down with burdens they can hardly carry, and you yourselves will not lift one finger to help them.

⁴⁷"Woe to you, because you build tombs for the prophets, and it was your ancestors who killed them.⁴⁸ So you testify that you approve of what your ancestors did; they killed the prophets, and you build their tombs.⁴⁹ Because of this, God in his wisdom said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and others they will persecute.'⁵⁰ Therefore this generation will be held responsible for the blood of all the prophets that has been shed since the beginning of the world,⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, this generation will be held responsible for it all.

⁵²"Woe to you experts in the law, because you have taken away the key to knowledge. You yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering."

⁵³When Jesus left there, the Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to oppose him fiercely and to besiege him with questions,⁵⁴ waiting to catch him in something he might say.

Warnings and Encouragements

12 Meanwhile, when a crowd of many thousands had gathered, so that they were trampling on one another, Jesus began to speak first to his disciples, saying: "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.² There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.³ What you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed from the roofs.

⁴"I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more.⁵ But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear him who, after the killing of the body, has power to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him.⁶ Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies?⁷ Yet not one of them is forgotten by God.⁸ Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

⁸"I tell you, those who acknowledge me before others the Son of Man will also acknowledge before the angels of God.⁹ But those who disown me before others will be disowned before the angels of God.¹⁰ And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

The Parable of the Rich Fool

¹³Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

¹⁴Jesus replied, "Friend, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?" ¹⁵Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in the abundance of possessions."

¹⁶And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop. ¹⁷He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.'

¹⁸"Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹And I'll say to myself, 'You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.'"

²⁰"But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?'

²¹"This is how it will be with those who store up things for themselves but are not rich towards God."

Do Not Worry

²²Then Jesus said to his disciples: "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. ²³Life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. ²⁴Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds! ²⁵Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to your life?^b ²⁶Since you cannot do this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest?

²⁷"Consider how the lilies grow. They do not labour or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these. ²⁸If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today, and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith! ²⁹And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not worry about it. ³⁰For the pagan world runs after all such things, and your Father knows that you need them. ³¹But seek his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

³²"Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom. ³³Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will not be exhausted, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Watchfulness

³⁵"Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning, ³⁶like those waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him. ³⁷It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes. I tell you the truth, he will dress himself to serve, will have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them. ³⁸It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the second or third watch of the night. ³⁹But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁰You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him."

⁴¹Peter asked, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?"

⁴²The Lord answered, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their food allowance at the proper time? ⁴³It will be good for that servant whom the master finds doing so when he returns. ⁴⁴I tell you the truth, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

⁴⁵ But suppose the servant says to himself, 'My master is taking a long time in coming,' and he then begins to beat the other servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk. ⁴⁶ The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

⁴⁷ "The servant who knows the master's will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows. ⁴⁸ But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

Not Peace but Division

⁴⁹ "I have come to bring fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! ⁵⁰ But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is completed! ⁵¹ Do you think I came to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but division. ⁵² From now on there will be five in one family divided against each other, three against two and two against three. ⁵³ They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

Interpreting the Times

⁵⁴ He said to the crowd: "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'It's going to rain,' and it does. ⁵⁵ And when the south wind blows, you say, 'It's going to be hot,' and it is. ⁵⁶ Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky. How is it that you don't know how to interpret this present time?

⁵⁷ "Why don't you judge for yourselves

what is right?" ⁵⁸ As you are going with your adversary to the magistrate, try hard to be reconciled on the way, or your adversary may drag you off to the judge, and the judge turn you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. ⁵⁹ I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny."

Repent or Perish

13 Now there were some present at that time who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ² Jesus answered, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans because they suffered this way? ³ I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish. ⁴ Or those eighteen who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than all the others living in Jerusalem? ⁵ I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you too will all perish."

⁶ Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig-tree, planted in his vineyard, and he went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any. ⁷ So he said to the man who took care of the vineyard, 'For three years now I've been coming to look for fruit on this fig-tree and haven't found any. Cut it down! Why should it use up the soil?'

⁸ " 'Sir,' the man replied, 'leave it alone for one more year, and I'll dig round it and fertilise it. ⁹ If it bears fruit next year, fine! If not, then cut it down.'"

A Crippled Woman Healed on the Sabbath

¹⁰ On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues, ¹¹ and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. ¹² When Jesus saw her, he called her forward and said to her, "Woman, you are set free from your infirmity." ¹³ Then he put his hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God.

¹⁴ Indignant because Jesus had healed

⁵⁹ Greek lepton

on the Sabbath, the synagogue ruler said to the people, "There are six days for work. So come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath."

¹⁵The Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it out to give it water? ¹⁶Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day from what bound her?"

¹⁷When he said this, all his opponents were humiliated, but the people were delighted with all the wonderful things he was doing.

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

¹⁸Then Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God like? What shall I compare it to? ¹⁹It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air perched in its branches."

²⁰Again he asked, "What shall I compare the kingdom of God to? ²¹It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount^a of flour until it worked all through the dough."

The Narrow Door

²²Then Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he made his way to Jerusalem. ²³Someone asked him, "Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?"

He said to them, ²⁴"Make every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to. ²⁵Once the owner of the house gets up and closes the door, you will stand outside knocking and pleading, 'Sir, open the door for us.'

"But he will answer, 'I don't know you or where you come from.'

²⁶"Then you will say, 'We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.'

²⁷"But he will reply, 'I don't know you or where you come from. Away from me, all you evildoers!'

²⁸"There will be weeping there, and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown out. ²⁹People will come from east and west and north and south, and will take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God. ³⁰Indeed there are those who are last who will be first, and first who will be last."

Jesus' Sorrow for Jerusalem

³¹At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said to him, "Leave this place and go somewhere else. Herod wants to kill you."

³²He replied, "Go tell that fox, 'I will drive out demons and heal people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach my goal.' ³³In any case, I must keep going today and tomorrow and the next day—for surely no prophet can die outside Jerusalem!

³⁴"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing! ³⁵Look, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"^b

Jesus at a Pharisee's House

14 One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched. ²There in front of him was a man suffering from dropsy. ³Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in the law, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?" ⁴But they remained silent. So taking hold of the man, he healed him and sent him away.

⁵Then he asked them, "If one of you has a child^d or an ox that falls into a well on the Sabbath day, will you not immediately pull it out?" ⁶And they had nothing to say.

⁷When he noticed how the guests

^{a21} Greek three sats (probably about 3/5 bushel or 22 litres)

^{b35} Psalm 118:26

picked the places of honour at the table, he told them this parable: ⁸“When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honour, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. ⁹If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, ‘Give this person your seat.’ Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up to a better place.’ Then you will be honoured in the presence of all the other guests. ¹¹For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

¹²Then Jesus said to his host, “When you give a luncheon or dinner, do not invite your friends, brothers, sisters, relatives, or your rich neighbours; if you do, they may invite you back and so you will be repaid. ¹³But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed. Although they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

The Parable of the Great Banquet

¹⁵When one of those at the table with him heard this, he said to Jesus, “Blessed is the one who will eat at the feast in the kingdom of God.”

¹⁶Jesus replied: “A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many guests. ¹⁷At the time of the banquet he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, for everything is now ready.’

¹⁸“But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said, ‘I have just bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please excuse me.’

¹⁹“Another said, ‘I have just bought five yoke of oxen, and I’m on my way to try them out. Please excuse me.’

²⁰“Still another said, ‘I have just got married, so I can’t come.’

²¹“The servant came back and reported this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and ordered his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind and the lame.’

²²“‘Sir,’ the servant said, ‘what you ordered has been done, but there is still room.’

²³“Then the master told his servant, ‘Go out to the roads and country lanes and make them come in, so that my house will be full. ²⁴I tell you, not one of those who were invited will get a taste of my banquet.’”

The Cost of Being a Disciple

²⁵Large crowds were travelling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: ²⁶“If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even life itself—such a person cannot be my disciple. ²⁷And those who do not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciples.

²⁸“Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Will you not first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it? ²⁹For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you, ³⁰saying, ‘This person began to build and was not able to finish.’

³¹“Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Will he not first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? ³²If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace. ³³In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples.

³⁴“Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? ³⁵It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure heap; it is thrown out.

“Those who have ears to hear, let them hear.”

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

15 Now the tax collectors and “sinners” were all gathering round to hear him. ²But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law muttered, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."

³Then Jesus told them this parable: ⁴"Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Does he not leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it? ⁵And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders ⁶and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbours together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.' ⁷I tell you that in the same way there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

⁸"Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins^a and loses one. Does she not light a lamp, sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? ⁹And when she finds it, she calls her friends and neighbours together and says, 'Rejoice with me; I have found my lost coin.' ¹⁰In the same way, I tell you, there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Lost Son

¹¹Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons. ¹²The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.

¹³"Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. ¹⁴After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no-one gave him anything.

¹⁷"When he came to his senses, he said,

'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! ¹⁸I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. ¹⁹I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.' ²⁰So he got up and went to his father.

"But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

²¹"The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'^b

²²"But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. ²³Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate. ²⁴For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate.

²⁵"Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. ²⁷'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'

²⁸"The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. ²⁹But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. ³⁰But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

³¹"'My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. ³²But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"

The Parable of the Shrewd Manager

16 Jesus told his disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. ²So he called him in and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.'

³"The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg—⁴I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.'

⁵"So he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

⁶"'Eight hundred gallons^a of olive oil,' he replied.

"The manager told him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred.'

⁷"Then he asked the second, 'And how much do you owe?'

"'A thousand bushels^b of wheat,' he replied.

"He told him, 'Take your bill and make it eight hundred.'

⁸"The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. ⁹I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

¹⁰"Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. ¹¹So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? ¹²And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own?

¹³"No one can be a slave to two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot be a slave to both God and Money."

¹⁴The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus. ¹⁵He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts. What is highly valued by people is detestable in God's sight."

Additional Teachings

¹⁶"The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and people are forcing their way into it. ¹⁷It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.

¹⁸"Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery, and the man who marries a divorced woman commits adultery."

The Rich Man and Lazarus

²²"The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³In hell,^c where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. ²⁴So he called to him, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.'

²⁵"But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony. ²⁶And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who want to go from here to you cannot, nor can anyone cross over from there to us.'

²⁷“He answered, ‘Then I beg you, father, send Lazarus to my father’s family ²⁸for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.’”

²⁹“Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to them.’”

³⁰“‘No, father Abraham,’ he said, ‘but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’”

³¹“He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Sin, Faith, Duty

17 Jesus said to his disciples: “Things that cause people to sin are bound to come, but woe to that person through whom they come. ²It would be better for you to be thrown into the sea with a millstone tied round your neck than for you to cause one of these little ones to sin. ³So watch yourselves.

“Rebuke a brother or sister who sins, and if they repent, forgive them. ⁴If anyone sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times comes back to you and says, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive them.”

⁵The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!”

⁶He replied, “If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it will obey you.

⁷“Suppose one of you had a servant ploughing or looking after the sheep. Would he say to the servant when he comes in from the field, ‘Come along now and sit down to eat’? ⁸Would he not rather say, ‘Prepare my supper, get yourself ready and wait on me while I eat and drink; after that you may eat and drink’? ⁹Would he thank the servant because he did what he was told to do? ¹⁰So you also, when you have done everything you were told to do, should say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.’”

Ten Healed of Leprosy

¹¹Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. ¹²As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy^a met him. They stood at a distance ¹³and called out in a loud voice, “Jesus, Master, have pity on us!”

¹⁴When he saw them, he said, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And as they went, they were cleansed.

¹⁵One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. ¹⁶He threw himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷Jesus asked, “Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? ¹⁸Was no-one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹Then he said to him, “Rise and go; your faith has made you well.”

The Coming of the Kingdom of God

²⁰Once, having been asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, “The kingdom of God does not come with your careful observation, ²¹nor will people say, ‘Here it is,’ or ‘There it is,’ because the kingdom of God is within^b you.”

²²Then he said to his disciples, “The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. ²³People will tell you, ‘There he is!’ or ‘Here he is!’ Do not go running off after them. ²⁴For the Son of Man in his day^c will be like the lightning, which flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other. ²⁵But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

²⁶“Just as it was in the days of Noah, so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷People were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in marriage up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

^a12 The Greek word was used for various diseases affecting the skin—not necessarily leprosy.

^b21 Or among ^c24 Some manuscripts do not have in his day.

²⁸“It was the same in the days of Lot. People were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. ²⁹But the day Lot left Sodom, fire and sulphur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

³⁰“It will be just like this on the day the Son of Man is revealed. ³¹On that day no-one who is on the top of the house, with possessions inside, should go down to get them. Likewise, no-one in the field should go back for anything. ³²Remember Lot’s wife! ³³Those who try to keep their lives will lose them, and those who lose their lives will preserve them. ³⁴I tell you, on that night two people will be in one bed; one will be taken and the other left. ³⁵Two women will be grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left.”^d

³⁷“Where, Lord?” they asked.

He replied, “Where there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather.”

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. ²He said: “In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared about people. ³And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, ‘Grant me justice against my adversary.’

⁴“For some time he refused. But finally he said to himself, ‘Even though I don’t fear God or care about people, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won’t eventually wear me out with her coming!’”

⁶And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? ⁸I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?”

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

⁹To some who were confident of their own righteousness and looked down on everybody else, Jesus told this parable: ¹⁰“Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee stood up and prayed about himself: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people—robbers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all I get.’

¹³“But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, ‘God, have mercy on me, a sinner.’

¹⁴“I tell you that this man, rather than the other, went home justified before God. For all those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

The Little Children and Jesus

¹⁵People were also bringing babies to Jesus to have him touch them. When the disciples saw this, they rebuked them. ¹⁶But Jesus called the children to him and said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

The Rich Ruler

¹⁸A certain ruler asked him, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

¹⁹“Why do you call me good?” Jesus answered. “No-one is good—except God alone. ²⁰You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honour your father and mother.’^b”

²¹“All these I have kept since I was a boy,” he said.

²²When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell everything you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

²³When he heard this, he became very sad, because he was very wealthy. ²⁴Jesus looked at him and said, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵Indeed, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for the rich to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶Those who heard this asked, "Who then can be saved?"

²⁷Jesus replied, "What is humanly impossible is possible with God."

²⁸Peter said to him, "We have left all we had to follow you!"

²⁹"I tell you the truth," Jesus said to them, "no-one who has left home or wife or brothers or sisters or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God ³⁰will fail to receive many times as much in this age and, in the age to come, eternal life."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

³¹Jesus took the Twelve aside and told them, "We are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled. ³²He will be turned over to the Gentiles. They will mock him, insult him, spit on him, flog him and kill him. ³³On the third day he will rise again."

³⁴The disciples did not understand any of this. Its meaning was hidden from them, and they did not know what he was talking about.

A Blind Beggar Receives His Sight

³⁵As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. ³⁶When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening. ³⁷They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by."

³⁸He called out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

³⁹Those who led the way rebuked him and told him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴¹ A mina was about three months' wages.

⁴⁰Jesus stopped and ordered the man to be brought to him. When he came near, Jesus asked him, ⁴¹"What do you want me to do for you?"

"Lord, I want to see," he replied.

⁴²Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has healed you." ⁴³Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they also praised God.

Zacchaeus the Tax Collector

19 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. ²A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. ³He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was a short man he could not, because of the crowd. ⁴So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.

⁵When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." ⁶So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

⁷All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a 'sinner'."

⁸But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."

⁹Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost."

The Parable of the Ten Minas

¹¹While they were listening to this, he went on to tell them a parable, because he was near Jerusalem and the people thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear at once. ¹²He said: "A man of noble birth went to a distant country to have himself appointed king and then to return. ¹³So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas.^a

'Put this money to work,' he said, 'until I come back.'

¹⁴"But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, 'We don't want this man to be our king.'

¹⁵"He was made king, however, and returned home. Then he sent for the servants to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what they had gained with it.

¹⁶"The first one came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned ten more.'

¹⁷"'Well done, my good servant!' his master replied. 'Because you have been trustworthy in a very small matter, take charge of ten cities.'

¹⁸"The second came and said, 'Sir, your mina has earned five more.'

¹⁹"His master answered, 'You take charge of five cities.'

²⁰"Then another servant came and said, 'Sir, here is your mina; I have kept it laid away in a piece of cloth. ²¹I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take out what you did not put in and reap what you did not sow.'

²²"His master replied, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked servant! You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, taking out what I did not put in, and reaping what I did not sow? ²³Why then didn't you put my money on deposit, so that when I came back, I could have collected it with interest?'

²⁴"Then he said to those standing by, 'Take his mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.'

²⁵"'Sir,' they said, 'he already has ten!'

²⁶"He replied, 'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but as for those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. ²⁷But those enemies of mine who did not want me to be a king over them—bring them here and kill them in front of me.'"

The Triumphal Entry

²⁸After Jesus had said this, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹As he approached Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, ³⁰"Go to the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, which no-one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³¹If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say, 'The Lord needs it.'"

³²Those who were sent ahead went and found it just as he had told them. ³³As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

³⁴They replied, "The Lord needs it."

³⁵They brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt and put Jesus on it. ³⁶As he went along, people spread their cloaks on the road.

³⁷When he came near the place where the road goes down the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began joyfully to praise God in loud voices for all the miracles they had seen:

³⁸"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!"^b

"Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

³⁹Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"

⁴⁰"I tell you," he replied, "if they keep quiet, the stones will cry out."

⁴¹As he approached Jerusalem and saw the city, he wept over it ⁴²and said, "If you, even you, had only known on this day what would bring you peace—but now it is hidden from your eyes. ⁴³The days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and encircle you and hem you in on every side. ⁴⁴They will dash you to the ground, you and the children within your walls. They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognise the time of God's coming to you."

Jesus at the temple

⁴⁵Then he entered the temple area and began driving out those who were selling.

⁴⁶“It is written,” he said to them, “‘My house will be a house of prayer’;^c but you have made it ‘a den of robbers’.”^d

⁴⁷Every day he was teaching at the temple. But the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the leaders among the people were trying to kill him. ⁴⁸Yet they could not find any way to do it, because all the people hung on his words.

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

20 One day as he was teaching the people in the temple courts and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, together with the elders, came up to him. ²“Tell us by what authority you are doing these things,” they said. “Who gave you this authority?”

³He replied, “I will also ask you a question. Tell me, ⁴John’s baptism—was it from heaven, or of human origin?”

⁵They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven’, he will ask, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’”

⁶But if we say, ‘Of human origin’, all the people will stone us, because they are persuaded that John was a prophet.”

⁷So they answered, “We don’t know where it was from.”

⁸Jesus said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

The Parable of the Tenants

⁹He went on to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, rented it to some farmers and went away for a long time. ¹⁰At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants so they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹He sent another servant, but that one also they beat and treated shamefully and sent away empty-handed. ¹²He sent still a third, and they wounded him and threw him out.

¹³“Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I love; perhaps they will respect him.’

¹⁴“But when the tenants saw him, they talked the matter over. ‘This is the heir,’ they said. ‘Let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ ¹⁵So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

“What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others.”

When the people heard this, they said, “May this never be!”

¹⁷Jesus looked directly at them and asked, “Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

“‘The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone’^{a, b}”

¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”

¹⁹The teachers of the law and the chief priests looked for a way to arrest him immediately, because they knew he had spoken this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

²⁰Keeping a close watch on him, they sent spies, who pretended to be honest. They hoped to catch Jesus in something he said so that they might hand him over to the power and authority of the governor. ²¹So the spies questioned him: “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach what is right, and that you do not show partiality but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. ²²Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

²³He saw through their duplicity and said to them, ²⁴“Show me a denarius. Whose portrait and inscription are on it?”

²⁵“Caesar’s,” they replied.

He said to them, “Then give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”

²⁶They were unable to trap him in what he had said there in public. And astonished by his answer, they became silent.

The Resurrection and Marriage

²⁷Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus with a question. ²⁸"Teacher," they said, "Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and have children for his brother. ²⁹Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless. ³⁰The second ³¹and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children. ³²Finally, the woman died too. ³³Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?"

³⁴Jesus replied, "The people of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵But those who are considered worthy of taking part in that age and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage, ³⁶and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God's children, since they are children of the resurrection. ³⁷But in the account of the bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'. ³⁸He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

³⁹Some of the teachers of the law responded, "Well said, teacher!" ⁴⁰And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Christ?

⁴¹Then Jesus said to them, "How is it that they say the Christ^d is the Son of David? ⁴²David himself declares in the Book of Psalms:

"The Lord said to my Lord:

"Sit at my right hand

⁴³until I make your enemies

a footstool for your feet." ⁴⁴

⁴⁴David calls him 'Lord'. How then can he be his son?"

⁴⁵While all the people were listening, Jesus said to his disciples, ⁴⁶"Beware of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and love to be greeted in the market-places and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets. ⁴⁷They devour widows' houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. Such men will be punished most severely."

The Widow's Offering

21 As he looked up, Jesus saw the rich putting their gifts into the temple treasury. ²He also saw a poor widow put in two very small copper coins. ³"I tell you the truth," he said, "this poor widow has put in more than all the others. ⁴All these people gave their gifts out of their wealth; but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on."

Signs of the End of the Age

⁵Some of his disciples were remarking about how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and with gifts dedicated to God. But Jesus said, ⁶"As for what you see here, the time will come when not one stone will be left on another; every one of them will be thrown down."

⁷"Teacher," they asked, "when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?"

⁸He replied: "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and 'The time is near.' Do not follow them. ⁹When you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened. These things must happen first, but the end will not come right away."

¹⁰Then he said to them: "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be great earthquakes, famines and pestilences in various places, and fearful events and great signs from heaven.

¹²"But before all this, they will lay hands on you and persecute you. They will deliver you to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors, and all on account of my name. ¹³This will result in your being witnesses to them. ¹⁴But make up your mind not to worry beforehand how you will defend yourselves. ¹⁵For I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict. ¹⁶You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷Everyone will hate you because of me. ¹⁸But not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹By standing firm you will gain life.

²⁰"When you see Jerusalem being surrounded by armies, you will know that its desolation is near. ²¹Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those in the city get out, and let those in the country not enter the city. ²²For this is the time of punishment in fulfillment of all that has been written. ²³How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers! There will be great distress in the land and wrath against this people. ²⁴They will fall by the sword and will be taken as prisoners to all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled on by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

²⁵"There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. ²⁶People will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken. ²⁷At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

²⁹He told them this parable: "Look at the fig-tree and all the trees. ³⁰When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is near. ³¹Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

³²"I tell you the truth, this generation^b will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

³⁴"Be careful, or your hearts will be weighed down with dissipation, drunkenness and the anxieties of life, and that day will close on you unexpectedly like a trap. ³⁵For it will come upon all those who live on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man."

³⁷Each day Jesus was teaching at the temple, and each evening he went out to spend the night on the hill called the Mount of Olives, ³⁸and all the people came early in the morning to hear him at the temple.

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

22 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover, was approaching, ²and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some way to get rid of Jesus, for they were afraid of the people. ³Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, one of the Twelve. ⁴And Judas went to the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard and discussed with them how he might betray Jesus. ⁵They were delighted and agreed to give him money. ⁶He consented, and watched for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them when no crowd was present.

The Last Supper

⁷Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. ⁸Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and make preparations for us to eat the Passover."

⁹"Where do you want us to prepare for it?" they asked.

¹⁰He replied, "As you enter the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters, ¹¹and say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'" ¹²He will show you a large upper room, all furnished. Make preparations there."

^{a32} Or race

¹³They left and found things just as Jesus had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

¹⁴When the hour came, Jesus and his apostles reclined at the table. ¹⁵And he said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it finds fulfillment in the kingdom of God."

¹⁷After taking the cup, he gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among you. ¹⁸For I tell you I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

²⁰In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. ²¹But the hand of him who is going to betray me is with mine on the table. ²²The Son of Man will go as it has been decreed, but woe to that man who betrays him." ²³They began to question among themselves which of them it might be who would do this.

²⁴Also a dispute arose among them as to which of them was considered to be greatest. ²⁵Jesus said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who exercise authority over them call themselves Benefactors. ²⁶But you are not to be like that. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who rules like the one who serves. ²⁷For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who is at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. ²⁸You are those who have stood by me in my trials. ²⁹And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me, ³⁰so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹"Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you^a as wheat. ³²But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers."

³³But he replied, "Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death."

³⁴Jesus answered, "I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows today, you will deny three times that you know me."

³⁵Then Jesus asked them, "When I sent you without purse, bag or sandals, did you lack anything?"

"Nothing," they answered.

³⁶He said to them, "But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don't have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one. ³⁷It is written: 'And he was numbered with the transgressors';^b and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me. Yes, what is written about me is reaching its fulfillment."

³⁸The disciples said, "See, Lord, here are two swords."

"That is enough," he replied.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

³⁹Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives, and his disciples followed him.

⁴⁰On reaching the place, he said to them.

"Pray that you will not fall into temptation." ⁴¹He withdrew about a stone's throw beyond them, knelt down and prayed, ⁴²"Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done." ⁴³An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him. ⁴⁴And being in anguish, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground.^c

⁴⁵When he rose from prayer and went back to the disciples, he found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow. ⁴⁶"Why are you sleeping?" he asked them. "Get up and pray so that you will not fall into temptation."

Jesus Arrested

⁴⁷While he was still speaking a crowd came up, and the man who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him, ^a31 The Greek is plural.

^b37 Isaiah 53:12

^c44 Some early manuscripts do not have verses 43 and 44.

⁴⁸but Jesus asked him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

⁴⁹When Jesus' followers saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, should we strike with our swords?" ⁵⁰And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear.

⁵¹But Jesus answered, "No more of this!" And he touched the man's ear and healed him.

⁵²Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard, and the elders, who had come for him, "Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come with swords and clubs? ⁵³Every day I was with you in the temple courts, and you did not lay a hand on me. But this is your hour—when darkness reigns."

Peter Disowns Jesus

⁵⁴Then seizing him, they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance. ⁵⁵But when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter sat down with them. ⁵⁶A female servant saw him seated there in the firelight. She looked closely at him and said, "This man was with him."

⁵⁷But he denied it. "Woman, I don't know him," he said.

⁵⁸A little later someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them."

"Man, I am not!" Peter replied.

⁵⁹About an hour later another asserted, "Certainly this fellow was with him, for he is a Galilean."

⁶⁰Peter replied, "Man, I don't know what you're talking about!" Just as he was speaking, the cock crowed. ⁶¹The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: "Before the cock crows today, you will disown me three times." ⁶²And he went outside and wept bitterly.

The Guards Mock Jesus

⁶³The men who were guarding Jesus began mocking and beating him. ⁶⁴They blindfolded him and demanded, "Prophecy! Who hit you?" ⁶⁵And they said many other insulting things to him.

Jesus Before Pilate and Herod

⁶⁶At daybreak the council of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and teachers of the law, met together, and Jesus was led before them. ⁶⁷"If you are the Christ,"^d they said, "tell us."

Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe me, ⁶⁸and if I asked you, you would not answer. ⁶⁹But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the mighty God."

⁷⁰They all asked, "Are you then the Son of God?"

He replied, "You are right in saying I am."

⁷¹Then they said, "Why do we need any more testimony? We have heard it from his own lips."

23 Then the whole assembly rose and led him off to Pilate. ²And they began to accuse him, saying, "We have found this man subverting our nation. He opposes payment of taxes to Caesar and claims to be Christ,^a a king."

³So Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

"Yes, it is as you say," Jesus replied.

⁴Then Pilate announced to the chief priests and the crowd, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

⁵But they insisted, "He stirs up the people all over Judea^b by his teaching. He started in Galilee and has come all the way here."

⁶On hearing this, Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean. ⁷When he learned that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

⁸When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased, because for a long time he had been wanting to see him. From what he had heard about him, he hoped to see him perform some miracle. ⁹He plied him with many questions, but Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰The chief priests and the teachers of the law were standing there, vehemently accusing him. ¹¹Then Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked him. Dressing him in an elegant robe, they sent him back to Pilate. ¹²That day Herod and Pilate became friends—before this they had been enemies.

¹³Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers and the people, ¹⁴and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined him in your presence and have found no basis for your charges against him. ¹⁵Neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us; as you can see, he has done nothing to deserve death. ¹⁶Therefore, I will punish him and then release him."^c

¹⁸With one voice they cried out, "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us!" (¹⁹Barabbas had been thrown into prison for an insurrection in the city, and for murder.)

²⁰Wanting to release Jesus, Pilate appealed to them again. ²¹But they kept shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

²²For the third time he spoke to them: "Why? What crime has this man committed? I have found in him no grounds for the death penalty. Therefore I will have him punished and then release him."

²³But with loud shouts they insistently demanded that he be crucified, and their shouts prevailed. ²⁴So Pilate decided to grant their demand. ²⁵He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, the one they asked for, and surrendered Jesus to their will.

The Crucifixion

²⁶As they led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. ²⁷A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wept for him. ²⁸Jesus turned and said to them, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹For the time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!'" ³⁰Then

"they will say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!'"
and to the hills "Cover us!"^d

³¹For if people do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

³²Two other men, both criminals, were also led out with him to be executed. ³³When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals—one on his right, the other on his left. ³⁴Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."^e And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.

³⁵The people stood watching, and the rulers even sneered at him. They said, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One."

³⁶The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar ³⁷and said, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."

³⁸There was a written notice above him, which read: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁹One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: "Aren't you the Christ? Save yourself and us!"

⁴⁰But the other criminal rebuked him. "Don't you fear God," he said, "since you are under the same sentence? ⁴¹We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong."

⁴²Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."^f

⁴³Jesus answered him, "I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise."

Jesus' Death

⁴⁴It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, ⁴⁵for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. ⁴⁶Jesus called out with a loud voice. "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." When he had said this, he breathed his last.

⁴⁷The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God and said, "Surely this was a righteous man." ⁴⁸When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away. ⁴⁹But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Jesus' Burial

⁵⁰Now there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, a good and upright man, ⁵¹who had not consented to their decision and action. He came from the Judean town of Arimathea and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. ⁵²Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body. ⁵³Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, one in which no-one had yet been laid. ⁵⁴It was Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was about to begin.

⁵⁵The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it. ⁵⁶Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.

The Resurrection

24 On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. ⁵In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? ⁶He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: ⁷'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'"⁸ Then they remembered his words.

⁹When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. ¹⁰It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. ¹¹But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense. ¹²Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. Bending over, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

On the Road to Emmaus

¹³Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles^a from Jerusalem. ¹⁴They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. ¹⁵As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; ¹⁶but they were kept from recognising him.

¹⁷He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"

They stood still, their faces downcast. ¹⁸One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you only a visitor to Jerusalem and do not know the things that have happened there in these days?"

¹⁹"What things?" he asked.

"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. ²⁰The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; ²¹but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. ²²In addition, some of our women amazed us.

^a13 Greek sixty stadia (about 11 kilometres)

They went to the tomb early this morning ²³but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. ²⁴Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see."

²⁵He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Did not the Christ^b have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" ²⁷And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

²⁸As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus acted as if he were going further. ²⁹But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.

³⁰When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. ³¹Then their eyes were opened and they recognised him, and he disappeared from their sight. ³²They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?"

³³They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together ³⁴and saying, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." ³⁵Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognised by them when he broke the bread.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

³⁶While they were still talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

³⁷They were startled and frightened, thinking they saw a ghost. ³⁸He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts rise in your minds? ³⁹Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have."

⁴⁰When he had said this, he showed them his hands and feet. ⁴¹And while they still did not believe it because of joy and amazement, he asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" ⁴²They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³and he took it and ate it in their presence.

⁴⁴He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms."

⁴⁵Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶He told them, "This is what is written: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷and repentance and forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

The Ascension

⁵⁰When he had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, he lifted up his hands and blessed them. ⁵¹While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up into heaven. ⁵²Then they worshipped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. ⁵³And they stayed continually at the temple, praising God.

John

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was with God in the beginning.

³Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. ⁴In him was life, and that life was the light of all people. ⁵The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood^a it.

⁶There came a man who was sent from God; his name was John. ⁷He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. ⁸He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light. ⁹The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world.^b

¹⁰He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognise him. ¹¹He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. ¹²Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—¹³children born not of natural descent,^c nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

¹⁴The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only,^d who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵John testifies concerning him. He cries out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.'"

¹⁶From the fulness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another. ¹⁷For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸No-one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only,^{e,f} who is at the Father's side, has made him known.

John the Baptist Denies Being the Christ

¹⁹Now this was John's testimony when the Jews of Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was. ²⁰He did not fail to confess, but confessed freely, "I am not the Christ."^g

²¹They asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

He answered, "No."

²²Finally they said, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

²³John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, "I am the voice of one calling in the desert, 'Make straight the way for the Lord.'^h"

²⁴Now some Pharisees who had been sent ²⁵questioned him, "Why then do you baptise if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

²⁶“I baptise with water,” John replied, “but among you stands one you do not know. ²⁷He is the one who comes after me, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.”

²⁸This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

Jesus the Lamb of God

²⁹The next day John saw Jesus coming towards him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! ³⁰This is the one I meant when I said, ‘A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.’ ³¹I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptising with water was that he might be revealed to Israel.”

³²Then John gave this testimony: “I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him. ³³I would not have known him, except that the one who sent me to baptise with water told me, ‘The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the one who will baptise with the Holy Spirit.’ ³⁴I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God.”

Jesus' First Disciples

³⁵The next day John was there again with two of his disciples. ³⁶When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, “Look, the Lamb of God!”

³⁷When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus. ³⁸Turning round, Jesus saw them following and asked, “What do you want?”

They said, “Rabbi” (which means Teacher), “where are you staying?”

³⁹“Come,” he replied, “and you will see.”

So they went and saw where he was staying, and spent that day with him. It was about the tenth hour.

⁴⁰Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus. ⁴¹The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, “We have found the Messiah” (that is, the Christ). ⁴²And he brought him to Jesus.

Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas” (which, when translated, is Peter).

Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael

⁴³The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, “Follow me.”

⁴⁴Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida. ⁴⁵Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”

⁴⁶“Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?” Nathanael asked.

“Come and see,” said Philip.

⁴⁷When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, “Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is nothing false.”

⁴⁸“How do you know me?” Nathanael asked.

Jesus answered, “I saw you while you were still under the fig-tree before Philip called you.”

⁴⁹Then Nathanael declared, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel.”

⁵⁰Jesus said, “You believe^k because I told you I saw you under the fig-tree. You shall see greater things than that.” ⁵¹He then added, “I tell you^l the truth, you^l shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

Jesus Changes Water to Wine

mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

⁴"Dear woman, why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come."

⁵His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

⁶Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons.^a ⁷Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim.

⁸Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet."

They did so,⁹ and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realise where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside¹⁰ and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now."

¹¹This, the first of his miraculous signs, Jesus performed at Cana in Galilee. He thus revealed his glory, and his disciples put their faith in him.

Jesus Clears the Temple

¹²After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother and brothers and his disciples. There they stayed for a few days.

¹³When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴In the temple courts he found people selling cattle, sheep and doves, and others sitting at tables exchanging money. ¹⁵So he made a whip out of cords, and drove all from the temple area, both sheep and cattle; he scattered the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. ¹⁶To those who sold doves he said, "Get these out of here! How dare you turn my Father's house into a market!"

¹⁷His disciples remembered that it is written: "Zeal for your house will consume me."^b

¹⁸Then the Jews demanded of him, "What miraculous sign can you show us to prove your authority to do all this?"

¹⁹Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days."

²⁰The Jews replied, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and you are going to raise it in three days?"

²¹But the temple he had spoken of was his body. ²²After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said. Then they believed the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.

²³Now while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many people saw the miraculous signs he was doing and believed in his name.^c ²⁴But Jesus would not entrust himself to them, for he knew all people. ²⁵He did not need human testimony about them, for he knew what was in people.

Jesus Teaches Nicodemus

3 Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish ruling council. ²He came to Jesus at night and said, "Rabbi, we know you are a teacher who has come from God. For you could not perform the miraculous signs you are doing if God were not with you."

³In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no-one can see the kingdom of God without being born again."^a

⁴"How can anyone be born in old age?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely they cannot enter a second time into their mother's womb to be born!"

⁵Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, no-one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and the Spirit. ⁶Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit^b gives birth to spirit. ⁷You should not be surprised at my saying, 'You^c must be born again.' ⁸The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

⁹"How can this be?" Nicodemus asked.

¹⁰"You are Israel's teacher," said Jesus, "and do you not understand these things? ¹¹I tell you the truth, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony. ¹²I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things? ¹³No-one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven—the Son of Man.^d ¹⁴Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, ¹⁵that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.^e

¹⁶"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son,^f that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. ¹⁸Those who believe in him are not condemned, but those who do not believe stand condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.^g ¹⁹This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil. ²⁰All those who do evil hate the light, and will not come into the light for fear that their deeds will be exposed. ²¹But those who live by the truth come into the light, so that it may be seen plainly that what they have done has been done through God."^h

John the Baptist's Testimony About Jesus

²²After this, Jesus and his disciples went out into the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them, and baptised. ²³Now John also was baptising at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water, and people were constantly coming to be baptised. ²⁴(This was before John was put in prison.) ²⁵An argument developed between some of John's disciples and a certain Jewⁱ over the matter of ceremonial washing. ²⁶They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, that man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan—the one you testified about—well, he is baptising, and everyone is going to him."

²⁷To this John replied, "A person can receive only what is given from heaven. ²⁸You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ/ but am sent ahead of him.' ²⁹The bride belongs to the bridegroom. The friend who attends the bridegroom waits and listens for him, and is full of joy when he hears the bridegroom's voice. That joy is mine, and it is now complete. ³⁰He must become greater; I must become less.

³¹"The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks as one from the earth. The one who comes from heaven is above all. ³²He testifies to what he has seen and heard, but no-one accepts his testimony. ³³The person who has accepted it has certified that God is truthful. ³⁴For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God^k gives the Spirit without limit. ³⁵The Father loves the Son and has placed everything in his hands. ³⁶Those who believe in the Son have eternal life, but those who reject the Son will not see life, for God's wrath remains on them."^l

Jesus Talks With a Samaritan Woman

4 The Pharisees heard that Jesus was gaining and baptising more disciples than John, ²although in fact it was not Jesus who baptised, but his disciples. ³When the Lord learned of this, he left Judea and went back once more to Galilee.

⁴Now he had to go through Samaria.

⁵So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph. ⁶Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

⁷When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" ⁸(His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

⁹The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)^a ¹⁰Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

¹¹"Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water?"

¹²Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his flocks and herds?"

¹³Jesus answered, "All who drink this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴but those who drink the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

¹⁵The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water."

¹⁶He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back."

¹⁷"I have no husband," she replied.

Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband. ¹⁸The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true."

¹⁹"Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet. ²⁰Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."

²¹Jesus declared, "Believe me, woman, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²²You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshippers the Father seeks. ²⁴God is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in spirit and in truth."

²⁵The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us."

²⁶Then Jesus declared, "I who speak to you am he."

The Disciples Rejoin Jesus

²⁷Just then his disciples returned and were surprised to find him talking with a woman. But no-one asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?"

²⁸Then, leaving her water jar, the woman went back to the town and said to the people, ²⁹"Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" ³⁰They came out of the town and made their way towards him.

³¹Meanwhile his disciples urged him, "Rabbi, eat something."

³²But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about."

³³Then his disciples said to each other, "Could someone have brought him food?"

³⁴"My food," said Jesus, "is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work. ³⁵Do you not say, 'Four months more and then the harvest'? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest. ³⁶Even now those who reap draw their wages, even now they harvest the crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together. ³⁷Thus the saying 'One sows and another reaps' is true. ³⁸I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labour."

Many Samaritans Believe

³⁹Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did." ⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days. ⁴¹And because of his words many more became believers.

⁴²They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Saviour of the world."

Jesus Heals the Official's Son

⁴³After the two days he left for Galilee. ⁴⁴(Now Jesus himself had pointed out that prophets have no honour in their own country.) ⁴⁵When he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him. They had seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, for they also had been there.

⁴⁶Once more he visited Cana in Galilee, where he had turned the water into wine. And there was a certain royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum. ⁴⁷When this man heard that Jesus had arrived in Galilee from Judea, he went to him and begged him to come and heal his son, who was close to death.

⁴⁸"Unless you people see miraculous signs and wonders," Jesus told him, "you will never believe."

⁴⁹The royal official said, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

⁵⁰Jesus replied, "You may go. Your son will live."

The man took Jesus at his word and departed. ⁵¹While he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was living. ⁵²When he enquired as to the time when his son got better, they said to him, "The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour."

⁵³Then the father realised that this was the exact time at which Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live." So he and all his household believed.

⁵⁴This was the second miraculous sign that Jesus performed, having come from Judea to Galilee.

The Healing at the Pool

Some time later, Jesus went up to Jerusalem for a feast of the Jews. ²Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate a pool, which in Aramaic is called Bethesda^a and which is surrounded by five covered colonnades. ³Here a great number of disabled people used to lie—the blind, the lame, the paralysed.^b ⁵One who was there had been an invalid for thirty-eight years. ⁶When Jesus saw him lying there and learned that he had been in this condition for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to get well?"

⁷"Sir," the invalid replied, "I have no-one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me."

⁸Then Jesus said to him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk."⁹ At once the man was cured; he picked up his mat and walked.

The day on which this took place was a Sabbath,¹⁰ and so the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath; the law forbids you to carry your mat."

¹¹But he replied, "The man who made me well said to me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

¹²So they asked him, "Who is this fellow who told you to pick it up and walk?"

¹³The man who was healed had no idea who it was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.

¹⁴Later Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, "See, you are well again. Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you."¹⁵ The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Life Through the Son

¹⁶So, because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews persecuted him. ¹⁷Jesus said to them, "My Father is always at his work to this very day, and I, too, am working." ¹⁸For this reason the Jews tried all the harder to kill him; not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

¹⁹Jesus gave them this answer: "I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. ²⁰For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, to your amazement he will show him even greater things than these. ²¹For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son gives life to whom he is pleased to give it. ²²Moreover, the Father judges no-one, but has entrusted all judgment to the Son, ²³that all may honour the Son just as they honour the Father. Whoever does not honour the Son does not honour the Father, who sent him.

²⁴"I tell you the truth, those who hear my word and believe him who sent me have eternal life and will not be condemned; they have crossed over from death to life. ²⁵I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live. ²⁶For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son to have life in himself. ²⁷And he has given him authority to judge because he is the Son of Man.

²⁸"Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice ²⁹and come out—those who have done good will rise to live, and those who have done evil will rise to be condemned. ³⁰By myself I can do nothing; I judge only as I hear, and my judgment is just, for I seek not to please myself but him who sent me.

Testimonies About Jesus

³¹"If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid. ³²There is another who testifies in my favour, and I know that his testimony about me is valid.

³³"You have sent to John and he has testified to the truth. ³⁴Not that I accept human testimony; but I mention it that you may be saved. ³⁵John was a lamp that burned and gave light, and you chose for a time to enjoy his light.

³⁶"I have testimony weightier than that of John. For the very work that the Father has given me to finish, and which I am doing, testifies that the Father has sent me. ³⁷And the Father who sent me has himself testified concerning me. You have never heard his voice nor seen his form, ³⁸nor does his word dwell in you, for you do not believe the one he sent. ³⁹You diligently study^c the Scriptures because you think that by them you possess eternal life. These are the Scriptures that testify about me, ⁴⁰yet you refuse to come to me to have life.

⁴¹"I do not accept human praise, ⁴²but I know you. I know that you do not have the love of God in your hearts. ⁴³I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; but if others come in their own names, you will accept them. ⁴⁴How can you believe if you accept praise from one another, yet make no effort to obtain the praise that comes from the only God?^d

⁴⁵"But do not think I will accuse you before the Father. Your accuser is Moses, on whom your hopes are set. ⁴⁶If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me. ⁴⁷But since you do not believe what he wrote, how are you going to believe what I say?"

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

6 Some time after this, Jesus crossed to the far shore of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias), ²and a great crowd of people followed him because they saw the miraculous signs he had performed on the sick. ³Then Jesus went up on a mountainside and sat down with his disciples. ⁴The Jewish Passover Feast was near.

⁵When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming towards him, he said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" ⁶He asked this only to test him, for he already had in mind what he was going to do.

⁷Philip answered him, "Eight months' wages^a would not buy enough bread for each one to have a bite!"

⁸Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, spoke up, ⁹"Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they go among so many?"

¹⁰Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, and they sat down, about five thousand of them. ¹¹Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted. He did the same with the fish.

¹²When they had all had enough to eat, he said to his disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted."

¹³So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴After the people saw the miraculous sign that Jesus did, they began to say, "Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world." ¹⁵Jesus, knowing that they intended to come and make him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by himself.

Jesus Walks on the Water

¹⁶When evening came, his disciples went down to the lake, ¹⁷where they got into a boat and set off across the lake for Capernaum. By now it was dark, and Jesus had not yet joined them. ¹⁸A strong wind was blowing and the waters grew rough. ¹⁹When they had rowed three or three and a half miles,^b they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the water; and they were terrified. ²⁰But he said to them, "It is I; don't be afraid."

²¹Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

²²The next day the crowd that had stayed on the opposite shore of the lake realised that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not entered it with his disciples, but that they had gone away alone. ²³Then some boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴Once the crowd realised that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum in search of Jesus.

Jesus the Bread of Life

²⁵When they found him on the other side of the lake, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

²⁶Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, you are looking for me, not because you saw miraculous signs but because you ate the loaves and had your fill. ²⁷Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. On him God the Father has placed his seal of approval."

²⁸Then they asked him, "What must we do to do the works God requires?"

²⁹Jesus answered, "The work of God is this: to believe in the one he has sent."

³⁰So they asked him, "What miraculous sign then will you give that we may see it and believe you? What will you do?" ³¹Our ancestors ate the manna in the desert; as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'^c

³²Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

³⁴"Sir," they said, "from now on give us this bread."

³⁵Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never

go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. ³⁶But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe. ³⁷All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away. ³⁸For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me. ³⁹And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all that he has given me, but raise them up at the last day. ⁴⁰For my Father's will is that all those who look to the Son and believe in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day."

⁴¹At this the Jews began to grumble about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."

⁴²They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

⁴³"Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus answered. ⁴⁴"No-one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them, and I will raise them up at the last day. ⁴⁵It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by God.' ⁴⁶Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. ⁴⁷No-one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only he has seen the Father. ⁴⁸I tell you the truth, whoever believes has everlasting life. ⁴⁹I am the bread of life. ⁵⁰Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, yet they died. ⁵¹But here is the bread that comes down from heaven, which people may eat and not die. ⁵²I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever. This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

⁵³Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

⁵⁴Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. ⁵⁵Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day. ⁵⁶For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. ⁵⁷Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood remain in me, and I in them. ⁵⁸Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so the one who feeds on me will live because of me. ⁵⁹This is the bread that came down from heaven. Your ancestors ate manna and died, but whoever feeds on this bread will live for ever." ⁶⁰He said this while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Desert Jesus

⁶¹On hearing it, many of his disciples said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can accept it?"

⁶²Aware that his disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you? ⁶³What if you see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before! ⁶⁴The Spirit gives life; the flesh counts for nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit^e and they are life. ⁶⁵Yet there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus had known from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray him. ⁶⁶He went on to say, "This is why I told you that no-one can come to me unless the Father has enabled them."

⁶⁷From this time many of his disciples turned back and no longer followed him.

⁶⁸"You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve.

⁶⁹Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. ⁷⁰We believe and know that you are the Holy One of God."

⁷¹Then Jesus replied, "Have I not chosen you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!" ⁷²(He meant Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, who, though one of the Twelve, was later to betray him.)

Jesus Goes to the Feast of Tabernacles

7 After this, Jesus went around in Galilee, purposely staying away from Judea because the Jews there were waiting to take his life. ²But when the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near, ³Jesus' brothers said to him, "You ought to leave here and go to Judea, so that your disciples may see the miracles you do. ⁴No-one who wants to become a public figure acts in secret. Since you are doing these things, show yourself to the world." ⁵For even his own brothers did not believe in him.

⁶Therefore Jesus told them, "The right time for me has not yet come; for you any time is right. ⁷The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify that what it does is evil. ⁸You go to the Feast. I am not yet^a going up to this Feast, because for me the right time has not yet come." ⁹Having said this, he stayed in Galilee.

¹⁰However, after his brothers had left for the Feast, he went also, not publicly, but in secret. ¹¹Now at the Feast the Jews were watching for Jesus and asking, "Where is he?"

¹²Among the crowds there was widespread whispering about him. Some said, "He is a good man."

Others replied, "No, he deceives the people." ¹³But no-one would say anything publicly about him for fear of the Jews.

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

¹⁴Not until halfway through the Feast did Jesus go up to the temple courts and begin to teach. ¹⁵The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man get such learning without having studied?"

¹⁶Jesus answered, "My teaching is not my own. It comes from him who sent me. ¹⁷Anyone who chooses to do the will of God will find out whether my teaching comes from God or whether I speak on my own. ¹⁸Those who speak on their own do so to gain honour for themselves, but he who works for the honour of the one who sent him is a man of truth; there is nothing false about him. ¹⁹Has not Moses given you the law? Yet not one of you keeps the law. Why are you trying to kill me?"

²⁰"You are demon-possessed," the crowd answered. "Who is trying to kill you?"

²¹Jesus said to them, "I did one miracle, and you are all astonished. ²²Yet, because Moses gave you circumcision (though actually it did not come from Moses, but from the patriarchs), you circumcise a child on the Sabbath. ²³Now if a child can be circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses may not be broken, why are you angry with me for healing the whole person on the Sabbath? ²⁴Stop judging by mere appearances, and make a right judgment."

Is Jesus the Christ?

²⁵At that point some of the people of Jerusalem began to ask, "Isn't this the man they are trying to kill? ²⁶Here he is, speaking publicly, and they are not saying a word to him. Have the authorities really concluded that he is the Christ?^b ²⁷But we know where this man is from; when the Christ comes, no-one will know where he is from."

²⁸Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple courts, cried out, "Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from. I am not here on my own, but he who sent me is true. You do not know him, ²⁹but I know him because I am from him and he sent me."

³⁰At this they tried to seize him, but no-one laid a hand on him, because his time had not yet come. ³¹Still, many in the crowd put their faith in him. They said, "When the Christ comes, will he do more miraculous signs than this man?"

³²The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering such things about him. Then the chief priests and the Pharisees sent temple guards to arrest him.

³³Jesus said, "I am with you for only a short time, and then I go to the one who sent me. ³⁴You will look for me, but you will not find me; and where I am, you cannot come."

³⁵The Jews said to one another, "Where does this man intend to go that we cannot find him? Will he go where our people live scattered among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? ³⁶What did he mean when he said, 'You will look for me,

^a8 Some early manuscripts do not have yet. ^b26 Or Messiah; also in verses 27, 31, 41 and 42

but you will not find me,' and 'Where I am, you cannot come'?"

³⁷On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink. ³⁸Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, will^c have streams of living water flowing from within." ³⁹By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.

⁴⁰On hearing his words, some of the people said, "Surely this man is the Prophet."

⁴¹Others said, "He is the Christ."

Still others asked, "How can the Christ come from Galilee?" ⁴²Does not the Scripture say that the Christ will come from David's family^d and from Bethlehem, the town where David lived?" ⁴³Thus the people were divided because of Jesus. ⁴⁴Some wanted to seize him, but no-one laid a hand on him.

Unbelief of the Jewish Leaders

⁴⁵Finally the temple guards went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring him in?"

⁴⁶"No-one ever spoke the way this man does," the guards declared.

⁴⁷"You mean he has deceived you also?" the Pharisees retorted. ⁴⁸"Has any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in him?" ⁴⁹No! But this mob that knows nothing of the law—there is a curse on them."

⁵⁰Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus earlier and who was one of their own number, asked, ⁵¹"Does our law condemn people without first hearing them to find out what they are doing?"

⁵²They replied, "Are you from Galilee, too? Look into it, and you will find that a prophet^e does not come out of Galilee."

⁵³Then they all went home.

8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ²At dawn he appeared again in the temple courts, where all the people gathered round him, and he sat down to teach them. ³The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before the group ⁴and said to Jesus, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery. ⁵In the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?" ⁶They were using this question as a trap, in order to have a basis for accusing him.

But Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with his finger. ⁷When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let anyone of you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." ⁸Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground.

⁹At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there. ¹⁰Jesus straightened up and asked her, "Woman, where are they? Has no-one condemned you?"

¹¹"No-one, sir," she said.

"Then neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared. "Go now and leave your life of sin."

The Validity of Jesus' Testimony

¹²When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

¹³The Pharisees challenged him, "Here you are, appearing as your own witness; your testimony is not valid."

¹⁴Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going. ¹⁵You judge by human standards; I pass judgment on no-one. ¹⁶But if I do judge, my decisions are right, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me. ¹⁷In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is valid. ¹⁸I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me."

¹⁹Then they asked him, "Where is your father?"

"You do not know me or my Father," Jesus replied. "If you knew me, you would know my Father also." ²⁰He spoke these words while teaching in the temple area near the place where the offerings were put. Yet no-one seized him, because his time had not yet come.

²¹Once more Jesus said to them, "I am going away, and you will look for me, and you will die in your sin. Where I go, you cannot come."

²²This made the Jews ask, "Will he kill himself? Is that why he says, 'Where I go, you cannot come'?"

²³But he continued, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. ²⁴I told you that you would die in your sins; if you do not believe that I am the one I claim to be,^a you will indeed die in your sins."

²⁵"Who are you?" they asked.

"Just what I have been claiming all along," Jesus replied. ²⁶"I have much to say in judgment of you. But he who sent me is reliable, and what I have heard from him I tell the world."

²⁷They did not understand that he was telling them about his Father. ²⁸So Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am the one I claim to be, and that I do nothing on my own but speak just what the Father has taught me. ²⁹The one who sent me is with me; he has not left me alone, for I always do what pleases him." ³⁰Even as he spoke, many put their faith in him.

The Children of Abraham

³¹To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. ³²Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

³³They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants^b and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?"

³⁴Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. ³⁵Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it for ever. ³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁷I know you are Abraham's descendants. Yet you are ready to kill me, because you have no room for my word. ³⁸I am telling you what I have seen in the Father's presence, and you do what you have heard from your father." ^c

³⁹"Abraham is our father," they answered.

"If you were Abraham's children," said Jesus, "then you would^d do the things Abraham did. ⁴⁰As it is, you are determined to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things. ⁴¹You are doing the things your own father does."

"We are not illegitimate children," they protested. "The only Father we have is God himself."

The Children of the Devil

⁴²Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me. ⁴³Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. ⁴⁴You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. ⁴⁵Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me! ⁴⁶Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? ⁴⁷Whoever belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

The Claims of Jesus About Himself

⁴⁸The Jews answered him, "Aren't we right in saying that you are a Samaritan and demon-possessed?"

⁴⁹"I am not possessed by a demon," said Jesus, "but I honour my Father and you dishonour me. ⁵⁰I am not seeking glory for myself; but there is one who seeks it, and he is the judge. ⁵¹I tell you the truth, whoever keeps my word will never see death."

⁵²At this the Jews exclaimed, "Now we know that you are demon-possessed! Abraham died and so did the prophets, yet you say that whoever keeps your word will never taste death. ⁵³Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?"

⁵⁴Jesus replied, "If I glorify myself, my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me. ⁵⁵Though you do not know him, I know him. If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and keep his word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced at the thought of seeing my day; he saw it and was glad."

⁵⁷"You are not yet fifty years old," the Jews said to him, "and you have seen Abraham!"

⁵⁸"I tell you the truth," Jesus answered, "before Abraham was born, I am!" ⁵⁹At this, they picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus hid himself, slipping away from the temple grounds.

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

9 As he went along, he saw a man blind from birth. ²His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

³"Neither this man nor his parents sinned," said Jesus, "but this happened so that the work of God might be displayed in his life. ⁴As long as it is day, we must do the work of him who sent me. Night is coming, when no-one can work. ⁵While

I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

⁶Having said this, he spat on the ground, made some mud with the saliva, and put it on the man's eyes. ⁷"Go," he told him, "wash in the Pool of Siloam" (this word means Sent). So the man went and washed, and came home seeing.

⁸His neighbours and those who had formerly seen him begging asked, "Isn't this the same man who used to sit and beg?" ⁹Some claimed that he was.

Others said, "No, he only looks like him."

But he himself insisted, "I am the man."

¹⁰"How then were your eyes opened?" they demanded.

¹¹He replied, "The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed, and then I could see."

¹²"Where is this man?" they asked him. "I don't know," he said.

The Pharisees Investigate the Healing

¹³They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind. ¹⁴Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened the man's eyes was a Sabbath.

¹⁵Therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. "He put mud on my eyes," the man replied, "and I washed, and now I see."

¹⁶Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath."

But others asked, "How can a sinner do such miraculous signs?" So they were divided.

¹⁷Finally they turned again to the blind man, "What have you to say about him? It was your eyes he opened."

The man replied, "He is a prophet."

¹⁸The Jews still did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they sent for the man's parents. ¹⁹"Is this your son?" they asked. "Is this the one you say was born blind? How is it that now he can see?"

²⁰"We know he is our son," the parents answered, "and we know he was born blind. ²¹ But how he can see now, or who opened his eyes, we don't know. Ask him. He is of age; he will speak for himself."

²² His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews, for already the Jews had decided that anyone who acknowledged that Jesus was the Christ^a would be put out of the synagogue. ²³ That was why his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

²⁴ A second time they summoned the man who had been blind. "Give glory to God,"^b they said. "We know this man is a sinner."

²⁵ He replied, "Whether he is a sinner or not, I don't know. One thing I do know. I was blind but now I see!"

²⁶ Then they asked him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

²⁷ He answered, "I have told you already and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?"

²⁸ Then they hurled insults at him and said, "You are this fellow's disciple! We are disciples of Moses!" ²⁹ We know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this fellow, we don't even know where he comes from."

³⁰ The man answered, "Now that is remarkable! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. ³¹ We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does his will. ³² Nobody has ever heard of opening the eyes of someone born blind. ³³ If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

³⁴ To this they replied, "You were steeped in sin at birth; how dare you lecture us!" And they threw him out.

Spiritual Blindness

³⁵ Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

³⁶ "Who is he, sir?" the man asked. "Tell me so that I may believe in him."

³⁷ Jesus said, "You have now seen him; in fact, he is the one speaking with you."

³⁸ Then the man said, "Lord, I believe," and he worshipped him.

³⁹ Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind."

⁴⁰ Some Pharisees who were with him heard him say this and asked, "What? Are we blind too?"

⁴¹ Jesus said, "If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin; but now that you claim you can see, your guilt remains."

The Shepherd and His Flock

10 "I tell you the truth, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. ² The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of his sheep. ³ The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴ When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵ But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognise a stranger's voice." ⁶ Jesus used this figure of speech, but they did not understand what he was telling them.

⁷ Therefore Jesus said again, "I tell you the truth, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸ All who ever came before me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹ I am the gate; all who enter through me will be saved. ¹⁰ They will come in and go out, and find pasture. ¹¹ The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

¹² "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹³ The hired hand is not the shepherd who owns the sheep. So when he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf attacks the flock and scatters it. ¹⁴ The man runs away because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep.

¹⁵ "I am the good shepherd; I know my sheep and my sheep know me—¹⁶ just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep. ¹⁶I have other sheep that are not of this sheep pen. I must bring them also. They too will listen to my voice, and there shall be one flock and one shepherd. ¹⁷The reason my Father loves me is that I lay down my life—only to take it up again. ¹⁸No-one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This command I received from my Father.”

¹⁹At these words the Jews were again divided. ²⁰Many of them said, “He is demon-possessed and raving mad. Why listen to him?”

²¹But others said, “These are not the sayings of someone possessed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

The Unbelief of the Jews

²²Then came the Feast of Dedication^b at Jerusalem. It was winter, ²³and Jesus was in the temple area walking in Solomon’s Colonnade. ²⁴The Jews gathered round him, saying, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ,^c tell us plainly.”

²⁵Jesus answered, “I did tell you, but you do not believe. The miracles I do in my Father’s name speak for me, ²⁶but you do not believe because you are not my sheep. ²⁷My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no-one can snatch them out of my hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all;^d no-one can snatch them out of my Father’s hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one.”

³¹Again the Jews picked up stones to stone him, ³²but Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many great miracles from the Father. For which of these do you stone me?”

³³“We are not stoning you for any of these,” replied the Jews, “but for blasphemy, because you, a mere human being, claim to be God.”

³⁴Jesus answered them, “Is it not written in your Law, ‘I have said you are gods’?^e ³⁵If he called them ‘gods’, to whom the word of God came—and the Scripture cannot be broken—³⁶what about the one whom the Father set apart as his very own and sent into the world? Why then do you accuse me of blasphemy because I said, ‘I am God’s Son’? ³⁷Do not believe me unless I do what my Father does. ³⁸But if I do it, even though you do not believe me, believe the miracles, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father.” ³⁹Again they tried to seize him, but he escaped their grasp.

⁴⁰Then Jesus went back across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptising in the early days. Here he stayed ⁴¹and many people came to him. They said, “Though John never performed a miraculous sign, all that John said about this man was true.” ⁴²And in that place many believed in Jesus.

The Death of Lazarus

11 Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ²This Mary, whose brother Lazarus now lay sick, was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. ³So the sisters sent word to Jesus, “Lord, the one you love is sick.”

⁴When he heard this, Jesus said, “This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for God’s glory so that God’s Son may be glorified through it.” ⁵Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. ⁶Yet when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days.

⁷Then he said to his disciples, “Let us go back to Judea.”

⁸“But Rabbi,” they said, “a short while ago the Jews tried to stone you, and yet you are going back there?”

⁹Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk by day will not stumble, for they see by this world’s light. ¹⁰It is when they walk by

^b22 That is, Hanukkah ^c24 Or Messiah

^d29 Many early manuscripts What my Father has given me is greater than all ^e34 Psalm 82:6

night that they stumble, for they have no light."

¹¹After he had said this, he went on to tell them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going there to wake him up."

¹²His disciples replied, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get better." ¹³Jesus had been speaking of his death, but his disciples thought he meant natural sleep.

¹⁴So then he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, ¹⁵and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

¹⁶Then Thomas (called Didymus) said to the rest of the disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

Jesus Comforts the Sisters

¹⁷On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. ¹⁸Bethany was less than two miles^a from Jerusalem, ¹⁹and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother. ²⁰When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home.

²¹"Lord," Martha said to Jesus, "if you had been here, my brother would not have died. ²²But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask."

²³Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

²⁴Martha answered, "I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

²⁵Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me will live, even though they die; ²⁶and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

²⁷"Yes, Lord," she told him, "I believe that you are the Christ,^b the Son of God, who was to come into the world."

²⁸And after she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside. "The Teacher is here," she said, "and is asking for you." ²⁹When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him. ³⁰Now

Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met him. ³¹When the Jews who had been with Mary in the house, comforting her, noticed how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there.

³²When Mary reached the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

³³When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. ³⁴"Where have you laid him?" he asked.

"Come and see, Lord," they replied.

³⁵Jesus wept.

³⁶Then the Jews said, "See how he loved him!"

³⁷But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Jesus Raises Lazarus From the Dead

³⁸Jesus, once more deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. ³⁹"Take away the stone," he said.

"But, Lord," said Martha, the sister of the dead man, "by this time there is a bad odour, for he has been there four days."

⁴⁰Then Jesus said, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

⁴¹So they took away the stone. Then Jesus looked up and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. ⁴²I knew that you always hear me, but I said this for the benefit of the people standing here, that they may believe that you sent me."

⁴³When he had said this, Jesus called in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴The dead man came out, his hands and feet wrapped with strips of linen, and a cloth around his face.

Jesus said to them, "Take off the grave clothes and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

⁴⁵Therefore many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, put their faith in him. ⁴⁶But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. ⁴⁷Then the chief priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin.

"What are we accomplishing?" they asked. "Here is this man performing many miraculous signs. ⁴⁸If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our place^c and our nation."

⁴⁹Then one of them, named Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, spoke up, "You know nothing at all! ⁵⁰You do not realise that it is better for you that one person die for the people than that the whole nation perish."

⁵¹He did not say this on his own, but as high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation, ⁵²and not only for that nation but also for the scattered children of God, to bring them together and make them one. ⁵³So from that day on they plotted to take his life.

⁵⁴Therefore Jesus no longer moved about publicly among the Jews. Instead he withdrew to a region near the desert, to a village called Ephraim, where he stayed with his disciples.

⁵⁵When it was almost time for the Jewish Passover, many went up from the country to Jerusalem for their ceremonial cleansing before the Passover. ⁵⁶They kept looking for Jesus, and as they stood in the temple area they asked one another, "What do you think? Isn't he coming to the Feast at all?" ⁵⁷But the chief priests and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone found out where Jesus was, he should report it so that they might arrest him.

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

12 Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived at Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. ²Here a dinner was given in Jesus' honour. Martha served, while Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with him. ³Then Mary took about a pint^a of pure nard, an expensive perfume; she poured it on Jesus' feet and wiped his feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

⁴But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was later to betray him, objected, ⁵"Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages."^b ⁶He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief; as keeper of the money bag, he used to help himself to what was put into it.

⁷"Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "It was intended^c that she should save this perfume for the day of my burial. ⁸You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me."

⁹Meanwhile a large crowd of Jews found out that Jesus was there and came, not only because of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. ¹⁰So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well, ¹¹for on account of him many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and putting their faith in him.

The Triumphal Entry

¹²The next day the great crowd that had come for the Feast heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. ¹³They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting,

"Hosanna!"^c

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"^d

"Blessed is the King of Israel!"

¹⁴Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it, as it is written,

¹⁵“Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion;
see, your king is coming,
seated on a donkey’s colt.”^e

¹⁶At first his disciples did not understand all this. Only after Jesus was glorified did they realise that these things had been written about him and that they had done these things to him.

¹⁷Now the crowd that was with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to spread the word. ¹⁸Many people, because they had heard that he had given this miraculous sign, went out to meet him. ¹⁹So the Pharisees said to one another, “See, this is getting us nowhere. Look how the whole world has gone after him!”

Jesus Predicts His Death

²⁰Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the Feast. ²¹They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, with a request. “Sir,” they said, “we would like to see Jesus.” ²²Philip went to tell Andrew; Andrew and Philip in turn told Jesus.

²³Jesus replied, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. ²⁴I tell you the truth, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. ²⁵Those who love their lives will lose them, while those who hate their lives in this world will keep them for eternal life. ²⁶Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honour the one who serves me.

²⁷“Now my heart is troubled, and what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it was for this very reason I came to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify your name!”

Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and will glorify it again.” ²⁹The crowd that was there and heard it said it had thundered; others said an angel had spoken to him.

³⁰Jesus said, “This voice was for your benefit, not mine. ³¹Now is the time for judgment on this world; now the prince of this world will be driven out. ³²But I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” ³³He said this to show the kind of death he was going to die.

³⁴The crowd spoke up, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ/ will remain for ever, so how can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this ‘Son of Man’?”

³⁵Then Jesus told them, “You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, before darkness overtakes you. Those who walk in the dark do not know where they are going. ³⁶Put your trust in the light while you have it, so that you may become children of light.” When he had finished speaking, Jesus left and hid himself from them.

The Jews Continue in Their Unbelief

³⁷Even after Jesus had done all these miraculous signs in their presence, they still would not believe in him. ³⁸This was to fulfil the word of Isaiah the prophet:

“Lord, who has believed our message
and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”^g

³⁹For this reason they could not believe, because, as Isaiah says elsewhere:

⁴⁰“He has blinded their eyes and deadened their hearts,
so they can neither see with their eyes,
nor understand with their hearts,
nor turn—and I would heal
them.”^h

⁴¹Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus’ glory and spoke about him.

⁴²Yet at the same time many even among the leaders believed in him. But because of the Pharisees they would not confess their faith for fear they would be put out of the synagogue; ⁴³for they loved human praise more than praise from God.

^e15 Zech. 9:9 ^f34 Or Messiah ^g38 Isaiah 53:1 ^h40 Isaiah 6:10

⁴⁴Then Jesus cried out, "Those who believe in me do not believe in me only, but in the one who sent me. ⁴⁵When they look at me, they see the one who sent me. ⁴⁶I have come into the world as a light, so that no-one who believes in me should stay in darkness.

⁴⁷"As for those who hear my words but do not keep them, I do not judge them. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. ⁴⁸There is a judge for those who reject me and do not accept my words; that very word which I spoke will condemn them at the last day. ⁴⁹For I did not speak of my own accord, but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and how to say it. ⁵⁰I know that his command leads to eternal life. So whatever I say is just what the Father has told me to say."

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

13 It was just before the Passover Feast. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he now showed them the full extent of his love.^a ²The evening meal was being served, and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus. ³Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; ⁴so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel round his waist. ⁵After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped round him.

⁶He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

⁷Jesus replied, "You do not realise now what I am doing, but later you will understand."

⁸"No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

⁹"Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

¹⁰Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you." ¹¹For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

¹²When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them. ¹³"You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord', and rightly so, for that is what I am. ¹⁴Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. ¹⁵I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you. ¹⁶I tell you the truth, servants are not greater than their masters, nor are messengers greater than those who sent them. ¹⁷Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

¹⁸"I am not referring to all of you; I know those I have chosen. But this is to fulfil the scripture: 'He who shares my bread has lifted up his heel against me.'^b

¹⁹"I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am He. ²⁰I tell you the truth, whoever accepts anyone I send accepts me; and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me."

²¹After he had said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit and testified, "I tell you the truth, one of you is going to betray me."

²²His disciples stared at one another, at a loss to know which of them he meant. ²³One of them, the disciple whom Jesus loved, was reclining next to him. ²⁴Simon Peter motioned to this disciple and said, "Ask him which one he means."

^a1 Or he loved them to the last ^b18 Psalm 41:9

²⁵Leaning back against Jesus, he asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

²⁶Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it in the dish." Then, dipping the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, son of Simon. ²⁷As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered into him.

"What you are about to do, do quickly," Jesus told him, ²⁸but no-one at the meal understood why Jesus said this to him. ²⁹Since Judas had charge of the money, some thought Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the Feast, or to give something to the poor. ³⁰As soon as Judas had taken the bread, he went out. And it was night.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

³¹When he was gone, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified and God is glorified in him. ³²If God is glorified in him,^c God will glorify the Son in himself, and will glorify him at once.

³³"My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.

³⁴"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

³⁶Simon Peter asked him, "Lord, where are you going?"

Jesus replied, "Where I am going, you cannot follow now, but you will follow later."

³⁷Peter asked, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

³⁸Then Jesus answered, "Will you really lay down your life for me? I tell you the truth, before the cock crows, you will disown me three times!

Jesus Comforts His Disciples

14 "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God;^a trust also in me. ²In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. ⁴You know the way to the place where I am going."

Jesus the Way to the Father

⁵Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?"

⁶Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No-one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷If you really knew me, you would know^b my Father as well. From now on, you do know him and have seen him."

⁸Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us."

⁹Jesus answered: "Don't you know me, Philip, even after I have been among you such a long time? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? ¹⁰Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and that the Father is in me? The words I say to you are not just my own. Rather, it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his work. ¹¹Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe on the evidence of the miracles themselves. ¹²I tell you the truth, all who have faith in me will do what I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. ¹³And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. ¹⁴You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

¹⁵"If you love me, you will obey what I command. ¹⁶And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you for ever—¹⁷the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be^c in you. ¹⁸I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. ¹⁹Before long, the world will not see me any more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. ²⁰On that day you will realise that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. ²¹Those who have my commands and obey them are the ones who love me. Those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them."

²²Then Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said, "But, Lord, why do you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?"

²³Jesus replied, "Those who love me will obey my teaching. My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. ²⁴Anyone who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me."

²⁵"All this I have spoken while still with you. ²⁶But the Counsellor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. ²⁷Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."

²⁸"You heard me say, 'I am going away and I am coming back to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. ²⁹I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe. ³⁰I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world is coming. He has no hold on me, ³¹but the world must learn that I love the Father and that I do exactly what my Father has commanded me.

"Come now; let us leave.

The Vine and the Branches

15 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. ²He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes^a so that it will be even more fruitful. ³You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

⁵"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶If you do not remain in me, you are like a branch that is thrown away and withers; such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burned. ⁷If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be given you. ⁸This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.

⁹"As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. ¹⁰If you obey my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father's commands and remain in his love. ¹¹I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. ¹²My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no-one than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. ¹⁴You are my friends if you do what I command. ¹⁵I no longer call you servants, because servants do not know their master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you. ¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit—fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. ¹⁷This is my command: Love each other.

The World Hates the Disciples

¹⁸"If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated me first. ¹⁹If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you. ²⁰Remember the words I spoke to you: 'Servants are not greater than their masters.'^b

^a2 The Greek for prunes also means cleans. ^b20 John 13:16

If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours also. ²¹They will treat you this way because of my name, for they do not know the One who sent me. ²²If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now, however, they have no excuse for their sin. ²³Those who hate me hate my Father as well. ²⁴If I had not done among them what no-one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen these miracles, and yet they have hated both me and my Father. ²⁵But this is to fulfil what is written in their Law: 'They hated me without reason.'^c

²⁶"When the Counsellor comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, he will testify about me. ²⁷And you also must testify, for you have been with me from the beginning.

16 "All this I have told you so that you will not go astray. ²They will put you out of the synagogue; in fact, a time is coming when those who kill you will think they are offering a service to God. ³They will do such things because they have not known the Father or me. ⁴I have told you this, so that when the time comes you will remember that I warned you. I did not tell you this at first because I was with you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

⁵"Now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' ⁶Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief. ⁷But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counsellor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt^a in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: ⁹in regard to sin, because people do not believe in me; ¹⁰in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; ¹¹and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned.

¹²"I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. ¹³But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. ¹⁴He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. ¹⁵All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.

¹⁶"In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me."

The Disciples' Grief Will Turn to Joy

¹⁷Some of his disciples said to one another, "What does he mean by saying, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me,' and 'Because I am going to the Father'?" ¹⁸They kept asking, "What does he mean by 'a little while'? We don't understand what he is saying."

¹⁹Jesus saw that they wanted to ask him about this, so he said to them, "Are you asking one another what I meant when I said, 'In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me'?" ²⁰I tell you the truth, you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy. ²¹A woman giving birth to a child has pain because her time has come; but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world. ²²So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no-one will take away your joy. ²³In that day you will no longer ask me anything. I tell you the truth, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name. ²⁴Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete.

²⁵"Though I have been speaking figuratively, a time is coming when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. ²⁷No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. ²⁸I came from the Father and entered the world; now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."

^c25 Psalms 35:19; 69:4

^a8 Or will expose the guilt of the world

²⁹Then Jesus's disciples said, "Now you are speaking clearly and without figures of speech. ³⁰Now we can see that you know all things and that you do not even need to have anyone ask you questions. This makes us believe that you came from God."

³¹"You believe at last!"^b Jesus answered. ³²"But a time is coming, and has come, when you will be scattered, each to your own home. You will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me.

³³"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

Jesus Prays for Himself

17 After Jesus said this, he looked towards heaven and prayed:

"Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you. ²For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him. ³Now this is eternal life: that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. ⁴I have brought you glory on earth by completing the work you gave me to do. ⁵And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began.

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

⁶"I have revealed you^a to those whom you gave me out of the world. They were yours; you gave them to me and they have obeyed your word. ⁷Now they know that everything you have given me comes from you. ⁸For I gave them the words you gave me and they accepted them. They knew with certainty that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me. ⁹I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours. ¹⁰All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And glory has come to me through them. ¹¹I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name—the name you gave me—so that they may be one as we are one. ¹²While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled.

¹³"I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them. ¹⁴I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world. ¹⁵My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one. ¹⁶They are not of the world, even as I am not of it. ¹⁷Sanctify^b them by the truth; your word is truth. ¹⁸As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world. ¹⁹For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.

Jesus Prays for All Believers

²⁰"My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, ²¹that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. ²²I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one: ²³I in them and you in me. May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.

²⁴"Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

²⁵“Righteous Father, though the world does not know you, I know you, and they know that you have sent me. ²⁶I have made you known to them, and will continue to make you known in order that the love you have for me may be in them and that I myself may be in them.”

Jesus Arrested

18 When he had finished praying, Jesus left with his disciples and crossed the Kidron Valley. On the other side there was an olive grove, and he and his disciples went into it.

²Now Judas, who betrayed him, knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with his disciples. ³So Judas came to the grove, guiding a detachment of soldiers and some officials from the chief priests and Pharisees. They were carrying torches, lanterns and weapons.

⁴Jesus, knowing all that was going to happen to him, went out and asked them, “Who is it you want?”

⁵“Jesus of Nazareth,” they replied.

“I am he,” Jesus said. (And Judas the traitor was standing there with them.)

⁶When Jesus said, “I am he,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

⁷Again he asked them, “Who is it you want?”

And they said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

⁸“I told you that I am he,” Jesus answered. “If you are looking for me, then let these men go.” ⁹This happened so that the words he had spoken would be fulfilled: “I have not lost one of those you gave me.”^a

¹⁰Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s servant, cutting off his right ear. (The servant’s name was Malchus.)

¹¹Jesus commanded Peter, “Put your sword away! Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given me?”

Jesus Taken to Annas

¹²Then the detachment of soldiers with its commander and the Jewish officials arrested Jesus. They bound him ¹³and brought him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. ¹⁴Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it would be good if one person died for the people.

Peter’s First Denial

¹⁵Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Because this disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the high priest’s courtyard, ¹⁶but Peter had to wait outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the high priest, came back, spoke to the female servant on duty at the door and brought Peter in.

¹⁷“You are not one of his disciples, are you,” she asked Peter.

He replied, “I am not.”

¹⁸It was cold, and the servants and officials stood round a fire they had made to keep warm. Peter also was standing with them, warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

¹⁹Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.

²⁰“I have spoken openly to the world,” Jesus replied. “I always taught in synagogues or at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret. ²¹Why question me? Ask those who heard me. Surely they know what I said.”

²²When Jesus said this, one of the officials near by struck him in the face. “Is this the way you answer the high priest?” he demanded.

²³“If I said something wrong,” Jesus replied, “testify as to what is wrong. But if I spoke the truth, why did you strike me?”

²⁴Then Annas sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.^b

^{a9} John 6:39

^{b24} Or (Now Annas had sent him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.)

Peter's Second and Third Denials

²⁵ As Simon Peter stood warming himself, he was asked, "You are not one of his disciples, are you?"

He denied it, saying, "I am not."

²⁶ One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, challenged him, "Didn't I see you with him in the olive grove?" ²⁷ Again Peter denied it, and at that moment a cock began to crow.

Jesus Before Pilate

²⁸ Then the Jews led Jesus from Caiaphas to the palace of the Roman governor. By now it was early morning, and to avoid ceremonial uncleanness the Jews did not enter the palace; they wanted to be able to eat the Passover. ²⁹ So Pilate came out to them and asked, "What charges are you bringing against this man?"

³⁰ "If he were not a criminal," they replied, "we would not have handed him over to you."

³¹ Pilate said, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."

"But we have no right to execute anyone," the Jews objected. ³² This happened so that the words Jesus had spoken indicating the kind of death he was going to die would be fulfilled.

³³ Pilate then went back inside the palace, summoned Jesus and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

³⁴ "Is that your own idea," Jesus asked, "or did others talk to you about me?"

³⁵ "Am I a Jew?" Pilate replied. "It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What is it you have done?"

³⁶ Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jews. But now my kingdom is from another place."

³⁷ "You are a king, then!" said Pilate.

Jesus answered, "You are right in saying I am a king. In fact, for this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth listens to me."

³⁸ "What is truth?" Pilate asked. With this he went out again to the Jews and said, "I find no basis for a charge against him. ³⁹ But it is your custom for me to release to you one prisoner at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to release 'the king of the Jews'?"

⁴⁰ They shouted back, "No, not him! Give us Barabbas!" Now Barabbas had taken part in a rebellion.

Jesus Sentenced to be Crucified

19 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. ² The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head. They clothed him in a purple robe ³ and went up to him again and again, saying, "Hail, king of the Jews!" And they struck him in the face.

⁴ Once more Pilate came out and said to the Jews, "Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no basis for a charge against him." ⁵ When Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!"

⁶ As soon as the chief priests and their officials saw him, they shouted, "Crucify! Crucify!"

But Pilate answered, "You take him and crucify him. As for me, I find no basis for a charge against him."

⁷ The Jews insisted, "We have a law, and according to that law he must die, because he claimed to be the Son of God."

⁸ When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid, ⁹ and he went back inside the palace. "Where do you come from?" he asked Jesus, but Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰ "Do you refuse to speak to me?" Pilate said. "Don't you realise I have power either to free you or to crucify you?"

¹¹ Jesus answered, "You would have no power over me if it were not given to you from above. Therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."

¹² From then on, Pilate tried to set Jesus free, but the Jews kept shouting, "If you let this man go, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar.”

¹³When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judge's seat at a place known as the Stone Pavement (which in Aramaic is Gabbatha). ¹⁴It was the day of Preparation of Passover Week, about the sixth hour.

“Here is your king,” Pilate said to the Jews.

¹⁵But they shouted, “Take him away! Take him away! Crucify him!”

“Shall I crucify your king?” Pilate asked.

“We have no king but Caesar,” the chief priests answered.

¹⁶Finally Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

So the soldiers took charge of Jesus. ¹⁷Carrying his own cross, he went out to the place of the Skull (which in Aramaic is called Golgotha). ¹⁸Here they crucified him, and with him two others—one on each side and Jesus in the middle.

¹⁹Pilate had a notice prepared and fastened to the cross. It read: JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS. ²⁰Many of the Jews read this sign, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek. ²¹The chief priests of the Jews protested to Pilate, “Do not write ‘The King of the Jews’, but that this man claimed to be king of the Jews.”

²²Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”

²³When the soldiers crucified Jesus, they took his clothes, dividing them into four shares, one for each of them, with the undergarment remaining. This garment was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom.

²⁴“Let’s not tear it,” they said to one another. “Let’s decide by lot who will get it.”

This happened that the scripture might be fulfilled which said,

“They divided my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.”^a

So this is what the soldiers did.

²⁵Near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing near by, he said to his mother, “Dear woman, here is your son,” ²⁷and to the disciple, “Here is your mother.” From that time on, this disciple took her into his home.

The Death of Jesus

²⁸Later, knowing that all was now completed, and so that the Scripture would be fulfilled, Jesus said, “I am thirsty.” ²⁹A jar of wine vinegar was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of the hyssop plant, and lifted it to Jesus' lips. ³⁰When he had received the drink, Jesus said, “It is finished.” With that, he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

³¹Now it was the day of Preparation, and the next day was to be a special Sabbath. Because the Jews did not want the bodies left on the crosses during the Sabbath, they asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken down. ³²The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and then those of the other. ³³But when they came to Jesus and found that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. ³⁴Instead, one of the soldiers pierced Jesus' side with a spear, bringing a sudden flow of blood and water. ³⁵The man who saw it has given testimony, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, and he testifies so that you also may believe. ³⁶These things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled: “Not one of his bones will be broken,”^b ³⁷and, as another scripture says, “They will look on the one they have pierced.”^c

³⁸ Later, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. Now Joseph was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because he feared the Jews. With Pilate's permission, he came and took the body away. ³⁹ He was accompanied by Nicodemus, the man who earlier had visited Jesus at night. Nicodemus brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.^d ⁴⁰ Taking Jesus' body, the two of them wrapped it, with the spices, in strips of linen. This was in accordance with Jewish burial customs. ⁴¹ At the place where Jesus was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, in which no-one had ever been laid. ⁴² Because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and since the tomb was near by, they laid Jesus there.

The Empty Tomb

20 Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. ² So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

³ So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. ⁴ Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵ He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. ⁶ Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, ⁷ as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen. ⁸ Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. ⁹ (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

¹⁰ Then the disciples went back to their homes, ¹¹ but Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb ¹² and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot.

¹³ They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

"They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him." ¹⁴ At this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realise that it was Jesus.

¹⁵ "Woman," he said, "why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?"

Thinking he was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned towards him and cried out in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

¹⁷ Jesus said, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet returned to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, 'I am returning to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them that he had said these things to her.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

¹⁹ On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" ²⁰ After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.

²¹ Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." ²² And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of anyone, their sins are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

Jesus Appears to Thomas

²⁴Now Thomas (called Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. ²⁵So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe it."

²⁶A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe."

²⁸Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

²⁹Then Jesus told him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

³⁰Jesus did many other miraculous signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. ³¹But these are written that you may^a believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

Jesus and the Miraculous Catch of Fish

21 Afterwards Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Tiberias.^a It happened this way: ²Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together. ³"I'm going out to fish," Simon Peter told them, and they said, "We'll go with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

⁴Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus.

⁵He called out to them, "Friends, haven't you any fish?"

"No," they answered.

⁶He said, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

⁷Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water. ⁸The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards.^b ⁹When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread.

¹⁰Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught."

¹¹Simon Peter climbed aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn. ¹²Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. ¹³Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. ¹⁴This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus Reinstates Peter

¹⁵When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me more than these?"

"Yes, Lord," he said, "you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "Feed my lambs."

¹⁶Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John, do you truly love me?"

He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep."

¹⁷The third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"

^a1 Some manuscripts may continue to ^a1 That is, Sea of Galilee

^b8 Greek about two hundred cubits (about 90 metres)

Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "Feed my sheep. ¹⁸I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." ¹⁹Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, "Follow me!"

²⁰Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. (This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, "Lord, who is going to betray you?")

²¹When Peter saw him, he asked, "Lord, what about him?"

²²Jesus answered, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me." ²³Because of this, the rumour spread among the believers that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say that he would not die; he only said, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?"

²⁴This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true.

²⁵Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

Jesus Taken Up Into Heaven

1 In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach ²until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. ³After his suffering, he showed himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. ⁴On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. ⁵For John baptised with^a water, but in a few days you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit."

⁶So when they met together, they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

⁷He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

⁹After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight.

¹⁰They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. ¹¹"You Galileans," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven."

Matthias Chosen to Replace Judas

¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day's walk^b from the city. ¹³When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. ¹⁴They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

¹⁵In those days Peter stood up among the believers^c (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty) ¹⁶and said, "Brothers and sisters, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus—¹⁷he was one of our number and shared in this ministry."

¹⁸(With the reward he got for his wickedness, Judas bought a field; there he fell headlong, his body burst open and all his intestines spilled out. ¹⁹Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this, so they called that field in their language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

²⁰"For," said Peter, "it is written in the Book of Psalms,

and,

"May another take his place of leadership."^e

²¹Therefore it is necessary to choose one of those who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, ²²beginning from John's baptism to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness with us of his resurrection."

²³So they proposed two names: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. ²⁴Then they prayed, "Lord, you know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen ²⁵to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs."²⁶Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles.

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

2 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ²Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. ⁴All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues^a as the Spirit enabled them.

⁵Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. ⁶When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his or her own language. ⁷Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸Then how is it that each of us hears them in our own native language? ⁹Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene;

visitors from Rome ¹¹(both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!"

¹²Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?"

¹³Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine."^b

Peter Addresses the Crowd

¹⁴Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. ¹⁵These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! ¹⁶No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

¹⁷"In the last days, God says,
I will pour out my Spirit on all
people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
your young men will see visions,
your old men will dream dreams.

¹⁸Even on my servants, both men and
women,
I will pour out my Spirit in those days,
and they will prophesy.

¹⁹I will show wonders in the heaven
above
and signs on the earth below,
blood and fire and billows of
smoke.

²⁰The sun will be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood
before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.

²¹And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."^c

²²"People of Israel, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know. ²³This man was handed over to you by God's set purpose and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked people,^d put him to death by nailing him to the cross. ²⁴But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. ²⁵David said about him:

“I saw the Lord always before me.
Because he is at my right hand,
I will not be shaken.

²⁶Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will live in hope, ²⁷because you will not abandon me to the grave,
nor will you let your Holy One see decay.

²⁸You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence.”^e

²⁹“Brothers and sisters, I can tell you confidently that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day. ³⁰But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants on his throne. ³¹Seeing what was ahead, he spoke of the resurrection of the Christ,^f that he was not abandoned to the grave, nor did his body see decay. ³²God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of the fact. ³³Exalted to the right hand of God, he has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now see and hear. ³⁴For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said,

“The Lord said to my Lord:
“Sit at my right hand
³⁵until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet.”^g

³⁶“Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ.”

³⁷When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?”

³⁸Peter replied, “Repent and be baptised, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call.”

⁴⁰With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” ⁴¹Those who accepted his message were baptised, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

The Fellowship of the Believers

⁴²They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. ⁴³Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles. ⁴⁴All the believers were together and had everything in common. ⁴⁵Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone who had need. ⁴⁶Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

Peter Heals the Crippled Beggar

3 One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer—at three in the afternoon. ²Now a man crippled from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple courts. ³When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money. ⁴Peter looked straight at him, as did John. Then Peter said, “Look at us!” ⁵So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them.

⁶Then Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk."⁷Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man's feet and ankles became strong. ⁸He jumped to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping, and praising God. ⁹When all the people saw him walking and praising God, ¹⁰they recognised him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Peter Speaks to the Onlookers

¹¹While the beggar held on to Peter and John, all the people were astonished and came running to them in the place called Solomon's Colonnade. ¹²When Peter saw this, he said to them: "People of Israel, why does this surprise you? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? ¹³The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus. You handed him over to be killed, and you disowned him before Pilate, though he had decided to let him go. ¹⁴You disowned the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. ¹⁵You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead. We are witnesses of this. ¹⁶By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know was made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through him that has given this complete healing to him, as you can all see.

¹⁷"Now, brothers and sisters, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did your leaders. ¹⁸But this is how God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, saying that his Christ^a would suffer. ¹⁹Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, ²⁰and that he may send the Christ, who has been appointed for you—even

Jesus. ²¹He must remain in heaven until the time comes for God to restore everything, as he promised long ago through his holy prophets. ²²For Moses said, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you must listen to everything his prophet tells you.' ²³Anyone who does not listen to that prophet will be completely cut off from among the people.'^b

²⁴"Indeed, all the prophets from Samuel on, as many as have spoken, have foretold these days. ²⁵And you are heirs of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers. He said to Abraham, 'Through your offspring all peoples on earth will be blessed.'^c ²⁶When God raised up his servant, he sent him first to you to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

Peter and John Before the Sanhedrin

4 The priests and the captain of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to Peter and John while they were speaking to the people. ²They were greatly disturbed because the apostles were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead. ³They seized Peter and John, and because it was evening, they put them in jail until the next day. ⁴But many who heard the message believed, and their number^d grew to about five thousand.

⁵The next day the rulers, elders and teachers of the law met in Jerusalem. ⁶Annas the high priest was there, and so were Caiaphas, John, Alexander and others of the high priest's family. ⁷They had Peter and John brought before them and began to question them: "By what power or what name did you do this?"

⁸Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: "Rulers and elders of the people! ⁹If we are being called to account today for an act of kindness shown to a cripple and are asked how he was healed, ¹⁰then know this, you and all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed. ¹¹He is “the stone you builders rejected, which has become the capstone.^{b, c}

¹²Salvation is found in no-one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to people by which we must be saved.”

¹³When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realised that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus. ¹⁴But since they could see the man who had been healed standing there with them, there was nothing they could say. ¹⁵So they ordered them to withdraw from the Sanhedrin and then conferred together. ¹⁶“What are we going to do with these men?” they asked. “Everybody living in Jerusalem knows they have done an outstanding miracle, and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷But to stop this thing from spreading any further among the people, we must warn them to speak no longer to anyone in this name.”

¹⁸Then they called them in again and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹But Peter and John replied, “Judge for yourselves whether it is right in God’s sight to obey you rather than God. ²⁰For we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard.”

²¹After further threats they let them go. They could not decide how to punish them, because all the people were praising God for what had happened. ²²For the man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

The Believers’ Prayer

²³On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them. ²⁴When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. “Sovereign Lord,” they said, “you made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and everything in them. ²⁵You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David:

“Why do the nations rage
and the peoples plot in vain?

²⁶The kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers gather together against the Lord
and against his Anointed One.^{d, e}

²⁷Indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed. ²⁸They did what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen. ²⁹Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness. ³⁰Stretch out your hand to heal and perform miraculous signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

³¹After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

The Believers Share Their Possessions

³²All the believers were one in heart and mind. No-one claimed that any of their possessions was their own, but they shared everything they had. ³³With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and much grace was upon them all. ³⁴There were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales ³⁵and put it at the apostles’ feet, and it was distributed to anyone who had need.

³⁶Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means Son of Encouragement), ³⁷sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles’ feet.

Ananias and Sapphira

5 Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, also sold a piece of property. ²With his wife’s full

^{b11} Or cornerstone ^{c11} Psalm 118:22 ^{d26} That is, Christ or Messiah ^{e26} Psalm 2:1,2 knowledge he kept back part of the money for himself, but brought the rest and put it at the apostles' feet.

³Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land? ⁴Didn't it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal? What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to us men but to God."

⁵When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. And great fear seized all who heard what had happened. ⁶Then the young men came forward, wrapped up his body, and carried him out and buried him.

⁷About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?"

"Yes," she said, "that is the price."

⁹Peter said to her, "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also."

¹⁰At that moment she fell down at his feet and died. Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

¹¹Great fear seized the whole church and all who heard about these events.

The Apostles Heal Many

¹²The apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers used to meet together in Solomon's Colonnade. ¹³No one else dared join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people. ¹⁴Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number. ¹⁵As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by. ¹⁶Crowds gathered also from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those tormented by evil^a spirits, and all of them were healed.

The Apostles Persecuted

¹⁷Then the high priest and all his associates, who were members of the party of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail. ¹⁹But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought them out. ²⁰"Go, stand in the temple courts," he said, "and tell the people the full message of this new life."

²¹At daybreak they entered the temple courts, as they had been told, and began to teach the people.

When the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin—the full assembly of the elders of Israel—and sent to the jail for the apostles. ²²But on arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there. So they went back and reported, ²³"We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no-one inside." ²⁴On hearing this report, the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests were puzzled, wondering what would come of this.

²⁵Then someone came and said, "Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching the people." ²⁶At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the people would stone them.

²⁷Having brought the apostles, they made them appear before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest. ²⁸"We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name," he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."

²⁹Peter and the other apostles replied: "We must obey God rather than human beings! ³⁰The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead—whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. ³¹God

^a16 Greek unclean

exalted him to his own right hand as Prince and Saviour that he might give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. ³²We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

³³When they heard this, they were furious and wanted to put them to death.

³⁴But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, who was honoured by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while. ³⁵Then he addressed them: "Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do to these men.

³⁶Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing. ³⁷After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers were scattered. ³⁸Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. ³⁹But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."

⁴⁰His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in and had them flogged. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

⁴¹The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing because they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name.

⁴²Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ.^b

The Choosing of the Seven

6 In those days when the number of disciples was increasing, the Grecian Jews among them complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. ²So the Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, "It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables.

³Brothers and sisters, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them ⁴and will give our attention to prayer and the ministry of the word."

⁵This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit; also Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism. ⁶They presented them to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

⁷So the word of God spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem increased rapidly, and a large number of priests became obedient to the faith.

Stephen Seized

⁸Now Stephen, a man full of God's grace and power, did great wonders and miraculous signs among the people. ⁹Opposition arose, however, from members of the Synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called)—Jews of Cyrene and Alexandria as well as the provinces of Cilicia and Asia, who began to argue with Stephen. ¹⁰but they could not stand up against his wisdom or the Spirit by whom he spoke.

¹¹Then they secretly persuaded some men to say, "We have heard Stephen speak words of blasphemy against Moses and against God."

¹²So they stirred up the people and the elders and the teachers of the law. They seized Stephen and brought him before the Sanhedrin. ¹³They produced false witnesses, who testified, "This fellow never stops speaking against this holy place and against the law. ¹⁴For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs Moses handed down to us."

¹⁵All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Speech to the Sanhedrin

7 Then the high priest asked him, "Are these charges true?"

²To this he replied: "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran. ³'Leave your country and your people,' God said, 'and go to the land I will show you.'^a

⁹"Because the patriarchs were jealous of Joseph, they sold him as a slave into Egypt. But God was with him ¹⁰and rescued him from all his troubles. He gave Joseph wisdom and enabled him to gain the goodwill of Pharaoh king of Egypt; so he made him ruler over Egypt and all his palace.

¹¹"Then a famine struck all Egypt and Canaan, bringing great suffering, and our people could not find food. ¹²When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our ancestors on their first visit. ¹³On their second visit, Joseph told his brothers who he was, and Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family. ¹⁴After this, Joseph sent for his father Jacob and his whole family, seventy-five in all. ¹⁵Then Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our ancestors died. ¹⁶Their bodies were brought back to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor at Shechem for a certain sum of money.

¹⁷"As the time drew near for God to fulfil his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased. ¹⁸Then another king, who knew nothing about Joseph, became ruler of Egypt. ¹⁹He dealt treacherously with our people and oppressed our ancestors by forcing them to throw out their newborn babies so that they would die.

²⁰"At that time Moses was born, and he was no ordinary child.^c For three months he was cared for in his parents' home. ²¹When he was placed outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son. ²²Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in speech and action.

²³"When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his own people, the Israelites. ²⁴He saw one of them being ill-treated by an Egyptian, so he went to his defence and avenged him by killing the Egyptian. ²⁵Moses thought that his own people would realise that God was using him to rescue them, but they did not. ²⁶The next day Moses came upon two Israelites who were fighting. He tried to reconcile them by saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why do you want to hurt each other?'

²⁷"But the man who was ill-treating the other pushed Moses aside and said, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us?' ²⁸Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?'^d ²⁹When Moses heard this, he fled to Midian, where he settled as a foreigner and had two sons.

³⁰"After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai. ³¹When he saw this, he was amazed at the sight. As he went over to look more closely, he heard the Lord's voice: ³²'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.'^e Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.

³⁵“This is the same Moses whom they had rejected with the words, ‘Who made you ruler and judge?’ He was sent to be their ruler and deliverer by God himself, through the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶He led them out of Egypt and did wonders and miraculous signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea^g and for forty years in the desert.

³⁷“This is that Moses who told the Israelites, ‘God will send you a prophet like me from your own people.’^h ³⁸He was in the assembly in the desert, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors; and he received living words to pass on to us.

³⁹“But our ancestors refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt. ⁴⁰They told Aaron, ‘Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who led us out of Egypt—we don’t know what has happened to him!’ⁱ ⁴¹That was the time they made an idol in the form of a calf. They brought sacrifices to it and held a celebration in honour of what their hands had made. ⁴²But God turned away and gave them over to the worship of the heavenly bodies. This agrees with what is written in the book of the prophets:

“‘Did you bring me sacrifices and offerings

⁴⁴“Our ancestors had the tabernacle of the Testimony with them in the desert. It had been made as God directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen. ⁴⁵Having received the tabernacle, our ancestors under Joshua brought it with them when they took the land from the nations God drove out before them. It remained in the land until the time of David, ⁴⁶who enjoyed God’s favour and asked that he might provide a dwelling-place for the God of Jacob.^k ⁴⁷But it was Solomon who built the house for him.

⁴⁸“However, the Most High does not live in houses made by human hands. As the prophet says:

⁴⁹“‘Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my footstool.
What kind of house will you build for
me?

says the Lord.
Or where will my resting place be?

⁵⁰Has not my hand made all these things?’^l

⁵¹“You stiff-necked people, with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You are just like your ancestors: You always resist the Holy Spirit! ⁵²Was there ever a prophet your ancestors did not persecute? They even killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One. And now you have betrayed and murdered him—⁵³you who have received the law that was put into effect through angels but have not obeyed it.”

The Stoning of Stephen

⁵⁴When they heard this, they were furious and gnashed their teeth at him. ⁵⁵But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶“Look,” he said, “I see heaven open and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

⁵⁷At this they covered their ears and, yelling at the top of their voices, they all rushed at him, ⁵⁸dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile, the witnesses laid their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.

⁵⁹While they were stoning him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit."

⁶⁰Then he fell on his knees and cried out, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he fell asleep.

8 And Saul was there, giving approval to his death.

The Church Persecuted and Scattered

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church at Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria. ²Godly men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him. ³But Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison.

Philip in Samaria

⁴Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. ⁵Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Christ^a there. ⁶When the crowds heard Philip and saw the miraculous signs he did, they all paid close attention to what he said. ⁷With shrieks, evil^b spirits came out of many, and many paralytics and cripples were healed. ⁸So there was great joy in that city.

Simon the Sorcerer

⁹Now for some time a man named Simon had practised sorcery in the city and amazed all the people of Samaria. He boasted that he was someone great,¹⁰ and all the people, both high and low, gave him their attention and exclaimed, "This man is the divine power known as the Great Power."¹¹ They followed him because he had amazed them for a long time with his magic. ¹²But when they believed Philip as he preached the good news of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptised, both men and women. ¹³Simon himself believed and was baptised. And he followed Philip everywhere, astonished by the great signs and miracles he saw.

¹⁴When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. ¹⁵When they arrived, they prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, ¹⁶because the Holy Spirit had not yet come upon any of them; they had simply been baptised into^c the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷Then Peter and John placed their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸When Simon saw that the Spirit was given at the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money ¹⁹and said, "Give me also this ability so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

²⁰Peter answered: "May your money perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money! ²¹You have no part or share in this ministry, because your heart is not right before God. ²²Repent of this wickedness and pray to the Lord. Perhaps he will forgive you for having such a thought in your heart. ²³For I see that you are full of bitterness and captive to sin."

²⁴Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me so that nothing you have said may happen to me."

²⁵When they had testified and proclaimed the word of the Lord, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many Samaritan villages.

Philip and the Ethiopian

²⁶Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Go south to the road—the desert road—that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza."²⁷ So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian^d eunuch, an important official in charge of all the treasury of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians. This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship, ²⁸and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the book of Isaiah the

^{a5} Or Messiah ^{b7} Greek unclean ^{c16} Or in ^{d27} That is, from the upper Nile region prophet. ²⁹The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it."

³⁰Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.

³¹"How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

³²The eunuch was reading this passage of Scripture:

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter,
and as a lamb before the shearer is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.

³³In his humiliation he was deprived of justice.

Who can speak of his descendants?
For his life was taken from the earth."^e

³⁴The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?" ³⁵Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus.

³⁶As they travelled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. Why shouldn't I be baptised?" ³⁷And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptised him. ³⁸When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on his way rejoicing. ³⁹Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and travelled about, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

Saul's Conversion

9 Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest ²and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any there who belonged to the Way, whether men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem. ³As he neared Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. ⁴He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

⁵"Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked.

"I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," he replied. ⁶"Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

⁷Those who were travelling with Saul stood there speechless; they heard the sound but did not see anyone. ⁸Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand into Damascus. ⁹For three days he was blind, and did not eat or drink anything.

¹⁰In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, "Ananias!"

"Yes, Lord," he answered.

¹¹The Lord told him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. ¹²In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight."

¹³"Lord," Ananias answered, "I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. ¹⁴And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name."

¹⁵But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! This man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel. ¹⁶I will show him how much he must suffer for my name."

¹⁷Then Ananias went to the house and entered it. Placing his hands on Saul, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord—Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here—has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁸Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul's eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptised, ¹⁹and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

Saul in Damascus and Jerusalem

Saul spent several days with the disciples in Damascus. ²⁰At once he began to preach in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God. ²¹All those who heard him were astonished and asked, "Isn't he the man who caused havoc in Jerusalem among those who call on this name? And hasn't he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?" ²²Yet Saul grew more and more powerful and baffled the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.^a ²³After many days had gone by, the Jews conspired to kill him, ²⁴but Saul learned of their plan. Day and night they kept close watch on the city gates in order to kill him. ²⁵But his followers took him by night and lowered him in a basket through an opening in the wall.

²⁶When he came to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he really was a disciple. ²⁷But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. He told them how Saul on his journey had seen the Lord and that the Lord had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had preached fearlessly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸So Saul stayed with them and moved about freely in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. ²⁹He talked and debated with the Grecian Jews, but they tried to kill him. ³⁰When the believers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

³¹Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee and Samaria enjoyed a time of peace. It was strengthened; and encouraged by the Holy Spirit, it grew in numbers, living in the fear of the Lord.

Aeneas and Dorcas

³²As Peter travelled about the country, he went to visit the saints in Lydda.

³³There he found a man named Aeneas, a paralytic who had been bedridden for eight years. ³⁴"Aeneas," Peter said to him, "Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and tidy up your mat." Immediately Aeneas got up. ³⁵All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

³⁶In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which, when translated, is Dorcas^b), who was always doing good and helping the poor. ³⁷About that time she became sick and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upstairs room. ³⁸Lydda was near Joppa; so when the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, they sent two men to him and urged him, "Please come at once!"

³⁹Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

⁴⁰Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knees and prayed. Turning towards the dead woman, he said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up. ⁴¹He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called the believers and the widows and presented her to them alive. ⁴²This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord. ⁴³Peter stayed in Joppa for some time with a tanner named Simon.

Cornelius Calls for Peter

10 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. ²He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly. ³One day at about three in the afternoon he had a vision. He distinctly saw an angel of God, who came to him and said, "Cornelius!"

⁴Cornelius stared at him in fear. "What is it, Lord?" he asked.

The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God. ⁵Now ^a22 Or Messiah ^b36 Both Tabitha (Aramaic) and Dorcas (Greek) mean gazelle.

send men to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon who is called Peter. ⁶He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea."

⁷When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier who was one of his attendants. ⁸He told them everything that had happened and sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

⁹About noon the following day as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray. ¹⁰He became hungry and wanted something to eat, and while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. ¹¹He saw heaven opened and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. ¹²It contained all kinds of four-footed animals, as well as reptiles of the earth and birds of the air. ¹³Then a voice told him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat."

¹⁴"Surely not, Lord!" Peter replied. "I have never eaten anything impure or unclean."

¹⁵The voice spoke to him a second time, "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean."

¹⁶This happened three times, and immediately the sheet was taken back to heaven.

¹⁷While Peter was wondering about the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found out where Simon's house was and stopped at the gate. ¹⁸They called out, asking if Simon who was known as Peter was staying there.

¹⁹While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Simon, three^a men are looking for you. ²⁰So get up and go downstairs. Do not hesitate to go with them, for I have sent them."

²¹Peter went down and said to the men, "I'm the one you're looking for. Why have you come?"

²²The men replied, "We have come from Cornelius the centurion. He is a righteous and God-fearing man, who is respected by all the Jewish people. A holy angel told him to have you come to his house so that he could hear what you have to say." ²³Then Peter invited the men into the house to be his guests.

Peter at Cornelius' House

The next day Peter started out with them, and some of the believers from Joppa went along. ²⁴The following day he arrived in Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵As Peter entered the house, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet in reverence. ²⁶But Peter made him get up. "Stand up," he said, "I am only human myself."

²⁷Talking with him, Peter went inside and found a large gathering of people. ²⁸He said to them: "You are well aware that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with Gentiles or visit them. But God has shown me that I should not call anyone impure or unclean. ²⁹So when I was sent for, I came without raising any objection. May I ask why you sent for me?"

³⁰Cornelius answered: "Four days ago I was in my house praying at this hour, at three in the afternoon. Suddenly a man in shining clothes stood before me ³¹and said, 'Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and remembered your gifts to the poor. ³²Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner, who lives by the sea.' ³³So I sent for you immediately, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us."

³⁴Then Peter began to speak: "I now realise how true it is that God does not show favouritism ³⁵but accepts those from every nation who fear him and do what is right. ³⁶You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, telling the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. ³⁷You know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached—³⁸how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him.

³⁹“We are witnesses of everything he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree, ⁴⁰but God raised him from the dead on the third day and caused him to be seen. ⁴¹He was not seen by all the people, but by witnesses whom God had already chosen—by us who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴²He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

⁴⁴While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came on all who heard the message. ⁴⁵The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶For they heard them speaking in tongues^b and praising God.

Then Peter said, ⁴⁷“Can anyone keep these people from being baptised with water? They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have.” ⁴⁸So he ordered that they be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Peter Explains His Actions

11 The apostles and the believers throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. ²So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers criticised him ³and said, “You went into the house of uncircumcised men and ate with them.”

⁴Peter began and explained everything to them precisely as it had happened: ⁵“I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision. I saw something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came down to where I was. ⁶I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of the air. ⁷Then I heard a voice telling me, ‘Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.’

⁸“I replied, ‘Surely not, Lord! Nothing impure or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’

⁹“The voice spoke from heaven a second time, ‘Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.’ ¹⁰This happened three times, and then it was pulled up to heaven again.

¹¹“Right then three men who had been sent to me from Caesarea stopped at the house where I was staying. ¹²The Spirit told me to have no hesitation about going with them. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man’s house. ¹³He told us how he had seen an angel appear in his house and say, ‘Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. ¹⁴He will bring you a message through which you and all your household will be saved.’

¹⁵“As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them as he had come on us at the beginning. ¹⁶Then I remembered what the Lord had said: ‘John baptised with^a water, but you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.’ ¹⁷So if God gave them the same gift as he gave us, who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to think that I could oppose God?”

¹⁸When they heard this, they had no further objections and praised God, saying, “So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance unto life.”

The Church in Antioch

¹⁹Now those who had been scattered by the persecution in connection with Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch, telling the message only to Jews. ²⁰Some of them, however, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and began to speak to Greeks also, telling them the good news about the Lord Jesus. ²¹The Lord’s hand was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.

^b46 Or other languages ^a16 Or in ²²News of this reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. ²³When he arrived and saw the evidence of the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with all their hearts. ²⁴He was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord.

²⁵Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul, ²⁶and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So for a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught great numbers of people. The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch.

²⁷During this time some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸One of them, named Agabus, stood up and through the Spirit predicted that a severe famine would spread over the entire Roman world. (This happened during the reign of Claudius.) ²⁹The disciples, each according to his ability, decided to provide help for the believers living in Judea. ³⁰This they did, sending their gift to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

Peter's Miraculous Escape From Prison

12 It was about this time that King Herod arrested some who belonged to the church, intending to persecute them. ²He had James, the brother of John, put to death with the sword. ³When he saw that this pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This happened during the Feast of Unleavened Bread. ⁴After arresting him, he put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.

⁵So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was earnestly praying to God for him.

⁶The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries stood guard at the entrance. ⁷Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up. "Quick, get up!" he said, and the chains fell off Peter's wrists.

⁸Then the angel said to him, "Put on your clothes and sandals." And Peter did so. "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me," the angel told him. ⁹Peter followed him out of the prison, but he had no idea that what the angel was doing was really happening; he thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went through it. When they had walked the length of one street, suddenly the angel left him.

¹¹Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I know without a doubt that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from Herod's clutches and from everything the Jewish people were anticipating."

¹²When this had dawned on him, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying. ¹³Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant named Rhoda came to answer the door. ¹⁴When she recognised Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed she ran back without opening it and exclaimed, "Peter is at the door!"

¹⁵"You're out of your mind," they told her. When she kept insisting that it was so, they said, "It must be his angel."

¹⁶But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. ¹⁷Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet and described how the Lord had brought him out of prison. "Tell James and the believers about this," he said, and then he left for another place.

¹⁸In the morning, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. ¹⁹After Herod had a thorough search made for him and did not find him, he cross-examined the guards and ordered that they be executed.

Herod's Death

Then Herod went from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there a while. ²⁰He had been quarrelling with the people of Tyre and Sidon; they now joined together and sought an audience with him. Having secured the support of Blastus, a trusted personal servant of the king, they asked for peace, because they depended on the king's country for their food supply.

²¹On the appointed day Herod, wearing his royal robes, sat on his throne and delivered a public address to the people. ²²They shouted, "This is the voice of a god, not of a mere mortal." ²³Immediately, because Herod did not give praise to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died.

²⁴But the word of God continued to increase and spread.

²⁵When Barnabas and Saul had finished their mission, they returned from^a Jerusalem, taking with them John, also called Mark.

Barnabas and Saul Sent Off

13 In the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch) and Saul. ²While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off.

On Cyprus

⁴The two of them, sent on their way by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus. ⁵When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. John was with them as their helper.

⁶They travelled through the whole island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, ⁷who was an attendant of the proconsul, Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, an intelligent man, sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul from the faith. ⁹Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked straight at Elymas and said, ¹⁰"You are a child of the devil and an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery. Will you never stop perverting the right ways of the Lord? ¹¹Now the hand of the Lord is against you. You are going to be blind, and for a time you will be unable to see the light of the sun."

Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand. ¹²When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

In Pisidian Antioch

¹³From Paphos, Paul and his companions sailed to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them to return to Jerusalem. ¹⁴From Perga they went on to Pisidian Antioch. On the Sabbath they entered the synagogue and sat down. ¹⁵After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue rulers sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have a message of encouragement for the people, please speak."

¹⁶Standing up, Paul motioned with his hand and said: "People of Israel and you Gentiles who worship God, listen to me! ¹⁷The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors; he made the people prosper during their stay in Egypt, with mighty power he led them out of that country, ¹⁸he endured their conduct^a for about forty years in the desert, ¹⁹he overthrew seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to his people as their inheritance. ²⁰All this took about 450 years.

"After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. ²¹Then the people asked for a king, and he gave them Saul son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled for forty years. ²²After

^a25 Some manuscripts to ^a18 Some manuscripts and cared for them

removing Saul, he made David their king. He testified concerning him: 'I have found David son of Jesse a man after my own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.'

²³ "From this man's descendants God has brought to Israel the Saviour Jesus, as he promised. ²⁴ Before the coming of Jesus, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel. ²⁵ As John was completing his work, he said: 'Who do you think I am? I am not that one. No, but he is coming after me, whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'

²⁶ "Brothers and sisters from the children of Abraham and you God-fearing Gentiles, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent. ²⁷ The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognise Jesus, yet in condemning him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath. ²⁸ Though they found no proper ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him executed. ²⁹ When they had carried out all that was written about him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb. ³⁰ But God raised him from the dead, ³¹ and for many days he was seen by those who had travelled with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to our people.

³² "We tell you the good news: What God promised our ancestors^{b33} he has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm:

" 'You are my Son;
today I have become your Father.'^{b,c}

³⁴ The fact that God raised him from the dead, never to decay, is stated in these words:

" 'I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David.'^d

³⁵ So it is stated elsewhere:

" 'You will not let your Holy One see decay.'^e

³⁶ "For when David had served God's purpose in his own generation, he fell asleep; he was buried with his ancestors and his body decayed. ³⁷ But the one whom God raised from the dead did not see decay.

³⁸ "Therefore, my brothers and sisters, I want you to know that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you. ³⁹ Through him everyone who believes is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses. ⁴⁰ Take care that what the prophets have said does not happen to you:

⁴¹ " 'Look, you scoffers,
wonder and perish,
for I am going to do something in your
days
that you would never believe,
even if someone told you.'^f

⁴² As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people invited them to speak further about these things on the next Sabbath. ⁴³ When the congregation was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who talked with them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴ On the next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵ When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and talked abusively against what Paul was saying.

⁴⁶ Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: "We had to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷ For this is what the Lord has commanded us:

" 'I have made you^g a light for the Gentiles,
that you^g may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'^h

⁴⁸ When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and honoured the word of the ⁴⁹The word of the Lord spread through the whole region. ⁵⁰But the Jews incited the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their region. ⁵¹So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them and went to Iconium. ⁵²And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

In Iconium

14 At Iconium Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue. There they spoke so effectively that a great number of Jews and Gentiles believed. ²But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. ³So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who confirmed the message of his grace by enabling them to do miraculous signs and wonders. ⁴The people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews, others with the apostles. ⁵There was a plot afoot among the Gentiles and Jews, together with their leaders, to ill-treat them and stone them. ⁶But they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding country, ⁷where they continued to preach the good news.

In Lystra and Derbe

⁸In Lystra there sat a man crippled in his feet, who was lame from birth and had never walked. ⁹He listened to Paul as he was speaking. Paul looked directly at him, saw that he had faith to be healed ¹⁰and called out, "Stand up on your feet!" At that, the man jumped up and began to walk.

¹¹When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!" ¹²Barnabas they called

Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes because he was the chief speaker. ¹³The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates because he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices to them.

¹⁴But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of this, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting: ¹⁵"Friends, why are you doing this? We too are only human like you. We are bringing you good news, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made heaven and earth and sea and everything in them. ¹⁶In the past, he let all nations go their own way. ¹⁷Yet he has not left himself without testimony: He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy." ¹⁸Even with these words, they had difficulty keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowd over. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, thinking he was dead. ²⁰But after the disciples had gathered round him, he got up and went back into the city. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

The Return to Antioch in Syria

²¹They preached the good news in that city and won a large number of disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch, ²²strengthening the disciples and encouraging them to remain true to the faith. "We must go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," they said. ²³Paul and Barnabas appointed elders^a for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, committed them to the Lord, in whom they had put their trust. ²⁴After going through Pisidia, they came into Pamphylia, ²⁵and when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

²⁶From Attalia they sailed back to

^a23 Or Barnabas ordained elders; or Barnabas had elders elected

Antioch, where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. ²⁷On arriving there, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸And they stayed there a long time with the disciples.

The Council at Jerusalem

15 Certain individuals came down from Judea to Antioch and were teaching the believers: "Unless you are circumcised, according to the custom taught by Moses, you cannot be saved." ²This brought Paul and Barnabas into sharp dispute and debate with them. So Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with some other believers, to go up to Jerusalem to see the apostles and elders about this question. ³The church sent them on their way, and as they travelled through Phoenicia and Samaria, they told how the Gentiles had been converted. This news made all the believers very glad. ⁴When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and elders, to whom they reported everything God had done through them.

⁵Then some of the believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and said, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to obey the law of Moses."

⁶The apostles and elders met to consider this question. ⁷After much discussion, Peter got up and addressed them: "Brothers, you know that some time ago God made a choice among you that the Gentiles might hear from my lips the message of the gospel and believe. ⁸God, who knows the heart, showed that he accepted them by giving the Holy Spirit to them, just as he did to us. ⁹He made no distinction between us and them, for he purified their hearts by faith. ¹⁰Now then, why do you try to test God by putting on the necks of the disciples a yoke that neither we nor our ancestors have been able to bear? ¹¹No! We believe it is through the grace of our Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are."

¹²The whole assembly became silent as they listened to Barnabas and Paul telling about the miraculous signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them. ¹³When they finished, James spoke up: "Brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴Simon^a has described to us how God at first showed his concern by taking from the Gentiles a people for himself. ¹⁵The words of the prophets are in agreement with this, as it is written:

¹⁶" 'After this I will return and rebuild David's fallen tent.

Its ruins I will rebuild,
and I will restore it,

¹⁷that the remnant of humanity may seek the Lord,

and all the Gentiles who bear my
name,

says the Lord, who does these things^b

¹⁸that have been known for ages.^c

¹⁹"It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. ²⁰Instead we should write to them, telling them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from the meat of strangled animals and from blood. ²¹For Moses has been preached in every city from the earliest times and is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath."

The Council's Letter to Gentile Believers

²²Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to choose some of their own men and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They chose Judas (called Barsabbas) and Silas, who were leaders among the believers. ²³With them they sent the following letter:

The apostles and elders, your
brothers,

To the Gentile believers in Antioch,
Syria and Cilicia:

^c17, 18 Some manuscripts things — / ¹⁸known to the Lord for ages is his work

Greetings.

²⁴We have heard that some went out from us without our authorisation and disturbed you, troubling your minds by what they said. ²⁵So we all agreed to choose some men and send them to you with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul—²⁶men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas to confirm by word of mouth what we are writing. ²⁸It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to burden you with anything beyond the following requirements: ²⁹You are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality. You will do well to avoid these things.

Farewell.

³⁰So they were sent off and went down to Antioch, where they gathered the church together and delivered the letter. ³¹The people read it and were glad for its encouraging message. ³²Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the believers. ³³After spending some time there, they were sent off by the believers with the blessing of peace to return to those who had sent them.^d ³⁵But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, where they and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord.

Disagreement Between Paul and Barnabas

³⁶Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us go back and visit the believers in all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing." ³⁷Barnabas wanted to take John, also called Mark, with them, ³⁸but Paul did not think it wise to take him, because he had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in the work. ³⁹They had such a sharp disagreement that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, ⁴⁰but Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the believers to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16 He came to Derbe and then to Lystra, where a disciple named Timothy lived, whose mother was a Jewess and a believer, but whose father was a Greek. ²The believers at Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him. ³Paul wanted to take him along on the journey, so he circumcised him because of the Jews who lived in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴As they travelled from town to town, they delivered the decisions reached by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the people to obey. ⁵So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

Paul's Vision of the Man of Macedonia

⁶Paul and his companions travelled throughout the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia. ⁷When they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to. ⁸So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas. ⁹During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." ¹⁰After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia's Conversion in Philippi

¹¹From Troas we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, and the next day on to Neapolis. ¹²From there we travelled to Philippi, a Roman colony and the leading city of that district of Macedonia. And we stayed there several days.

^{d33} Some manuscripts them, ³⁴*but Silas decided to remain there*

¹³On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there. ¹⁴One of those listening was a woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who was a worshipper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul's message. ¹⁵When she and the members of her household were baptised, she invited us to her home. "If you consider me a believer in the Lord," she said, "come and stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

Paul and Silas in Prison

¹⁶Once when we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a female slave who had a spirit by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling. ¹⁷She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who are telling you the way to be saved." ¹⁸She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became so troubled that he turned round and said to the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!" At that moment the spirit left her.

¹⁹When her owners realised that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market-place to face the authorities. ²⁰They brought them before the magistrates and said, "These men are Jews, and are throwing our city into an uproar ²¹by advocating customs unlawful for us Romans to accept or practise."

²²The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten. ²³After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer was commanded to guard them carefully. ²⁴Upon receiving such orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.

²⁶Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everybody's chains came loose. ²⁷The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸But Paul shouted, "Don't harm yourself! We are all here!"

²⁹The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas.

³⁰He then brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

³¹They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household." ³²Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. ³³At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his family were baptised. ³⁴The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole family.

³⁵When it was daylight, the magistrates sent their officers to the jailer with the order: "Release those men." ³⁶The jailer told Paul, "The magistrates have ordered that you and Silas be released. Now you can leave. Go in peace."

³⁷But Paul said to the officers: "They beat us publicly without a trial, even though we are Roman citizens, and threw us into prison. And now do they want to get rid of us quietly? No! Let them come themselves and escort us out."

³⁸The officers reported this to the magistrates, and when they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were alarmed. ³⁹They came to appease them and escorted them from the prison, requesting them to leave the city. ⁴⁰After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia's house, where they met with the believers and encouraged them. Then they left.

In Thessalonica

17 When they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. ²As his custom was, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, ³explaining and proving that the Christ^a had to suffer and rise from the dead. "This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Christ,"^a he said. ⁴Some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a large number of God-fearing Greeks and not a few prominent women.

⁵But the Jews were jealous; so they rounded up some bad characters from the market-place, formed a mob and started a riot in the city. They rushed to Jason's house in search of Paul and Silas in order to bring them out to the crowd.^b ⁶But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some other believers before the city officials, shouting: "These people who have caused trouble all over the world have now come here, ⁷and Jason has welcomed them into his house. They are all defying Caesar's decrees, saying that there is another king, one called Jesus." ⁸When they heard this, the crowd and the city officials were thrown into turmoil. ⁹Then they put Jason and the others on bail and let them go.

In Berea

¹⁰As soon as it was night, the believers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. On arriving there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. ¹¹Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true. ¹²Many of the Jews believed, as did also a number of prominent Greek women and many Greek men.

¹³When the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God at Berea, they went there too, agitating the crowds and stirring them up. ¹⁴The believers immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed at Berea. ¹⁵Those who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and then left with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.

In Athens

¹⁶While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was greatly distressed to see that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Greeks, as well as in the market-place day by day with those who happened to be there. ¹⁸A group of Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began to dispute with him. Some of them asked, "What is this babbler trying to say?" Others remarked, "He seems to be advocating foreign gods." They said this because Paul was preaching the good news about Jesus and the resurrection. ¹⁹Then they took him and brought him to a meeting of the Areopagus, where they said to him, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?" ²⁰You are bringing some strange ideas to our ears, and we want to know what they mean." ²¹(All the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing but talking about and listening to the latest ideas.)

²²Paul then stood up in the meeting of the Areopagus and said: "People of Athens! I see that in every way you are very religious. ²³For as I walked around and looked carefully at your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Now what you worship as something unknown I am going to proclaim to you.

²⁴"The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by hands. ²⁵And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives all life and breath and everything else. ²⁶From one man he made all the nations, that they should inhabit

the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. ²⁷God did this so that they would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. ²⁸'For in him we live and move and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.'

²⁹"Therefore since we are God's offspring, we should not think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone—an image made by human design and skill. ³⁰In the past God overlooked such ignorance, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent. ³¹For he has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising him from the dead."

³²When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some of them sneered, but others said, "We want to hear you again on this subject." ³³At that, Paul left the Council. ³⁴Some of the people became followers of Paul and believed. Among them was Dionysius, a member of the Areopagus, also a woman named Damaris, and a number of others.

In Corinth

18 After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. ²There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them, ³and because he was a tentmaker as they were, he stayed and worked with them. ⁴Every Sabbath he reasoned in the synagogue, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks.

⁵When Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself exclusively to preaching, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. ⁶But when the Jews opposed Paul and became abusive, he shook out his clothes in protest and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clear of my responsibility. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

⁷Then Paul left the synagogue and went next door to the house of Titius Justus, a worshipper of God. ⁸Crispus, the synagogue ruler, and his entire household believed in the Lord; and many of the Corinthians who heard him believed and were baptised.

⁹One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid; keep on speaking, do not be silent. ¹⁰For I am with you, and no-one is going to attack and harm you, because I have many people in this city." ¹¹So Paul stayed for a year and a half, teaching them the word of God.

¹²While Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him into court. ¹³"This man," they charged, "is persuading the people to worship God in ways contrary to the law."

¹⁴Just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, "If you Jews were making a complaint about some misdemeanour or serious crime, it would be reasonable for me to listen to you. ¹⁵But since it involves questions about words and names and your own law—settle the matter yourselves. I will not be a judge of such things." ¹⁶So he had them ejected from the court. ¹⁷Then they all turned on Sosthenes the synagogue ruler and beat him in front of the court. But Gallio showed no concern whatever.

Priscilla, Aquila and Apollos

¹⁸Paul stayed on in Corinth for some time. Then he left the believers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. Before he sailed, he had his hair cut off at Cenchrea because of a vow he had taken. ¹⁹They arrived at Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. ²⁰When they asked him to spend more time with them, he declined. ²¹But as he left, he promised, "I will come back if it is God's will." Then he set sail from Ephesus. ²²When he landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church and then went down to Antioch.

²⁵ Or Messiah; also in verse 28

²⁴ Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, with a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures. ²⁵ He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spoke with great fervour^b and taught about Jesus accurately, though he knew only the baptism of John. ²⁶ He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they invited him to their home and explained to him the way of God more adequately.

²⁷ When Apollos wanted to go to Achaia, the believers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. On arriving, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed. ²⁸ For he vigorously refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

Paul in Ephesus

19 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul took the road through the interior and arrived at Ephesus. There he found some disciples ² and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when^a you believed?"

They answered, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

³ So Paul asked, "Then what baptism did you receive?"

"John's baptism," they replied.

⁴ Paul said, "John's baptism was a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus." ⁵ On hearing this, they were baptised into^b the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ When Paul placed his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in tongues^c and prophesied. ⁷ There were about twelve men in all.

⁸ Paul entered the synagogue and spoke boldly there for three months, arguing persuasively about the kingdom of God. ⁹ But some of them became obstinate; they refused to believe and publicly maligned the Way. So Paul left them. He took the disciples with him and had discussions daily in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. ¹⁰ This went on for two years, so that all the Jews and Greeks who lived in the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord.

¹³ Some Jews who went around driving out evil spirits tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who were demon-possessed. They would say, "In the name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches, I command you to come out." ¹⁴ Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. ¹⁵ One day, the evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and I know about Paul, but who are you?" ¹⁶ Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. He gave them such a beating that they ran out of the house naked and bleeding.

¹⁷ When this became known to the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, they were all seized with fear, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honour.

¹⁸ Many of those who believed now came and openly confessed their evil deeds. ¹⁹ A number who had practised sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publicly. When they calculated the value of the scrolls, the total came to fifty thousand drachmas.^d ²⁰ In this way the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power.

²¹ After all this had happened, Paul decided to go to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia. "After I have been there," he said, "I must visit Rome also." ²² He sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he stayed in the province of Asia a little longer.

The Riot in Ephesus

²³About that time there arose a great disturbance about the Way. ²⁴A silver-smith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought in no little business for the skilled workers. ²⁵He called them together, along with the workers in related trades, and said: "Men, you know we receive a good income from this business. ²⁶And you see and hear how this fellow Paul has convinced and led astray large numbers of people here in Ephesus and in practically the whole province of Asia. He says that gods made by human hands are no gods at all. ²⁷There is danger not only that our trade will lose its good name, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited, and the goddess herself, who is worshipped throughout the province of Asia and the world, will be robbed of her divine majesty."

²⁸When they heard this, they were furious and began shouting: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" ²⁹Soon the whole city was in an uproar. The people seized Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul's travelling companions from Macedonia, and they all rushed into the theatre. ³⁰Paul wanted to appear before the crowd, but the disciples would not let him. ³¹Even some of the officials of the province, friends of Paul, sent him a message begging him not to venture into the theatre.

³²The assembly was in confusion: Some were shouting one thing, some another. Most of the people did not even know why they were there. ³³The Jews pushed Alexander to the front, and some of the crowd shouted instructions to him. He motioned for silence in order to make a defence before the people. ³⁴But when they realised he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

³⁵The city clerk quietened the crowd and said: "People of Ephesus, doesn't all the world know that the city of Ephesus is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image, which fell from heaven? ³⁶Therefore, since these facts are undeniable, you ought to be quiet and not do anything rash. ³⁷You have brought these men here, though they have neither robbed temples nor blasphemed our goddess. ³⁸If, then, Demetrius and his associates have a grievance against anybody, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. They can press charges. ³⁹If there is anything further you want to bring up, it must be settled in a legal assembly. ⁴⁰As it is, we are in danger of being charged with rioting because of today's events. In that case we would not be able to account for this commotion, since there is no reason for it." ⁴¹After he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Through Macedonia and Greece

20 When the uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples and, after encouraging them, said good-bye and set out for Macedonia. ²He travelled through that area, speaking many words of encouragement to the people, and finally arrived in Greece, ³where he stayed three months. Because the Jews made a plot against him just as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to go back through Macedonia. ⁴He was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy also, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia. ⁵These men went on ahead and waited for us at Troas. ⁶But we sailed from Philippi after the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and five days later joined the others at Troas, where we stayed seven days.

Eutychus Raised From the Dead at Troas

⁷On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight. ⁸There were many lamps in the upstairs room where we were meeting. ⁹Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell to the ground from the third storey and was picked up dead. ¹⁰Paul went down, threw himself on the young man and put his arms around him. "Don't be alarmed," he said. "He's alive!" ¹¹Then he went upstairs again and broke bread and ate. After talking until daylight, he left. ¹²The people took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.

Paul's Farewell to the Ephesian Elders

¹³We went on ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos, where we were going to take Paul aboard. He had made this arrangement because he was going there on foot. ¹⁴When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene. ¹⁵The next day we set sail from there and arrived off Kios. The day after that we crossed over to Samos, and on the following day arrived at Miletus. ¹⁶Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus to avoid spending time in the province of Asia, for he was in a hurry to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.

¹⁷From Miletus, Paul sent to Ephesus for the elders of the church. ¹⁸When they arrived, he said to them: "You know how I lived the whole time I was with you, from the first day I came into the province of Asia. ¹⁹I served the Lord with great humility and with tears, although I was severely tested by the plots of the Jews. ²⁰You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house. ²¹I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus.

²²"And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. ²³I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. ²⁴However, I consider my life worth nothing to me, if only I may finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me—the task of testifying to the gospel of God's grace.

²⁵"Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again. ²⁶Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of everyone. ²⁷For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God. ²⁸Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. ²⁹Be shepherds of the church of God, ³⁰which he bought with his own blood. ³¹I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. ³²Even from your own number some will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them. ³³So be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

³⁴"Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. ³⁵I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. ³⁶You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions. ³⁷In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'

³⁸When he had said this, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. ³⁹They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him. ⁴⁰What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

On to Jerusalem

21 After we had torn ourselves away from them, we put out to sea and sailed straight to Cos. The next day we went to Rhodes and from there to Patara. ²We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, went on board and set sail. ³After sighting Cyprus and passing to the south of it, we sailed on to Syria. We landed at Tyre, where our ship was to unload its cargo. ⁴Finding the disciples there, we stayed with them seven days. Through the Spirit they urged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem. ⁵But when our time was up, we left and continued on our way. All of them, including wives and children accompanied us out of the city, and there on the beach we knelt to pray. ⁶After saying good-bye to each other, we went aboard the ship, and they returned home.

⁷We continued our voyage from Tyre and landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the believers and stayed with them for a day. ⁸Leaving the next day, we reached Caesarea and stayed at the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the Seven. ⁹He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

¹⁰After we had been there a number of days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹Coming over to us, he took Paul's belt, tied his own hands and feet with it and said, "The Holy Spirit says, 'In this way the Jews of Jerusalem will bind the owner of this belt and will hand him over to the Gentiles.'"

¹²When we heard this, we and the people there pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³Then Paul answered, "Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." ¹⁴When he would not be dissuaded, we gave up and said, "The Lord's will be done."

¹⁵After this, we got ready and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶Some of the disciples from Caesarea accompanied us and brought us to the home of Mnason, where we were to stay. He was a man from Cyprus and one of the early disciples.

Paul's Arrival at Jerusalem

¹⁷When we arrived at Jerusalem, the believers received us warmly. ¹⁸The next day Paul and the rest of us went to see James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹Paul greeted them and reported in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

²⁰When they heard this, they praised God. Then they said to Paul: "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and all of them are zealous for the law. ²¹They have been informed that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or live according to our customs. ²²What shall we do? They will certainly hear that you have come, ²³so do what we tell you. There are four men with us who have made a vow. ²⁴Take these men, join in their purification rites and pay their expenses, so that they can have their heads shaved. Then everybody will know there is no truth in these reports about you, but that you yourself are living in obedience to the law. ²⁵As for the Gentile believers, we have written to them our decision that they should abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from sexual immorality."

²⁶The next day Paul took the men and purified himself along with them. Then he went to the temple to give notice of the date when the days of purification would end and the offering would be made for each of them.

Paul Arrested

²⁷When the seven days were nearly over, some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him. ²⁸Shouting, "People of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people and our law and this place. And besides, he has brought Greeks into the temple area and defiled this holy place." ²⁹(They had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with Paul and assumed that Paul had brought him into the temple area.)

³⁰The whole city was aroused, and the people came running from all directions. Seizing Paul, they dragged him from the temple, and immediately the gates were shut. ³¹While they were trying to kill him, news reached the commander of the Roman troops that the whole city of Jerusalem was in an uproar. ³²He at once took some officers and soldiers and ran down to the crowd. When the rioters saw the commander and his soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

³³The commander came up and arrested him and ordered him to be bound with two chains. Then he asked who he was and what he had done. ³⁴Some in the crowd shouted one thing and some another, and since the commander could not get at the truth because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be taken into the barracks. ³⁵When Paul reached the steps, the violence of the mob was so great he had to be carried by the soldiers. ³⁶The crowd that followed kept shouting, "Away with him!"

Paul Speaks to the Crowd

³⁷As the soldiers were about to take Paul into the barracks, he asked the commander, "May I say something to you?"

"Do you speak Greek?" he replied.

³⁸"Aren't you the Egyptian who started a revolt and led four thousand terrorists out into the desert some time ago?"

³⁹Paul answered, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no ordinary city. Please let me speak to the people."

⁴⁰Having received the commander's permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the crowd. When they were all silent, he said to them in Aramaic^a:

22 ¹"Brothers and fathers, listen now to my defence."

²When they heard him speak to them in Aramaic, they became very quiet.

Then Paul said: ³"I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city. Under Gamaliel I was thoroughly trained in the law of our ancestors and was just as zealous for God as any of you are today. ⁴I persecuted the followers of this Way to their death, arresting both men and women and throwing them into prison, ⁵as also the high priest and all the Council can testify. I even obtained letters from them to their associates in Damascus, and went there to bring these people as prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished.

⁶"About noon as I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. ⁷I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul! Saul! Why do you persecute me?'

⁸"Who are you, Lord?" I asked.

"I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting," he replied. ⁹My companions saw the light, but they did not understand the voice of him who was speaking to me.

¹⁰"What shall I do, Lord?" I asked.

"Get up," the Lord said, "and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been assigned to do." ¹¹My companions led me by the hand into Damascus, because the brilliance of the light had blinded me.

¹²"A man named Ananias came to see me. He was a devout observer of the law and highly respected by all the Jews living there. ¹³He stood beside me and said, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight!' And at that very moment I was able to see him.

¹⁴"Then he said: 'The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and to hear words from his mouth. ¹⁵You will be his witness to all people of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶And now what are you waiting for? Get up, be baptised and wash your sins away, calling on his name.'

¹⁷"When I returned to Jerusalem and was praying at the temple, I fell into a trance ¹⁸and saw the Lord speaking. 'Quick!' he said to me. 'Leave Jerusalem immediately, because they will not accept your testimony about me.'

¹⁹"Lord," I replied, "these people know that I went from one synagogue to another to imprison and beat those who believe in you. ²⁰And when the blood of your martyr^a Stephen was shed, I stood there giving my approval and guarding the clothes of those who were killing him.'

²¹"Then the Lord said to me, 'Go; I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'"

Paul the Roman Citizen

²²The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they raised their voices and ^{a40} Or possibly Hebrew; also in 22:2 ^{a20} Or witness shouted, "Rid the earth of him! He's not fit to live!"

²³ As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and flinging dust into the air, ²⁴ the commander ordered Paul to be taken into the barracks. He directed that he be flogged and questioned in order to find out why the people were shouting at him like this. ²⁵ As they stretched him out to flog him, Paul said to the centurion standing there, "Is it legal for you to flog a Roman citizen who hasn't even been found guilty?"

²⁶ When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it. "What are you going to do?" he asked. "This man is a Roman citizen."

²⁷ The commander went to Paul and asked, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"

"Yes, I am," he answered.

²⁸ Then the commander said, "I had to pay a big price for my citizenship."

"But I was born a citizen," Paul replied.

²⁹ Those who were about to question him withdrew immediately. The commander himself was alarmed when he realised that he had put Paul, a Roman citizen, in chains.

Before the Sanhedrin

³⁰ The next day, since the commander wanted to find out exactly why Paul was being accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to assemble. Then he brought Paul and had him stand before them.

23 Paul looked straight at the Sanhedrin and said, "My brothers, I have fulfilled my duty to God in all good conscience to this day." ² At this the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth. ³ Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit there to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by commanding that I be struck!"

⁴ Those who were standing near Paul said, "You dare to insult God's high priest?"

⁵ Paul replied, "Brothers, I did not realise that he was the high priest; for it is written: 'Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.'^a"

⁶ Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees and the others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin, "My brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. I stand on trial because of my hope in the resurrection of the dead."

⁷ When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸ (The Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, and that there are neither angels nor spirits, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.)

⁹ There was a great uproar, and some of the teachers of the law who were Pharisees stood up and argued vigorously. "We find nothing wrong with this man," they said. "What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?" ¹⁰ The dispute became so violent that the commander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them. He ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force and bring him into the barracks.

¹¹ The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, "Take courage! As you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome."

The Plot to Kill Paul

¹² The next morning the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³ More than forty men were involved in this plot. ¹⁴ They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have taken a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵ Now then, you and the Sanhedrin petition the commander to bring him before you on the pretext of wanting more accurate information about his case. We are ready to kill him before he gets here."

¹⁶But when the son of Paul's sister heard of this plot, he went into the barracks and told Paul.

¹⁷Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander; he has something to tell him." ¹⁸So he took him to the commander.

The centurion said, "Paul, the prisoner, sent for me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you."

¹⁹The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside and asked, "What is it you want to tell me?"

²⁰He said: "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul before the Sanhedrin tomorrow on the pretext of wanting more accurate information about him. ²¹Don't give in to them, because more than forty of them are waiting in ambush for him. They have taken an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. They are ready now, waiting for your consent to their request."

²²The commander dismissed the young man and cautioned him, "Don't tell anyone that you have reported this to me."

Paul Transferred to Caesarea

²³Then he called two of his centurions and ordered them, "Get ready a detachment of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen^b to go to Caesarea at nine tonight. ²⁴Provide mounts for Paul so that he may be taken safely to Governor Felix."

²⁵He wrote a letter as follows:

²⁶Claudius Lysias,

To His Excellency, Governor Felix:
Greetings.

²⁷This man was seized by the Jews and they were about to kill him, but I came with my troops and rescued him, for I had learned that he is a Roman citizen. ²⁸I wanted to know why they were accusing him, so I brought him to their Sanhedrin. ²⁹I found that the accusation had to do with questions about their law, but there was no charge against him that deserved death or imprisonment.

³⁰When I was informed of a plot to be carried out against the man, I sent him to you at once. I also ordered his accusers to present to you their case against him.

³¹So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul with them during the night and brought him as far as Antipatris.

³²The next day they let the cavalry go on with him, while they returned to the barracks. ³³When the cavalry arrived in Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him.

³⁴The governor read the letter and asked what province he was from. Learning that he was from Cilicia, ³⁵he said, "I will hear your case when your accusers get here." Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard in Herod's palace.

The Trial Before Felix

24 Five days later the high priest Ananias went down to Caesarea with some of the elders and a lawyer named Tertullus, and they brought their charges against Paul before the governor. ²When Paul was called in, Tertullus presented his case before Felix: "We have enjoyed a long period of peace under you, and your foresight has brought about reforms in this nation. ³Everywhere and in every way, most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this with profound gratitude. ⁴But in order not to weary you further, I would request that you be kind enough to hear us briefly.

⁵"We have found this man to be a troublemaker, stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect ⁶and even tried to desecrate the temple; so we seized him. ⁸By^a examining him yourself you will be able to learn the truth about all these charges we are bringing against him."

⁹The Jews joined in the accusation, asserting that these things were true.

¹⁰When the governor motioned for him to speak, Paul replied: "I know that for a number of years you have been a judge over this nation; so I gladly make my defence. ¹¹You can easily verify that no more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ¹²My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone at the temple, or stirring up a crowd in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. ¹³And they cannot prove to you the charges they are now making against me. ¹⁴However, I admit that I worship the God of our ancestors as a follower of the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything that agrees with the Law and that is written in the Prophets, ¹⁵and I have the same hope in God as these people themselves have, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked. ¹⁶So I strive always to keep my conscience clear before God and all people.

¹⁷"After an absence of several years, I came to Jerusalem to bring my people gifts for the poor and to present offerings. ¹⁸I was ceremonially clean when they found me in the temple courts doing this. There was no crowd with me, nor was I involved in any disturbance. ¹⁹But there are some Jews from the province of Asia, who ought to be here before you and bring charges if they have anything against me. ²⁰Or these who are here should state what crime they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin—²¹unless it was this one thing I shouted as I stood in their presence: 'It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.'"

²²Then Felix, who was well acquainted with the Way, adjourned the proceedings. "When Lysias the commander comes," he said, "I will decide your case." ²³He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard but to give him some freedom and permit his friends to take care of his needs.

²⁴Several days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and listened to him as he spoke about faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁵As Paul discoursed on righteousness, self-control and the judgment to come, Felix was afraid and said, "That's enough for now! You may leave. When I find it convenient, I will send for you." ²⁶At the same time he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe, so he sent for him frequently and talked with him.

²⁷When two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, but because Felix wanted to grant a favour to the Jews, he left Paul in prison.

The Trial Before Festus

25 Three days after arriving in the province, Festus went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem, ²where the chief priests and Jewish leaders appeared before him and presented the charges against Paul. ³They urgently requested Festus, as a favour to them, to have Paul transferred to Jerusalem, for they were preparing an ambush to kill him along the way. ⁴Festus answered, "Paul is being held at Caesarea, and I myself am going there soon. ⁵Let some of your leaders come with me and press charges against the man there, if he has done anything wrong."

⁶After spending eight or ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea, and the next day he convened the court and ordered that Paul be brought before him. ⁷When Paul appeared, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges against him, which they could not prove.

⁸Then Paul made his defence: "I have done nothing wrong against the law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar."

⁹Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favour, said to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there on these charges?"

¹⁰Paul answered: "I am now standing before Caesar's court, where I ought to be tried. I have not done any wrong to the Jews, as you yourself know very well. ¹¹If, however, I am guilty of doing anything deserving death, I do not refuse to die. But if the charges brought against me by these Jews are not true, no-one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

¹²After Festus had conferred with his council, he declared: "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!"

Festus Consults King Agrippa

¹³A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus. ¹⁴Since they were spending many days there, Festus discussed Paul's case with the king. He said: "There is a man here whom Felix left as a prisoner. ¹⁵When I went to Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews brought charges against him and asked that he be condemned.

¹⁶"I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand over anyone before the accused has faced the accusers and has had an opportunity to make a defence against their charges. ¹⁷When they came here with me, I did not delay the case, but convened the court the next day and ordered the man to be brought in. ¹⁸When his accusers got up to speak, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected. ¹⁹Instead, they had some points of dispute with him about their own religion and about a dead man named Jesus whom Paul claimed was alive. ²⁰I was at a loss how to investigate such matters; so I asked if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial there on these charges. ²¹When Paul made his appeal to be held over for the Emperor's decision, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to Caesar."

²²Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself."

He replied, "Tomorrow you will hear him."

Paul Before Agrippa

²³The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the audience room with the high ranking officers and the leading men of the city. At the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. ²⁴Festus said: "King Agrippa, and all who are present with us, you see this man! The whole Jewish community has petitioned me about him in Jerusalem and here in Caesarea, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. ²⁵I found he had done nothing deserving of death, but because he made his appeal to the Emperor I decided to send him to Rome. ²⁶But I have nothing definite to write to His Majesty about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that as a result of this investigation I may have something to write. ²⁷For I think it is unreasonable to send on a prisoner without specifying the charges against him."

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself."

So Paul motioned with his hand and began his defence: ²"King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate to stand before you today as I make my defence against all the accusations of the Jews, ³and especially so because you are well acquainted with all the Jewish customs and controversies. Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

⁴"The Jews all know the way I have lived ever since I was a child, from the beginning of my life in my own country, and also in Jerusalem. ⁵They have known me for a long time and can testify, if they are willing, that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee. ⁶And now it is because of my hope in what God has promised our ancestors that I am on trial today. ⁷This is the promise our twelve tribes are hoping to see fulfilled as they earnestly serve God day and night. O King, it is because of this hope that the Jews are accusing me. ⁸Why should any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead?

⁹"I too was convinced that I ought to do all that was possible to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth. ¹⁰And that is just what I did in Jerusalem. On the authority of the chief priests I put many of the saints in prison, and when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them. ¹¹Many a time I went from one synagogue to another to have them punished, and I tried to force them to blaspheme. In my obsession against them, I even went to foreign cities to persecute them.

¹²"On one of these journeys I was going to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. ¹³About noon, O King, as I was on the road, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, blazing around me and my companions. ¹⁴We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic,^a 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

¹⁵"Then I asked, 'Who are you, Lord?'

" 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,' the Lord replied. ¹⁶'Now get up and stand on your feet. I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen of me and what I will show you. ¹⁷I will rescue you from your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them ¹⁸to open their eyes and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

¹⁹"So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the vision from heaven. ²⁰First to those in Damascus, then to those in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and to the Gentiles also, I preached that they should repent and turn to God and prove their repentance by their deeds. ²¹That is why the Jews seized me in the temple courts and tried to kill me. ²²But I have had God's help to this very day, and so I stand here and testify to small and great alike. I am saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen—²³that the Christ^b would suffer and, as the first to rise from the dead, would proclaim light to his own people and to the Gentiles."

²⁴At this point Festus interrupted Paul's defence. "You are out of your mind, Paul!" he shouted. "Your great learning is driving you insane."

²⁵"I am not insane, most excellent Festus," Paul replied. "What I am saying is true and reasonable. ²⁶The king is familiar with these things, and I can speak freely to him. I am convinced that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do."

²⁸Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Do you think that in such a short time you can persuade me to be a Christian?"

²⁹Paul replied, "Short time or long—I pray God that not only you but all who are listening to me today may become what I am, except for these chains."

³⁰The king rose, and with him the governor and Bernice and those sitting with them. ³¹They left the room, and while talking with one another, they said, "This man is not doing anything that deserves death or imprisonment."

³²Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Paul Sails for Rome

27 When it was decided that we would sail for Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, who belonged to the Imperial Regiment. ²We boarded a ship from Adramyttium about to sail for ports along the coast of the province of Asia, and we put out to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us.

³The next day we landed at Sidon; and Julius, in kindness to Paul, allowed him to go to his friends so they might provide for his needs. ⁴From there we put out to sea again and passed to the lee of Cyprus because the winds were against us. ⁵When we had sailed across the open sea off the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia. ⁶There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board. ⁷We made slow headway for many days and had difficulty arriving off Cnidus. When the wind did not allow us to hold our course, we sailed to the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. ⁸We moved along the coast with difficulty and came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.

⁹Much time had been lost, and sailing

^a14 Or Hebrew ^b23 Or Messiah

had already become dangerous because by now it was after the Fast.^a So Paul warned them,¹⁰ "Men, I can see that our voyage is going to be disastrous and bring great loss to ship and cargo, and to our own lives also."¹¹ But the centurion, instead of listening to what Paul said, followed the advice of the pilot and of the owner of the ship.¹² Since the harbour was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided that we should sail on, hoping to reach Phoenix and winter there. This was a harbour in Crete, facing both south-west and north-west.

The Storm

¹³When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had obtained what they wanted; so they weighed anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete.¹⁴ Before very long, a wind of hurricane force, called the "north-easter", swept down from the island.¹⁵ The ship was caught by the storm and could not head into the wind; so we gave way to it and were driven along.¹⁶ As we passed to the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were hardly able to make the lifeboat secure.¹⁷ When the men had hoisted it aboard, they passed ropes under the ship itself to hold it together. Fearing that they would run aground on the sand-bars of Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor and let the ship be driven along.¹⁸ We took such a violent battering from the storm that the next day they began to throw the cargo overboard.¹⁹ On the third day, they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.²⁰ When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the storm continued raging, we finally gave up all hope of being saved.

²¹After they had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up before them and said: "Men, you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete; then you would have spared yourselves this damage and loss.²² But now I urge you to keep up your courage, because not one of you will be lost; only the ship will be destroyed.²³ Last night an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve stood beside me²⁴ and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand trial before Caesar; and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.'²⁵ So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me.²⁶ Nevertheless, we must run aground on some island."

The Shipwreck

²⁷On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic^b Sea, when about midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land.²⁸ They took soundings and found that the water was one hundred and twenty feet^c deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was ninety feet^d deep.²⁹ Fearing that we would be dashed against the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight.³⁰ In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors let the lifeboat down into the sea, pretending they were going to lower some anchors from the bow.³¹ Then Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved."³² So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it fall away.

³³Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. "For the last fourteen days," he said, "you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food—you haven't eaten anything."³⁴ Now I urge you to take some food. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head."³⁵ After he said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat.³⁶ They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves.³⁷ Altogether there were 276 of us on board.³⁸ When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.

^a9 That is, the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur)

^b27 In ancient times the name referred to an area extending well south of Italy.

^c28 Greek twenty orguias (about 37 metres) ^d28 Greek fifteen orguias (about 27 metres)

³⁹When daylight came, they did not recognise the land, but they saw a bay with a sandy beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could. ⁴⁰Cutting loose the anchors, they left them in the sea and at the same time untied the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach. ⁴¹But the ship struck a sand-bar and ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was broken to pieces by the pounding of the surf.

⁴²The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping. ⁴³But the centurion wanted to spare Paul's life and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. ⁴⁴The rest were to get there on planks or on pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land in safety.

Asshore on Malta

28 Once safely on shore, we found out that the island was called Malta. ²The islanders showed us unusual kindness. They built a fire and welcomed us all because it was raining and cold. ³Paul gathered a pile of brushwood and, as he put it on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand. ⁴When the islanders saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said to each other, "This man must be a murderer; for though he escaped from the sea, Justice has not allowed him to live." ⁵But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no ill effects. ⁶The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall dead, but after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

⁷There was an estate near by that belonged to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us to his home and for three days entertained us hospitably. ⁸His father was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him and, after prayer, placed his hands on him and healed him. ⁹When this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured. ¹⁰They honoured us in many ways and when we were ready to sail, they furnished us with the supplies we needed.

Arrival at Rome

¹¹After three months we put out to sea in a ship that had wintered in the island. It was an Alexandrian ship with the figurehead of the twin gods Castor and Pollux. ¹²We put in at Syracuse and stayed there three days. ¹³From there we set sail and arrived at Rhegium. The next day the south wind came up, and on the following day we reached Puteoli. ¹⁴There we found some believers who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome. ¹⁵The believers there had heard that we were coming, and they travelled as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. At the sight of these people Paul thanked God and was encouraged. ¹⁶When we got to Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with a soldier to guard him.

Paul Preaches at Rome Under Guard

¹⁷Three days later he called together the leaders of the Jews. When they had assembled, Paul said to them: "My brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or against the customs of our ancestors, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. ¹⁸They examined me and wanted to release me, because I was not guilty of any crime deserving death. ¹⁹But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar—not that I had any charge to bring against my own people. ²⁰For this reason I have asked to see you and talk with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain."

²¹They replied, "We have not received any letters from Judea concerning you, and none of our people who have come from there has reported or said anything bad about you. ²²But we want to hear what your views are, for we know that people everywhere are talking against this sect."

²³They arranged to meet Paul on a certain day, and came in even larger numbers to the place where he was staying. From morning till evening he explained and declared to them the kingdom of God and tried to convince them about Jesus from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets.

²⁴Some were convinced by what he said, but others would not believe. ²⁵They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul had made this final statement: "The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your ancestors when he said through Isaiah the prophet:

²⁶"Go to this people and say,
"You will be ever hearing but never understanding;

you will be ever seeing but never perceiving."

²⁷For this people's heart has become calloused;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts
and turn, and I would heal them.^a

²⁸"Therefore I want you to know that God's salvation has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!"^b

³⁰For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him. ³¹Boldly and without hindrance he preached the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God—²the gospel he promised beforehand through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures ³regarding his Son, who as to his human nature was a descendant of David, ⁴and who through the Spirit^a of holiness was declared with power to be the Son of God,^b by his resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord. ⁵Through him and for his name's sake, we received grace and apostleship to call people from among all the Gentiles to the obedience that comes from faith. ⁶And you also are among those who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.

⁷To all in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints:

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Longing to Visit Rome

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world. ⁹God, whom I serve with my whole heart in preaching the gospel of his Son, is my witness how constantly I remember you ¹⁰in my prayers at all times; and I pray that now at last by God's will the way may be opened for me to come to you.

¹¹I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to make you strong—¹²that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith. ¹³I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that I planned many times to come to you (but have been prevented from doing so until now) in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.

¹⁴I am bound both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish. ¹⁵That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are at Rome.

¹⁶I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. ¹⁷For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last,^c just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."^d

God's Wrath Against Human Beings

¹⁸The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of those who suppress the truth by their wickedness, ¹⁹since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. ²⁰For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

²¹For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became

^{a4} Or who as to his spirit

^{b4} Or was appointed to be the Son of God with power

^{c17} Or is from faith to faith

^{d17} Hab. 2:4

futile and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²²Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools ²³and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like mortal human beings and birds and animals and reptiles.

²⁴Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another. ²⁵They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is for ever praised. Amen.

²⁶Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones. ²⁷In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their perversion.

²⁸Furthermore, since they did not think it worth while to retain the knowledge of God, he gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done. ²⁹They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, ³⁰slanders, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents; ³¹they are senseless, faithless, heartless, ruthless. ³²Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practise them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2 You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on someone else, for at whatever point you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things. ²Now we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth. ³So when you, a mere human being, pass judgment on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment? ⁴Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, tolerance and patience, not realising that God's kindness leads you towards repentance?

⁵But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed. ⁶God "will give to everyone according to what they have done". ⁷To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honour and immortality, he will give eternal life. ⁸But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger. ⁹There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile; ¹⁰but glory, honour and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. ¹¹For God does not show favouritism.

¹²All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God's sight, but it is those who obey the law who will be declared righteous. ¹⁴(Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature things required by the law, they are a law for themselves, even though they do not have the law, ¹⁵since they show that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts now accusing, now even defending them.) ¹⁶This will take place on the day when God will judge everyone's secrets through Jesus Christ, as my gospel declares.

The Jews and the Law

¹⁷Now you, if you call yourself a Jew; if you rely on the law and brag about your relationship to God; ¹⁸if you know his will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the law; ¹⁹if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those who are in the dark, ²⁰an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth—²¹you, then, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal? ²²You who say that people should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? ²³You who brag about the law, do you dishonour God by breaking the law? ²⁴As it is written: "God's name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."^b

²⁵Circumcision has value if you observe the law, but if you break the law, you have become as though you had not been circumcised. ²⁶If those who are not circumcised keep the law's requirements, will they not be regarded as though they were circumcised? ²⁷The one who is not circumcised physically and yet obeys the law will condemn you who, even though you have the^c written code and circumcision, are a law-breaker.

²⁸A person is not a Jew who is only outwardly, nor is circumcision merely outward and physical. ²⁹No, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a person's praise is not from others, but from God.

God's Faithfulness

3 What advantage, then, is there in being a Jew, or what value is there in circumcision? ²Much in every way! First of all, they have been entrusted with the very words of God.

³What if some did not have faith? Will their lack of faith nullify God's faithfulness? ⁴Not at all! Let God be true, and every person a liar. As it is written:

"So that you may be proved right when you speak and prevail when you judge."^a ⁵But if our unrighteousness brings out God's righteousness more clearly, what shall we say? That God is unjust in bringing his wrath on us? (I am using a human argument.) ⁶Certainly not! If that were so, how could God judge the world? ⁷Someone might argue, "If my falsehood enhances God's truthfulness and so increases his glory, why am I still condemned as a sinner?" ⁸Why not say—as we are being slanderously reported as saying and as some claim that we say—"Let us do evil that good may result"? Their condemnation is deserved.

No-one Is Righteous

⁹What shall we conclude then? Are we any better?^b Not at all! We have already made the charge that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under sin. ¹⁰As it is written:

"There is no-one righteous, not even one;

¹¹ there is no-one who understands, no-one who seeks God.

¹² All have turned away, they have together become worthless;

there is no-one who does good, not even one."^c

¹³ "Their throats are open graves; their tongues practise deceit."^d

"The poison of vipers is on their lips."^e

¹⁴ "Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness."^f

¹⁵ "Their feet are swift to shed blood;

¹⁶ ruin and misery mark their ways,

¹⁷ and the way of peace they do not know."^g

¹⁸ "There is no fear of God before their eyes."^h

¹⁹Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God. ²⁰Therefore no-one will be declared righteous in his sight by observing the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of sin.

Righteousness Through Faith

²¹ But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. ²² This righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference, ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴ and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented him as a sacrifice of atonement,ⁱ through faith in his blood. He did this to demonstrate his justice, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished ²⁶—he did it to demonstrate his justice at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

²⁷ Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On that of observing the law? No, but on that of faith. ²⁸ For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from observing the law. ²⁹ Is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too, ³⁰ since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith. ³¹ Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our father, discovered in this matter? ² If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God. ³ What does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”^a

⁴ Now to one who works, wages are not credited as a gift, but as an obligation. ⁵ However, to the one who does not work but trusts God who justifies the wicked, that person’s faith is credited as righteousness. ⁶ David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of those to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷ “Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

⁸ Blessed are those whose sin the Lord will never count against them.”^b

⁹ Is this blessedness only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We have been saying that Abraham’s faith was credited to him as righteousness.

¹⁰ Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before!

¹¹ And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. So then, he is the father of all who believe but have not been circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them. ¹² And he is also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

¹³ It was not through law that Abraham and his offspring received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. ¹⁴ For if those who live by law are heirs, faith has no value and the promise is worthless, ¹⁵ because law brings wrath. And where there is no law there is no transgression.

¹⁶ Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace and may be guaranteed to all Abraham’s offspring—not only to those who are of the law but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. ¹⁷ As it is written: “I have made you a father of many nations.”^c He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were.

¹⁸ Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, “So shall your offspring be.”^d

¹⁹ Without weakening in his faith, he faced

ⁱ25 Or as the one who would turn aside his wrath, taking away sin

the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead.²⁰ Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God,²¹ being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised.²² This is why "it was credited to him as righteousness."²³ The words "it was credited to him" were written not for him alone,²⁴ but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.²⁵ He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Peace and Joy

5 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we^a have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,² through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we^a rejoice in the hope of the glory of God.³ Not only so, but we^a also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance;⁴ perseverance, character; and character, hope.⁵ And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.

⁶ You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.⁷ Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die.⁸ But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

⁹ Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him!¹⁰ For if, when we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!¹¹ Not only is this so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

^a1,2,3 Or let us

Death Through Adam, Life Through Christ

¹² Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all people, because all sinned—¹³ for before the law was given, sin was in the world. But sin is not taken into account when there is no law.¹⁴ Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who was a pattern of the one to come.

¹⁵ But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many!¹⁶ Again, the gift of God is not like the result of the one man's sin: The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification.¹⁷ For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ Consequently, just as the result of one trespass was condemnation for all people, so also the result of one act of righteousness was justification that brings life for all people.¹⁹ For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

²⁰ The law was added so that the trespass might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more,²¹ so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive in Christ

6 What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning, so that grace may increase? ² By no means! We died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? ³ Or don't you know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death? ⁴We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

⁵If we have been united with him like this in his death, we will certainly also be united with him in his resurrection. ⁶For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be done away with,^a that we should no longer be slaves to sin—⁷because anyone who has died has been freed from sin.

⁸Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him. ¹⁰The death he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

¹¹In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. ¹²Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. ¹³Do not offer the parts of your body to sin, as instruments of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God, as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer the parts of your body to him as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace.

Slaves to Righteousness

¹⁵What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! ¹⁶Don't you know that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves to the one whom you obey—whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching to which you were entrusted. ¹⁸You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

¹⁹I put this in human terms because you are weak in your natural selves. Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and to ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness leading to holiness.

²⁰When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness.

²¹What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death! ²²But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves to God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in^b Christ Jesus our Lord.

An Illustration From Marriage

7 Do you not know, brothers and sisters—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law has authority over someone only as long as that person lives? ²For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage. ³So then, if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is released from that law and is not an adulteress, even though she marries another man.

⁴So, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit to God. ⁵For when we were controlled by the sinful nature,^a the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our bodies, so that we bore fruit for death. ⁶But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

Struggling With Sin

⁷What shall we say, then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! Indeed I would not

^a6 Or be rendered powerless ^b23 Or through ^a5 Or the flesh; also in verse 25

have known what sin was except through the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, "Do not covet."^b But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from law, sin is dead.⁹ Once I was alive apart from law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died.¹⁰ I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life actually brought death.¹¹ For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me, and through the commandment put me to death.¹² So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous and good.

¹³ Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! But in order that sin might be recognised as sin, it produced death in me through what was good, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

¹⁴ We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin.¹⁵ I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do.¹⁶ And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good.¹⁷ As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me.¹⁸ I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature.^c For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out.¹⁹ For what I do is not the good I want to do; no, the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing.²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

²¹ So I find this law at work: When I want to do good, evil is right there with me.²² For in my inner being I delight in God's law; ²³ but I see another law at work in the members of my body, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within my members.²⁴ What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? ²⁵ Thanks be to God—through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in the sinful nature a slave to the law of sin.

Life Through the Spirit

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus,^a ² because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death.³ For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature,^b God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful humanity to be a sin offering.^c And so he condemned sin in our sinful nature,^d ⁴ in order that the righteous requirements of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit.

⁵ Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what that nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires.⁶ The mind controlled by the sinful nature^e is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace;⁷ the sinful mind^f is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so.⁸ Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God.

⁹ You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, that person does not belong to Christ.¹⁰ But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness.¹¹ And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you.

¹² Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have an obligation—but it is not to the sinful nature, to live according to it.¹³ For if you live according to the sinful nature, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live, ¹⁴because those who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. ¹⁵For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption.¹⁶ And by him we cry, "Abba,^h Father." ¹⁶The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. ¹⁷Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

Future Glory

¹⁸I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. ¹⁹The creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope ²¹thatⁱ the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

²²We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. ²³Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what one already has? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

²⁶In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. ²⁷And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will.

More Than Conquerors

²⁸And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him,^j who^k have been called according to his purpose. ²⁹For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ³⁰And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

³¹What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³²He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? ³³Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. ³⁴Who then can condemn? Christ Jesus, who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. ³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ³⁶As it is written:

"For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."^l

³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

³⁸For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,^m neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, ³⁹neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God's Sovereign Choice

9 I speak the truth in Christ—I am not lying, my conscience confirms it in the Holy Spirit—²I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my people, those of my own race, ⁴the people of Israel. of the law, the temple worship and the promises. ⁵Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them is traced the human ancestry of Christ, who is God over all, for ever praised!^a Amen.

⁶It is not as though God's word had failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel. ⁷Nor because they are his descendants are they all Abraham's children. On the contrary, "It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned."^b ⁸In other words, it is not the natural children who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as Abraham's offspring. ⁹For this was how the promise was stated: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."^c

¹⁰Not only that, but Rebekah's children had one and the same father, our father Isaac. ¹¹Yet, before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad—in order that God's purpose in election might stand: ¹²not by works but by him who calls—she was told, "The older will serve the younger."^d ¹³Just as it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."^e

¹⁴What then shall we say? Is God unjust? Not at all! ¹⁵For he says to Moses,

"I will have mercy on whom I have mercy,
and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."^f

¹⁶It does not, therefore, depend on human desire or effort, but on God's mercy. ¹⁷For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: "I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display my power in you and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."^g ¹⁸Therefore God has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy, and he hardens whom he wants to harden.

¹⁹One of you will say to me: "Then why does God still blame us? For who resists his will?" ²⁰But you, a mere mortal, who are you to talk back to God? "Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, 'Why did you make me like this?' "^h ²¹Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay some pottery for noble purposes and some for common use?

²²What if God, choosing to show his wrath and make his power known, bore with great patience the objects of his wrath—prepared for destruction? ²³What if he did this to make the riches of his glory known to the objects of his mercy, whom he prepared in advance for glory—²⁴even us, whom he also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles? ²⁵As he says in Hosea:

"I will call them 'my people' who are not my people;
and I will call her 'my loved one'
who is not my loved one."ⁱ

²⁶and,

"It will happen that in the very place
where it was said to them,
'You are not my people,'
they will be called 'children of the living God.'"^j

²⁷Isaiah cries out concerning Israel:

"Though the number of the Israelites be like the sand by the sea,
only the remnant will be saved.

²⁸For the Lord will carry out his sentence on earth with speed and finality."^k

²⁹It is just as Isaiah said previously:

"Unless the Lord Almighty
had left us descendants,
we would have become like Sodom,
we would have been like Gomorrah."^l

Israel's Unbelief

³⁰What then shall we say? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, ^{a5} Or Christ, who is over all. God be for ever praised! Or Christ. God who is over all be for ever praised!

^{b7} Gen. 21:12 ^{c9} Gen. 18:10,14 ^{d12} Gen. 25:23 ^{e13} Mal. 1:2,3 ^{f15} Exodus 33:19

^{g17} Exodus 9:16 ^{h20} Isaiah 29:16; 45:9 ⁱ²⁵ Hosea 2:23 ^{j26} Hosea 1:10 ^{k28} Isaiah 10:22,23

^{l29} Isaiah 1:9

have obtained it, a righteousness that is by faith; ³¹but Israel, who pursued a law of righteousness, has not attained it. ³²Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the “stumbling-stone”. ³³As it is written:

“See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes people to stumble
and a rock that makes them fall,
and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”^m

10 Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. ²For I can testify about them that they are zealous for God, but their zeal is not based on knowledge. ³Since they did not know the righteousness that comes from God and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God’s righteousness. ⁴Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

⁵Moses describes in this way the righteousness that is by the law: “The one who does these things will live by them.”^a ⁶But the righteousness that is by faith says: “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’^b” (that is, to bring Christ down) ⁷“or ‘Who will descend into the deep?’^c” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸But what does it say? “The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart,”^d that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: ⁹That if you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. ¹¹As the Scripture says, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”^e ¹²For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him, ¹³for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”^f

¹⁴How, then, can they call on the one

they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? ¹⁵And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”^g ¹⁶But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our message?”^h ¹⁷Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ. ¹⁸But I ask: Did they not hear? Of course they did:

“Their voice has gone out into all the
earth,
their words to the ends of the world.”ⁱ

¹⁹Again I ask: Did Israel not understand? First, Moses says,

“I will make you envious by those who are not a nation;
I will make you angry by a nation
that has no understanding.”^j

²⁰And Isaiah boldly says,

“I was found by those who did not
seek me;
I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me.”^k

²¹But concerning Israel he says,

“All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and obstinate people.”^l

The Remnant of Israel

11 I ask then: Did God reject his people? By no means! I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. ²God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Don’t you know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah—how he

appealed to God against Israel: ³“Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars; I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me.”^a ⁴And what was God’s answer to him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”^b ⁵So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace. ⁶And if by grace, then it is no longer by works; if it were, grace would no longer be grace.^c ⁷What then? What Israel sought so earnestly it did not obtain, but the elect did. The others were hardened, ⁸as it is written:

“God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes so that they could not see and ears so that they could not
hear,
to this very day.”^d

⁹And David says:

“May their table become a snare and a trap,
a stumbling-block and a retribution
for them.

¹⁰May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see,
and their backs be bent for ever.”^e

Ingrafted Branches

¹¹Again I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel envious. ¹²But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their fullness bring!

¹³I am talking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I make much of my ministry ¹⁴in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to envy and save some of them. ¹⁵For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? ¹⁶If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷If some of the branches have been broken off, and you, though a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root, ¹⁸do not boast over those branches. If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you. ¹⁹You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in.” ²⁰Granted. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. ²¹For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either.

²²Consider therefore the kindness and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off. ²³And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

All Israel Will Be Saved

²⁵I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written:

“The deliverer will come from Zion;
he will turn godlessness away from Jacob.

²⁷And this is my covenant with them
when I take away their sins.”^g

²⁸As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies on your account; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs, ²⁹for God's gifts and his call are irrevocable. ³⁰Just as you who were at one time disobedient to God have now received mercy as a result of their disobedience, ³¹so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now^h receive mercy as a result of God's mercy to you. ³²For God has bound everyone over to disobedience so that he may have mercy on them all.

Doxology

³³Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable his judgments,
and his paths beyond tracing out!
³⁴"Who has known the mind of the Lord?
Or who has been his counsellor?"^j ³⁵"Who has ever given to God, that God should repay the gift?"^k ³⁶For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be the glory for ever!
Amen.

Living Sacrifices

12 Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual^a act of worship. ²Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

³For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you. ⁴Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, ⁵so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. ⁶We have different gifts, according to the grace given us. If your gift is prophesying, then use it in proportion to your^b faith. ⁷If it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; ⁸if it is encouraging, then encourage; if it is contributing to the needs of others, then give generously; if it is leadership, then govern diligently; if it is showing mercy, then do it cheerfully.

Love

⁹Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. ¹⁰Be devoted to one another with mutual affection. Honour one another above yourselves. ¹¹Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. ¹²Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. ¹³Share with God's people who are in need. Practise hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. ¹⁶Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position.^c Do not be conceited.

¹⁷Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everybody. ¹⁸If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. ¹⁹Do not take revenge, my friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay,"^d says the Lord. ²⁰On the contrary:

"If your enemies are hungry, feed them;
if they are thirsty, give them something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals on their heads."^e ²¹Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Submission to the Authorities

13 Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God. ²Consequently, whoever who rebels against the authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves. ³For rulers hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong. Do you want to be free from fear of the one in authority? Then do what is right and you will be commended. ⁴For the one in authority is God's servant to do you good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for rulers do not bear the sword for nothing. They are God's servants, agents of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer. ⁵Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience.

⁶This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing. ⁷Give to everyone what you owe: If you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honour, then honour.

Love, for the Day Is Near ⁸Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. ⁹The commandments, "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not covet,"^a and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this one rule: "Love your neighbour as yourself."^b ¹⁰Love does no harm to its neighbour. Therefore love is the fulfilment of the law.

¹¹And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. ¹²The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armour of light. ¹³Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. ¹⁴Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the sinful nature.^c

The Weak and the Strong

14 Accept those whose faith is weak, without passing judgment on disputable matters. ²One person's faith allows the eating of everything, but another person, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. ³The one who eats everything must not look down on one who does not, and the one who does not eat everything must not condemn the one who does, for God has accepted that person. ⁴Who are you to judge someone else's servants? To their own master they stand or fall. And they will stand, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

⁵Some consider one day more sacred than another; others consider every day alike. Everybody should be fully convinced in their own minds. ⁶Those who regard one day as special, do so to the Lord. Those who eat meat, eat to the Lord, for they give thanks to God; and those who abstain, do so to the Lord and give thanks to God. ⁷For we do not live to ourselves alone and we do not die to ourselves alone. ⁸If we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

⁹For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living. ¹⁰You, then, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or why do you look down on your brother or sister? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat.

¹¹It is written:

"As surely as I live," says the Lord, "Every knee will bow before me; every tongue will confess to God."^a ^{a9} Exodus 20:13–15, 17; Deut. 5:17–19, 21

^{b9} Lev. 19:18

^{c14} Or the flesh

^{a11} Isaiah 45:23

¹²So then, we will all give an account of ourselves to God.

¹³Therefore let us stop passing judgment on one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling-block or obstacle in another believer's way. ¹⁴As one who is in the Lord Jesus, I am fully convinced that no food^b is unclean in itself. But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for that person it is unclean. ¹⁵If your brother or sister is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer acting in love. Do not by your eating destroy your brother or sister for whom Christ died. ¹⁶Do not allow what you consider good to be spoken of as evil. ¹⁷For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit, ¹⁸because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and receives human approval.

¹⁹Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification. ²⁰Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for a person to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble. ²¹It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything else that will cause your brother or sister to fall.

²²So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed are those who do not condemn themselves by what they approve. ²³But those who have doubts are condemned if they eat, because their eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

15 We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. ²We should all please our neighbours for their good, to build them up. ³For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me."⁴ ⁴For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

⁵May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you a spirit of unity among yourselves as you follow Christ Jesus, ⁶so that with one heart and mouth you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁷Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. ⁸For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews^b on behalf of God's truth, to confirm the promises made to the patriarchs ⁹so that the Gentiles may glorify God for his mercy, as it is written:

"Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles;
I will sing hymns to your name."^c

¹⁰Again, it says,

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people."^d

¹¹And again,

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and sing praises to him, all you peoples."^e

¹²And again, Isaiah says,

"The Root of Jesse will spring up,
one who will arise to rule over the nations;
the Gentiles will hope in him."^f

¹³May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul the Minister to the Gentiles

¹⁴I myself am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, complete in knowledge and competent to instruct one another. ¹⁵I have written to you quite boldly on some points, as if to remind you of them again, because of the grace God gave me ¹⁶to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles

with the priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷Therefore I glory in Christ Jesus in my service to God. ¹⁸I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles to obey God by what I have said and done—¹⁹by the power of signs and miracles, through the power of the Spirit. So from Jerusalem all the way round to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ. ²⁰It has always been my ambition to preach the gospel where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation.

²¹Rather, as it is written:

“Those who were not told about him will see,
and those who have not heard will understand.”⁸

²²This is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.

Paul's Plan to Visit Rome

²³But now that there is no more place for me to work in these regions, and since I have been longing for many years to see you, ²⁴I plan to do so when I go to Spain. I hope to visit you while passing through and to have you assist me on my journey there, after I have enjoyed your company for a while. ²⁵Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalem in the service of the saints there. ²⁶For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem. ²⁷They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings. ²⁸So after I have completed this task and have made sure that they have received this fruit, I will go to Spain and visit you on the way. ²⁹I know that when I come to you, I will come in the full measure of the blessing of Christ.

³⁰I urge you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me. ³¹Pray that I may be rescued from the unbelievers in Judea and that my service in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints there, ³²so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and together with you be refreshed. ³³The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Personal Greetings

16 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant^a of the church in Cenchrea. ²¹I ask you to receive her in the Lord in a way worthy of the saints and to give her any help she may need from you, for she has been a great help to many people, including me.

³Greet Priscilla^b and Aquila, my co-workers in Christ Jesus. ⁴They risked their lives for me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them.

⁵Greet also the church that meets at their house.

Greet my dear friend Epenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in the province of Asia.

⁶Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you.

⁷Greet Andronicus and Junia,^c my relatives who have been in prison with me. They are outstanding among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

⁸Greet Ampliatus, whom I love in the Lord.

⁹Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

¹⁰Greet Apelles, tested and approved in Christ.

Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.

¹¹Greet Herodion, my relative.

Greet those in the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

¹²Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, those women who work hard in the Lord.

Greet my dear friend Persis, another woman who has worked very hard in the Lord.

¹³Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me, too.

¹⁴Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas and the other believers with them.

¹⁵Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas and all the saints with them.

¹⁶Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ send greetings.

¹⁷I urge you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching you have learned. Keep away from them. ¹⁸For such people are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own appetites. By smooth talk and flattery they deceive the minds of naïve people. ¹⁹Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I am full of joy over you; but I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil.

²⁰The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.

The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

²¹Timothy, my fellow-worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my relatives.

²²I, Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord.

²³Gaius, whose hospitality I and the whole church here enjoy, sends you his greetings.

Erastus, who is the city's director of public works, and our brother Quartus send you their greetings.^d

²⁵Now to him who is able to establish you by my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery hidden for long ages past, ²⁶but now revealed and made known through the prophetic writings by the command of the eternal God, so that all nations might believe and obey him—²⁷to the only wise God be glory for ever through Jesus Christ! Amen.

1 Corinthians

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

²To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours:

³Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving

⁴I always thank God for you because of his grace given you in Christ Jesus. ⁵For in him you have been enriched in every way—in all your speaking and in all your knowledge—⁶because our testimony about Christ was confirmed in you. ⁷Therefore you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed. ⁸He will keep you strong to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God, who has called you into fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful.

Divisions in the Church

¹⁰I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united in mind and thought. ¹¹My dear friends, some from Chloe's household have informed me that there are quarrels among you. ¹²What I mean is this: One of you says, "I follow Paul"; another, "I follow Apollos"; another, "I follow Cephas";^a still another, "I follow Christ."

¹³Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptised into^b the name of Paul? ¹⁴I am thankful that I did not baptise any of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so no-one can say that you were baptised into my name. (¹⁶Yes, I also baptised the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I don't remember if I baptised anyone else.) ¹⁷For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the gospel—not with words of human wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

Christ the Wisdom and Power of God

¹⁸For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."^c ²⁰Where are the wise? Where are the scholars? Where are the philosophers of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe. ²²Jews demand miraculous signs and

^a12 That is, Peter ^b13 Or in; also in verse 15 ^c19 Isaiah 29:14

Greeks look for wisdom,²³ but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling-block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,²⁴ but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

²⁶Brothers and sisters, think of what you were when you were called. Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were influential; not many were of noble birth.²⁷ But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong.²⁸ He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are,²⁹ so that no-one may boast before him.³⁰ It is because of him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God—that is, our righteousness, holiness and redemption.³¹ Therefore, as it is written: “Let those who boast boast in the Lord.”^d

2 When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come with eloquence or superior wisdom as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God.^a For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified.³ I came to you in weakness and fear, and with much trembling.⁴ My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power,⁵ so that your faith might not rest on human wisdom, but on God’s power.

Wisdom From the Spirit

⁶We do, however, speak a message of wisdom among the mature, but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing.⁷ No, we speak of God’s secret wisdom, a wisdom that has been hidden and that God destined for our glory before time began.⁸ None of the rulers of this age understood it, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.⁹ However, as it is written:

“No eye has seen,
no ear has heard,
no mind has conceived
what God has prepared for those who love him”^b—

¹⁰but God has revealed it to us by his Spirit.

The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.¹¹ For who knows the thoughts of another human being except that person’s own spirit within? In the same way no-one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God.¹² We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us.¹³ This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words.^c ¹⁴The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God but considers them foolishness, and cannot understand them because they are spiritually discerned.¹⁵ The person with the Spirit makes judgments about all things, but such a person is not subject to merely human judgments:

¹⁶“For who has known the mind of the Lord
so as to instruct him?”^d

But we have the mind of Christ.

On Divisions in the Church

3 Brothers and sisters, I could not address you as spiritual but as worldly—mere infants in Christ.² I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for it. Indeed, you are still not ready.³ You are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and quarrelling among you, are you not worldly? Are you not acting like mere human beings? ⁴For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not mere human beings?

^a31 Jer. 9:24 ^a1 Some manuscripts as I proclaimed to you God’s mystery ^b9 Isaiah 64:4
^c13 Or Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual ^d16 Isaiah 40:13

⁵What, after all, is Apollos? And what is Paul? Only servants, through whom you came to believe—as the Lord has assigned to each his task. ⁶I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow. ⁷So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. ⁸The one who plants and the one who waters have one purpose, and they will each be rewarded according to their own labour. ⁹For we are God's co-workers; you are God's field, God's building.

¹⁰By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care. ¹¹For no-one can lay any foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay or straw, ¹³that person's work will be shown for what it is, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test the quality of everyone's work. ¹⁴If the building survives, the builder will receive a reward. ¹⁵If it is burned up, the builder will suffer loss; the builder, however, will be saved, but only as one escaping through the flames.

¹⁶Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you? ¹⁷If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for God's temple is sacred, and you are that temple.

¹⁸Do not deceive yourselves. If any of you think you are wise by the standards of this age, you should become "fools" so that you may become wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God's sight. As it is written: "He catches the wise in their craftiness";^a ²⁰and again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."^b ²¹So then, no more boasting about human leaders! All things are yours, ²²whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas^c or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours, ²³and you are of Christ, and Christ is of God.

Apostles of Christ

4 So then, you ought to regard us as servants of Christ and as those entrusted with the secret things of God. ²Now it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful. ³I care very little if I am judged by you or by any human court; indeed, I do not even judge myself. ⁴My conscience is clear, but that does not make me innocent. It is the Lord who judges me. ⁵Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time; wait till the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of people's hearts. At that time each will receive praise from God.

⁶Now, brothers and sisters, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, "Do not go beyond what is written." Then you will not take pride in one over against another. ⁷For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

⁸Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! You have begun to reign—and that without us! How I wish that you really had begun to reign so that we might come to rule with you! ⁹For it seems to me that God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like those condemned to die in the arena. We have been made a spectacle to the whole universe, to angels as well as to human beings. ¹⁰We are fools for Christ, but you are so wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honoured, we are dishonoured! To this very hour we go hungry and thirsty, we are in rags, we are brutally treated, we are homeless. ¹²We work hard with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it; ¹³when we are slandered, we answer kindly. Up to this moment we have become the scum of the earth, the refuse of the world.

¹⁴I am not writing this to shame you, but to warn you, as my dear children.

^a19 Job 5:13 ^b20 Psalm 94:11 ^c22 That is, Peter

¹⁵ Even though you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers, for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel. ¹⁶ Therefore I urge you to imitate me. ¹⁷ For this reason I am sending to you Timothy, my son whom I love, who is faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus, which agrees with what I teach everywhere in every church.

¹⁸ Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you. ¹⁹ But I will come to you very soon, if the Lord is willing, and then I will find out not only how these arrogant people are talking, but what power they have. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power. ²¹ What do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a whip, or in love and with a gentle spirit?

Expel the Immoral Brother!

S It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that does not occur even among pagans: A man has his father's wife. ² And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have been filled with grief and have put out of your fellowship the man who did this? ³ Even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit. And I have already passed judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. ⁴ When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present, ⁵ hand this man over to Satan, so that the sinful nature^a may be destroyed and his spirit saved on the day of the Lord.

⁶ Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast works through the whole batch of dough? ⁷ Get rid of the old yeast that you may be a new batch without yeast—as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. ⁸ Therefore let us keep the Festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹ I have written to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people—¹⁰ not at all meaning the people of this world who are immoral, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters. In that case you would have to leave this world. ¹¹ But now I am writing to you that you must not associate with any who call themselves believers but are sexually immoral or greedy, idolaters or slanderers, drunkards or swindlers. With such persons do not even eat.

¹² What business is it of mine to judge those outside the church? Are you not to judge those inside? ¹³ God will judge those outside. "Expel the wicked person from among you."^b

Lawsuits Among Believers

6 If any of you has a dispute with another, dare you take it before the ungodly for judgment instead of before the saints? ² Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if you are to judge the world, are you not competent to judge trivial cases? ³ Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the things of this life! ⁴ Therefore, if you have disputes about such matters, appoint as judges those of little account in the church!^a ⁵ I say this to shame you. Is it possible that there is nobody among you wise enough to judge a dispute between believers? ⁶ But instead, one believer goes to law against another believer—and this in front of unbelievers!

⁷ The very fact that you have lawsuits among you means you have been completely defeated already. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸ Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, and you do this to your brothers and sisters.

⁹ Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders ¹⁰ nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹And that is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

^a Or that his body; or that the flesh ^b 13 Deut. 17:7; 19:19; 21:21; 22:21, 24; 24:7

^c 4 Or matters, do you ask a ruling from those whose way of life is scorned in the church?

Sexual Immorality

¹²"Everything is permissible for me" — but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible for me" — but I will not be mastered by anything. ¹³"Food for the stomach and the stomach for food" — but God will destroy them both. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴By his power God raised the Lord from the dead, and he will raise us also. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ himself? Shall I then take the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶Do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said, "The two will become one flesh." ¹⁷But whoever is united with the Lord is one with him in spirit.

¹⁸Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins people commit are outside their bodies, but those who sin sexually sin against their own bodies. ¹⁹Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; ²⁰you were bought at a price. Therefore honour God with your bodies.

Marriage

7 Now for the matters you wrote about: It is good for a man not to marry.^a ²But since there is so much immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband. ³The husband should fulfil his marital duty to his wife, and likewise the wife to her husband. ⁴The wife's body does not belong to her alone but also to her husband. In the same way, the husband's body does not belong to him alone but also to his wife. ⁵Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent and for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again so that Satan will not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. ⁶I say this as a concession, not as a command. ⁷I wish that all of you were as I am. But each of you has your own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.

⁸Now to the unmarried and the widows I say: It is good for them to stay unmarried, as I am. ⁹But if they cannot control themselves, they should marry, for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

¹⁰To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband. ¹¹But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

¹²To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord): If any brother has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her. ¹³And if a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy.

¹⁵But if the unbeliever leaves, let it be so. A believing man or woman is not bound in such circumstances; God has called us to live in peace. ¹⁶How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or, how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

¹⁷Nevertheless, each of you should retain the place in life that the Lord has assigned you and to which God has called you. This is the rule I lay down in all the churches. ¹⁸Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not become uncircumcised. Was a man uncircumcised when he was called? He should not be circumcised. ¹⁹Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. Keeping God's commands is what counts. ²⁰Each of you should remain in the situation which you were in when God called you. ²¹Were you a slave when you were called? Don't let it trouble you—although if you can gain your freedom, do so. ²²For those who were slaves when called by the Lord are the Lord's freed people; similarly, those who were free when called are Christ's slaves. ²³You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of people. ²⁴Brothers and sisters, all of you, as responsible to God, should remain in the situation in which God called you.

²⁵Now about virgins: I have no command from the Lord, but I give a judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. ²⁶Because of the present crisis, I think that it is good for you to remain as you are. ²⁷Are you married? Do not seek a divorce. Are you unmarried? Do not look for a wife. ²⁸But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face many troubles in this life, and I want to spare you this.

²⁹What I mean, brothers and sisters, is that the time is short. From now on those who have a husband or wife should live as if they did not; ³⁰those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep; ³¹those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.

³²I would like you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the Lord's affairs—how he can please the Lord. ³³But a married man is concerned about the affairs of this world—how he can please his wife—³⁴and his interests are divided. An unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the Lord's affairs: Her aim is to be devoted to the Lord in both body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world—how she can please her husband. ³⁵I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but that you may live in a right way in undivided devotion to the Lord.

³⁶If anyone thinks he is acting improperly towards the virgin he is engaged to, and if she is getting on in years and he feels he ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning. They should get married. ³⁷But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his own will, and who has made up his mind not to marry the virgin—this man also does the right thing. ³⁸So then, he who marries the virgin does right, but he who does not marry her does even better.^b

³⁹A woman is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but he must belong to the Lord. ⁴⁰In my judgment, she is happier if she stays as she is—and I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Food Sacrificed to Idols

8 Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that we all possess knowledge.^a Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ²Those who think they know something do not yet know as they ought to know. ³But whoever loves God is known by God.

⁴So then, about eating food sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol is nothing at all in the world and that there is no God but one. ⁵For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many "gods" and many "lords"), ⁶yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom all things came and for whom we live; and there is but one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things came and through whom we live.

⁷But not everyone knows this. Some people are still so accustomed to idols that when they eat such food they think of it as having been sacrificed to an idol, and since their conscience is weak, it is defiled.

⁸But food does not bring us near to God;

^{b36-38} Or ³⁶If anyone thinks he is not treating his daughter properly, and if she is getting on in years, and he feels she ought to marry, he should do as he wants. He is not sinning. He should let her get married. ³⁷But the man who has settled the matter in his own mind, who is under no compulsion but has control over his own will, and who has made up his mind to keep the virgin unmarried—this man also does the right thing. ³⁸So then, he who gives his virgin in marriage does right, but he who does not give her in marriage does even better. ^{a1} Or "We all possess knowledge," as you say we are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.

⁹Be careful, however, that the exercise of your freedom does not become a stumbling-block to the weak. ¹⁰For if anyone with a weak conscience sees you who have this knowledge eating in an idol's temple, won't such a person be emboldened to eat what has been sacrificed to idols? ¹¹So this weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge. ¹²When you sin against other believers in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. ¹³Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother or sister to fall into sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause them to fall.

The Rights of an Apostle

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not the result of my work in the Lord? ²Even though I may not be an apostle to others, surely I am to you! For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

³This is my defence to those who sit in judgment on me. ⁴Don't we have the right to food and drink? ⁵Don't we have the right to take a believing wife along with us, as do the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas?^a ⁶Or is it only I and Barnabas who must work for a living?

But we did not use this right. On the contrary, we put up with anything rather than hinder the gospel of Christ. ¹³Don't you know that those who work in the temple get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar? ¹⁴In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel.

¹⁵But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing this in the hope that you will do such things for me. I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of this boast. ¹⁶Yet when I preach the gospel, I cannot boast, for I am compelled to preach. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! ¹⁷If I preach voluntarily, I have a reward; if not voluntarily, I am simply discharging the trust committed to me. ¹⁸What then is my reward? Just this: that in preaching the gospel I may offer it free of charge, and so not make use of my rights in preaching it.

¹⁹Though I am free and belong to no one, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. ²⁰To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. ²¹To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law), so as to win those not having the law. ²²To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some. ²³I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

²⁴Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. ²⁵Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last; but we do it to get a crown that will last for ever. ²⁶Therefore I do not run like someone running aimlessly; I do not fight like someone beating the air. ²⁷No, I beat my body and make it my slave so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified for the prize.

Warnings From Israel's History

10 For I do not want you to be ignorant of the fact, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and that they all passed through the sea. ²They were all baptised into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³They all ate the same spiritual food ⁴and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ. ⁵Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them; their bodies were scattered over the desert.

⁶Now these things occurred as examples^a to keep us from setting our hearts on evil things as they did. ⁷Do not be idolaters, as some of them were; as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in pagan revelry."^b ⁸We should not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did—and in one day twenty-three thousand of them died. ⁹We should not test the Lord, as some of them did—and were killed by snakes. ¹⁰And do not grumble, as some of them did—and were killed by the destroying angel.

¹¹These things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfilment of the ages has come. ¹²So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall! ¹³No temptation has seized you except what is common among people. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

Idol Feasts and the Lord's Supper

¹⁴Therefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵I speak to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. ¹⁶Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ?

¹⁷Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

¹⁸Consider the people of Israel: Do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar? ¹⁹Do I mean then that a sacrifice offered to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰No, but the sacrifices of pagans are offered to demons, not to God, and I do not want you to be participants with demons. ²¹You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot have a part in both the Lord's table and the table of demons. ²²Are we trying to arouse the Lord's jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

The Believer's Freedom

²³"Everything is permissible"—but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible"—but not everything is constructive. ²⁴None of us should seek our own good, but the good of others.

²⁵Eat anything sold in the meat market without raising questions of conscience, ²⁶for, "The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it."^c

²⁷If some unbeliever invites you to a meal and you want to go, eat whatever is put before you without raising questions of conscience. ²⁸But if anyone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice," then do not eat it, both for the sake of the one who told you and for conscience' sake^d—²⁹the other person's conscience, I mean, not yours. For why should my freedom be judged by another's conscience? ³⁰If I take part in the meal with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I thank God for?

³¹So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God. ³²Do not cause anyone to stumble, whether Jews, Greeks or the church of God—³³even as I try to please everybody in every way. For I am not seeking my own good but the good of many, so

11 that they may be saved. ¹Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

Propriety in Worship

²I praise you for remembering me in everything and for holding to the teachings,^a just as I passed them on to you.

³Now I want you to realise that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.⁴ Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonours his head.⁵ And every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonours her head—it is just as though her head were shaved.⁶ If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off; and if it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, she should cover her head.⁷ A man ought not to cover his head,^b since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.⁸ For man did not come from woman, but woman from man; ⁹neither was man created for woman, but woman for man.¹⁰ For this reason, and because of the angels, the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head.

¹¹In the Lord, however, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.¹² For as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God.¹³ Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴Does not the very nature of things teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him,¹⁵ but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For long hair is given to her as a covering.¹⁶ If anyone wants to be contentious about this, we have no other practice—nor do the churches of God.

The Lord's Supper

¹⁷In the following directives I have no praise for you, for your meetings do more harm than good.¹⁸ In the first place, I hear that when you come together as a church, there are divisions among you, and to some extent I believe it.¹⁹ No doubt there have to be differences among you to show which of you have God's approval.²⁰ When you come together, it is not the Lord's Supper you eat,²¹ for as you eat, each of you goes ahead without waiting for anybody else. One remains hungry, another gets drunk.²² Don't you have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? Certainly not!

²³For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread,²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me."²⁵ In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."²⁶ For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

²⁷Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord.²⁸ We ought to examine ourselves before we eat of the bread and drink of the cup.²⁹ For those who eat and drink without recognising the body of the Lord eat and drink judgment on themselves.³⁰ That is why many among you are weak and sick, and a number of you have fallen asleep.³¹ But if we judged ourselves, we would not come under judgment.³² When we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned with the world.

³³So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for each other.³⁴ Those who are hungry should eat at home, so that when you meet together it may not result in judgment.

And when I come I will give further directions.

^{a2} Or traditions

^{b4-7} Or ⁴Every man who prays or prophesies with long hair dishonours his head. ⁵And every woman who prays or prophesies with no covering of hair, on her head dishonours her head—she is just like one of the "shorn women".

⁶If a woman has no covering, let her be for now with short hair, but since it is a disgrace for a woman to have her hair shorn or shaved, she should grow it again. ⁷A man ought not to have long hair

Spiritual Gifts

12 Now about spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be ignorant. ²You know that when you were pagans, somehow or other you were influenced and led astray to mute idols. ³Therefore I tell you that no-one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus be cursed," and no-one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. ⁶There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in everyone.

⁷Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. ⁸To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, ⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, ¹⁰to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues,^a and to still another the interpretation of tongues.^a ¹¹All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he gives them to each one, just as he determines.

One Body, Many Parts

¹²The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. ¹³For we were all baptised by^b one Spirit into one body—whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink.

¹⁴Now the body is not made up of one part but of many. ¹⁵If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," it would not for that reason cease to be part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. ¹⁹If they were all one part, where would the body be? ²⁰As it is, there are many parts, but one body.

²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the feet, "I don't need you!" ²²On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³and the parts that we think are less honourable we treat with special honour. And the parts that are unrepresentable are treated with special modesty, ²⁴while our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has combined the members of the body and has given greater honour to the parts that lacked it, ²⁵so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. ²⁶If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honoured, every part rejoices with it.

²⁷Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. ²⁸And in the church God has appointed first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, also those having gifts of healing, those able to help others, those with gifts of administration, and those speaking in different kinds of tongues. ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues?^c Do all interpret? ³¹But eagerly desire^d the greater gifts.

Love

And now I will show you the most excellent way.

13 If I speak in human or angelic tongues, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ²If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. ³If I give all I possess to the poor

^a10 Or languages; also in verse 28

^b13 Or with; or in ^d31 Or But you are eagerly desiring

^a1 Or languages

^c30 Or other languages

and surrender my body to the flames,^b but have not love, I gain nothing.

⁴Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears. ¹¹When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became an adult, I put childish ways behind me. ¹²Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Gifts of Prophecy and Tongues

14 Follow the way of love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially the gift of prophecy. ²For those who speak in a tongue^a do not speak to people but to God. Indeed, no-one understands them; they utter mysteries with their spirits.^b ³But those who prophesy speak to people for their strengthening, encouragement and comfort. ⁴Those who speak in a tongue edify themselves, but those who prophesy edify the church. ⁵I would like every one of you to speak in tongues,^c but I would rather have you prophesy. Those who prophesy are greater than those who speak in tongues,^c unless they interpret, so that the church may be edified.

⁶Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you and speak in tongues, what good will I be to you, unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or word of instruction? ⁷Even in the case of lifeless things that make sounds, such as the flute or harp, how will anyone know what tune is being played unless there is a distinction in the notes? ⁸Again, if the trumpet does not sound a clear call, who will get ready for battle? ⁹So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air. ¹⁰Undoubtedly there are all sorts of languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning. ¹¹If then I do not grasp the meaning of what someone is saying, I am a foreigner to the speaker, and the speaker is a foreigner to me. ¹²So it is with you. Since you are eager to have spiritual gifts, try to excel in gifts that build up the church.

¹³For this reason those who speak in a tongue should pray that they may interpret what they say. ¹⁴For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵So what shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind; I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind. ¹⁶If you are praising God with your spirit, how can the others who find themselves among those who do not understand^d say "Amen" to your thanksgiving, since they do not know what you are saying? ¹⁷You are giving thanks well enough, but the others are not edified.

¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹But in the church I would rather speak five intelligible words to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²⁰Brothers and sisters, stop thinking like children. In regard to evil be infants, but in your thinking be adults. ²¹In the Law it is written:

"Through people of strange tongues and through the lips of foreigners
I will speak to this people, but even then they will not listen to me,"^e

says the Lord.

²²Tongues, then, are a sign, not for believers but for unbelievers; prophecy, however, is for believers, not for unbelievers. ²³So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and some who do not understand/ or some unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind? ²⁴But if an unbeliever or someone who does not understand^g comes in while everybody is prophesying, such people will be convinced by all that they are sinners and will be judged by all, ²⁵and the secrets of their hearts will be laid bare. So they will fall down and worship God, exclaiming, "God is really among you!"

Orderly Worship

²⁶What then shall we say, brothers and sisters? When you come together, everyone has a hymn, or a word of instruction, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. All of these must be done for the strengthening of the church. ²⁷If anyone speaks in a tongue, two—or at the most three—should speak, one at a time, and someone must interpret. ²⁸If there is no interpreter, the speakers should keep quiet in the church and speak to themselves and God.

²⁹Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said. ³⁰And if a revelation comes to someone who is sitting down, the first speaker should stop. ³¹For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged. ³²The spirits of prophets are subject to the control of prophets. ³³For God is not a God of disorder but of peace.

As in all the congregations of the saints, ³⁴women should remain silent in the churches. They are not allowed to speak, but must be in submission, as the Law says. ³⁵If they want to enquire about something, they should ask their own husbands at home; for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the church.

³⁶Did the word of God originate with you? Or are you the only people it has reached? ³⁷If any think they are prophets or are spiritually gifted, let them acknowledge that what I am writing to you is the Lord's command. ³⁸Those who ignore this will themselves be ignored.^h ³⁹Therefore, my brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰But everything should be done in a fitting and orderly way.

The Resurrection of Christ

15 Now, brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand. ²By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

³For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance:^a that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Peter,^b and then to the Twelve. ⁶After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, ⁸and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born.

⁹For I am the least of the apostles and do not even deserve to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me was not without effect. No, I worked harder than all of them—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. ¹¹Whether, then, it was I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

¹²But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been

¹²³ Or some enquirers ⁸²⁴ Or or some enquirer

^{h38} Some manuscripts If he is ignorant of this, let him be ignorant ^{a3} Or you at the first ^{b5} Greek Cephas raised.¹⁴ And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith.¹⁵ More than that, we are then found to be false witnesses about God, for we have testified about God that he raised Christ from the dead. But he did not raise him if in fact the dead are not raised.¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either.¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins.¹⁸ Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost.¹⁹ If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all people.

²⁰ But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.²¹ For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a human being.²² For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.²³ But in this order: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him.²⁴ Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power.²⁵ For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.²⁶ The last enemy to be destroyed is death.²⁷ For he "has put everything under his feet".^c Now when it says that "everything" has been put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself, who put everything under Christ.²⁸ When he has done this, then the Son himself will be made subject to him who put everything under him, so that God may be all in all.

²⁹ Now if there is no resurrection, what will those do who are baptised for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptised for them?³⁰ And as for us, why do we endanger ourselves every hour?³¹ I die every day—I mean that, brothers and sisters—just as surely as I glory over you in Christ Jesus our Lord.³² If I fought wild beasts in Ephesus for merely human reasons, what have I gained? If the dead are not raised,

"Let us eat and drink,
for tomorrow we die."^d

³³ Do not be misled: "Bad company corrupts good character."³⁴ Come back to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning; for there are some who are ignorant of God—I say this to your shame.

The Resurrection Body

³⁵ But someone may ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?"³⁶ How foolish! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies.³⁷ When you sow, you do not plant the body that will be, but just a seed, perhaps of wheat or of something else.³⁸ But God gives it a body as he has determined, and to each kind of seed he gives its own body.³⁹ All flesh is not the same: Human beings have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another and fish another.⁴⁰ There are also heavenly bodies and there are earthly bodies; but the splendour of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the splendour of the earthly bodies is another.⁴¹ The sun has one kind of splendour, the moon another and the stars another; and star differs from star in splendour.

⁴² So will it be with the resurrection of the dead. The body that is sown is perishable, it is raised imperishable;⁴³ it is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;⁴⁴ it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body.

If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.⁴⁵ So it is written: "The first Adam became a living being";^e the last Adam, a life-giving spirit.⁴⁶ The spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual.⁴⁷ The first man was of the dust of the earth, the second man from heaven.⁴⁸ As was the earthly, so are those who are of the earth; and as is the one from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven.⁴⁹ And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly, so shall we bear the likeness of the heavenly.

⁵⁰ I declare to you, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable

^c27 Psalm 8:6 ^d32 Isaiah 22:13 ^e45 Gen. 2:7 /49 Some early manuscripts so let us inherit the imperishable. ⁵¹Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—⁵²in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. ⁵³For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. ⁵⁴When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."⁸ ⁵⁵"Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?"^h

⁵⁶The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁵⁸Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labour in the Lord is not in vain.

The Collection for God's People

16 Now about the collection for God's people: Do what I told the Galatian churches to do. ²On the first day of every week, each one of you should set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will have to be made. ³Then, when I arrive, I will give letters of introduction to those you approve and send them with your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴If it seems advisable for me to go also, they will accompany me.

Personal Requests

⁵After I go through Macedonia, I will come to you—for I will be going through Macedonia. ⁶Perhaps I will stay with you awhile, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey, wherever I go. ⁷I do not want to see you now and make only a passing visit; I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits. ⁸But I will stay on at Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹because a great door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many who oppose me.

¹⁰If Timothy comes, see to it that he has nothing to fear while he is with you, for he is carrying on the work of the Lord, just as I am. ¹¹No-one, then, should refuse to accept him. Send him on his way in peace so that he may return to me. I am expecting him along with the brothers.

¹²Now about our brother Apollos: I strongly urged him to go to you with the brothers. He was quite unwilling to go now, but he will go when he has the opportunity.

¹³Be on your guard; stand firm in the faith; be courageous; be strong. ¹⁴Do everything in love.

¹⁵You know that the household of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints. I urge you, brothers and sisters, ¹⁶to submit to such as these and to everyone who joins in the work, and labours at it. ¹⁷I was glad when Stephanas, Fortunatus and Achaicus arrived, because they have supplied what was lacking from you. ¹⁸For they refreshed my spirit and yours also. Such men deserve recognition.

Final Greetings

¹⁹The churches in the province of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Priscilla^a greet you warmly in the Lord, and so does the church that meets at their house. ²⁰All the brothers and sisters here send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand.

²²If anyone does not love the Lord, let that person be cursed! Come, O Lord!^b ²³The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

²⁴My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.^c

2 Corinthians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the church of God in Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia:

² Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The God of All Comfort

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, ⁴ who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God. ⁵ For just as the sufferings of Christ flow over into our lives, so also through Christ our comfort overflows. ⁶ If we are distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you patient endurance of the same sufferings we suffer. ⁷ And our hope for you is firm, because we know that just as you share in our sufferings, so also you share in our comfort.

⁸ We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about the hardships we suffered in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired even of life. ⁹ Indeed, in our hearts we felt the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves but on God, who raises the dead. ¹⁰ He has delivered us from such a deadly peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will continue to deliver us, ¹¹ as you help us by your prayers. Then many will give thanks on our^a behalf for the gracious favour granted us in answer to the prayers of many.

Paul's Change of Plans

¹² Now this is our boast: Our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in our relations with you, in the holiness and sincerity that are from God. We have done so not according to worldly wisdom but according to God's grace. ¹³ For we do not write to you anything you cannot read or understand. And I hope that, ¹⁴ as you have understood us in part, you will come to understand fully that you can boast of us just as we will boast of you in the day of the Lord Jesus.

¹⁵ Because I was confident of this, I planned to visit you first so that you might benefit twice. ¹⁶ I planned to visit you on my way to Macedonia and to come back to you from Macedonia, and then to have you send me on my way to Judea. ¹⁷ When I planned this, did I do it lightly? Or do I make my plans in a worldly manner so that in the same breath I say, "Yes, yes" and "No, no"?

¹⁸ But as surely as God is faithful, our message to you is not "Yes" and "No".

^a11 Many manuscripts your

¹⁹For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by me and Silas^b and Timothy, was not "Yes" and "No", but in him it has always been "Yes."²⁰For no matter how many promises God has made, they are "Yes" in Christ. And so through him the "Amen" is spoken by us to the glory of God. ²¹Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us, ²²set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

²³I call God as my witness that it was in order to spare you that I did not return to Corinth. ²⁴Not that we lord it over your faith, but we work with you for your joy, because it is by faith you stand

2 firm. ¹So I made up my mind that I would not make another painful visit to you. ²For if I grieve you, who is left to make me glad but you whom I have grieved? ³I wrote as I did so that when I came I should not be distressed by those who ought to make me rejoice. I had confidence in all of you, that you would all share my joy. ⁴For I wrote to you out of great distress and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to grieve you but to let you know the depth of my love for you.

Forgiveness for the Sinner

⁵If anyone has caused grief, he has not so much grieved me as he has grieved all of you, to some extent—not to put it too severely. ⁶The punishment inflicted on him by the majority is sufficient. ⁷Now instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him, so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. ⁸I urge you, therefore, to reaffirm your love for him. ⁹The reason I wrote to you was to see if you would stand the test and be obedient in everything. ¹⁰Anyone you forgive I also forgive. And what I have forgiven—if there was anything to forgive—I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake, ¹¹in order that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.

^b19 Greek Silvanus, a variant of Silas

Ministers of the New Covenant

¹²Now when I went to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ and found that the Lord had opened a door for me, ¹³I still had no peace of mind, because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said good-bye to them and went on to Macedonia.

¹⁴But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumphal procession in Christ and through us spreads everywhere the fragrance of the knowledge of him. ¹⁵For we are to God the aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing. ¹⁶To the one we are the smell of death; to the other, the fragrance of life. And who is equal to such a task? ¹⁷Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as those sent from God.

3 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some people, letters of recommendation to you or from you? ²You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everybody. ³You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

⁴Such confidence as this is ours through Christ before God. ⁵Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim anything for ourselves, but our competence comes from God. ⁶He has made us competent as ministers of a new covenant—not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The Glory of the New Covenant

⁷Now if the ministry that brought death, which was engraved in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the Israelites could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of its glory, fading though it was, ⁸will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious? ⁹If the ministry that brings condemnation is glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness! ¹⁰For what was glorious has no glory now in comparison with the surpassing glory. ¹¹And if what was fading away came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts!

¹²Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold. ¹³We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to keep the Israelites from gazing at it while the radiance was fading away. ¹⁴But their minds were made dull, for to this day the same veil remains when the old covenant is read. It has not been removed, because only in Christ is it taken away. ¹⁵Even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts. ¹⁶But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect^a the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his likeness with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Treasures in Jars of Clay

4 Therefore, since through God's mercy we have this ministry, we do not lose heart. ²Rather, we have renounced secret and shameful ways; we do not use deception, nor do we distort the word of God. On the contrary, by setting forth the truth plainly we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God. ³And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness,"^a made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.

⁷But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us. ⁸We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; ⁹persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. ¹⁰We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. ¹¹For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that his life may be revealed in our mortal body. ¹²So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

¹³It is written: "I believed; therefore I have spoken."^b With that same spirit of faith we also believe and therefore speak, ¹⁴because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you in his presence. ¹⁵All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is reaching more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow to the glory of God.

¹⁶Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. ¹⁷For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. ¹⁸So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Our Heavenly Dwelling

5 Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. ²Meanwhile we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, ³because when we are clothed, we will not be found naked. ⁴For while we are in this tent, we groan and are burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵Now it is God who has made us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come.

⁶Therefore we are always confident and

^a18 Or contemplate ^a6 Gen. 1:3 ^b13 Psalm 116:10

know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. ⁷We live by faith, not by sight. ⁸We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹So we make it our goal to please him, whether we are at home in the body or away from it. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that everyone may receive what is due them for the things done while in the body, whether good or bad.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

¹¹Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord, we try to persuade people. What we are plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience. ¹²We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us, so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart. ¹³If we are out of our mind, it is for the sake of God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. ¹⁵And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

¹⁶So from now on we regard no-one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. ¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: the old has gone, the new has come! ¹⁸All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: ¹⁹that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. ²¹God made him who had no sin to be sin^a for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6 As God's co-workers we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain. ²For he says,

"In the time of my favour I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you."^a

I tell you, now is the time of God's favour, now is the day of salvation.

Paul's Hardships

³We put no stumbling-block in anyone's path, so that our ministry will not be discredited. ⁴Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, hardships and distresses; ⁵in beatings, imprisonments and riots; in hard work, sleepless nights and hunger; ⁶in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love; ⁷in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left; ⁸through glory and dishonour, bad report and good report; genuine, yet regarded as impostors; ⁹known, yet regarded as unknown; dying, and yet we live on; beaten, and yet not killed; ¹⁰sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

¹¹We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians, and opened wide our hearts to you. ¹²We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us. ¹³As a fair exchange—I speak as to my children—open wide your hearts also.

Do Not Be Yoked With Unbelievers

¹⁴Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness? ¹⁵What harmony is there between Christ and Belial?^b What does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶What agreement is there between the temple of ^a21 Or be a sin offering

^a2 Isaiah 49:8

^b15 Greek Beliar, a variant of Belial

God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people."^c

¹⁷"Therefore come out from them and be separate,
says the Lord.

Touch no unclean thing,
and I will receive you."^d

¹⁸"I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters,
says the Lord Almighty."^e

7 Since we have these promises, dear friends, let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit, perfecting holiness out of reverence for God.

Paul's Joy

²Make room for us in your hearts. We have wronged no-one, we have corrupted no-one, we have exploited no-one. ³I do not say this to condemn you; I have said before that you have such a place in our hearts that we would live or die with you. ⁴I have great confidence in you; I take great pride in you. I am greatly encouraged; in all our troubles my joy knows no bounds.

⁵For when we came into Macedonia, this body of ours had no rest, but we were harassed at every turn—conflicts on the outside, fears within. ⁶But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus, ⁷and not only by his coming but also by the comfort you had given him. He told us about your longing for me, your deep sorrow, your ardent concern for me, so that my joy was greater than ever.

⁸Even if I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it. Though I did regret it—I see that my letter hurt you, but only for a little while—⁹yet now I am happy, not because you were made sorry, but because your sorrow led you to repentance. For you became sorrowful as

God intended and so were not harmed in any way by us. ¹⁰Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation and leaves no regret, but worldly sorrow brings death. ¹¹See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern, what readiness to see justice done. At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. ¹²So even though I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did the wrong or of the injured party, but rather that before God you could see for yourselves how devoted to us you are. ¹³By all this we are encouraged.

In addition to our own encouragement, we were especially delighted to see how happy Titus was, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴I had boasted to him about you, and you have not embarrassed me. But just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting about you to Titus has proved to be true as well. ¹⁵And his affection for you is all the greater when he remembers that you were all obedient, receiving him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶I am glad I can have complete confidence in you.

Generosity Encouraged

8 And now, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches. ²Out of the most severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity. ³For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, ⁴they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the saints. ⁵And they did not do as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God's will. ⁶So we urged Titus, since he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion this act of grace on your part. ⁷But just as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love

^c16 Lev. 26:12; Jer. 32:38; Ezek. 37:27

^d17 Isaiah 52:11; Ezek. 20:34, 41

^e18 2 Samuel 7:14; 7:8

for us^a—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

⁸I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich.

¹⁰And here is my advice about what is best for you in this matter: Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so. ¹¹Now finish the work, so that your eager willingness to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means. ¹²For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have.

¹³Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. ¹⁴At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. Then there will be equality. ¹⁵as it is written: "The person who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little."^b

Titus Sent to Corinth

¹⁶I thank God, who put into the heart of Titus the same concern I have for you.

¹⁷For Titus not only welcomed our appeal, but he is coming to you with much enthusiasm and on his own initiative.

¹⁸And we are sending along with him the brother who is praised by all the churches for his service to the gospel. ¹⁹What is more, he was chosen by the churches to accompany us as we carry the offering, which we administer in order to honour the Lord himself and to show our eagerness to help. ²⁰We want to avoid any criticism of the way we administer this liberal gift. ²¹For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of others.

²²In addition, we are sending with them

our brother who has often proved to us in many ways that he is zealous, and now even more so because of his great confidence in you. ²³As for Titus, he is my partner and co-worker among you; as for our brothers, they are representatives of the churches and an honour to Christ. ²⁴Therefore show these men the proof of your love and the reason for our pride in you, so that the churches can see it.

9 There is no need for me to write to you about this service to the saints. ²For I know your eagerness to help, and I have been boasting about it to the Macedonians, telling them that since last year you in Achaia were ready to give; and your enthusiasm has stirred most of them to action. ³But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you in this matter should not prove hollow, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be. ⁴For if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—not to say anything about you—would be ashamed of having been so confident. ⁵So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to visit you in advance and finish the arrangements for the generous gift you had promised. Then it will be ready as a generous gift, not as one grudgingly given.

Sowing Generously

⁶Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. ⁷Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. ⁹As it is written:

"They have scattered abroad their gifts to the poor;
their righteousness endures for ever."^a

¹⁰Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness.

¹¹You will be made rich in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

¹²This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of God's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God. ¹³Because of the service by which you have proved yourselves, people will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. ¹⁴And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. ¹⁵Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

Paul's Defence of His Ministry

10 By the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I appeal to you—I, Paul, who am “timid” when face to face with you, but “bold” when away! ²I beg you that when I come I may not have to be as bold as I expect to be towards some people who think that we live by the standards of this world. ³For though we live in the world, we do not wage war as the world does. ⁴The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. ⁵We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. ⁶And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, once your obedience is complete.

⁷You are looking only on the surface of things.^a If any are confident that they belong to Christ, they should consider again that we belong to Christ just as much as they do. ⁸For even if I boast somewhat freely about the authority the Lord gave us for building you up rather than pulling you down, I will not be ashamed of it. ⁹I do not want to seem to be trying to frighten you with my letters.

¹⁰For some say, “His letters are weighty and forceful, but in person he is unimpressive and his speaking amounts to nothing.” ¹¹Such people should realise that what we are in our letters when we are absent, we will be in our actions when we are present.

¹²We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are not wise. ¹³We, however, will not boast beyond proper limits, but will confine our boasting to the field God has assigned to us, a field that reaches even to you. ¹⁴We are not going too far in our boasting, as would be the case if we had not come to you, for we did get as far as you with the gospel of Christ. ¹⁵Neither do we go beyond our limits by boasting of work done by others.^b Our hope is that, as your faith continues to grow, our area of activity among you will greatly expand, ¹⁶so that we can preach the gospel in the regions beyond you. For we do not want to boast about work already done in someone else's territory. ¹⁷But, “Let those who boast boast in the Lord.”^c ¹⁸For it is not those who commend themselves who are approved, but those whom the Lord commends.

Paul and the False Apostles

11 I hope you will put up with a little of my foolishness; but you are already doing that. ²I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband, to Christ, so that I might present you as a pure virgin to him. ³But I am afraid that just as Eve was deceived by the serpent's cunning, your minds may somehow be led astray from your sincere

^{a7} Or Look at the obvious facts

^{b13-15} Or ¹³We, however, will not boast about things that cannot be measured, but we will boast according to the standard of measurement that the God of measure has assigned us—a measurement that relates even to you. ¹⁴... ¹⁵Neither do we boast about things that cannot be measured in regard to the work done by others. ^{c17} Jer. 9:24

and pure devotion to Christ. ⁴For if someone comes to you and preaches a Jesus other than the Jesus we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you put up with it easily enough. ⁵But I do not think I am in the least inferior to those "super-apostles". ⁶I may not be a trained speaker, but I do have knowledge. We have made this perfectly clear to you in every way.

⁷Was it a sin for me to lower myself in order to elevate you by preaching the gospel of God to you free of charge? ⁸I robbed other churches by receiving support from them so as to serve you. ⁹And when I was with you and needed something, I was not a burden to anyone, for the believers who came from Macedonia supplied what I needed. I have kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and will continue to do so. ¹⁰As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, nobody in the regions of Achaia will stop this boasting of mine. ¹¹Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do! ¹²And I will keep on doing what I am doing in order to cut the ground from under those who want an opportunity to be considered equal with us in the things they boast about.

¹³For such persons are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as apostles of Christ. ¹⁴And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. ¹⁵It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be what their actions deserve.

Paul Boasts About His Sufferings

¹⁶I repeat: Let no-one take me for a fool. But if you do, then receive me just as you would a fool, so that I may do a little boasting. ¹⁷In this self-confident boasting I am not talking as the Lord would, but as a fool. ¹⁸Since many are boasting in the way the world does, I too will boast. ¹⁹You gladly put up with fools since you are so wise! ²⁰In fact, you even put up with any who enslave you or exploit you or take advantage of you or push themselves forward or slap you in the face. ²¹To my shame I admit that we were too weak for that!

What anyone else dares to boast about—I am speaking as a fool—I also dare to boast about. ²²Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they Abraham's descendants? So am I. ²³Are they servants of Christ? (I am out of my mind to talk like this.) I am more. I have worked much harder, been in prison more frequently, been flogged more severely, and been exposed to death again and again. ²⁴Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one. ²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I spent a night and a day in the open sea, ²⁶I have been constantly on the move. I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from bandits, in danger from my own people, in danger from Gentiles; in danger in the city, in danger in the country, in danger at sea; and in danger from false believers. ²⁷I have laboured and toiled and have often gone without sleep; I have known hunger and thirst and have often gone without food; I have been cold and naked. ²⁸Besides everything else, I face daily the pressure of my concern for all the churches. ²⁹Who is weak, and I do not feel weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not inwardly burn?

³⁰If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness. ³¹The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is to be praised for ever, knows that I am not lying. ³²In Damascus the governor under King Aretas had the city of the Damascenes guarded in order to arrest me. ³³But I was lowered in a basket from a window in the wall and slipped through his hands.

Paul's Vision and His Thorn

12 I must go on boasting. Although there is nothing to be gained, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of the body I do not know—God knows.³ And I know that this person—whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, but God knows—⁴was caught up to paradise and heard inexpressible things, things that human beings are not permitted to tell. ⁵I will boast about someone like that, but I will not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses. ⁶Even if I should choose to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no-one will think more of me than is warranted by what I do or say.

⁷To keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations, there was given me a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. ⁸Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. ⁹But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me. ¹⁰That is why, for Christ’s sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul’s Concern for the Corinthians

¹¹I have made a fool of myself, but you drove me to it. I ought to have been commended by you, for I am not in the least inferior to the “super-apostles”, even though I am nothing. ¹²The things that mark an apostle—signs, wonders and miracles—were done among you with great perseverance. ¹³How were you inferior to the other churches, except that I was never a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

¹⁴Now I am ready to visit you for the third time, and I will not be a burden to you, because what I want is not your possessions but you. After all, children should not have to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. ¹⁵So I will very gladly spend for you everything I have and expend myself as well. If I love you more, will you love me less? ¹⁶Be that as it may, I have not been a burden to you. Yet, crafty fellow that I am, I caught you by trickery! ¹⁷Did I exploit you through any of those whom I sent you? ¹⁸I urged Titus to go to you and I sent our brother with him. Titus did not exploit you, did he? Did we not act in the same spirit and follow the same course?

¹⁹Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? We have been speaking in the sight of God as those in Christ; and everything we do, dear friends, is for your strengthening. ²⁰For I am afraid that when I come I may not find you as I want you to be, and you may not find me as you want me to be. I fear that there may be quarrelling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorder. ²¹I am afraid that when I come again my God will humble me before you, and I will be grieved over many who have sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual sin and debauchery in which they have indulged.

Final Warnings

13 This will be my third visit to you. “Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.”^a ²I already gave you a warning when I was with you the second time. I now repeat it while absent: On my return I will not spare those who sinned earlier or any of the others, ³since you are demanding proof that Christ is speaking through me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. ⁴For to be sure, he was crucified in weakness, yet he lives by God’s power. Likewise, we are weak in him, yet by God’s power we will live with him to serve you.

⁵Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realise that Christ Jesus is in you—unless, of course, you fail the test? ⁶And I trust that you will discover that we have not failed the test. ⁷Now we pray to God that you will not do anything wrong.

^a1 Deut. 19:15

Not that people will see that we have stood the test but that you will do what is right even though we may seem to have failed. ⁸For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. ⁹We are glad whenever we are weak but you are strong; and our prayer is for your perfection. ¹⁰This is why I write these things when I am absent, that when I come I may not have to be harsh in my use of authority—the authority the Lord gave me for building you up, not for tearing you down.

Final Greetings

¹¹Finally, brothers and sisters, good-bye. Aim for perfection, listen to my appeal, be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss.

¹³All the saints send their greetings.

¹⁴May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle—sent not with a human commission nor by a human authority, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead—²and all the brothers and sisters with me,

To the churches in Galatia:

³Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

No Other Gospel

⁶I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let that person be eternally condemned! ⁹As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let that person be eternally condemned!

¹⁰Am I now trying to win human approval, or God's approval? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Paul Called by God

¹¹I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel I preached is not of human origin. ¹²I did not receive it from any human source, nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by revelation from Jesus Christ.

¹³For you have heard of my previous way of life in Judaism, how intensely I persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it. ¹⁴I was advancing in Judaism beyond many Jews of my own age and was extremely zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. ¹⁵But when God, who set me apart from birth^a and called me by his grace, was pleased ¹⁶to reveal his Son in me so that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not consult any human being, ¹⁷nor did I go up to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was, but I went immediately into Arabia and later returned to Damascus.

¹⁸Then after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to get acquainted with Peter^b and stayed with him fifteen days. ¹⁹I saw none of the other apostles—only James, the Lord's brother. ²⁰I assure you before God that what I am writing to you is no lie. ²¹Later I went to Syria and Cilicia. ²²I was personally unknown to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. ²³They only heard the report: "The man who formerly persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy." ²⁴And they praised God because of me.

Paul Accepted by the Apostles

2 Fourteen years later I went up again to Jerusalem, this time with Barnabas. I took Titus along also. ²¹I went in response to a revelation and set before them

^a15 Or from my mother's womb

the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. But I did this privately to those who seemed to be leaders, for fear that I was running or had run my race in vain. ³ Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek. ⁴ [This matter arose] because some false believers had infiltrated our ranks to spy on the freedom we have in Christ Jesus and to make us slaves. ⁵ We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might remain with you.

⁶ As for those who seemed to be important—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not judge by external appearance—they added nothing to my message. ⁷ On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the task of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles,^a just as Peter had been to the Jews.^b ⁸ For God, who was at work in the ministry of Peter as an apostle to the Jews, was also at work in my ministry as an apostle to the Gentiles. ⁹ James, Peter^c and John, those reputed to be pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship when they recognised the grace given to me. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the Jews. ¹⁰ All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do.

Paul Opposes Peter

¹¹ When Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong. ¹² Before certain people came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself from the Gentiles because he was afraid of those who belonged to the circumcision group. ¹³ The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas was led astray.

¹⁴ When I saw that they were not acting in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter in front of them all, “You are a Jew, yet you live like a Gentile and not like a Jew. How is it, then, that you force Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?”

¹⁵ “We who are Jews by birth and not ‘Gentile sinners’ ¹⁶ know that a person is not justified by observing the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ. So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by observing the law, because by observing the law no-one will be justified.

¹⁷ “If, while we seek to be justified in Christ, it becomes evident that we ourselves are sinners, does that mean that Christ promotes sin? Absolutely not! ¹⁸ If I rebuild what I destroyed, I prove that I am a law-breaker. ¹⁹ For through the law I died to the law so that I might live for God. ²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. ²¹ I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness could be gained through the law, Christ died for nothing!”^d

Faith or Observance of the Law

3 You foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? Before your very eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed as crucified. ² I would like to learn just one thing from you: Did you receive the Spirit by observing the law, or by believing what you heard? ³ Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Spirit, are you now trying to attain your goal by human effort? ⁴ Have you suffered so much for nothing—if it really was for nothing? ⁵ Does God give you his Spirit and work miracles among you because you observe the law, or because you believe what you heard?

⁶ Consider Abraham: “He believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”^a ⁷ Understand, then, that those who believe are children of Abraham. ⁸ The Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and announced the gospel in advance to Abraham: “All nations will be blessed

^{a7} Greek uncircumcised ^{b7} Greek circumcised; also in verses 8 and 9

^{c9} Greek Cephus; also in verses 11 and 14 ^{d21} Some interpreters end the quotation after verse 14. ^{e6} Gen. 15:6

through you.”^b So those who have faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.

¹⁰All who rely on observing the law are under a curse, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law.”^c ¹¹Clearly no-one is justified before God by the law, because, “The righteous will live by faith.”^d ¹²The law is not based on faith; on the contrary, “The one who does these things will live by them.”^e ¹³Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, for it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.”^f ¹⁴He redeemed us in order that the blessing given to Abraham might come to the Gentiles through Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

The Law and the Promise

¹⁵Brothers and sisters, let me take an example from everyday life. Just as no-one can set aside or add to a human covenant that has been duly established, so it is in this case. ¹⁶The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. The Scripture does not say “and to seeds”, meaning many people, but “and to your seed”,^g meaning one person, who is Christ. ¹⁷What I mean is this: The law, introduced 430 years later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God and thus do away with the promise. ¹⁸For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on a promise; but God in his grace gave it to Abraham through a promise.

¹⁹What, then, was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come. The law was put into effect through angels by a mediator. ²⁰A mediator, however, does not represent just one party; but God is one.

²¹Is the law, therefore, opposed to the promises of God? Absolutely not! For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law. ²²But the Scripture declares that the whole world is a prisoner of sin, so that what was promised, being given through faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who believe.

²³Before this faith came, we were held prisoners by the law, locked up until faith should be revealed. ²⁴So the law was put in charge to lead us to Christ^h that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵Now that faith has come, we are no longer under the supervision of the law.

Children of God

²⁶You are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus, ²⁷for all of you who were baptised into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. ²⁸There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

4 What I am saying is that as long as heirs are minors, they are no different from slaves, although they own the whole estate. ²They are subject to guardians and trustees until the time set by their fathers. ³So also, when we were minors, we were in slavery under the basic principles of the world. ⁴But when the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under law, ⁵to redeem those under law, that we might receive adoption as God’s children. ⁶Because you are his children, he sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, “Abba,”ⁱ Father.” ⁷So you are no longer slaves, but God’s children; and since you are his children, he has made you also heirs.

Paul’s Concern for the Galatians

⁸Formerly, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those who by nature are not gods. ⁹But now that you know God—or rather are known by God—how is it that you are turning back to those weak and miserable principles? Do you wish to be enslaved by them all over again? ¹⁰You are observing special days and months and seasons and years! ¹¹I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.

¹²I plead with you, brothers and sisters, become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong. ¹³As you know, it was because of an illness that I first preached the gospel to you. ¹⁴Even though my illness was a trial to you, you did not treat me with contempt or scorn. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of God, as if I were Christ Jesus himself. ¹⁵What has happened to all your joy? I can testify that, if you could have done so, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?

¹⁷Those people are zealous to win you over, but for no good. What they want is to alienate you [from us], so that you may be zealous for them. ¹⁸It is fine to be zealous, provided the purpose is good, and to be so always and not just when I am with you. ¹⁹My dear children, for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you, ²⁰how I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about you!

Hagar and Sarah

²¹Tell me, you who want to be under the law, are you not aware of what the law says? ²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman. ²³His son by the slave woman was born in the ordinary way; but his son by the free woman was born as the result of a promise.

²⁴These things may be taken figuratively, for the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children who are to be slaves: This is Hagar. ²⁵Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present city of Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶But the Jerusalem that is above is free, and she is our mother. ²⁷For it is written:

“Be glad, O barren woman, who bears no children;
break forth and cry aloud,
you who have no labour pains;
because more are the children of the
desolate woman
than of her who has a husband.”^b

²⁸Now you, brothers and sisters, like Isaac, are children of promise. ²⁹At that time the son born in the ordinary way persecuted the son born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same now. ³⁰But what does the Scripture say? “Get rid of the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman’s son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman’s son.”^c ³¹Therefore, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Freedom in Christ

S It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

²Mark my words! I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no value to you at all. ³Again I declare to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is required to obey the whole law. ⁴You who are trying to be justified by law have been alienated from Christ; you have fallen away from grace. ⁵But by faith we eagerly await through the Spirit the righteousness for which we hope. ⁶For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love.

⁷You were running a good race. Who cut in on you and kept you from obeying the truth? ⁸That kind of persuasion does not come from the one who calls you. ⁹“A little yeast works through the whole batch of dough.” ¹⁰I am confident in the Lord that you will take no other view. The one who is throwing you into confusion will pay the penalty, whoever that may be. ¹¹Brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offence of the cross has been abolished. ¹²As for those agitators, I wish they would go the whole way and emasculate themselves!

¹³You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the sinful nature;^a rather, serve one another in love. ¹⁴The entire law is summed up in a single command: "Love your neighbour as yourself."^b ¹⁵If you keep on biting and devouring each other, watch out or you will be destroyed by each other.

Life by the Spirit

¹⁶So I say, live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature. ¹⁷For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the sinful nature. They are in conflict with each other, so that you do not do what you want. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law.

¹⁹The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; ²⁰idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions ²¹and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of God.

²²But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. ²⁴Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires. ²⁵Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. ²⁶Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.

Doing Good to All

6 Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore that person gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted. ²Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfil the law of Christ. ³If any of you think you are something when you are nothing, you deceive yourselves. ⁴Each of you should test your own actions. Then you can take pride in yourself, without comparing yourself to somebody else, ⁵for each of you should carry your own load.

⁶Those who receive instruction in the word must share all good things with their instructor.

⁷Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. People reap what they sow. ⁸Those who sow to please their sinful nature, from that nature^a will reap destruction; those who sow to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. ⁹Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. ¹⁰Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

Not Circumcision but a New Creation

¹¹See what large letters I use as I write to you with my own hand!

¹²Those who want to make a good impression outwardly are trying to compel you to be circumcised. The only reason they do this is to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³Not even those who are circumcised obey the law, yet they want you to be circumcised that they may boast about your flesh. ¹⁴May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which^b the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything; what counts is a new creation. ¹⁶Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, even to the Israel of God.

¹⁷Finally, let no-one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ephesians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,

To the saints in Ephesus,^a the faithful^b in Christ Jesus:

² Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ. ⁴ For he chose us in him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in his sight. In love ⁵ he^c predestined us to be adopted as his children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with his pleasure and will—⁶ to the praise of his glorious grace, which he has freely given us in the One he loves. ⁷ In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace ⁸ that he lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding. ⁹ And he^d made known to us the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he purposed in Christ, ¹⁰ to be put into effect when the times will have reached their fulfillment—to bring all things in heaven and on earth together under one head, even Christ.

¹¹ In him we were also chosen,^e having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will, ¹² in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might be for the praise of his glory. ¹³ And you also were included in Christ when you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation. Having believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴ who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession—to the praise of his glory.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

¹⁵ For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, ¹⁶ I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers. ¹⁷ I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit^f of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. ¹⁸ I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, ¹⁹ and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is like the working of his mighty strength, ²⁰ which he exerted in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, ²¹ far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every title that can be given, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. ²² And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church, ²³which is his body, the fulness of him who fills everything in every way.

Made Alive in Christ

2 As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins, ²in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient. ³All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our sinful nature^a and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature objects of wrath. ⁴But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, ⁵made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. ⁶And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, ⁷in order that in the coming ages he might show the incomparable riches of his grace, expressed in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. ⁸For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—⁹not by works, so that no-one can boast. ¹⁰For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

One in Christ

¹¹Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called "uncircumcised" by those who call themselves "the circumcision" (that done in the body by human hands)—¹²remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ.

¹⁴For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, ¹⁵by abolishing in his flesh the law with its commandments and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, ¹⁶and in this one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. ¹⁷He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. ¹⁸For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

¹⁹Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and aliens, but fellow-citizens with God's people and members of God's household, ²⁰built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. ²¹In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. ²²And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

Paul the Preacher to the Gentiles

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—

²Surely you have heard about the administration of God's grace that was given to me for you, ³that is, the mystery made known to me by revelation, as I have already written briefly. ⁴In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, ⁵which was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets. ⁶This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are heirs together with Israel, members together of one body, and sharers together in the promise in Christ Jesus.

⁷I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace given me through the working of his power. ⁸Although I am less than the least of all God's people, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹and to make plain to everyone the administration of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things. ¹⁰His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, ¹¹according to his eternal purpose which he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹²In him and through faith in him we may approach God with freedom and confidence. ¹³I ask you, therefore, not to be discouraged because of my sufferings for you, which are your glory.

^a3 Or our flesh

A Prayer for the Ephesians

¹⁴For this reason I kneel before the Father, ¹⁵from whom his whole family^a in heaven and on earth derives its name. ¹⁶I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, ¹⁸may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, ¹⁹and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fulness of God.

²⁰Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, ²¹to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Unity in the Body of Christ

4 As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. ²Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. ³Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to one hope when you were called—⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism; ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

⁷But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it. ⁸This is why it^a says:

“When he ascended on high,
he led captives in his train
and gave gifts to people.”^b

⁹(What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions?^c ¹⁰He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe.) ¹¹It was he who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, ¹²to prepare God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up ¹³until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fulness of Christ.

¹⁴Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. ¹⁵Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into him who is the Head, that is, Christ. ¹⁶From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Living as Children of Light

¹⁷So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. ¹⁸They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts. ¹⁹Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, with a continual lust for more.

²⁰You, however, did not come to know Christ that way. ²¹Surely you heard of him

^a15 Or whom all fatherhood

^a8 Or God

^b8 Psalm 68:18

^c9 Or the depths of the earth

and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. ²²You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; ²³to be made new in the attitude of your minds; ²⁴and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

²⁵Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to your neighbour, for we are all members of one body. ²⁶"In your anger do not sin"; ²⁷Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold. ²⁸Those who have been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need.

²⁹Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. ³⁰And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. ³²Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

5 Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children ²and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

³But among you there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality, or of any kind of impurity, or of greed, because these are improper for God's holy people. ⁴Nor should there be obscenity, foolish talk or coarse joking, which are out of place, but rather thanksgiving. ⁵For of this you can be sure: No immoral, impure or greedy person—such a person is an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. ⁶Let no-one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things God's wrath comes on those who are disobedient. ⁷Therefore do not be partners with them.

⁸For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light ⁹(for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth) ¹⁰and find out what pleases the Lord. ¹¹Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. ¹²For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. ¹³But everything exposed by the light becomes visible, ¹⁴for it is light that makes everything visible. This is why it is said:

"Wake up, O sleeper, rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you."

¹⁵Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, ¹⁶making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. ¹⁷Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. ¹⁸Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit. ¹⁹Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, ²⁰always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

²¹Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives and Husbands

²²Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, of which he is the Saviour. ²⁴Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything.

²⁵Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her ²⁶to make her holy, cleansing^b her by the washing with water through the word, ²⁷and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. ²⁸In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. ²⁹After

^{a26} Psalm 4:4 ^{a5} Or kingdom of the Christ and God

^{b26} Or having cleansed

all, people have never hated their own bodies, but feed and care for them, just as Christ does the church—³⁰for we are members of his body. ³¹“For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”^c ³²This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church. ³³However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ²“Honour your father and mother”—which is the first commandment with a promise—³“that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth.”^a ⁴Fathers,^b do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

⁵Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect and fear, and with sincerity of heart, just as you would obey Christ. ⁶Obey them not only to win their favour when their eye is on you, but like slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from your heart. ⁷Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not people, ⁸because you know that the Lord will reward each one of you for whatever good you do, whether you are slave or free.

⁹And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Do not threaten them, since you know that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no favouritism with him.

The Armour of God

¹⁰Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. ¹¹Put on the full armour of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. ¹²For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. ¹³Therefore put on the full armour of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. ¹⁴Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled round your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, ¹⁵and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. ¹⁶In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. ¹⁷Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. ¹⁸And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints.

¹⁹Pray also for me, that whenever I open my mouth, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should.

²¹Tychicus, the dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything, so that you also may know how I am and what I am doing. ²²I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are, and that he may encourage you.

²³Peace to the brothers and sisters, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love.

Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus,

To all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers^a and deacons:

²Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³I thank my God every time I remember you. ⁴In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy ⁵because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, ⁶being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

⁷It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart; for whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. ⁸God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

⁹And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, ¹⁰so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ, ¹¹filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God.

Paul's Chains Advance the Gospel

¹²Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel.

¹³As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard^b and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ. ¹⁴Because of my chains, most of the brothers and sisters in the Lord have been encouraged to speak the word of God more courageously and fearlessly.

¹⁵It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill. ¹⁶The latter do so in love, knowing that I am put here for the defence of the gospel. ¹⁷The former preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can stir up trouble for me while I am in chains.^c ¹⁸But what does it matter? The important thing is that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is preached. And because of this I rejoice.

Yes, and I will continue to rejoice. ¹⁹For I know that through your prayers and the help given by the Spirit of Jesus Christ, what has happened to me will turn out for my deliverance.^d ²⁰I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. ²¹For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. ²²If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labour for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know! ²³I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far; ²⁴but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body. ²⁵Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith. ²⁶so that through my being with you again your joy in Christ Jesus will overflow on account of me.

^a1 Traditionally bishops ^b13 Or whole palace

^c16,17 Some late manuscripts have verses 16 and 17 in reverse order. ^d19 Or salvation

²⁷Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, striving together with one accord for the faith of the gospel ²⁸without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God. ²⁹For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for him, ³⁰since you are going through the same struggle you saw I had, and now hear that I still have.

Imitating Christ's Humility

2 If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, ²then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose. ³Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. ⁴Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

⁵Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus:

⁶Who, being in very nature^a God,
did not consider equality with God
something to be grasped,

⁷but made himself nothing,
taking the very nature^b of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

⁸And being found in appearance as a human being,

he humbled himself
and became obedient to death —
even death on a cross!

⁹Therefore God exalted him to the highest place
and gave him the name that is above every name,

¹⁰that at the name of Jesus every knee
should bow,
in heaven and on earth and under
the earth,

¹¹and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Shining as Stars

¹²Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence—continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³for it is God who works in you to will and to act according to his good purpose.

¹⁴Do everything without complaining or arguing, ¹⁵so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and depraved generation, in which you shine like stars in the universe ¹⁶as you hold out^c the word of life—in order that I may boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labour for nothing. ¹⁷But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service coming from your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. ¹⁸So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

¹⁹I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I receive news about you. ²⁰I have no-one else like him, who takes a genuine interest in your welfare. ²¹For all are looking out for their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. ²²But you know that Timothy has proved himself, because as a son with his father he has served with me in the work of the gospel. ²³I hope, therefore, to send him as soon as I see how things go with me. ²⁴ And I am confident in the Lord that I myself will come soon.

^a Or in the form of ^b Or the form ^c Or hold on to

²⁵ But I think it is necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, who is also your messenger, whom you sent to take care of my needs. ²⁶ For he longs for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. ²⁷ Indeed he was ill, and almost died. But God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may be glad and I may have less anxiety. ²⁹ Welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honour people like him, ³⁰ because he almost died for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for the help you could not give me.

No Confidence in the Flesh

3 Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you.

² Watch out for those dogs, those evil-doers, those mutilators of the flesh. ³ For it is we who are the circumcision, we who worship by the Spirit of God, who glory in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh—⁴ though I myself have reasons for such confidence.

If others think they have reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more: ⁵ circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶ as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless.

⁷ But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸ What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ ⁹ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith. ¹⁰ I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ¹¹ and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Pressing on Towards the Goal

¹² Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. ¹³ Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead, ¹⁴ I press on towards the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenwards in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵ All of us who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. ¹⁶ Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

¹⁷ Join with others in following my example, brothers and sisters, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you. ¹⁸ For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹ Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things. ²⁰ But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Saviour from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.

4 Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm in the Lord, dear friends!

Exhortations

contended at my side in the cause of the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. ⁶Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. ⁹Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

Thanks for Their Gifts

¹⁰I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have renewed your concern for me. Indeed, you have been concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. ¹¹I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. ¹²I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. ¹³I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

¹⁴Yet it was good of you to share in my troubles. ¹⁵Moreover, as you Philippians know, in the early days of your acquaintance with the gospel, when I set out from Macedonia, not one church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you only; ¹⁶for even when I was in Thessalonica, you sent me aid again and again when I was in need. ¹⁷Not that I am looking for a gift, but I am looking for what may be credited to your account. ¹⁸I have received full payment and even more; I am amply supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the gifts you sent. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. ¹⁹And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

²⁰To our God and Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

Colossians

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

²To the holy and faithful^a brothers and sisters in Christ at Colosse:

Grace and peace to you from God our Father.^b

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, ⁴because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all the saints—⁵the faith and love that spring from the hope that is stored up for you in heaven and that you have already heard about in the word of truth, the gospel ⁶that has come to you. All over the world this gospel is bearing fruit and growing, just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and understood God's grace in all its truth. ⁷You learned it from Epaphras, our dear fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our^c behalf, ⁸and who also told us of your love in the Spirit.

⁹For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding. ¹⁰And we pray this in order that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God,

¹¹being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that you may have great endurance and patience, and joyfully ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you^d to share in the inheritance of the saints in the kingdom of light. ¹³For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption,^e the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of Christ

¹⁵He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. ¹⁷He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹For God was pleased to have all his fulness dwell in him, ²⁰and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

²¹Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behaviour. ²²But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation—²³if you continue in your faith, established and firm, not moved from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

Paul's Labour for the Church

²⁴Now I rejoice in what was suffered for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is still lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions, for the sake of his body, which is the church. ²⁵I have become its servant by the commission God gave me to present to you the word of God in its fulness—²⁶the mystery that has been kept hidden for ages and generations, but is now disclosed to the saints. ²⁷To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

²⁸We proclaim him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect in Christ. ²⁹To this end I labour, struggling with all his energy, which so powerfully works in me.

2 I want you to know how much I am struggling for you and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not met me personally. ²My purpose is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, ³in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. ⁴I tell you this so that no-one may deceive you by fine-sounding arguments. ⁵For though I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit and delight to see how orderly you are and how firm your faith in Christ is.

Freedom From Human Regulations Through Life With Christ

⁶So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

⁸See to it that no-one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ.

⁹For in Christ all the fulness of the Deity lives in bodily form, ¹⁰and you have been given fulness in Christ, who is the Head over every power and authority. ¹¹In him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of the sinful nature,^a not with a circumcision done by human hands but with the circumcision done by Christ, ¹²having been buried with him in baptism and raised with him through your faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead.

¹³When you were dead in your sins and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature,^b God made you^c alive with Christ. He forgave us all our sins, ¹⁴having cancelled the written code, with its regulations, that was against us and that stood opposed to us; he took it away, nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵And having disarmed the powers and authorities, he made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.^d

¹⁶Therefore do not let anyone judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a religious festival, a New Moon celebration or a Sabbath day. ¹⁷These are a shadow of the things that were to come; the reality, however, is found in Christ. ¹⁸Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify you for the prize. Such people go into great detail about what they have seen, and their unspiritual minds puff them up with idle notions. ¹⁹They have lost connection with the Head, from whom the whole body, supported and held together by its ligaments and sinews, grows as God causes it to grow.

²⁰Since you died with Christ to the basic principles of this world, why, as though you still belonged to it, do you submit to its rules: ²¹"Do not handle! Do not taste!

^a11 Or the flesh ^b13 Or your flesh ^c13 Some manuscripts us ^d15 Or them in him

Do not touch!¹⁷? ²²These are all destined to perish with use, because they are based on human commands and teachings. ²³Such regulations indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility and their harsh treatment of the body, but they lack any value in restraining sensual indulgence.

Rules for Holy Living

3 Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. ²Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. ³For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ, who is your^a life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

⁵Put to death, therefore, whatever belongs to your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed, which is idolatry. ⁶Because of these, the wrath of God is coming. ⁷You used to walk in these ways, in the life you once lived. ⁸But now you must rid yourselves of all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander and filthy language from your lips. ⁹Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices ¹⁰and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator. ¹¹Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all, and is in all.

¹²Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. ¹³Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. ¹⁴And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

¹⁵Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful.

¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. ¹⁷And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Rules for Christian Households

¹⁸Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

¹⁹Husbands, love your wives and do not be harsh with them.

²⁰Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord.

²¹Fathers,^c do not embitter your children, or they will become discouraged.

²²Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything; and do it, not only when their eye is on you and to win their favour, but with sincerity of heart and reverence for the Lord. ²³Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, ²⁴since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving. ²⁵Those who do wrong will be repaid for their wrongs, and there is no favouritism.

4 Masters, provide your slaves with what is right and fair, because you know that you also have a Master in heaven.

Further Instructions

²Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. ³And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. ⁴Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. ⁵Be wise in the way you act towards outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. ⁶Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Final Greetings

⁷Tychicus will tell you all the news about me. He is a dear brother, a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord. ⁸I am sending him to you for the express purpose that you may know about our^a circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts. ⁹He is coming with Onesimus, our faithful and dear brother, who is one of you. They will tell you everything that is happening here.

¹⁰My fellow-prisoner Aristarchus sends you his greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. (You have received instructions about him; if he comes to you, welcome him.) ¹¹Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only Jews among my co-workers for the kingdom of God, and they have proved a comfort to me. ¹²Epaphras, who is one of you and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends greetings. He is always wrestling in prayer for you, that you may stand firm in all the will of God, mature and fully assured. ¹³I vouch for him that he is working hard for you and for those at Laodicea and Hierapolis. ¹⁴Our dear friend Luke, the doctor, and Demas send greetings. ¹⁵Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house.

¹⁶After this letter has been read to you, see that it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans and that you in turn read the letter from Laodicea.

¹⁷Tell Archippus: "See to it that you complete the work you have received in the Lord."

¹⁸I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1 Paul, Silas^a and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace to you.^b

Thanksgiving for the Thessalonians' Faith

²We always thank God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers. ³We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labour prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you, ⁵because our gospel came to you not simply with words, but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and with deep conviction. You know how we lived among you for your sake. ⁶You became imitators of us and of the Lord; in spite of severe suffering, you welcomed the message with the joy given by the Holy Spirit. ⁷And so you became a model to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸The Lord's message rang out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia—your faith in God has become known everywhere. Therefore we do not need to say anything about it, ⁹for they themselves report what kind of reception you gave us. They tell how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, ¹⁰and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

Paul's Ministry in Thessalonica

2 You know, brothers and sisters, that our visit to you was not a failure. ²We had previously suffered and been insulted in Philippi, as you know, but with the help of our God we dared to tell you his gospel in spite of strong opposition. ³For the appeal we make does not spring from error or impure motives, nor are we trying to trick you. ⁴On the contrary, we speak as those approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please people but God, who tests our hearts. ⁵You know we never used flattery, nor did we put on a mask to cover up greed—God is our witness. ⁶We were not looking for human praise, not from you or anyone else.

As apostles of Christ we could have been a burden to you, ⁷but we were gentle among you, like a mother caring for her little children. ⁸We loved you so much that we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well, because you had become so dear to us. ⁹Surely you remember, brothers and sisters, our toil and hardship; we worked night and day in order not to be a burden to anyone while we preached the gospel of God to you.

¹⁰You are witnesses, and so is God, of how holy, righteous and blameless we were among you who believed. ¹¹For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his own children, ¹²encouraging, comforting and urging you to live lives worthy of God, who calls you into his kingdom and glory.

^a1 Greek Silvanus, a variant of Silas

^b1 Some early manuscripts you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

¹³And we also thank God continually because, when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word, but as it actually is, the word of God, which is at work in you who believe. ¹⁴For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of God's churches in Judea, which are in Christ Jesus: You suffered from your own people the same things those churches suffered from the Jews, ¹⁵who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets and also drove us out. They displease God and are hostile to everyone ¹⁶in their effort to keep us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. In this way they always heap up their sins to the limit. The wrath of God has come upon them at last.^a

Paul's Longing to See the Thessalonians

¹⁷But, brothers and sisters, when we were torn away from you for a short time (in person, not in thought), out of our intense longing we made every effort to see you. ¹⁸For we wanted to come to you—certainly I, Paul, did, again and again—but Satan stopped us. ¹⁹For what is our hope, our joy, or the crown in which we will glory in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes? Is it not you? ²⁰Indeed, you are our glory and joy.

3 So when we could stand it no longer, we thought it best to be left by ourselves in Athens. ²We sent Timothy, who is our brother and God's fellow-worker^a in spreading the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you in your faith, ³so that no-one would be unsettled by these trials. You know quite well that we were destined for them. ⁴In fact, when we were with you, we kept telling you that we would be persecuted. And it turned out that way, as you well know. ⁵For this reason, when I could stand it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith.

I was afraid that in some way the tempter might have tempted you and our efforts might have been useless.

Timothy's Encouraging Report

⁶But Timothy has just now come to us from you and has brought good news about your faith and love. He has told us that you always have pleasant memories of us and that you long to see us, just as we also long to see you. ⁷Therefore, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith. ⁸For now we really live, since you are standing firm in the Lord. ⁹How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy we have in the presence of our God because of you? ¹⁰Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you again and supply what is lacking in your faith.

¹¹Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus clear the way for us to come to you. ¹²May the Lord make your love increase and overflow for each other and for everyone else, just as ours does for you. ¹³May he strengthen your hearts so that you will be blameless and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones.

Living to Please God

4 Finally, brothers and sisters, we instructed you how to live in order to please God, as in fact you are living. Now we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus to do this more and more. ²For you know what instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

³It is God's will that you should be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality; ⁴that each of you should learn to control your own body^a in a way that is holy and honourable, ⁵not in passionate lust like the heathen, who do not know God; ⁶and that in this matter no-one should wrong or take advantage of a brother or sister. The Lord will punish

^{a16} Or them fully ^{a2} Some manuscripts brother and fellow-worker; other manuscripts brother and God's servant

^{a4} Or learn to live with his own wife; or learn to acquire a wife

those who commit all such sins, as we have already told you and warned you. ⁷For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life. ⁸Therefore anyone who rejects this instruction does not reject mere human beings but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.

⁹Now about your mutual love we do not need to write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love each other. ¹⁰And in fact, you do love all the brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. Yet we urge you, dear friends, to do so more and more.

¹¹Make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, to mind your own business and to work with your hands, just as we told you, ¹²so that your daily life may win the respect of outsiders and so that you will not be dependent on anybody.

The Coming of the Lord

¹³Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest, who have no hope. ¹⁴We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. ¹⁵According to the Lord's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord for ever. ¹⁸Therefore encourage each other with these words.

S Now, brothers and sisters, about times and dates we do not need to write to you, ²for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. ³While people are saying, "Peace and safety", destruction will come on them suddenly, as labour pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

⁴But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness so that this day should surprise you like a thief. ⁵You are all children of the light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness.

⁶So then, let us not be like others, who are asleep, but let us be alert and self-controlled. ⁷For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. ⁸But since we belong to the day, let us be self-controlled, putting on faith and love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation as a helmet. ⁹For God did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁰He died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with him. ¹¹Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.

Final Instructions

¹²Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to respect those who work hard among you, who are over you in the Lord and who admonish you. ¹³Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other. ¹⁴And we urge you, brothers and sisters, warn those who are idle, encourage the timid, help the weak, be patient with everyone. ¹⁵Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always try to be kind to each other and to everyone else.

¹⁶Be joyful always; ¹⁷pray continually; ¹⁸give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

¹⁹Do not put out the Spirit's fire; ²⁰do not treat prophecies with contempt. ²¹Test everything. Hold on to the good. ²²Avoid every kind of evil.

²³May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴The one who calls you is faithful and he will do it.

²⁵Brothers and sisters, pray for us. ²⁶Greet all God's people with a holy kiss.

²⁷I charge you before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers and sisters.

²⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1 Paul, Silas^a and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

²Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³We ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters, and rightly so, because your faith is growing more and more, and the love every one of you has for each other is increasing. ⁴Therefore, among God's churches we boast about your perseverance and faith in all the persecutions and trials you are enduring.

⁵All this is evidence that God's judgment is right, and as a result you will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering. ⁶God is just: He will pay back trouble to those who trouble you ⁷and give relief to you who are troubled, and to us as well. This will happen when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven in blazing fire with his powerful angels. ⁸He will punish those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. ⁹They will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord and from the majesty of his power ¹⁰on the day he comes to be glorified in his holy people and to be marvelled at among all those who have believed. This includes you, because you believed our testimony to you.

¹¹With this in mind, we constantly pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of his calling, and that by his power he may fulfil every good purpose of yours and every act prompted by your faith. ¹²We pray this so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.^b

The Man of Lawlessness

2 Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers and sisters, ²not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come. ³Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for ⁴that day will not come, until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness^a is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. ⁵He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshipped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God.

⁶Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things? ⁷And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. ⁸For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way. ⁹And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with

^{a1} Greek Silvanus, a variant of Silas

^{b12} Or God and Lord, Jesus Christ

^{c3} Some manuscripts sin

the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendour of his coming. ⁹The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with the work of Satan displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders, ¹⁰and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. ¹¹For this reason God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie ¹²and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.

Stand Firm

¹³But we ought always to thank God for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because from the beginning God chose you^b to be saved through the sanctifying work of the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴He called you to this through our gospel, that you might share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold to the teachings^c we passed on to you, whether by word of mouth or by letter.

¹⁶May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, ¹⁷encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word.

Request for Prayer

3 Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honoured, just as it was with you. ²And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil people, for not everyone has faith. ³But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen and protect you from the evil one. ⁴We have confidence in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we command. ⁵May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perseverance.

Warning Against Idleness

⁶In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we command you, brothers and sisters, to keep away from every believer who is idle and does not live according to the teaching^a you received from us. ⁷For you yourselves know how you ought to follow our example. We were not idle when we were with you, ⁸nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it. On the contrary, we worked night and day, labouring and toiling so that we would not be a burden to any of you. ⁹We did this, not because we do not have the right to such help, but in order to make ourselves a model for you to follow. ¹⁰For even when we were with you, we gave you this rule: "Anyone who will not work shall not eat."

¹¹We hear that some among you are idle. They are not busy; they are busy-bodies. ¹²Such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and earn the bread they eat. ¹³And as for you, brothers and sisters, never tire of doing what is right.

¹⁴Take special note of those who do not obey our instruction in this letter. Do not associate with them, in order that they may feel ashamed. ¹⁵Yet do not regard them as enemies, but warn them as fellow believers.

Final Greetings

¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.

¹⁷I, Paul, write this greeting in my own hand, which is the distinguishing mark in all my letters. This is how I write.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Saviour and of Christ Jesus our hope,

²To Timothy my true son in the faith:

Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Warning Against False Teachers of the Law

³As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that you may command certain persons not to teach false doctrines any longer ⁴nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies. These promote controversies rather than God's work—which is by faith. ⁵The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. ⁶Some have wandered away from these and turned to meaningless talk. ⁷They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about or what they so confidently affirm.

⁸We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. ⁹We also know that law^a is made not for the righteous but for law-breakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious; for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰for adulterers and perverts, for slave traders and liars and perjurers—and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine ¹¹that conforms to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which he entrusted to me.

The Lord's Grace to Paul

¹²I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength, that he considered me faithful, appointing me to his service. ¹³Even though I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and a violent man, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and unbelief. ¹⁴The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵Here is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the worst. ¹⁶But for that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his unlimited patience as an example for those who would believe on him and receive eternal life. ¹⁷Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

¹⁸Timothy, my son, I give you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight, ¹⁹holding on to faith and a good conscience. Some have rejected these and so have shipwrecked their faith. ²⁰Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

Instructions on Worship

2 I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone—²for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. ³This is good, and pleases God our Saviour, ⁴who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. ⁵For there is one God and one mediator between God and human beings, Christ Jesus, himself human, ⁶who gave himself as a ransom for all—the testimony given in its proper time. ⁷And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying—and a teacher of the true faith to the Gentiles.

⁸I want men everywhere to lift up holy hands in prayer, without anger or disputing.

⁹I also want women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, ¹⁰but with good deeds, appropriate for women who profess to worship God.

¹¹A woman should learn in quietness and full submission. ¹²I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; she must be silent. ¹³For Adam was formed first, then Eve. ¹⁴And Adam was not the one deceived: it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner. ¹⁵But women^a will be saved^b through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love and holiness with propriety.

Overseers and Deacons

3 Here is a trustworthy saying: Whoever aspires to be an overseer^a desires a noble task. ²Now the overseer must be above reproach, the husband of but one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, ³not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. ⁴He must manage his own family well and see that his children obey him with proper respect. ⁵(If anyone does not know how to manage his own family, how can he take care of God's church?) ⁶He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited and fall under the same judgment as the devil. ⁷He must also have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the devil's trap.

⁸Deacons, likewise, are to be worthy of respect, sincere, not indulging in much wine, and not pursuing dishonest gain. ⁹They must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience. ¹⁰They must first be tested; and then if there is nothing against them, let them serve as deacons.

¹¹In the same way, wives^b are to be women worthy of respect, not malicious talkers but temperate and trustworthy in everything.

¹²A deacon must be the husband of but one wife and must manage his children and his household well. ¹³Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus.

¹⁴Although I hope to come to you soon, I am writing you these instructions so that, ¹⁵if I am delayed, you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great:

He^c appeared in a body,^d
was vindicated by the Spirit,
was seen by angels,
was preached among the nations,
was believed on in the world,
was taken up in glory.

Instructions to Timothy

4 The Spirit clearly says that in later times some will abandon the faith and follow deceiving spirits and things taught by demons. ²Such teachings come through hypocritical liars, whose consciences have been seared as with a hot iron. ³They

^a15 Greek she ^b15 Or restored ^c1 Traditionally bishop; also in verse 2 ^d11 Or deaconesses

^e16 Some manuscripts God ^f16 Or in the flesh

forbid people to marry and order them to abstain from certain foods, which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and who know the truth. ⁴For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, ⁵because it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer.

⁶If you point these things out to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, brought up in the truths of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed. ⁷Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; rather, train yourself to be godly. ⁸For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

⁹This is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance ¹⁰(and for this we labour and strive), that we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Saviour of all people, and especially of those who believe.

¹¹Command and teach these things.

¹²Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity. ¹³Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching. ¹⁴Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through a prophetic message when the body of elders laid their hands on you.

¹⁵Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress. ¹⁶Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Advice About Widows, Elders and Slaves

5 Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but exhort him as if he were your father. Treat younger men as brothers, ²older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.

³Give proper recognition to those widows who are really in need. ⁴But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents, for this is pleasing to God. ⁵The widow who is really in need and left all alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day to pray and to ask God for help. ⁶But the widow who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives. ⁷Give the people these instructions, too, so that no-one may be open to blame. ⁸Anyone who does not provide for relatives, and especially for immediate family members, has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹No widow may be put on the list of widows unless she is over sixty, has been faithful to her husband, ¹⁰and is well known for her good deeds, such as bringing up children, showing hospitality, washing the feet of the saints, helping those in trouble and devoting herself to all kinds of good deeds.

¹¹As for younger widows, do not put them on such a list. For when their sensual desires overcome their dedication to Christ, they want to marry. ¹²Thus they bring judgment on themselves, because they have broken their first pledge. ¹³Besides, they get into the habit of being idle and going about from house to house. And not only do they become idlers, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things they ought not to. ¹⁴So I counsel younger widows to marry, to have children, to manage their homes and to give the enemy no opportunity for slander. ¹⁵Some have in fact already turned away to follow Satan.

¹⁶If any woman who is a believer has widows in her family, she should help them and not let the church be burdened with them, so that the church can help those widows who are really in need.

¹⁷The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honour, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. ¹⁸For the Scripture says, "Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain," ^b and "Workers

^{a9} Or has had but one husband ^{b18} Deut. 25:4

deserve their wages.^{19c} ¹⁹Do not entertain an accusation against an elder unless it is brought by two or three witnesses. ²⁰Those who sin are to be rebuked publicly, so that the others may take warning.

²¹I charge you, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, to keep these instructions without partiality, and to do nothing out of favouritism.

²²Do not be hasty in the laying on of hands, and do not share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

²³Stop drinking only water, and use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses.

²⁴The sins of some are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them; the sins of others trail behind them. ²⁵In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even those that are not cannot be hidden.

6 All who are under the yoke of slavery should consider their masters worthy of full respect, so that God's name and our teaching may not be slandered. ²Those who have believing masters are not to show less respect for them because they are believers. Instead, they are to serve them even better, because those who benefit from their service are believers, and dear to them. These are the things you are to teach and urge on them.

Love of Money

³Anyone who teaches false doctrines and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, ⁴is conceited and understands nothing. Such people have an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions ⁵and constant friction between people of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain.

⁶But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. ⁸But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. ⁹Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.

Paul's Charge to Timothy

¹¹But you, man of God, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness.

¹²Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

¹³In the sight of God, who gives life to everything, and of Christ Jesus, who while testifying before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you ¹⁴to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵which God will bring about in his own time—God, the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords, ¹⁶who alone is immortal and who lives in unapproachable light, whom no-one has seen or can see. To him be honour and might for ever. Amen.

¹⁷Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. ¹⁸Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. ¹⁹In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.

²⁰Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to your care. Turn away from godless chatter and the opposing ideas of what is falsely called knowledge, ²¹which some have professed and in so doing have wandered from the faith.

Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus,

2To Timothy, my dear son:

Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Encouragement to Be Faithful

3I thank God, whom I serve, as my ancestors did, with a clear conscience, as night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers. 4Recalling your tears, I long to see you, so that I may be filled with joy. 5I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also. 6For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7For God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a spirit of power, of love and of self-discipline.

8So do not be ashamed to testify about our Lord, or ashamed of me his prisoner. But join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God, 9who has saved us and called us to a holy life—not because of anything we have done but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time, 10but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. 11And of this gospel I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher.

12That is why I am suffering as I am. Yet I am not ashamed, because I know whom I have believed, and am convinced that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him for that day.

13What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus. 14Guard the good deposit that was entrusted to you—guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

15You know that everyone in the province of Asia has deserted me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

16May the Lord show mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains. 17On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he searched hard for me until he found me. 18May the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! You know very well in how many ways he helped me in Ephesus.

2 You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people^a who will also be qualified to teach others. 3Endure hardship with us like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. 4No-one serving as a soldier gets involved in civilian affairs, but rather tries to please the commanding officer. 5Similarly, anyone who competes as an athlete does not receive the victor's crown except by competing according to the rules. ⁶The hardworking farmer should be the first to receive a share of the crops. ⁷Reflect on what I am saying, for the Lord will give you insight into all this.

⁸Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, descended from David. This is my gospel, ⁹for which I am suffering even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But God's word is not chained. ¹⁰Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

¹¹Here is a trustworthy saying:

If we died with him,
we will also live with him;

¹²if we endure,
we will also reign with him.

If we disown him,
he will also disown us;

¹³if we are faithless,
he will remain faithful,
for he cannot disown himself.

A Worker Approved by God

¹⁴Keep reminding them of these things. Warn them before God against quarreling about words; it is of no value, and only ruins those who listen. ¹⁵Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth. ¹⁶Avoid godless chatter, because those who indulge in it will become more and more ungodly. ¹⁷Their teaching will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, ¹⁸who have wandered away from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already taken place, and they destroy the faith of some. ¹⁹Nevertheless, God's solid foundation stands firm, sealed with this inscription: "The Lord knows those who are his,"^b and, "Everyone who confesses the name of the Lord must turn away from wickedness."

²⁰In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for noble purposes and some for ignoble. ²¹Any who cleanse themselves from the latter will be instruments for noble purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work.

²²Flee the evil desires of youth, and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. ²³Don't have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments, because you know they produce quarrels. ²⁴And the Lord's servants must not quarrel; instead, they must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful. ²⁵Opponents must be gently instructed, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth, ²⁶and that they will come to their senses and escape from the trap of the devil, who has taken them captive to do his will.

Godlessness in the Last Days

3 But mark this: There will be terrible times in the last days. ²People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, ⁴treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—⁵having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with them.

⁶They are the kind who worm their way into homes and gain control over weak-willed women, who are loaded down with sins and are swayed by all kinds of evil desires, ⁷always learning but never able to acknowledge the truth. ⁸Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these people oppose the truth—people of depraved minds, who, as far as the faith is concerned, are rejected. ⁹But they will not get very far because, as in the case of those men, their folly will be clear to everyone.

^{b19} Num. 16:5 (see Septuagint)

¹⁰You, however, know all about my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, ¹¹persecutions, sufferings—what kinds of things happened to me in Antioch, Iconium and Lystra, the persecutions I endured. Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. ¹²In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, ¹³while evildoers and impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, ¹⁵and how from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, ¹⁷so that God's servant may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4 In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge: ²Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction. ³For the time will come when people will not put up with sound doctrine. Instead, to suit their own desires, they will gather around them a great number of teachers to say what their itching ears want to hear. ⁴They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. ⁵But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry.

⁶For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. ⁷I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Personal Remarks

⁹Do your best to come to me quickly, ¹⁰for Demas, because he loved this world, has deserted me and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is helpful to me in my ministry. ¹²I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, and my scrolls, especially the parchments.

¹⁴Alexander the metalworker did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will repay him for what he has done. ¹⁵You too should be on your guard against him, because he strongly opposed our message.

¹⁶At my first defence, no-one came to my support, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them. ¹⁷But the Lord stood at my side and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was delivered from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹⁹Greet Priscilla^a and Aquila and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰Erastus stayed in Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick in Miletus. ²¹Do your best to get here before winter. Eubulus greets you, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia and all the brothers and sisters.

²²The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ for the faith of God's elect and the knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness—²a faith and knowledge resting on the hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before the beginning of time, ³and at his appointed season he brought his word to light through the preaching entrusted to me by the command of God our Saviour,

⁴To Titus, my true son in our common faith:

Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.

Titus' Task on Crete

⁵The reason I left you in Crete was that you might straighten out what was left unfinished and appoint^a elders in every town, as I directed you. ⁶An elder must be blameless, the husband of but one wife, a man whose children believe and are not open to the charge of being wild and disobedient. ⁷Since an overseer^b is entrusted with God's work, he must be blameless—not overbearing, not quick-tempered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not pursuing dishonest gain. ⁸Rather he must be hospitable, one who loves what is good, who is self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined. ⁹He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it.

^{a5} Or ordain ^{b7} Traditionally bishop

¹⁰For there are many rebellious people, mere talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision group. ¹¹They must be silenced, because they are ruining whole households by teaching things they ought not to teach—and that for the sake of dishonest gain. ¹²Even one of their own prophets has said, "Cretans are always liars, evil brutes, lazy gluttons." ¹³This testimony is true. Therefore, rebuke them sharply, so that they will be sound in the faith ¹⁴and will pay no attention to Jewish myths or to the commands of those who reject the truth. ¹⁵To the pure, all things are pure, but to those who are corrupted and do not believe, nothing is pure. In fact, both their minds and consciences are corrupted. ¹⁶They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him. They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good.

What Must Be Taught to Various Groups

2 You must teach what is in accord with sound doctrine. ²Teach the older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, self-controlled, and sound in faith, in love and in endurance.

³Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine, but to teach what is good. ⁴Then they can train the younger women to love their husbands and children, ⁵to be self-controlled and pure, to be busy at home, to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands, so that no-one will malign the word of God.

⁶Similarly, encourage the young men to be self-controlled. ⁷In everything set them an example by doing what is good. In your teaching show integrity, seriousness ⁸and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us.

⁹Teach slaves to be subject to their masters in everything, to try to please them, not to talk back to them, ¹⁰and not to steal from them, but to show that they can be fully trusted, so that in every way they will make the teaching about God our Saviour attractive.

¹¹For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all people. ¹²It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, ¹³while we wait for the blessed hope—the glorious appearing of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ, ¹⁴who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good.

¹⁵These, then, are the things you should teach. Encourage and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you.

Doing What is Good

3 Remind the people to be subject to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to do whatever is good, ²to slander no-one, to be peaceable and considerate, and to show true humility towards everyone.

³At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another. ⁴But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour appeared, ⁵he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, ⁶whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Saviour, ⁷so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life. ⁸This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

⁹But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and arguments and quarrels about the law, because these are unprofitable and useless. ¹⁰Warn divisive people once, and then warn them a second time. After that, have nothing to do with them. ¹¹You may be sure that such people are warped and sinful; they are self-condemned.

Final Remarks

¹²As soon as I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to winter there. ¹³Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way and see that they have everything they need. ¹⁴Our people must learn to devote themselves to doing what is good, in order that they may provide for daily necessities and not live unproductive lives.

¹⁵Everyone with me sends you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

¹Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our dear friend and fellow-worker, ²to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier and to the church that meets in your home:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

⁴I always thank my God as I remember you in my prayers, ⁵because I hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints. ⁶I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ. ⁷Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints.

Paul's Plea for Onesimus

⁸Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do, ⁹yet I appeal to you on the basis of love. I then, as Paul—an old man and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus—¹⁰I appeal to you for my son Onesimus,^a who became my son while I was in chains. ¹¹Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me.

¹²I am sending him—who is my very heart—back to you. ¹³I would have liked to keep him with me so that he could take your place in helping me while I am in chains for the gospel. ¹⁴But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favour you do will be spontaneous and not forced. ¹⁵Perhaps the reason he was separated from you for a little while was that you might have him back for good—¹⁶no longer as a slave, but better than a slave, as a dear fellow believer. He is very dear to me but even dearer to you, both as a person and as a fellow believer in the Lord.

¹⁷So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. ¹⁸If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me. ¹⁹I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I will pay it back—not to mention that you owe me your very self. ²⁰I do wish, brother, that I may have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. ²¹Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

²²And one thing more: Prepare a guest room for me, because I hope to be restored to you in answer to your prayers.

²³Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you greetings. ²⁴And so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke, my fellow-workers.

²⁵The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

^a10 Onesimus means useful.

Hebrews

The Son Superior to Angels

1 In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways,² but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe.³ The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.⁴ So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs.

⁵For to which of the angels did God ever say,

"You are my Son;
today I have become your Father"^{a, b?}

Or again,

"I will be his Father,
and he will be my Son"^{c?}

⁶And again, when God brings his firstborn into the world, he says,

"Let all God's angels worship him."^d

⁷In speaking of the angels he says,

"He makes his angels winds,
his servants flames of fire."^e

⁸But about the Son he says,

"Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever,
and righteousness will be the sceptre of your kingdom.

⁹You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;
therefore God, your God, has set
you above your companions
by anointing you with the oil of joy."^f

¹⁰He also says,

"In the beginning, O Lord, you laid
the foundations of the earth,
and the heavens are the work of
your hands.

¹¹They will perish, but you remain;
they will all wear out like a garment.

¹²You will roll them up like a robe;
like a garment they will be changed.
But you remain the same,
and your years will never end."^g

¹³To which of the angels did God ever say,

"Sit at my right hand
until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet"^{h?}

¹⁴Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?

Warning to Pay Attention

2 We must pay more careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.² For if the message spoken by angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment,³ how shall we escape

^{a5} Or have begotten you ^{b5} Psalm 2:7 ^{c5} 2 Samuel 7:14; 1 Chron. 17:13

^{d6} Deut. 32:43 (see Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint) ^{e7} Psalm 104:4 ^{f9} Psalm 45:6,7

^{g12} Psalm 102:25-27 ^{h13} Psalm 110:1

if we ignore such a great salvation? This salvation, which was first announced by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard him. ⁴God also testified to it by signs, wonders and various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will.

Jesus Made Like His Brothers and Sisters

⁵It is not to angels that he has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking. ⁶But there is a place where someone has testified:

“What is a human being that you are mindful of him,
the son of man that you care for him?”

⁷You made him a little^a lower than the angels;
you crowned him with glory and honour

⁸ and put everything under his feet.”^b

In putting everything under him, God left nothing that is not subject to him. Yet at present we do not see everything subject to him. ⁹But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because he suffered death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

¹⁰In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the author of their salvation perfect through suffering. ¹¹Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters. ¹²He says,

“I will declare your name to my brothers and sisters;
in the presence of the congregation
I will sing your praises.”^c

¹³And again,

“I will put my trust in him.”^d

And again he says,

“Here am I, and the children God has given me.”^e

¹⁴Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil—¹⁵and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. ¹⁶For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham’s descendants. ¹⁷For this reason he had to be made like his brothers and sisters in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁸Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Jesus Greater Than Moses

3 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, who share in the heavenly calling, fix your thoughts on Jesus, the apostle and high priest whom we confess. ²He was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses was faithful in all God’s house. ³Jesus has been found worthy of greater honour than Moses, just as the builder of a house has greater honour than the house itself. ⁴For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything. ⁵Moses was faithful as a servant in all God’s house, testifying to what would be said in the future. ⁶But Christ is faithful as a son over God’s house. And we are his house, if we hold on to our courage and the hope of which we boast.

Warning Against Unbelief

⁷So, as the Holy Spirit says:

“Today, if you hear his voice,
⁸ do not harden your hearts
as you did in the rebellion,

^{a7} Or him for a little while; also in verse 9

^{b8} Or What are mere mortals that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them? ⁱ You made them a little lower than the angels; you crowned them with glory and honour and put everything under their feet. Psalm 8:4–6

^{c12} Psalm 22:22 ^{d13} Isaiah 8:17 ^{e13} Isaiah 8:18 ^{f17} Or and that he might turn aside God’s wrath, taking away

during the time of testing in the desert, 9 where your ancestors tested and tried me
 and for forty years saw what I did.
 10 That is why I was angry with that generation,
 and I said, 'Their hearts are always going astray,
 and they have not known my ways.'
 11 So I declared on oath in my anger,
 'They shall never enter my rest.'"^a 12 See to it, brothers and sisters, that none of you has a sinful, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God. 13 But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness. 14 We have come to share in Christ if we hold firmly till the end the confidence we had at first. 15 As has just been said:

"Today, if you hear his voice,
 do not harden your hearts
 as you did in the rebellion."^b

16 Who were they who heard and rebelled? Were they not all those Moses led out of Egypt? 17 And with whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the desert? 18 And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest if not to those who disobeyed? 19 So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.

A Sabbath-rest for the People of God

4 Therefore, since the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be found to have fallen short of it. 2 For we also have had the gospel preached to us, just as they did; but the message they heard was of no value to them, because those who heard did not combine it with faith.^a 3 Now we who have believed enter that rest, just as God has said,

"So I declared on oath in my anger,
 'They shall never enter my rest.'"^b

And yet his work has been finished since the creation of the world. 4 For somewhere he has spoken about the seventh day in these words: "And on the seventh day God rested from all his work."^c 5 And again in the passage above he says, "They shall never enter my rest."

6 It still remains that some will enter that rest, and those who formerly had the gospel preached to them did not go in, because of their disobedience. 7 Therefore God again set a certain day, calling it Today, when a long time later he spoke through David, as was said before:

"Today, if you hear his voice,
 do not harden your hearts."^d

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day. 9 There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; 10 for those who enter God's rest also rest from their own work, just as God did from his. 11 Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no-one will fall by following their example of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. 13 Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

Jesus the Great High Priest

14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens,^e Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. 15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathise with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin. 16 Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

^a11 Psalm 95:7-11 ^b15 Psalm 95:7,8 ^c18 Or disbelieved

^d2 Many manuscripts because they did not share in the faith of those who obeyed

^e4 Gen. 2:2 ^d7 Psalm 95:7,8 ^e14 Or gone into heaven

^b3 Psalm 95:11; also in verse 5

5 Every high priest is selected from among human beings and is appointed to represent them in matters related to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and are going astray, since he himself is subject to weakness. ³This is why he has to offer sacrifices for his own sins, as well as for the sins of the people.

⁴No-one takes this honour upon himself; he must be called by God, just as Aaron was. ⁵So Christ also did not take upon himself the glory of becoming a high priest. But God said to him,

“You are my Son;
today I have become your Father.”^{a, b}

⁶And he says in another place,

“You are a priest for ever,
in the order of Melchizedek.”^c

⁷During the days of Jesus’ life on earth, he offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the one who could save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. ⁸Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered ⁹and, once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him ¹⁰and was designated by God to be high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

Warning Against Falling Away

¹¹We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain because you are slow to learn. ¹²In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the elementary truths of God’s word all over again. You need milk, not solid food! ¹³Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. ¹⁴But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.

^{a5} Or have begotten you
^{b6} Or repentance while

^{b5} Psalm 2:7
^{c14} Gen. 22:17

^{c6} Psalm 110:4

6 Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death,^a and of faith in God, ²instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³And God permitting, we will do so.

⁴It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit, ⁵who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age, ⁶if they fall away, to be brought back to repentance, because^b to their loss they are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting him to public disgrace.

⁷Land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is farmed receives the blessing of God. ⁸But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless and is in danger of being cursed. In the end it will be burned.

⁹Even though we speak like this, dear friends, we are confident of better things in your case—things that accompany salvation. ¹⁰God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them. ¹¹We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, in order to make your hope sure. ¹²We do not want you to become lazy, but to imitate those who through faith and patience inherit what has been promised.

The Certainty of God’s Promise

¹³When God made his promise to Abraham, since there was no-one greater for him to swear by, he swore by himself, ¹⁴saying, “I will surely bless you and give you many descendants.”^c ¹⁵And so after waiting patiently, Abraham received what was promised.

¹⁶People swear by someone greater than themselves, and the oath confirms what is said and puts an end to all argument.

^{a1} Or from useless rituals

¹⁷Because God wanted to make the unchanging nature of his purpose very clear to the heirs of what was promised, he confirmed it with an oath. ¹⁸God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope offered to us may be greatly encouraged. ¹⁹We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, ²⁰where Jesus, who went before us, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest for ever, in the order of Melchizedek.

Melchizedek the Priest

7 This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him, ²and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. First, his name means “king of righteousness”; then also, “king of Salem” means “king of peace”. ³Without father or mother, without genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God he remains a priest for ever.

⁴Just think how great he was: Even the patriarch Abraham gave him a tenth of the plunder! ⁵Now the law requires the descendants of Levi who become priests to collect a tenth from the people—that is, from the members of their own nation—even though they are descended from Abraham. ⁶This man, however, did not trace his descent from Levi, yet he collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. ⁷And without doubt the lesser person is blessed by the greater. ⁸In the one case, the tenth is collected by those who die; but in the other case, by him who is declared to be living. ⁹One might even say that Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham, ¹⁰because when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the body of his ancestor.

Jesus Like Melchizedek

¹¹If perfection could have been attained through the Levitical priesthood

(for on the basis of it the law was given to the people), why was there still need for another priest to come—one in the order of Melchizedek, not in the order of Aaron? ¹²For when there is a change of the priesthood, there must also be a change of the law. ¹³He of whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe, and no-one from that tribe has ever served at the altar. ¹⁴For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah, and in regard to that tribe Moses said nothing about priests. ¹⁵And what we have said is even more clear if another priest like Melchizedek appears, ¹⁶one who has become a priest not on the basis of a regulation as to his ancestry but on the basis of the power of an indestructible life. ¹⁷For it is declared:

“You are a priest for ever,
in the order of Melchizedek.”^a

¹⁸The former regulation is set aside because it was weak and useless ¹⁹(for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.

²⁰And it was not without an oath! Others became priests without any oath, ²¹but he became a priest with an oath when God said to him:

“The Lord has sworn
and will not change his mind:
‘You are a priest for ever.’”^b

²²Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

²³Now there have been many of those priests, since death prevented them from continuing in office; ²⁴but because Jesus lives for ever, he has a permanent priesthood. ²⁵Therefore he is able to save completely^c those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.

²⁶Such a high priest meets our need—one who is holy, blameless, pure, set apart from sinners, exalted above the heavens.

²⁷Unlike the other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices day after day,

^a17 Psalm 110:4 ^b21 Psalm 110:4 ^c25 Or for ever

first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. He sacrificed for their sins once for all when he offered himself.²⁸ For the law appoints as high priests men who are weak; but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect for ever.

The High Priest of a New Covenant

8 The point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven,² and who serves in the sanctuary, the true tabernacle set up by the Lord, not by any human being.

³ Every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, and so it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer. ⁴ If he were on earth, he would not be a priest, for there are already priests who offer the gifts prescribed by the law. ⁵ They serve at a sanctuary that is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."^a ⁶ But the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant of which he is mediator is superior to the old one, and it is founded on better promises.

⁷ For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another. ⁸ But God found fault with the people and said:^b

"The time is coming, declares the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.
⁹ It will not be like the covenant
I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of Egypt,
because they did not remain faithful to my covenant,
and I turned away from them,
declares the Lord.

¹⁰ This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

¹¹ No longer will they teach their neighbours, or say to one another, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

¹² For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more."^c

¹³ By calling this covenant "new", he has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and ageing will soon disappear.

Worship in the Earthly Tabernacle

9 Now the first covenant had regulations for worship and also an earthly sanctuary. ² A tabernacle was set up. In its first room were the lampstand, the table and the consecrated bread; this was called the Holy Place. ³ Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place, ⁴ which had the golden altar of incense and the gold-covered ark of the covenant. This ark contained the gold jar of manna, Aaron's staff that had budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant. ⁵ Above the ark were the cherubim of the Glory, overshadowing the atonement cover.^a But we cannot discuss these things in detail now.

⁶ When everything had been arranged like this, the priests entered regularly into the outer room to carry on their ministry. ⁷ But only the high priest entered the inner room, and that only once a year, and never without blood, which he offered for himself and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance. ⁸ The Holy Spirit was showing by this that the way into the Most Holy Place had not yet been disclosed as long as the first tabernacle was still standing. ⁹ This is an illustration for the present time, indicating that the gifts and sacrifices being offered were not able to clear the conscience of the worshipper. ¹⁰They are only a matter of food and drink and various ceremonial washings—external regulations applying until the time of the new order.

^{a5} Exodus 25:40 ^{b8} Some manuscripts may be translated fault and said to the people. ^{c12} Jer. 31:31–34

^{a5} Traditionally the mercy seat

The Blood of Christ

¹¹When Christ came as high priest of the good things that are already here,^b he went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that is not made with human hands, that is to say, not a part of this creation. ¹²He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves; but he entered the Most Holy Place once for all by his own blood, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean. ¹⁴How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death,^c so that we may serve the living God!

¹⁵For this reason Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance—now that he has died as a ransom to set them free from the sins committed under the first covenant.

¹⁶In the case of a will,^d it is necessary to prove the death of the one who made it, ¹⁷because a will is in force only when somebody has died; it never takes effect while the one who made it is living. ¹⁸This is why even the first covenant was not put into effect without blood. ¹⁹When Moses had proclaimed every commandment of the law to all the people, he took the blood of calves, together with water, scarlet wool and branches of hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll and all the people. ²⁰He said, “This is the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you to keep.”^e ²¹In the same way, he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and everything used in its ceremonies. ²²In fact, the law requires that nearly everything be cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

²³It was necessary, then, for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made with human hands that was only a copy of the true one; he entered heaven itself, now to appear for us in God’s presence. ²⁵Nor did he enter heaven to offer himself again and again, the way the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own. ²⁶Then Christ would have had to suffer many times since the creation of the world. But now he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to do away with sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷Just as people are destined to die once, and after that to face judgment, ²⁸so Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many people; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Christ’s Sacrifice Once for All

10 The law is only a shadow of the good things that are coming—not the realities themselves. For this reason it can never, by the same sacrifices repeated endlessly year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship. ²If it could, would they not have stopped being offered? For the worshippers would have been cleansed once for all, and would no longer have felt guilty for their sins. ³But those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins, ⁴because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵Therefore, when Christ came into the world, he said:

“Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,
but a body you prepared for me;

^{b11} Some early manuscripts are to come ^{c14} Or from useless rituals

^{d16} Same Greek word as covenant; also in verse 17 ^{e20} Exodus 24:8

⁶with burnt offerings and sin offerings you were not pleased.

⁷Then I said, 'Here I am—it is written about me in the scroll—
I have come to do your will,
O God.'"^a

⁸First he said, "Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings you did not desire, nor were you pleased with them" (although the law required them to be made). ⁹Then he said, "Here I am, I have come to do your will." He sets aside the first to establish the second. ¹⁰And by that will, we have been made holy through the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

¹¹Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; again and again he offers the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹²But when this priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God. ¹³Since that time he waits for his enemies to be made his footstool, ¹⁴because by one sacrifice he has made perfect for ever those who are being made holy.

¹⁵The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First he says:

¹⁶"This is the covenant I will make with them
after that time, says the Lord.
I will put my laws in their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds."^b

¹⁷Then he adds:

"Their sins and lawless acts
I will remember no more."^c

¹⁸And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin.

A Call to Persevere

¹⁹Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider how we may spur one another on towards love and good deeds. ²⁵Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

²⁶If we deliberately keep on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sins is left, ²⁷but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume the enemies of God. ²⁸Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. ²⁹How much more severely do you think those deserve to be punished who have trampled the Son of God under foot, who have treated as an unholy thing the blood of the covenant that sanctified them, and who have insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰For we know him who said, "It is mine to avenge; I will repay,"^d and again, "The Lord will judge his people."^e ³¹It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

³²Remember those earlier days after you had received the light, when you stood your ground in a great contest in the face of suffering. ³³Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insult and persecution; at other times you stood side by side with those who were so treated. ³⁴You sympathised with those in prison and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves had better and lasting possessions.

³⁵So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. ³⁶You need to persevere so that when you have

^a7 Psalm 40:6–8 (see Septuagint)

^b16 Jer. 31:33

^c17 Jer. 31:34

^d30 Deut. 32:35

^e30 Deut. 32:36; Psalm 135:14

done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised. ³⁷For in just a very little while,

"He who is coming will come and will not delay.

³⁸ But my righteous one^f will live by faith.

And I take no pleasure
in the one who shrinks back."^g

³⁹But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who believe and are saved.

By Faith

11 Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. ²This is what the ancients were commended for.

³By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.

⁴By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was commended as righteous, when God spoke well of his offerings. And by faith he still speaks, even though he is dead.

⁵By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death; he could not be found, because God had taken him away. For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God. ⁶And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

⁷By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

⁸By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. ⁹By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

¹¹By faith Abraham, even though he was past age—and Sarah herself was barren—was enabled to become a father because he^a considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹²And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

¹³All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance. And they admitted that they were aliens and strangers on earth. ¹⁴People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. ¹⁵If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice. He who had received the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son, ¹⁸even though God had said to him, "It is through Isaac that your offspring^b will be reckoned."^c ¹⁹Abraham reasoned that God could raise the dead, and figuratively speaking, he did receive Isaac back from death.

²⁰By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau in regard to their future.

²¹By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons, and worshipped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

²²By faith Joseph, when his end was near, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt and gave instructions about his bones.

²³By faith Moses' parents hid him for

^f38 One early manuscript But the righteous ^g38 Hab. 2:3,4

^h11 Or By faith even Sarah, who was past age, was enabled to bear children because she

^b18 Greek seed ^c18 Gen. 21:12

three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

²⁴By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. ²⁵He chose to be ill-treated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time. ²⁶He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. ²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. ²⁸By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

²⁹By faith the people passed through the Red Sea^d as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to do so, they were drowned.

³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days.

³¹By faith the prostitute Rahab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient.^e

³²And what more shall I say? I do not have time to tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel and the prophets, ³³who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions, ³⁴quenched the fury of the flames, and escaped the edge of the sword; whose weakness was turned to strength; and who became powerful in battle and routed foreign armies. ³⁵Women received back their dead, raised to life again. Others were tortured and refused to be released, so that they might gain a better resurrection. ³⁶Some faced jeers and flogging, while still others were chained and put in prison. ³⁷They were stoned;^f they were sawn in two; they were put to death by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and ill-treated—³⁸the world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

³⁹These were all commended for their faith, yet none of them received what had been promised. ⁴⁰God had planned something better for us so that only together with us would they be made perfect.

God Disciplines His Children

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. ²Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. ³Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

⁴In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. ⁵And you have forgotten that word of encouragement that addresses you as children:

"My child, do not make light of the Lord's discipline,

and do not lose heart when he rebukes you,

⁶because the Lord disciplines those he loves,

and he punishes everyone he accepts as a child."^a ⁷Endure hardship as discipline; God is treating you as children. For what children are not disciplined by their parents?

⁸If you are not disciplined (and everyone undergoes discipline), then you are illegitimate and not true children. ⁹Moreover, we have all had human parents who disciplined us and we respected them for it. How much more should we submit to the Father of our spirits and live! ¹⁰Our parents disciplined us for a little while as they thought best; but God disciplines us

^{d29} That is, Sea of Reeds ^{e31} Or unbelieving ^{f37} Some early manuscripts stoned; they were put to the test;

^{a6} Prov. 3:11,12

for our good, that we may share in his holiness. ¹¹No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.

¹²Therefore, strengthen your feeble arms and weak knees! ¹³"Make level paths for your feet," ^b so that the lame may not be disabled, but rather healed.

Warning Against Refusing God

¹⁴Make every effort to live in peace with everyone and to be holy; without holiness no-one will see the Lord. ¹⁵See to it that no-one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. ¹⁶See that no-one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son. ¹⁷Afterwards, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. He could bring about no change of mind, though he sought the blessing with tears.

¹⁸You have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that is burning with fire; to darkness, gloom and storm; ¹⁹to a trumpet blast or to such a voice speaking words that those who heard it begged that no further word be spoken to them, ²⁰because they could not bear what was commanded: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned."^c ²¹The sight was so terrifying that Moses said, "I am trembling with fear."^d

²²But you have come to Mount Zion, to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God. You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly, ²³to the church of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all people, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, ²⁴to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

²⁵See to it that you do not refuse him who speaks. If they did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, how much less will we, if we turn away from him who warns us from heaven? ²⁶At that time his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, "Once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens."^e ²⁷The words "once more" indicate the removing of what can be shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

²⁸Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe, ²⁹for our "God is a consuming fire."^f

Concluding Exhortations

13 Keep on loving each other as brothers and sisters. ²Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it. ³Remember those in prison as if you were together with them in prison, and those who are ill-treated as if you yourselves were suffering.

⁴Marriage should be honoured by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral. ⁵Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said,

"Never will I leave you;
never will I forsake you."^a ⁶So we say with confidence,

"The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid.

What can human beings do to me?"^b

⁷Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

⁹Do not be carried away by all kinds of

^{b13} Prov. 4:26 ^{c20} Exodus 19:12,13 ^{d21} Deut. 9:19

strange teachings. It is good for our hearts to be strengthened by grace, not by ceremonial foods, which are of no value to those who eat them. ¹⁰We have an altar from which those who minister at the tabernacle have no right to eat.

¹¹The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Place as a sin offering, but the bodies are burned outside the camp. ¹²And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate to make the people holy through his own blood. ¹³Let us, then, go to him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace he bore. ¹⁴For here we do not have an enduring city, but we are looking for the city that is to come.

¹⁵Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that confess his name. ¹⁶And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to their authority. They keep watch over you as those who must give an account. Obey them so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no advantage to you.

¹⁸Pray for us. We are sure that we have a clear conscience and desire to live honourably in every way. ¹⁹I particularly urge you to pray so that I may be restored to you soon.

²⁰May the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, ²¹equip you with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in us what is pleasing to him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

²²Brothers and sisters, I urge you to bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written you only a short letter.

²³I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he arrives soon, I will come with him to see you.

²⁴Greet all your leaders and all God's people. Those from Italy send you their greetings.

²⁵Grace be with you all.

James

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes scattered among the nations:

Greetings.

Trials and Temptations

²Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, ³because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. ⁴Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. ⁵If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. ⁶But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷Those who doubt should not think they will receive anything from the Lord; ⁸they are double-minded and unstable in all they do.

⁹Believers in humble circumstances ought to take pride in their high position. ¹⁰But those who are rich should take pride in their low position, because they will pass away like a wild flower. ¹¹For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the plant; its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed. In the same way, the rich will fade away even while they go about their business.

¹²Blessed are those who persevere under trial, because when they have stood the test, they will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.

¹³When tempted, no-one should say, "God is tempting me." For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; ¹⁴but each of you is tempted when, by your own evil desire, you are dragged away and enticed. ¹⁵Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.

¹⁶Don't be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters. ¹⁷Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. ¹⁸He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of first-fruits of all he created.

Listening and Doing

¹⁹My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, ²⁰for human anger does not bring about the righteous life that God desires. ²¹Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent, and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.

²²Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. ²³Those who listen to the word but do not do what it says are like people who look at their faces in a mirror ²⁴and, after looking at themselves, go away and immediately forget what they look like. ²⁵But those who look intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continue to do this, not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

²⁶Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless. ²⁷Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

Favouritism Forbidden

2 My brothers and sisters, as believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ, don't show favouritism. ²Suppose someone comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor person in shabby clothes also comes in. ³If you show special attention to the one wearing fine clothes and say, "Here's a good seat for you," but say to the one who is poor, "You stand there" or "Sit on the floor by my feet," ⁴have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

⁵Listen, my dear brothers and sisters: Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him? ⁶But you have insulted the poor. Is it not the rich who are exploiting you? Are they not the ones who are dragging you into court? ⁷Are they not the ones who are slandering the noble name of him to whom you belong?

⁸If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, "Love your neighbour as yourself,"^a you are doing right. ⁹But if you show favouritism, you sin and are convicted by the law as law-breakers. ¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it. ¹¹For he who said, "Do not commit adultery,"^b also said, "Do not murder."^c If you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a law-breaker.

¹²Speak and act as those who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom, ¹³because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment!

Faith and Deeds

¹⁴What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if people claim to have faith but have no deeds? Can such faith save them? ¹⁵Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. ¹⁶If one of you says to them, "Go, I wish you well; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? ¹⁷In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

¹⁸But someone will say, "You have faith; I have deeds."

Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by what I do. ¹⁹You believe that there is one God. Good! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

²⁰You foolish person, do you want evidence that faith without deeds is useless?^d

²¹Was not our father Abraham considered righteous for what he did when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? ²²You see that his faith and his actions were working together, and his faith was made complete by what he did. ²³And the scripture was fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,"^e and he was called God's friend. ²⁴You see that people are justified by what they do and not by faith alone.

²⁵In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute considered righteous for what she did when she gave lodging to the spies and sent them off in a different direction? ²⁶As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

Taming the Tongue

3 Not many of you should presume to be teachers, my brothers and sisters, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly. ²We all stumble in many ways. Those who are never at

^a Lev. 19:18 ^b11 Exodus 20:14; Deut. 5:18 ^c11 Exodus 20:13; Deut. 5:17

^d20 Some early manuscripts dead ^e23 Gen. 15:6

fault in what they say are perfect, able to keep their whole body in check.

³When we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can turn the whole animal. ⁴Or take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go. ⁵Likewise the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark. ⁶The tongue also is a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person, sets the whole course of one's life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.

⁷All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by people, ⁸but no-one can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

⁹With the tongue we praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people, who have been made in God's likeness.

¹⁰Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this should not be. ¹¹Can both fresh water and salt^a water flow from the same spring?

¹²My brothers and sisters, can a fig-tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water.

Two Kinds of Wisdom

¹³Who are wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. ¹⁴But if you harbour bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth. ¹⁵Such "wisdom" does not come down from heaven but is earthly, unspiritual, of the devil. ¹⁶For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice.

¹⁷But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. ¹⁸Peacemakers who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness.

⁵ Or that God jealously longs for the spirit that he made to live in us; or that the Spirit he caused to live in us longs jealously ^{b6} Prov. 3:34

Submit Yourselves to God

4 What causes fights and quarrels among you? Don't they come from your desires that battle within you? ²You want something but don't get it. You kill and covet, but you cannot have what you want. You quarrel and fight. You do not have, because you do not ask God. ³When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.

⁴You adulterous people, don't you know that friendship with the world is hatred towards God? Anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God. ⁵Or do you think Scripture says without reason that the spirit he caused to live in us envies intensely?^a ⁶But he gives us more grace. That is why Scripture says:

"God opposes the proud
but gives grace to the humble."^b

⁷Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

⁸Come near to God and he will come near to you. Wash your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

⁹Grieve, mourn and wail. Change your laughter to mourning and your joy to gloom. ¹⁰Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

¹¹Brothers and sisters, do not slander one another. Anyone who speaks against a brother or sister or judges them speaks against the law and judges it. When you judge the law, you are not keeping it, but sitting in judgment on it. ¹²There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the one who is able to save and destroy. But you—who are you to judge your neighbour?

Boasting About Tomorrow

¹³Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money." ¹⁴Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. ¹⁵Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." ¹⁶As it is, you boast and brag. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷So, then, if you know the good you ought to do and don't do it, you sin.

Warning to Rich Oppressors

5 Now listen, you rich people, weep and wail because of the misery that is coming upon you. ²Your wealth has rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes. ³Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days. ⁴Look! The wages you failed to pay the workers who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty. ⁵You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened yourselves in the day of slaughter.^a ⁶You have condemned and murdered innocent people, who were not opposing you.

Patience in Suffering

⁷Be patient, then, brothers and sisters, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer waits for the land to yield its valuable crop, patiently waiting for the autumn and spring rains. ⁸You too, be patient and stand firm, because the Lord's coming is near. ⁹Don't grumble against each other, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. The Judge is standing at the door!

¹⁰Brothers and sisters, as an example of patience in the face of suffering, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹As you know, we consider blessed those who have persevered. You have heard of Job's perseverance and have seen what the Lord finally brought about. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

¹²Above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear—not by heaven or by earth or by anything else. Let your "Yes" be yes, and your "No", no, or you will be condemned.

The Prayer of Faith

¹³Is any one of you in trouble? You should pray. Is anyone happy? Sing songs of praise. ¹⁴Is any one of you sick? Call the elders of the church to pray over you and anoint you with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer offered in faith will make you well; the Lord will raise you up. If you have sinned, you will be forgiven. ¹⁶Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.

¹⁷Elijah was human just as we are. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. ¹⁸Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops.

¹⁹My brothers and sisters, if one of you should wander from the truth and someone should bring that person back, ²⁰remember this: Those who turn sinners from the error of their ways will save them from death and cover over a multitude of sins.

^a Or yourselves as in a day of feasting

1 Peter

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To God's elect, strangers in the world, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, ²who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and sprinkling by his blood:

Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

Praise to God for a Living Hope

³Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade—kept in heaven for you, ⁵who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. ⁷These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹for you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who spoke of the grace that was to come to you, searched intently and with the greatest care, ¹¹trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. ¹²It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.

Be Holy

¹³Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled; set your hope fully on the grace to be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed. ¹⁴As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance. ¹⁵But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; ¹⁶for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."^a

¹⁷Since you call on a Father who judges each person's work impartially, live your lives as strangers here in reverent fear. ¹⁸For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your ancestors, ¹⁹but with the precious blood of

^a16 Lev. 11:44,45; 19:2; 20:7

Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.²⁰ He was chosen before the creation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake.²¹ Through him you believe in God, who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so your faith and hope are in God.

²² Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere mutual affection, love one another deeply, from the heart.^b ²³ For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.²⁴ For,

“All human beings are like grass,
and all their glory is like the flowers
of the field;
the grass withers and the flowers fall, ²⁵ but the word of the Lord stands for ever.”^c

And this is the word that was preached to you.

2 Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind.² Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation,³ now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.

The Living Stone and a Chosen People

⁴ As you come to him, the living Stone—rejected by human beings but chosen by God and precious to him—⁵ you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.⁶ For in Scripture it says:

“See, I lay a stone in Zion,
a chosen and precious cornerstone,
and the one who trusts in him
will never be put to shame.”^a

⁷ Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe,

“The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone.”^{b, c}

⁸ and,

“A stone that causes people to stumble
and a rock that makes them fall.”^d

They stumble because they disobey the message—which is also what they were destined for.

⁹ But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.¹⁰ Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

¹¹ Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul.¹² Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.

Submission to Rulers and Masters

¹³ Submit yourselves to the Lord's sake to every human authority: whether to the king, as the supreme authority,¹⁴ or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right.¹⁵ For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish people.¹⁶ Live as free persons, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God.¹⁷ Show proper respect to everyone: Love the brothers and sisters, fear God, honour the king.

¹⁸ Slaves, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and considerate, but also to those who are harsh.¹⁹ For it is commendable if you bear up under the pain of unjust suffering because you are conscious of God.²⁰ But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. ²¹To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

²²"He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth."^e

²³When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. ²⁴He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. ²⁵For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Wives and Husbands

3 Wives, in the same way be submissive to your husbands so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behaviour of their wives, ²when they see the purity and reverence of your lives. ³Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as braided hair and the wearing of gold jewellery and fine clothes. ⁴Instead, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God's sight. ⁵For this is the way the holy women of the past who put their hope in God used to make themselves beautiful. They were submissive to their own husbands, ⁶like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her master. You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.

⁷Husbands, in the same way be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with respect as the weaker partner and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.

Suffering for Doing Good

⁸Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love one another, be compassionate and humble. ⁹Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult, but with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing. ¹⁰For,

"Whoever among you would love life and see good days must keep your tongue from evil and your lips from deceitful speech.

¹¹Turn from evil and do good; seek peace and pursue it.

¹²For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."^a ¹³Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good? ¹⁴But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. "Do not fear what they fear;^b do not be frightened."^c ¹⁵But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, ¹⁶keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behaviour in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. ¹⁷It is better, if it is God's will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil. ¹⁸For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit, ¹⁹through whom^d also he went and preached to the spirits in prison ²⁰who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water, ²¹and this water symbolises baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge^e of a good conscience towards God. It saves you by the resurrection of

^a22 Isaiah 53:9 ^a12 Psalm 34:12–16 ^b14 Or not fear their threats ^c14 Isaiah 8:12
^d18,19 Or alive in the spirit, ¹⁹through which ^e21 Or response

Jesus Christ, ²²who has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

Living for God

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered in his body, arm yourselves also with the same attitude, because all who have suffered in their bodies are done with sin. ²As a result, they do not live the rest of their earthly lives for evil human desires, but rather for the will of God. ³For you have spent enough time in the past doing what pagans choose to do—living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing and detestable idolatry. ⁴They think it strange that you do not plunge with them into the same flood of dissipation, and they heap abuse on you. ⁵But they will have to give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead, so that they might be judged according to human standards in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.

⁷The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled so that you can pray. ⁸Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. ⁹Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. ¹⁰Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms. ¹¹If you speak, you should do it as those who speak the very words of God. If you serve, you should do it with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Suffering for Being a Christian

¹²Dear friends, do not be surprised at the painful trial you are suffering, as though something strange were happening to you. ¹³But rejoice that you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed. ¹⁴If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. ¹⁵If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler. ¹⁶However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name. ¹⁷For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God? ¹⁸And,

“If it is hard for the righteous to be saved,
what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?”^a

¹⁹So then, those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

To Elders and Young Men

5 To the elders among you, I appeal as an elder myself, a witness of Christ's sufferings and one who also will share in the glory to be revealed: ²Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve; ³not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. ⁴And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.

⁵In the same way, you who are younger, be submissive to those who are older. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility towards one another, because,

“God opposes the proud
but gives grace to the humble.”^a

⁶Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. ⁷Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

⁸Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. ⁹Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers and sisters throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

¹⁰And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. ¹¹To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹²With the help of Silas,^b whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

¹³She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you her greetings, and so does my son Mark. ¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who through the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ have received a faith as precious as ours:

²Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

Making One's Calling and Election Sure

³His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. ⁴Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

⁵For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; ⁶and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; ⁷and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love. ⁸For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹But if any of you do not have them, you are short-sighted and blind, and you have forgotten that you have been cleansed from your past sins.

¹⁰Therefore, my brothers and sisters, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never fall, ¹¹and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Prophecy of Scripture

¹²So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have. ¹³I think it is right to refresh your memory as long as I live in the tent of this body, ¹⁴because I know that I will soon put it aside, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. ¹⁵And I will make every effort to see that after my departure you will always be able to remember these things.

¹⁶We did not follow cleverly invented stories when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eye-witnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷For he received honour and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased."^a ¹⁸We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain.

¹⁹And we have the word of the prophets made more certain, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. ²⁰Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation.

²¹ For prophecy never had its origin in the human will, but prophets, though human, spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

False Teachers and Their Destruction

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them—bringing swift destruction on themselves. ² Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the way of truth into disrepute. ³ In their greed these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping.

⁴ For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but sent them to hell,^a putting them into gloomy dungeons^b to be held for judgment; ⁵ if he did not spare the ancient world when he brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others; ⁶ if he condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, and made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly; ⁷ and if he rescued Lot, a righteous man, who was distressed by the filthy lives of the lawless^c (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard)—⁸ if this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to hold the unrighteous for the day of judgment, while continuing their punishment.^c ¹⁰ This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire of the sinful nature^d and despise authority.

Bold and arrogant, they are not afraid to slander celestial beings; ¹¹ yet even angels, although they are stronger and more powerful, do not bring slanderous accusations against such beings in the presence of the Lord. ¹² But these people blaspheme in matters they do not understand.

They are like brute beasts, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like beasts they too will perish.

¹³ They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, revelling in their pleasures while they feast with you.^e ¹⁴ With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce the unstable; they are experts in greed—an accursed brood! ¹⁵ They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness. ¹⁶ But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—a beast without speech—who spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

¹⁷ These people are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them. ¹⁸ For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to the lustful desires of sinful human nature, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error. ¹⁹ They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity—for people are slaves to whatever has mastered them. ²⁰ If they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning. ²¹ It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them. ²² Of them the proverbs are true: "A dog returns to its vomit,"^f and, "A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud."

The Day of the LORD

3 Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. I have written both of them as reminders to stimulate you to wholesome thinking. ² I want you to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command given by our Lord and Saviour through your apostles.

^a4 Greek Tartarus ^b4 Some manuscripts into chains of darkness

³First of all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires. ⁴They will say, "Where is this 'coming' he promised? Ever since our ancestors died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation." ⁵But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water. ⁶By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed. ⁷By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

⁸But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day. ⁹The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.^a

¹¹Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives ¹²as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming.^b That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat. ¹³But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness.

¹⁴So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him. ¹⁵Bear in mind that our Lord's patience means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom that God gave him. ¹⁶He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort, as they do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

¹⁷Therefore, dear friends, since you already know this, be on your guard so that you may not be carried away by the error of the lawless and fall from your secure position. ¹⁸But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever! Amen.

The Word of Life

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched—this we proclaim concerning the Word of life. ²The life appeared; we have seen it and testify to it, and we proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and has appeared to us. ³We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. ⁴We write this to make our^a joy complete.

Walking in the Light

⁵This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you: God is light; in him there is no darkness at all. ⁶If we claim to have fellowship with him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not live by the truth. ⁷But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, purifies us from all^b sin.

⁸If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives.

2 My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defence—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. ²He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for⁴ the sins of the whole world.

³We know that we have come to know him if we obey his commands. ⁴Those who say, “I know him,” but do not do what he commands are liars, and the truth is not in them. ⁵But if anyone obeys his word, God’s love^b is truly made complete in that person. This is how we know we are in him: ⁶Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.

⁷Dear friends, I am not writing you a new command but an old one, which you have had since the beginning. This old command is the message you have heard. ⁸Yet I am writing you a new command; its truth is seen in him and you, because the darkness is passing and the true light is already shining.

⁹Those who claim to be in the light but hate a brother or sister are still in the darkness. ¹⁰Those who love their brothers and sisters live in the light, and there is nothing in them^c to make them stumble. ¹¹But those who hate a brother or sister are in the darkness and walk around in the darkness; they do not know where they are going, because the darkness has blinded them.

¹²I write to you, dear children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of his name.

I write to you, young people,

Do Not Love the World

¹⁵Do not love the world or anything in the world. If you love the world, the love of the Father is not in you. ¹⁶For everything in the world—the cravings of sinful people, the lust of their eyes and the boasting of what they have and do—comes not from the Father but from the world. ¹⁷The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives for ever.

Warning Against Antichrists

¹⁸Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know it is the last hour. ¹⁹They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us; but their going showed that none of them belonged to us.

²⁰But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the truth.^d ²¹I do not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it and because no lie comes from the truth. ²²Who is the liar? It is whoever denies that Jesus is the Christ. Such a person is the antichrist—denying the Father and the Son. ²³No-one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

²⁴See that what you have heard from the beginning remains in you. If it does, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵And this is what he promised us—even eternal life.

²⁶I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to lead you astray. ²⁷As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit—just as it has taught you, remain in him.

Children of God

²⁸And now, dear children, continue in him, so that when he appears we may be confident and unashamed before him at his coming.

²⁹If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who does what is right has been born of him.

3 How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when he appears,^a we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. ³All who have this hope in them purify themselves, just as he is pure.

⁴Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness. ⁵But you know that he appeared so that he might take away our sins. And in him is no sin. ⁶No-one who lives in him keeps on sinning. No-one who continues to sin has either seen him or known him.

⁷Dear children, do not let anyone lead you astray. The one who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous. ⁸The one who does what is sinful is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work. ⁹Those who are born of God will not continue to sin, because God's seed remains in them; they cannot go on sinning, because they have been born of God.¹⁰ This is how we know who the children of God are and who the children of the devil are: Those who do not do what is right are not God's children; nor are those who do not love their brothers and sisters.

^{d20} Some manuscripts and you know all things ^{a2} Or when it is made known

Love One Another

¹¹This is the message you heard from the beginning: We should love one another. ¹²Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own actions were evil and his brother's were righteous. ¹³Do not be surprised, my brothers and sisters, if the world hates you. ¹⁴We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love each other. Anyone who does not love remains in death. ¹⁵Anyone who hates a brother or sister is a murderer, and you know that no murderers have eternal life in them.

¹⁶This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for one another. ¹⁷If anyone of you has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in you? ¹⁸Dear children, let us not love with words or tongue but with actions and in truth. ¹⁹This then is how we know that we belong to the truth, and how we set our hearts at rest in his presence ²⁰whenever our hearts condemn us. For God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

²¹Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God ²²and receive from him anything we ask, because we obey his commands and do what pleases him. ²³And this is his command: to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us. ²⁴Those who obey his commands live in him, and he in them. And this is how we know that he lives in us: We know it by the Spirit he gave us.

Test the Spirits

4 Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. ²This is how you can recognise the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, ³but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the anti-christ, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world.

⁴You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. ⁵They are from the world and therefore speak from the viewpoint of the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶We are from God, and whoever knows God listens to us; but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. This is how we recognise the Spirit^a of truth and the spirit of falsehood.

God's Love and Ours

⁷Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. ⁹This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son^b into the world that we might live through him. ¹⁰This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for^c our sins. ¹¹Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No-one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.

¹³We know that we live in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world. ¹⁵If any acknowledge that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in them and they in God. ¹⁶And so we know and rely on the love God has for us.

^a6 Or spirit ^b9 Or his only begotten Son ^c10 Or as the one who would turn aside his wrath, taking away

God is love. Those who live in love live in God, and God in them. ¹⁷In this way, love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment, because in this world we are like him. ¹⁸There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.

¹⁹We love because he first loved us. ²⁰If we say we love God yet hate a brother or sister, we are liars. For any of us who do not love a brother or sister, whom we have seen, cannot love God, whom we have not seen. ²¹And he has given us this command: Those who love God must also love one another.

Faith in the Son of God

5 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the father loves his child as well. ²This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands. ³This is love for God: to obey his commands. And his commands are not burdensome, ⁴for everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. ⁵Who is it that overcomes the world? Only the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

⁶This is the one who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three that testify: ⁸the^a Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement. ⁹We accept human testimony, but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God, which he has given about his Son. ¹⁰Those who believe in the Son of God have this testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe God have made him out to be a liar, because they have not believed the testimony God has given about his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. ¹²Those who have the Son have life; those who do not have the Son of God do not have life.

Concluding remarks

¹³I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life. ¹⁴This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. ¹⁵And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.

¹⁶If you see your brother or sister commit a sin that does not lead to death, you should pray and God will give them life. I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that you should pray about that. ¹⁷All wrongdoing is sin, and there is sin that does not lead to death.

¹⁸We know that those who are born of God do not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps them safe, and the evil one cannot harm them. ¹⁹We know that we are children of God, and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one. ²⁰We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true. And we are in him who is true—even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

²¹Dear children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John

¹The elder,

To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in the truth—and not I only, but also all who know the truth—²because of the truth, which lives in us and will be with us for ever:

³Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Father's Son, will be with us in truth and love.

⁴It has given me great joy to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as the Father commanded us. ⁵And now, dear lady, I am not writing you a new command but one we have had from the beginning. I ask that we love one another. ⁶And this is love: that we walk in obedience to his commands. As you have heard from the beginning, his command is that you walk in love.

⁷Many deceivers, who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh, have gone out into the world. Any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸Watch out that you do not lose what you have worked for, but that you may be rewarded fully. ⁹Anyone who runs ahead and does not continue in the teaching of Christ does not have God; whoever continues in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not take them into your house or welcome them. ¹¹Anyone who welcomes them shares in their wicked work.

¹²I have much to write to you, but I do not want to use paper and ink. Instead, I hope to visit you and talk with you face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

¹³The children of your chosen sister send their greetings.

3 John

¹The elder,

To my dear friend Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

²Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health and that all may go well with you, even as your soul is getting along well. ³It gave me great joy to have some believers come and tell about your faithfulness to the truth and how you continue to walk in the truth. ⁴I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

⁵Dear friend, you are faithful in what you are doing for the believers, even though they are strangers to you. ⁶They have told the church about your love. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. ⁷It was for the sake of the Name that they went out, receiving no help from the pagans. ⁸We ought therefore to show hospitality to such people so that we may work together for the truth.

⁹I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first, will have nothing to do with us. ¹⁰So if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing, gossiping maliciously about us. Not satisfied with that, he refuses to welcome other believers. He also stops those who want to do so and puts them out of the church.

¹¹Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. Anyone who does what is good is from God. Anyone who does what is evil has not seen God. ¹²Demetrius is well spoken of by everyone—and even by the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.

¹³I have much to write to you, but I do not want to do so with pen and ink. ¹⁴I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.

Peace to you. The friends here send their greetings. Greet the friends there by name.

Jude

¹ Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James,

To those who have been called, who are loved by God the Father and kept by^a Jesus Christ:

² Mercy, peace and love be yours in abundance.

The Sin and Doom of Godless Men

³ Dear friends, although I was very eager to write to you about the salvation we share, I felt I had to write and urge you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints. ⁴ For certain persons whose condemnation was written about^b long ago have secretly slipped in among you. They are godless people, who change the grace of our God into a licence for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord.

⁵ Though you already know all this, I want to remind you that the Lord^c delivered his people out of Egypt, but later destroyed those who did not believe.

⁶ And the angels who did not keep their positions of authority but abandoned their own home—these he has kept in darkness, bound with everlasting chains for judgment on the great Day. ⁷ In a similar way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire.

⁸ In the very same way, these dreamers pollute their own bodies, reject authority and slander celestial beings. ⁹ But even the archangel Michael, when he was disputing with the devil about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring a slanderous accusation against him, but said, “The Lord rebuke you!” ¹⁰ Yet these people speak abusively against whatever they do not understand; and what things they do understand by instinct, like unreasoning animals—these are the very things that destroy them.

¹¹ Woe to them! They have taken the way of Cain; they have rushed for profit into Balaam’s error; they have been destroyed in Korah’s rebellion.

¹² These people are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest qualm—shepherds who feed only themselves. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind; autumn trees, without fruit and uprooted—twice dead.

¹³ They are wild waves of the sea, foaming up their shame; wandering stars, for whom blackest darkness has been reserved for ever.

¹⁴ Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about them: “See, the Lord is coming with thousands upon thousands of his holy ones ¹⁵ to judge everyone, and to convict all the ungodly of all the ungodly acts they have done in the ungodly way, and of all the harsh words ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” ¹⁶ These people are grumblers and fault-finders; they follow their own evil desires; they boast

^{a1} Or for; or in ^{b4} Or men who were marked out for condemnation ^{c5} Some early manuscripts Jesus about themselves and flatter others for their own advantage.

A Call to Persevere

¹⁷But, dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ foretold. ¹⁸They said to you, "In the last times there will be scoffers who will follow their own ungodly desires." ¹⁹These are the people who divide you, who follow mere natural instincts and do not have the Spirit.

²⁰But you, dear friends, build yourselves up in your most holy faith and pray in the Holy Spirit. ²¹Keep yourselves in God's love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life.

²²Be merciful to those who doubt; ²³snatch others from the fire and save them; to others show mercy, mixed with fear—hating even the clothing stained by corrupted flesh.

Doxology

²⁴To him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you before his glorious presence without fault and with great joy—²⁵to the only God our Saviour be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and for evermore! Amen.

Revelation

Prologue

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, ²who testifies to everything he saw—that is, the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. ³Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear it and take to heart what is written in it, because the time is near.

Greetings and Doxology

⁴John,

To the seven churches in the province of Asia:

Grace and peace to you from him who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits^a before his throne, ⁵and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, ⁶and has made us to be a kingdom and priests to serve his God and Father—to him be glory and power for ever and ever! Amen.

⁷Look, he is coming with the clouds,
and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him;
and all the peoples of the earth
will mourn because of him.
So shall it be! Amen.

⁸“I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.”

One Like a Son of Man

⁹I, John, your brother and companion in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance that are ours in Jesus, was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁰On the Lord's Day I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, ¹¹which said: “Write on a scroll what you see and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea.”

¹²I turned round to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³and among the lampstands was someone “like a son of man”,^b dressed in a robe reaching down to his feet and with a golden sash round his chest. ¹⁴His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like blazing fire. ¹⁵His feet were like bronze glowing in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of rushing waters. ¹⁶In his right hand he held seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp double-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining in all its brilliance.

¹⁷When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. Then he placed his right hand on me and said: “Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. ¹⁸I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am

^a4 Or the sevenfold Spirit ^b13 Daniel 7:13

alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades.

¹⁹“Write, therefore, what you have seen, what is now and what will take place later. ²⁰The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels^c of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

To the Church in Ephesus

2 “To the angel^d of the church in Ephesus write:

These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands: ²¹I know your deeds, your hard work and your perseverance. I know that you cannot tolerate wicked people, that you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not, and have found them false. ³You have persevered and have endured hardships for my name, and have not grown weary.

⁴Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken your first love. ⁵Remember the height from which you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. ⁶But you have this in your favour: You hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

⁷Those who have ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To those who overcome, I will give the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the paradise of God.

To the Church in Smyrna

⁸“To the angel of the church in Smyrna write:

These are the words of him who is the First and the Last, who died and came to life again. ⁹I know your afflictions and your poverty—yet you are rich! I know the slander of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison to test you, and you will suffer persecution for ten days. Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life.

¹¹Those who have ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. Those who overcome will not be hurt at all by the second death.

To the Church in Pergamum

¹²“To the angel of the church in Pergamum write:

These are the words of him who has the sharp, double-edged sword. ¹³I know where you live—where Satan has his throne. Yet you remain true to my name. You did not renounce your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness, who was put to death in your city—where Satan lives.

¹⁴Nevertheless, I have a few things against you: You have people there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to entice the Israelites to sin by eating food sacrificed to idols and by committing sexual immorality. ¹⁵Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. ¹⁶Repent therefore! Otherwise, I will soon come to you and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

¹⁷Those who have ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To those who overcome, I will give some of the hidden manna. I will also give each of them a white stone with a new name written on it, known only to the one who receives it.

^c20 Or messengers ^d1 Or messenger; also in verses 8, 12 and 18

To the Church in Thyatira

¹⁸“To the angel of the church in Thyatira write:

These are the words of the Son of God, whose eyes are like blazing fire and whose feet are like burnished bronze. ¹⁹I know your deeds, your love and faith, your service and perseverance, and that you are now doing more than you did at first.

²⁰Nevertheless, I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophet. By her teaching she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols. ²¹I have given her time to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling. ²²So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. ²³I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds. ²⁴Now I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, to you who do not hold to her teaching and have not learned Satan's so-called deep secrets (I will not impose any other burden on you): ²⁵Only hold on to what you have until I come.

²⁶To those who overcome and do my will to the end, I will give authority over the nations—

²⁷“They will rule them with an iron sceptre;
they will dash them to pieces like pottery”^b—

just as I have received authority from my Father. ²⁸I will also give them the morning star. ²⁹Those who have ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

To the Church in Sardis

3 “To the angel^a of the church in Sardis write:

These are the words of him who holds the seven spirits^b of God and the seven stars. I know your deeds; you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. ²Wake up! Strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of my God. ³Remember, therefore, what you have received and heard; obey it, and repent. But if you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what time I will come to you.

⁴Yet you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes. They will walk with me, dressed in white, for they are worthy. ⁵Those who overcome will, like them, be dressed in white. I will never blot out their names from the book of life, but will acknowledge their names before my Father and his angels. ⁶Those who have ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

To the Church in Philadelphia

⁷“To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write:

These are the words of him who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no-one can shut, and what he shuts no-one can open. ⁸I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no-one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. ⁹I will make those who are of the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews though they are not, but are liars—I will make them come and fall down at your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you.

^{b27} Psalm 2:9 ^{a1} Or messenger; also in verses 7 and 14

^{b1} Or the sevenfold Spirit

¹⁰Since you have kept my command to endure patiently, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is going to come upon the whole world to test those who live on the earth.

¹¹I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no-one will take your crown. ¹²Those who overcome I will make pillars in the temple of my God. Never again will they leave it. I will write on them the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which is coming down out of heaven from my God; and I will also write on them my new name. ¹³Those who have ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

To the Church in Laodicea

¹⁴"To the angel of the church in Laodicea write:

These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the ruler of God's creation. ¹⁵I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! ¹⁶So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth. ¹⁷You say, 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and do not need a thing.' But you do not realise that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked. ¹⁸I counsel you to buy from me gold refined in the fire, so that you can become rich; and white clothes to wear, so that you can cover your shameful nakedness; and salve to put on your eyes, so that you can see.

¹⁹Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest, and repent. ²⁰Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with them, and they with me.

²¹To those who overcome, I will give the right to sit with me on my throne, just as I overcame and sat down with my Father on his throne.

²²Those who have ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Throne in Heaven

4 After this I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had first heard speaking to me like a trumpet said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this."² At once I was in the Spirit, and there before me was a throne in heaven with someone sitting on it. ³And the one who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian. A rainbow, resembling an emerald, encircled the throne. ⁴Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on them were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white and had crowns of gold on their heads. ⁵From the throne came flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder. Before the throne, seven lamps were blazing. These are the seven spirits^a of God. ⁶Also before the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal.

In the centre, around the throne, were four living creatures, and they were covered with eyes, in front and behind. ⁷The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a human being, the fourth was like a flying eagle. ⁸Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under his wings. Day and night they never stop saying:

"Holy, holy, holy
is the Lord God Almighty,
who was, and is, and is to come."

⁹Whenever the living creatures give glory, honour and thanks to him who sits on the throne and who lives for ever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives for ever and ever. They lay their crowns before the throne and say:

^a5 Or the sevenfold Spirit

¹¹“You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and
power,
for you created all things,
and by your will they were created and have their being.”

The Scroll and the Lamb

5 Then I saw in the right hand of him who sat on the throne a scroll with writing on both sides and sealed with seven seals. ²And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?” ³But no-one in heaven or on earth or under the earth could open the scroll or even look inside it. ⁴I wept and wept because no-one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. ⁵Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep! See, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

⁶Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the centre of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits^a of God sent out into all the earth. ⁷He came and took the scroll from the right hand of him who sat on the throne. ⁸And when he had taken it, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹And they sang a new song:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals,
because you were slain,
and with your blood you purchased for God
members of every tribe and language and people and nation.

¹⁰You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God,
and they will reign on the earth.”

¹¹Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels, numbering thousands upon thousands, and ten thousand times ten thousand. They encircled the throne and the living creatures and the elders. ¹²In a loud voice they sang:

“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and praise!”

¹³Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all that is in them, singing:

“To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb
be praise and honour and glory and
power,
for ever and ever!”

¹⁴The four living creatures said, “Amen”, and the elders fell down and worshipped.

The Seals

6 I watched as the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals. Then I heard one of the four living creatures say in a voice like thunder, “Come!” ²I looked, and there before me was a white horse! Its rider held a bow, and he was given a crown, and he rode out as a conqueror bent on conquest.

³When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come!” ⁴Then another horse came out, a fiery red one. Its rider was given power to take peace from the earth and to make people slay each other. To him was given a large sword.

⁵When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!” I looked, and there before me was a black horse! Its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures, saying, “A quart^a of wheat for a day’s wages,^b and three quarts of barley for a day’s wages,^b and do not damage the oil and the wine!”

⁷When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living

^a6 Or the sevenfold Spirit

^a6 Greek a choinix (probably about a litre)

^b6 Greek a denarius

creature say, "Come!" ⁸I looked, and there before me was a pale horse! Its rider was named Death, and Hades was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth to kill by sword, famine and plague, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

⁹When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and the testimony they had maintained. ¹⁰They called out in a loud voice, "How long, Sovereign Lord, holy and true, until you judge the inhabitants of the earth and avenge our blood?" ¹¹Then each of them was given a white robe, and they were told to wait a little longer, until the number of their fellow-servants and brothers and sisters who were to be killed as they had been was completed.

¹²I watched as he opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair, the whole moon turned blood red, ¹³and the stars in the sky fell to earth, as late figs drop from a fig-tree when shaken by a strong wind. ¹⁴The sky receded like a scroll, rolling up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

¹⁵Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty, and everyone, slave and free, hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶They called to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!" ¹⁷For the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?"

144,000 Sealed

7 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth to prevent any wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. ²Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: ³"Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." ⁴Then I heard the number of those who were sealed: 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel.

⁵From the tribe of Judah 12,000 were sealed,
from the tribe of Reuben 12,000,
from the tribe of Gad 12,000, ⁶from the tribe of Asher 12,000,
from the tribe of Naphtali 12,000,
from the tribe of Manasseh 12,000, ⁷from the tribe of Simeon 12,000,
from the tribe of Levi 12,000,
from the tribe of Issachar 12,000, ⁸from the tribe of Zebulun 12,000,
from the tribe of Joseph 12,000,
from the tribe of Benjamin 12,000.

The Great Multitude in White Robes

⁹After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no-one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰And they cried out in a loud voice:

"Salvation belongs to our God,
who sits on the throne,
and to the Lamb."

¹¹All the angels were standing round the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, ¹²saying:

"Amen!
Praise and glory
and wisdom and thanks and honour and power and strength
be to our God for ever and ever.
Amen!"

¹³Then one of the elders asked me, "These in white robes—who are they, and where did they come from?"

¹⁴I answered, "Sir, you know."

And he said, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵Therefore,

“they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple;

and he who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

¹⁶Never again will they hunger;
never again will they thirst.

The sun will not beat upon them,
nor any scorching heat.

¹⁷For the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd;
he will lead them to springs of living
water.

And God will wipe away every tear
from their eyes.”

The Seventh Seal and the Golden Censer

8 When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

²And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

³Another angel, who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense to offer, with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar before the throne. ⁴The smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, went up before God from the angel's hand. ⁵Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it on the earth; and there came peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

The Trumpets

⁶Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them.

⁷The first angel sounded his trumpet, and there came hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was hurled down upon the earth. A third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

⁸The second angel sounded his trumpet,
and something like a huge mountain,
all ablaze, was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned into blood, ⁹a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star, blazing like a torch, fell from the sky on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water—¹¹the name of the star is Wormwood. ⁴A third of the waters turned bitter, and many people died from the waters that had become bitter.

¹²The fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them turned dark. A third of the day was without light, and also a third of the night.

¹³As I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying in mid-air call out in a loud voice: “Woe! Woe! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the other three angels!”

9 The fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth. The star was given the key to the shaft of the Abyss. ²When
he opened the Abyss, smoke rose from it like the smoke from a gigantic furnace.
The sun and sky were darkened by the smoke from the Abyss. ³And out of the smoke locusts came down upon the earth and were given power like that of scorpions of the earth. ⁴They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads.
⁵They were not given power to kill them,
but only to torture them for five months.
And the agony they suffered was like that of the sting of a scorpion when it strikes someone. ⁶During those days people will seek death, but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will elude them.

⁷The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore something like crowns of gold, and their faces resembled human faces. ⁸Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth

⁴¹¹ That is, Bitterness

were like lions' teeth. ⁹They had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the thundering of many horses and chariots rushing into battle. ¹⁰They had tails and stings like scorpions, and in their tails they had power to torment people for five months. ¹¹They had as king over them the angel of the Abyss, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek, Apollyon.^a ¹²The first woe is past; two other woes are yet to come.

¹³The sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice coming from the horns^b of the golden altar that is before God. ¹⁴It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

¹⁵And the four angels who had been kept ready for this very hour and day and month and year were released to kill a third of the world's people. ¹⁶The number of the mounted troops was two hundred million. I heard their number.

¹⁷The horses and riders I saw in my vision looked like this: Their breastplates were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulphur. The heads of the horses resembled the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke and sulphur. ¹⁸A third of the people were killed by the three plagues of fire, smoke and sulphur that came out of their mouths. ¹⁹The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails were like snakes, having heads with which they inflict injury.

²⁰The rest of the people that were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the work of their hands; they did not stop worshipping demons, and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood—idols that cannot see or hear or walk. ²¹Nor did they repent of their murders, their magic arts, their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

10 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven. He was robed in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head; his face was like the sun, and his legs were like fiery pillars. ²He was holding a little scroll, which lay open in his hand. He planted his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, ³and he gave a loud shout like the roar of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of the seven thunders spoke. ⁴And when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said and do not write it down."

⁵Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven. ⁶And he swore by him who lives for ever and ever, who created the heavens and all that is in them, the earth and all that is in it, and the sea and all that is in it, and said, "There will be no more delay! ⁷But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be accomplished, just as he announced to his servants the prophets."

⁸Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me once more: "Go, take the scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

⁹So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take it and eat it. It will turn your stomach sour, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey." ¹⁰I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned sour. ¹¹Then I was told, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages and kings."

The Two Witnesses

11 I was given a reed like a measuring rod and was told, "Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, and count the worshippers there. ²But exclude the outer court; do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles. They will trample on the holy city for 42 months. ³And I will give power to my two ^a11 Abaddon and Apollyon mean Destroyer.

^b13 That is, projections

witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth." ⁴These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth. ⁵If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies. This is how anyone who wants to harm them must die. ⁶They have power to shut up the sky so that it will not rain during the time they are prophesying; and they have power to turn the waters into blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they want.

⁷Now when they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the Abyss will attack them, and overpower and kill them. ⁸Their bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which is figuratively called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. ⁹For three and a half days people from every race, tribe, language and nation will gaze on their bodies and refuse them burial. ¹⁰The inhabitants of the earth will gloat over them and will celebrate by sending each other gifts, because these two prophets had tormented those who live on earth.

¹¹But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and terror struck those who saw them. ¹²Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies looked on.

¹³At that very hour there was a severe earthquake and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴The second woe has passed; the third woe is coming soon.

The Seventh Trumpet

¹⁵The seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, which said:

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign for ever and ever."

¹⁶And the twenty-four elders, who were seated on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshipped God, ¹⁷saying:

"We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty,
the One who is and who was,
because you have taken your great power
and have begun to reign.

¹⁸The nations were angry;
and your wrath has come.
The time has come for judging the dead,
and for rewarding your servants the prophets and your saints and those who reverence your name,
both small and great—
and for destroying those who destroy
the earth."

¹⁹Then God's temple in heaven was opened, and within his temple was seen the ark of his covenant. And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake and a great hailstorm.

The Woman and the Dragon

12 A great and wondrous sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head.

²She was pregnant and cried out in pain as she was about to give birth. ³Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on his heads. ⁴His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child the moment it was born. ⁵She gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron sceptre. And her child was snatched up to God and to his throne. ⁶The woman fled into the desert to a place prepared for her by God, where she might be taken care of for 1,260 days.

⁷ And there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. ⁸ But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. ⁹ The great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

“Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.
For the accuser of our brothers and sisters,
who accuses them before our God day and night,
has been hurled down.

¹¹ They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.

¹² Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them!
But woe to the earth and the sea,
because the devil has gone down to you!
He is filled with fury,
because he knows that his time is short.”

¹³ When the dragon saw that he had been hurled to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. ¹⁴ The woman was given the two wings of a great eagle, so that she might fly to the place prepared for her in the desert, where she would be taken care of for a time, times and half a time, out of the serpent's reach. ¹⁵ Then from his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river, to overtake the woman and sweep her away with the torrent. ¹⁶ But the earth helped the woman by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that the dragon had spewed out of his mouth. ¹⁷ Then the dragon was enraged at the woman and went off to make war against the rest of her offspring—those who obey God's commandments and hold to the testimony of Jesus. ¹ And the dragon^a stood on the shore of the sea.

The Beast out of the Sea

And I saw a beast coming out of the sea. He had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on his horns, and on each head a blasphemous name. ² The beast I saw resembled a leopard, but had feet like those of a bear and a mouth like that of a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority. ³ One of the heads of the beast seemed to have had a fatal wound, but the fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was astonished and followed the beast. ⁴ People worshipped the dragon because he had given authority to the beast, and they also worshipped the beast and asked, “Who is like the beast? Who can make war against him?”

⁵ The beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise his authority for forty-two months. ⁶ He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander his name and his dwelling-place and those who live in heaven. ⁷ He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. ⁸ All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb that was slain from the creation of the world.^b

⁹ Those who have ears, let them hear.

¹⁰ If any are to go into captivity, into captivity they will go.

If any are to be killed^c with the sword, with the sword they will be killed.

This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness on the part of the saints.

The Beast out of the Earth

¹¹Then I saw another beast, coming out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon. ¹²He exercised all the authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed. ¹³And he performed great and miraculous signs, even causing fire to come down from heaven to earth in full view of all people. ¹⁴Because of the signs he was given power to do on behalf of the first beast, he deceived the inhabitants of the earth. He ordered them to set up an image in honour of the beast who was wounded by the sword and yet lived. ¹⁵He was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that it could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed. ¹⁶He also forced everyone, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, ¹⁷so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark, which is the name of the beast or the number of his name.

¹⁸This calls for wisdom. Let those who have insight calculate the number of the beast, for it is humanity's number. The number is 666.

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, standing on Mount Zion, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. ²And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and like a loud peal of thunder. The sound I heard was like that of harpists playing their harps. ³And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No-one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. ⁴These are those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from among the human race and offered as firstfruits to God and the Lamb. ⁵No lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless.

The Three Angels

⁶Then I saw another angel flying in mid-air, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language and people. ⁷He said in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea and the springs of water."

⁸A second angel followed and said, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries."

⁹A third angel followed them and said in a loud voice: "If any worship the beast and his image and receive his mark on the forehead or on the hand, ¹⁰they, too, will drink of the wine of God's fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. They will be tormented with burning sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. ¹¹And the smoke of their torment rises for ever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image, or for anyone who receives the mark of his name." ¹²This calls for patient endurance on the part of the saints who obey God's commandments and remain faithful to Jesus.

¹³Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

"Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labour, for their deeds will follow them."

The Harvest of the Earth

¹⁴I looked, and there before me was a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was one "like a son of man"^a with a crown of gold on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. ¹⁵Then another angel came out of the temple and called in a loud voice to him who was sitting on the cloud, "Take your sickle and reap, because the time to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is ripe." ¹⁶So he who was seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

¹⁷Another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸Still another angel, who had charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, "Take your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the earth's vine, because its grapes are ripe." ¹⁹The angel swung his sickle on the earth, gathered its grapes and threw them into the great winepress of God's wrath. ²⁰They were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed out of the press, rising as high as the horses' bridles for a distance of 1,600 stadia.^b

Seven Angels With Seven Plagues

15 I saw in heaven another great and marvellous sign: seven angels with the seven last plagues—last, because with them God's wrath is completed. ²And I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire and, standing beside the sea, those who had been victorious over the beast and his image and over the number of his name. They held harps given them by God ³and sang the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb:

"Great and marvellous are your deeds,

Lord God Almighty.

Just and true are your ways,

King of the ages.

⁴Who will not fear you, O Lord,
and bring glory to your name?

For you alone are holy.

All nations will come

and worship before you,

for your righteous acts have been revealed."

⁵After this I looked and in heaven the temple, that is, the tabernacle of the Testimony, was opened. ⁶Out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues. They were dressed in clean, shining linen and wore golden sashes round their chests. ⁷Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God, who lives for ever and ever. ⁸And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from his power, and no-one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

The Seven Bowls of God's Wrath

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go, pour out the seven bowls of God's wrath on the earth."

²The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land, and ugly and painful sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshipped his image.

³The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a dead person, and every living thing in the sea died.

⁴The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. ⁵Then I heard the angel in charge of the waters say:

"You are just in these judgments,
you who are and who were, the Holy One,

because you have so judged;

⁶for they have shed the blood of your saints and prophets,

and you have given them blood to drink as they deserve."

⁷And I heard the altar respond:

"Yes, Lord God Almighty,
true and just are your judgments."

⁸The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and the sun was given power to scorch people with fire. ⁹They were seared by the intense heat and they cursed the name of God, who had control over

^{b20} That is, about 180 miles (about 300 kilometres)

these plagues, but they refused to repent and glorify him.

¹⁰The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in agony ¹¹and cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, but they refused to repent of what they had done.

¹²The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up to prepare the way for the kings from the East. ¹³Then I saw three evil^a spirits that looked like frogs; they came out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet. ¹⁴They are spirits of demons performing miraculous signs, and they go out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them for the battle on the great day of God Almighty.

¹⁵"Behold, I come like a thief! Blessed are those who stay awake and keep their clothes with them, so that they may not go naked and be shamefully exposed."

¹⁶Then they gathered the kings together to the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

¹⁷The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and out of the temple came a loud voice from the throne, saying, "It is done!" ¹⁸Then there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder and a severe earthquake. No earthquake like it has ever occurred since the human race has been on earth, so tremendous was the quake. ¹⁹The great city split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. God remembered Babylon the Great and gave her the cup filled with the wine of the fury of his wrath. ²⁰Every island fled away and the mountains could not be found. ²¹From the sky huge hailstones of about a hundred pounds each fell upon people. And they cursed God on account of the plague of hail, because the plague was so terrible.

The Woman on the Beast

17 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute, who sits on many waters. ²With her the kings of the earth committed adultery and the inhabitants of the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her adulteries."

³Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a desert. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and was glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls. She held a golden cup in her hand, filled with abominable things and the filth of her adulteries. ⁵This title was written on her forehead:

MYSTERY

BABYLON THE GREAT

THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES

AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

⁶I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of those who bore testimony to Jesus.

When I saw her, I was greatly astonished. ⁷Then the angel said to me: "Why are you astonished? I will explain to you the mystery of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and ten horns. ⁸The beast, which you saw, once was, now is not, and will come up out of the Abyss and go to his destruction. The inhabitants of the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the creation of the world will be astonished when they see the beast, because he once was, now is not, and yet will come.

⁹"This calls for a mind with wisdom. The seven heads are seven hills on which the woman sits. ¹⁰They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for a little while. ¹¹The beast who once was, and now is not, is an eighth king. He belongs to the seven and is going to his destruction.

¹²"The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but who for one hour will receive authority as kings along with the beast. ¹³They have one purpose and will give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers.”

¹⁵Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages. ¹⁶The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will bring her to ruin and leave her naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire. ¹⁷For God has put it into their hearts to accomplish his purpose by agreeing to give the beast their power to rule, until God’s words are fulfilled. ¹⁸The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

The Fall of Babylon

18 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendour. ²With a mighty voice he shouted:

“Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great!
She has become a home for demons
and a haunt for every evil^a spirit,
a haunt for every unclean and detestable bird.

³For all the nations have drunk
the maddening wine of her adulteries.
The kings of the earth committed adultery with her,
and the merchants of the earth
grew rich from her excessive luxuries.”

⁴Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

“Come out of her, my people,
so that you will not share in her
sins,
so that you will not receive any of
her plagues;

⁵for her sins are piled up to heaven,

and God has remembered her crimes.

⁶Give back to her as she has given;
pay her back double for what she
has done.

Mix her a double portion from her own cup.

⁷Give her as much torture and grief
as the glory and luxury she gave herself.

In her heart she boasts,

‘I sit as queen; I am not a widow,
and I will never mourn.’

⁸Therefore in one day her plagues will overtake her:

death, mourning and famine.

She will be consumed by fire,
for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.

⁹“When the kings of the earth who committed adultery with her and shared her luxury see the smoke of her burning,
they will weep and mourn over her. ¹⁰Ter-rified at her torment, they will stand far off and cry:

“‘Woe! Woe, O great city,
O Babylon, city of power!
In one hour your doom has come!’

¹¹“The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her because no-one buys their cargoes any more—¹²cargoes
of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls;
fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet cloth;
every sort of citron wood, and articles of every kind made of ivory, costly wood, bronze, iron and marble; ¹³cargoes of cinnamon and spice, of incense, myrrh and frankincense, of wine and olive oil, of fine
flour and wheat; cattle and sheep; horses and carriages; and slaves—human beings!

¹⁴“They will say, ‘The fruit you longed for is gone from you. All your riches and splendour have vanished, never to be recovered.’ ¹⁵The merchants who sold these things and gained their wealth from her will stand far off, terrified at her torment. They will weep and mourn ¹⁶and
cry out:

^{a2} Greek unclean

“Woe! Woe, O great city, dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet,
and glittering with gold, precious stones and pearls!

¹⁷In one hour such great wealth has been brought to ruin!

“Every sea captain, and all who travel by ship, the sailors, and all who earn their living from the sea, will stand far off.

¹⁸When they see the smoke of her burning, they will exclaim, ‘Was there ever a city like this great city?’ ¹⁹They will throw dust on their heads, and with weeping and mourning cry out:

“Woe! Woe, O great city,
where all who had ships on the sea
became rich through her wealth!
In one hour she has been brought to ruin!

²⁰Rejoice over her, O heaven!
Rejoice, saints and apostles and
prophets!

God has judged her for the way she treated you.’”

²¹Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a large millstone and threw it into the sea, and said:

“With such violence
the great city of Babylon will be thrown down,
never to be found again.

²²The music of harpists and musicians,
flute players and trumpeters,
will never be heard in you again.
No worker of any trade
will ever be found in you again.
The sound of a millstone
will never be heard in you again.

²³The light of a lamp
will never shine in you again.
The voice of bridegroom and bride
will never be heard in you again.
Your merchants were the world’s important people.

By your magic spell all the nations
were led astray.

²⁴In her was found the blood of prophets and of the saints,

and of all who have been killed on
the earth.”

Hallelujah!

19 After this I heard what sounded like the roar of a great multitude in heaven shouting:

“Hallelujah!

Salvation and glory and power belong
to our God,

²for true and just are his judgments.
He has condemned the great prostitute
who corrupted the earth by her
adulteries.

He has avenged on her the blood of his servants.”

³And again they shouted:

“Hallelujah!

The smoke from her goes up for ever and ever.”

⁴The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God, who was seated on the throne. And they cried:

“Amen, Hallelujah!”

⁵Then a voice came from the throne,
saying:

“Praise our God,
all you his servants,
you who fear him,
both small and great!”

⁶Then I heard what sounded like a great multitude, like the roar of rushing waters and like loud peals of thunder, shouting:

“Hallelujah!

For our Lord God Almighty reigns.

⁷Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory!

For the wedding of the Lamb has
come,
and his bride has made herself ready.

⁸Fine linen, bright and clean,
was given her to wear."

(Fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the saints.)

⁹Then the angel said to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding supper of the Lamb!'" And he added, "These are the true words of God."

¹⁰At this I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do it! I am a fellow-servant with you and with your brothers and sisters who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

The Rider on the White Horse

¹¹I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and makes war. ¹²His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no-one knows but he himself. ¹³He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God. ¹⁴The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. ¹⁵Out of his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. "He will rule them with an iron sceptre." ^aHe treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. ¹⁶On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

¹⁷And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in mid-air, "Come, gather together for the great supper of God, ¹⁸so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and the mighty, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great."

¹⁹Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. ²⁰But the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who had performed the miraculous signs on his behalf. With these signs he had deluded those who had received the mark of the beast and worshipped his image. The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulphur. ²¹The rest of them were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

The Thousand Years

20 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and holding in his hand a great chain. ²He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. ³He threw him into the Abyss, and locked and sealed it over him, to keep him from deceiving the nations any more until the thousand years were ended. After that, he must be set free for a short time.

⁴I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshipped the beast or his image and had not received his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵(The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him for a thousand years.

Satan's Doom

⁷When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison ⁸and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore. ⁹They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's people, the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them. ¹⁰And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulphur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

^a15 Psalm 2:9

The Dead Are Judged

¹¹Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. ¹²And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. ¹³The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and everyone was judged according to what they had done. ¹⁴Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death. ¹⁵All whose names were not found written in the book of life were thrown into the lake of fire.

The New Jerusalem

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. ²I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. ³And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with human beings, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. ⁴He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

⁵He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

⁶He said to me: "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To those who are thirsty I will give to drink without cost from the spring of the water of life. ⁷Those who overcome will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children. ⁸But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practise magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulphur. This is the second death."

⁹One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

¹⁰And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. ¹¹It shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. ¹²It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, and with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. ¹³There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west. ¹⁴The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

¹⁵The angel who talked with me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city, its gates and its walls. ¹⁶The city was laid out like a square, as long as it was wide. He measured the city with the rod and found it to be 12,000 stadia^a in length, and as wide and high as it is long. ¹⁷He measured its wall and it was 144 cubits^b thick,^c by human measurement, which the angel was using. ¹⁸The wall was made of jasper, and the city of pure gold, as pure as glass.

^a16 That is, about 1,400 miles (about 2,200 kilometres)

^c17 Or high

^b17 That is, about 200 feet (about 65 metres)

¹⁹The foundations of the city walls were decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, ²⁰the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.^d ²¹The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate made of a single pearl. The great street of the city was of pure gold, like transparent glass.

²²I did not see a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. ²³The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp. ²⁴The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendour into it. ²⁵On no day will its gates ever be shut, for there will be no night there. ²⁶The glory and honour of the nations will be brought into it. ²⁷Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

The River of Life

22 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ²down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. ³No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. ⁴They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. ⁵There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

⁶The angel said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place."

Jesus Is Coming

⁷"Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed are those who keep the words of the prophecy in this book."

⁸I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing them to me. ⁹But he said to me, "Do not do it! I am a fellow-servant with you and with your fellow prophets and of all who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

¹⁰Then he told me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near. ¹¹Let those who do wrong continue to do wrong; let those who are vile continue to be vile; let those who do right continue to do right; and let those who are holy continue to be holy."

¹²"Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to everyone according to what they have done. ¹³I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

¹⁴"Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life and may go through the gates into the city. ¹⁵Outside are the dogs, those who practise magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practises falsehood.

¹⁶"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you^a this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star."

¹⁷The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let those who hear say, "Come!" Let those who are thirsty come; and let all who wish take the free gift of the water of life.

^d20 The precise identification of some of these precious stones is uncertain.

^a16 The Greek is plural.

¹⁸I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If any one of you adds anything to them, God will add to you the plagues described in this book. ¹⁹And if any one of you takes words away from this book of prophecy, God will take away from you your share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

²⁰He who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon."

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

²¹The grace of the Lord Jesus be with God's people. Amen.

handbreadth		3 inches	8 centimetres
CAPACITY
Dry Measure
cor [homer]	(10 ephahs)	6 bushels	220 litres
letheh	(5 ephahs)	3 bushels	110 litres
ephah	(10 omers)	⅓ bushel	22 litres
seah	(⅓ ephah)	13 pints	7.3 litres
omer	(⅓ ephah)	4 pints	2 litres
cab	(⅓ ephah)	2 pints	1 litre
Liquid Measure
bath	(1 ephah)	5 gallons	22 litres
hin	(⅓ bath)	7 pints	4 litres
log	(⅓ bath)	⅓ pint	0.3 litre

The figures of the table are calculated on the basis of a shekel equalling 11.5 grams, a cubit equalling 18 inches and an ephah equalling 22 litres. It is based upon the best available information, but it is not intended to be mathematically precise; like the measurement equivalents in the footnotes, it merely gives approximate amounts and distances. Weights and measures differed somewhat at various times and places in the ancient world. There is uncertainty particularly about the ephah and the bath; further discoveries may give more light on these units of capacity.

BIBLE GUIDE

Introduction

How to use the Bible Guide

This Bible Guide is intended to help you to study and understand your Bible. You will want to refer to it from time to time whenever you study your Bible and although it can't possibly tell you all you want to know because it is a brief guide only, it will provide you with a lot of background information.

First, a word about using Bible references. What does 1 Corinthians 1:18 mean? If you look on the Contents page at the beginning of your Bible you will see the books of the Bible listed. Notice that several books have two parts: Samuel and Kings in the Old Testament for example. Corinthians is in the New Testament and so our reference is to the first book of Corinthians. After the name of the book comes the chapter of the book and then the verse – in this case, chapter one, verse eighteen.

Plan of the Bible

THE OLD TESTAMENT

The first five books ('Pentateuch')

Genesis The book of beginnings, briefly describing the creation of the world, human beings and the origin of their sinfulness. It tells how God met with Abraham and his descendants (the Patriarchs; founders of the twelve tribes of Israel), and their move into Canaan and Egypt.

Exodus It means 'going out' and tells how God called Moses to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. He gave them the Ten Commandments, the summary of God's laws for human conduct.

Leviticus A book of laws regulating Israel's worship. A key idea is 'holiness'; the rituals may seem strange today, but they stressed God's holiness and helped people relate to him.

Numbers The name comes from censuses of the Israelites. It contains more laws, and the sad story of Israel's forty years of wandering in the Sinai desert.

Deuteronomy Presented as three sermons by Moses, it recaps on Israel's history, restates the laws (the name means 'second lawgiving') and calls for obedience to God in the promised land.

The history books

Joshua How Israel invaded and subdued Canaan under Joshua's leadership (chapters 1–12) and how the land was divided among the tribes (chapters 13–24).

Judges Continues the story of the conquest; obedience of God led to success, disobedience led to defeat. The Judges (national heroes) were called by God to lead the tribes against their enemies; one of the most colourful was the strong man Samson.

Ruth A moving story of loyalty to God and family set in the time of the Judges. Ruth, a non-Israelite, was an ancestor of Jesus.

1 Samuel Named after Samuel, a prophet in the transition time between the Judges and Kings. He appointed Saul as king, who failed in his job and tried to prevent David from taking over.

2 Samuel Civil war followed Saul's death, but David united the country. David's own failings led to family and national crises.

1 Kings Tells of Solomon, David's son, who built the Temple as the focus of worship. After his death, the nation split into two, with ten northern tribes ('Israel') and two southern ('Judah'). Their stories are told together. Elijah became a key prophetic figure.

2 Kings After Elijah's death, Elisha emerged as God's spokesman. After his death, the book summarises 300 years of general spiritual decline, with occasional reforms by godly kings. Israel was finally destroyed by Assyria, and Judah by Babylon.

1 Chronicles Records many of the same events of David's life as 2 Samuel. Chapters 1–9 are detailed family records of Israel.

2 Chronicles A survey of Judah's story, covering the same period as 1 and 2 Kings, and hinting at an end to Judah's Babylonian exile.

Ezra The Jews (people of Judah) were held captive in Babylon for decades. A Persian conqueror allowed them to return home and rebuild Jerusalem and its Temple. Ezra, a legal expert, emerged to assist them. He stressed the need to maintain national identity.

Nehemiah A Jew who was a high official in Persia, he returned to Jerusalem to organise the rebuilding of the walls. Then Ezra led the people in an act of repentance and rededication. Nehemiah also instituted some social reforms.

Esther Set in the Persian court during the time of Ezra and Nehemiah. Esther, a Jew, became a Persian queen and stopped a plot to exterminate the Jews.

The poetry books

Job Job was a good man who suffered terribly. His story is in the first two and last few chapters; the rest is taken up by 'friends' who try to explain why God allows suffering. They do not satisfy Job, who eventually faces the sheer mystery and greatness of God.

Psalms Sacred songs, prayers and praises which originated in Israel's worship. Written by a number of people, they cover a full range of human emotion from anger to joy, adoration to guilt.

Proverbs The first nine chapters are the advice of a father or teacher to his son or student. The rest of the book is filled with concise sayings about morality, poverty, anger, self-control, and the way we speak. Wisdom, it says, leads to fulfilment.

Ecclesiastes Written anonymously by 'The Teacher', it examines all aspects of life from a human perspective. It concludes that everything is meaningless, but encourages enjoyment of what God has given and urges readers to respect God and obey him.

Song of Songs A poem about romantic and physical love, sometimes seen as a symbol of God's love for us. There are two speakers (the lovers) and a chorus of friends.

Books of the prophets

Isaiah Chapters 1–39 are set in the closing years of Israel, when Judah was relatively safe. Isaiah encouraged Judah to depend on God, not on alliances with other nations. Chapters 40–55 are inspiring messages showing God to be Lord of all who comforts and restores his people. The final section (56–66) balances similar messages with warnings about falling back into the old ways.

Jeremiah In the closing years of Judah, Jeremiah warned that judgment – in the form of exile to Babylon – was inevitable if the people did not turn back to God. Later he encouraged the exiles in Babylon and the people who remained with him in Judah to trust God to work his purposes out. Few believed him, and Jeremiah suffered both emotionally and physically.

Lamentations Five poems of sorrow about the devastated city of Jerusalem, possibly written by Jeremiah. The mood changes from anguish to hope in God's mercy.

Ezekiel With the keynote of God's holiness, the book is full of strange visions and symbols. Ezekiel lived among the exiles in Babylon itself. Like Jeremiah, he forecast that Jerusalem would be destroyed, then gave a message of God's comfort and a vision of the future centred on the Temple.

Daniel He too was a captive in Babylon, and was trained for its civil service. He and three friends refused to give up their Jewish faith, and were blessed for their loyalty. Chapters 7–12 contain symbolic visions about the future.

Hosea Worked in the northern kingdom shortly before its fall. Through his personal experience of a broken marriage he gained deep insight into Israel's broken relationship with God. The nation had committed spiritual adultery, yet God still loved it.

Joel A real or visionary plague of locusts symbolises the invaders God will use to punish his people. The date of Joel is uncertain. The final chapter describes a universal judgment.

Amos A farmer from Judah, he preached in Israel shortly before Hosea. He says that God will judge the northern kingdom because of social injustice and religious hypocrisy.

Obadiah The shortest Old Testament book by an unknown prophet. It focuses on the punishment of Edom, a nation to the south-east of the Dead Sea, perhaps for not aiding Judah before it fell.

Jonah God told Jonah to warn Nineveh, capital of Assyria, that he would punish it. Jonah tried to avoid the call but went there reluctantly, then became angry when the people repented. It shows that God has compassion even on Israel's enemies.

Micah Worked about the same time as Isaiah and a little after Amos and Hosea. He condemned Judah's social injustice, and the corruption of its leaders. God must punish them, but one day they will be led to restoration by a descendant of David.

Nahum A prophecy against Nineveh, capital of Assyria, for its extreme cruelty. Chapters 2 and 3 are a poem about the siege of Nineveh in 612 BC.

Habakkuk Probably written about the end of the seventh century BC, it asks why God seems to turn a blind eye to cruelty and wickedness and why he uses the wicked to punish better people. God promises that one day he will punish all oppression. The prophet trusts him.

Zephaniah He worked just before Jeremiah, and deals with God's judgment of Israel, its neighbours and the world, beyond which he sees hope for a remnant of God's people.

Haggai After the Jews had returned to Jerusalem in about 520 BC, their initial enthusiasm for rebuilding the Temple had flagged, partly because of opposition. Haggai said they had their priorities wrong, and encouraged them to put God first.

Zechariah He worked at the same time as Haggai. Chapters 1–8 encourage the Temple rebuilding in a series of visions. Chapters 9–14 look ahead to the future triumph of God and the Messiah's work.

Malachi After the time of Haggai and Zechariah things got bad again. There was corruption and hypocrisy. Malachi looks forward to a time when injustice is dealt with and God's people restored.

THE NEW TESTAMENT

The history books

Matthew The first of the three 'Synoptic' Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) telling the life of Jesus. Despite close parallels, each has its own characteristic. Matthew was written for Jewish readers, and focuses especially on what Jesus said and how he fulfilled Old Testament promises about the Messiah.

Mark Concentrates more on what Jesus did, probably for Roman readers. It does not record Jesus' birth, and the second half of chapter 16 was probably added later by the early church.

Luke Luke was also the author of Acts, and stressed Jesus' concern for the poor, the oppressed and minority groups. He also stresses prayer, the Holy Spirit and joy. The stories of Jesus' birth are unique, and there are references to secular events.

John A very different and more reflective Gospel. Jesus' miracles are called 'signs'; he speaks of 'eternal life' rather than the Kingdom; and there are no parables but several long speeches. Seven 'I am' sayings by Jesus point to him as the Son of God.

Acts By the author of Luke, it tells what happened in the first thirty years or so of the early church. Chapters 3–12 tell of the spread of the gospel across Judea and Samaria. The rest of the book tells the story of Paul and his three missionary journeys.

The letters of Paul

Romans Paul had not been to Rome when he wrote this. It is the most detailed account of his teaching that the only way to be accepted by God is to rely on what Jesus did through his death and resurrection (chapters 1–8). He hopes that the Jews will accept this (9–11), and explains how Christians should behave (12–16).

1 Corinthians Paul had visited the church in Corinth (Acts 18). It faced divisions, moral problems, personal conflicts, problems relating to life in a pagan city and to public worship, and questions about life after death. He answers each in turn.

2 Corinthians A letter responding to personal criticism of Paul and questions about his authority. It includes a financial appeal to help a group of churches facing hardship.

Galatians Possibly the first letter he wrote, with a theme similar to Romans. Some Jews felt that non-Jewish (Gentile) Christians should observe Jewish customs, but he stresses that a right relationship with God comes only through faith in Christ.

Ephesians Possibly written to several churches around Ephesus. Paul visited the city on his third journey (Acts 18:23–20:1). The theme is unity through Christ of all human classes and cultures, worked out in good relationships at church, work and home.

Philippians Paul established this church on his second journey (Acts 16:6–40); this warm, personal letter was written ten to twelve years later. It includes an important statement about Jesus' nature which shows his humility is an example to be followed (chapter 2).

Colossians The church in Colossae was founded by Epaphras, one of Paul's converts. Wrong teaching was creeping in, so Paul stresses the centrality of Jesus as both fully God and fully human, as a man. Rituals, rules and intellectual arguments are not required; right relationships are.

1 Thessalonians The church in Thessalonica was founded by Paul on his second journey (Acts 17:1-9). One of his earliest letters, it stresses his authority and deals with questions about what happens to Christians when they die, and when Jesus will return.

2 Thessalonians He clarifies his teaching on the second coming, because some had said Christ had already returned and others were saying there was no need to work because he was coming soon.

1 Timothy Paul met Timothy on his second journey (Acts 16:1-3); now the young man was leading the church in Ephesus. Paul advises him on public prayer, appointing leaders, helping widows and attitudes to slaves.

2 Timothy More personal than 1 Timothy, and written near the end of Paul's life, it encourages Timothy to stand firm on the truth.

Titus Titus was a church leader in Crete. Paul advises him on organisation, leadership, correct teaching and right attitudes.

Philemon Philemon was a church worker whose slave Onesimus had run away and been converted through Paul, who now asks Philemon to receive the slave back and forgive him.

Other New Testament writings

Hebrews The author is unknown. It was probably written to Jews, showing them that Jesus and all he has done is better than the way to God they had known before. He is greater than all created beings; his is the best and final sacrifice to take away sin. Readers are encouraged to keep faithful under pressure.

James James was probably Jesus' brother, and first leader of the Jerusalem church. Possibly the first New Testament letter to be written, it deals with practical matters of Christian behaviour, especially in relationships between rich and poor, and in speech.

1 Peter Written to Christians in the Black Sea coastal area. The theme is suffering, so its readers were probably being persecuted. They must not be surprised; Jesus suffered too. The letter includes practical advice on Christian living.

2 Peter Practical teaching on behaviour is followed by an attack on false teachers, who will be punished in the future.

1 John Probably by the same author as the next two letters and, traditionally, the Gospel of John and the book of Revelation. His readers were worried by teachers who claimed special insights. He stresses the certainty of eternal life and that the proof of faith is love.

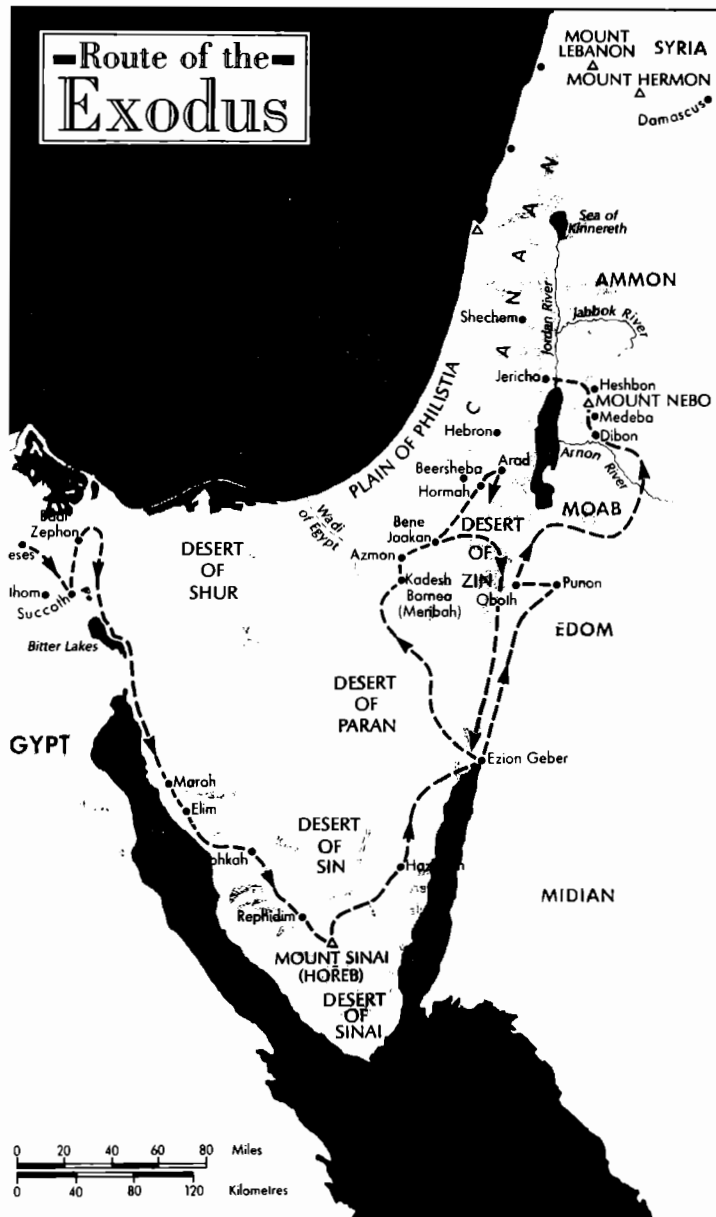

2 John Addressed to 'a chosen lady', which is probably a church. Love for God and one another is taken up again.

3 John Addressed to a man called Gaius who is praised for standing up for the truth, while one Diotrephes is setting himself up as a leader and rejecting John's representatives.

Jude Jude may have been a brother of Jesus. He condemns false teachers, describes their future punishment and tells readers to keep the original teachings.

Revelation A letter to seven churches in Asia Minor received by John in a vision from Jesus. In a following vision Jesus opens a scroll, and John then describes many symbolic events in the eternal battle between good and evil which is being fought on earth. It ends with a picture of God's new creation at the end of time.
